Plaintiff,

vs.

MADISON-DAVIS LLC; WEDBUSH
SECURITIES, INC.; WEDBUSH & CO., LLC;
WEDBUSH FINANCIAL SERVICES, LLC;
WEDBUSH CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC;
and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 26STCV29591

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF BRITTNEY DIAZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff BRITTNEY DIAZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants MADISON-DAVIS LLC; WEDBUSH SECURITIES, INC.; WEDBUSH &
CO., LLC; WEDBUSH FINANCIAL SERVICES, LLC; WEDBUSH CAPITAL
MANAGEMENT, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

- This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.

1 (“PAGA”) representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself
2 and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt 3 employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with 4 Defendants’ violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants’ failure to pay wages for all hours 5 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to 6 authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium 7 wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest 8 period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by 9 employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; failure to pay wages for accrued paid 10 sick time at the regular rate of pay; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage 11 statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely 12 pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations 13 personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff 14 seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, 15 civil penalties, reasonable attorneys’ fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs 16 brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

17 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 19 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff’s lawsuit seeks 20 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 21 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars 22 ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-23 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 24 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 25 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 225 South Lake Avenue PH, 26 Pasadena, California 91101.

27 III. PARTIES

28 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce

1 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 2 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 3 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work
4 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 5 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 6 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 7 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around August 8 1, 2024, until on or around March 20, 2026.

9 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant MADISON-10 DAVIS LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in the 11 State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-17 are, and at all times relevant hereto were 12 persons acting on behalf of Defendant MADISON-DAVIS LLC in the establishment of, or 13 ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant
14 MADISON-DAVIS LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved
15 employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 225 South Lake Avenue PH, 16 Pasadena, California 91101.

17 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WEDBUSH
18 SECURITIES, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business 19 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 18-34 are, and at all times relevant hereto
20 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant WEDBUSH SECURITIES, INC. in the establishment 21 of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant 22 WEDBUSH SECURITIES, INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and 23 aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 225 South Lake 24 Avenue PH, Pasadena, California 91101.

25 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WEDBUSH & 26 CO., LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business in the 27 State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 35-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto were 28 persons acting on behalf of Defendant WEDBUSH & CO., LLC in the establishment of, or

1 ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant
2 WEDBUSH & CO., LLC operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved
3 employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 225 South Lake Avenue PH,
4 Pasadena, California 91101.

5 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WEDBUSH 6 FINANICAL SERVICES, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 7 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 51-67 are, and at all times
8 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant WEDBUSH FINANICAL SERVICES, 9 LLC in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices
10 or policies. Defendant WEDBUSH FINANICAL SERVICES, LLC operates in Los Angeles County 11 and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited 12 to, at 225 South Lake Avenue PH, Pasadena, California 91101.

13 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant WEDBUSH 14 CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 15 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 68-84 are, and at all times
16 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant WEDBUSH CAPITAL 17 MANAGEMENT, LLC in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage 18 and hour practices or policies. Defendant WEDBUSH CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC operates 19 in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, 20 including but not limited to, at 225 South Lake Avenue PH, Pasadena, California 91101.

21 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 22 through 84 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 23 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 24 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 25 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

26 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 85
27 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 28 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager,

1 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 2 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 3 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

4 11. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 5 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 6 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 7 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 8 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 9 complaint.

10 12. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 11 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 12 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

14 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 15 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

16 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 17 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

18 13. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

19 14. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 20 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1194, 21 1197, 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

22 15. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 23 Labor Code:

24 16. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
25 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 26 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 27 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 28 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 1 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

2 17. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 3 for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 4 Wage Orders.

5 18. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 6 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 7 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 8 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 9 hours worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 10 to:

11 (a) Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
12 based hourly non-exempt employees their actual hours worked during their shifts and instead paid
13 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees by 14 scheduled hours despite that they routinely worked beyond their scheduled hours.

15 19. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 16 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants’ 17 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 19 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 20 Wage Order.

21 20. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant’s
22 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
23 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 21. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 25 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 26 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 27 is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee 28 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This

1 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 2 the benefit of the employer.’

3 22. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 4 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 5 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

6 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 7 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 8 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 9 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 10 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 11 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 12 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 13 employee.

14 Labor Code section 510.

15 23. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 16 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 17 to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

18 (a) Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
19 based hourly non-exempt employees their actual hours worked during their shifts and instead paid
20 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees by 21 scheduled hours despite that they routinely worked beyond their scheduled hours.

22 24. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 23 Employer’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
24 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
25 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 25. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 27 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 28 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed

1 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 2 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

3 26. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 4 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 5 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 7 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

8 27. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 9 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 10 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 11 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11; 12 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 13 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 14 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 15 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 16 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 17 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 18 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

19 28. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 20 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 21 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 22 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11.

23 29. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 24 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-25 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 26 limited to:

27 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 28 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes

1 for every five hours worked and

2 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 3 hourly non-exempt employees with a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no less than 4 thirty (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 5 California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

6 30. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 7 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 8 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 9 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 10 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

11 31. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 12 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 13 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 14 periods in compliance with California law.

15 32. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
16 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
17 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 33. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 19 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
20 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 21 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

22 34. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 23 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 24 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes' 25 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 26 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker
27 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 28 Wage Order 4 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.

1 Wage Order 4 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit –
2 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
3 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 4 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

5 35. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 6 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 7 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 8 Order 4 at § 12.

9 36. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 10 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 11 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 12 limited to:

13 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 14 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 15 or major fraction thereof; and

16 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 17 hourly non-exempt employees with a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no less than ten 18 (10) net minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-19 based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

20 37. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 21 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 23 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 24 226.7.

25 38. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 26 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 27 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 28 in compliance with California law.

1 39. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
2 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
3 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 40. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 5 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 6 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 7 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 8 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

9 41. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff 10 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary 11 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 12 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

13 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 14 employees the use of their personal cell phone (including both telephone use and cellular data use) 15 for work-related purposes - without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 16 California-based employees for such use.

17 42. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 18 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
19 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 20 compliance with California law.

21 43. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 22 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 23 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

24 44. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
25 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
26 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 45. Failure to provide sick pay wages: Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where 28 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees

1 accrued paid sick time.

2 46. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part “[a]n employee 3 who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the 4 commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days.” Additionally, an employee accrues 5 paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning 6 at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

7 47. Here, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-8 exempt employees were employed by Defendants for 30 or more days and were entitled to paid sick 9 days. Defendants, however, lacked a policy, practice, and/or procedure whereby Plaintiffs and other 10 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who were employed 11 by Defendants for 30 days or more could accrue paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) 12 hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment as required 13 by Labor Code section 246(b).

14 48. In this case, Defendant failed to properly accrue, track, or display California-15 mandated paid sick leave for Employee and other current and former aggrieved California-based 16 hourly non-exempt employees’ by using payroll operations through New York standards, Defendant 17 failed to pay mandated sick wages when due, and completely omitted the mandatory California sick 18 leave disclosures required under Section 246(i). Employee also believes these failures were 19 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 20 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

21 49. Defendants’ foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants 22 failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-23 exempt employees’ paid sick days, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

24 50. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
25 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
26 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

27 51. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 28 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 1 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 2 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 3 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 4 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 5 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 6 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 7 section 204(d).

8 52. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 9 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 10 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 11 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 12 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 13 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 14 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

15 53. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
16 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
17 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 54. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 19 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 20 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 21 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 22 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 23 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 24 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 25 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 26 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

27 55. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
28 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section

1 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

2 56. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 3 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 4 his or her wages, the employer must “furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 5 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 6 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 7 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 8 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 9 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 10 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 11 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 12 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 13 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 14 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

15 57. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 16 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 17 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 18 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 19 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 20 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

21 58. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

22 59. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
23 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
24 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 60. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 26 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 27 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 28 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

1 61. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
2 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all
3 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 4 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 5 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

6 62. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

7 63. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
8 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
9 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 64. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 11 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 12 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 13 section 2699.3.

14 65. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 15 section 2699.3. On July 13, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 16 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 17 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 18 violations alleged.

19 66. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 20 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 21 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 22 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 23 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

24 67. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 25 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 26 246, 510, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 27 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 28 following amounts:

1 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802; 2 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 3 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 4 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

5 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 6 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 7 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 8 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

9 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 10 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 11 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 12 established by Labor Code section 558].

13 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 14 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 15 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
16 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 17 section 210].

18 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 19 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 20 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
21 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 22 section 225.5].

23 68. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 24 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or appropriate.

Dated: September 17, 2026
