Attorneys for Plaintiff MARISELA RAMIREZ, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

MARISELA RAMIREZ, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

XANITOS, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26STCV26523

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF MARISELA RAMIREZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff MARISELA RAMIREZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants XANITOS, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with

Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; failure to pay wages for accrued paid sick time at the regular rate of pay; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 1500 East Duarte Road, Duarte, CA 91010.

III. PARTIES

3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work

1 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 3 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 4 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around January
5 2023, until on or around January 23, 2026.

6 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant XANITOS,
7 INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in the State of 8 California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto were persons 9 acting on behalf of Defendant XANITOS, INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the 10 aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant XANITOS, INC. operates in 11 Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, 12 including but not limited to, at 1500 East Duarte Road, Duarte, CA 91010.

13 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 14 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 15 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
16 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 17 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

18 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
19 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 20 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 21 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 22 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 23 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

24 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
25 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 26 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 27 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 28 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this

1 complaint.

2 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 3 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff
4 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 7 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

8 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 9 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

10 9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11 10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 12 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 246, 512, 1194, 1197, 13 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

14 11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
15 Labor Code:

16 12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
17 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
18 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
19 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 20 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 21 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

22 13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees
23 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 24 Wage Orders.

25 14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 26 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 27 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
28 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all

1 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 2 to:

3 (a) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
4 based hourly non-exempt employees to participate in post-shift debriefings, after clocking out for 5 the end of their shifts, without being paid for this time.

6 (b) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
7 based hourly non-exempt employees to clock out, but remain on-duty during their off-the-clock
8 meal breaks because Defendants required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees to keep their personal cell phones on them and 10 monitored at all times during their shift, including during their off-the-clock meal breaks.

11 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 12 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants'
13 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 14 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 15 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
16 Wage Order.

17 16. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
18 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
19 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 17. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 21 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 22 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 23 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 24 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

25 18. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 26 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 27 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 28 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11;

1 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ
2 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
3 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
4 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
5 shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. A paid “on duty” meal
6 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 7 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

8 19. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 9 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay
10 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 11 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

12 20. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 13 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-14 exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 15 limited to:

16 (a) Sometimes due to workload and understaffing, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with timely, 18 uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least thirty (30) minutes for every five (5) hours worked.

19 (b) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
20 based hourly non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks
21 because Defendants required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 hourly non-exempt employees to keep their personal cell phones on them and monitored at all times 23 during their shift, including during their off-the-clock meal breaks.

24 21. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
25 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that
27 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 28 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

22. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, “lead pay”, for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal period premium wages.

23. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal periods in compliance with California law.

24. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’ rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period. Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.

1 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 2 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

3 27. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 4 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 5 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 6 Order 5 at § 12.

7 28. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 8 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
9 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 10 limited to:

11 (a) Sometimes due to workload and understaffing, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff
12 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with a rest 13 break of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.

14 (b) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
15 based hourly non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their rest breaks because Defendants
16 required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
17 employees to keep their personal cell phones on them and monitored at all times during their shift, 18 including during their rest breaks.

19 29. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
20 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 21 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
22 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 23 226.7.

24 30. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former 25 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, short, 26 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 27 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-28 exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy,

1 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, “lead pay”, for example,
2 when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
3 exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest period premiums.

4 31. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 5 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
6 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods
7 in compliance with California law.

8 32. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant’s
9 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
10 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

11 33. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 12 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 13 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 14 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 15 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

16 34. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees’ necessary
18 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 19 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

20 (a) Sometimes required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
21 based hourly non-exempt employees to use their personal cell phone (including both telephone use 22 and cellular data use) for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current 23 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees for such use.

24 35. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 25 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
26 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 27 compliance with California law.

28 36. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their

1 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell
2 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

3 37. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
4 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
5 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 38. Failure to provide sick pay wages: Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where
7 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees
8 accrued paid sick time.

9 39. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part "[a]n employee
10 who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the 11 commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days." Additionally, an employee accrues
12 paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning 13 at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

14 40. Here, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-15 exempt employees were employed by Defendants for 30 or more days and were entitled to paid sick
16 days. Defendants, however, lacked a policy, practice, and/or procedure whereby Plaintiffs and other
17 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who were employed
18 by Defendants for 30 days or more could accrue paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1)
19 hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment as required
20 by Labor Code section 246(b).

21 41. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 22 California-based hourly non-exempt employees elected to use paid sick time, Defendants failed to 23 pay them sick time wages at the proper sick time rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include
24 all remuneration when calculating the sick time rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 25 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration including but not limited to,
26 "lead pay", for example, when calculating Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
27 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying sick 28 time.

1 42. Defendants' foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants
2 failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-3 exempt employees' paid sick days, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

4 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
5 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
6 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 44. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 8 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 9 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 10 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 11 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 12 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll
13 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)
14 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 15 section 204(d).

16 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 17 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
18 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, meal period premium wages and/or rest 19 period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' aforementioned 20 policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and other current and 21 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned wages within the 22 applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

23 46. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
24 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
25 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 47. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 27 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 28 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage

1 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 2 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful
3 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246,
4 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor
5 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 6 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

7 48. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
8 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
9 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 49. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section
11 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee
12 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 13 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 14 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 15 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare
16 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee
17 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders
18 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive
19 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 20 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all
21 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 22 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

23 50. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff
24 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
25 earned (including minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages)
26 rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
27 employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

28 51. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

52. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

53. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

54. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all their earned wages (including minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

55. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

56. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

57. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

58. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code section 2699.3. On June 15, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the

1 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends
2 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

3 60. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 4 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 5 246, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding
6 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 7 amounts:

8 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802;
9 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 10 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 11 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].
