Attorneys for Plaintiff KEVIN A. ALFARO, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

KEVIN A. ALFARO, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

ROMERO'S ENGINEERING, INC. DBA
AMERICAN TURN-KEY FABRICATORS;
CITISTAFF SOLUTIONS, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26STCV27384

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF KEVIN A. ALFARO'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff KEVIN A. ALFARO ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants ROMERO'S ENGINEERING, INC. DBA AMERICAN TURN-KEY FABRICATORS; CITISTAFF SOLUTIONS, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself

1 and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt
2 employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with 3 Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours
4 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to 5 authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium
6 wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest 7 period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by 8 employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide 9 accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for 10 failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced 11 these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as 12 well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce
13 Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 14 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

15 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 17 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 18 civil penalties on behalf of himself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
19 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars
20 ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-
21 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 22 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 23 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 4875 Pacific Blvd, Vernon,
24 California 90058.

25 III. PARTIES

26 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 27 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 28 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is

1 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work
2 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
3 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 4 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 5 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around October 6 25, 2025, until on or around February 11, 2026.

7 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant ROMERO'S
8 ENGINEERING, INC. DBA AMERICAN TURN-KEY FABRICATORS is authorized to do
9 business within the State of California and is doing business in the State of California and/or that 10 Defendants DOES 1-33 are, and at all times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of 11 Defendant ROMERO'S ENGINEERING, INC. DBA AMERICAN TURN-KEY FABRICATORS
12 in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or 13 policies. Defendant ROMERO'S ENGINEERING, INC. DBA AMERICAN TURN-KEY
14 FABRICATORS operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees
15 in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 10150 Trask Avenue, Garden Grove,
16 California 92843.

17 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant CITISTAFF
18 SOLUTIONS, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business
19 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 34-66 are, and at all times relevant hereto
20 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant CITISTAFF SOLUTIONS, INC. in the establishment
21 of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant
22 CITISTAFF SOLUTIONS, INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and 23 aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 855 West Victoria
24 Street, Unit C, Compton, California 90220.

25 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 26 through 66 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 27 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 28 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 67 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this complaint.

9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

(Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California Labor Code:

1 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
2 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
3 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,”
4 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee
5 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 6 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

7 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees
8 for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 9 Wage Orders.

10 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 11 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 12 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
13 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all
14 hours worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 15 to:

16 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
17 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty after clocking- out for their meal breaks resulting in 18 untimely uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked.

19 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 20 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants’
21 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 22 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 23 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
24 Wage Order.

25 17. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant’s
26 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
27 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

28 ///

1 18. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay
2 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 3 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer
4 is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee
5 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 6 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 7 the benefit of the employer.’

8 19. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 9 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40)
10 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

11 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 12 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 13 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half
14 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours
15 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay
16 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 17 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 18 employee.

19 Labor Code section 510.

20 20. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
21 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 22 to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

23 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
24 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty after clocking- out for their meal breaks resulting in 25 untimely uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked.

26 21. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 27 Employer’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
28 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
29 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

30 22. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
31 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt

1 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 2 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
3 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday,
4 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed
5 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code
6 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

7 23. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 8 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 9 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 10 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 11 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

12 24. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 13 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 14 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 15 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 1 at §11;
16 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 17 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
18 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
19 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
20 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal
21 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 22 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

23 25. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 24 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay
25 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code
26 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 1 at §11.

27 26. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 28 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-

1 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 2 limited to:

3 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
4 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty after clocking- out for their meal breaks resulting in
5 untimely uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked;

6 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 7 hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no less than thirty 8 (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
9 based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

10 27. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 11 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 12 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 13 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 14 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

15 28. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 16 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 17 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal
18 periods in compliance with California law.

19 29. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
20 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
21 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 30. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
24 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 25 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 31. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code
28 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes'

1 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six
2 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
3 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7;
4 Wage Order 1 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
5 Wage Order 1 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit –
6 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
7 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 8 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

9 32. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 10 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 11 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 12 Order 1 at § 12.

13 33. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 14 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
15 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 16 limited to:

17 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 19 or major fraction thereof; and

20 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 21 hourly non-exempt employees a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no less than ten (10) net
22 minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 23 hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

24 34. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
25 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
27 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 28 226.7.

1 35. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and
2 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
3 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods
4 in compliance with California law.

5 36. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
6 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
7 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

8 37. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 9 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 10 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 11 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 12 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

13 38. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff
14 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary
15 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 16 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

17 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 employees the use of their personal cell phone (including both telephone use and cellular data use)
19 for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
20 California-based employees for such use;

21 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 employees to use their own personal vehicles for employment-related purposes, such as to drive to 23 Defendants' other locations due to understaffing-without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and 24 former aggrieved California-based employees for mileage; and

25 (c) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 employees to purchase uniform for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other 27 current and former aggrieved California-based employees for such use.

28 39. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and

1 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
2 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 3 compliance with California law.

4 40. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 5 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell
6 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

7 41. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
8 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
9 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 42. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 11 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 12 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 13 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 14 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 15 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll
16 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)
17 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 18 section 204(d).

19 43. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 20 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
21 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 22 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants'
23 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 24 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 25 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

26 44. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
27 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
28 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 45. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section
2 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated
3 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage
4 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 5 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful
6 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246,
7 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor
8 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 9 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

10 46. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
11 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
12 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

13 47. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section
14 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee
15 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 16 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 17 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 18 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare
19 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee
20 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders
21 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive
22 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her
23 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all
24 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 25 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

26 48. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff
27 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 28 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

49. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

50. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

51. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

52. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

53. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

54. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

55. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

56. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code section 2699.3. On June 23, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

57. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

58. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558].

d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 210].

1 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 2 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 3 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
4 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code
5 section 225.5].

6 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 7 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

8 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

9 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED
10 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

11 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

12 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the 13 IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

14 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations
15 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California
16 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

17 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 18 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 19 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 20 appropriate.
