I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants’ violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants’ failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys’ fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff’s lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 5837 South Central Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90001.

1 III. PARTIES

2 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 3 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

4 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 5 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

6 11. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

7 12. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 8 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 9 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

10 13. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 11 Labor Code:

12 14. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
13 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 14 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 15 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 16 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 17 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

18 15. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 19 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 20 Wage Orders.

21 16. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 22 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 23 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 24 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 25 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 26 to:

27 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 28 hourly non-exempt employees to perform off-the-clock duties after the end of their shift, including

1 but not limited to:

- 2 i. Waiting to undergo and undergoing mandatory security bag checks after
- 3 clocking out for the end of their shift; and/or
- 4 ii. Performing closing procedures, including, but not limited to ensuring the
- 5 store was alarmed and secured after clocking out for the end of their shift.

6 17. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 7 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 8 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 9 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 10 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 11 Wage Order.

12 18. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
13 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
14 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 19. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 16 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 17 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 18 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 19 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 20 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 21 the benefit of the employer.'

22 20. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 23 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 24 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

25 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 26 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 27 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 28 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

1 Labor Code section 510.

2 21. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 3 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 4 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

5 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees to perform off-the-clock duties after the end of their shift, including 7 but not limited to:

- 8 i. Waiting to undergo and undergoing mandatory security bag checks after 9 clocking out for the end of their shift; and/or 10 ii. Performing closing procedures, including, but not limited to ensuring the 11 store was alarmed and secured after clocking out for the end of their shift.

12 22. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 13 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
14 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 15 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 23. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 17 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 18 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 19 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 20 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 21 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 22 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 23 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

24 24. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 25 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 26 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 28 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

1 25. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 2 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 3 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 4 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 7 at §11; 5 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 6 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 7 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 8 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 9 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 10 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 11 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

12 26. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 13 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 14 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 15 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 7 at §11.

16 27. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 17 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-18 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 19 limited to:

20 (a) Discouraging Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-21 based hourly non-exempt employees from taking off-premises meal breaks and failing to provide 22 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 23 duty-free 30 minute meal breaks if they did take off-premise meal breaks by requiring Plaintiff and 24 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to wait to 25 undergo and undergo mandatory security bag checks after clocking out for meal breaks and taking 26 said meal break off premises; and 27 ///

28 ///

1 (b) Failing to provide Employee and other current and former aggrieved 2 California-based hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at 3 least 30 minutes for every five hours worked, due to workload and understaffing.

4 28. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 5 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 7 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 8 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

9 29. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 10 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 11 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 12 periods in compliance with California law.

13 30. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
14 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
15 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 31. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 17 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
18 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 19 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

20 32. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 21 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 22 section 226.7; Wage Order 7 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes' 23 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 24 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker
25 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 26 Wage Order 7 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
27 Wage Order 7 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "'obligates employers to permit – 28 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods." Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.

1 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 2 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

3 33. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 4 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 5 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 6 Order 7 at § 12.

7 34. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 8 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 9 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 10 limited to:

11 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 12 California-based hourly non-exempt employees with uninterrupted net ten (10) minute rest breaks 13 for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, due to workload, understaffing, and the 14 walk to and from the break room reducing the effective length.

15 35. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 16 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 17 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 18 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 19 226.7.

20 36. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 21 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 22 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 23 in compliance with California law.

24 37. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
25 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
26 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 38. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 28 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all

1 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 2 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 3 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

4 39. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff 5 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary 6 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 7 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

8 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 9 hourly non-exempt employees the use of their personal cell phone (including both telephone use 10 and cellular data use) for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current 11 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees for such use.

12 40. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 13 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
14 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 15 compliance with California law.

16 41. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 17 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 18 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

19 42. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
20 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
21 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 43. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 23 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 24 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 25 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 26 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 27 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 28 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)

1 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 2 section 204(d).

3 44. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 4 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 5 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 6 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 7 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 8 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 9 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

10 45. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
11 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 12 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

13 46. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 14 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 15 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 16 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 17 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 18 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 19 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 20 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 21 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

22 47. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
23 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
24 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 48. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 26 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 27 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 28 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any

1 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 2 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 3 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 4 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 5 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 6 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 7 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 8 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 9 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

10 49. Defendants committed direct violations of Labor Code section 226, through their 11 policies, practices, and/or procedures, including, but not limited to failing to provide Plaintiff and 12 other similarly situated employees accurate itemized wage statements by failing to list accurate legal 13 name of the employing entity, including but not limited to: (1) Paystub identifies Employer as 1085 14 Garfield Beach CVS LLC (2) W-2 Form identifies Employer as CVS Pharmacy, Inc. acting as an 15 agent for 1085 Garfield Beach CVS LLC.

16 50. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 18 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 19 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 21 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

22 51. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

23 52. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
24 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
25 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 53. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 27 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 28 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)

1 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

2 54. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
3 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 4 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 5 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 6 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

7 55. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

8 56. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
9 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 10 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

11 57. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 12 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 13 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 14 section 2699.3.

15 58. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 16 section 2699.3. On June 8, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided 17 notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor 18 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

19 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 20 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 21 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 22 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 23 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

24 60. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 25 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 26 510, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding 27 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 28 amounts:

1 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802; 2 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 3 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 4 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

5 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 6 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 7 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 8 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

9 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 10 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 11 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 12 established by Labor Code section 558].

13 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 14 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 15 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
16 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 17 section 210].

18 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 19 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 20 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
21 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 22 section 225.5].

23 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 24 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.
