DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 INTRODUCTION

2 1. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER SPANN (“Plaintiff”) brings this action on behalf of 3 herself and the Class Members who are defined as “all current and former employees within the 4 State of California who, at any time from four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, are or 5 were employed as non-exempt hourly employees by Defendants HOMELESS HEALTH CARE
6 LOS ANGELES, a California non-profit corporation; and DOES 1 through 50” (all defendants 7 being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”).

8 2. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of 9 the California Labor Code, relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC), and the 10 California Business & Professions Code, and seeks redress for these violations.

11 3. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and (1) shared 12 similar job duties and responsibilities; (2) was subjected to the same policies and practices; and (3) 13 endured similar violations at the hands of Defendants as the other Class Members who served in 14 similar and related positions.

15 THE PARTIES

16 A. The Plaintiff

17 4. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER SPANN resides in California, during the time period 18 relevant to this Complaint, was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within 19 the State of California.

20 B. The Defendants

21 5. Defendant HOMELESS HEALTH CARE LOS ANGELES is a California non-22 profit corporation and is registered with the California Secretary of State. Defendant HOMELESS 23 HEALTH CARE LOS ANGELES has been the employer listed on the wage statements and 24 employment records issued to Plaintiff during the relevant time period that Plaintiff was employed 25 with Defendants.

26 6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 27 whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently 28 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of 1 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants 2 designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in 3 some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend 4 this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as 5 Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

6 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in 7 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried 8 out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of 9 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in 10 all respects as the employers or joint employers of Class Members. Defendants, and each of them, 11 exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Class Members, or suffered or 12 permitted Class Members to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment 13 relationship, with Class Members. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly 14 employed Class Members.

15 8. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act by a 16 defendant or defendants, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to mean the acts and 17 failures to act of each defendant acting individually, jointly, and severally.

18 9. Whenever and wherever reference is made to individuals who are not named as a 19 Defendant in this Complaint but were agents, servants, employees and/or supervisors of 20 Defendants, such individuals at all relevant times acted on behalf of Defendants within the scope 21 of their employment.

22 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

23 10. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 24 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought 25 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Class Members of Defendants pursuant to 26 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial 27 district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, 28 the obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred in part in Los Angeles County.

Defendants maintain and operate facilities in Los Angeles County and employs Plaintiff and other Class Members in Los Angeles County, while doing business throughout California.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. Class Members consistently worked at Defendants behest without being paid all wages due. Class Members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Plaintiff also contends that Defendants failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing, including by requiring off the clock work, unlawfully rounding to their detriment, failing to provide meal and rest breaks, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to timely pay wages including final wages, failing to reimburse class members for necessary business expenses, failing to maintain accurate records, and engaging in unfair business practices, all in violation of various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

12. During the course of Class Members' employment with Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed resulting in off the clock work. Defendants required Class Members to perform pre-shift and post-shift off the clock work. For instance, after the end of Class Members' scheduled shift, they were required to take their laptops home and complete work not finished during the shift. Additionally, Class Members were required to use their personal cell phones off-the-clock to provide services to clients and assist management in fulfilling job duties when they were unable to do so themselves.

13. Moreover, Defendants had a consistent policy and practice of unlawfully rounding hours worked to the detriment of the Class Members. Rather than paying Class Members for all hours and minutes they actually worked, Defendants followed a uniform policy and practice of rounding all time entries to the nearest quarter-hour or half-hour (i.e. to the nearest 15-minute or 30-minute time increment), and generally did so to the detriment of the Class Members, and Plaintiff contend this policy is not neutral and resulted, over time, to the detriment of the Class Members by systematically under-compensating them. Rather than reflecting the actual hours worked by Class Members, the time entries were rounded and reduced to reflect the scheduled work time rather than the actual hours worked. These unlawfully rounded time entries were

1 inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage statements and payroll checks were 2 created.

3 14. By implementing policies, programs, practices, procedures and protocols which 4 resulted in off the clock work and unlawful rounding, Defendants' willful actions resulted in the 5 systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, including underpayment of overtime pay to 6 Class Members over the relevant time period. For example, the above described off the clock work 7 addressed above caused Plaintiff to begin receiving overtime pay later than they should have.

8 15. As a result of the above described requirements to work off the clock and unlawful 9 rounding by Defendants and the other wage violations Class Members endured at Defendants' 10 hands, Class Members were not properly paid all wages earned and all wages owed to them by 11 Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than 12 forty (40) hours in any given week.

13 16. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices, Class Members incurred 14 overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately and completely compensated, in 15 addition to the hours they were required to work off the clock. To the extent applicable, 16 Defendants also failed to pay Class Members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for 17 the first eight hours of the seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the 18 rate of 2 times the regular rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work 19 day, as required under the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

20 17. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 21 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
22 Members for all hours worked, and failing to pay minimum wages for all time worked, as required 23 by California law. Defendants thus failed to pay Class Members at least minimum wages for all 24 the time they worked for Defendants in violation of the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage 25 Orders as the actual times when Class Members were under the control and direction of 26 Defendants was under reported in the hours reflected on the timekeeping records. Furthermore, 27 Defendants' willful actions resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Class Members, 28 including underpayment of overtime pay to Class Members over a period of time.

1 18. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
2 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Class
3 Members for all hours worked. Also, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit
4 and continuing to the present, Defendants also had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay 5 Class Members their true and correct overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all 6 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time
7 rates for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510
8 and the corresponding sections of IWC Wage Orders.

9 19. Additionally, Defendants failed to provide all the legally required unpaid, off-duty 10 meal periods and all the legally required paid, off-duty rest periods to Class Members, as required 11 by the applicable Wage Order and Labor Code. Class Members were required to perform work as 12 ordered by Defendants for more than five (5) hours during a shift but were often required to do so 13 without receiving a lawful and timely meal break. In addition to untimely meal periods, 14 Defendants also required Class Members to respond to work demands. Defendants placed their 15 needs over Class Members lawful meal and rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members often 16 having to work through their scheduled meal and/or rest breaks, or otherwise taking shortened 17 ones, because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 18 uninterrupted and off duty meal and/or rest break. Further, to the extent that Class Members were 19 able to take a break, Defendants prohibited employees from leaving the premises during their shift
20 and/or any legally required break thereby depriving Class Members of any legally compliant 21 breaks. Additionally, to the extent Class Members attempted to take a break, they were required to 22 carry their phones on them for work purposes.

23 20. On the occasions when Class Members worked over 10 hours in a shift, Defendants 24 also failed to provide them with a second, uninterrupted, timely and duty-free meal period. As a 25 result, Defendants' failure to provide Class Members with all legally required off-duty, unpaid 26 meal periods and all the legally required off-duty, paid rest periods is and will be evidenced by 27 Defendants' business records, or lack thereof. Defendants also failed to pay Class Members 28 "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Class Member's effective hourly rate of pay, for

1 each meal period or rest break that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

2 21. Therefore, for at least four years prior to the filing of this action and through to the 3 present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to work shifts in excess of five (5) 4 hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes, 5 and shifts in excess of (10) hours without providing them with second meal periods of not less 6 than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Class Members “premium pay,” i.e. one hour of 7 wages at each Class Member’s effective hourly rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants 8 failed to provide or deficiently provided.

9 22. Meal period violations thus occurred in one or more of the following manners:

- 10 (a) Class Members were not provided full thirty-minute duty free meal periods 11 for work days in excess of five (5) hours and were not compensated one (1) 12 hour’s wages in lieu thereof, all in violation of, among others, Labor Code 13 §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 14 Order(s);
- 15 (b) Class Members were not provided second full thirty-minute duty free meal 16 periods for work days in excess of ten (10) hours;
- 17 (c) Class Members were required to work through at least part of their daily 18 meal period(s);
- 19 (d) Meal periods were provided after five (5) hours of continuous work during 20 a shift; and
- 21 (e) Class Members were restricted in their ability to take a full thirty-minute 22 meal period.
- 23 (f) Class Members were restricted in their ability to leave the premises during 24 their meal period.

25 23. Class Members were also not authorized and permitted to take lawful rest periods, 26 were systematically required by Defendants to work through or during breaks and were not 27 provided with one (1) hour’s wages in lieu thereof. Class Members were restricted in their ability 28 to take their full ten (10) minutes net rest time or were otherwise not provided with duty-free rest

1 periods. Therefore, from at least four years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 2 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Class Members with paid rest breaks of not 3 less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours; or major fraction
4 thereof, nor did Defendant pay Class Members premium pay for each day on which requisite rest 5 breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided.

6 24. Rest period violations therefore arose in one or more of the following manners:

7 (a) Class Members were required to work without being provided a minimum 8 ten (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction 9 thereof worked and were not compensated one (1) hour of pay at their 10 regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not 11 provided;

12 (b) Class Members were not authorized and permitted to take timely rest 13 periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof; and 14 (c) Class Members were required to remain on-duty during rest periods or 15 otherwise had their rest periods interrupted by work demands.

16 (d) Class Members were prohibited from leaving the premises during their rest 17 period.

18 25. Defendants also consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as 19 required by Labor Code § 226(a). Additionally, the wage statements given to Class Members 20 failed to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because their actual hours worked 21 were under-reported due to off the clock work and detrimental rounding. Additionally, the wage 22 statements given to Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently 23 provided meal periods and rest breaks.

24 26. From at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present,
25 Defendants have thus also had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages owed to Class 26 Members at the time of their termination of within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 27 required by California wage-and-hour laws. Specifically, Class Members were not paid all regular 28 and overtime wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked by requiring off the

1 clock work and due to unlawful rounding. Additionally, Defendants failed to pay premium wages 2 owed for unprovided meal periods and rest periods, as further detailed in this Complaint.
3 Defendants' failure to pay said wages within the required time was willful within the meaning of 4 Labor Code § 203.

5 27. From at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present, 6 Defendants have thus also had a consistent policy of failing to provide Class Members with their 7 records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable request within twenty-one calendar days 8 from the date of the request.

9 28. From at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present
10 Defendants have thus also had a consistent policy of failing to provide Class Members with a copy 11 of their personnel records, upon reasonable request, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date 12 of the request.

13 29. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 14 continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Class Members to incur business 15 expenses in the course of performing their required job duties for Defendants including for cell 16 phone expenses and home internet use. Upon information and belief, Class Members incurred 17 similar costs. These expenses incurred by Class Members were necessary and required of them in 18 performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Class Members for all 19 such necessary expenditures, thus entitling them to reimbursement according to proof as required 20 under Labor Code § 2802 and the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders.

21 30. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Members bring this action pursuant to, 22 inter alia, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 248, 510, 512, 558, 23 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2802, 2698 et seq. and 24 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et seq.

25 31. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, Plaintiff 26 and the Class Members seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits 27 Defendants have enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code and the other unfair, unlawful, or 28 fraudulent practices alleged in this Complaint.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

32. Plaintiff seeks to represent the Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class Members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class Members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

c. Subclass 3. Meal Period Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

d. Subclass 4. Rest Break Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Class Member's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

e. Subclass 5. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class Members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

f. Subclass 6. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class Members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.

g. Subclass 7: Failure to Timely Pay Wages Twice Monthly Subclass. All Class Members who were subject to Defendants' policy and practice of not timely paying all wages earned when they were due and payable at least twice monthly.

h. Subclass 8. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

i. Subclass 9. Failure To Produce Requested Employment Records Subclass. All

1 Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, were denied the right to inspect and 2 receive all of their payroll records, timecards, and personnel records.

3 j. Subclass 10. Expense Reimbursement Subclass. All Class Members who incurred
4 necessary and reasonable expenses in connection with performing their job duties for Defendant 5 and who were subject to a policy and/or practice under which such expenses were not reimbursed.

6 k. Subclass 11. UCL Subclass. All Class Members who are owed restitution as a 7 result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to 8 be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

9 33. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or 10 modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or 11 limitation to particular issues. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the Class 12 against Defendants, the Class Period should be adjusted accordingly.

13 34. Defendants, as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, and in violation 14 of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order requirements, 15 and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally, knowingly, and willfully, engaged 16 in a practice whereby Defendants failed to correctly calculate compensation for the time worked 17 by Class Members, even though Defendants enjoyed the benefit of this work, required Class 18 Members to perform this work and permitted or suffered to permit this work. Defendants have 19 uniformly denied these Class Members wages to which these employees are entitled and failed to 20 provide meal periods or authorize and permit rest periods, in order to unfairly cheat the 21 competition and unlawfully profit.

22 35. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action 23 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community 24 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

25 A. Numerosity

26 36. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 27 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class member has not been 28 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the

1 time period relevant to this lawsuit, hundreds of employees who satisfy the Class definition within 2 the State of California.

3 37. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 4 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 5 information as to the number and location of all Class Members.

6 B. Commonality

7 38. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class that predominates over 8 any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of law and fact 9 include:

- 10 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages;
- 11 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members wages for all hours worked;
- 12 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Class Members overtime as required under Labor 13 Code § 510;
- 14 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable
15 IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Class Members with requisite meal 16 periods or premium pay in lieu thereof;
- 17 e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage 18 Orders, by failing to authorize and permit Class Members to take requisite rest 19 breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof;
- 20 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a) by providing Class Members 21 with inaccurate wage statements;
- 22 g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay 23 wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- 24 h. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful;
- 25 i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226 and § 1174 and the IWC Wage 26 Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of Class Members' earned wages and 27 work periods;
- 28 j. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 1194 by failing to compensate all Class

Members during the relevant time period for all hours worked, whether regular or overtime;

k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 204 by failing to timely pay wages;

l. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and

m. Whether Defendants failed to provide Class Members with their employment records and personnel files within the statutorily required time.

n. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses Defendants required them to incur in performing their job duties;

o. Whether Class Members are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

C. Typicality

39. The claims of the named plaintiff is typical of those of Class Members. The Class Members all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of law, as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

40. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of the Class Members. Counsel who represents Class Members are experienced and competent in litigating employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

41. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to all Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. Each Class Member has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Class Members properly.

42. As to the issues raised in this case, a class action is superior to all other methods for

1 the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, as joinder of all Class Members is 2 impracticable and many legal and factual questions to be adjudicated apply uniformly to all Class 3 Members. Further, as the economic or other loss suffered by vast numbers of Class Members may 4 be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual actions makes it difficult for the Class
5 Members to individually redress the wrongs they have suffered. Moreover, in the event 6 disgorgement is ordered, a class action is the only mechanism that will permit the employment of 7 a fluid fund recovery to ensure that equity is achieved. There will be relatively little difficulty in 8 managing this case as a class action, and proceeding on a class-wide basis will permit Class 9 Members to vindicate their rights for violations they endured which they would otherwise be 10 foreclosed from receiving in a multiplicity of individual lawsuits that would be cost prohibitive to 11 them.

12 43. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 13 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
14 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class treatment.
15 Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed Class Members that would 16 set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records can be 17 utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent 18 that any further notice is required additional media and/or mailings can be used.

19 44. Defendants, as prospective and actual employers of the Class Members, had a 20 special fiduciary duty to disclose to prospective Class Members the true facts surrounding 21 Defendants' pay practices, policies and working conditions imposed upon Class Members as well 22 as the effect of any alleged arbitration agreements that may have been forced upon them. In 23 addition, Defendants knew they possessed special knowledge about pay practices and policies, 24 most notably intentionally refusing to pay for all hours actually worked which should have been 25 recorded in Defendants' pay records and the consequence of the alleged arbitration agreements 26 and policies and practices on Class Members.

27 45. Class Members did not discover the fact that they were entitled to all pay under the 28 Labor Code until shortly before the filing of this lawsuit nor was there ever any discussion about

1 Plaintiff's and the Class' waiver of their Constitutional rights of trial by jury, right to collectively
2 organize and oppose unlawful pay practices under California law as well as obtain injunctive relief 3 preventing such practices from continuing. As a result, the applicable statutes of limitation were 4 tolled until such time as Plaintiff and the Class Members discovered their claims.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
6 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES
7 (Against All Defendants)

8 46. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 9 full herein.

10 47. Defendants failed to pay Class Members minimum wages for all hours worked.
11 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Class Members' time records and failing to pay 12 Class Members for all hours worked. Class Members would work hours and not receive wages, 13 including as alleged above in connection with off the clock work and unlawful rounding of hours.
14 During the relevant time period, Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum wages to Class 15 Members, to their detriment. Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay 16 Class Members for hours worked during alleged meal and rest periods for which Class Members 17 were consistently denied, as also addressed herein. Defendants' uniform pattern of unlawful wage 18 and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result of 19 implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Class Members 20 as to minimum wage pay.

21 48. In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum 22 wage for all hours worked. (IWC Wage Order MW-2014). Additionally, pursuant to California 23 Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must 24 timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

25 49. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states: 26 "The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to 27 employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful."

28 50. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 1 relevant period is found in Paragraph 4(A)-4(D) of the IWC Wage Orders.

2 51. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 3 civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: “Notwithstanding any agreement to 4 work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 5 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the 6 unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including 7 interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit.”

8 52. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages 9 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, 10 California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage 11 Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for 12 all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate and no part of this rate may 13 be used as a credit against a minimum wage obligation.

14 53. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, Defendants 15 inaccurately recorded, or required Class Members to input times that did not reflect their actual 16 hours worked, or calculated the correct time worked and consequently underpaid the actual time 17 worked by Class Members. Defendants acted in an illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all 18 earned wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare 19 Commission requirements and other applicable laws and regulations. As a result of these 20 violations, Defendant also failed to timely pay all wages earned in accordance with California 21 Labor Code § 1194.

22 54. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies: “In any 23 action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the 24 minimum wages fixed by an order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover 25 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.”

26 55. In addition to restitution for all unpaid wages, pursuant to California Labor Code § 27 1197.1, Class Members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely 28 pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee minimum wages.

56. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Class Members are further entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

57. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Class Members.

58. Wherefore, Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other members of the Class further request recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code, including § 558, and/or other applicable statutes.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

(Against All Defendants)

59. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

60. California Labor Code § 1194 provides that "any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit." The action may be maintained directly against the employer in an employee's name without first filing a claim with the Division of Labor Standards and Enforcement.

61. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code § 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Class Members: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours

1 worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for 2 hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of 3 eight (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek.

4 62. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Class Members wages for all 5 hours worked, including by requiring off the clock and by unlawfully rounding down actual hours 6 worked as addressed above. Defendants, and each of them, have intentionally avoided paying 7 Class Members all earned and owed straight time and overtime wages and other benefits, in 8 violation of the California Labor Code, the California Code of Regulations and the IWC Wage 9 Orders and guidelines set forth by the Division of Labor Standards and Enforcement. Defendants 10 have also violated these provisions by requiring Class Members to work through portions of their 11 meal period. Therefore, Class Members were not properly compensated, nor were they paid 12 overtime rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a given day, and/or forty hours in a 13 given week.

14 63. Defendants' failure to pay Class Members the unpaid balance of regular wages 15 owed and overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor 16 Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

17 64. Additionally, Labor Code § 558(a) provides "any employer or other person acting 18 on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 19 provisions regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC shall be subject to a civil 20 penalty as follows: (1) For any violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each 21 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover 22 underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 23 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 24 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall 25 be paid to the affected employee." Labor Code § 558(c) states, "the civil penalties provided for in 26 this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law." Defendants 27 have violated provisions of the Labor Code regulating hours and days of work as well as the IWC
28 Wage Orders. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class Members seek the remedies set forth in Labor

1 Code § 558.

2 65. Defendants' failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a 3 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid 4 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct 5 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages
6 and overtime compensation earned by Class Members. Each such failure to make a timely 7 payment of compensation to Class Members constitutes a separate violation of California Labor 8 Code § 204.

9 66. Class Members have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code 10 §§ 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

11 67. Consequently, pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§
12 204, 510, 558, and 1194, and the applicable IWC Wage Order, paragraph 3(A) and 4(B), 13 Defendants are liable to Class Members for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime 14 compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the 15 assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional 16 sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

17 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

18 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 68. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 21 full herein.

22 69. Class Members regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and in some 23 instances, greater than ten (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ 24 someone for a shift of more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of 25 not less than thirty (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or 26 her with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

27 70. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required under 28 the Labor Code. Defendants placed their needs over Class Members lawful meal breaks and this

1 resulted in Class Members consistently having to work through their scheduled meal breaks 2 because the demands of the job would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully 3 uninterrupted and off-duty meal break. Further, Class Members were prohibited from leaving the 4 premises during their meal breaks. Furthermore, upon information and belief, on the occasions 5 when Class Members worked more than ten (10) hours in a given shift, they did so without 6 receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period as required by law.

7 71. Defendants thus failed to provide Class Members with meal periods as required by 8 the Labor Code, including by not providing them with the opportunity to take meal breaks, by 9 providing them late or for less than thirty (30) minutes, or by requiring them to perform work 10 during breaks.

11 72. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period 12 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 11 of 13 the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee 14 a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of 15 pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not 16 provided. Defendants failed to compensate Class Members for each meal period not provided or 17 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

18 73. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order, 19 paragraph 11, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 20 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, a 21 sum to be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the 22 Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and other statutes.

23 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 74. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 27 full herein.

28 75. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders

1 provide that employers must authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods at the rate of 2 ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) work hours.

3 76. Class Members consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts and were 4 generally scheduled for shifts of greater than 3.5 hours total, thus requiring Defendants to 5 authorize and permit them to take rest periods. Pursuant to the Labor Code and the applicable IWC 6 Wage Order, Class Members were entitled to paid rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for 7 each consecutive four (4) hour shift, and Defendants failed to provide Class Members with timely 8 rest breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. Additionally, 9 Defendants prohibited Class Members from leaving the premises during their breaks. Defendants 10 placed their needs over Class Members lawful rest breaks and this resulted in Class Members 11 consistently having to work through their scheduled rest breaks because the demands of the job 12 would not avail them the opportunity to take a lawfully uninterrupted and off-duty rest break.
13 Thus, Class Members were consistently denied of their rest breaks.

14 77. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders 15 provide that if an employer fails to provide an employee rest period in accordance with this 16 section, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 17 compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

18 78. Defendants, and each of them, have therefore intentionally and improperly denied 19 rest periods to Class Members in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and paragraph 12 of 20 the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

21 79. Defendants failed to authorize and permit Class Members to take rest periods, as 22 required by the Labor Code. Moreover, Defendants did not compensate Class Members with an 23 additional hour of pay at each Class Member's effective hourly rate for each day that Defendants 24 failed to provide them with adequate rest breaks, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

25 80. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraph 12 of the applicable IWC
26 Wage Orders, Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages 27 at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to 28 be proven at trial, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
(Against All Defendants)

81. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

82. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

83. Defendants failed to provide Class Members with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Class Members failed to accurately account for unpaid wages and overtime because their actual hours worked were under-reported due to off the clock work and detrimental rounding. Additionally, the wage statements given to Class Members failed to accurately account for premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks.

84. Throughout the liability period, Defendants intentionally failed to furnish to Class Members, upon each payment of wages, itemized statements accurately showing: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee pursuant to Labor Code § 226,

1 amongst other statutory requirements. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide 2 Class Members with such timely and accurate wage and hour statements.

3 85. Class Members suffered injury as a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional 4 failure to provide them with the accurate wage and hour statements as required by law and are 5 presumed to have suffered injury and be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 226(e), as the 6 Defendants have failed to provide wage statements with accurate and complete information as 7 required by any one or more of items Labor Code § 226 (a)(1) to (9), inclusive, and Class 8 Members cannot promptly and easily determine from the wage statement alone one or more of the 9 following: (i) The amount of the gross wages or net wages paid to the employee during the pay 10 period or any of the other information required to be provided on the itemized wage statement 11 pursuant to items (2) to (4), inclusive, (6), and (9) of subdivision (a), (ii) Which deductions the 12 employer made from gross wages to determine the net wages paid to the employee during the pay 13 period, (iii) The name and address of the employer and, (iv) The name of the employee and only 14 the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other 15 than a social security number. For purposes of Labor Code § 226(e) "promptly and easily 16 determine" means a reasonable person [i.e. an objective standard] would be able to readily 17 ascertain the information without reference to other documents or information.

18 86. Therefore, as a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code 19 § 226(a), Class Members suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether 20 they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay 21 records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid 22 in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

23 87. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and 1174, and the applicable IWC 24 Wage Order, paragraph 7(B), Class Members are entitled to recover the greater of all actual 25 damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one 26 hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate 27 penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and 28 reasonable attorneys' fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203
(Against All Defendants)

88. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

89. Numerous Class Members are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

90. Defendants failed to pay these Class Members all wages due and certain at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

91. The wages withheld from these Class Members by Defendants remained due and owing for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation from employment.

92. Defendants failed to pay Class Members without abatement, all wages as defined by applicable California law. Specifically, Class Members were not paid all regular and overtime wages because Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked by requiring off the clock work and due to unlawful rounding. Additionally, Defendants failed to pay premium wages owed for unprovided meal periods and rest periods, as further detailed in this Complaint. Defendants' failure to pay said wages within the required time was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203.

93. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged entitles these Class Members to penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204
(Against All Defendants)

94. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

95. Labor Code § 204 instructs that: "All wages, ...earned by any person in any employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in

1 advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, 2 inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month 3 during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, 4 inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following 5 month.” Additionally, the requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of 6 wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven 7 calendar days following the close of the payroll period.” As detailed above, Defendants 8 maintained a consistently applied policy and practice of not paying all wages earned between the 9 1st and 15th days of a month between the 16th and 26th day and failed to pay all wages earned 10 between the 16th and the last day of the month between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.
11 Defendants similarly failed to pay all wages earned by not more than seven calendar days 12 following the close of the payroll period. These failures all arose from either Defendants’ failure to 13 pay for all hours worked or failure to pay all earned commission wages.

14 96. All wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Class Members, including as required 15 under Labor Code § 510, were therefore not timely paid by Defendants, as addressed in detail 16 above. Additionally, wages required by Labor Code § 1194 and other sections became due and 17 payable to each Class Member in each pay period that he or she was not provided with a meal 18 period or rest period or paid straight or overtime wages or commissions to which he or she was 19 entitled.

20 97. Defendants thus violated Labor Code § 204 by systematically refusing to pay 21 wages due under the Labor Code, as addressed above. Additionally, under paragraph 4(B) of the 22 applicable IWC Wage Orders, employers are required “to pay each employee, on the established 23 payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in 24 the payroll period, ...” Under Labor Code § 1198, “[t]he employment of any employee for longer 25 hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is 26 unlawful.” Plaintiff and the Class Members may therefore pursue damages and penalties for 27 violations of Labor Code § 204 and paragraph 4(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including 28 penalties under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

98. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members seek to represent they have been deprived of wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and they are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, pursuant to Labor Code § 210, 218.5, 1194 and 1198, and paragraphs 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174

AND 1174.5

(Against All Defendants)

99. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

100. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

101. During the course of Plaintiff's and Class Members' employment, Defendants consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Class Members as required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members proper wages, overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

102. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code § 1174.5 for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PRODUCE REQUESTED RECORDS, LABOR CODE §§ 226 and 1198

(Against All Defendants)

103. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

104. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, current and former employees have the right to inspect or receive a copy of their records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable

1 request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to inspect or 2 receive a copy of records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with the request 3 as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one calendar days from the date of the request.

4 105. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5(a), every current and former employee, 5 or his or her representative, has the right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records 6 that the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning 7 the employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or former employee or his or 8 her representative, an employer must make the contents of those personnel records available for 9 inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the current or former employee, or his or 10 her representative, not later than thirty calendar days from the date the employer receives the 11 written request, subject to some limited exceptions. Failure to comply with these requests allows 12 for a civil penalty seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1198.5(k) and 13 226(f).

14 106. Plaintiff sent written requests through her counsel to Defendants for their payroll 15 records, timecards, and personnel records. However, Plaintiff has not received all of her requested 16 records as of the date of this Complaint.

17 107. Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5 by failing to timely 18 produce the required records requested by Plaintiff.

19 108. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff with all of her 20 requested employment records is not an isolated incident, but was instead consistent with 21 Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiff and Employees.

22 109. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5, Plaintiff and Employees are entitled to 23 a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants and attorneys' fees and costs.

24 110. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(f), Plaintiff is entitled to a penalty of 25 seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants and attorneys' fees and cost, and the other 26 Class members similarly situated are similarly entitled.

1 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 REIMBURSEMENT OF NECESSARY EXPENDITURES UNDER LABOR CODE § 2802

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 111. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though set forth in 5 full herein.

6 112. Under Labor Code § 2802(a) an employer must indemnify its employees for all 7 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge 8 of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

9 113. Defendants have regularly required Class Members to incur business expenses in the 10 course of performing their required job duties for Defendants including for cell phone expenses and 11 home internet usage. These expenses incurred by Class Members were necessary and required of 12 them in performing their assigned job duties, but Defendants failed to reimburse Class Members for 13 all such necessary expenditures. Class Members were not reimbursed for those lawful and necessary 14 work related expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their job duties during employment 15 with Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(a) and the 16 applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9.

17 114. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Class Members have been deprived 18 of reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts, 19 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

20 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 115. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 24 full herein.

25 116. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, Class Members, and the general public, brings this 26 claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as 27 alleged in this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Class 28 Members and the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public

1 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

2 117. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code 3 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 4 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

5 118. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair 6 business practices. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants’ practices were deceptive and 7 fraudulent in that Defendants’ policy and practice failed to provide the required amount of 8 compensation for missed meal and rest breaks, and failed to adequately compensate Class 9 Members for all hours worked, due to systematic business practices as alleged herein that cannot 10 be justified, pursuant to the applicable California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission 11 requirements in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., and for 12 which this Court should issue injunctive and equitable relief, pursuant to California Business & 13 Professions Code § 17203, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

14 119. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 15 wages and overtime, providing them with meal periods and rest breaks, etc., are fundamental 16 public policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State 17 vigorously to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or 18 permitted to work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding 19 employers and their employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to 20 comply with minimum labor standards.

21 120. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 22 in this Complaint Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 23 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 24 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; which conduct has deprived Plaintiff, 25 and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and privileges 26 guaranteed to all employees under the law.

27 121. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged above, constitutes unfair competition in violation 28 of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

1 122. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 2 overtime, failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks, etc., either knew or in the exercise of 3 reasonable care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct 4 violates the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

5 123. By the conduct alleged herein, Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in 6 a business practice which violates California and federal law, including but not limited to, the 7 applicable Industrial Wage Order(s), the California Code of Regulations, and the California Labor 8 Code including Sections 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 512, 1194, 1197, and 1198, for which this Court
9 should issue declaratory and other equitable relief pursuant to California Business & Professions 10 Code § 17203 as may be necessary to prevent and remedy the conduct held to constitute unfair 11 competition, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

12 124. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Class Members 13 have been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

14 125. Unless restrained by this Court Defendants will continue to engage in such 15 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 16 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 17 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 18 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 19 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Class Members to the money 20 Defendants have unlawfully failed to pay.

21 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
22 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2698, *ET SEQ.
23 (Against All Defendants)

24 126. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 25 full herein.

26 127. Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class are also aggrieved employees as defined 27 under Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and 28 either were or are employed by the alleged violators, Defendants (“Aggrieved Employees”) during

1 the relevant time period.

2 128. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, not 3 providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and 4 failing to pay Employees wages upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, 5 Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required
6 under Labor Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours 7 worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and 8 paragraph 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

9 129. As such, Employees seek wages and penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699
10 for Defendants' violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5, 11 including the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California 12 Labor Code sections: 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 432.5, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 13 1185, 1194, 1194.1, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 2698 et seq.

14 130. More specifically, after complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code §
15 2699.3, Plaintiff asserts, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General
16 and the other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed 17 underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions, 18 including as follows:

19 (a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all 20 earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime 21 premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 226.2, 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 22 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking 23 all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, and wages, under Labor Code §§ 510, 24 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 25 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

26 (b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 27 Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to 28 take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under

1 Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC 2 Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under 3 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 4 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs
5 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

6 (c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to provide 7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to 8 maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 9 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking 10 all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 11 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, 12 and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by 13 providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor 14 Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor 15 Code §226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a 16 penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial 17 citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent 18 citation, ...";

19 (d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at 20 least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 21 226.2, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable, and wages, 22 under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 23 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code 24 § 2699(g)(1);

25 (e) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses: For Defendants' failure to 26 reimburse the necessary work related expenses incurred under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 27 and 2802, and Sections 2(K), 4, 9, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), seeking civil 28 penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 221, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699.5,

1 and 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 9 and 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs
2 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

3 (f) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders and Other Labor Code

4 Sections: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage 5 Orders, each of which constitute separate violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 6 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and 7 paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 8 Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

9 131. As also addressed above, Plaintiff, on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, also 10 seek the penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code § 558, which states:

11 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or 12 causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work
13 in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) 14 For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for 15 which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.
16 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for 17 each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to 18 recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 19 employee.

20 (b) If upon inspection or investigation the Labor Commissioner determines that a 21 person had paid or caused to be paid a wage for overtime work in violation of any provision of this 22 chapter, or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare 23 Commission, the Labor Commissioner may issue a citation. The procedures for issuing, contesting, 24 and enforcing judgments for citations or civil penalties issued by the Labor Commissioner for a 25 violation of this chapter shall be the same as those set out in Section 1197.1.

26 (c) The civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or 27 criminal penalty provided by law.

28 132. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies by sending a certified letter to

1 the LWDA and Defendants postmarked on December 7, 2023, addressing in detail the specific 2 provisions of the Labor Code Defendants have violated and addressing the facts and legal theories 3 to support the alleged violations and requested penalties. The LWDA has not provided notice of 4 its intent to investigate the alleged violations within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the 5 letter, and Plaintiff adds this claim seeking penalties under the PAGA for the violations addressed 6 herein and in the PAGA Notice letter and the original Complaint.

7 RELIEF REQUESTED

8 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 9 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 10 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work 11 performed by Class Members and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior 12 to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 13 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 14 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 15 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of all unpaid wages, including overtime 16 and double-time pay, as may be proven;
- 17 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Class 18 Members for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from 19 four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 20 6. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Class 21 Members for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided where 22 no premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as 23 may be proven;
- 24 7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Class Members, as may be 25 proven;
- 26 8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Class Members who quit or were 27 fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;
- 28 9. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages

1 for all class members in violation of Labor Code § 204, as may be proven;

2 10. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages
3 for all Class Members in violation of Labor Code § 2802, as may be proven;

4 11. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code 5 § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

6 12. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and 7 all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or 8 duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

9 13. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq., as may be proven;

10 14. For other wages and penalties under the Labor Code as may be proven;

11 15. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

12 16. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

13 17. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

14 18. For an award of attorneys' fees; and 15 19. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
