1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 The parties to this action have reached a Settlement and the Court preliminarily approved the 3 Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”), a true and correct copy of which is 4 attached as Exhibit #2 to the Declaration of Norman Blumenthal (“Blumenthal Decl.”).¹ In accordance 5 with the Preliminary Approval Order dated September 15, 2025 (“Preliminary Approval Order”), the 6 approved Class Notice has been disseminated to the Class.²

7 The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether the proposed settlement of the litigation 8 should be finally approved. Plaintiff Tawnee Rios (“Plaintiff”) respectfully moves for final approval, 9 including attorneys’ fees, costs and the service award, and the proposed entry of the Final Approval 10 Order and Judgment, submitted herewith. The settlement represents an excellent result for the Class and 11 avoids the delays, risks, and costs of further litigation. After disseminating the notice to the 2,553 12 members of the Class, there were no objections and only one request for exclusion, which means that 13 nearly the entire Class (99.96%) has elected to participate in the Settlement. Blumenthal Decl. ¶4. This 14 is a positive response from the Class evidencing their collective approval of the settlement. As a result, 15 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the class settlement should be finally approved for the same reasons 16 that the Court preliminarily approved the settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

17 II. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

18 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant 19 Barnes & Noble College Booksellers, LLC (“Defendant”) is One Million Three Hundred Thousand 20 Dollars ($1,300,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”). (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.22 and 3.1.) Under the 21 Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the 22 Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and 23 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class

25 ¹ Capitalized terms are defined in the Agreement.

26 ² The “Class” is defined as “all individuals who are or were previously employed by Defendant in 27 California and classified as non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period.” (Preliminary 28 Approval Order at ¶ 5.) The “Class Period” is defined as “March 20, 2020 through March 17, 2025.”
Id.

Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(a). The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(b). The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

$1,300,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- $10,000 (Plaintiff's proposed service award not to exceed amount)
- $40,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- $433,333 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - 1/3 of settlement)
- $30,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to PAGA Employees)
- $16,550 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

$770,117 (Net Settlement Amount)

The specific details of the Settlement were discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and are set forth again in the Declaration of Blumenthal at ¶¶ 3(c)-3(i).

The Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable to the class and should be finally approved for the same reasons the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, agreeing that the settlement is "fair, adequate, and reasonable." (Preliminary Approval Order at ¶ 3.) In sum, the Settlement valued at $1,300,000 is an excellent result for the Class. This result is particularly favorable in light of the fact that liability and class certification in this case were far from certain in light of the defenses asserted by Defendant. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the uncertainty of class certification, along with the uncertainties of proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(j).

III. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (2000) ("[V]oluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation.")

The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, taking into account that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting

1 subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See 2 Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 246 (2001) (“The proposed settlement is not to be 3 judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs 4 prevailed at trial.”) In Wershba, the Court explained that “the merits of the underlying class claims are 5 not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Id.; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

6 In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 7 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 8 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of 9 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 10 intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced 11 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 12 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the 13 proposed settlement satisfies that standard and the presumption applies.

14 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE

15 The Court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
16 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n, 688
17 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement 18 is fair. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117 (2009). “The well-recognized 19 factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement 20 agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 21 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 22 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views 23 of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 24 proposed settlement.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008); see also 25 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L. A., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 (2010).

26 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
27 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
28 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the

1 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, 2 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id.
3 “Ultimately, the [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, 4 gross approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” Id.

5 These factors are analyzed seriatim below, and all support final approval of the class action 6 settlement before this Court, consistent with this Court’s Preliminary Approval Order.

7 A. The Settlement Satisfies the California Test for Fairness

8 1. The Investigation and Analysis of Documents are Sufficient to Allow Counsel 9 and the Court to Act Intelligently

10 Over the course of more than one year of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of 11 the claims, including the production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the 12 full and complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in this Action. The procedural history 13 and investigation performed was detailed at length in support of the motion for preliminary approval.
14 The Settlement was the product of one arms-length mediation and contentious negotiations, both during 15 and after mediation, presided over by mediator Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. The details of the litigation 16 are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 6(a)-6(g).

17 2. The Settlement was Reached Through Arm’s Length Bargaining

18 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before 19 an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to deny any 20 wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class Counsel 21 have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class Claims of 22 the Class in accordance with this Settlement, based upon the experience of Class Counsel who has 23 previously litigated similar claims against other employers. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(a).

24 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq., a 25 respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement.
26 In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Plaintiff and Class Counsel with payroll and 27 employment data and other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and 28 other compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the 1 assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the 2 mediator. Following the all-day mediation session, with after arms' length negotiations both during and 3 after the mediation, the Parties agreed to this Settlement based upon a mediator's proposal. Blumenthal 4 Decl. ¶7(b).

5 The fact that the settlement was negotiated with the assistance of an experienced mediator 6 supports approval. Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 666 (E.D. Cal. Jun 24, 2008); Glass v. UBS
7 Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476; 15 Wage & Hour Cas. 2d (BNA) 1330, at *15 (N.D. Cal.
8 2007) ("The settlement was negotiated and approved by experienced counsel on both sides of the 9 litigation, with the assistance of a well-respected mediator with substantial experience in employment 10 litigation[, and] this factor supports approval of the settlement").

11 From January 2025 to June 2025, the settlement agreement and exhibits thereto were finalized 12 and executed. On September 10, 2025, the Court granted Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, 13 and entered an Order on September 15, 2025 approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable 14 to the Class that same date. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(c).

15 3. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

16 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience and has represented thousands 17 of persons in class actions including employment litigation, wage and hour class actions, and complex 18 litigation. Class Counsel has previously litigated wage and hour class actions involving employees and 19 claims similar to this case and have been approved as experienced class counsel during contested motions 20 in state and federal courts throughout California. The experience of counsel and class action cases 21 managed and settled by the Class Counsel in this action is provided to the Court in the Blumenthal Decl.
22 at Exhibit #1. Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and have 23 concluded the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class.
24 Blumenthal Decl. ¶ 3(j).

25 4. There Are No Objections and Few Requests for Exclusion

26 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. On October 20, 27 2025, the Administrator mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to the Class Members, which provided 28 each class member with the terms of the Settlement, including notice of the claims at issue and the

1 financial terms of the settlement, including the attorneys' fees, costs, and service award that were being 2 sought, how individual settlement awards would be calculated, and the specific, estimated payment 3 amount to that individual. See Declaration of Amanda Howard (“Howard Decl.”) ¶ 7, Exh. A. In 4 disseminating the notice, the Administrator followed the notice procedures authorized by the Court in 5 its Preliminary Approval Order. Significantly, there have been no objections and only one (1) request 6 for exclusion. Howard Decl. ¶¶ 11-12. As such, nearly the entire Class (99.96%) will participate in the 7 Settlement and will be sent a settlement check. See Howard Decl. at ¶¶ 14-16; Blumenthal Decl. ¶4.

8 The absence of any objector strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the 9 Settlement. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y.
10 2000) (“If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the 11 adequacy of the settlement.”); Stoetzner v. U.S. Steel Corp., 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (3d. Cir. 1990) (29 12 objections out of 281 member class “strongly favors settlement”); Laskey v. Int’l Union, 638 F.2d 954 13 (6th Cir. 1981) (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should 14 be considered when determining fairness of settlement). Here, where there are no objections, the 15 approval of the class is evident.

16 5. The Strength of Plaintiff’s Case

17 The Action generally alleges that Plaintiff and other Class Members were not properly paid all 18 overtime wages for hours worked and at the correct rate of pay, were not provided meal and rest periods 19 or paid premiums at the correct rate of pay in lieu thereof, were not timely paid earned wages, were not 20 provided reimbursement for required expenses, were not paid accrued and used sick pay at the correct 21 rate of pay, and not provided accurate itemized wage statements. The Action seeks unpaid wages, 22 penalties, attorney fees, litigation costs, and any other equitable or legal relief allegedly due and owing 23 to Plaintiff and the other Class Members by virtue of the foregoing claims. Blumenthal Decl. ¶5.

24 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
25 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by Defendant 26 present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted 27 that Defendant’s practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that Class 28 Members were paid for all time worked and that work time was properly recorded. Defendant

1 maintained there was no miscalculation of the regular rate when it paid overtime, meal premiums and 2 sick pay to the Plaintiff and the Class. Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully 3 complied with California law and that Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally 4 required meal and rest breaks. Defendant established that the number of meal premiums paid exceeded 5 the potential violations in the time records, which not only negated the meal period claim but also 6 provided evidence of its lawful practices. Defendant contends that there was no failure to pay for 7 business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that 8 reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendant has an argument that the Supreme Court 9 decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, 10 value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based on 11 its facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted 12 would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo 13 v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an employer reasonably and in good 14 faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with the 15 requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage 16 statement law.") If successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery 17 to the Class. While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these 18 defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(a).

19 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 20 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 (N.D. Cal. 2009), explained in approving an overtime class action settlement:

21 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great.
22 Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim... [...] the gross settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

23 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009); see also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 24 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiff's case, legal 25 uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor 26 approval."). As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

27 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting 28 final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the

1 uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse 2 judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay 3 payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today 4 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, 5 the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential 6 recovery through full adjudication.

7 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
8 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

9 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable to 10 obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf 11 of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed the 12 propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, as 13 demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal.
14 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the class 15 has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 16 certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial was 17 by no means a foregone conclusion. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(b).

18 In sum, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable result, and provides the Class with a significant 19 recovery, particularly when viewed in light of the fact that the Defendant asserted serious and substantial 20 defenses both to liability and to class certification. The maximum and average class member allocation 21 (in addition to their Individual PAGA Payment) are $2,876.72 and $301.77, respectively. See Howard 22 Decl. ¶16. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses, along with the uncertainties of proof and 23 appeal, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved.
24 Blumenthal Decl. at ¶8(e).

25 6. The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

26 As demonstrated by the decision in Duran, the complexities and duration of further litigation 27 cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that Defendant would post a bond and appeal in the event of 28 an adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years to 29 resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case 30 could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh

1 an uncertain result three or more years in the future. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

2 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against Defendant through 3 possible appeals which could take at least another two or three years. Class Counsel also have taken into 4 account the uncertain outcome, the risk of litigation, especially in complex actions such as this one. Class 5 Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses 6 to, the claims asserted in the Action. Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been 7 inevitable. Costs would have mounted and recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby 8 reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory. The Settlement confers substantial benefits upon the Class.
9 Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth 10 in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

11 Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that their case has merit, which Defendant continue 12 to vigorously deny, they recognized the potential risks both sides would face if litigation of the Action 13 continued. As the federal court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in 14 this litigation:

15 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, and 16 likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how this 17 Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely would 18 have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating 19 an appeal. "The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in 20 evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement."

21 Id. at *12.

22 7. The Amount Offered in Settlement

23 The Settlement in this case is fair, reasonable and adequate considering Defendant's defenses to 24 Plaintiff's claims. As set forth in the Declaration of Nordrehaug in support of preliminary approval 25 which discussed the value of the class claims in detail, the Gross Settlement Amount compares favorably 26 to the value of the claims. Based upon 2,552 Class Members who collectively worked an estimated 27 68,533 workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $509 per Class Member 28 and $18.96 per workweek and, after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $301.76 per Class Member and a recovery of $11.23 per workweek. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶8(d).

1 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 2 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff's damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 3 issue in this Action, Plaintiff used the expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 4 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $1,356,687 for the 5 alleged unpaid wages for off-the-clock work at one hour per week, $88 for alleged underpaid overtime 6 wages due to the alleged miscalculation of the regular rate, $1,445 for alleged underpaid meal premiums 7 and sick pay due to the alleged miscalculation of the result rate, $0 for alleged meal period damages 8 based upon a 7.5% potential violation rate for all shifts worked observed in the time records because the 9 meal premiums paid exceeded the alleged violations, $109,339 for alleged rest period damages based 10 upon the same 7.5% potential violation rate that was observed for meal period records, $106,965 for 11 alleged unreimbursed cell-phone expenses at $5 per month. As a result, the total damage valuation was 12 calculated such that Defendant was subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $1,574,525.
13 As to potential penalties, Plaintiff calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of 14 $5,908,645, depending on the predicate violation, and potential maximum wage statement penalties were 15 $1,542,200.³ Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Blumenthal 16 Decl. ¶8(d).

17 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $1,300,000 represents more than 82% of the 18 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁴
19 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
20 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for

21
22 ³ While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, 23 at mediation Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted 24 by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or rest 25 periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class Members were 26 properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There 27 is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether 28 and when the wages were due.").

29 ⁴ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 30 Plaintiff did not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The PAGA 31 claim was addressed in the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶33 filed in support of Plaintiff's Motion 32 for Preliminary Approval.

1 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum 2 calculations should then be realistically risk-adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class 3 certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the 4 settlement as compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by 5 Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.⁵ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met.
6 Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(d).

7 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARD
8 SHOULD BE APPROVED

9 A. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable and Supported by the Percentage of the 10 Fund Method

11 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at one-third (1/3) of the total value of the settlement 12 for the successful prosecution and resolution of this action.⁶ California state and federal courts have 13 recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage 14 of the total value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91
15 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 16 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The 17 purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to "spread litigation 18 costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 19 burden alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

20 The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys' fees in 21 wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common

22 ⁵ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 23 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 24 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 25 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents 26 approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v.
27 Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action 28 settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

⁶ Class Counsel heard the Court's concern at preliminary approval about a fee of 35%, and therefore seeks a fee award at the lesser amount equal to one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount.

1 fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v.
2 Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) (“We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state
3 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 4 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court 5 may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund
6 created”). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court’s objective remains to “mimic the market” 7 in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998).

8 First, the fee award representing one-third of the fund clearly falls within that range and is 9 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and 10 fee awards. Attorneys’ fees awards of one-third of the fund are within the expected range in the market 11 in legal services. See Fitzpatrick, An Empirical Study of Class Action Settlements and Their Fee Award, 12 7 J. Empirical Leg. Stud. 811, 833 (2010) (analyzing 444 cases between 2006-2007 and concluding that 13 “[m]ost fee awards were between 25 percent and 35 percent”). In Laffitte, the Court expressly approved 14 of a one-third fee award. Such similar awards by other Courts are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. ¶11.

15 Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund.
16 Here, Plaintiff and her counsel secured a $1,300,000 settlement for the benefit of the Class, and not one 17 Class Member objected. The Settlement was possible because Defendant recognized the risks that 18 Plaintiff could potentially prevail on any or all of the contested issues regarding liability, and obtain class 19 certification. Blumenthal Decl. ¶10(f). In successfully navigating these hurdles Class Counsel displayed 20 the necessary skills in both wage and hour and class action litigation. Moreover, as discussed above, 21 there were significant risks to the contingent litigation. See Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp., 22 297 F.R.D. 431, 449 (E.D. Cal. 2013) (“Like this case, where recovery is uncertain, an award of 23 one-third of the common fund as attorneys' fees has been found to be appropriate.”)

24 Third, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not decisive, is 25 relevant to the ... reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 26 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s “approximation of the 27 market” for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class that 28 Class Counsel would be seeking a one-third fee award. Again, there were no objections.

1 Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney's fees 2 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. Here, it is clear that a settlement fund of 3 $1,300,000 has been created. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature and the 4 case presented far more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the risks was the cost inherent 5 in class action litigation, as well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant who had retained a premier 6 and highly experienced defense firm. Counsel retained on a contingency fee basis, whether in private 7 matters or in class action litigation, is entitled to a premium above their hourly rate in order to 8 compensate for both the risks and the delay in payment. See e.g. Stanger v. China Elec. Motor, 9 Inc., 812 F.3d 734, 741 (9th Cir. 2016) (courts "must" apply a risk enhancement); Stetson v. Grissom, 10 821 F.3d 1157, 1166 (9th Cir. 2016) (abuse of discretion not to apply risk multiplier).

11 Fifth, the requested fee award is supported by the lodestar cross-check. The reasonableness of 12 the requested attorneys' fee of one-third equal to $433,333 is also established by reference to Class 13 Counsel's lodestar in this matter. The contemporaneous billing records for Class Counsel evidence 14 that through December 31, 2025, Class Counsel's total lodestar is $165,227.50, with significant 15 additional fees still to be incurred to complete final approval and the settlement process.
16 Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12 and Exhibit #3. The requested fee award is therefore currently equivalent to 17 Class Counsel's total lodestar with a reasonable multiplier cross-check of less than 2.7 and there will be 18 additional lodestar incurred by Class Counsel to complete the settlement process and manage the 19 settlement distribution and reports. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12. Such a lodestar cross-check is within the 20 range of multipliers approved in other cases such as Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051
21 (9th Cir. 2002).⁷ As noted in Laffitte, the lodestar multiplier cross-check "does not override the trial

23 ⁷ See Johnson v. Brennan, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 105775 (S.D.N.Y. 2011) ("Courts regularly 24 award lodestar multipliers from two to six times lodestar"); Buccellato v. At&T Operations, Inc., 2011
25 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 85699, at *4 (N.D. Cal. June 30, 2011) (4.3 multiplier is reasonable); Laffitte, supra, 26 1 Cal. 5th at 487 (approving 1/3 fee award with multiplier of 2.13); Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290
27 F.3d 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002) (3.65 multiplier approved); Pellegrino v. Robert Half Intern., Inc., 182
28 Cal.App.4th 278 (2010) (in class actions reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often applied); Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 255 ("multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); In re Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases, 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (2009) (affirming multiplier of 2.52 as "fair and reasonable"); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (2008) (affirming multiplier of 2.53); Taylor v. Fedex Freight, Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (2.26 multiplier).

1 court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund” and Courts may only 2 consider adjustment when the “cross-check is extraordinarily high or low”. Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th 3 at 505. For such reasons, Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of one-third of the 4 common fund is fair and reasonable, and should be approved.

5 B. The Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses

6 The Agreement provides at paragraph 3.2(b), that Class Counsel may seek a “Class Counsel 7 Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $40,000.” Class Counsel requests reimbursement for 8 incurred litigation expenses and costs in the amount of $23,627.37 based upon counsel’s billing records, 9 which is less than the “not to exceed” amount. These litigation expenses include filing fees, mediation 10 expenses, expert expenses (Berger Consulting), and attorney service charges (OneLegal, Knox), all of 11 which are costs normally billed to the client.⁸ The details of the litigation expenses incurred are set forth 12 the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13 and Exhibit #3. These costs were reasonably incurred in the prosecution of 13 the Action. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13. Because these incurred expenses were necessary to the successful 14 prosecution of these claims, the request should be granted.

15 C. The Service Award Is Reasonable and Should be Approved

16 Plaintiff respectfully submits that for her service as the only class representative, Plaintiff should 17 be awarded the agreed service award of $10,000, in accordance with the Agreement for her time, risk 18 and effort expended on behalf of the Class as the class representatives. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) 19 Defendant has agreed to this payment and there have been no objections to the requested service award.
20 The Blumenthal Decl., at ¶14, provides a long list of equivalent service awards approved in California 21 in similar cases, which further supports the request in this case. Plaintiff’s Declaration is submitted in 22 support of this request and is attached as Exhibits #5 to the Blumenthal Decl.

23 As the sole representative of the Class, Plaintiff performed her duties to the Class admirably and 24 without exception. Plaintiff worked extensively with Class Counsel during the course of the litigation,

25
26 ⁸ Nontaxable costs are properly awarded where authorized by the parties’ agreement. Stetson, 821 27 F.3d at 1165. Accordingly, “[e]xpenses such as reimbursement for travel, meals, lodging, photocopying, 28 long-distance telephone calls, computer legal research, postage, courier service, mediation, exhibits, documents scanning, and visual equipment are typically recoverable.” Rutti v. Lojack Corp., Inc., 2012 WL 3151077, at *12 (C.D. Cal. 2012).

1 responding to numerous requests, searching for documents, working with counsel, and reviewing the 2 settlement documentation. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 14. Plaintiff's Declaration details the involvement, 3 stress and risks she undertook as a result of this Action. Plaintiff also assumed the serious risk that she 4 might possibly be liable for costs and fees to Defendant, as well as the reputational risk of being 5 "blacklisted" by other future employers for having filed a class action on behalf of employees.
6 Blumenthal Decl. at ¶15. Without Plaintiff's participation, cooperation and information, no other 7 employees would be receiving any benefit. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 15-16.

8 The payment of service awards to successful class representatives is appropriate and the amount 9 of $10,000 is well within the currently awarded range for similar settlements. See, e.g., Andrews v.
10 Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (finding that the 11 requested service awards of $15,000 each are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 12 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); 13 Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 14 where average class member payment was $351); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 15 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. 2008) (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime 16 class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 17 service award in overtime class action).

18 VI. CONCLUSION

19 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the proposed settlement be finally approved as fair, reasonable 20 and adequate and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith.
