1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement Agreement entered into 4 between Plaintiff (on behalf of the Class) and Defendant. The Settlement Agreement will provide 5 substantial monetary payments to approximately 726 Class Members. And, as set forth more fully 6 below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law.
7 The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The 8 negotiations were at arms-length and after extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the 9 strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, the Parties executed the 10 Settlement Agreement on April 15, 2026. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily 11 approve the proposed Settlement, certify the Class, approve the proposed Class Notice, and set a 12 final approval hearing.

13 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

14 A. Plaintiff's Claims

15 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices 16 resulted in Labor Code violations. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 3.) Plaintiff alleges that Defendant 17 failed to pay for all hours worked. (Id.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to 18 pay for all hours worked, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest 19 periods, failure to timely pay final wages, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements. (Id.)

20 Based on these allegations, on October 30, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour
21 class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time 22 wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor 23 Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); 24 (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code § 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay 25 final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized 26 wage statements (Labor Code § 226); and (7) unfair business practices (Business and 27 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.). (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 4.) Plaintiff sent a notice to 28 Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") alleging

1 similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA on December 11, 2023. (Id.) On 2 February 14, 2024, Plaintiff filed a first amended complaint adding a cause of action for Civil 3 Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code § 2699 et seq. in the Action, 4 which alleged the PAGA claim against Defendant (the “Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

5 B. Discovery and Investigation

6 Following the filing of the Action, the Parties exchanged information, data, and 7 documents before going to mediation. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 5.) Defendant produced a 8 sample of time and pay records for Class Members. (Id.) Defendant also provided documents of 9 its wage and hour policies and practices during the Class Period, as well as information 10 regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses.
11 (Id.) The Parties have engaged in sufficient informal discovery and investigation to assess the 12 relative merits of the claims and contentions of the Parties. (Id.)

13 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices 14 and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 15 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary 16 exposure for all claims. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the 17 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the Action. (Id.) Class Counsel 18 reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) This extensive 19 investigation and discovery allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently and effectively in 20 negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

21 C. Settlement Negotiations

22 On December 4, 2024, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced 23 class action mediator Steve Cerveris, Esq. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 7.) The settlement 24 negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 25 adversarial. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and 26 weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached the Settlement, 27 the material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex.
28 1, Settlement Agreement.)

1 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. (Class 2 Counsel Decl., at ¶ 14.) Based on the foregoing discovery and their own independent 3 investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, just,
4 reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Class Members in light of all known 5 facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by 6 Defendant both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id.)

7 Indeed, the Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 55.7% of the realistic
8 maximum recovery of $1,489,687.53. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 22.) Although Class Counsel 9 estimated that Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $13.15
10 million, when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class 11 Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $1,489,687.53, meaning the 12 Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 14-26.) Considering the risk and 13 uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class.
14 (Id. at ¶ 27.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, 15 guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. (Id. at ¶ 23.)

16 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

17 The Settlement’s key terms include:

18 1. Class Period: “means the period from May 5, 2019, to June 30, 2025, or as modified 19 pursuant to Paragraph 8 of the Agreement, whichever is earliest.” (Settlement, § 1.12.)

20 2. Class: “means all persons employed by Defendant in California and classified as an

24 classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked for Defendant during the PAGA

27 modified pursuant to Paragraph 8 of the [Settlement] Agreement, whichever is earliest.” (Settlement, 28 § 1.31.)

1 5. Gross Settlement Amount: “means $830,000.00, which is the total amount

3 Settlement Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, 4 the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses
5 Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment.”
6 (Settlement, § 1.22.)

7 6. Uncashed Checks: “For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check 8 or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and canceled after the void date, the Administrator
9 shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed 10 Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to the 11 requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).” (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

12 7. Release by Participating Class Members: “All Participating Class Members, on 13 behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 14 administrators, successors, and assigns, release the Released Parties from any and all claims, 15 demands, liabilities and causes of action, whether in law or equity, arising from the same facts and/or 16 causes of action alleged against Defendant in the Action that were pled or that could have been pled 17 based on the facts contained in the Action, that accrued during the Class Period, including without 18 limitation, any and all claims for failure to pay all wages (including minimum, regular, overtime and 19 double time, and overtime at the correct regular rate of pay), failure to provide compliant meal and 20 rest periods and associated premium pay, failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to 21 timely pay wages during employment and upon separation of employment, failure to maintain 22 accurate payroll records, failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, and Unfair Competition 23 claims based on the foregoing causes of action arising during the Class Period in violation of 24 California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 218.6, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 25 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, Business and Professions
26 Code section 17200, et seq., and the applicable IWC Wage Orders (the "Released Class Claims").
27 Except as set forth in Section 5.2 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any 28 other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair

1 Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers'
2 compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside of the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 5.2.)

3 8. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “In light of the binding nature of a PAGA judgment 4 on non-party employees pursuant to applicable California law, including Arias v. Superior Ct.
5 (Dairy), 46 Cal. 4th 969 (2009), the Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and State of California
6 (through Plaintiffs release as agent and proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency), 7 shall be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, 8 and discharged any and all claims for civil penalties under the California Labor Code Private 9 Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), Labor Code section 2698, et seq., against the Released 10 Parties for work performed during the PAGA Period and based on the alleged violations of the 11 Labor Code sections alleged in Plaintiffs letter to the L WDA and the Action, or which could have 12 been alleged under the same facts plead in Plaintiffs letter to the L WDA or the Action, including 13 without limitation, civil penalties for failure to pay all wages (including minimum, regular, 14 overtime and double time, and overtime at the correct regular rate of pay), failure to provide 15 compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium pay, failure to provide compliant wage 16 statements, failure to timely pay wages during employment and upon separation of employment, 17 failure to maintain accurate payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses
18 arising during the PAGA Period in violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 19 210, 218.5, 218.6, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 20 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5 ("Released PAGA Claims").” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

21 9. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.”
22 (Settlement, § 3.1.)

23 10. PAGA Penalties: “means the total amount of PAGA civil penalties ($50,000.00) to 24 be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, allocated 25% to the Aggrieved Employees
25 ($12,500.00) and 75% to the LWDA ($37,500.00), in settlement of PAGA claims.” (Settlement, § 26 1.34.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion 27 for Preliminary Approval. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 9.)
28

1 11. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following
2 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA
3 Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel
4 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Costs Payment. The remainder is to be paid
5 to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

6 12. Distribution Formula: As to Class: “An Individual Class Payment is calculated by 7 (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all 8 Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) multiplying the result by each 9 individual Participating Class Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The 10 Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the 11 Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($12,500.00) by the total number of PAGA
12 Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, and (b)
13 multiplying the result by each individual Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved 14 Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA 15 Payment.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

16 13. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments: “20% of each Participating Class 17 Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the Settlement of wage claims (the “Wage 18 Portion”). The Wage Portion is subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 19 Form. The remaining 80% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be 20 allocated to the settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-21 Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms.
22 Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed 23 on their Individual Class Payment.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

24 14. Class Representative Service Award: “Class Representative Service Payment to the 25 Class Representative of not more than $10,000.00 (in addition to any Individual Class Payment 26 and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating 27 Class Member). Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff’s request for a Class Representative Service 28 Payment that does not exceed this amount.” (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

1 15. Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment: “A 2 Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 33 and 1/3%, which is currently estimated to be 3 $276,666.67, and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000.00.
4 Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments.” (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

5 16. Administrator: “means ILYM Group, Inc., the neutral entity the Parties have agreed 6 to appoint to administer the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.2.)

7 17. Administration Expenses Payment: “An Administration Expenses Payment not to 8 exceed $15,000.00, except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court.” The 9 Administrator’s bid is not to exceed $10,950.00 for 726 Class Members (the “Administration 10 Costs”). (Settlement, § 3.2.3; Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

11 18. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Class Notice sets forth in plain 12 terms, a statement of the Action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount 13 of the Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Costs, and Class Representative Service Award being 14 sought, and an explanation of how the Settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, 15 Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the Settlement. (Settlement, § 16 4.4.1.) The Settlement Administrator will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the Class Notice 17 is provided to the current addresses of Class Members, including conducting a national change of 18 address search and re-mailing the Class Notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 19 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

20 III. DISCUSSION

21 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 22 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 23 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
24 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.)

25 A. A Presumption of Fairness Exists Over The Settlement

26 Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; 27 (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is 28 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk at p. 1800.)

1 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Arm’s-Length Negotiations

2 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 3 evidence to the contrary is offered. No evidence to the contrary has been offered here; thus, there 4 is a presumption that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg
5 on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)

6 On December 4, 2024, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class
7 action mediator Steve Cerveris, Esq. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶ 7.) The Parties’ settlement 8 discussions were conducted at arms’ length and although the Parties were professional, the 9 settlement negotiations were adversarial with each of the Parties prepared to litigate their position 10 through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) The Parties participated in an 11 all-day mediation, which involved extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths 12 and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses. (Id. at ¶ 8.) Although the Parties 13 were unable to reach a resolution at mediation, the mediator continued to engage the Parties and 14 made a mediator’s proposal, which led to the Settlement. (Id.)

15 2. The Parties Conducted Sufficient Investigation

16 Prior to reaching this Settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 17 the claims set forth in the Action, such as a sample of Class Member timekeeping and payroll 18 records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 19 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 20 as information regarding the number of putative Class Members and the mix of current versus 21 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages
22 paid to Class Members. (Class Counsel Decl., at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual
23 investigation, Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses 24 asserted in the Action. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and Class Counsel were able to act intelligently and 25 effectively in negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

26 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

27 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
28 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are

1 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 36-50.) Although 2 Plaintiff and Class Counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the Action, they believe 3 the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of the Class.

4 4. The Percentage of Objectors Is Small

5 This factor cannot yet be determined unless and until the Court preliminarily approves the 6 Motion and the Class Notice. This factor will be properly addressed in Class Counsel’s Motion 7 for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, should this Court grant the instant Motion.

8 B. The Settlement Is Fair, Just, Reasonable, and Adequate

9 In considering whether a settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and adequate the trial court 10 should consider relevant factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, 11 expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action 12 status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the 13 stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, ... and the reaction of the class 14 members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 15 116, 128.) Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh
16 v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236.)

17 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 18 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 19 proposed Settlement is fair, just, adequate, and reasonable.

20 1. Plaintiff’s Strengths and Risks of Continued Litigation

21 Based on Plaintiff’s discovery and investigation, Class Counsel reached the conclusion that 22 Defendant had a policy and practice of: requiring its employees to work “off-the-clock” prior to 23 clocking in for the workday, during meal periods, and after clocking out for the workday, time
24 which it did not pay for; not providing its employees with California compliant meal and rest 25 periods, which it did not pay appropriate premiums for. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 16.) Defendant 26 denies these claims.

27 While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as 28 to each cause of action. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 23.) Plaintiff recognizes that proving the amount

1 of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain
2 proposition. (Id.) Although the Parties had engaged in significant amount of investigation, informal 3 discovery and Class-wide data analysis, the Parties had not yet completed formal written discovery.
4 (Id. at ¶ 24.) Plaintiff intended to depose corporate officers and managers of Defendant. (Id.) 5 Moreover, preparation for a class certification and a trial remained for the Parties as well as the 6 prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiffs and/or adverse 7 summary judgment ruling. (Id.) Had the Court certified any claims, Defendant could move to 8 decertify the claims. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees 9 and costs through trial. (Id.) This Settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of 10 further litigation. (Id.)

11 Balancing the strengths of Plaintiff's claims against the risks of continued litigation of the 12 Action, Plaintiff and Class Counsel determined that the proposed Settlement was in the best 13 interests of the Class.

14 2. The Gross Settlement Amount Is Reasonable

15 In order to approve a class action settlement, the Court must satisfy itself that the class 16 settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Kullar, at 133.) The fact that a plaintiff 17 might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve the 18 settlement. (Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) The record need not contain an 19 explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of 20 Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require "an explicit 21 statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims", 22 but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of 23 outcomes of the litigation."].)

24 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 25 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
26 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 ["Compromise is inherent 27 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 28 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no

1 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement
2 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

3 The proposed Gross Settlement Amount represents a substantial recovery when compared 4 to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Class Counsel Decl. at ¶¶ 14-26.) Because of the 5 proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk
6 of an unfavorable judgment. (Id.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 7 involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the 8 probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the Settlement is within the “ballpark” 9 of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Class
10 Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $623.12. (Id. at ¶ 26.)

11 C. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

12 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 13 Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. These amounts are 14 disclosed to all Class Members in the proposed Class Notice and are reasonable. (Class Counsel 15 Decl., at Ex. 1, Ex. A.)

16 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Based 17 on the “Common Fund” Method

18 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created 19 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that “when a number 20 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 21 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 22 may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 23 quoting D’Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

24 Class Counsel seeks approval of the Class Counsel Fees based on the “percentage of 25 recovery/common fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 26 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 27 burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v.
28 State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends

1 attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require 2 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly,
3 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 4 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an 5 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share." (Id. at p.
6 110.)

7 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 8 480 that, "when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 9 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 10 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 11 fund created." (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: "The recognized advantages of the percentage 12 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 13 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 14 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—15 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts."
16 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

17 2. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are in Line with Typical 18 Cases

19 According to a leading treatise on class actions, "[n]o general rule can be articulated on 20 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually, 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 21 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 22 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 23 are not unprecedented." (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
24 Attorneys' fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 25 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 26 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 27 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved "smaller" settlement funds of under $10 28 million].)

1 Here, the Class Counsel Fees Payment is equal to 33 and 1/3% of the Gross Settlement 2 Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and 3 academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008)
4 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage 5 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 6 recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the Class Counsel 7 Fees Payment as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

8 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

9 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 10 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 11 section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 12 larger than the total Class recovery at the conclusion of this Action should it proceed. The 13 Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, 14 energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their 15 decision to assume risk by taking on this Action. In fact, prosecution of this Action involved 16 significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 34-35.) Class Counsel
17 undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once Class 18 Counsel undertook this Action on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its 19 conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id.)

20 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 21 Requested Attorneys’ Fees and Costs

22 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 23 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Class 24 Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 36-50.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several 25 class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate 26 class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested 27 fee award is supported here.

1 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 2 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement.
3 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 4 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class
5 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee
6 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested Class 7 Counsel Fees are reasonable and fair.

8 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

9 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and "there is no 10 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other" class members, 11 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
12 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 13 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
14 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
15 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
16 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 17 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].)

18 Here, the PAGA Amount is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved by 19 the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia v.
20 Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 21 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 22 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
23 Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA 24 settlement of 0.27%].) The Parties negotiated the PAGA Penalties, 25% to the Aggrieved 25 Employees ($12,500.00) and 75% to LWDA ($37,500.00) in settlement of PAGA claims.
26 (Settlement, § 1.37.) The PAGA Amount equates to approximately 6% of the Gross Settlement 27 Amount, which far exceeds amounts that are routinely approved. The Parties negotiated to allocate 28

6% of the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA Penalties in good faith and this amount is reasonable.
(Class Counsel Decl., ¶ 21.)

E. The Class Representative Service Payment Is Reasonable

Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay the Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. Courts routinely approve service awards of $10,000.00 for plaintiffs represented by counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of America, National Association (N.D. Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].)

1 A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 2 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median 3 award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action
4 Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that 5 named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 6 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received 7 an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the 8 study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make 9 representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, 10 including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

11 Class Counsel represents that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting Class
12 Counsel litigate the Action, and Plaintiff communicated with Class Counsel during the mediation 13 and the preparation leading up to mediation. (See generally Plaintiff’s declaration; Class Counsel 14 Decl., ¶¶ 27-35.) The Class Representative Service Award is reasonable particularly in light of the 15 substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class Members and as compared to similarly situated 16 plaintiffs in other employment class and representative actions. (Id.)

17 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

18 A. Legal Standard

19 The proposed Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a 20 core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons 21 set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for 22 certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one 23 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is 24 impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of 25 all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382). There are three requirements to section 382: Class certification 26 requires proof (1) of a sufficiently numerous, ascertainable class, (2) of a well-defined community 27 of interest, and (3) that certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., 28

1 that proceeding as a class is superior to other methods. (In re Tobacco II Cases, (2009) 46
2 Cal.App.4th 298, 313.)

3 The California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to further 4 explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 5 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 6 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc.
7 (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

8 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
9 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 10 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system.” (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 11 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in 12 favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

13 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 14 Settlement Purposes.

15 1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

16 A class is ascertainable if a plaintiff supplies a reasonable means of identifying potential 17 class members and the class is defined in terms of objective characteristics and common facts 18 sufficient to allow a class member to identify himself or herself as having a right to recover based 19 on that description. (ABM Industries Overtime Cases, (2017) 19 Cal.App.5th 277, 303.) Courts 20 also consider the size or numerosity of the class when determining whether or not it is 21 ascertainable. (Id. at 302).

22 a) *Class Definition

23 When defining a class, the terminology used must convey “sufficient meaning to enable 24 persons hearing to determine whether they are members of the class” and if the proposed class 25 definition offers an objective way to identify those who will be bound by the results of the 26 litigation. (Id. at 302-303.) Courts have routinely certified classes defined using language to that 27 here. (Faulkinbury v. Boyd & Associates, Inc. (2013) 216 Cal.App.4th 220, 227; see also Brinker 28 at 1017-1018, 1019, defining several subclasses such as employees “who worked one or more work

1 periods in excess of three and a half hours without receiving a paid 10 minute break” and those 2 “who worked ‘off-the-clock’ or without pay.”)

3 Here, the Class definition (as stated above) is objective as it is limited in scope to a specific 4 time frame (during the Class Period) and is limited to the potential class members’ employment 5 classification (hourly-paid or non-exempt employees). Further, there are common facts that exist 6 here (such as those employees who worked without pay, were not given proper meal or rest periods, 7 etc.) that are encapsulated by the causes of action alleged in the Action. This definition therefore 8 provides sufficiently clear information to allow current and former employees to readily and 9 reasonably determine whether or not they are a putative Class Member in this Action based upon 10 this definition. (ABM at 304, stating “As long as the potential class members may be identified 11 without unreasonable expense or time and given notice of the litigation, and the proposed class 12 definition offers an objective means of identifying the persons who will be bound by the results of 13 the litigation, the ascertainability requirement is met.”) Thus, the proposed Class that Plaintiff 14 seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes approximately former and current 726 15 employees of Defendant.

16 b) Numerosity

17 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 18 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 19 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 20 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
21 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 22 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 23 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 24 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) If even as 25 little as 10 persons can constitute a class, then certainly the 726 Class Members here satisfy the 26 numerosity requirement.

1 2. There is a Well-Defined Community of Interest in the Questions of 2 Law and Fact

3 The community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 4 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 5 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond at 470.)

6 a) There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which 7 Predominate

8 The Court should grant conditional Class certification for settlement purposes here on the 9 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all Class and subclass predominate over any 10 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 11 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 12 Cal.App.3d 605.)

13 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 14 policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had 15 legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether 16 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees 17 to take rest periods; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether 18 payment of wages during employed was timely; whether final payment of wages was untimely and 19 excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period premium wages; whether wage statements 20 were consequently non-compliant; and whether Defendant failed to keep requisite payroll records.
21 Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all the identified Class Members, 22 including Plaintiff. Further, all Class Members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same 23 alleged injuries.

24 b) Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

25 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 26 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 27 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 28 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“[t]he only requirements are that common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated” vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class if they arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as such, Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees. Thus, Plaintiff’s claims arise out of the same practices of Defendant and rest on the same legal theories as those of the Class. Therefore, Plaintiff can easily meet the typicality requirement in favor of certification.

c) Plaintiff and Class Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, a named plaintiff’s interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained Class Counsel, whom have extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Class Counsel Decl., ¶¶ 36-50.) Class Counsel unquestionably is “qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with Class Counsel, litigated this Action and diligently reviewed the Settlement terms, showing their dedication. Plaintiff’s willingness to serve as Class Representative and to sacrifice the value of their own individual claims by executing a general release broader than that of the other Class Members so that the Class may benefit from this Settlement demonstrates Plaintiff’s serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the Class, thereby also demonstrating that Plaintiff’s interests are aligned with those of the Class and no conflict exists. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

Finally, in making its Class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.

1 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 2 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 3 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-4 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 5 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 6 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 7 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 8 are essentially non-existent.

9 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

10 A. The Proposed Class Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

11 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 12 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 13 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 14 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this Action, 15 the Class Notice will be disseminated through direct U.S. first class mail to the last known address 16 for each Class Member. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 17 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members” (Id. at p. 974.)
18 In this Action the Class Notice will be provided by direct mailing, which is the best possible form 19 of notice as it provides the most reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the 20 Class.

21 B. The Class Notice is Accurate and Informative

22 The proposed Class Notice is informative. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the 23 Settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. If there are Class Members who 24 wish to object to this proposed Settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections 25 and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

26 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & 27 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date 28 and the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, in an informative and coherent

1 manner. It makes clear that the Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission of 2 liability by the Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled 3 on the merits of the Action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to 4 be made. The Class Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and 5 neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

6 C. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

7 The proposed Class Notice, in the form attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement, 8 should be approved for dissemination to the Class. The Class Notice informs the Class of the terms
9 of the Settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 10 Members who wish to object to the Settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their 11 objections and be heard at the final approval hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Class Notice 12 meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court and should be 13 approved.

14 VI. CONCLUSION

15 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 16 approval of the proposed Settlement and set a final approval hearing on or after December 31, 17 2026.
