1 6. I was selected as a “Super Lawyer Rising Star” in Employment Litigation each year
2 from 2017 through 2022, and as a “Super Lawyer” in 2023, 2024, and 2025—a distinction awarded
3 to no more than 2.5% of attorneys practicing in the field..

4 7. Through a contested but productive mediation, Plaintiff and Defendant Spring Hill
5 Manor Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital, Inc. (“Defendant”) (collectively, the “Parties”)
6 entered into a Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement” or 7 “Settlement”), resolving the wage and hour claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class. A true
8 and correct copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

9 8. The Settlement Agreement provides for a full and final release of claims asserted in 10 this Action in exchange for Defendant’s agreement to pay a non-reversionary Gross Settlement
11 Amount of $495,000. The Settlement is structured on a non-claims-made basis, meaning that each
12 Settlement Class Member who does not opt out will automatically receive their share of the Net
13 Settlement Amount without the need to submit a claim form or take any affirmative action.

14 9. Plaintiff seeks to represent a Class of all individuals who were employed by Spring
15 Hill Manor as non-exempt hourly employees in California at any time from December 21, 2019
16 through January 27, 2025(the “Class” or “Class Members”). Likewise, the PAGA Members include
17 all non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Spring Hill Manor in California at any time from 18 December 21, 2022 through January 27, 2025 . (“PAGA Members”)

19 10. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will not oppose Class 20 Counsel’s application for a reasonable award of attorney’s fees not to exceed one-third of the 21 Settlement Amount, Class Counsel’s litigation costs not to exceed $20,000, Settlement
22 Administration Costs not to exceed $9,000, PAGA penalties of $10,000 (of which $7,500 or 75%
23 will be paid to the LWDA and the remaining $2,500 or 25% will be paid to the PAGA Members), 24 and a Service Award not to exceed $10,000 to the named Plaintiff (S.A. ¶ 3 et seq., as follows(S.A.
25 ¶ 3 et seq., as follows:

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$495,000
Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment	$165,000
Class Counsel Fees Payment (not to exceed)	$20,000.00

Administration Expenses Payment (not to exceed)	$9,000.00
PAGA Penalties to LWDA (75% of $10k award)	$7,500.00
PAGA Penalties to PAGA Members	$2,500.00
Plaintiff's Service Awards	$10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$281,000.00

11. The Settlement Class consists of approximately 289 non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period. Plaintiff alleges that, regardless of job title or department, all non-exempt employees were subject to common wage-and-hour policies and practices that gave rise to the alleged violations. Individual Settlement Payments will be distributed on a pro rata basis, determined by the number of Compensable Workweeks each Class Member worked during the Class Period. Based on the estimated Net Settlement Amount of $284,000 and a Class size of approximately 289 individuals, the average individual payment is approximately $972, with the highest estimated payment being approximately $5,134. Class Members who worked more Compensable Workweeks will receive proportionally greater payments.

12. The Settlement is non-reversionary, and Settlement Class Members are not required to submit Claim Forms to receive payment. Each Settlement Class Member will be mailed a Notice Packet containing information about their estimated Individual Settlement Amount, the opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks credited to them during the Class Period, and instructions on how to submit a Request for Exclusion or an Objection to the Settlement. All Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will automatically receive their Individual Settlement Payment after the Court grants Final Approval. PAGA Members eligible for payments under the PAGA portion of the Settlement may not opt out and will receive their share of the PAGA Amount regardless of participation in the class settlement(attached hereto as Exhibit B).

13. Because the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and the result of arm's-length negotiations between experienced counsel with the assistance of an experienced mediator, following an appropriate and thorough exchange of relevant information and documents, it warrants preliminary approval. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (1) preliminarily approving the

1 Settlement; (2) conditionally certifying the Settlement Class pursuant to California Code of Civil
2 Procedure § 382 for settlement purposes only; (3) approving the form and content of the proposed
3 Notice Packet; (4) appointing Plaintiff’s counsel as Class Counsel; (5) appointing CPT Group, Inc.
4 as the Settlement Administrator; and (6) scheduling a Final Approval Hearing.

5 14. On December 21, 2023, Plaintiff filed suit in Nevada County Superior Court, asserting
6 claims based on Spring Hill Manor’s alleged: (1) failure to provide meal periods; (2) failure to provide
7 rest breaks; (3) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (4) failure to pay all wages due
8 upon separation of employment; and (5) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”).
9 On April 17, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint alleging the same causes of action in 10 the Complaint and adding a cause of action for alleged PAGA penalties. The First Amended
11 Complaint is the operative complaint in the Action.

12 15. The Parties conducted a thorough investigation into the facts and legal issues in this 13 Action. This included interviews with putative class members, an investigation of Defendant’s
14 operations and pay practices, and the informal exchange of discovery materials, including 15 Defendant’s written policies and practices, as well as a representative sampling of payroll and 16 timekeeping records for Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members. Class Counsel has 17 extensive experience in wage and hour litigation and has conducted substantial research regarding 18 the legal claims and potential defenses at issue. Class Counsel has diligently investigated the claims
19 asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members.

20 16. Based on this investigation and their own independent evaluation, Class Counsel
21 believes that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interests of 22 the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members, especially in light of the risks and uncertainties
23 associated with continued litigation, Defendant’s asserted defenses, and potential appellate issues.

24 17. On November 4, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by Daniel
25 Turner, Esq.. Following that session, and after the issuance of a mediator’s proposal, the Parties
26 reached a settlement.

27 18. Plaintiff alleges various wage and hour violations on behalf of non-exempt employees
28 who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period (i.e., Settlement Class Members).

1 19. First, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay all overtime and sick pay wages
2 due to its uniform failure to calculate the “regular rate of pay.”

3 20. Further, alleges that Defendant maintained deficient meal and rest break policies and
4 practices that failed to provide Class Members with timely, duty-free, and compliant meal periods,
5 or premium wages in lieu thereof. Plaintiff also asserts that Class Members were not provided with
6 duty-free rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for every four (4) hours worked, or major fraction
7 thereof, due to unlawful policies that required employees to remain on duty and/or on the premises
8 during rest periods.

9 21. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to pay all final wages upon separation of 10 employment and did not furnish accurate, itemized wage statements in compliance with Labor Code
11 § 226. Finally, Plaintiff brings representative claims under the Private Attorneys General Act
12 (“PAGA”) for civil penalties based on the alleged Labor Code violations described above.

13 22. Defendant contested and denied all material allegations raised by Plaintiff, both on the 14 merits and with respect to the propriety of class certification and PAGA representative treatment.

15 23. First, Defendant contended that it correctly calculated and paid all overtime and sick
16 pay wages using the appropriate “regular rate of pay,” inclusive of all non-discretionary bonuses and 17 other forms of compensation. Defendant denied excluding any required remuneration from its regular 18 rate calculations.

19 24. Additionally, Defendant maintained that its written meal and rest period policies
20 complied with California law and that, in practice, Settlement Class Members were provided the 21 opportunity to take timely, duty-free meal and rest periods. Defendant denied having any policy or 22 practice requiring employees to remain on duty or on the premises during rest periods.

23 25. Defendant also argued that Plaintiff’s claims for wage statement violations, waiting
24 time penalties, and PAGA penalties were derivative of other claims it contended were meritless.
25 Accordingly, Defendant denied any violations that would give rise to penalties under Labor Code
26 sections 203 or 226.

27 26. Finally, Defendant asserted that individualized inquiries would be necessary to 28 determine liability—such as whether and why specific employees took shortened or untimely meal

1 periods, and how break compliance was managed by different supervisors. Defendant emphasized
2 that putative Class Members held different positions, performed different duties, worked in various
3 locations, and were subject to diverse managerial practices. Defendant argued that this variability
4 rendered the case unsuitable for class or representative treatment. (

5 27. Based upon detailed data and records produced through informal discovery and 6 exchanges and factoring in claim certification probabilities and liability probabilities, Class Counsel
7 formulated a detailed damages model to evaluate the claims in preparation for mediation and to reach
8 a realistic and reasonable resolution.

9 28. First, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to properly calculate the “regular rate of 10 pay” by excluding non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other incentive payments when 11 paying overtime and sick pay wages. Plaintiff contends that these exclusions resulted in a systemic 12 underpayment of compensation, in violation of California law.

13 29. Based on a review of the payroll and paystub data produced in discovery, Plaintiff
14 estimates that Defendant’s failure to include all required forms of remuneration in the regular rate of 15 pay led to underpayment of both overtime and sick pay wages across the Class.

16 30. In response, Defendant argued that many of the incentive payments at issue were 17 discretionary and therefore properly excluded from regular rate calculations. Defendant further 18 asserted that all overtime and sick pay was lawfully calculated and paid in good faith, and that any 19 potential underpayment, if it occurred, was de minimis and non-systemic.

20 31. While Plaintiff maintains that the bonuses and incentive payments at issue were non-
21 discretionary and therefore required to be included in the regular rate of pay, Plaintiff also 22 acknowledges the litigation risks associated with this claim. These risks include the possibility that 23 the Court could deny class certification based on individual variations in pay structures and the nature
24 of the bonuses. Additionally, there is risk on the merits, including the potential for summary judgment
25 or an unfavorable outcome at trial. In light of these risks, Plaintiff applied a discount to the estimated 26 value of the claim to account for the potential that certification may be denied or the claim may not 27 succeed on the merits. Moreover, Plaintiff confirmed that the actual lost wages resulting from this 28 violation was minimal.

1 32. Plaintiff also alleged that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due at the time of
2 separation from employment, entitling former employees to waiting time penalties under Labor Code
3 §§ 201–203. Based on Defendant’s records, there were approximately 115 Settlement Class Members
4 who separated from their employment during the applicable statutory period. Using the statutory
5 maximum of 30 days, with an assumed 8-hour workday and an average hourly rate of $25, the total
6 maximum potential exposure for waiting time penalties is approximately $690,00 (115 employees ×
7 8 hours/day × $25/hour × 30 days).

8 33. Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that any failure to pay wages at separation
9 was not willful and, therefore, did not give rise to waiting time penalties under the Labor Code.
10 Defendant also contended that it maintained facially neutral and compliant payroll practices and 11 would defeat any underlying wage claims on the merits or at class certification.

12 34. To account for these risks, Plaintiff applied an equitable discount reflecting the risk of 13 denial at class certification, as well as an additional discount for the risk of defeat at summary
14 judgment or trial. Applying a 50% discount, Plaintiff estimates a risk-adjusted value of $345,000 for 15 the waiting time penalty claim.

16 35. With respect to Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims, the Class Members
17 collectively worked approximately 95,000 shifts during the Class Period. Based on the Plaintiff’s
18 analysis of a representative sample of Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records produced before
19 mediation, Plaintiff applied estimated violation rates of 55% for meal periods and 33% for rest
20 periods. Using the applicable premium rate of $25 per missed break, the maximum potential damages
21 are estimated at approximately $1,306,250 for the meal period claim (95,000 shifts × 55% × $25) and 22 $783,750 for the rest period claim
23 (95,000 shifts × 33% × $25).

24 36. Defendant contested liability for both claims, asserting that meal and rest period issues
25 presented individualized questions inappropriate for class certification. Defendant maintained that its 26 written policies were facially compliant with California law and that employees were provided
27 flexibility to take breaks at their discretion. It further argued that manager-specific practices, job 28 duties, and employee choices varied significantly, requiring individualized inquiries into whether

1 breaks were missed or voluntarily skipped. Based on these risks, Plaintiff acknowledged that there
2 was a significant chance that the Court could deny class certification.

3 37. Defendant also asserted that, even if certification were granted, it would prevail on the 4 merits by showing that it either provided compliant breaks or paid the required premium
5 compensation. Defendant contended that Plaintiff would be unable to present reliable, representative
6 evidence sufficient to establish liability or support a classwide damages award. In light of these risks,
7 Plaintiff acknowledged the risks and incorporated a 75% reduction, and calculates a risk-adjusted
8 value of $326,562.50 for the meal period claims and $195,937.50 for the rest period claims.

9 38. Finally, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant issued noncompliant wage statements in 10 violation of Labor Code § 226, based on the same facts underlying Plaintiff's claims for unpaid
11 wages, meal and rest period premiums, and failure to include all forms of compensation in the regular 12 rate of pay. Plaintiff estimates that approximately 4,178 allegedly violative wage statements were 13 issued during the Class Period. In calculating Defendant's maximum potential exposure, Plaintiff
14 conservatively assumed that only the "initial" penalty of $50 per violation would apply for a total
15 exposure of $208,930, in accordance with Labor Code § 226(e) and case law holding that higher
16 penalties apply only after an employer has been notified of the violations.

17 39. Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that its wage statements fully complied
18 with the requirements of Labor Code § 226. Defendant further argued that, even if there were any 19 errors, they were not "knowing and intentional," and that Plaintiff could not establish the required
20 element of injury. Defendant also relied on its defenses to the underlying wage and hour claims and 21 to class certification.

22 40. In light of these risks, Plaintiff applied a reasonable discount to account for the 23 possibility of denial at the class certification stage, as well as an additional discount for the risk of 24 loss on the merits. Applying these risk adjustments of 75%, Plaintiff calculates a risk-adjusted value
25 of $52,232 for the wage statement penalty claim.

26 41. Plaintiff also sought civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004
27 ("PAGA") for each Labor Code violation for which such penalties are available, and alleged that 28 these penalties could be assessed on a cumulative or "stacked" basis. See Gonzalez v. Corecivic of

1 Tennessee, LLC, No. 1:16-cv-01891-DAD-JLT, 2018 WL 4388425, at *12 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 12, 2018)
2 (“‘stacking’ PAGA penalties is not inappropriate under California law”). Assuming application of
3 the default penalty of $100 per pay period pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2), and that penalties
4 are not subject to reduction or judicial discretion, the maximum potential exposure for PAGA
5 penalties could reach approximately $417,800 (4,178 pay periods × $100).

6 42. However, this theoretical maximum does not account for significant legal
7 uncertainties. First, courts are divided on whether stacking PAGA penalties across multiple violations
8 within a single pay period is permissible, particularly where the violations are derivative in nature.
9 Second, Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) grants courts broad discretion to reduce civil penalties where 10 necessary to avoid an award that is “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” See Cotter v.
11 Lyft, Inc., 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving reduction of PAGA penalties 12 where the employer did not act willfully or negligently, and legal obligations were unclear).

13 43. In recognition of these risks, including the likelihood of judicial reduction and the 14 challenges of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claims, Plaintiff applied significant discounts
15 to the estimated penalty exposure. After accounting for these risks, and in light of the Parties’ mutual
16 desire to resolve the matter without protracted litigation, they agreed to allocate $10,000 of the Gross
17 Settlement Amount toward resolution of the PAGA claim, which Plaintiff believes is fair and 18 reasonable under the circumstances.

19 44. In sum, when factoring in defenses and risks of ongoing litigation, Plaintiff estimates
20 the risk-adjusted class recovery as follows:

21	• Regular Rate of Pay Claim:	$0 (discounted)
22	• Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 Claims:	$345,000
23	• Meal Period Claims:	$326,562.50
24	• Rest Break Claims:	$195,937.50
25	• Wage Statement Claims:	$52,232
26	• PAGA Penalties	$10,000
27	• Total Risk-Adjusted Penalties and Damages:	$929,732

1 Given the realistic value of Plaintiff's claims, the $495,000 Settlement Amount is an excellent
2 result for the Class, considering that the Settlement Amount totals approximately 53% of Plaintiff's
3 risk-adjusted value of the case. Preliminary approval is appropriate, as the Settlement will provide 4 significant monetary relief to the Class .

5 45. The Settlement was the product of extensive arm's length negotiations between 6 counsel and was facilitated by an experienced wage-and-hour class action mediator. Though cordial
7 and professional, the Settlement negotiations were adversarial and non-collusive in nature. The 8 Settlement reached is the product of substantial effort by the Parties and their counsel. Although 9 Plaintiff and his counsel believe that there was a possibility of certifying the claims, they recognized
10 the potential risk, expense, and complexity posed by litigation, such as unfavorable decisions on class
11 certification, summary judgment, at trial and/or on the damages awarded, and/or on an appeal that 12 can take several more years to litigate. In addition, if Defendant prevailed on any of their defenses, 13 the employees may not have received any substantial monetary recovery.

14 46. The Settlement will result in a fair payment to each Settlement Class Member based 15 on the number of Weeks Worked during the Class Period. As set forth hereinabove, Plaintiff and 16 counsel have diligently investigated the claims and defenses on behalf of the Settlement Class
17 Members and worked to achieve a resolution of the claims to maximize the recovery by avoiding 18 further expenditure of Attorneys' Fees and Costs. After evaluating the significant risks attendant with 19 further litigation described above and weighing them against the benefits of a known compromise
20 and settlement as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, settlement on the terms agreed to is believed
21 to be in the best interest of Plaintiff and the Settlement Class, and is a fair and reasonable resolution 22 of the claims alleged.

23 47. Plaintiff's counsel brought to bear a great deal of collective experience in negotiating
24 the settlement of this case. As detailed herein, Plaintiff's counsel engaged in necessary informal
25 discovery, investigation, sampling, and expert evaluation, making it possible to exercise informed
26 judgment throughout the settlement process, including significant document review (e.g., documents
27 pertaining to Defendant's policies and procedures, personnel documents, wage statements, time 28 records, among others) and conducted an extensive analysis and extrapolation of the sampling of

1 class-wide data provided by Defendant.

2 48. Based on our experience in other cases, including wage and hour matters, I believe
3 our office, along with Joshua Falakassa, is qualified to evaluate the class claims and viability of 4 defenses in this class action. In this case, the recovery for each Settlement Class Member is
5 reasonable, fair and adequate, and a settlement at this time is in the best interest of the Settlement
6 Class. The Settlement provides each Settlement Class Member with compensation for the alleged 7 violations when viewed in relation to the costs and risks inherent in obtaining class certification and 8 proceeding to trial.

9 49. Plaintiff's counsel, as well as Defendant's counsel, fully endorse the terms and 10 conditions of the Settlement as set forth in the abovementioned Settlement Agreement.

11 50. Of course, the Settlement Amount represents a compromise figure, taking into account
12 the various risks surrounding class certification and the merits of Defendant's asserted defenses.
13 Nevertheless, the Settlement provides fair and adequate payments to the Settlement Class Members, 14 with no reversion to Defendant.

15 51. Plaintiff seeks a Service Award of $10,000, which we believe is fair and warranted.
16 Plaintiff agreed to come forward in an effort to effectuate a policy and practice change that benefitted
17 all other Settlement Class Members and to recover unpaid wages and penalties. Plaintiff assumed
18 significant risk in bringing this litigation, namely, had she lost, she could have been ordered to pay
19 Defendant's costs.

20 52. Plaintiff provided invaluable assistance to the investigation and prosecution of this
21 case, including: providing factual background for the Class Complaint; reviewing the litigation
22 documents; providing information and documentation about Defendant's policies and practices;
23 participating in phone calls to discuss litigation and settlement strategy; participating in the mediation
24 process, and reviewing the settlement documents. Plaintiff agreed to participate in this case with no
25 guarantee of personal benefit. Plaintiff's comprehensive declarations setting forth all of the reasons
26 why she believes that the Service Award should be approved has been filed herewith.

27 53. When this case was taken on a contingency fee basis, with our firms agreeing to 28 assume responsibility for all litigation costs, the ultimate result was far from certain. In the course of

1 this litigation, we paid all costs, including the filing fees, court costs, mediation costs, and expert
2 costs. There was never a guarantee that our firms would recoup these expenditures.

3 54. It is our experience that attorneys' fee awards of one-third of a common fund
4 settlement are the standard in California. In this case, Plaintiff's counsel agreed to seek one-third of 5 the Settlement Amount for Attorneys' Fees. Defendant does not oppose this fee request. The fee is 6 further warranted because it is within the range of reasonableness typically awarded in class actions.
7 Our firm's Costs will not exceed $25,000 and will be based on the actual amount incurred at the time
8 of final approval.

9 55. Subject to the Court's approval, the parties stipulated that CPT Group, Inc. would 10 serve as the Settlement Administrator. Phoenix is experienced in administering class action
11 settlements and will not exceed $9,000 to administer this class action Settlement.

12 56. Plaintiff has concurrently submitted the Settlement to the LWDA in accordance with 13 Labor Code Section 2699(1)(2). The proof of submission is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

14 57. For the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that the Court grant preliminary 15 approval of the Settlement as being fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class, 16 as well as preliminarily approve the requested attorneys' fees and Costs, and the Service Award to 17 the Class Representative.

18 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the foregoing is true and 19 correct on this 6th day of June 2025, in Los Angeles, California.

The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.

7.8.2 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

- 7.8.3 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- 7.8.4 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than fourteen (14) calendar days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator’s declaration(s) in Court.
- 7.8.5 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within ten (10) calendar days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least fifteen (15) calendar days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

- 8. ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Spring Hill Manor has represented that the actual weeks worked by the Settlement Class is approximately 24,450 workweeks. Additionally, if the number of workweeks is more than ten percent (10%) greater than the figures set forth in Paragraph 3, Spring Hill Manor shall increase the Gross Settlement Amount on a proportional basis that reflects the percentage over ten percent (10%) or shorten the Class Period to an earlier date at which only the represented number of workweeks plus ten percent (10%) are covered by the Class Period.

9. SPRING HILL MANOR'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If ten percent (10%) or more of the Class Members, or a number of Class Members whose Individual Settlement Shares represent ten percent (10%) or more of the total of all Individual Settlement Shares, validly elect not to participate in the Settlement, Spring Hill Manor will have the right to rescind the Settlement, and the Settlement and all actions taken in its furtherance will be null and void. Spring Hill Manor must exercise this right within fifteen (15) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator notifies the parties of the number of opt-outs, which the Settlement Administrator will do within ten (10) calendar days after the deadline for submission of opt-outs. If Spring Hill Manor exercises the right to rescind, it will be responsible for the costs of administration of the Settlement incurred through that time.
10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than sixteen (16) court days before the scheduled Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively "Motion for Final Approval"). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than ten (10) calendar days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.
 - 10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than five (5) court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.
 - 10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to attempt to address the Court's concerns. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
 - 10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
 - 10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. The parties and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement waive all appeals from the final approval of the Settlement unless the Court materially modifies the Settlement, except that Plaintiff and Class Counsel may appeal from an order by the Court that reduces the amounts sought for the Class Representative Payment or the Class Counsel Fees or Expenses Payment. Such an order or affirmance of such an order will not entitle Plaintiff or the Class to avoid the Settlement. Spring Hill Manor's payment obligation under the Settlement will be suspended pending an appeal of the Judgment.

10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to attempt to address the appellate court's concerns, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If an amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Spring Hill Manor that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Spring Hill Manor has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Spring Hill Manor's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Spring Hill Manor reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Spring Hill Manor reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Spring Hill Manor's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and the Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

12.2 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

- 12.3 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.4 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.5 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement as agreed by the Parties, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.6 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.7 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Spring Hill Manor nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 12.8 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.9 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.10 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.11 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

- 12.12 Confidentiality. Plaintiff and her attorneys agree not to issue any press or other media releases or talk to the press or media regarding the Settlement, and Plaintiff's attorneys agree not to publicize the Settlement on their website or social media. In addition, prior to filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff and her attorneys will not have any communication with anyone other than family members, clients, Class Members, financial advisors, retained experts, and vendors related to settlement administration, regarding the Settlement. If, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff or her attorneys disclose to any unauthorized party (a) that a settlement has been reached or (b) any of the terms of the Settlement except as required by law or to effect the Settlement, Spring Hill Manor may rescind the Settlement, rendering it null and void.
- 12.13 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Spring Hill Manor in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than ninety (90) calendar days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Spring Hill Manor unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Spring Hill Manor makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destruction of, Class Data.
- 12.14 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.15 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter:
- 12.16 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

12.17 Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts by facsimile, electronically (i.e., DocuSign), or email which for purposes of this Agreement shall be accepted as an original. All executed counterparts and each of them will be deemed to be one and the same instrument if counsel for the Parties will exchange between themselves signed counterparts. Any executed counterpart will be admissible in evidence to prove the existence and contents of this Agreement.

12.18 Stay of Litigation. EXHIBIT A

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF NEVADA

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING
DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

(Tasha Schaffer v. Spring Hill Manor Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital, Inc., Case No. CU0001135)

*The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.*

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Spring Hill Manor Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital, Inc. (“Spring Hill Manor”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former Spring Hill Manor employee, Tasha Schaffer (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back and premium wages, statutory penalties, and interest for a class of non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked for Spring Hill Manor in California during the Class Period (December 21, 2019 to January 27, 2025) (“Class Members”); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked for Spring Hill Manor in California during the PAGA Period (December 21, 2022 to January 27, 2025) (“PAGA Members”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Spring Hill Manor to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Spring Hill Manor to fund Individual PAGA Payments and to make a payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Spring Hill Manor’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_____ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $__. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Spring Hill Manor’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Spring Hill Manor’s records showing that you worked _____workweeks during the Class Period and you worked _____workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Spring Hill Manor to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and PAGA Members to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Spring Hill Manor.

If you worked for Spring Hill Manor during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don’t have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Spring Hill Manor.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Spring Hill Manor. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement, and thus, if you are a PAGA member, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment regardless of whether you opt out of the Class Settlement.

Spring Hill Manor will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don’t Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Spring Hill Manor that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____	If you don’t want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Spring Hill Manor must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all PAGA Members and the PAGA Members must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Spring Hill Manor’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Spring Hill Manor employee. The Action accuses Spring Hill Manor of violating California labor laws, asserting claims based on Spring Hill Manor’s alleged: (1) failure to provide meal and/or rest periods; (2) failure to pay all sick time; (3) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and (4) failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff also asserted a violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”). Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C., and Joshua S. Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. (“Class Counsel.”)

Spring Hill Manor strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Spring Hill Manor or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an agreement to settle the case rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Spring Hill Manor does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Spring Hill Manor has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and PAGA Members. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Spring Hill Manor Will Pay $495,000 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Spring Hill Manor has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Spring Hill Manor will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 180 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $165,000 (33% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and up to $25,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff’s Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $ 6,000 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.

- D. Up to $10,000 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA Members based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 33% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 67 to interest and penalties (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Spring Hill Manor will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.
Although Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor, at your own expense, if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.
5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check are sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than _____, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the _____ Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Spring Hill Manor.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Spring Hill Manor based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Spring Hill Manor have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Spring Hill Manor will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Spring Hill Manor.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, CPT Group, Inc. (the “Administrator”), to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Spring Hill Manor has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Spring Hill Manor or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release any and all claims against Spring Hill Manor and any present and former parents, subsidiaries, and affiliated companies or entities, and their respective officers, directors, employees, partners, shareholders and agents, and any other successors, assigns and legal representatives and its related persons and entities (“Released Parties”) that arise out of or reasonably relate to the claims alleged in the Action or that could have been alleged based on the allegations in the Action, including claims for meal period violations, rest period violations, wage statement violations, failure to timely pay all final wages, business expenses, unpaid overtime wages, statutory penalties, civil penalties, or other relief under the California Labor Code, relief from unfair competition under California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.; attorneys’ fees and costs; and interest.

10. PAGA Members’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Spring Hill Manor has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all PAGA Members will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Spring Hill Manor, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all PAGA Members, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Spring Hill Manor or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The PAGA Members' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are PAGA Members are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, any and all claims for civil penalties under PAGA against Spring Hill Manor and the Released Parties that arise out of or reasonably relate to the claims alleged in the Action or that could have been alleged based on the factual allegations in the Action.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $2,500.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all PAGA Members and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual PAGA Member.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Spring Hill Manor's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until _____ to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. EXHIBIT “B”

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF NEVADA

(Tasha Schaffer v. Spring Hill Manor Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital, Inc., Case No. CU0001135)

*The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.*

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Spring Hill Manor Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital, Inc. (“Spring Hill Manor”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former Spring Hill Manor employee, Tasha Schaffer (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back and premium wages, statutory penalties, and interest for a class of non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked for Spring Hill Manor in California during the Class Period (December 21, 2019 to January 27, 2025) (“Class Members”); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked for Spring Hill Manor in California during the PAGA Period (December 21, 2022 to January 27, 2025) (“PAGA Members”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Spring Hill Manor to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Spring Hill Manor to fund Individual PAGA Payments and to make a payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Spring Hill Manor’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_____ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $__. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Spring Hill Manor’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Spring Hill Manor’s records showing that you worked _____workweeks during the Class Period and you worked _____workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Spring Hill Manor to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and PAGA Members to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Spring Hill Manor.

If you worked for Spring Hill Manor during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don’t have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Spring Hill Manor.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Spring Hill Manor. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement, and thus, if you are a PAGA member, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment regardless of whether you opt out of the Class Settlement.

Spring Hill Manor will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don’t Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Spring Hill Manor that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____	If you don’t want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Spring Hill Manor must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all PAGA Members and the PAGA Members must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Spring Hill Manor’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Spring Hill Manor employee. The Action accuses Spring Hill Manor of violating California labor laws, asserting claims based on Spring Hill Manor’s alleged: (1) failure to provide meal and/or rest periods; (2) failure to pay all sick time; (3) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and (4) failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff also asserted a violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”). Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C., and Joshua S. Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. (“Class Counsel.”)

Spring Hill Manor strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Spring Hill Manor or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor hired an experienced, neutral mediator

in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an agreement to settle the case rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Spring Hill Manor does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Spring Hill Manor has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and PAGA Members. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Spring Hill Manor Will Pay $495,000 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Spring Hill Manor has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Spring Hill Manor will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 180 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $165,000 (33% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and up to $25,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff’s Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $ 6,000 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.

- D. Up to $10,000 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA Members based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 33% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 67 to interest and penalties (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Spring Hill Manor will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.
Although Plaintiff and Spring Hill Manor have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor, at your own expense, if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.
5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check are sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than _____, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the _____ Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Spring Hill Manor.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Spring Hill Manor based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Spring Hill Manor have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Spring Hill Manor will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Spring Hill Manor.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, CPT Group, Inc. (the “Administrator”), to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Spring Hill Manor has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Spring Hill Manor or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release any and all claims against Spring Hill Manor and any present and former parents, subsidiaries, and affiliated companies or entities, and their respective officers, directors, employees, partners, shareholders and agents, and any other successors, assigns and legal representatives and its related persons and entities (“Released Parties”) that arise out of or reasonably relate to the claims alleged in the Action or that could have been alleged based on the allegations in the Action, including claims for meal period violations, rest period violations, wage statement violations, failure to timely pay all final wages, business expenses, unpaid overtime wages, statutory penalties, civil penalties, or other relief under the California Labor Code, relief from unfair competition under California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.; attorneys’ fees and costs; and interest.

10. PAGA Members’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Spring Hill Manor has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all PAGA Members will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Spring Hill Manor, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all PAGA Members, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Spring Hill Manor or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The PAGA Members' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are PAGA Members are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, any and all claims for civil penalties under PAGA against Spring Hill Manor and the Released Parties that arise out of or reasonably relate to the claims alleged in the Action or that could have been alleged based on the factual allegations in the Action.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $2,500.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all PAGA Members and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual PAGA Member.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Spring Hill Manor's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until _____ to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Spring Hill Manor's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Spring Hill Manor's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Spring Hill Manor's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as PAGA Members. 2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every PAGA Member who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.
