1 Plaintiff JONATHAN COLQUITT, SR. ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and all others
2 similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint 3 ("Complaint") against Defendants GOLDEN STATE FOODS CORP., a Delaware corporation, and 4 DOES 1 to 50 inclusive (collectively "Defendants"), and on information and belief alleges as 5 follows:

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 8 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions 9 Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 10 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders 11 1-2001 and 7-2001 (the "Wage Orders"), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, 12 and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.
13 This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants' violations of the Labor Code because the amount in 14 controversy exceeds $25,000.

15 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 16 agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Los Angeles County, and some 17 of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Los Angeles County. Furthermore, 18 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within Los Angeles County.

19 PARTIES

20 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of 21 eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to 22 each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee.
23 Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants' policies, practices, and/or customs complained of 24 herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et 25 seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 26 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Orders.

27 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 28 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,

1 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
2 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Los Angeles County, and the State of California
3 and, therefore, were (and are) doing business in Los Angeles County and the State of California.

4 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 5 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said 6 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 7 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, 8 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual, 9 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, 10 and proximately caused Plaintiff, the Classes (as defined below), and Aggrieved Employees (as 11 defined below) to be subject to the unlawful employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages 12 complained of herein.

13 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 14 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore, 15 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other 16 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 17 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

18 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 19 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 20 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 21 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent 22 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 23 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

24 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 25 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 26 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

27 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 28 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 1 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

2 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

3 10. Defendants own and operate a food service company with locations in Irvine, Los 4 Angeles, Fontana, and City of Industry, California. Defendants have employed Plaintiff as an 5 hourly-paid, non-exempt employee since approximately May 2002 as a bulk receiver at Defendant's 6 City of Industry location.

7 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping 8 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 9 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 10 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 11 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 12 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to 13 compensate employees for this time. For example, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were 14 only permitted to record 11.50 hours of work per day and had to work off the clock past the 11.50-15 hour mark to perform their job duties. Upon information and belief, Defendants also failed to 16 incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift 17 premiums, into the regular rate of pay. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were 18 not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

19 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 20 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 21 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes), 22 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt 23 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed 24 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 25 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 26 employees take their meal periods, because Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were often 27 required to clock out for their meal periods but were not provided with compliant, off-duty meal 28 periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not provided

1 with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to 2 compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal period premium(s) 3 for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. On the 4 rare occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were paid meal period premiums, 5 they were underpaid because Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-6 discretionary remuneration, including shift premiums, into the regular rate of compensation.

7 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 8 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 9 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction 10 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest 11 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. Additionally, although Plaintiff and other 12 non-exempt employees occasionally worked shifts in excess of 10 hours, Plaintiff and other non-13 exempt employees were not authorized and permitted a third rest period during shifts in excess of 14 10 hours. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized 15 and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods to which they were entitled, Defendants 16 failed to compensate them with the required rest period premium(s) for each workday there was a 17 rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants 18 maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period premium payments as required by Labor 19 Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest period was not authorized and permitted to 20 their non-exempt employees.

21 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 22 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift 23 premiums, into the paid sick leave pay rate.

24 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 25 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 26 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage 27 statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to 28 pay all minimum and overtime wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages,

1 Defendants failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees 2 upon their separation of employment from Defendants.

3 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to 4 required use of their personal cellphones to perform their job duties. Despite requiring employees to 5 incur these necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other non-6 exempt employees for the cost of these expenses.

7 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

8 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following 9 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 10 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants 11 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll 12 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 13 this action through the present.
- 14 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 15 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 16 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 17 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 18 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 19 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours; 20 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years 21 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 22 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 23 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 24 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 25 e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants 26 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year 27 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

28 ///

f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to members of the Minimum Wage Class;
- c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- e. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
- f. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

1 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 2 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 3 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual 4 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

5 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 6 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s) 7 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein, 8 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due 9 to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, was not provided all required meal 10 periods, was not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-11 compliant meal and rest periods, was not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage 12 statements, and was not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses.

13 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps 14 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's 15 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes 16 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 17 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 18 members of the Classes.

19 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important 20 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 21 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 22 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 23 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this 24 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 25 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 26 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 27 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited 28 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

1 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy 2 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 3 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 4 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual 5 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution 6 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

7 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, 8 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications 9 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 10 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 11 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 12 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 13 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 14 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though 19 fully set forth herein.

20 26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Orders, § 4 establish the right of 21 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
22 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 23 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with 24 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid 25 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 26 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the 27 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were 28 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and 1 Wage Orders.

2 27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 3 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 4 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 5 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount 6 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

7 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 8 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including 9 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 10 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 11 3289.

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
13 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
14 (Against All Defendants)

15 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
16 fully set forth herein.

17 30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 18 Wage Orders, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and 19 compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to 20 pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

21 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-22 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours 23 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Orders. Wage Orders, § 3 requires an employer 24 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay 25 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime 26 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours 27 actually worked.

28 ///

1 32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 2 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
3 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
4 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 5 3287 and 3289.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
10 fully set forth herein.

11 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed 12 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 13 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 14 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Orders, § 11.

15 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 16 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 17 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

18 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 19 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period 20 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code 21 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Orders, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though 26 fully set forth herein.

27 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Orders, § 12 and establish the right of 28 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period

1 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 2 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
3 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 4 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 5 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

6 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 7 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations 8 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, 9 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Orders, and Civil Code §§ 10 3287 and 3289.

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
15 fully set forth herein.

16 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 17 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff 18 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements 19 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay 20 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay 21 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 22 Labor Code § 226.

23 42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class 24 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 25 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period 26 premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies 27 in Defendants' reported payroll data.

28 ///

1 43. As a consequence of Defendants’ unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and 2 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable 3 attorneys’ fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
8 fully set forth herein.

9 45. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 10 states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 11 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 12 or obedience to the directions of the employer.”

13 46. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and 14 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 15 performance of their job duties.

16 47. As a consequence of Defendants’ unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 17 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable 18 attorneys’ fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

19 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 UNFAIR COMPETITION

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 48. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
23 fully set forth herein.

24 49. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 25 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

26 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum 27 wages due;

28 ///

- 1 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
2 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal 3 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium 4 wages due;
5 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest 6 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium 7 wages due;
8 e. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 9 the Wage Statement Class; and 10 f. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and members of the 11 Expense Reimbursement Class.

12 50. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived 13 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally 14 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 15 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 16 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

17 51. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 18 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 19 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired 20 and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

21 52. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately 22 preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

23 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 53. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though 27 fully set forth herein.
