SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF STANISLAUS

MICHEAL BALLARD, on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated;

Plaintiff,

v.

PENINSULA PLASTICS RECYCLING,
INC., a California corporation; and DOES 1
through 100, inclusive;

Defendants.

Case No.: CV-24-006619

COMPLAINT FOR CIVIL PENALTIES
FOR VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE
§ 2698, et seq. (PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004)

1 Plaintiff MICHEAL BALLARD (“Plaintiff”) hereby submits this Complaint against
2 Defendant MICHEAL BALLARD and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive (collectively,
3 “Defendants”) as an exclusively representative action on behalf of other current and former 4 aggrieved employees of Defendants for penalties as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. This representative action is brought pursuant to Labor Code § 2698, et
7 seq. (the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”)) for Defendants’ violations of Labor
8 Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551,
9 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders. Plaintiff
10 seeks only to prosecute his non-individual PAGA claims and does not seek to prosecute any 11 individual PAGA claims against Defendants.

12 2. This Complaint challenges Defendants’ systemic illegal employment
13 practices resulting in violations of the stated provisions of the Labor Code against the identified 14 group of employees.

15 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges Defendants jointly 16 and severally acted intentionally and with deliberate indifference and conscious disregard to the 17 rights of all employees in (1) failing to properly calculate and pay all minimum and overtime 18 wages; (2) failing to pay all meal period wages and rest break wages; (3) failing to provide 19 accurate wage statements; (4) failing to pay all wages due and owing during employment and 20 upon termination of employment; and (5) failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses.

21 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22 4. This action is brought pursuant to PAGA, which deputizes any aggrieved
23 employee to prosecute Labor Code violations as a proxy, or “private attorney general,” of the 24 State of California. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits
25 of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

26 ///

27 ///

1 5. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California
2 Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all
3 causes except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is 4 brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

5 6. This Court has jurisdiction over the violations of PAGA and Labor Code
6 §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 7 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

8 7. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information
9 and belief, each party has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally
10 avails itself of California law so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California
11 courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

12 8. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, the 13 named Defendants transact business and/or have offices in the state of California, including the 14 County of Stanislaus. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff 15 took place in the State of California, County of Stanislaus. Defendants employed Plaintiff within 16 the State of California, County of Stanislaus. Moreover, this action is brought on behalf of the 17 State of California as a private attorney general and has jurisdiction in this venue.

18 PARTIES

19 9. Plaintiff MICHEAL BALLARD is an individual residing in the State of 20 California, County of Stanislaus. Plaintiff was formerly employed by Defendants.

21 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants are 22 licensed to do business and actually doing business in the State of California, including the County
23 of Stanislaus.

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and for that reason, said Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff prays for leave to amend this complaint when the true names and capacities are known. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of Defendants designated as a DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

12. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and that all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and consent of each Defendant designated herein.

13. As such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to PAGA and Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

(Against MICHEAL BALLARD and DOES 1 through 100)

14. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 13, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 15. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly
2 establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to 3 be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency
4 (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for 5 a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an 6 aggrieved employee on behalf of other current or former employees.

7 16. On November 2, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 8 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 9 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
10 is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about January 7, 2024, 11 the sixty-five (65) days’ notice period expired as to the LWDA and all Defendants, and the 12 LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Thus, Plaintiff exhausted
13 his administrative remedies.

14 17. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are 15 “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current 16 or former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants who worked for Defendants or 17 were subjected to Defendants’ illegal conduct at any time during the period from November 2, 18 2022, to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

19 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

20 18. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their 21 non-exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours 22 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 23 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

24 19. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate aggrieved
25 current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all minimum 26 wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

27 ///

1 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

2 20. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
3 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a
4 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further
5 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5)
6 hours worked.

7 21. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide aggrieved current 8 and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks and failed to pay proper 9 compensation for this failure.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

11 22. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their 12 employees within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

13 23. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved current and 14 former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time period.

15 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

16 24. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their
17 employees all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California
18 Labor Code §§ 201 to 204.

19 25. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above,
20 Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to Labor Code
21 §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

22 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

23 26. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate
24 records regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226 and 25 1174.

26 ///

27 ///

27. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

28. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

29. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved current and former employees all business expenses incurred and owing them within the required time period.

Penalties

30. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, on behalf of current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants and exclusively as a proxy of the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

3. For such other and further relief the court may deem just and proper.

Re: PENINSULA PLASTICS RECYCLING, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Micheal Ballard against Peninsula Plastics Recycling, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "PENINSULA").

Mr. Ballard is pursuing his California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Ballard may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Peninsula Plastics Recycling, Inc. is a California corporation located at 530 S. Tegner Road, Turlock, California 95380.

PENINSULA employed Mr. Ballard as an hourly-paid non-exempt Maintenance Mechanic within one year of the date of this letter (until or until around July of 2023) in the State of California. PENINSULA directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Ballard's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Mr. Ballard does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Ballard will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Ballard is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Ballard and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Mr. Ballard may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of PENINSULA within the State of California.

PENINSULA failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Ballard has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all aggrieved employees at PENINSULA, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

PENINSULA has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. PENINSULA failed to compensate Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. PENINSULA also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA failed to pay aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA routinely required Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with PENINSULA's policies and expectations and service machinery. PENINSULA failed to provide coverage to Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, PENINSULA failed to authorize and permit Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, PENINSULA failed to compensate Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." PENINSULA required aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." PENINSULA required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA failed to pay Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code sections 203 and 210.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA failed to pay Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA did not provide Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from PENINSULA were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, PENINSULA did not provide Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Ballard and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by PENINSULA, including for purchasing equipment they were required to wear and use while working and using their personal cell phones and personal vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Ballard and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Ballard will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of PENINSULA within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
