Attorneys for Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER ROMARIO HERNANDEZ

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF VENTURA

CHRISTOPHER ROMARIO HERNANDEZ, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, and the general public,

Plaintiff,

v.

CONSUMER 2.0, INC., a California corporation; RENTLY, a business entity of unknown form; OAKS LABS, a business entity of unknown form; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2026CUOE068315

FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

1. Failure to Pay Hourly Wages and Overtime (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198
2. Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7, 512 and 1198);
3. Failure to Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198);
4. Failure to Pay Proper Vacation Wages (Lab. Code § 227.3);
5. Failure to Indemnify (Lab. Code § 2802);
6. Unfair Competition (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.);
7. Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements (Lab. Code §§ 226(a));
8. Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages (Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203); and
9. Civil Penalties (Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER ROMARIO HERNANDEZ (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all
2 others similarly situated, and the general public, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class action against Defendants CONSUMER 2 0 INC., a
5 California corporation; RENTLY, a business entity of unknown form, OAKS LABS a business entity
6 of unknown form; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for 7 alleged violations of the California Labor Code and California Business and Professions Code. As set 8 forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 9 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 10 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
- 11 c. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 12 d. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 13 e. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 14 f. failure to pay proper vacation wages;
- 15 g. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures;
- 16 h. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 17 i. failed to pay them all their final wages following separation of employment.

18 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class action to recover 19 unpaid wages, liquidated damages, statutory penalties, restitution, and related relief on behalf of 20 himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

21 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary 23 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 24 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

25 3. Venue is proper in the County of Ventura pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 26 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions that are 27 the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found, maintains 28 offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

4. Venue is proper in Ventura County because Defendants' have at all times alleged herein, conducted business in Ventura County, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper in any county in California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER ROMARIO HERNANDEZ is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant CONSUMER 2 0 INC., is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California corporation doing business in the State of California.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant RENTLY is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a business entity of unknown form doing business in the State of California.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant OAKS LABS is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a business entity of unknown form doing business in the State of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners, directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such other

1 defendants.

2 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
3 mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and 4 conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts
5 and omissions alleged herein.

6 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in all
7 respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried out a
8 joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each
9 Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all 10 respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them, exercised
11 control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or permitted
12 Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with 13 Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed Employees.

14 13. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code 15 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 16 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 17 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

18 14. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period 19 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- 20 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 21 separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or 22 non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee Class”).
- 23 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 24 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 25 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 26 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 27 d. Vacation Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who 28 earned paid vacation time and/or paid time off without receiving compensation for all vested paid vacation time during the Relevant Time Period.

- 1 e. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in 2 California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- 3 f. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 4 separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning 5 three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is 6 entered.
- 7 g. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during 8 the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final 9 judgment is entered.
- 10 a. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class
11 members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the 12 filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this 13 action.

14 15. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right
15 to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes 16 and/or by limitation to particular issues.

17 16. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each 18 individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of 19 class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number 20 exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

21 17. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all 22 class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members.
23 These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- 24 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class 25 members for all time worked;
- 26 b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 27 employees with their meal periods;
- 28 c. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their rest periods;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper vacation wages;

- f. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- g. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and total hours worked;
- i. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or incomplete final wage payments; and
- j. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203.

18. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this Complaint.

19. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

20. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of Plaintiff and absent class members.

21. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of

1 effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts
2 due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it
3 difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a 4 class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue
5 the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent 6 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 22. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 9 statutory periods.

10 23. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
11 and Class Members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.
12 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were not relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal
13 periods and were required to clock out and keep working during unpaid meal breaks. The forgoing
14 and uncompensated working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no 15 wages were paid.

16 24. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 17 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
18 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

19 25. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 20 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
21 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the 22 opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work. For 23 example, Plaintiff and Class Members were not relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal periods
24 and were required to keep working during meal breaks. Furthermore, during these instances, Plaintiff
25 and Class Members were asked by Defendants to clock out for timely meal breaks, asked to continue 26 working despite being clocked out, and then were sometimes allowed to take an actual meal break at 27 a later time during their shift.

28 ///

1 26. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
2 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal
3 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 4 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
5 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 6 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

7 27. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 8 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
9 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
10 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
11 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
12 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
13 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants'
14 policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to remain on the premises during their 15 rest breaks.

16 28. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 17 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

18 29. Defendants also had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay 19 Plaintiff and Class Members the requisite and accrued vacation time pay in accordance with 20 California Law. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members accrued vested vacation time and/or paid 21 time off. However, Defendants failed to pay all accrued vacation time and/or paid time off owed to 22 Plaintiff and Class Members upon their separation from employment.

23 30. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 24 executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were 25 required to use their personal cellphones for work-related activities such as texting/calling 26 supervisors, texting/calling clients, texting/calling co-workers, calling vendors of Defendants, 27 clocking in/out, approving timesheets, answering work emails, and monitoring the phone for work-
28 related communications throughout the entirety of each shift, all necessary to perform, their duties

1 under Defendants' employ. Plaintiff and Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary
2 work-related expenses.

3 31. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 4 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage 5 statements as "a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or 6 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing."
7 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in "ink
8 or other indelible form."

9 32. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as "gross wages 10 earned" were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

11 33. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as "total hours worked 12 by the employee" were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 13 not included.

14 34. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as "net wages earned"
15 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

16 35. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as "all applicable
17 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 18 hourly rate by the employee" were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 19 overtime, were not included.

20 36. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay 21 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
22 Plaintiff's and Class Members' wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation 23 of Labor Code § 226.

24 37. Defendants also failed to provide suitable seating. The operations at Defendants'
25 facilities allowed for the presence and use of a stool or seat during the performance of work duties.
26 The nature of the effected job positions can reasonably be accomplished while using a seat or stool.
27 However, Defendants failed to provide suitable seating when the nature of work reasonably permitted 28 sitting.

38. Finally, California Labor Code § 1198 requires that “. . . the standard conditions of labor fixed by the commission shall be the . . . standard conditions of labor for employees. The employment of any employee . . . under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.” Paragraph (14)(A) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders provides that “[a]ll working employees shall be provided with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats.” Paragraph 14(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders provides that “[w]hen employees are not engaged in the active duties of their employment and the nature of the work requires standing, an adequate number of suitable seats shall be placed in reasonable proximity to the work area and employees shall be permitted to use such seats when it does not interfere with the performance of their duties.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

(Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

(Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

39. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

40. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the applicable Wage Order.

41. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

42. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

43. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage Order.

1 44. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
2 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition
3 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

4 45. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
5 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 6 payroll period.

7 46. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 8 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 9 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

10 47. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 11 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

12 48. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned 13 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer 14 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 15 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

16 49. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 17 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

18 50. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees 19 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 20 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all
21 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours 22 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

23 51. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 24 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their respective 25 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for all 26 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

27 52. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied 28 centrally devised policies and practices to him and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 1 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

2 53. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
3 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 4 statutory and/or agreed rates.

5 54. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 6 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. Defendants had a common policy and 7 practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members proper wages
8 and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly
9 Employee Class members were not relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal periods and were 10 required to clock out and keep working during unpaid meal breaks. The forgoing and uncompensated
11 working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

12 55. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 13 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, 14 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 15 they were systemically denied.

16 56. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class 17 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 18 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period, 19 including overtime wages.

20 57. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 21 behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid straight time and 22 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

23 58. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 24 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 25 Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

28 ///

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS
(Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)
(Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

60. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

61. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period of ten hours.

62. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order ("Wage Order") both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

63. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor Code section 200.

64. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

65. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 'on duty' meal period and counted as time worked. An 'on duty' meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written

1 agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed
2 to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

3 66. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
4 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
5 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

6 67. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
7 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
8 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
9 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and the applicable Wage Order.
10 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
11 Sub-Class were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their 12 fifth hour of work. For example, Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Sub-Class were not 13 relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal periods and were required to keep working during 14 meal breaks. Furthermore, during these instances, Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Sub-
15 Class were asked by Defendants to clock out for timely meal breaks, asked to continue working 16 despite being clocked out, and then were sometimes allowed to take an actual meal break at a later 17 time during their shift.

18 68. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
19 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
20 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

21 69. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
22 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
23 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten (10) or more hours and failed
24 to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

25 70. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of 26 their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

27 71. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
28 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'

1 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

2 72. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 3 himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest
4 thereon, and costs of suit.

5 73. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the
6 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the 7 Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

10 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

11 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

12 74. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 13 herein.

14 75. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been 15 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
16 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

17 76. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on 18 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten 19 (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must 20 be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

21 77. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 22 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 23 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each 24 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

25 78. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
26 Code section 200.

27 79. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 28 violate the Wage Order.

1 80. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
2 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
3 with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or 4 major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

5 81. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 6 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
7 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 8 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 9 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Plaintiff and Rest Period
10 Sub-Class members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring 11 Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members to remain on the premises during their rest breaks.

12 82. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class 13 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

14 83. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself 15 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 16 costs of suit.

17 84. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 18 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest
19 Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

20 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PAY VACATION WAGES

22 (Lab. Code § 227.3)

23 (Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class)

24 85. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

25 86. California Labor Code section 227.3 provides:

26 Unless otherwise provided by a collective-bargaining agreement, 27 whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for 28 paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment

1 or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served; provided,
2 however, that an employment contract or employer policy shall not 3 provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon termination. The 4 Labor Commissioner or a designated representative, in the resolution of any dispute with regard to vested vacation time, shall apply the principles of equity and fairness.

5 87. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Plaintiff and members
6 of the Vacation Pay Class accrued vacation time, and/or paid time off, during their employment
7 with Defendants.

8 88. However, Defendants implemented a common policy and practice of failing to pay
9 Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class members for all accrued vacation wages upon separation of 10 employment, in violation of Labor Code 227.3. Specifically, Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class
11 members accrued vested vacation time and/or paid time off. However, Defendants failed to pay all 12 accrued vacation time and/or paid time off owed to Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class members upon 13 their separation from employment.

14 89. By reason of the above, Plaintiff and the members of the Vacation Pay Class are 15 entitled to restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the 16 filing of the original Complaint until the date of entry of judgment.

17 90. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the members of the Vacation Pay Class, seeks 18 interest thereon pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.6, costs pursuant to California Labor
19 Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 20 section 1021.5.

21 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

23 (Lab. Code § 2802)

24 (Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

25 91. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 26 herein.

27 ///

28 ///

1 92. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

2 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
3 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence 4 of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

5 93. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 6 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff
7 and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to use their personal cellphones for 8 work-related activities such as texting/calling supervisors, texting/calling clients, texting/calling co-
9 workers, calling vendors of Defendants, clocking in/out, approving timesheets, answering work
10 emails, and monitoring the phone for work-related communications throughout the entirety of each 11 shift, all necessary to perform, their duties under Defendants' employ. Plaintiff and Expense
12 Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

13 94. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 14 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 15 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

16 95. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 17 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 18 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 UNFAIR COMPETITION

21 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

22 (Plaintiff and the UCL Sub-Classes)

23 96. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 24 herein.

25 97. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines "unfair competition" to include 26 any unlawful business practice.

27 98. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
28 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code

1 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 2 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

3 99. Additionally, California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees
4 for all hours they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or 5 reasonable should know that employees have worked.

6 100. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,
7 THIRD, FOURTH, and FIFTH, causes of action herein.

8 101. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

9 102. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

10 103. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
11 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225, 12 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199,
13 and 2802 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the violations 14 alleged herein.

15 104. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
16 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt 17 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; proper vacation pay; and reimbursement for 18 necessary business expenditures.

19 105. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 20 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
21 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows 22 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 23 unlawful or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on his own behalf and on behalf of 24 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

25 106. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
26 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
27 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

28 ///

1 107. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been
2 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

3 108. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, 4 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in 5 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

6 109. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
7 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act
8 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

9 110. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
10 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
11 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
12 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

13 111. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
14 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
15 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
16 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 17 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 18 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission 19 Wage Orders.

20 112. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 21 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
22 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 23 and unfair business practices.

24 113. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
25 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
26 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

27 114. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 28 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully

1 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful
2 and unfair business practices.

3 115. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
4 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
5 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

6 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

8 (Lab. Code § 226)

9 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

10 116. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 11 herein.

12 117. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

13 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, 14 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the 15 check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if 16 wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized
17 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 18 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the 19 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 20 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that 21 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 22 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 23 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 24 name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social 25 security number or an employee identification number other than a 26 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that 27 is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 28 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California. For purposes of this subdivision, 'copy' includes a duplicate of the itemized statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

1 118. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) has sought to harmonize the 2 “detachable part of the check” provision and the “accurate itemized statement in writing” provision
3 of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee
4 retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with 5 electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic 6 statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

7 119. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
8 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members
9 with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class
10 members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages 11 described above.

12 120. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
13 Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE
14 Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Wage Statement Class members’ wage statements were only 15 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

16 121. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failure to provide Plaintiff and 17 Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that 18 Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally
19 provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor 20 Code section 226(a).

21 122. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that 22 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
23 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
24 statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants’ unlawful pay practices, has required 25 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 26 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 27 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 28 agencies.

123. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

(Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

(Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

124. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

125. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

126. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

127. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

128. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

129. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

130. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to timely pay all final wages to him and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been willful

1 in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201
2 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those 3 requirements.

4 131. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 5 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their 6 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

7 132. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
8 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
9 Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

10 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 CIVIL PENALTIES

12 (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

13 133. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

14 134. During the applicable limitations period, Defendants have violated Labor Code §§
15 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 515, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185,
16 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, and 2699, et seq., and California Business & Professions Code 17 § 17200 et seq.

18 135. Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself
19 and other current and former employees, to bring a representative civil action to recover civil penalties
20 pursuant to the procedures set forth in Labor Code § 2699.3 that may, but need not, be brought or 21 maintained as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

22 136. Plaintiff, a former employee against whom Defendants committed one or more of the 23 alleged Labor Code violations during the applicable limitations period, is an aggrieved employee
24 within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699(c). Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt 25 hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of 26 Defendants within the state of California from one year prior to the date of this letter and continuing 27 through the present (Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are collectively referred to herein as 28 "Aggrieved Employees")

1 137. In addition, paragraph (14)(A) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders provides that “[a]ll
2 working employees shall be provided with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably
3 permits the use of seats.” Paragraph 14(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders provides that “[w]hen
4 employees are not engaged in the active duties of their employment and the nature of the work
5 requires standing, an adequate number of suitable seats shall be placed in reasonable proximity to the 6 work area and employees shall be permitted to use such seats when it does not interfere with the 7 performance of their duties.

8 138. Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved Employees suitable seating when the nature
9 of these employees’ work reasonably permitted sitting. Defendants knew or should have known that 10 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to suitable seating and/or were entitled to sit when it did not
11 interfere with the performance of their duties, and that Defendants did not provide suitable seating
12 and did not allow them to sit when it did not interfere with the performance of their duties constituting 13 violations of of Labor Code § 1198 and regulations promulgated thereunder as herein alleged, 14 including Paragraph 14 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

15 139. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code §
16 2699.3. Notice was provided to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”)
17 and 65 days have elapsed without the LWDA providing Plaintiff with any notice of an intent to 18 investigate.

19 140. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff seeks the following civil 20 penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 226(a), 510, 512, 21 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198:

- 22 i. For violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 213, 212, 226.7, 1174, 1194, 23 1198, one hundred dollars ($100) for each employee per pay period for each 24 initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each employee per pay
25 period for each subsequent violation (penalties set by Labor Code § 26 2699(f)(2));
- 27 ii. For violations of Labor Code § 203, a penalty in an amount not exceeding thirty 28 (30) days’ pay as waiting time (penalties set by Labor Code § 256);

- 1 iii. For violations of Labor Code § 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for each
2 employee for each initial violation that was neither willful nor intentional, two
3 hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully
4 withheld from each employee, for each initial violation that was either willful
5 or intentional, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus twenty-6 five percent (25%) of the amount unlawfully withheld from each employee,
7 for each subsequent violation, regardless of whether the subsequent violation
8 was either willful or intentional (penalties set by Labor Code § 210);
- 9 iv. For violations of Labor Code § 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for each
10 employee for each initial violation that was neither willful nor intentional, two 11 hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of 12 the amount unlawfully withheld from each employee, for each initial violation 13 that was either willful or intentional, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each 14 employee, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount unlawfully withheld 15 from each employee, for each subsequent violation, regardless of whether the 16 subsequent violation was either willful or intentional (penalties set by Labor 17 Code § 225.5);
- 18 v. For violations of Labor Code § 226(a), if this action is deemed to be an initial 19 citation, two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each 20 violation. Alternatively, if an initial citation or its equivalent occurred before 21 the filing of this action, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each employee for 22 each violation (penalties set by Labor Code § 226.3);
- 23 vi. For violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 24 employee for each initial pay period for which the employee was underpaid, 25 and one hundred dollars ($100) for each employee for each subsequent pay
26 period for which the employee was underpaid (penalties set by Labor Code § 27 558);

28 ///

vii. For violations of Labor Code § 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee for each initial violation of Labor Code § 1197 that was intentional and two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation of Labor Code § 1197, regardless of whether the initial violation was intentional (penalties set by Labor Code § 1197.1); viii. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g), Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with Plaintiff's claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

- a. An order that the action be certified as a class action;
- b. An order that Plaintiff be appointed class representative;
- c. An order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;
- d. Unpaid wages and overtime;
- e. Actual damages;
- f. Liquidated damages;

- g. Unreimbursed expenses;
- h. Restitution;
- i. Declaratory relief;
- j. Pre-judgment interest;
- k. Statutory penalties;
- l. Civil penalties
- m. Costs of suit;
- n. Reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- o. Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
