1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Brandi Sanford (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $275,000.00 4 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Pacific States Petroleum, 5 Inc. (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). This motion for preliminary approval 6 is unopposed. The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 306 class 7 members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for 8 settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, 9 discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arm’s length and were facilitated by an 10 experienced class action mediator, Hon. Amy D. Hogue (Ret.), over the course of a full day of 11 mediation. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 12 Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff 13 requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed 14 settlement class for settlement purposes only, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval 15 hearing.

16 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

17 A. Plaintiff’s Claims

18 This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab.
19 Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members were 20 employed by Defendant in California and classified as hourly-paid non-exempt employees who 21 worked for Defendant during the class period. (Declaration of Arrash T. Fattahi in Support of 22 Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Fattahi 23 Decl.”] at ¶ 2.) Defendant is a full-service provider and transporter of petroleum products 24 including gas, diesel, oils, and lubricants. (Id.)

25 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted 26 in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiff 27 further alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest 28 periods. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate

1 wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil 2 penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

3 On December 18, 2023, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint 4 against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay 5 overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest 6 periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate 7 itemized wage statements; and (7) unfair business practices. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 4.)

8 On December 21, 2023, Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & 9 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations 10 pursuant to PAGA. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 4.) The Parties filed a stipulation for Plaintiff to be 11 granted leave to amend to file a First Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint 12 adding a claim for civil penalties under the PAGA on November 14, 2025. (Id.)

13 Defendant denies Plaintiff’s allegations and denies that it violated the California Labor 14 Code.

15 B. Discovery and Investigation

16 Following the filing of the initial complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and 17 information before mediating this action. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 5.) Defendant produced a sampling 18 of timekeeping and pay records for the class members. (Id.) Defendant also provided documents 19 of its wage and hour policies and practices during the class period, and information regarding 20 the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id.)

21 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices 22 and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 23 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary 24 exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding 25 the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records 26 and utilized an expert to prepare a damages analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

27 C. Settlement Negotiations

28 On June 18, 2024, the Parties participated in a private mediation with experienced class

1 action mediator, the Hon. Amy D. Hogue (Ret.). (Id. at ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations were 2 at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. The Parties 3 went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each 4 side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not 5 been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and 6 weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, the Parties reached a settlement, the 7 material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 2 [Class Action 8 and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice].)

9 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 10 on the Parties' informal exchange of documents and information and Class Counsel's own 11 independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is 12 fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members in 13 light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could 14 be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk.
15 (Id. at ¶ 12.)

16 Indeed, the $275,000.00 Settlement represents approximately 31.45% of the realistic 17 maximum recovery of $874,343.45. (Id. at ¶ 20.) Although Class Counsel estimated that 18 Defendant's maximum potential liability for the wage claims was approximately $4.9 million, 19 when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel 20 believes that Defendant's realistic exposure was $533,128.15, meaning the Settlement achieves 21 a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 12-24.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at 22 class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class (particularly because a vast 23 majority of the class members are drivers and are potentially exempt from meal and rest period 24 requirements). (Id. at ¶ 20.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will 25 receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. (Id.)

26 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

27 The Settlement's key terms include:

- 28 1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all persons employed by PSP in California and classified as an hourly paid non-exempt employee who worked for PSP during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: “means the period from December 18, 2019 to August 17, 2024.” (Settlement, § 1.12.)

3. Class Member or Settlement Class Member: “means a member of the Class, as either a Participating Class Member or Non-Participating Class Member (including a Non-Participating Class Member who qualifies as an Aggrieved Employee).” (Settlement, § 1.9.)

4. Aggrieved Employee: “means a person employed by PSP in California and classified as an hourly paid non-exempt employee who worked for PSP during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § 1.4.)

5. PAGA Period: “means the period from December 21, 2022 to August 17, 2024.” (Settlement, § 1.31.)

6. Gross Settlement Amount: “means $275,000.0, which is the total amount PSP agrees to pay under the Settlement except as provided in Paragraph 8 below. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment, and the Administrator’s Expenses.” (Settlement, § 1.22.)

7. Uncashed Checks: Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be cancelled and the funds represented by such checks shall be transmitted by the Administrator to the California Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the class member. (Settlement, § 4.3.3.)

8. Release by Participating Class Members: “All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action including the failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods,

1 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, failure 2 to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and unfair business practices. Except as set forth in 3 Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, 4 including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and 5 Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or 6 claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 5.2.)

7 9. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “All Non-Participating Class Members who are 8 Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former 9 and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the 10 Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have 11 been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA 12 Notice, and ascertained in the course of the Action including the failure to pay minimum and 13 straight time wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 14 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, and failure to 15 provide accurate itemized wage statements.” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

16 10. No Reversion, No Claims Made: means that “[n]one of the Gross Settlement 17 Amount will revert to PSP.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

18 11. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $10,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s 19 claims under PAGA, with 75% ($7,500.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($2,500.00) being 20 paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 3.2.5.)

21 12. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following:
22 Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, 23 Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration
24 Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class 25 Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

26 13. Distribution Formula: The Individual Class Payment will be “calculated by (a) 27 dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating 28 Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class

Member's Workweeks." (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA, "[t]he Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment." (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

14. Tax Allocation: 20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

15. Class Representative Service Payment: Defendant agrees not to oppose Plaintiff's request for a service payment to Plaintiff of up to $10,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This payment shall be in addition to the pro rata recovery received by Plaintiff as part of the settlement.

16. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose a fee application of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $91,666.66), plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $20,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

17. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Class Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service payment being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 7.4.2.) Apex Class Action LLC ("Apex"), the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 9, Ex. 3 [Apex's Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This

1 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
2 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 3 through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 4 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
5 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

6 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 7 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 8 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 9 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 10 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 11 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 12 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 13 that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need 14 not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola 15 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 16 require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 17 prevailed on all its claims", but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy 18 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

19 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 20 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 21 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

22 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 23 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

24 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 25 and Non-Collusive Arm's-Length Negotiations

26 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 27 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 28 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)

1 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
2 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 3 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 4 to approve the settlement.”].)

5 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 6 mediation with experienced class action employment mediator, Hon. Amy D. Hogue (Ret.).
7 (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in 8 a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to 9 explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 10 or its position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 11 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and 12 Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached an agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8.)

13 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 14 the claims set forth in the litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 15 records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 16 meal and rest breaks, and issuance of wage statements, as well as information regarding the number 17 of putative class members and the mix of current versus former employees, the wage rates in effect, 18 and the amount of meal and rest period premiums paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In 19 conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class Counsel investigated the applicable 20 law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Thus, Plaintiff and her 21 counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating the proposed Settlement.

22 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 23 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 35-46.) Again, this supports the position that 24 the terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and 25 weighed in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued 26 litigation of this action.

2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' Respective Legal Positions

A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had plaintiff prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 22.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of her claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 21.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

The proposed settlement of $275,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to Plaintiff's reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 12-24.) Because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $275,000.00 is well within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $440.47. (Id. at ¶ 23.)

3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 35-46.) Although Plaintiff and her counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved for dissemination to the class. The Class Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Class Notice meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, the Parties agreed to allocate reasonable attorneys' fees in an amount currently estimated to be $91,666.66, and up to $20,000.00 in costs. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.) These amounts are disclosed to all class members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund" Method

California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/common fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and

1 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 2 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 3 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

4 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 5 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 6 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 7 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 8 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 9 method – including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 10 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 11 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—12 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
13 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

14 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

15 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on what 16 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 17 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 18 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 19 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
20 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 21 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 22 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 23 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

24 Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to one third (1/3) of the Settlement Amount, 25 which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic 26 literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 27 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method 28 or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 33-34.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Class Counsel possesses considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 35-46.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award

1 is reasonable and fair.

2 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

3 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and “there is no 4 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other” class members, 5 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
6 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 7 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
8 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
9 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
10 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 11 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, 12 the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved 13 by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia 14 v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 15 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 [approving a 16 PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) 17 No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA settlement of 18 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $10,000.00, 75% percent of which 19 ($7,500.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 25% ($2,500.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved 20 Employees. (Settlement, § 3.2.5.) The $10,000.00 allocation equates to 3.6% of the Gross 21 Settlement Amount, which exceeds amounts that are routinely approved. The Parties negotiated to 22 allocate 3.6% of the Settlement to PAGA penalties in good faith and this amount is reasonable 23 considering that the maximum PAGA penalties were estimated at $724,500.00 (which assumed 24 $100 per pay period). (Fattahi Decl. at ¶ 19.)

25 E. The Service Payment to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

26 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 27 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 28 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval

1 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 2 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 3 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
4 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

5 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 6 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 7 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 8 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 9 work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has 10 noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 11 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
12 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 13 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
14 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

15 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay a Class 16 Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)
17 Courts routinely approve a $10,000 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class 18 Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 19 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of 20 America, National Association (N.D. Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, 21 at *4 [“The court approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel 22 represents that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, 23 communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was 24 frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 25-29.) This 25 amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class 26 members. (Id.)

27 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 28 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

A. Legal Standard

The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal.2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.)

California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.

(Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “[c]ourts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for Settlement Purposes.

1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes approximately 306 employees of Defendant.

Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

“The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 605.)

Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices to pay appropriate wages for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; whether Defendant consequently paid final wages timely at termination; and whether Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements. Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified class members, including Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.

3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 "[t]he only requirements are that common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated" vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as such, she alleges that she was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees.

4. Plaintiff and Her Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel

1 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 2 previously settled. (Fattahi Decl. at ¶¶ 35-46.) Class Counsel unquestionably is “qualified, 3 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 4 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 5 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing her dedication. Plaintiff’s 6 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates her serious commitment to bringing about 7 the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

8 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

9 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 10 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
11 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 12 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 13 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly 14 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 15 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 16 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 17 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are 18 essentially non-existent.

19 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

20 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

21 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 22 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 23 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 24 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 25 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 26 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 27 Members . . .” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 28 direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.
