Attorneys for Plaintiff JUAN MARQUEZ, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

JUAN MARQUEZ, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

ODORZX, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: CVPS2607078

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF JUAN MARQUEZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff JUAN MARQUEZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants ODORZX, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with

Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of himself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Riverside County, at 3400 E. Tahquitz Canyon Way, Plam Spring, CA 92262.

III. PARTIES

3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

1 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 2 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 3 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Riverside from in or around October 1, 4 2004, until on or around January 21, 2026.

5 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant ODORZX,
6 INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in the State of 7 California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto were persons
8 acting on behalf of Defendant ODORZX, INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the 9 aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant ODORZX, INC. operates in 10 Riverside County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Riverside County, including 11 but not limited to, at 3400 E. Tahquitz Canyon Way, Plam Spring, CA 92262.

12 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 13 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 14 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
15 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 16 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

17 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
18 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
19 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 20 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 21 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 22 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

23 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
24 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 25 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 26 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 27 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 28 complaint.

8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

(Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California Labor Code:

12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the Wage Orders.

14. In this case, Defendants routinely required Plaintiff and similarly situated employees to clock out for meal breaks, but to remain on duty during that time. In addition, Defendants often required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to work off-the-clock checking schedules, taking and responding to calls from management, and completing paperwork and reports.

1 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current
2 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 3 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 4 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not
5 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
6 Wage Order.

7 16. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
8 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
9 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay
11 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 12 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer
13 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee
14 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 15 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 16 the benefit of the employer.'

17 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 18 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40)
19 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

20 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 21 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 22 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half
23 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 24 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

25 Labor Code section 510.

26 1. In this case, Defendants routinely required Plaintiff and similarly situated employees
27 to clock out for meal breaks, but to remain on duty during that time. In addition, Defendants often 28 required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt

1 employees to work off-the-clock checking schedules, taking and responding to calls from 2 management, and completing paperwork and reports.

3 2. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 4 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
5 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
6 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 3. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
8 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 9 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 10 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
11 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday,
12 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed
13 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code
14 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

15 4. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 16 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 17 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 19 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

20 5. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 21 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 22 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 23 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 9 at §11;
24 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ
25 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
26 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
27 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
28 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

6. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 9 at §11.

7. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not limited to:

(a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked, due to workload coupled with understaffing.

(b) Routinely requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to clock out for meal breaks, but to remain on duty during that time resulting in meal breaks that were on-duty.

8. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

9. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal periods in compliance with California law.

10. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 11. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that
2 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
3 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
4 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

5 12. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
6 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code
7 section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’
8 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 9 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
10 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 11 Wage Order 9 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
12 Wage Order 9 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit –
13 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
14 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 15 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

16 13. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 17 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 18 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 19 Order 9 at § 12.

20 14. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 21 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
22 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 23 limited to:

24 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 hourly non-exempt employees with timely, duty-free, net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four 26 (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, due to workload coupled with understaffing.

27 15. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 28 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based

1 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
2 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 3 226.7.

4 16. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 5 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
6 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods
7 in compliance with California law.

8 17. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
9 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
10 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

11 18. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 12 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 13 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 14 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 15 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

16 19. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary
18 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 19 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

20 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 21 non-exempt employees the use of their personal cell phone (including both telephone use and 22 cellular data use) for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and 23 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees for such use.

24 20. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 25 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
26 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 27 compliance with California law.

28 21. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their

1 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell
2 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

3 22. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
4 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
5 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 23. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages
7 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 8 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 9 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 10 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 11 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll
12 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)
13 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 14 section 204(d).

15 24. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 16 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
17 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 18 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants'
19 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 20 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 21 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

22 25. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
23 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
24 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 26. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 26 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 27 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 28 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by

1 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful
2 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246,
3 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor
4 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 5 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

6 27. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
7 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
8 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

9 28. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section
10 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee
11 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 12 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 13 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 14 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare
15 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee
16 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders
17 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive
18 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 19 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 20 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
21 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

22 29. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff
23 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
24 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 25 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 27 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

28 30. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

1 31. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
2 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
3 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 32. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 5 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 6 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)
7 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

8 33. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
9 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 10 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 11 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 12 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

13 34. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

14 35. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
15 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
16 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

17 36. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 18 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 19 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code
20 section 2699.3.

21 37. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code
22 section 2699.3. On June 15, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 23 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 24 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 25 violations alleged.

26 38. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 27 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 28 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the

1 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends
2 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

3 39. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 4 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 5 510, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding
6 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 7 amounts:

8 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802;
9 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 10 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 11 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

12 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 13 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each
14 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period
15 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

16 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 17 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 18 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 19 established by Labor Code section 558].

20 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 21 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any
22 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
23 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code
24 section 210].

25 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 26 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any
27 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
28 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code

1 section 225.5].

2 40. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 3 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

4 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED
6 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

7 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

8 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the 9 IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

10 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations
11 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California
12 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

13 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 14 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 15 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 16 appropriate.
