FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

LILIAN CANO, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

LA MAESTRA FAMILY CLINIC, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 37-2024-00009931-CU-OE-CTL

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF LILIAN CANO'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff LILIAN CANO ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants LA MAESTRA FAMILY CLINIC, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all

1 hours worked at the employees' minimum wage rate or overtime rate, failure to provide all legally 2 required and legally compliant meal and rest periods, failure to timely pay earned wages during 3 employment, failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay all 4 unpaid wages following separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, 5 following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable 6 attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, 7 the State of California, and others aggrieved.

8 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 10 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 11 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 12 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 13 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-14 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 15 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 16 California, including but not limited to San Diego County, at 4060 Fairmount Ave, San Diego, CA 17 92105.

18 III. PARTIES

19 3. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 20 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 21 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 22 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 23 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 24 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 25 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 26 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in San Diego from 27 approximately March 2, 2021, until on or about October 20, 2023.

28 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant LA

1 MAESTRA FAMILY CLINIC, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California
2 and is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all
3 times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant LA MAESTRA FAMILY 4 CLINIC, INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour
5 practices or policies. Defendant LA MAESTRA FAMILY CLINIC, INC. operates in San Diego 6 County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in San Diego County, including but not 7 limited to, at 4060 Fairmount Ave, San Diego, CA 92105.

8 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 9 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 10 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 11 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 12 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

13 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
14 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 15 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 16 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 17 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 18 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

19 7. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 20 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 21 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 22 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 23 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 24 complaint.

25 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 26 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 27 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

28 ///

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 3 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

4 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

5 9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

6 10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 7 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 8 and the applicable Wage Orders.

9 11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 10 Labor Code:

11 12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
12 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 13 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 14 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 15 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 16 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

17 13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 18 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 19 Wage Orders.

20 14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 21 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 22 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 24 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 25 not limited to:

26 (a) "Rounding down" or "shaving down" Plaintiffs' and other current and former 27 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' total daily hours at the time of their 28 clock-ins and clock-outs, including clock-ins and clock-outs for meal breaks, to the nearest quarter

of an hour, to the benefit of Defendants;

(b) Since the Outbreak of COVID-19, requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to self-administer a COVID-19 temperature check, respond to a medical questionnaire and load the results into an online portal while off-the-clock and prior to reporting to their shift.

15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable Wage Order.

16. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the regular rate of pay: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

17. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

18. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours

1 worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to,

2 (a) “Rounding down” or “shaving down” Plaintiffs’ and other current and former 3 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ total daily hours at the time of their
4 clock-ins and clock-outs, including clock-ins and clock-outs for meal breaks, to the nearest quarter
5 of an hour, to the benefit of Defendants;

6 (b) Since the Outbreak of COVID-19, requiring Plaintiff and other current and former 7 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to self-administer a 8 COVID-19 temperature check, respond to a medical questionnaire and load the results into an 9 online portal while off-the-clock and prior to reporting to their shift.

10 19. Overtime is based upon an employee’s regular rate of pay. “The regular rate at 11 which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment paid 12 to, or on behalf, of the employee.” See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – Enforcement 13 Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

14 20. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 15 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 16 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants’ failure to include all 17 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 18 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as “retention bonus”, 19 for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

21 21. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
22 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 23 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 24 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 25 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 26 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 27 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 28 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

1 22. Failure to pay meal period premium wages at the regular rate of pay: Plaintiff
2 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly 3 worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in 4 length.

5 23. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 6 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 7 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 8 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 4 at §11; Brinker 9 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 10 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 11 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 12 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 13 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 14 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 15 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

16 24. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 17 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 18 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 19 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §11.

20 25. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 21 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-22 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures.

23 26. Further, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 24 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, 25 short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) 26 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained 28 a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as "retention

1 bonus”, for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved
2 California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal 3 period premium wages.

4 27. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 5 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-6 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
7 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
8 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code 9 section 226.7.

10 28. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
11 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 12 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them 13 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

14 29. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 15 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other 16 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 17 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

18 30. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 19 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor 20 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 21 minutes’ rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 22 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so 23 on.” Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code 24 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 25 each work period. Wage Order 4 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates 26 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM 27 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 28 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

1 31. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer 2 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday 3 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; 4 Wage Order 4 at § 12.

5 32. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 6 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 7 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 8 limited to,

9 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 10 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 11 or major fraction thereof.

12 33. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 13 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-14 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each 15 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor 16 Code section 226.7.

17 34. Additionally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and 18 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, 19 missed, short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the 20 one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-21 based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants 22 maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as 23 "retention bonus", for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former 24 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of 25 paying rest period premiums.

26 35. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
27 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 28 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 1 rest periods in compliance with California law.

2 36. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 3 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 4 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 5 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 6 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, 7 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following 8 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 9 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 10 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

11 37. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 12 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-13 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 14 premium wages and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
15 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay 16 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' 17 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

18 38. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 19 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 20 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 21 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 22 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 23 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 24 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable 25 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 26 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 27 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 28 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

39. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226.

40. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

41. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

42. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

43. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code section 2699.3. On December 26, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code

1 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 2 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 3 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

4 45. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 5 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204 226, 226.7, 510, 6 512, 1194, and 1197, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 7 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 8 following amounts:

9 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, and 512; 10 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 11 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 12 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

13 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 14 for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, 15 one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 16 established by Labor Code section 226.3].

17 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each 18 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 19 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 20 established by Labor Code section 558].

21 d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars 22 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 23 subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 24 period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

25 46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 26 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.
