DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

2 Plaintiff REAM DIMARUCOT CLARK (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and all others
3 similarly situated, by and through her attorneys, Wilshire Law Firm, hereby files this First
4 Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint against Defendant SeeScan, Inc., a
5 California Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”), and 6 states as follows:

7 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

8 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for California Labor Code violations
9 and unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to 10 pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages); failure to provide legally 11 compliant meal periods, failure to authorize and permit legally compliant rest breaks; failure to 12 timely pay wages owed every pay period during employment; failure to timely pay all wages owed
13 upon separation of employment; failure to furnish timely, accurate itemized wage statements;
14 failure to reimburse all necessary, business-related expenses; failure to provide paid sick leave;
15 failure to keep and maintain required records; and for unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business
16 practices.

17 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eleventh Causes of Action, individually, and on 18 behalf of a Class of certain current and former employees of Defendants (collectively, the “Class”
19 or “Class Members,” defined more fully below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other
20 persons who have been employed by any Defendant in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt
21 employees during the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded herein.

22 3. Plaintiff brings the Twelfth Cause of Action as a representative action under 23 California’s Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties from 24 Defendants on behalf of herself, the State of California, and current and former hourly-paid and 25 non-exempt employees who work/worked for Defendants in the State of California during the 26 statute of limitations period for her PAGA claim (“Aggrieved Employees”).

27 4. Defendants own and operate a business within the State of California, including in 28 San Diego County. As such and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare Commission's ("IWC") Wage Orders, and the California Business & Professions Code.

5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including all minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages, in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order;
- (b) Failed to keep and maintain accurate records of all hours worked, including all meal periods taken or missed;
- (c) Failed to provide Class Members timely, full-length, and duty-free, uninterrupted meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failed to pay an additional hour of pay at the regular rate for each workday with a meal period violation;
- (d) Failed to authorize and permit Class Members to take timely, duty-free, full-length rest breaks in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order, and failed to pay an additional hour of pay at the regular rate for each workday with a rest break violation;
- (e) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary, business-related expenditures incurred in carrying out their duties of employment, as required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order;
- (f) Failed to provide Class Members with timely, accurate itemized wage statements containing all information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- (g) Failed to provide Class Members with some, but not necessarily all mandated paid sick leave; and
- (h) Willfully failed to pay Class Members all outstanding minimum wages, straight-time wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period premium wages due to each separating Class Member at the time of separation from Defendants, within the applicable time period set forth under the California Labor Code.

6. On information and belief, Defendants were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful conduct. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, acts and omissions as described in each of the foregoing paragraphs as employers of Plaintiff and Class Members. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in San Diego County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee in the position of Payroll Specialist from approximately August 2021 to March, 20 2026. Plaintiff's job responsibilities included processing payroll for company employees. Plaintiff typically worked shifts of 8 or more hours per workday and 5 days per workweek.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law, as well as to add additional claims.

B. Defendants

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant SeeScan, Inc. ("SeeScan") is a California Corporation incorporated in the State of California, with its corporate headquarters in San Diego, California located at 3855 Ruffin Road, San Diego, California 92123. SeeScan designs, engineers, and manufactures professional tools. SeeScan is at all times herein, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout this County, among others. SeeScan directed and supervised Plaintiff's work.

11. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned, were:

- (a) Business entities that design, engineer, and manufacture professional tools in San Diego County;¹
- (b) Business entities qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in San Diego County; and
- (c) The current employers of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of the Class Members because Defendants engaged Plaintiff and the Class to work; and/or suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled or had the power and authority to control the Class's wages, hours, or working conditions.

12. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts, and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

13. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants are in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

14. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and Class Members defined in the class definition below, and exercised control over Plaintiff and Class

Members' wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other defendants.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because Plaintiff brings this Complaint for various violations of the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders, Defendants are business entities operating in California, and Plaintiff is a California resident.

17. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages, penalties, and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, section 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction. Plaintiff's share of damages, penalties, and other relief sought in this action does not exceed $75,000.

18. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the County of San Diego, California.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

19. Defendants design, engineer, and manufacture professional tools.²

² Defendants own and operate a business within the State of California. As such and based on all of the facts and circumstances incident to its business in California, Defendants are subject

20. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in San Diego County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee in the position of Payroll Specialist from approximately August 2021 to March 20, 2026. Plaintiff typically worked shifts of 8 or more hours per workday and 5 days per workweek. As a Payroll Specialist, Plaintiff's job responsibilities included processing payroll for company employees.

21. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants' failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages); failure to provide legally compliant meal periods, failure to authorize and permit legally compliant rest breaks; failure to timely pay all wages owed every pay period during employment; failure to timely pay all wages owed upon separation of employment; failure to furnish timely, accurate itemized wage statements; failure to reimburse all necessary, business-related expenses; failure to provide paid sick leave; failure to keep and maintain required records; and for unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative of the class.

22. Plaintiff brings these causes of action individually, on behalf of herself, and as a class action, on behalf of certain current and former employees of Defendants (collectively, the "Class" or "Class Members," defined more fully below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

23. Defendants own and operate a business within the State of California, including in San Diego County. As such and based on all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to the Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the IWC, and the California Business & Professions Code.

24. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed to comply with the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and Class to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

Members and instead maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of committing Labor Code violations on a regular basis, including but not limited to:

- (a) Failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. For example, Defendants:
 - i. failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked and failed to pay some of this unpaid work at the overtime rate, as required; and/or
 - ii. required Plaintiff and Class Members to continue working during unpaid meal periods; and/or
 - iii. failed to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members with meal period premiums and rest break premiums for noncompliant meal periods and rest breaks.
- (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods. For example, Defendants:
 - i. required Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of five consecutive hours a workday without providing a timely 30-minute meal period; and/or
 - ii. required Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of five consecutive hours a workday without providing an uninterrupted, off-duty 30-minute meal period; and/or
 - iii. required Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of five consecutive hours a workday without providing a full-length 30-minute meal period; and/or
 - iv. failed to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members with meal period premiums for noncompliant meal periods; and/or
 - v. failed to maintain accurate records of all meal periods Plaintiff and Class Members took or did not take.
- (c) Failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take timely, duty-free rest breaks. For example, Defendants:

- i. required Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of four consecutive hours a workday without authorizing and permitting Plaintiff and Class Members to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest break for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours); and/or
- ii. failed to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members with rest-break premiums for noncompliant rest breaks; and/or
- iii. continued to assert control over Plaintiff and Class Members by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging Plaintiff and Class Members to perform work tasks for Defendants' benefit instead of authorizing and permitting Plaintiff and Class Members to take compliant full-length, off-duty rest breaks.

(d) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all necessary, business-related expenses Class Members incurred within the scope of their employment. For instance, Defendants:

- i. failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary expenses they incurred to carry out their duties, including costs for personal cell phone use.

(e) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as the legal name of the employing entity and the entity's address; meal period/rest break premiums owed; the correct total number of hours worked, including the correct overtime hours worked; the correct rates of pay for each category of hours worked (e.g., straight-time rates, overtime rates); tips, bonuses; the correct net pay and the correct gross pay, both for the pay period and year to date; and the correct calculation of the regular rate of pay for overtime hours worked.

- 1 (f) Failing to timely pay all wages owed each pay period during Plaintiff and 2 Class Members' employment.
- 3 (g) Failing to maintain required records including timekeeping and payroll
4 records. For example, Defendants:
- 5 i. failed to keep and maintain records of the correct total hours Plaintiff
6 and Class Members worked each workday and the corresponding 7 wages owed; and/or
- 8 ii. failed to keep and maintain records of Plaintiff's and Class Members' 9 correct start and stop times for their actual hours worked and meal
10 periods or lack thereof each workday; and/or
- 11 iii. failed to keep and maintain records of Plaintiff's and Class Members'
12 correct meal period premiums owed and rest break premiums owed;
13 and/or
- 14 iv. failed to keep and maintain records of Plaintiff's and Class Members' 15 correct overtime hours worked and overtime wages owed during 16 employment; and/or
- 17 v. failed to keep and maintain records of Plaintiff's and Class Members'
18 correct gross and net pay owed each pay period and year to date.

19 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages, Straight-Time Wages, and Overtime Wages

20 25. At all times relevant herein, Defendants imposed a variety of unlawful policies to 21 exclude compensable work time on the clock. In compliance with Defendants' unlawful 22 timekeeping policies, Plaintiff and Class Members had to underreport their hours worked to a
23 substantial degree and on a daily basis.

24 26. First, Defendants maintained a practice requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to 25 perform work off-the-clock after clocking out, including finishing assigned work.

26 27. Second, due to the busy workload, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members 27 to perform work during meal periods, the additional time for which supervisors never added to 28 Plaintiff's and Class Members' timekeeping records to ensure they would be compensated.

1 28. As a result of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping policies and practices, Plaintiff's
2 and Class Members' work time reported is far below their actual hours worked. As such, all of the 3 unrecorded, off-the-clock work time was never recorded, never subsequently added to work time,
4 and never compensated at Plaintiff's and Class Members' straight-time rates. Much of this time
5 would have been overtime hours worked, so Defendants have also failed to compensate Plaintiff
6 and Class Members for overtime at their regular rate of pay.

7 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

8 29. Defendants maintained unlawful policies that cause to be noncompliant.

9 30. At all times relevant herein, due to the heavy workload and inadequate staffing,
10 Plaintiff and Class Members regularly missed their meal periods entirely.

11 31. As such, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members timely, full-12 length, off-duty, uninterrupted meal periods.

13 32. Furthermore, upon information and belief, Defendants have correspondingly also 14 failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal period premiums owed for all noncompliant meal
15 periods.

16 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Breaks

17 33. At all times relevant herein, due to the same Defendants' policies and circumstances
18 that frustrated Plaintiff's and Class Members' ability to take legally compliant meal periods, it was 19 similarly impossible for Plaintiff and Class Members to take legally compliant rest breaks.

20 34. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and Class
21 Members to take rest breaks, regardless of whether Plaintiff and Class Members worked more than 22 four hours in a workday based on Defendants' practice of overloading Plaintiff and Class Members
23 with unreasonable workloads that did not afford the requisite time to take compliant rest breaks.

24 35. Defendants assert control over Plaintiff and Class Members by imposing a heavy
25 workload which created and fostered an environment where it is impossible for Plaintiff and Class
26 Members to take each compliant rest break to which they are entitled.

27 36. Essentially, the busy workload made it impossible for Plaintiff and Class Members
28 to take the requisite number of uninterrupted, off-duty, 10-minute rest breaks.

37. As such, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members timely, full-length, off-duty, uninterrupted rest breaks.

38. Furthermore, upon information and belief, Defendants have correspondingly also failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest break premiums owed for all noncompliant rest breaks.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages Owed Every Pay Period During Employment

39. As a result of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping policies that failed to capture all compensable time worked; failure to pay all meal period and rest break premiums owed; and miscalculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating premium pay owed, as detailed above; Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages owed each and every pay period.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Separation of Employment

40. Within the applicable statute of limitations, Plaintiff's employment with Defendants ended by termination. Plaintiff's final wages were not paid timely nor paid in full in light of the accrued unpaid wages. That is, Plaintiff's final paycheck was not adequate to compensate her for (1) all unpaid meal period and rest break violations, (2) all meal period and rest break violations paid but not based on the regular rate of pay, and (3) all unpaid straight-time and overtime wages for her off-the-clock time worked throughout her employment.

41. Thus, at all times relevant herein, Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiff, other Class Members who were terminated, and Class Members who resigned voluntarily all unpaid wages earned through the time of separation, either immediately when Defendants terminated those Class Members, as required under Labor Code section 201, or, for those who resigned, within 72 hours of resignation without advance notice of at least 72 hours, or else on their last day of work for those who gave advance notice of at least 72 hours, as required under Labor Code section 202.

Failure to Furnish Timely, Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

42. At all times relevant herein, Defendants issued inaccurate wage statements to Plaintiff and Class Members.

1 43. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant herein, these wage statements were
2 inaccurate because (1) Defendants imposed a slew of unlawful timekeeping policies (as detailed
3 above) that underreported Plaintiff's and Class Members' total hours worked and total overtime
4 hours worked; (2) Defendants miscalculated Plaintiff's and Class Members' respective regular
5 rates of pay by failing to include predetermined, nondiscretionary bonuses in those calculations;
6 and (3) Defendants reported the incorrect total gross and net wages earned by virtue of relying on 7 inaccurate values as a result of (1) and (2).

8 44. In sum, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members accurate, itemized
9 wage statements showing the correct number of straight-time and overtime hours worked each pay 10 period, the correct premium wages owed for overtime hours and noncompliant meal periods and 11 rest breaks owed each pay period and earned year to date, all wages due for all hours worked, all 12 bonuses earned, and the correct gross and net wages earned each pay period and year to date, among 13 other things.

14 Failure to Reimburse Employees for Necessary, Business-Related Expenses

15 45. At all times relevant herein, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to 16 incur necessary, business-related expenses and losses to carry out Plaintiff's and Class Members'
17 duties. Such necessary, business-related costs and expenses Plaintiff and Class Members incurred
18 include, but are not limited to, the cost for use of Plaintiff's and Class Members' personal cell 19 phones.

20 46. Plaintiff and Class Members were required to use their personal cell phones to carry
21 out their duties for Defendants. Defendants maintained a practice of contacting Plaintiff and Class
22 Members on their personal cell phones during the workday regarding work-related questions.
23 However, despite knowing that Plaintiff and Class Members use their personal cell phones for work
24 purposes, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for cell phone usage and 25 other similar necessary, business-related expenses. In sum, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred 26 substantial necessary, unreimbursed business-related expenses in carrying out their duties for 27 Defendants.
28

1 47. In sum, at all times relevant herein, Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802
2 by failing to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary, business-related
3 costs and expenses Plaintiff and Class Members incurred for use of their personal cell phones, those
4 expenses of which were in direct consequence of the discharge of Plaintiff's and Class Members'
5 duties and per Defendants' direction.

6 Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave

7 48. Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees,
8 including Plaintiff, with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 9 California and local laws.

10 49. At all times relevant herein, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their 11 affirmative obligation to pay sick leave wages to Plaintiff and Class Members.

12 Failure to Keep and Maintain Required Records

13 50. At all times relevant herein, Defendants imposed a variety of unlawful policies to 14 exclude compensable work time on the clock, which cased Plaintiff and Class Members to mis-
15 record (i.e., under-record) their hours worked to a substantial degree and on a daily basis.

16 51. First, Defendants (1) maintained a practice requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to 17 perform work off-the-clock before and after their shifts, including working off the clock after 18 clocking out to finish assigned work, and (2) required Plaintiff and Class Members to perform work
19 off the clock during meal periods, Plaintiff and Class Members performed regular and substantial
20 compensable time working off the clock before, during, and after their shifts. That time working
21 off the clock was never ultimately added to their total hours worked. As a result, the total hours
22 recorded in Defendants' records is inaccurate and excludes time that Defendants should be paying 23 for but are not because that time was not being recorded.

24 52. Second, Defendants' records failed to capture all time worked, including during 25 meal periods, meaning Defendants' records also failed to indicate where meal period violations and 26 rest break violations occurred and corresponding premiums were due, which is yet another reason
27 why Defendants' records they are required to keep and maintain were not properly recorded and 28 thus were inaccurate.

1 53. Third and finally, to the extent Defendants miscalculated Plaintiff's and Class
2 Members' respective regular rates of pay by erroneously excluding performance-based or merit-
3 based premiums, the premium payments paid for overtime and noncompliant meal periods and rest
4 breaks were also inaccurate as recorded in Defendants' records.

5 54. As a result of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping policies and practices, Plaintiff's
6 and Class Members' work time reported is far below their actual hours worked. As such, all of this 7 off-the-clock work time was never recorded, never subsequently added to work time, and never 8 compensated at Plaintiff's and Class Members' straight-time rates.

9 55. In sum, at all times relevant herein, this means Defendants have failed to accurately
10 record all time worked, failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all time
11 worked, and consequently, failed to keep and maintain required records for both. These inaccurate
12 payroll records of hours worked and wages earned resulted from Defendants' unlawful timekeeping
13 policies (as detailed above) that (1) underreported Plaintiff's and Class Members' total hours
14 worked and total overtime hours worked; (2) under-recorded all instances in which meal period
15 and rest break violations occurred and should have yielded higher values for and more instances of 16 premium payments; and (3) Defendants' miscalculation of Plaintiff's and Class Members' 17 respective regular rates of pay (from failing to include predetermined, nondiscretionary bonuses in 18 those calculations, if any), yielding lower valued premium pay for overtime and noncompliant meal
19 periods and rest breaks; and (4) as a consequence of items (1) through (3), the incorrect total gross
20 and net wages earned each pay period and year to date.

21 56. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them, were on actual and 22 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 23 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 24 willful and deliberate.

25 57. As a result of these violations of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and Class
26 Members suffered injury because, among other things:
27

- 1 (a) the violations led Plaintiff and Class Members to believe that they were not
2 entitled to be paid minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages, meal period
3 premium wages, and rest break premium wages, even though they were;
- 4 (b) the violations led Plaintiff and Class Members to believe that they had been
5 paid minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages, meal period premium
6 wages, and rest break premium wages, even though they had not been;
- 7 (c) the violations led Plaintiff and Class Members to believe they were not
8 entitled to be paid minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages, meal period
9 premium wages, and rest break premium wages, all at the correct California 10 rate, even though they were entitled to be paid as such;
- 11 (d) the violations led Plaintiff and Class Members to believe they had been paid
12 minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages, meal period premium wages,
13 and rest break premium wages at the correct California rate, even though 14 they had not been;
- 15 (e) the violations hindered Plaintiff and Class Members from determining the 16 amounts of minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages, meal period
17 premium wages, and rest break premium wages owed to them;
- 18 (f) in connection with Plaintiff's and Class Members' employment before and 19 during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the 20 violations required Plaintiff and Class Members to perform mathematical 21 computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them,
22 computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained 23 the required accurate information;
- 24 (g) by understating the wages truly due to Plaintiff and Class Members, the 25 violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount
26 of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental 27 benefits; and
28

(h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the hours, wage rates, and wages to which Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled, and Plaintiff and Class Members were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

58. Thus, Plaintiff and Class Members are owed the amounts provided for in Labor Code section 226(e) and injunctive relief under Labor Code section 226(h).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

59. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, on behalf of herself and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

60. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

61. The proposed³ Class consists of and is defined as:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who work or worked in California for any Defendant at any time during the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action through the first day of trial.

62. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

63. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

64. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation, and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 persons, and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

³ Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rules of Court, Rule 3.765, to amend or modify the Class definition with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

- (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims are typical of all Class Members' claims, as demonstrated herein.
- (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly, and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, proposed Class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.
- (d) Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:
- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
 - 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
 - 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
 - 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in managing a class action.

65. Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions

1 provide the Class Members not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for
2 both their rights to be vindicated and their privacy protected.

3 66. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 4 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 5 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 6 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum,
7 straight-time, and overtime wages;
- 8 (b) Failed to provide Class Members meal periods or else pay meal period 9 premium wages;
- 10 (c) Failed to authorize and permit Class Members to take rest breaks or else pay 11 rest break premium wages;
- 12 (d) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary, business-related 13 expenses;
- 14 (e) Failed to provide Class Members with timely, accurate itemized wage 15 statements;
- 16 (f) Failed to timely pay all wages owed each pay period during Class Members' 17 employment;
- 18 (g) Failed to provide Class Members with paid sick leave;
- 19 (h) Failed to keep and maintain required records; and
- 20 (i) Violated California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et. seq. as 21 a result of their unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent conduct described herein.

22 67. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 23 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because:

- 24 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 25 question affecting only individual members;
- 26 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 27 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 28 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the Class before the Court;

(d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

(e) There is a well-defined community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate Class Members for the injuries sustained;

(f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:

1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual Class Members, which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,

2) Multiple adjudications brought by individual Class Members, which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other non-party Class Members to those adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede non-party Class Members' ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential that funds available from Defendants would be exhausted by those multiple adjudications; and

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the Class as a whole.

68. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of additional

1 techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice,
2 website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class
3 and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

4 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

5 Failure to Pay All Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked
6 in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197
7 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

8 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
9 paragraphs.

10 70. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an 11 employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not 12 required to do so.

13 71. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to compensate
14 Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class
15 Members to perform off-the-clock work, without compensation, which occurred: before shifts, after 16 shifts, during unpaid meal periods, and/or off shift.

17 72. By their failure to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked,
18 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 1194 and the applicable Wage 19 Order.

20 73. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight-
21 time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

22 74. By and through Defendants’ conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have been 23 deprived of their right to be paid all wages earned during their employment with Defendants.

24 75. By and through Defendants’ unlawful failure to compensate Plaintiff and Class
25 Members for all of their straight hours worked, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered, and 26 will continue to suffer, damages in an amount presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class but will 27 be ascertained according to proof at trial.

28 76. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code section 1174(d),

Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members.

77. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

78. Plaintiff and Class Members are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and straight-time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages

in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, IWC Wage Order No. 1-2001, § 3

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

79. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

80. California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay overtime wages payable at the rate of at least 1.5 times the regular rate of pay for more than eight hours in a workday or more than 40 hours in a workweek. Employees are entitled to double overtime wages payable at the rate of at least twice the regular rate of pay for work in excess of 12 hours in a workday or work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek. For purposes of computing the overtime rate of compensation required to be paid to a non-exempt full time salaried employee, the employee's regular hourly rate shall be 1/40th of the employee's weekly salary. The regular rate shall be 1/8th of the employee's daily rate. Payment of a fixed salary to a non-exempt employee shall be deemed to provide compensation only for the employee's regular, non-overtime hours, notwithstanding any private agreement to the contrary. Cal. Lab. Code § 515(d).

81. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff and the Class were non-exempt employees and regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and/or more than 40 hours in a workweek and were entitled to the protections of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable IWC Wage Order. However, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Class

Members for all overtime hours worked as required under California Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable IWC Wage Order by, inter alia: requiring, permitting, or suffering Plaintiff and Class Members to work off the clock; requiring, permitting, or suffering Plaintiff and Class Members to work through meal periods, while also failing to include this time worked in Plaintiff's and Class Members' total hours worked and thus, not compensating Plaintiff and Class Members for this off-the-clock time worked.

82. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members overtime compensation for the hours they worked in excess of eight hours in a workday and/or 40 hours in a workweek, as required by Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.

83. By and through Defendants' unlawful failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all premium-rate compensation owed for all overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts that are presently unknown to them but do exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

84. Plaintiff and Class Members also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order No. 1-2001, § 11

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

85. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

86. California law requires employers to provide employees with an uninterrupted, duty-free (relieved of all duties) meal period of no less than 30 minutes to commence before the end of a five-hour work period. A second meal period of no less than 30 minutes is required if an employee works more than 10 hours in one day. Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512; applicable IWC Wage

Order, § 11; and Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Ct. (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1049. The Wage Order’s meal period requirement is satisfied if the employee (1) has at least 30 minutes uninterrupted, (2) is free to leave the premises, and (3) is relieved of all duty for the entire period. Id. at 1036. An employer must relinquish control over the employee’s activities, permit a reasonable opportunity to take an uninterrupted, 30-minute meal period, and not impede or discourage an employee from taking a meal period. Id. at 1040. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an “on-duty” meal period and counted as time worked. Id. at 1035. “An employer may not undermine a formal policy of providing meal periods by pressuring employees to perform their duties in ways that omit meal periods. Cicairos v. Summit Logistics, Inc. (2005) 133 Cal.App.4th 949, 962–63; see also Jaimez v. Daiohs USA, Inc. (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 1286, 1304–1305 (proof of common scheduling policy that made taking meal periods extremely difficult would show violation); Dilts v. Penske Logistics, LLC (S.D. Cal. 2010) 267 F.R.D. 625, 638 (indicating informal anti-meal-period policy “enforced through ‘ridicule’ or ‘reprimand’” would be illegal). “The wage orders and governing statute do not countenance an employer’s exerting coercion against the taking of, creating incentives to forgo, or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.” Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1040.

87. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally-required, compliant meal period was not provided. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7(c). The California Supreme Court held that premium pay for an employee’s noncompliant meal period or rest break constitutes “wages,” so a failure to pay owed meal period premiums and/or rest break premiums constitutes an employer’s failure to pay wages. Naranjo v Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (2022) 13 Cal.5th 93.

88. Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members timely, full 30-minute meal periods for each five-hour period of work as required under the foregoing provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

89. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and Class Members compliant meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable Wage Order.

90. Under California law, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to be paid an additional hour of pay at the regular rate of pay for each workday on which Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with all required meal periods, plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Breaks

in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 1194; IWC Wage Order No. 1-2001, § 12
(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

91. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

92. California Labor Code section 226.7 and section 12 of the applicable Wage Order require that employers provide employees timely, uninterrupted, full-length, 10-minute rest breaks, free of all duty, for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof. If an employer fails to authorize and permit an employee to take a compliant rest break, the employer shall pay the employee a rest break premium wage equal to one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that at least one rest break owed was not compliant. Employees are entitled to one 10-minute rest break for shifts from 3–6 hours in length, two 10-minute rest breaks for shifts of over six hours up to 10 hours, three 10-minute rest breaks for shifts over 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on. Brinker Restaurant Corp, 53 Cal.4th at 1029. Furthermore, “Employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time during rest breaks. Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. This obligation includes allowing employees to leave the premises during their rest breaks and to enjoy that rest break without any expectation that the employee monitor or respond to interruptions or messages.

93. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid premium wages equal to one hour of work at their regular rate of pay for each workday they were entitled to but not provided with a rest break, plus interest thereon.

1 94. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and Class
2 Members to take rest breaks, regardless of whether Plaintiff and Class Members worked more than
3 four hours in a workday. Due to the same Defendants' policies and circumstances that frustrated
4 Plaintiff's and Class Members' ability to take legally compliant meal periods, it was similarly
5 impossible for Plaintiff and the Class to take legally compliant rest breaks.

6 95. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest breaks as 7 alleged above (because Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take uninterrupted rest
8 breaks), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and the 9 applicable Wage Order.

10 96. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 11 premium wages, plus interest, for each workday they were not authorized to take a rest break.

12 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Owed Every Pay Period During Employment

14 in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 204

15 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

16 97. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
17 paragraphs.

18 98. Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any 19 employment between the first and fifteenth days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those 20 wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the sixteenth and twenty-
21 sixth days, inclusive, of the month during which the labor was performed.

22 99. Further, Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in 23 any employment between the sixteenth and last day of the month, inclusive, of any calendar month,
24 other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the first 25 and tenth days of the following month.

26 100. Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the 27 normal work period (e.g., overtime, double-time) shall be paid no later than the payday for the next 28 regular payroll period. Alternatively, Labor Code section 204 provides that the requirements of

1 this section are deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly
2 payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll
3 period.

4 101. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages
5 due and payable twice a month. The applicable IWC Wage Order also provides that every employer
6 shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for 7 all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the 8 Class with all compensation due, in violation of Labor Code section 204.

9 102. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and 10 Class Members all wages due including, but not limited to, minimum, straight-time, and overtime,
11 meal period premiums, and rest break premiums, within the time periods specified by Labor Code
12 section 204.

13 103. But, even if Defendants had paid Plaintiff and Class Members all minimum, straight-
14 time, and overtime wages for all hours worked and had also paid all meal period premiums and rest
15 break premiums owed, Defendants still failed to pay all wages due every pay period, in that 16 Defendants have not paid Plaintiff and Class Members the correct amounts based on the regular 17 rate of pay for all straight-time and overtime wages, meal period premiums, and rest break
18 premiums. That is, upon information and belief, Defendants did not properly calculate the regular 19 rate of pay by failing to factor in predetermined performance-based, non-discretionary, merit-based 20 bonuses. As a result, Defendants at least owe Plaintiff and Class Members the difference between 21 what was paid for minimum, straight-time, and overtime wages for all hours worked and premiums
22 paid for noncompliant meal periods and rest breaks and those respective amounts calculated using 23 the regular rates of pay once predetermined performance-based, non-discretionary bonuses are 24 factored in.

25 104. As such, this cause of action is derivative of Plaintiff's and Class Members' claims
26 for (1) unpaid minimum wages/straight-time wages, (2) unpaid overtime wages, (3) unpaid meal
27 period premiums, and (4) unpaid rest break premiums that were owed but not timely paid to 28 Plaintiff and Class Members every pay period during their employment with Defendants.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation

in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

105. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

106. Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer terminates an employee, the employee's wages earned and unpaid at the time of termination are due and payable immediately, whereas if an employee voluntarily resigns from his or her employment without at least 72 hours' notice, the employee's wages earned and unpaid shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours after resigning, but where the employee has given 72 hours prior notice of his or her intention to quit, then the employee is entitled to receive his or her wages on the last day of employment.

107. Within the applicable statute of limitations, many separated Class Members' employment with Defendants ended by termination. Defendants terminated those Class Members but failed to provide all wages owed in Class Members' final paychecks. Terminated Class Members' final paychecks failed to provide compensation for all past-due straight-time wages; for all overtime wages, including for off-the-clock time worked throughout employment; all past-due wages for meal period and rest break violations; and all accrued vacation time. Thus, as to terminated Class Members, Defendants failed to timely pay all past-due unpaid wages earned through the time of termination immediately when Defendants terminated those Class Members, as required under Labor Code section 201.

108. Within the applicable statute of limitations, many other separated Class Members' employment with Defendants ended by voluntary resignation. As to those resigned Class Members, Defendants have also failed to timely pay those resigned Class Members all unpaid wages earned. That is, the final paychecks for Class Members who resigned failed to include compensation for all past-due straight-time wages; for all overtime wages, including for off-the-clock time worked throughout employment; all past-due wages for meal period and rest break violations; and all

1 accrued vacation time. Defendants should have paid Class Members who resigned the full amounts
2 of their final wages through their last day of work within 72 hours of resignation without advance
3 notice of at least 72 hours, or for those who gave advance notice of at least 72 hours, then on their
4 last day of work, however, Defendants failed to do so as Labor Code section 202 requires.

5 109. Defendants' failure to timely pay all unpaid wages owed at the time of separation to 6 these separated Class Members described in the two preceding paragraphs violated Labor Code
7 sections 201 and 202.

8 110. Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay all wages
9 owed in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then up to 30 days of the employee's wages at the 10 employee's regular hourly rate of pay shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date through 11 the date Defendants pay the employee's wages or until an action is commenced.

12 111. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 203, separated Class Members are entitled to 13 recover from Defendants waiting time penalties equal to up to 30 days of pay at their regular rates
14 of pay for the period from the date the unpaid wages should have been paid through the date they 15 were paid or the date an action is commenced, up to a maximum of 30 days.

16 112. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.5, 218.6, and 1194, the Class Members who 17 have separated are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and 18 costs incurred in this action.

19 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 Failure to Furnish Timely, Accurate Wage Statements

21 in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226 and 226.3

22 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

23 113. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
24 paragraphs.

25 114. At all material times set forth herein, Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every 26 employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing
27 showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by 28 the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the

1 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on
2 written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned;
3 (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee
4 and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number
5 other than a social security number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer;
6 and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 7 hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

8 115. Defendants have failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Class accurate, itemized wage
9 statements showing all of the following: the correct premium wages owed for noncompliant meal
10 periods and noncompliant rest breaks for each pay period, the correct number of straight and 11 overtime hours worked each pay period, all wages due for all hours worked, and the correct gross
12 and net wages earned each pay period and year to date, among other things.

13 116. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 14 complete and accurate wage statements compliant with these Labor Code sections, because 15 Defendants adopted and implemented the underlying policies that led to these inaccurate wage
16 statements, and it is not the case that just a single wage statement was inaccurate—the inaccuracies
17 described above persisted from pay period to pay period.

18 117. As a result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and 19 Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

20 118. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members have been injured by being denied their 21 legal right to receive and their protected interest in receiving accurate, itemized wage statements.

22 119. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 23 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class have also been injured
24 by having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants'
25 refusal to comply with the Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

26 120. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 27 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code section 226(a), or an 28 aggregate penalty not to exceed $4,000 per employee.

121. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief and an award of attorneys' fees and costs to ensure compliance with Labor Code section 226(h).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Reimburse All Necessary, Business-Related Expenses

in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 2802

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

122. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

123. Labor Code section 2802(a) requires employers to indemnify and reimburse their employees for all necessary, business-related expenses or losses incurred by employees in direct discharge of employees' duties.

124. Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to incur necessary, business-related expenses and losses to carry out Plaintiff's and Class Members' duties as a result of Defendants' failure to provide all resources, tools, and equipment to Class Members that were necessary to carry out their duties. Because Defendants failed to provide such resources, Plaintiff and Class Members had no other choice than to incur costs and expenses to procure those resources. Defendants knew or reasonably should have known that those necessary resources and tools were required but not provided for use. Furthermore, Defendants knew or reasonably should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members incurred costs and expenses to procure those necessary resources and tools to carry out their duties and thus, failed to reimburse the costs and expenses Plaintiff and Class Members incurred.

125. Thus, Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 by failing to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary, business-related expenses and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of Plaintiff's and Class Members' duties and per Defendants' direction.

126. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid.

127. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney’s fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(b), which provides “interest at the same rate as judgments in civil actions . . . accrue[d] from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditure or loss.”

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave

in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 246-248.5

(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

128. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

129. Employers have an affirmative obligation to pay sick leave wages to employees pursuant to Labor Code sections 246, et seq.

130. Paid sick leave earnings constitute wages for purposes of California wage and hour law. Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1103 (“Courts have recognized that ‘wages’ also include those benefits to which an employee is entitled as a part of his or her compensation, including money, room, board, clothing, vacation pay, and sick pay.”) California Senate Bill (SB) 616 went into effect on January 1, 2024 and amended California Labor Code sections 245.5, 246, and 246.5, increasing the minimum required amount of paid sick leave for California employees to 40 hours or five days, whichever is greater, from the previous requirement of 24 hours or three days prior to January 1, 2024.

131. Employers can select any of the following methods by which employees can accrue paid sick leave under Labor Code section 246(b): (1) one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours worked; (2) front loading of paid sick leave to give employees an up-front accrual of 40 hours (or five days) of paid sick leave at the start of their employment and each 12 months thereafter; or (3) at a rate other than one hour for every 30 hours worked provided that the accrual is regular and results in at least 24 hours (or three days) of paid sick leave by the 120th day of employment and 40 hours (or five days) of paid sick leave by the 200th day of employment.

132. Labor Code section 246(1) governs how employers are required to calculate paid

1 sick leave:

2 [A]n employer shall calculate paid sick leave using any of the following
3 calculations: (1) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the 4 same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee
5 uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that 6 workweek. (2) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated by 7 dividing the employee's total wages, no including overtime premium pay, by the 8 employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of 9 employment. (3) Paid sick time for exempt employees shall be calculated in the 10 same manner as the employer calculates wages for other forms of paid leave time.

11 133. Additionally, Labor Code section 246(i) requires employers to provide employees
12 with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available or else the employee's 13 available paid-time-off leave provided in lieu of sick leave.

14 134. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant herein, Defendants had a policy
15 or practice of failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with the amount of paid sick leave
16 required to be provided pursuant to California and local laws (including, without limitation, Labor 17 Code sections 246, et seq.).

18 135. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that sick pay was not provided at the 19 regular rate of pay as required under California law due to failure to properly calculate the regular 20 rate. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that Defendants also did not permit use of paid sick
21 leave upon request by employees, including Plaintiff, as required under Labor Code section 246.5.

22 136. As such, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative
23 obligation to pay sick leave wages to Plaintiff and the Class in violation of Labor Code sections
24 246, et seq.

25 137. Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of unpaid sick pay leave,
26 statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 247 and 248.5, prejudgment interest, and 27 injunctive relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. For 28 every paid sick leave day/hour unlawfully withheld.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Keep and Maintain Required Records

in Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226, 1174; IWC Wage Order No. 1-2001, § 7
(Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

138. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

139. California Labor Code section 1174(d) provides that “[e]very person employing labor in this state shall . . . [k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors” and “[keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments”

140. During the relevant time period, and in violation of Labor Code section 1174(d), Defendants willfully failed to maintain accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and Class Members showing the daily hours they worked and the wages paid thereto as a result of failing to record the off-the-clock hours that they worked. More specifically, Defendants failed to maintain required timekeeping and payroll records including: (i) the correct total hours Plaintiff and Class Members worked each workday; (ii) the correct start and stop times for of Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ actual hours worked each workday; (iii) the correct meal period premiums and rest break premiums Defendants owed Plaintiff and Class Members; (iv) the correct overtime rates and overtime wages Defendants owed Plaintiff and Class Members during employment; and (v) the correct gross and net pay Defendants owed Plaintiff and Class Members each pay period and year to date.

141. Because Defendants violated Labor Code section 1174(d), Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover damages and penalties under Labor Code section 226(e).

142. During the Class Period, as part of Defendants’ illegal payroll policies and practices to deprive Plaintiff and Class Members of all wages earned and due, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to maintain records as required under California Labor Code sections 226 and 1174, and section 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including but not limited to the following

1 records: total daily hours worked by each employee; applicable rates of pay; all deductions; meal
2 periods; time records showing when each employee begins and ends each work period; and accurate
3 itemized wage statements. Namely, Defendants did not ensure that the times recorded by Plaintiff
4 and Class Members were the actual start and stop times for all work periods to capture the accurate
5 total number of hours worked. Defendants also failed to establish a mechanism by which Class
6 Members could add or report unrecorded time.

7 143. Labor Code section 1174.5 provides in pertinent part that “[a]ny person employing 8 labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of Section 1174 or 9 accurate and complete records required by subdivision (d) of Section 1174 . . . shall be subject to 10 a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).”

11 144. As a proximate result of Defendants’ unlawful acts and omissions, Plaintiff and 12 Class Members have been damaged in an amount according to proof at trial and are entitled to all
13 wages earned and due, plus interest thereon. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled 14 to all available civil and statutory penalties, an award of costs, expenses, reasonable attorneys’ fees
15 set forth in Labor Code section 1174.5 and elsewhere, and all other available remedies.

16 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, *et seq.

18 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and the Class Against All Defendants)

19 145. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
20 paragraphs.

21 146. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
22 & Professions Code section 17201.

23 147. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
24 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class Members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks 25 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 26 Procedure section 1021.5.

27 148. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, constitutes “business acts and practices” that
28 affect Defendants’ competitors in violation of California Business & Professions Code sections

17200, et seq.

149. Under the unlawful prong, a violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described above in the foregoing causes of action constitute statutory violations and are therefore unlawful.

150. Under the unfair prong, a violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. may be predicated on conduct—a business act—that is injurious to Defendants’ competitors and in violation of public policy, because all such conduct is immoral, unethical, oppressive, and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.

151. Under the fraudulent prong, a violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. may be predicated on Defendants’ conduct that is likely to deceive the general public and requires that Plaintiff relied on Defendants’ misrepresentations to Plaintiff’s detriment, regardless of whether those misrepresentations were or were not intentional. Defendants’ conduct in issuing Plaintiff’s inaccurate wage statements constitutes Defendants’ unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.

152. By and through their unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money, and services from Plaintiff and Class Members and have deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

153. Plaintiff and Class Members suffered monetary injuries as a direct result of Defendants’ wrongful conduct.

154. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property that Defendants have wrongfully withheld or acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to

1 recover restitution.

2 155. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Class, is further entitled to, and does,
3 seek declaratory relief via a declaration that Defendants' above-described business practices are
4 unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief via an injunction restraining Defendants
5 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices
6 in the future.

7 156. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Class, has no plain, speedy, and/or 8 adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence
9 of Defendants' unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair,
10 unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Class,
11 has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless Defendants are restrained from 12 continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices.

13 157. Plaintiff also alleges that, if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
14 herein, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance, and other withholdings,
15 and instead, enjoy a windfall to the detriment of Plaintiff and the Class.

16 158. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
17 and the Class are entitled to (1) restitution of the wages Defendants withheld and retained during 18 the period that commences April 2, 2024; (2) a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay
19 all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; (3) an award of attorneys' fees pursuant
20 to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and (4) an award 21 of costs.

22 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 For Civil Penalties Pursuant to California's Private Attorneys General Act of 2004

24 ("PAGA"), §§ 2698; et seq., for Violations of California's Labor Code Sections

25 (Brought by Plaintiff on Behalf of Herself and Aggrieved Employees

26 Against All Defendants)

27 159. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
28 paragraphs.

1 160. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to the California Labor Code
2 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders.

3 161. Plaintiff brings this cause of action, individually, as an Aggrieved Employee, and as
4 a representative on behalf of the State of California and all other current and former Aggrieved
5 Employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Labor Code sections
6 2698, et seq.

7 162. Plaintiff exhausted the administrative prerequisites to bring this action, set forth
8 under Labor Code section 2699.3. On June 30, 2026, Plaintiff submitted written notice—Plaintiff’s
9 PAGA Letter—to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by online
10 filing with the required filing fee and to Defendants by certified mail. The PAGA Letter identifies 11 the Labor Codes Defendants allegedly violated and the facts and theories to support those 12 violations. The LWDA assigned this matter Case No. LWDA-CM-1187904-26.

13 163. The statutory 65-day period for the LWDA to respond has elapsed, and the LWDA
14 did not provide notice of its intent to investigate. As such, Plaintiff has exhausted administrative 15 remedies per Labor Code section 2699.3 and is, therefore, authorized to pursue PAGA penalties.

16 164. The statute of limitations applicable to the PAGA claims was tolled during the 17 period of administrative exhaustion pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(d).

18 165. The Labor Code violations alleged in this cause of action are the same violations
19 identified in Plaintiff’s PAGA Letter to the LWDA and arise from Defendants’ uniform policies,
20 practices, and course of conduct applicable to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff
21 seeks to recover civil penalties for all such violations experienced by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
22 Employees during the PAGA Period.

23 166. Plaintiff has standing to pursue civil penalties for each of the violations alleged 24 herein because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the PAGA Period and personally
25 experienced each Labor Code violation identified in Plaintiff’s PAGA Letter. The alleged 26 violations arose from Defendants’ uniform policies and practices and affected Plaintiff and other
27 Aggrieved Employees in the same or a similar manner and were not the result of isolated or 28 employee-specific circumstances.

167. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Defendants violated the California Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 201, 203, 204, 226, 226(a), 1174, 1182.12, 1197, 1198.5, and 2802.

168. Defendants' violations were willful, knowing, and systematic and resulted from company-wide policies and practices. Upon information and belief, such violations continued during the PAGA Period and, absent judicial intervention, will continue to occur, thereby exposing Defendants to ongoing civil penalties.

169. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff seeks recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a), including any applicable statutory penalties, and pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f) for violations for which no specific civil penalty is provided, together with all other relief available under PAGA.

170. Plaintiff seeks recovery of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and all Aggrieved Employees, with sixty-five percent (65%) of any civil penalties recovered payable to the LWDA and thirty-five percent (35%) payable to the aggrieved employees, per Labor Code section 2699(m).

171. Plaintiff further seeks reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(k)(1), interest as permitted by law, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
