1 Plaintiff JOSE BELTRAN (“Plaintiff”) individually and on behalf of other similarly
2 situated current and former employees of Defendant MONUMENT CONSTRUCTION, INC.
3 (“Defendant”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have 4 evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery,
5 alleges as follows:

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure
8 section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal 9 jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

10 2. Plaintiff’s First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 11 behalf of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendant (hereinafter
12 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 13 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
14 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 15 and will be established according to proof at trial.

16 3. Plaintiff’s Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 17 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 18 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 19 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is 20 an aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 21 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and 22 will be established according to proof at trial.

23 4. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
24 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes"
25 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 26 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

27 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, 28 Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over

1 it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

2 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant
3 maintains offices, has agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of 4 California, County of Contra Costa. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating 5 to Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees took place in the State of 6 California, including the County of Contra Costa.

7 PARTIES

8 7. Plaintiff JOSE BELTRAN is an individual residing in the State of California.

9 8. Defendant MONUMENT CONSTRUCTION, INC., at all times therein
10 mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and, at all times
11 herein mentioned, whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California, 12 including the County of Contra Costa.

13 9. At all relevant times, Defendant MONUMENT CONSTRUCTION, INC., was the 14 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

15 10. At all times herein relevant, Defendant MONUMENT CONSTRUCTION, INC.
16 and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 17 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or 18 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 19 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, 20 servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions
21 alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, 22 encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

23 11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 24 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sue said 25 defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 26 information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally 27 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 28 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

12. Defendant MONUMENT CONSTRUCTION, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiff bring this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

15. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid and non-except employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s original Complaint to final judgment.

16. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

17. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than one-hundred (100) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other class members’ as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff’s attorneys, the proposed

1 class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery,
2 certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency
3 of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been,
4 are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 5 substantial benefit of each class member.

- 6 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair
7 and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all 8 class members is impractical.
- 9 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 10 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 11 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 12 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
13 actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint 14 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

15 18. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 16 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 17 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 18 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in 19 accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 20 b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their 21 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours
22 worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal
23 periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 24 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over 25 eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay
26 the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class 27 members;
- 28 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- k. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- l. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- m. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

20. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

2 Plaintiff's, other class members', and Aggrieved Employees' employment for them to be joint 9 (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

10 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
12 employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing 13 to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for short, late, interrupted, and/or 14 missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

15 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
17 were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not 18 receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

19 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 failed to provide Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees all required rest
21 and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare

25 were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's,
26 the other class member's, and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when a meal period
27 was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay 28 at Plaintiff's, the other class member's, and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

1 know or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
2 were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's,
3 the other class member's, and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was 4 missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at 5 Plaintiff's, the other class members', and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when a rest
6 period was missed.

7 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
9 were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not 10 receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

11 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
13 were entitled to receive all wages owed upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 14 minimum wages and meal and rest premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all wages owed 15 to them at the time their discharge or resignation.

16 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
18 were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the other 19 class members, and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including 20 earned, but unpaid, overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, within 21 any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

22 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
24 were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California
25 law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants.
26 The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the accurate total number of hours
27 worked by Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees.

28 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees in accordance with California

1 law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

2 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
3 knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
4 were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

5 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the other class
7 members, and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the 8 financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to 9 do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees
10 that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

11 39. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 12 Plaintiff, the other class members, and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.

3 47. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
4 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 48. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 10 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

11 49. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 12 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 13 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 14 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

15 50. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 16 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and 17 working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the 18 rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than 19 forty (40) hours in a workweek.

20 51. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 21 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two 22 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

23 52. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 24 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in 25 a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 26 work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 27 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

28 53. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

54. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to

1 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members and failed to pay class
2 members overtime in the amount of one-and-one half time their correct regular rate of pay.

3 55. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance
4 of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California
5 Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

6 56. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 7 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 8 attorneys' fees.

9 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 57. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 13 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

16 Defendants.

17 59. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 18 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 19 applicable order of the California IWC.

20 60. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
21 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
22 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a 23 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of 24 the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent 25 of both the employer and employee.

26 61. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
27 section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee 28 to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived

1 by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not 2 waived.

3 62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 4 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 5 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 6 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or 7 rest period.

8 63. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 9 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for 10 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 11 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

12 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
13 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate 14 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 15 meal periods.

16 65. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
17 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 18 226.7.

19 66. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
20 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

21 67. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
22 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 23 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 24 meal or rest period is not provided.

25 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226. 7)

27 (Against All Defendants)

28 68. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

69. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor

Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

70. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

71. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof' unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

72. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

73. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

74. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7

75. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

76. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

(Against All Defendants)

77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

78. All relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

79. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

80. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

81. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee minimum wages.

82. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 202 and 203)

(Against All Defendants)

83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

84. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

85. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to

1 pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their 2 wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

3 86. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.

(Against All Defendants)

118. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

119. Plaintiff brings his eleventh cause of action as a representative action on behalf of

1 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general
2 pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et 3 seq. (“PAGA”).

4 120. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
5 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 6 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
7 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
8 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 9 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 10 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 11 2699(a).

12 121. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged 13 above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an 14 “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

15 122. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant has 16 routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 17 Codes by:

- 18 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum 19 wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;
- 20 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime 21 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;
- 22 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 23 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an 24 additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of 25 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- 26 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
27 to take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 28 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203;

- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204;
- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates; and
- i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in violation of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

123. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

124. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3. On December 12, 2023, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. The LWDA assigned Plaintiff's case number LWDA-CM-999362-23. Plaintiff also submitted a filing fee of seventy-five ($75.00) to the LWDA in accordance with Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(1)(B). As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's December 12, 2023, notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice.

1 Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other
2 Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

3 125. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 4 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
5 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
6 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

7 126. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
8 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
9 specified in Labor Code §2699.3.
