Re: Rita Lazaro v. Avesis, LLC

Dear Labor and Workforce Development Agency and Avesis, LLC:

This letter shall serve as Rita Lazaro's ("Plaintiff") written notice as required by California Labor Code 2699.3(a)(1) of the specific provisions of the Labor Code allegedly violated by Avesis, LLC ("Defendant"), including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff intends to seek civil penalties against Defendant under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") on her own behalf and on behalf of all other non-exempt or hourly-paid employees currently or formerly employed by Defendant in California during the statutory period ("Aggrieved Employees"). Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that there are at least 100 Aggrieved Employees in the statutory period.

Labor Code Provisions Alleged to Have Been Violated

Plaintiff alleges Defendant violated the following Labor Code provisions: Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198.

Facts and Theories Supporting Each Alleged Violation

Plaintiff was employed by Defendant in Tulare, California as a non-exempt customer engagement specialist from approximately November 2024 to approximately February 2026.

Wages

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees all wages for all hours worked due to Defendant's policy and practice of rounding Plaintiff's and Other Aggrieved Employees' time worked for payroll purposes. As a result, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for all wages due in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, and 1198.

Meal Periods

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 30-minute meal periods for every 5 hours worked as required by Labor Code § 512. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees frequently worked shifts over five hours and did not receive lawful meal periods because they were discouraged from taking meal periods, were interrupted during their meal periods, were required to remain on call during meal periods, and/or were not scheduled to be relieved at the appropriate intervals to receive all lawful meal periods, among other reasons. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when they suffered a meal period violation. As a result, Defendant failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premiums in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512. Additionally, Defendant rounded Plaintiff's and Other Aggrieved Employees' meal periods.

Rest Periods

Throughout the statutory period, Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to take 10-minute rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were required and/or incentivized to work through their rest periods, discouraged from taking their rest periods, required to remain on call during their rest periods, and/or were not relieved of all duties in order to take all rest periods. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when they suffered a rest period violation. As a result, Defendant failed to permit rest periods and pay rest period premiums in violation of Labor Code § 226.7. Additionally, Defendant recorded Plaintiff's and Other Aggrieved Employees' rest periods but failed to pay rest period premiums when their records showed rest periods were short or not provided.

Wage Statements

Due to Defendant's wage, meal period, and rest period violations as alleged above, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements that accurately reported gross wages earned, total hours worked, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in violation of Labor Code § 226. This failure was knowing and intentional.

Timing of Wage Payments

Due to Defendant's wage, meal period, and rest period violations as alleged above, Defendant failed to pay all wages due during Plaintiff's and other Aggrieved Employees' employment and at the end of their employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, and 210. This failure was willful and intentional.

Recordkeeping

Due to Defendant's wage, meal period, and rest period violations as alleged above, Defendant failed to maintain accurate and complete records showing the hours worked each day by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5.

Based on these violations, Plaintiff seeks civil penalties, injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees and costs under PAGA. Enclosed and incorporated herein is the class action complaint Plaintiff will be filing on behalf of herself and all other Aggrieved Employees against Defendant. Plaintiff intends to amend the complaint to add a cause of action under PAGA 65 days after the date of this notice pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A).

and on behalf of all others similarly situated

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF TULARE

RITA LAZARO, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

AVESIS, LLC; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.:

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Failure to Pay Wages;
2. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
3. Failure to Permit Rest Periods;
4. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
5. Failure to Pay All Wages Due During Employment and Upon Separation of Employment; and
6. Unfair and Unlawful Business Practices.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Rita Lazaro (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,
2 alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this putative class action against Defendants Avesis, LLC and DOES
5 1 through 50, inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of a
6 class of individuals who are and were employed by Defendants as non-exempt or hourly-paid
7 employees throughout California.

8 2. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in a pattern of wage and hour violations
9 under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of 10 which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair competition.

11 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 12 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 13 (a) failing to pay all wages;
- 14 (b) failing to provide meal periods or pay meal period premiums;
- 15 (c) failing to authorize or permit rest periods or pay rest period premiums;
- 16 (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
- 17 (e) failing to pay all wages due during employment and upon separation of 18 employment.

19 4. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of herself and all other 20 similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, statutory penalties,
21 benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201,
22 202, 203, 210, 218, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, and Code of California Civil 23 Procedure § 1021.5.

24 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

25 5. This is a class action brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

26 6. The monetary damages, restitution, penalties, and other legal and equitable relief
27 sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court and will be established
28 according to proof at trial.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the California Constitution, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, and/or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

9. Venue is proper in this court because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in this county.

THE PARTIES

10. Plaintiff is a California resident and was employed by Defendants in Tulare, California as a non-exempt customer engagement specialist from approximately November 2024 to approximately February 2026.

11. Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as employers whose employees were and are engaged to work throughout this county and the State of California.

12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the Defendant sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 50 but will amend the complaint and serve such fictitiously named Defendants once their names and capacities become known.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each and all of the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable, to each Defendant acting as the agent, employee, alter ego, and/or joint venturer of, or working in concert with, each of the other co-Defendants and within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity with legal authority to act on the others' behalf.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that during the relevant time period, DOES 1 through 50 were the employers of Plaintiff and the other members of the class

1 within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 2 thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working
3 conditions, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other members of 4 the class so as to make each Defendant an employer liable under the statutory provision set forth
5 herein.

6 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50 had 7 the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other members of the class, to set work rules
8 and conditions governing Plaintiff and the other members of the class's employment, and to 9 supervise their daily employment activities.

10 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that DOES 1 through 50
11 exercise sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other members of 12 the class's employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other members of the 13 class.

14 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15 17. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own
16 behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code
17 Business and Professions Code, and IWC Wage Order Violations.

18 18. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief
19 authorized by California law.

20 19. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

21 All individuals currently or formerly employed by Defendants as 22 non-exempt or hourly-paid employees in the State of California at 23 any time between four years prior to the filing of this action and the date of class certification ("Class").

24 20. Members of the Class described above will be collectively referred to as "Class
25 Members."

26 21. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish subclasses, or 27 modify or re-define any class definition as appropriate based on investigation, discovery, and 28 specific theories of liability.

1 22. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 2 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to 3 the following:

- 4 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages for 5 all hours worked by Plaintiff and Class Members;
- 6 (b) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 30-7 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked;
- 8 (c) Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premiums at the regular rate
9 of pay when Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with timely, 30-
10 minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked;
- 11 (d) Whether Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 12 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or 13 major fraction thereof;
- 14 (e) Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premiums at the regular rate of 15 pay when Plaintiff and Class Members were not permitted to take 10-minute,
16 uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major 17 fraction thereof;
- 18 (f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members accurate 19 itemized wage statements;
- 20 (g) Whether Defendants failed to pay wages timely to Plaintiff and Class
21 Members during employment;
- 22 (h) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 23 timely upon termination of employment;
- 24 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful, reckless, intentional, and/or 25 knowing; and
- 26 (j) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 27 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

28 23. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed

1 Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

- 2 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
3 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to 4 Plaintiff at this time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be 5 greater than 200 individuals. The identities of the Class Members are readily 6 ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.
- 7 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims
8 (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to 9 comply with the provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each
10 Class Member to similar pay, benefits, and other relief. The injuries
11 sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class
12 Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common 13 course of conduct as alleged herein.
- 14 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the 15 interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to 16 prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties
17 due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed class counsel, are competent and 18 experienced in litigating large employment class actions and versed in the 19 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff 20 has incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to 21 incur attorneys' fees and costs that have been and will be necessarily 22 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of the 23 Class Members.
- 24 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action adjudication
25 superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time,
26 effort, and expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid 27 inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be adjudicated in the 28 same manner for the entire Class at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24. During the relevant time period, Defendants employed Plaintiff and Class Members as non-exempt or hourly-paid employees throughout California at Defendants' California business location(s).

25. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to compensation for all hours worked. However, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages due for all hours worked due to Defendants' policy and practice of rounding Plaintiff's and Class Members' time worked for payroll purposes. As a result, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order.

26. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked or payment of meal period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof. However, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 30-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for every 5 hours worked and failed to pay meal period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order. Additionally, Defendants rounded Plaintiff's and Class Members' meal periods.

27. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive 10-minute, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof or payment of rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof. However, Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods for every 4 hours worked or major fraction thereof and failed to pay rest period premiums at their regular rate of pay in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Order. Additionally, Defendants recorded Plaintiff's and Class Members' rest periods but failed to pay rest period premiums when their records showed rest periods were short or not provided.

1 28. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members
2 were entitled to itemized wage statements that accurately showed, inter alia, gross wages earned,
3 total hours worked, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period
4 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. However, due to Defendants’
5 failure to record and pay for all time worked and Defendants’ failure to provide meal and rest
6 periods or meal and rest period premiums in lieu thereof, Defendants failed to provide accurate
7 itemized wage statements in violation of the Labor Code.

8 29. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew that Plaintiff and Class Members 9 were entitled to timely payment of wages due during employment and upon separation of 10 employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive payment 11 of all wages within the required time periods.

12 30. During the relevant time period, Defendants knew they had a duty to compensate
13 Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation
14 but willfully, knowingly, and/or intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants’
15 profits.

16 31. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief
17 against Defendants on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover, among 18 other things, unpaid wages, unpaid meal period premium payments, unpaid rest period premium
19 payments, interest, attorneys’ fees, penalties, costs, and expenses.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES

22 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, & 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order
23 §§ 3, 4, and 5)

24 32. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 25 though fully set forth herein.

26 33. During the relevant time period, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff
27 and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, et seq., 510, 1182.12, 28 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

1 34. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees must be paid overtime compensation at 2 1 ½ times their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of 8 hours in a day, 40 hours in a
3 week, and for the first 8 hours worked on the 7th day of work.

4 35. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed
5 by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than 6 the minimum so fixed is unlawful

7 36. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful 8 to employ individuals without compensating them at a rate of pay either 1 ½ times or 2 times the 9 individual's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the individual on a 10 daily or weekly basis.

11 37. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, Defendants were required to compensate 12 Plaintiff and Class Members for all overtime hours worked, calculated at 1 ½ times their regular 13 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 8 hours per workday, 40 hours per workweek, and for 14 the first 8 hours on the 7th consecutive workday, and 2 times their regular rate of pay for all hours
15 after 12 in a workday and for all hours over 8 worked on the 7th day of any workweek.

16 38. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
17 Members all wages owed when Defendants did not pay all wages owed for all hours worked.

18 39. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to 19 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and 20 all hours worked.

21 40. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay all wages to 22 Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked in violation of the Labor Code and the applicable
23 IWC Wage Order.

24 41. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members overtime and double-time
25 compensation violates Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

26 42. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class
27 Members the required wages, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid
28 balance of their wages, well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

43. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 & 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

45. Labor Code § 226.7 prohibits employers from requiring an employee to work during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

46. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order provides, “[n]o employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee.”

47. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a period of more than 5 hours per day without providing the employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is not more than 6 hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

48. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members, at times, did not receive compliant meal periods for every 5 hours worked because their meal periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second meal period.

50. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require

1 an employer to pay an employee an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for 2 each workday that a compliant meal period is not provided.

3 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
4 Members meal period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code
5 § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

6 52. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional 7 hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members 8 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST PERIODS

11 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

12 53. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 13 though fully set forth herein.

14 54. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
15 during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

16 55. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “[e]very employer shall 17 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the 18 middle of each work period[,]” and the “[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the total 19 hours worked daily at the rate of 10 minutes net rest time per 4 hours or major fraction thereof[,]”
20 unless the total time worked is less than 3 ½ hours.

21 56. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members, at times, did not 22 receive a 10-minute rest period for every 4 hours or major fraction thereof worked because they 23 were required to work through their rest periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest 24 periods.

25 57. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires 26 an employer to pay an employee an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 27 compensation for each day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

28 ///

58. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

59. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 226)

60. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

61. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

62. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff and Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state the gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiff and Class Members.

63. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutory rights. Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an injury pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a). In addition, because Defendants failed to provide accurate rates of pay on wage statements, Defendants prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from determining if all hours worked were paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants provided the accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover underpayment of wages from Defendants.

64. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or $50.00 for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and $100.00 per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding $4,000.00 per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

65. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted in a unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according to proof at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE DURING EMPLOYMENT AND UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218)

66. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.
