SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

AMIE ELIZABETH LENOIR, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

MAYBOURNE BEVERLY HILLS OPERATOR
LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26STCV27363

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF AMIE ELIZABETH LENOIR'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff AMIE ELIZABETH LENOIR ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants MAYBOURNE BEVERLY HILLS OPERATOR LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt

1 employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with 2 Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours 3 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay 4 overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; to authorize or permit all legally required and/or 5 compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally 6 required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all 7 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their 8 duties; failure to pay wages for accrued paid sick time at the regular rate of pay; statutory penalties 9 for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of 10 continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of 11 employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes 12 other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice 13 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees 14 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of 15 California, and others aggrieved.

16 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 18 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 19 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 20 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars 21 ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-22 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 24 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 225 North Canon Drive, Beverly 25 Hills, CA 90210.

26 III. PARTIES

27 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 28 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 1 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 2 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work

3 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 4 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 5 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 6 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around July 1, 7 2024, until on or around April 25, 2026.

8 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant MAYBOURNE 9 BEVERLY HILLS OPERATOR LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California 10 and is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all 11 times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant MAYBOURNE BEVERLY 12 HILLS OPERATOR LLC in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal 13 wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant MAYBOURNE BEVERLY HILLS OPERATOR 14 LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los 15 Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 225 North Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

16 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 17 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 18 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 19 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 20 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

21 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
22 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 23 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 24 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 25 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 26 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

27 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 28 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names

1 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 2 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 3 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 4 complaint.

5 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 6 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 7 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

9 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 10 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

11 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 12 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

13 9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

14 10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 15 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1171, 16 1774, 1194, 1197, 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

17 11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 18 Labor Code:

19 12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
20 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 21 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 22 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 23 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 24 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

25 13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 26 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 27 Wage Orders.

28 14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly

1 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 2 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 3 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 4 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 5 to:

6 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
7 based hourly non-exempt employees to engage in off-the-clock communications with Defendant 8 without paying them for such time.

9 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 10 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 11 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 12 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 13 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 14 Wage Order.

15 16. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
16 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
17 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 19 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 20 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 21 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 22 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 23 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 24 the benefit of the employer.'

25 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 26 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 27 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

28 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours

1 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 2 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 3 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 4 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 5 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 6 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 7 employee.

8 Labor Code section 510.

9 19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 10 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 11 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

12 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
13 based hourly non-exempt employees to engage in off-the-clock communications with Defendant 14 without paying them for such time.

15 20. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 16 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
17 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
18 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 21. Furthermore, overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular 20 rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment 21 paid to, or on behalf, of the employee." See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – 22 Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

23 22. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 24 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 25 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all 26 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 27 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, service charges and 28 bonuses, for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

23. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

24. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

25. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

26. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

27. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant

1 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-2 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 3 limited to:

4 (a) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 5 California-based hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at 6 least 30 minutes for every five hours worked.

7 28. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 8 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 9 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 10 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 11 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

12 29. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 13 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, short, 14 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 15 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-16 exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 17 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, service charges and 18 bonuses, for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved
19 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal 20 period premium wages.

21 30. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 22 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 23 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 24 periods in compliance with California law.

25 31. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
26 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant 27 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

28 ///

32. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

33. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’ rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period. Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

34. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at § 12.

35. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Sometimes failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.

36. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based

1 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
2 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 3 226.7.

4 37. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former 5 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, 6 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 7 hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
8 exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 9 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, service charges and 10 bonuses, for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved
11 California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest 12 period premiums.

13 38. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 14 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 15 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 16 in compliance with California law.

17 39. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant’s
18 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
19 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 40. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 21 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 22 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 23 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 24 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

25 41. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff 26 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees’ necessary 27 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 28 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

1 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
2 based employees the use of their personal cell phone (including both telephone use and cellular data 3 use) for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former 4 aggrieved California-based employees for such use.

5 42. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 6 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
7 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 8 compliance with California law.

9 43. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 10 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 11 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

12 44. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
13 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
14 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 45. Failure to provide sick pay wages: Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where 16 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 17 accrued paid sick time.

18 46. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part "[a]n employee 19 who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the 20 commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days." Additionally, an employee accrues 21 paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning 22 at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

23 47. Here, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-24 exempt employees were employed by Defendants for 30 or more days and were entitled to paid sick 25 days. Defendants, however, lacked a policy, practice, and/or procedure whereby Plaintiffs and other 26 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who were employed 27 by Defendants for 30 days or more could accrue paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) 28 hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment as required

1 by Labor Code section 246(b).

2 48. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 3 California-based hourly non-exempt employees elected to use paid sick time, Defendants failed to 4 pay them sick time wages at the proper sick time rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include 5 all remuneration when calculating the sick time rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 6 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration including but not limited to, 7 service charges and bonuses, for example, when calculating Plaintiff and other current and former 8 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of 9 paying sick time.

10 49. Defendants' foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants 11 failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-12 exempt employees' paid sick days, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

13 50. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
14 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
15 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 51. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 17 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 18 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 19 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 20 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 21 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 22 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 23 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 24 section 204(d).

25 52. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 26 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 27 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 28 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants'

1 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 2 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 3 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

4 53. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
5 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
6 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 54. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 8 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 9 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 10 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 11 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 12 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 13 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 14 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 15 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

16 55. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
17 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
18 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 56. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 20 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 21 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 22 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 23 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 24 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 25 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 26 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 27 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 28 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her

1 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 2 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 3 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

4 57. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 5 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 6 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 7 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 8 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 9 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

10 58. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

11 59. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
12 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
13 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

14 60. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 15 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 16 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 17 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

18 61. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
19 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 20 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 21 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 22 employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

23 62. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

24 63. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
25 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
26 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 64. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 28 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to

1 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 2 section 2699.3.

3 65. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 4 section 2699.3. On June 23, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 5 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 6 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 7 violations alleged.

8 66. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 9 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 10 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 11 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 12 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

13 67. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 14 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 15 246, 510, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 16 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 17 following amounts:

18 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802; 19 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 20 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 21 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

22 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 23 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 24 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 25 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

26 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 27 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 28 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts

1 established by Labor Code section 558].

2 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 3 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 4 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
5 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code
6 section 210].

7 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 8 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 9 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
10 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 11 section 225.5].

12 68. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 13 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

14 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

15 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED
16 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

17 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

18 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the 19 IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

20 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 21 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California 22 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

23 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 24 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and
