PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF ROXANNA GONZALEZ'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff ROXANNA GONZALEZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants HAMBURGER HOME, INC. dba AVIVA FAMILY AND CHILDREN'S SERVICES; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 7120 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90046.

III. PARTIES

3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

1 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 2 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 3 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around March 4 26, 2018, until on or around March 27, 2026.

5 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant HAMBURGER 6 HOME, INC. dba AVIVA FAMILY AND CHILDREN'S SERVICES is authorized to do business 7 within the State of California and is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants 8 DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant 9 HAMBURGER HOME, INC. dba AVIVA FAMILY AND CHILDREN'S SERVICES in the 10 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
11 Defendant HAMBURGER HOME, INC. dba AVIVA FAMILY AND CHILDREN'S SERVICES 12 operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles 13 County, including but not limited to, at 7120 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90046.

14 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 15 through 50 are corporations or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 16 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 17 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 18 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

19 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
20 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 21 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 22 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 23 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 24 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

25 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 26 sues said defendants by said fictitious names and will amend this complaint when the true names 27 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 28 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 5 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 8 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 10 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

11 9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 13 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 14 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

15 11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 16 Labor Code:

17 12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 21 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 22 indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 14. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 27 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 28 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 2 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 3 Wage Order.

4 15. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
5 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
6 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 16. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 8 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 9 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 10 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 11 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 12 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 13 the benefit of the employer.'

14 17. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 15 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 16 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

17 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 18 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 19 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 20 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 21 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 22 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 23 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 24 employee.

25 Labor Code section 510.

26 18. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 27 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
28 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19. Furthermore, overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment

1 paid to, or on behalf, of the employee.” See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – 2 Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

3 20. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 4 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 5 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants’ failure to include all 6 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 7 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, performance-based 8 bonuses, for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying 10 overtime.

11 21. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 12 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 13 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 14 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 15 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 16 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 17 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 18 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

19 22. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 20 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 21 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 23 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

24 23. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 25 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 26 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee’s activities prior to the 27 employee’s sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11; 28 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ

1 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 2 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 3 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 4 shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. A paid “on duty” meal 5 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 6 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

7 24. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 8 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay 9 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 10 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

11 25. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 12 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-13 exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 14 limited to:

15 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 16 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes 17 for every five hours worked.

18 26. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 19 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 21 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 22 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

23 27. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 24 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, 25 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 26 hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-27 exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 28 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as, performance-based

1 bonuses, for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved
2 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal 3 period premium wages.

4 28. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 5 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 6 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 7 periods in compliance with California law.

8 29. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
9 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
10 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

11 30. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 12 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 13 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 14 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 15 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

16 31. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff 17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary 18 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 19 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

20 (a) Sometimes requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-21 based hourly non-exempt employees to use their personal cell phones (including both telephone use 22 and cellular data use) for work related purposes without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and 23 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees for such use.

24 32. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 25 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment-related expenses.
26 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 27 compliance with California law.

28 ///

1 33. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 2 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 3 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

4 34. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant's
5 conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendant
6 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 35. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 8 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 9 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 10 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 11 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 12 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 13 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 14 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 15 section 204(d).

16 36. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 17 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 18 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period premium 19 wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, 20 and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved 21 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' earned wages within the applicable time frames 22 outlined in Labor Code section 204.

23 37. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
24 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 25 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 38. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 27 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 28 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage

1 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 2 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 3 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 4 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 5 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 6 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

7 39. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
8 Defendant would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 9 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 40. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 11 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 12 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 13 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 14 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 15 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 16 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 17 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 18 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 19 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 20 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 21 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 22 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

23 41. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff 24 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 25 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period premium wages) rendered 26 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' 27 wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

28 ///

1 42. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

2 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive – are 3 despite prior notice by other or similar claims, Defendant continually engages in the same or 4 substantially similar violations knowing that their respective actions are in violation of the various 5 provisions of the California Labor Code. The result is that Defendant remains and is further be liable 6 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 44. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 8 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 9 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 10 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

11 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
12 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 13 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, and/or meal period premium 14 wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee’s termination and/or 15 resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

16 46. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

17 47. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
18 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 19 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 48. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 21 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 22 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 23 section 2699.3.

24 49. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 25 section 2699.3. On July 13, 2026, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 26 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 27 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 28 violations alleged.

1 50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 2 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 3 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 4 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 5 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

6 51. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 7 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 8 510, 512, and 1194: During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding 9 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 10 amounts:

11 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 2802; 12 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 13 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 14 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

15 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 16 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 17 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 18 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

19 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 20 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 21 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 22 established by Labor Code section 558].

23 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 24 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 25 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
26 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 27 section 210].

28 ///

1 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 2 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 3 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
4 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 5 section 225.5].

6 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 7 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.
