DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff LEMONDE LAWRENCE (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff LEMONDE LAWRENCE is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

6. Defendant ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS LLC, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los

1 Angeles.

2 7. At all relevant times, Defendant ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS LLC was the
3 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable laws and statutes.

4 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendant ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS LLC and DOES
5 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
6 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each
7 of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their
8 authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
9 employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein
10 were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, 11 authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

12 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 13 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
14 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 15 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
16 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 17 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
18 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 19 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

20 10. Defendant ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS LLC and DOES 1 through 100 will 21 hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

22 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 23 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 24 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and 25 employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

1 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 12. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members
3 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 4 Procedure section 382.

5 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

6 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
7 within the State of California at any time during the period from September 1,
8 2020 through December 6, 2023, or the date the number of workweeks exceeds 9 ten percent (10%) of the estimated 8,600 figure, whichever date is earlier.

10 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

11 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 12 the litigation:

13 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
14 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 15 unknown to Plaintiff at this time. However, the class is estimated to be 16 greater than three hundred (300) individuals and the identity of such 17 membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
18 employment records.

19 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
20 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect 21 the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined
22 community of interest.

23 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 24 each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of 25 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no
26 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's 27 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 28

class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of the law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;

- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay and sick leave pay;
- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of the law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

1 18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-
2 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Los
3 Angeles.

4 19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
5 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members'
6 employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

7 20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 8 Plaintiff and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and 9 the other class members.

10 21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other 11 class members.

12 22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 13 State of California.

14 23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or 15 forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

16 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
18 or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia,
19 failing to pay them for all hours worked, sick leave, missed meal periods, and missed rest
20 breaks in violation of the law.

21 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
23 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 24 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

1 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
3 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
4 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

5 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's
8 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 9 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
10 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
11 period was missed.

12 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
14 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff
15 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 16 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 17 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 18 missed.

19 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 22 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

23 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
26 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
27 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.
28

1 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with the law, but, in fact, Plaintiff and 4 the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 5 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 6 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

7 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 9 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

10 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
12 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with the law, but, in fact, did not keep 13 complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

14 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
16 members pursuant to the law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 17 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
18 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
19 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

20 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
21 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 22 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)
23 hours per week without overtime compensation.

24 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
25 calculate and pay sick leave to Plaintiff and the other class members.

27 ///

46. The applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

48. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by the laws, violates the provisions of Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

94. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

95. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2698, et seq.)

(Against ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS LLC and DOES 1 through 100)

96. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 95, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

97. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for a violation of the Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

98. On December 12, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated and the theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about February 15, 2024, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Plaintiff exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

99. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are of all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from August 22, 2022 through December 6, 2023 or the date the number of Workweeks exceeds ten percent (10%) of the estimated 8,600 figure, whichever date is earlier, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

100. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

101. As a policy and practice, Defendants routinely required Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees to work off-the-clock and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

102. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to include non-discretionary incentive pay and shift differentials in Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating overtime compensation and paid sick leave, resulting in a failure to pay overtime wages and paid sick leave at the proper rate, where applicable.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

103. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five

(5) hours worked.

104. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

105. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to include non-discretionary incentive pay and shift differentials in Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of meal and rest period premium payments.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

107. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time period.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

108. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 to 204.

109. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226, 1174, and 1776.

111. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Failure to Provide and Properly Pay Paid Sick Days

112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide their employees with paid sick days at their regular rate of pay pursuant to Labor Code section 246 et seq.

113. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick days at the proper rate of pay pursuant to Labor Code section 246 et seq.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

114. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

115. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them within the required time period.

Penalties

116. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff Burch, individually, and on behalf of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- b. Penalties under Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and
- f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

Re: Route 64 Logistics LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Lemonde Lawrence against Route 64 Logistics LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (collectively referred to as "ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS").

Mr. Lawrence is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Lawrence may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS is a California limited liability company headquartered at 5221 Cortland Street, Lynwood, California 90262.

ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS employed Mr. Lawrence as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Delivery Driver until in or around May 2021 in the State of California. ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS directly controlled the wages, hours, and/or working conditions of Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Lawrence may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS within the State of California.

ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum wages and overtime wages and for noncompliant meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Lawrence has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than 8 hours in one day and/or over 40 hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS required Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees to don and doff their uniforms and safety clothing before clocking in and after clocking respectively. By extension, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS also expected Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees to prepare their vehicles, unload supplies, answer supervisors' questions, and attend meetings before clocking in. Moreover, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS' general discouragement of overtime work pressured Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees to continue working (i.e., performing post-trip inspections) after clocking out for the day. This extended to ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS instructing Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees to assist their coworkers complete their deliveries after having already clocked out. Finally, despite ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS paying Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees non-discretionary bonuses, it failed to factor such payments into their regular rate of pay for overtime compensation purposes. Thus, Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for minimum and overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than 1 hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS failed to pay Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246. This included failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. Instead, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS only paid sick leave at Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees' base hourly rate.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee 1 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS frequently prevented employees from receiving compliant meal and rest breaks. A combination of ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS tasking Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees to complete a large number of deliveries each shift and pressures from supervisors forced them to forgo taking compliant meal and rest breaks. This included Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees working through their meal and rest breaks as well as taking short and late breaks just to keep up with their workloads. Even when Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees were afforded rare opportunities to take their meal breaks, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS still expected them to organize and arrange packages so that they can be delivered more efficiently. Thus, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS using an app that automatically clocked out Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees for meal breaks mainly served to obscure the various violations taking place. Finally, despite these facts, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS failed to compensate Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced. But the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS failed to pay Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees all wages, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 through 203. Therefore, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. In addition, California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS failed to pay Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages owed for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS did not provide Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees received from ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include: (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees; (2) total hours worked by Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees; (3) all deductions for Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees; (4) net wages earned by Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees; and (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC Wage Order shall be subject to a civil penalty. The civil penalty is as follows: (1) for any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; (2) for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; and (3) wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than 3 years.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

During the relevant time period, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS did not provide Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite having constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre-shift and post-shift work and work performed during meal and rest breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees incurred various necessary business-related expenses that were not fully reimbursed by ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS. This included Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees using their personal cell phones to clock in and out using an app, taking pictures, and communicating with supervisors and dispatch. Despite this, ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS did not have a policy or reimburse of reimbursing Mr. Lawrence and other aggrieved employees for this usage.

We believe that Mr. Lawrence and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant must send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Lawrence will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of ROUTE 64 LOGISTICS within 1 year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
