REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

COMPLAINT UNDER THE LABOR
CODE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS'
GENERAL ACT OF 2004 FOR CIVIL
PENALTIES UNDER LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1
AND 2699

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $35,000.00]

1 Plaintiff Ana Lyly Gonzales Martinez, as an aggrieved employee, brings this Action under 2 the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") to collect civil penalties under 3 PAGA for all other aggrieved employees, and, in doing so, alleges as follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against C&W Facility 7 Services, Inc., and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of 8 California ("C&W" and collectively, with DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, 9 "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of 10 California ("LWDA"), on behalf of all other current and former non-exempt employees of 11 Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to 12 the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 13 210, 226, 226.3, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 1102.5, 1197.5, 14 1198.5, 1527, 3366, 3457, and 8397.4, on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the 15 Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

16 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 17 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

18 3. Venue is proper in Santa Clara County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 19 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Santa Clara County is where the causes 20 of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the 21 county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and 22 Defendants was due to be performed; and the county in which the employment contract, or part of 23 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged 24 herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Santa Clara County, and because 25 Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Santa Clara County.

26 4. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 27 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 28 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term "civil

1 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
2 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 3 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for all other aggrieved current and former employees of 4 Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period. Plaintiff does not seek to assert his own claim for civil 5 penalties under PAGA as part of this Action.

6 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 7 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
8 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 9 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

10 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 11 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 12 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 210, 13 212, 213, 221, 223, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 404, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 14 432.8, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 11821.12, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 1527, 15 2699, 2802, 2810.5, 3366, 3457, and 8397.4, among others, California Code of Regulations, Title
16 8, Section 3395, Business and Professions Code sections 16600, 16700, and 17200, Government 17 Code section 12952, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

18 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 19 on behalf of all other aggrieved current and former employees within the statutory period, to bring 20 a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 21 2699.3 without asserting a claim to bring Plaintiff’s own claim for civil penalties under PAGA.
22 (See, e.g., Balderas v. Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc. (2024) 101 Cal.App.5th 533.) Specifically,
23 Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff’s 25% share of civil penalties for the particular Labor
24 Code violations Plaintiff experienced. Rather, this is a purely representative PAGA action wherein 25 Plaintiff seeks to recover all civil penalties for the Labor Code violations experienced by third-party
26 aggrieved employees (Aggrieved Employees) and the State of California’s 75% of the civil penalties 27 for the Labor Code violations Plaintiff experienced.

28 8. On or around December 28, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor

1 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants'
2 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 3 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

4 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 5 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 6 calendar days of the December 28, 2023 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 7 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

8 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

9 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 10 of failing to pay overtime wages to Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of 11 California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Aggrieved Employees working 12 over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a 13 workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to 14 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting 15 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain 16 on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-17 shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff 18 uniforms off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls off the clock; 19 failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, 20 meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods 21 where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of 22 calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 23 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead 24 of overtime pay, and by attempting but failing to properly implement an alternative workweek 25 schedule ("AWS") (including, without limitation, by failing to implement a written agreement 26 designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which the specified number of work 27 days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS in a secret ballot election, 28 before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the affected employees in the

1 work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any AWS election; and/or 2 failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required by Labor Code section 3 511 and applicable Wage Orders), to the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

4 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy
5 of failing to compensate Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours Aggrieved
6 Employees worked or were otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, 7 failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring Aggrieved
8 Employees: to remain on-call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before 9 clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue 10 working, to don and doff uniforms off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, and to 11 make phone calls off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 12 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time 13 pay; failing to pay paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to 14 the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

15 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
16 of failing to provide Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, timely, and complete 17 meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and ten (10) hours per day 18 without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal periods or 19 compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; not 20 providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 21 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 22 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 23 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 24 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

25 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 26 of failing to provide Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and complete rest periods of 27 at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions thereof, or compensation in 28 lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest periods all together; requiring

1 that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting them; requiring that employees 2 carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods; not providing them in a timely 3 fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and otherwise requiring on-duty/on-4 call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

5 14. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing
6 to permit Aggrieved Employees from taking cooldown rest periods as required under California 7 Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 3395, and have failed to pay premium pay in lieu thereof under 8 Labor Code section 226.7.

9 15. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 10 to pay premium payments under Labor Code section 226.7 to Aggrieved Employees for non-11 compliant meal periods and rest periods, as well as the failure to provide cooldown periods, at the 12 proper regular rate of pay in violation of Labor Code sections 512, 226.7, and applicable wage 13 orders.

14 16. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of 15 issuing payment of wages due, or to become due, or as an advance on wages to be earned: (1) an 16 order, check, draft, note, memorandum, gift card, or other acknowledgment of indebtedness, which 17 was not negotiable and payable in cash, on demand, without discount, at some established place of 18 business in the state; and/or upon which the name and address did not appear on the instrument; 19 and/or at the time of its issuance and for a reasonable time thereafter, which must be at least 30 days, 20 the maker or drawer did not have sufficient funds in, or credit, arrangement, or understanding with 21 the drawee for its payment and/or (2) any scrip, coupon, or other thing redeemable, in merchandise, 22 or purporting to be payable or redeemable otherwise than in money. Plaintiff is further informed 23 and believes, and based thereon alleges that such wages were not compensated at the “regular rate” 24 of compensation as provided under Labor Code sections 226.7 and 510, subsection (a).

25 17. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
26 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), by intentionally failing to furnish 27 Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; 28 total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in

1 effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by 2 the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity 3 securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 4 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

5 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
6 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), by intentionally failing to furnish 7 Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment under Labor Code
8 section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records under Labor
9 Code section 1174, making it difficult for Aggrieved Employees to calculate their unpaid wages
10 and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

11 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 12 of failing to timely pay Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages owed as a result of 13 Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime wages at the regular 14 rate of pay, minimum wages, premium wages at the regular rate of pay, paid time off, paid sick 15 leave, and vacation time owed as required by Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

16 20. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 17 to pay Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon separation of 18 employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 and 19 applicable Wage Orders.

20 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 21 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 22 limitation, Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal vehicles (i.e., 23 mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, including, without limitation, for steel-toe boots, non-slip 24 shoes, and other safety and/or personal protective equipment ("PPE"), providing uniform and other 25 deposits, separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools, and for the purchase 26 and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the discharge
27 of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 28 2802.

1       22.       At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Aggrieved Employees with the 4 rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; allowances claimed as part 5 of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the name, address, and 6 telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information regarding paid sick
7 leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code 8 section 2810.5.

9       23.       At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved
10 Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to California law 11 (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not permit its use upon 12 request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Aggrieved Employees.

13       24.       At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had or have a policy or practice 14 of failing to reimburse deposits made, including uniform deposits, together with all interest owed at 15 the separation of employment in violation of Labor Code section 404.

16       25.       At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 17 failing to pay Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code Section 204, which 18 requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month 19 shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, 20 and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any calendar month, shall be 21 paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

22       26.       At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 23 of failing to provide all working employees with suitable seats when the nature of the work 24 reasonably permits the use of seats. Defendants have also failed to place an adequate number of 25 seats in reasonable proximity to the work area and/or permitted employees to use such seats when 26 it does not interfere with the performance of their duties and employees are not engaged in the active 27 duties of their employment, and the nature of their work requires standing.
28

1       27.       At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 2 of failing to provide all temporary workers with owed wages weekly by not later than the regular 3 payday of the following week.

4       28.       At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 5 of failing to provide adequate and readily accessible sanitation facilities; a regular schedule for 6 servicing, cleaning, and supplying each facility to ensure it is maintained in a clean, sanitary and 7 serviceable condition; an adequate supply of suitable cleansing agents, water, single-use towels or 8 blowers; and a sufficient number of toilets to be used by each sex of employee.

9       29.       At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a policy 10 of conducting unlawful background checks on prospective and current employees prior to making 11 a conditional offer. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 12 violated applicable laws by, without limitation: requiring job applicants and employees to disclose 13 their conviction history before Defendants made a conditional offer of employment; inquiring into 14 or considering the conviction history of applicants before Defendants made any conditional offers 15 of employment; considering, distributing, or disseminating information about arrests not followed 16 by conviction, referrals to or participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program, convictions 17 that have been sealed, dismissed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated pursuant to law, or any 18 conviction for which the convicted person has received a full pardon or has been issued a certificate 19 of rehabilitation, while conducting conviction history background checks in connection with any 20 applications for employment; intending to deny an applicant a position of employment solely or in 21 part because of the applicant's conviction history; and asking applicants for employment to disclose, 22 through any written form or verbally, information concerning or related to an arrest, detention, 23 processing, diversion, supervision, adjudication, or court disposition that occurred while the person
24 was subject to the process and jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to the detriment of Aggrieved 25 Employees.

26       30.       At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a practice 27 or policy of relying on the salary history information of an applicant for employment as a factor in 28 determining whether to offer employment to an applicant or what salary to offer the applicant in

1 violation of Labor Code section 432.3 by including, on Defendants' application for employment, an 2 inquiry regarding current and/or former salary history information, including, without limitation, 3 compensation and benefits of the applicant for employment.

4 31. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants have had, and continue to have, a practice
5 or policy of requiring Aggrieved Employees to agree in writing to confidentiality policies that 6 unlawfully restrain trade by prohibiting Aggrieved Employees from speaking with prospective 7 employers about their work with Defendants, including, but not limited to, their wages and working 8 conditions. Defendants also required Aggrieved Employees to inform prospective employers of 9 Defendants' restrictions of Aggrieved Employees' freedom to work.

10 32. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
11 of preventing Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge and experience 12 they obtained at Defendants' business for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 13 without limitation, preventing Aggrieved Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a 14 new job with a prospective employer and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under 15 what circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is 16 informed and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code 17 sections 17200, 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, 18 including Labor Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

19 33. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Aggrieved Employees 20 from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or 21 outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and 22 Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition, 23 Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices 24 prevent Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working 25 conditions or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

26 34. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Aggrieved Employees 27 from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling 28 employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation,

1 Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is 2 informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Aggrieved Employee's 3 constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

4 35. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity only, seeks civil penalties under Labor 5 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts on behalf of 6 only and all other Aggrieved Employees, which violate the California Labor Code as described 7 above.

8 PARTIES

9 A. Plaintiff

10 36. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 11 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-12 exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, janitorial services. Plaintiff is 13 informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately June of 2022 14 through at least September of 2023.

15 B. Defendants

16 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant C&W is, 17 and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the 18 laws of the State of Massachusetts and doing business in the County of Santa Clara, State of 19 California.

20 38. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 21 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 22 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
23 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 24 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
25 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 26 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 27 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 28 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or

1 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 2 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to “Defendants,” it shall 3 include C&W, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of 4 California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

5 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

6 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 7 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 8 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 9 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 10 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

11 40. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 12 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 13 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 14 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 15 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 16 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 17 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 18 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 19 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

20 41. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 21 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys’ General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

24 42. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 25 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

26 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

27 43. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 28 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for

1 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 2 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 3 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

4 44. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a), states and 5 stated that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in 6 this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 7 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 8 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 9 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 10 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

11 45. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 12 failing to pay Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as per Labor Code 13 section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 14 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one 15 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation per employee, and 16 two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation in 17 connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

18 46. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff’s 25% share of civil penalties for the 19 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

20 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

21 47. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
22 section 226, subdivision (a), by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 23 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 24 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 25 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 26 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 27 entity securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 28 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

48. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

49. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

50. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

51. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

52. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

Violation of Labor Code § 558

53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:

(1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient

1 to recover underpaid wages;

2 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 3 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 4 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

5 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

6 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 7 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 8 failing to provide written notice in the language Defendant normally uses to communicate 9 employment-related information to the employee, containing the following information: pay the 10 rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; allowances claimed as part 11 of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; Defendants’ name(s), 12 including “doing business as” names used; the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ 13 compensation insurance carrier; information regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent 14 information required to be disclosed by Defendants.

15 55. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
16 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for 17 Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each 18 Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for 19 each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

20 56. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff’s 25% share of civil penalties for the 21 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

22 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

23 57. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b), has 24 required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or 25 the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business 26 or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 27 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 28 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents,

1 or papers of the person.”

2 58. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 3 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 4 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

5 59. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 6 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 7 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 8 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
9 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 10 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 11 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 12 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 13 earned.”

14 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 15 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 16 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 17 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 18 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

19 61. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 20 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 21 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
22 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 23 under Labor Code section 1174.

24 62. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
25 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties
26 for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five hundred dollars 27 ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

28 63. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff’s 25% share of civil penalties for the

1 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

2 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

3 64. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other 4 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 5 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 6 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 7 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 8 Section 203 as follows:

9 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 10 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 11 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
12 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
13 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

14 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 15 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 16 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 17 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
18 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
19 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

20 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 21 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 22 employee.”

23 65. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 24 Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without limitation, 25 routinely failing to pay Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all hours Aggrieved Employees 26 worked or were otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 27 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 28 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at

1 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 2 entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

3 66. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
4 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties
5 for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one hundred dollars ($100)
6 for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred and fifty 7 dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

8 67. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the 9 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

10 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

11 68. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 12 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 13 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 14 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 15 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 16 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

17 69. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 18 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 19 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 20 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 21 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 22 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

23 70. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 24 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 25 the failure to provide Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be 26 provided pursuant to California and local laws and provide written notice in the language Defendant 27 normally uses to communicate employment-related information to the employee, containing the 28 following information: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their

1 employment; allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by 2 Defendants; Defendants' name(s), including "doing business as" names used; the name, address, 3 and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information regarding paid
4 sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code 5 section 2810.5.

6 71. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees within the State of California are entitled to an 7 award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for 8 civil penalties.

9 72. Plaintiff does not seek to recover Plaintiff's 25% share of civil penalties for the 10 particular Labor Code violation(s) that Plaintiff experienced.

11 PRAYER

12 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for judgment against 13 Defendants as follows:

- 14 A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 15 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for all Aggrieved Employees aside from Plaintiff;
16 B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 17 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
18 C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; 19 D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and 20 E. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
