 Trial Date: None Set

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff ROBERTO TORRES (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of all others similarly 2 situated, brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against
3 Defendants MEODED PAINTS & DECORATION, INC. and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive
4 (collectively, “Defendants”), and alleges as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. Plaintiff brings this putative class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section
7 382 against Defendants, on behalf of himself individually and a putative class of all current and former 8 non-exempt employees employed by Defendants in California during the Class Period (collectively
9 the “Class” or “Class Members”). The term Class Period is defined as four (4) years prior to the filing 10 of this action through the date of class certification.

11 2. Plaintiff also brings this representative action pursuant to the PAGA, Labor Code
12 sections 2698 et seq., against Defendants, on behalf of himself individually and other aggrieved
13 employees who are and were employed by Defendants throughout California during the PAGA Period.
14 The term PAGA Period is defined as one (1) year prior to Plaintiff’s notice of Labor Code violations
15 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants until judgment.

16 3. Defendant MEODED PAINTS & DECORATION, INC. (“Meoded”) is a manufacturer
17 of plasters, paints, primers, sealers, and finishes that operated multiple locations in Southern 18 California.

19 4. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have engaged in a systematic pattern of wage and hour
20 violations under the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage
21 Orders, and California Business and Professions Code that have damaged Plaintiff and Class
22 Members, and contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair competition.

23 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have violated 24 and continue to violate state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 25 (a) failing to pay all wages (including minimum, regular, and overtime wages);
- 26 (b) imposing unlawful quotas;
- 27 (c) failing to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
- 28 (d) failing to authorize or permit rest periods or provide compensation in lieu thereof;

- 1 (e) failing to reimburse necessary business expenses;
2 (f) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and 3 (g) failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

4 6. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of himself and the putative
5 class and aggrieved employees to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, liquidated damages,
6 restitution, interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 201-204,
7 206, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 8 1198, 2100-2112, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, and 2804, and California Code of Civil Procedure Section 9 1021.5.

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 7. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 and 12 representative action pursuant to Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq. ("PAGA"). The monetary
13 damages, restitution, penalties, and other amounts sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal 14 jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

15 8. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 16 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes, except those 17 given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any 18 other basis for jurisdiction. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff
19 seeks relief authorized by California law.

20 9. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, 21 they have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of 22 the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts
23 consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

24 10. Venue is proper in this Court under Code of Civil Procedure Sections 395(a) and 395.5
25 because, upon information and belief, Defendants reside, transact business, maintain offices, and/or 26 have an agent or agents in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this 27 county.

PARTIES

11. Plaintiff is a California citizen. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee in California within the past year. During his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff's job duties included, inter alia, unloading trucks, cleaning, moving heavy pallets, lifting and carrying 50-pound buckets and other materials, and other tasks in the warehouse. Plaintiff's employment with Defendants ended within one (1) year of the filing of this action.

12. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, Meoded was and is a corporation authorized to do business and regularly doing business in the State of California, and was and is a manufacturer of plasters, paints, primers, sealers, and finishes. Plaintiff is further informed, believes and thereon alleges that Meoded operates multiple locations in Southern California, including, but not limited to, an office located at 1901 E. Cerritos Ave., Anaheim, California 92805, and warehouse facilities located at 10630 Garfield Ave., Building #2, South Gate, California 90280, and 6314 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, California 90038. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, Meoded was and is an employer subject to California state wage and hour laws.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that at all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

14. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

15. Defendant DOES 1 through 50, are sued under fictitious names pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 474 because Plaintiff does not know their true names or capacities. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint and serve such fictitiously named Defendants when their names and capacities are ascertained.

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 50 are or were the partners, agents, owners, shareholders, managers, or employees of Defendants at all relevant times.

17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme,

1 business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally
2 attributable to the other Defendants.

3 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each Defendant directly or 4 indirectly, through agents or other persons or entities, employed or otherwise exercised control over
5 the wages, hours, and working conditions of Plaintiff and the Class Members. Furthermore, each
6 Defendant in all respects acted as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class Members.

7 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the acts and 8 omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or DOES 1 through 9 50, acting as the agent, alter ego, servant, joint venturer, co-conspirator, and/or partner for each other,
10 within a common enterprise and legal authority to act on each other's behalf. The acts of any and all 11 Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the official policy of Defendants.

12 20. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of such 13 agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At all relevant
14 times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and all the other 15 Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

16 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said Defendants is 17 in some manner intentionally, negligently, and/or otherwise responsible for the acts, omissions, 18 occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

19 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

20 22. Plaintiff brings this class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 on 21 behalf of himself and all others similarly situated who were injured by Defendants' violations of the 22 Labor Code, Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq., and IWC Wage Orders during 23 the Class Period.

24 23. Plaintiff's proposed Class consists of and is defined as follows:

25 Class

26 All current and former non-exempt employees employed by Defendants in the state of 27 California within four (4) years prior to the commencement of this action to the date of 28 class certification.

1 24. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following Subclass:

2 Waiting Time Subclass

3 All Class Members who separated from their employment with Defendants at any time
4 within three (3) years prior to the filing of this action to the date of class certification
5 (“Subclass” or “Waiting Time Subclass”).

6 25. Members of the Class and Subclass described above will be collectively referred to as 7 “Class Members.”

8 26. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class or Subclass, establish 9 additional subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 10 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

11 27. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed Class
12 and Subclass are readily ascertainable.

13 28. Commonality: This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class
14 action under the California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 because there are common questions
15 of law and fact as to the Class Members that predominate over any questions affecting only individual 16 members including, but not limited to, the following:

17 (a) Whether Defendants paid Plaintiff and Class Members all wages (including minimum, 18 regular, and overtime wages) for all hours worked;

19 (b) Whether Defendants’ policies and practices violated California’s quota laws by 20 enacting quotas or production demands in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage
21 Orders;

22 (c) Whether Defendants provided Plaintiff and Class Members with compliant meal
23 periods or paid compensation in lieu thereof;

24 (d) Whether Defendants authorized and permitted compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and 25 Class Members or paid compensation in lieu thereof;

26 (e) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate 27 itemized wage statements;

28 (f) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages due

1 immediately upon termination or within 72 hours of resignation;

2 (g) Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all necessary
3 business expenses;

4 (h) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless; and

5 (i) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business and 6 Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq.

7 29. There is a well-defined community of interest. Further, Plaintiff and Class Members
8 have suffered common injuries as a result of Defendants' systemic employment policies and practices.
9 Looking to Defendants' employment policies and practices, the Court can adjudicate the lawfulness
10 of those policies and practices on a class-wide basis, according to proof, and issue an award to Plaintiff
11 and Class Members accordingly. In addition, answers to common questions raised in this Complaint
12 will advance resolution of each individual Class Member's claims.

13 30. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all members is 14 impractical. Although the members of the entire Class and Subclass are unknown to Plaintiff at this 15 time, on information and belief, the class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals.

16 31. Ascertainability: The identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by 17 inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.

18 32. Typicality: The claims (or defenses, if any) of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the 19 Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with the provisions of California's wage and 20 hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay, benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained 21 by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by Class Members because they arise out of and 22 are caused by Defendants' common course of conduct as alleged herein.

23 33. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all
24 Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain 25 full compensation and penalties due to Plaintiff and the Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, as 26 proposed class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions
27 and versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 28 incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and costs

1 that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial
2 benefit of the Class Members.

3 34. Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action adjudication superior
4 to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and expense as compared with 5 separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be adjudicated in 6 the same manner for the entire Class and Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and 7 is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

8 35. Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate 9 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of 10 fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions because they 11 believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references
12 and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named in the complaint with a 13 type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while affording them privacy 14 protections.

15 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

16 36. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other
17 persons as non-exempt employees at Defendants' locations within California. Defendants employed
18 Plaintiff in a non-exempt position during his employment and continue to employ non-exempt
19 employees within California.

20 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
21 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals who were 22 knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel practices, and the 23 requirements of California law.

24 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 25 have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the 26 financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly and intentionally failed to do so 27 all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

28 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should

1 have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive at least minimum wages, wages
2 at their regular rate of pay, and overtime wages, and that they were not receiving minimum, regular,
3 and overtime wages for all work that was required to be performed. Plaintiff is informed and believes,
4 and thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours
5 per workday, and/or over 40 hours per workweek. Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members
6 to work off-the-clock, including waiting in long lines for up to several minutes to clock in for their 7 shifts and don and doff safety gear without compensation for the time spent under Defendants' control.
8 As such, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members minimum, regular, and overtime
9 wages for all hours worked in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

10 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 11 have known that they imposed systematic quota and production demands on Plaintiff and Class
12 Members which violated the rights of employees pursuant to Labor Code Sections 2100 et seq.
13 Defendants had a duty to ensure their production demands did not interfere with Plaintiff and Class
14 Members' rights to lawful meal periods, rest periods, bathroom breaks, and/or expose them to safety
15 hazards. Defendants willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to establish quotas that did not harm
16 Plaintiff and Class Members all in order to increase Defendants' profits without concern for employee
17 safety or compliance with the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

18 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 19 have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive a timely, off-duty, uninterrupted
20 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours of work, or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay
21 at their regular rate of pay when they did not receive a compliant meal period. In violation of the Labor
22 Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members had their meal periods missed, late,
23 shortened, and/or interrupted due to Defendants' excessive quotas, work demands, understaffing, 24 policies, and practices. Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to return to 25 work during meal periods to perform tasks, such as unloading and/or attending to Meoded's vehicles.
26 Plaintiff and Class Members were required to carry communication devices on their person and 27 respond to communications from Defendants' supervisors and management during meal periods and 28 had their meal periods interrupted with work questions or tasks. Further, Plaintiff and Class Members

1 were required to wait in line for up to several minutes to clock back in from meal periods. Upon
2 information and belief, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other Class Members with an
3 additional hour of pay at their regular rate for every day in which they suffered a meal period violation.
4 As such, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members all required meal periods or 5 premium pay, in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should
7 have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive a 10-minute, off-duty,
8 uninterrupted rest period for every four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof, or payment of one
9 (1) additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when they were not permitted to take a compliant
10 rest period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendants failed to provide 11 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and Class Members due to their excessive quotas, work demands,
12 understaffing, policies, and practices as mentioned above. Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff
13 and Class Members to carry communication devices on their person and respond to communications
14 from Defendants' supervisors during rest periods. Defendants also required Plaintiff and Class
15 Members to cut their rest periods short to attend to emergent work issues, and maintained a practice
16 of prioritizing work demands over taking legally mandated breaks. In addition, Defendants failed to 17 provide rest periods, insofar as practicable, in the middle of each work period. Thus, Plaintiff and 18 Class Members regularly had their rest periods missed, shortened, late, on-duty, restricted to the 19 worksite, and/or interrupted. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff
20 and other Class Members with an additional hour of pay at their regular rate for every day in which 21 they suffered a rest period violation. As such, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other Class
22 Members all required rest periods or premium pay, in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage
23 Orders.

24 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to 25 reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all business expenses incurred for Defendants' benefit.
26 Specifically, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to use their personal cell phones for 27 work-related calls and communications with supervisors without reimbursement for a reasonable 28 portion of their cell phone bills. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to

1 wear uniforms bearing Meoded's logo which were heavily soiled without reimbursement for the costs
2 of cleaning and maintenance. Further, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to use their
3 personal tools and purchase specialized boots without reimbursement for the costs. Accordingly, 4 Defendants violated Labor Code Sections 2800, 2802, and 2804.

5 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 6 have known that Waiting Time Subclass Members who separated from their employment with 7 Defendants during the statutory period were entitled to timely payment of all wages due. In violation
8 of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Waiting Time Subclass Members did not receive payment
9 of all wages owed upon separation within the permissible time period due to, inter alia, Defendants'
10 failure to pay all wages, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to pay meal and rest
11 period premiums, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses to Class Members.

12 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants knew or should 13 have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage
14 statements. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members were 15 not furnished with complete and accurate wage statements that show all of the information required
16 by Labor Code Section 226, including, but not limited to, the gross and net wages earned, the total
17 hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period, and the corresponding number 18 of hours worked at each hourly rate.

19 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES

21 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

22 46. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though
23 fully set forth herein.

24 47. At all times herein relevant, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Sections
25 204, 206, 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and all applicable
26 local minimum wage ordinances in effect throughout California.

27 48. Labor Code Section 204 and the IWC Wage Orders require timely payment of all wages 28 owed on regularly scheduled paydays at least twice during each calendar month, on days designated

1 in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. All wages earned in excess of the normal work
2 period must be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

3 49. Labor Code Section 206 provides that in case of a dispute over wages, the employer
4 shall pay, without condition and promptly under the Labor Code all wages conceded due, leaving to 5 the employee all remedies the employee is otherwise entitled to as to any balance claimed.

6 50. The IWC Wage Orders define “hours worked” as “the time during which an employee 7 is subject to the control of an employer and includes all time the employee is suffered or permitted to 8 work, whether or not required to do so.”

9 51. Labor Code Section 510 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers pay
10 employees for all overtime hours at a rate of one and one-half times the employee’s regular rate of pay 11 for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one (1) workday, 40 hours in one (1) workweek, and 12 after the first eight hours on the seventh consecutive workday in one (1) workweek. Labor Code 13 Section 510 and the IWC Wage Orders further require that employers pay employees double their 14 regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of 12 hours in a workday and after eight hours on the 15 seventh consecutive workday in one (1) workweek. Labor Code Section 510 requires payment of 16 overtime wages at one-and-one-half times the “regular rate of pay,” which includes all forms of 17 remuneration earned by the employee.

18 52. Labor Code Section 1182.12 sets forth the minimum hourly wage that must be paid to 19 all employees in California for all hours worked. Local minimum wage ordinances may provide for 20 higher minimum wage rates that must be paid to employees for all hours worked in those locales where 21 each local ordinance is in effect. Labor Code Section 1197 affirms that it is unlawful to pay less than 22 the state or local minimum wage, whichever is higher, for any hour of work.

23 53. Labor Code Section 1194 requires that employers pay employees at least the legal 24 minimum wage rate for all hours worked, notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage.
25 Labor Code Section 1194 further authorizes any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage
26 applicable to the employee to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages, 27 along with interest thereon, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs of suit.

28 54. Labor Code Section 1194.2 authorizes the recovery of liquidated damages in an amount

1 equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon for unpaid wage violations.

2 55. Labor Code Section 1198 prohibits employers from employing for longer hours or less
3 favorable conditions than those set forth in the Labor Code, IWC Wage Orders, or as otherwise set by 4 the Labor Commissioner.

5 56. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members
6 all wages due.

7 57. In violation of California law, Defendants have knowingly and willfully refused to 8 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned as alleged 9 above.

10 58. For Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all earned minimum, 11 regular, and overtime wages in accordance with Labor Code Sections 204, 206, 510, 1182.12, 1194,
12 1194.2, 1197, and 1198, the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and all applicable local minimum wage
13 ordinances in effect throughout California, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full 14 amount of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, and statutory penalties, along with 15 attorneys' fees and costs in amounts that will be established at trial.

16 59. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, through their 17 conduct described herein, have committed an "intentional theft of wages in an amount greater than 18 nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) from any one employee, or two thousand three hundred fifty dollars
19 ($2,350) in the aggregate from two or more employees...in any consecutive 12-month period" within
20 the meaning of California Penal Code section 487m. Specifically, Defendants have intentionally
21 deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of wages, as defined in Labor Code section 200, gratuities, as 22 defined in Labor Code section 350, benefits, or other compensation, by unlawful means, with the 23 knowledge that the wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation is due to Plaintiff and Class
24 Members under the law. Plaintiff and the Class Members he seeks to represent are thus entitled to 25 recover from Defendants treble damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 26 California Penal Code section 496(c).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

60. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

61. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

62. Labor Code Section 512 and the IWC Wage Orders prohibit an employer from employing any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes (commencing before the employee's fifth hour of work), except that if the total work period per day is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee. A second meal period of not less than 30 minutes is required if an employee works more than 10 hours per day and must begin before the employee's tenth hour of work, except if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee, but only if the first meal period was not waived. An employer must relieve an employee of all duties during meal periods.

63. The applicable IWC Wage Orders state that "[u]nless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 'on duty' meal period and counted as time worked."

64. Labor Code Section 226.7(b) and the IWC Wage Orders prohibit an employer from requiring any employee to work during a meal period mandated by any California statute, regulation, standard or order. If an employer fails to provide an employee with a meal period in accordance with state law, Labor Code Section 226.7(c) and the IWC Wage Orders require that the employer pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is noncompliant.

65. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive compliant meal periods at the required time intervals. Specifically, meal periods were missed, late, shortened,

1 interrupted, on-duty, and/or restricted to the worksite.

2 66. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members
3 meal period premiums for noncompliant meal periods pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7(c) and 4 the applicable IWC Wage Order.

5 67. As a result of Defendants' failure to provide compliant meal periods and pay meal
6 period premiums to Plaintiff and Class Members in accordance with the IWC Wage Orders and Labor
7 Code Sections 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of 8 wages and compensation.

9 68. Because Plaintiff and Class Members were and/or are entitled to such meal periods or 10 "premium pay" in lieu thereof, they are entitled to such payment per shift in an amount according to 11 proof. To the extent such unpaid premiums are deemed unpaid wages, Plaintiff will also seek pre- and 12 post-judgment interest as provided by law at 10% per annum, in an amount according to proof.

13 69. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, through their 14 conduct described herein, have committed an "intentional theft of wages in an amount greater than 15 nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) from any one employee, or two thousand three hundred fifty dollars
16 ($2,350) in the aggregate from two or more employees...in any consecutive 12-month period" within
17 the meaning of California Penal Code section 487m. Specifically, Defendants have intentionally
18 deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of wages, as defined in Labor Code section 200, gratuities, as 19 defined in Labor Code section 350, benefits, or other compensation, by unlawful means, with the
20 knowledge that the wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation is due to Plaintiff and Class
21 Members under the law. Plaintiff and the Class Members he seeks to represent are thus entitled to
22 recover from Defendants treble damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to
23 California Penal Code section 496(c).

24 70. Also, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5, Plaintiff will seek attorneys'
25 fees and costs from Defendants in an amount subject to proof and approved by the Court.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

71. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

72. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

73. The IWC Wage Orders require employers to authorize and permit all employees to take 10-minute duty-free rest periods for each four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof.

74. If an employer fails to provide an employee with a rest period in accordance with California law, Labor Code Section 226.7(c) and the IWC Wage Orders require that the employer pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is noncompliant.

75. During the relevant time period, Defendants did not implement a compliant rest period policy and/or practice. Consequently, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive a 10-minute rest period for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof because rest periods were interrupted, missed, late, shortened, on-duty, and/or restricted to the worksite.

76. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest period premiums for noncompliant rest periods pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7(c) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

77. As a result of Defendants' failure to provide compliant rest periods and pay rest period premiums to Plaintiff and Class Members in accordance with the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code Section 226.7, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

78. Because Plaintiff and Class Members were and/or are entitled to such rest periods or "premium pay" in lieu thereof, they are entitled to such payment per shift in an amount according to proof. To the extent such unpaid premiums are deemed unpaid wages, Plaintiff will also seek pre- and post-judgment interest as provided by law at 10% per annum, in an amount according to proof.

79. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, through their conduct described herein, have committed an “intentional theft of wages in an amount greater than nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) from any one employee, or two thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($2,350) in the aggregate from two or more employees...in any consecutive 12-month period” within the meaning of California Penal Code section 487m. Specifically, Defendants have intentionally deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of wages, as defined in Labor Code section 200, gratuities, as defined in Labor Code section 350, benefits, or other compensation, by unlawful means, with the knowledge that the wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation is due to Plaintiff and Class Members under the law. Plaintiff and the Class Members he seeks to represent are thus entitled to recover from Defendants treble damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, pursuant to California Penal Code section 496(c).

80. Also, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5, Plaintiff will seek attorneys' fees and costs from Defendants in an amount subject to proof and approved by the Court.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

81. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

82. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Section 226.

83. Labor Code Section 226(a) requires that, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, employers must furnish each employee with an accurate itemized wage statement in writing that accurately shows (1) gross wages earned, (2) total number of hours worked, (3) the number of any piece-rate units earned and all applicable piece rates, (4) all deductions made from wages, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period, (7) the name and last four digits or employment identification number of the employee, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

84. Labor Code Section 226(e)(1) authorizes an employee suffering injury as a result of a

1 knowing and intentional failure by an employer to provide an accurate itemized wage statement to 2 recover the greater of all actual damages or $50 for the initial pay violation and $100 for each violation
3 in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per employee, in addition to 4 an award of costs and attorneys' fees.

5 85. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed
6 to comply with Labor Code Section 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff and 7 Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, Defendants' failure to correctly state
8 the gross and net wages earned, the total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect during the 9 pay period, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

10 86. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code Section 226(a), Plaintiff
11 and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Specifically,
12 Plaintiff and Class Members have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California
13 Labor Code Section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their 14 protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under California Labor Code
15 Section 226(a). Plaintiff has had to file this lawsuit in order to determine the extent of the 16 underpayment of wages, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiff would not 17 have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants provided the accurate wages
18 earned and number of hours worked at each corresponding pay rate. This has also delayed Plaintiff's 19 ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

20 87. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code Section 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 21 Class Members from knowing, understanding and disputing the wages paid to them, and resulted in 22 an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional
23 failure to comply with California Labor Code Section 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have 24 suffered an injury, and the exact amount of damages and/or penalties is all in an amount to be shown 25 according to proof at trial.

26 88. Plaintiff and Class Members are also entitled to injunctive relief under California Labor 27 Code Section 226(h), compelling Defendants to comply with California Labor Code Section 226, and 28 seek the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in obtaining this injunctive relief.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAITING TIME PENALTIES
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

89. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

90. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203. Defendants failed to comply with these final paycheck requirements with respect to Waiting Time Subclass Members.

91. Labor Code Section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.

92. Labor Code Section 202 requires that if “an employee not having a written contract for a definite period” quits, the employee’s wages shall become due and payable no later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of the employee’s intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to the employee’s wages at the time of quitting.

93. Labor Code Section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, any wages of an employee who is discharged or quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced, but that the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days per employee.

94. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Waiting Time Subclass Members all their earned wages upon termination including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, unreimbursed business expenses, and/or premium compensation either at the time of discharge or within 72 hours of leaving Defendants’ employ.

95. As a result of Defendants’ failure to timely pay all wages owed to Waiting Time Subclass Members in accordance with Labor Code Sections 201, 202 and 203, Waiting Time Subclass Members are entitled to recover Waiting time penalties, prejudgment interest, attorneys’ fees, and costs in amounts that will be established at trial.

///

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

3 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

4 96. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though
5 fully set forth herein.

6 97. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Sections 2800
7 and 2802. Defendants failed to comply with these indemnification and reimbursement requirements
8 with respect to Plaintiff and Class Members.

9 98. Labor Code Section 2800 requires employers to indemnify employees for losses caused
10 by the employer's want of ordinary care. To the extent Defendants claim that Plaintiff and Class 11 Members failed to request, demand, notify or otherwise seek reimbursement for their expenses and 12 losses, Defendants were obligated to nevertheless indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members due to their 13 own negligence.

14 99. Labor Code Section 2802(a) requires that employers indemnify and reimburse
15 employees for all business expenses, which are defined as all necessary expenditures or losses incurred
16 by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of the employee's duties or otherwise incurred
17 based on the employee's obedience to the employer's directions. Labor Code Section 2802(b) 18 authorizes employees to recover in a court action interest which shall accrue from the date on which 19 the employee incurred the necessary expenditure or loss. Labor Code Section 2802(c) authorizes
20 employees who enforce their right to reimbursements under Labor Code Section 2802 to also recover
21 attorneys' fees and costs.

22 100. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to 23 1) use their personal cell phones for work-related calls and communications with supervisors without 24 reimbursement for a reasonable portion of their cell phone bills, 2) wear uniforms bearing Meoded's 25 logo which were heavily soiled without reimbursement for the costs of cleaning and maintenance, and 26 3) use their personal tools and purchase black work pants and specialized boots without reimbursement
27 for the costs, in violation of Labor Code Sections 2800, 2802, and 2804.

28 101. As a result of Defendants' failure to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff and Class

1 Members for all business and work-related costs, expenditures, losses and expenses in accordance
2 with Labor Code Sections 2800, 2802, and 2804, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover
3 the full unreimbursed balance of reimbursements, expenditures and losses, prejudgment interest, and 4 statutory penalties, along with attorneys' fees and costs in amounts that will be established at trial.

5 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA'S QUOTA LAWS

7 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

8 102. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though
9 fully set forth herein.

10 103. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code Sections 2100, 11 et seq.

12 104. California's quota laws require Defendants to implement and maintain quota
13 production demands consistent and in compliance with Labor Code Sections 2100–2112 which 14 provide in relevant part that “[a]n employee shall not be required to meet a quota that prevents 15 compliance with meal or rest periods, use of bathroom facilities, including reasonable travel time to 16 and from bathroom facilities, or occupational health and safety laws in the Labor Code or division
17 standards. An employer shall not take adverse employment action against an employee for failure to 18 meet a quota that does not allow a worker to comply with meal and rest periods, or occupational health
19 and safety laws in the Labor Code or division standards, or for failure to meet a quota that has not 20 been disclosed to the employee pursuant to Section 2101” and provide injunctive relief, attorneys'
21 fees, costs, and civil penalties.

22 105. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code Sections 2100-2112 prevented 23 Plaintiff and Class Members from taking compliant meal and rest periods, and resulted in an 24 unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional
25 failure to comply with California Labor Code Sections 2100 et seq., Plaintiff and Class Members have 26 suffered injury, and are entitled to seek injunctive relief against Defendants compelling compliance
27 with California Labor Code Sections 2100 et seq.

28 106. Plaintiff and Class Members will seek the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred

1 in obtaining the injunctive relief mentioned above.

2 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 VIOLATION OF THE UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW

4 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

5 107. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though
6 fully set forth herein.

7 108. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful 8 and harmful to Plaintiff and Class Members. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the 9 public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5.

10 109. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, violate California law and constitute unlawful 11 business acts or practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et 12 seq.

13 110. A violation of Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq. may be 14 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law.

15 111. Defendants' policies and practices have violated state law in at least the following 16 respects:

- 17 (a) Failing to pay all minimum, regular, and overtime wages due to Plaintiff and Class
18 Members in violation of Labor Code Sections 204, 206, 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 19 1197, and 1198;
- 20 (b) Failing to provide meal periods without paying Plaintiff and Class Members premium
21 wages for every day in which a meal period was not provided in violation of Labor
22 Code Sections 226.7, 512, and 2100-2112;
- 23 (c) Failing to authorize or permit rest periods without paying Plaintiff and Class Members 24 premium wages for every day in which a rest break was not authorized or permitted in 25 violation of Labor Code Section 226.7 and 2100-2112;
- 26 (d) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized wage statements
27 in violation of Labor Code Section 226;
- 28 (e) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to Waiting Time Subclass Members upon

1 separation of employment in violation of Labor Code Sections 201, 202 and 203; and
2 (f) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all necessary business expenses
3 in violation of Labor Code Sections 2800, 2802, and 2804.

4 112. Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and Class Members wages and 5 monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to 6 undercut their competitors and establish and gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

7 113. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code Sections 17202, 17203, and 17208, Plaintiff
8 and Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages unlawfully withheld and retained by 9 Defendants during a period that commences four (4) years prior to the filing of this action; an award
10 of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and 11 an award of costs.

12 114. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to an injunction, restitution, and other
13 equitable relief against such unlawful practices to return all funds over which Plaintiff and Class
14 Members have an ownership interest and to prevent future damage pursuant to Business and 15 Professions Code Sections 17200 et seq.

16 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 VIOLATION OF THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 115. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though
20 fully set forth herein.

21 116. California Labor Code Section 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of 22 action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of 23 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 24 Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
25 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 26 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 27 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3."

28 117. On June 22, 2026, Plaintiff gave written notice of the specified provisions alleged to

1 have been violated by Defendants including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations, as 2 required by Labor Code section 2699.3 and paid the filing fee. This written notice was provided via
3 certified mail to Defendants and to the LWDA by electronically filing the notice via the Department
4 of Industrial Relations' website. More than 65 days have passed since Plaintiff submitted his PAGA
5 notice to the LWDA without a response from the LWDA. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a
6 civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code Section 2699 pursuant to Section 2699.3 for the 7 violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited
8 to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558(a), 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

9 118. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative 10 remedies with the LWDA prior to suit, which is required by Labor Code Section 2699.3(d).

11 119. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor Code
12 Section 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 1174.5, any person, including any entity,
13 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California
14 Labor Code Section 1174 is subject to a penalty under Section 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC
15 Order Section 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins
16 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
17 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order Section 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 18 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

19 120. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Labor Code sections, including, but not limited 20 to, the following:

- 21 (a) Violation of Labor Code Sections 201-204, 206, 210, 256, 510, 558, 1194, 1197, 22 1197.1, and 1198 for failure to timely pay all earned wages (including minimum, 23 regular, and overtime wages) owed to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees during 24 employment and upon separation of employment as herein alleged;
- 25 (b) Violation of Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal periods to 26 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages for missed 27 meal periods as herein alleged;
- 28 (c) Violation of Labor Code Section 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to Plaintiff and

1 other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages for missed rest periods
2 as herein alleged;

3 (d) Violation of Labor Code Sections 226 and 226.3 for failure to provide accurate
4 itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein alleged;

5 (e) Violation of Labor Code Sections 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain accurate
6 records regarding the employment of Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 7 alleged;

8 (f) Violation of Labor Code Sections 2100-2112 for requiring Plaintiff and aggrieved 9 employees to meet quotas that prevented compliance with meal and rest periods as 10 herein alleged; and

11 (g) Violation of Labor Code Sections 2800, 2802 and 2804 for failure to reimburse 12 business expenses to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein alleged.

13 121. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(c)(1), Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” 14 because he was employed by the alleged violators and personally suffered each of the alleged 15 violations committed against him, and therefore is properly suited to represent the interests of all other 16 aggrieved employees.

17 122. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code section 2699.3
18 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of himself and all other 19 aggrieved employees under PAGA.

20 123. Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiff is entitled to 21 recover civil penalties, injunctive relief, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code 22 sections cited above.

23 124. For bringing this action, Plaintiff is entitled to attorney’s fees and costs incurred herein
24 pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(g)(1).

25 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

26 Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated and other Class Members, 27 other aggrieved employees, and the State of California, prays for relief and judgment against 28 Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. For certification of this action as a class action, including certifying the Class and Subclass alleged by Plaintiff;
2. For appointment of Plaintiff ROBERTO TORRES as the class representative;
3. For appointment of Aris LLP as class counsel for all purposes;
4. For compensatory damages in an amount according to proof with interest thereon;
5. For economic and/or special damages in an amount according to proof with interest thereon;
6. For damages, monetary relief, wages, premiums, benefits and penalties, including interest thereon;
7. For waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203;
8. For the amounts provided for in Labor Code Section 226.7;
9. For liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2;
10. For statutory penalties to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
11. For restitution to Plaintiff and Class Members of all money and property unlawfully acquired by Defendants through unfair or unlawful business practices pursuant to Business and Professions Code Sections 17200 et seq.;
12. For an order requiring Defendants to restore and disgorge all funds to each employee acquired by means of any act or practice declared by this Court to be unlawful, unfair or fraudulent and, therefore, constituting unfair competition under Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq.;
13. For permanent injunctive relief described in the UCL, PAGA and Quota causes of action;
14. For prejudgment interest on all sums recovered pursuant to Labor Code Section 218.6 and Civil Code Sections 3287 and 3289, and applicable law;
15. For post judgment interest on all amounts awarded to Plaintiff and Class Members as provided by law;
16. For recovery of attorneys' fees and costs provided by Labor Code Sections 218.6, 226,

1194, 2699, 2802, and Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.5;

17. For a declaratory judgment that the practices complained of herein are unlawful under California law;

18. Such other equitable relief as the Court may deem proper;

19. For treble damages;

20. For PAGA penalties; and

21. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
