HEARING INFORMATION

Date: July 25, 2025

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Dept.: 6

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on July 25, 2025, at 10:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard in Department 6 of the Nevada County Superior Court, located at 201 Church Street, Nevada City, California 95959, before the Honorable S. Robert Tice-Raskin, Plaintiff Tasha Schaffer, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, will and hereby does move the Court for an order:

1. Certifying the proposed class for settlement purposes only;
2. Preliminarily appointing Plaintiff Tasha Schaffer as the Class Representative for settlement purposes only;
3. Appointing Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. and Joshua Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. as Class Counsel for settlement purposes only;
4. Preliminarily approving the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement as fair, reasonable, and adequate;
5. Approving the form, content, and method of distribution of the Class Notice, including notice to Class Members of their rights to object to or request exclusion from the Settlement;
6. Setting a date for the final approval hearing to determine whether the Settlement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and whether judgment should be entered.

This Motion is based upon the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declarations of Mehrdad Bokhour, Joshua Falakassa, and Plaintiff Tasha Schaffer, the fully executed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement, the [Proposed] Order Granting Preliminary Approval, the pleadings and records on file in this action, and any oral or documentary evidence that may be presented at the hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this Motion, Plaintiff Tasha Schaffer (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of 4 all others similarly situated, seeks preliminary approval of the Class Action and PAGA
5 Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”)¹. Subject to the Court’s
6 approval, Plaintiff and Defendant Spring Hill Manor Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital,
7 Inc. (“Defendant” or “Spring Hill Manor”) have agreed to resolve all claims asserted on behalf
8 of the proposed Settlement Class and PAGA Group for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement
9 Amount of $495,000.

10 Plaintiff seeks to represent a Class comprised of:

11 All individuals who were employed by Spring Hill Manor as non-exempt hourly
12 employees in California at any time from December 21, 2019 through January 27,
13 2025 (the “Class” or “Class Members”)

14 In addition, the PAGA Group is defined as:

15 All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Spring Hill Manor in 16 California at any time from December 21, 2022 through January 27, 2025
17 (the “PAGA Members”).

18 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will not oppose Class
19 Counsel’s application for a reasonable award of attorney’s fees not to exceed one-third of the 20 Settlement Amount, Class Counsel’s litigation costs not to exceed $20,000, Settlement 21 Administration Costs not to exceed $9,000, PAGA penalties of $10,000 (of which $7,500 or 22 75% will be paid to the LWDA and the remaining $2,500 or 25% will be paid to the PAGA
23 Members), and a Service Award not to exceed $10,000 to the named Plaintiff (S.A. ¶ 3 et seq.,
as follows:

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$495,000
Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment	$165,000
Class Counsel Fees Payment (not to exceed)	$20,000.00

27 ¹ The Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims is attached as 28 Exhibit “A” to the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour (“Bokhour Decl.”) submitted herewith and is hereinafter referred to as the “Settlement Agreement”. “S.A.” or the “Settlement.” The proposed Notice Packet is attached to the Bokhour Decl. as Exhibit “B.”

Administration Expenses Payment (not to exceed)	$9,000.00
PAGA Penalties to LWDA (75% of $10k award)	$7,500.00
PAGA Penalties to PAGA Members	$2,500.00
Plaintiff's Service Award	$10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$281,000.00

The Settlement Class consists of approximately 289 non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period. Plaintiff alleges that, regardless of job title or department, all non-exempt employees were subject to common wage-and-hour policies and practices that gave rise to the alleged Labor Code violations. Individual Settlement Payments will be distributed on a pro rata basis, determined by the number of Compensable Workweeks each Class Member worked during the Class Period. Based on the estimated Net Settlement Amount of $281,000 and a Class size of approximately 289 individuals, the average individual payment is approximately $972, with the highest estimated payment being approximately $5,134. Class Members who worked more Compensable Workweeks will receive proportionally greater payments. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 11.)

The Settlement is non-reversionary, and Settlement Class Members are not required to submit Claim Forms to receive payment. Each Settlement Class Member will be mailed a Class Notice containing information about their estimated Individual Class Payment, the opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks credited to them during the Class Period, and instructions on how to submit a Request for Exclusion or an Objection to the Settlement. All Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will automatically receive their Individual Settlement Payment after the Court grants Final Approval. PAGA Members eligible for payments under the PAGA portion of the Settlement may not opt out and will receive their share of the PAGA Amount regardless of participation in the class settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 12.)

Because the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and the result of arm's-length negotiations between experienced counsel with the assistance of an experienced mediator, following an appropriate and thorough exchange of relevant information and documents, it warrants preliminary approval. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (1)

1 preliminarily approving the Settlement; (2) conditionally certifying the Settlement Class
2 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 for settlement purposes only; (3)
3 approving the form and content of the proposed Class Notice; (4) appointing Plaintiff’s counsel
4 as Class Counsel; (5) appointing CPT Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; and (6)
5 scheduling a Final Approval Hearing. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 13.)

6 II. BACKGROUND

7 A. THE PARTIES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

8 Defendant operates an inpatient skilled nursing facility in California and provides on-site
9 physical, occupational, and speech therapy rehabilitation services. Plaintiff Tasha Schaffer was 10 employed by Defendant as a non-exempt with the title of “Registered Nurse,” beginning on 11 June 13, 2023. During her employment, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees, including 12 but not limited to, Certified Nursing Assistants, Rehabilitation Assistants, Physical Therapists, 13 and all other hourly non-exempt employees, were responsible for delivering patient care and 14 supporting the day-to-day operations of Defendant’s facility. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 14.)

15 Plaintiff alleges that, in the course of performing their duties, she and other non-exempt 16 employees were not consistently afforded all rights and protections guaranteed under the 17 California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders, including 18 rights related to minimum and overtime wages, meal and rest breaks, accurate wage statements, 19 timely final pay, and reimbursement of business expenses.

20 The proposed Settlement Class includes all individuals employed by Defendant Spring
21 Hill Manor as non-exempt hourly employees in California at any time from December 21, 2019
22 through January 27, 2025.

23 B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

24 On December 21, 2023, Plaintiff filed suit in Nevada County Superior Court, asserting 25 claims based on Defendant’s alleged: (1) failure to provide meal periods; (2) failure to provide 26 rest breaks; (3) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (4) failure to pay all wages
27 due upon separation of employment; and (5) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law
28 (“UCL”).

1 On April 17, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint alleging the same causes of 2 action in the Complaint and adding a cause of action for alleged PAGA penalties. The First
3 Amended Complaint is the operative complaint in the Action. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 14; S.A., 2, 4 Recitals.)

5 Throughout the investigation and litigation, Defendant denied Plaintiff's allegations and 6 indicated it would vigorously defend against them. However, before engaging in protracted 7 litigation, the Parties agreed to explore early resolution through private mediation.

8 The Parties conducted a thorough investigation into the facts and legal issues in this
9 Action. This included interviews with putative class members, an investigation of Defendant's
10 operations and wage and hour practices, and the informal exchange of discovery materials,
11 including Defendant's written wage and hour policies and practices, as well as a representative
12 sampling of payroll and timekeeping records for Settlement Class Members and PAGA
13 Members. Class Counsel has extensive experience in wage and hour litigation and has 14 conducted substantial research regarding the legal claims and potential defenses at issue. Class
15 Counsel has diligently investigated the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class
16 Members and PAGA Members. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 15.)

17 Based on this investigation and their own independent evaluation, Class Counsel believe 18 that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interests of the 19 Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members, especially in light of the risks and uncertainties
20 associated with continued litigation, Defendant's asserted defenses, and potential appellate 21 issues. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 16.)

22 On November 4, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by Daniel
23 Turner, Esq.. Following that session, and after the issuance of a mediator's proposal, the Parties
24 reached a settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 17, Ex. A.) (Id.)

25 Thereafter, the parties stipulated to the submission of the operative Second Amended 26 Complaint ("SAC") adding causes of action for overtime and sick pay violations based on 27 "regular rate of pay" violations and derivative claims. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 17)

1 The Parties now respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary approval of the 2 Settlement Agreement.

3 C. SUMMARY OF PLAINTIFF’S CLAIMS

4 Plaintiff alleges various wage and hour violations on behalf of herself and all other non-
5 exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period (i.e., 6 Settlement Class Members). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 18.)

7 First, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay all overtime and sick pay wages due
8 to its uniform failure to calculate the “regular rate of pay.” (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 19.)

9 Further, alleges that Defendant maintained deficient meal and rest break policies and 10 practices that failed to provide Class Members with timely, duty-free, and compliant meal
11 periods, or premium wages in lieu thereof. Plaintiff also asserts that Class Members were not 12 provided with duty-free rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for every four (4) hours worked,
13 or major fraction thereof, due to unlawful policies that required employees to remain on duty
14 and/or on the premises during rest periods. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 20.)

15 Plaintiff further alleges that as a result of the meal and rest period violations, Defendant
16 failed to pay all final wages upon separation of employment and did not furnish accurate
17 itemized wage statements in compliance with Labor Code § 226.

18 Finally, Plaintiff brings representative claims under the Private Attorneys General Act
19 (“PAGA”) for civil penalties based on the alleged Labor Code violations described above.
20 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 21.)

21 D. SUMMARY OF DEFENDANT’S DEFENSES

22 Defendant contested and denied all material allegations raised by Plaintiff, both on the 23 merits and with respect to the propriety of class certification and PAGA representative
24 treatment. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 22.)

25 First, Defendant contended that it properly excluded additional discretionary payments
26 from the “regular rate of pay” for purposes of overtime and sick pay. In addition, Defendant 27 contended that any violations and resulting damages based on this theory were minimal if any.
28 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 24.)

1 Second, Defendant contended that its written meal and rest period policies complied
2 with California law and that, in practice, Settlement Class Members were provided the 3 opportunity to take timely, duty-free meal and rest periods. Defendant denied having any policy
4 or practice requiring employees to remain on duty or on the premises during rest periods.
5 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 24.)

6 Next, Defendant argued that Plaintiff's claims for wage statement violations, waiting
7 time penalties, and PAGA penalties were derivative of other claims it contended were meritless.
8 Accordingly, Defendant denied any violations that would give rise to penalties under Labor
9 Code sections 203 or 226. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 25.)

10 Finally, Defendant asserted that individualized inquiries would be necessary to 11 determine liability—such as whether and why specific employees took shortened or untimely 12 meal periods, and how break compliance was managed by different supervisors. Defendant
13 emphasized that putative Class Members held different positions, performed different duties,
14 worked in various locations, and were subject to diverse managerial practices. Defendant argued 15 that this variability rendered the case unsuitable for class or representative treatment. (Bokhour
16 Decl. ¶ 26.)

17 III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

18 The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

19 A. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION AND ALLOCATION

20 The $495,000 Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary and will be paid out to 21 Settlement Class Members without the need to submit a claim form or take any affirmative
22 action. The Gross Settlement Amount will cover the following, subject to Court approval:

- 23 • Class Counsel's attorneys' fees, not to exceed $165,000 (33.33% of the Gross 24 Settlement Amount), and litigation expenses, not to exceed $20,000;
- 25 • A Service Award to the Class Representative, not to exceed $10,000;
- 26 • Settlement Administration Costs, not to exceed $9,000, except upon a showing 27 of good cause;
- 28 • PAGA Penalties totaling $15,000, of which 75% ($11,250) will be paid to the

California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(i), and 25% ($3,750) will be distributed to PAGA Members as Individual PAGA Payments; and

- The Net Settlement Amount, which will be distributed as Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis based on the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period.

Defendant will separately pay the employer's share of payroll taxes on the portion of the Individual Settlement Payments allocated as wages.

After all Court-approved deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is estimated that approximately $281,000 will remain as the Net Settlement Amount, available to fund Individual Settlement Payments to approximately 289 Participating Class Members. Based on a total of 24,445 workweeks. As a result, the average Individual Settlement Payment is estimated to be approximately $972.00 , with the highest estimated payment around $5,134, depending on the number of workweeks worked. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 7.)

B. NOTICE PROCEDURES

The proposed Class Notice, once approved by the Court, will be distributed to Settlement Class Members and will include, among other information, the estimated number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods for which each individual will be credited. (S.A. ¶ 7.4.2.). (Bokhour Decl., Ex. B.) Within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval, Defendant shall provide the Settlement Administrator with the Class Data, including each Settlement Class Member's name, last-known mailing address, telephone number, Social Security number, and number of Workweeks and Pay Periods worked during the Class and PAGA Periods. (S.A. ¶¶ 1.7 ["Class Data"], 4.2.)

Within fifteen (15) calendar days after receiving the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator shall update addresses using the National Change of Address database, calculate each Settlement Class Member's credited Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods, and mail the Class Notice via first-class U.S. Mail, in both English and Spanish. The Notice shall include the estimated Individual Class and PAGA Payments. (S.A. ¶¶ 7.4.2, 7.4.4.)

1 If a Notice is returned as undeliverable with a forwarding address, the Administrator
2 shall re-mail the Notice within five (5) business days. If no forwarding address is provided, the 3 Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Notice to the most
4 current address located. (S.A. ¶ 7.4.3; see also ¶ 1.9 [“Class Member Address Search”].)

5 If the Notice is re-mailed, the deadline to submit a Request for Exclusion, Objection, or 6 Challenge to Workweeks or Pay Periods will be extended by fourteen (14) calendar days
7 beyond the standard Response Deadline. The re-mailed Notice will inform Class Members of 8 this extended deadline. (S.A. ¶¶ 1.43 [“Response Deadline”], 7.4.4.)

9 The most recently confirmed address in the Administrator’s records shall be presumed 10 the best available address for mailing any settlement checks or further notices. (S.A. ¶ 4.4.1.)

11 C. EXCLUSION AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES

12 Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will 13 be deemed to participate in the Settlement and will become Participating Class Members,
14 without the need to submit a claim form or take any other affirmative action. The Class Notice
15 will inform Settlement Class Members of their right to opt out of the Settlement. To do so, a 16 Class Member must submit a written Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator,
17 postmarked no later than forty-five (45) calendar days after the initial mailing of the Class
18 Notice (the “Response Deadline”). (S.A. ¶¶ 1.43 [“Response Deadline”], 7.5.1, 7.5.2.)

19 The Class Notice will also inform Settlement Class Members of their right to object to 20 the Settlement. To do so, a Class Member must submit a written objection to the Settlement 21 Administrator, postmarked no later than the Response Deadline. The objection must include the 22 objector’s full name, address, telephone number, dates of employment with Defendant, and the 23 case name and number. It may also include a detailed statement of the basis for the objection, 24 any legal support, specific reasons for the objection, supporting documentation or evidence,
25 and, if represented by counsel, the name and contact information of the objector’s attorney.
26 (S.A. ¶ 7.5.4.)

27 D. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION FORMULA FOR SETTLEMENT SHARES

28 The Individual Settlement Payment for each Participating Class Member will be

1 calculated by the Settlement Administrator based on the Class Data provided by Defendant.
2 After accounting for any approved Workweek disputes and excluding individuals who timely
3 submit valid Requests for Exclusion, the Settlement Administrator will determine the total
4 number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period.
5 Each Participating Class Member's share of the Net Settlement Amount will then be calculated 6 based on the number of Workweeks they worked during the Class Period, as a proportion of the 7 total Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members. (S.A. ¶ 7.6.1 (d) (ii).) (S.A. ¶
8 7.6.1(d)(ii).)

9 The Class Notice will inform each Settlement Class Member of the estimated number of 10 Workweeks worked during the Class Period. If a Settlement Class Member believes the 11 estimate is incorrect and that they worked more Workweeks in California during the Class
12 Period than shown in the Class Notice, they may submit documentation to the Settlement
13 Administrator, postmarked on or before the Response Deadline, to dispute the credited 14 Workweeks. The Settlement Administrator shall review the documentation in consultation with 15 Class Counsel and Defense Counsel and shall make a final and binding determination. (S.A. ¶ 16 7.6.2.).

17 E. TIMING OF SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

18 Defendant shall make a one-time deposit into the Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") in 19 the amount of the Gross Settlement Amount within thirty (30) calendar days after the Effective
20 Date. In addition, Defendant shall separately pay the employer-side payroll taxes on the portion 21 of the Individual Settlement Payments allocated as wages, as calculated and directed by the 22 Settlement Administrator. (S.A. ¶4.3.)

23 The Settlement Administrator shall deposit the Gross Settlement Amount into an 24 interest-bearing, FDIC-insured QSF, from which all payments will be made in accordance with 25 the Settlement Agreement. If the Settlement is voided for any reason, all funds deposited by 26 Defendant into the QSF, including any accrued interest, shall be returned to Defendant.

27 The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used to fund: (i) Individual Settlement Payments
28 to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members; (ii) Court-approved attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel; (iii) the Service Payment to the Class Representative; (iv) the payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) for its 75% share of PAGA penalties; and (v) Settlement Administration Costs. Within ten (10) calendar days after the Gross Settlement Amount is deposited into the QSF, the Settlement Administrator shall issue and mail:

(a) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members;

(b) the Court-approved Service Payment to the Class Representative;

(c) attorneys' fees and litigation costs to Class Counsel;

(d) the PAGA payment to the LWDA; and

(e) Court-approved Settlement Administration Costs to itself.

Participating Class Members shall have 180 calendar days from the date of mailing to cash their settlement checks. If a check is returned within that 180-day period, the Settlement Administrator shall conduct a skip trace within five (5) business days, notify Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, and, if a new address is located, re-issue and mail a replacement check within ten (10) business days.

For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member. (S.A. ¶ 4.4.3.)

F. TAX TREATMENT

The Individual Class Payments paid to Participating Class Members for Class Claims will be allocated for tax purposes based on the nature of the allegations in the Action as follows: thirty-three percent (33%) will be allocated as wages, subject to applicable local, state, and federal tax withholdings; and sixty-seven percent (67%) will be allocated as interest and civil penalties (including amounts under California Labor Code sections 203 and 226), which are not subject to withholding. The Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for calculating and withholding applicable taxes on the wage portion, and, to the extent required by law, shall issue each Participating Class Member an IRS Form W-2 for the wage portion and an IRS Form 1099 for the interest and penalty portion, along with any applicable state tax forms. (S.A. ¶ 3.2.4.1.)

G. PARTICIPATING CLASS MEMBERS' RELEASE OF CLAIMS

In exchange for the settlement payments, the Settlement Agreement provides that Participating Class Members will release any and all claims against Spring Hill Manor and the Released Parties that arise out of or reasonably relate to the claims, rights, demands, liabilities, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, arising from the same set of operative facts as those alleged in the Complaint, the Operative Complaint, and/or the applicable LWDA letters, including those claims which could have been asserted based on the facts alleged in the Complaint, the Operative Complaint, and/or LWDA letters, through the Release Period. Such released claims include claims for meal period violations, rest period violations, wage statement violations, failure to timely pay all final wages, statutory penalties, civil penalties, or other relief under the California Labor Code, relief from unfair competition under California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.; attorneys' fees and costs; and interest. (S.A. ¶ 5.2.)

In accordance with California Labor Code § 2699(l), and as set forth in the Settlement Agreement (¶ 5.3), the PAGA claims of all PAGA Members will also be released upon the Effective Date. The Released PAGA Claims include any and all claims for civil penalties under PAGA against Spring Hill Manor and the Released Parties that arise out of or reasonably relate to the claims alleged in the PAGA Notice or that could have been alleged based on the factual allegations in the PAGA Notice.

In addition to this class release, the Class Representative has agreed to a broader General Release of all known and unknown claims, including a waiver of rights under California Civil Code section 1542. (S.A. ¶ 5.1.)

IV. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS UNDER THE LESSER STANDARD OF SCRUTINY FOR SETTLEMENT-ONLY CERTIFICATION IS APPROPRIATE FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT

California Rule of Court 3.769(d) provides that the Court may make an order approving certification of a provisional settlement class at the preliminary approval stage. It is well-

1 established that trial courts should use a “lesser standard of scrutiny” for determining the 2 propriety of certifying a settlement class, as opposed to a litigation class. Dunk v. Ford Motor
3 Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807 at n.19.

4 The reasons include that no trial is anticipated in a settlement class, so the case
5 management issues inherent in determining if the class should be certified need not be 6 confronted; and the trial court’s fairness review of the settlement protects the interests of the 7 non-representative Class Members. Id.; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th
8 Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 633 (“Th[e] relationship between the certification determination and 9 the merits of the case is further attenuated within the context of the settlement evaluation
10 process . . . [C]ertification issues raised by class action litigation that is resolved short of a 11 decision on the merits must be viewed in a different light.”); Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor
12 (1997) 521 U.S. 591, 620 (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a 13 district court need not inquire whether the case if tried, would present intractable management 14 problems . . . for the proposal is that there be no trial.”).

15 As discussed below, for the purposes of this Settlement only, Plaintiff requests that this 16 Court provisionally certify the Class, as defined above, under Code of Civil Procedure § 3150.

17 A. NUMEROSITY AND ASCERTAINABILITY

18 Numerosity is met if a proposed class is so large that joinder of all members would be 19 impracticable. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 3150. A proposed settlement class is ascertainable if 20 the class members can be objectively identified and given notice of the litigation without 21 unreasonable time or expense. See Medraza v. Honda of N. Hollywood (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th
22 89, 101. Here, according to Defendant’s records, there are approximately 289 Class Members.
23 Plaintiff contends that this figure undoubtedly satisfies the numerosity requirement.

24 B. WELL-DEFINED COMMUNITY OF INTEREST

25 1. Commonality

26 To justify certification, the class proponent must show that questions of law or fact 27 common to the class predominate over the questions affecting the individual members. See 28 Arenas v. El Torito Rests., Inc. (2010) 183 Cal.App.4th 723, 732 (citing Washington Mut. Bank

1 v. Superior Court (2001) 24 Cal.4th 906, 913. Plaintiff contends that the Class was subject to 2 common policies and practices relating to the provision of meal and rest periods, calculation of 3 the “regular rate of pay,” and timely payment of final wages, among other things. While the 4 Parties dispute whether a class would be appropriate if the litigation were to continue, they 5 agree to class certification for the purposes of this Settlement only.

6 2. Typicality

7 Typicality “focuses on whether there exists a relationship between the Plaintiff” claims
8 and the claims alleged on behalf of the class.” See Herbert B. Newberg & Alba Conte, Newberg
9 on Class Actions (“Newberg”) § 3:13 (4th ed. 2002). Again, the Parties dispute whether 10 Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the Class for the purposes of any continued litigation of the 11 Action, but agree for the purposes of this Settlement only, that Plaintiff asserts claims regarding 12 Defendant’s meal and rest break policies/practices, calculation of the “regular rate of pay,”
13 wage statements, and the provisions governing the timely and complete payment of wages,
14 which are at the core of the Action.

15 3. Adequacy of Representation

16 The proposed class representative must establish that he/she will adequately represent 17 the proposed Settlement Class. See Barboza v. West Coast Digital GSM, Inc. (2009) 179
18 Cal.App.4th 540, 546. Specifically, Plaintiff’s position is that she is adequate to represent the 19 Class because Defendant employed her during the Class Period, were subject to the same wage
20 and hour policies/practices as the rest of the Class, understand her duties as Class 21 Representative, has been willing to undergo the risk of litigation, and has no conflicts of 22 interest.

23 Adequacy may be established by the fact that counsels are experienced practitioners. See 24 Local Joint Exec. Bd. of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund v. Las Vegas Sands, Inc. (9th Cir.
25 2001) 244 F.3d 1152, 1162. Here, Plaintiff asserts that Class Counsel represents her with 26 extensive experience in wage and hour class and PAGA actions like the instant matter.
27 (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2-5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2-11.)

1 4. Superiority

2 Plaintiff further contends that certification of the Class for settlement purposes is 3 superior here because it will result in a global resolution of all claims at once, which promotes 4 judicial economy. Plaintiff contends that class certification for settlement purposes is also vastly 5 superior to litigation of numerous individual claims because most of the claims are too small to 6 litigate outside of the class context.

7 V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT,
8 WHICH IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

9 A. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND 10 APPROVAL UNDER THE CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

11 The law favors settlements. Bush v. Superior Court (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1374, 13150.
12 This is particularly true in class actions where substantial resources can be conserved by 13 avoiding the time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation. However, a class action may not be 14 dismissed, compromised, or settled without the Court’s approval. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(a). The 15 California Rules of Court set forth the procedures for court approval of a class action
16 settlement: (1) the Court preliminarily approves the settlement; (2) class members receive notice
17 as directed by the Court; and (3) the Court conducts a final approval hearing to inquire into the 18 fairness of the proposed settlement. See Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(c), (e-g).

19 The decision to approve or reject a proposed settlement lies within the Court’s sound 20 discretion. See Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224. Nevertheless, in 21 considering a potential settlement for approval, a court is not to turn the approval hearing “into a
22 trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits [or] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested
23 issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 24 625.

25 The Court’s ultimate duty is to determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and 26 reasonable. See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (setting forth the “fair, adequate, and reasonable”
27 standard) (citing Officers for Justice, supra); Cho v. Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc. (2009) 177 28 Cal.App.4th 734, 742-43 (a trial court must approve a class action settlement agreement, but only after determining that it is “fair, adequate and reasonable,” considering factors such as the “risk, expense, [and] complexity” of continued litigation) (citations omitted). The Court has broad discretion in making its fairness determination, and should consider factors including:

[T]he strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel . . . and the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.

Dunk, supra (setting forth a non-exhaustive list of factors for the court’s consideration at final approval).

The above factors are not exclusive, and the court is free to engage in a balancing and weighing of factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. However, in doing so, the Court must give “[due] regard to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Id. The inquiry must be limited “to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties.” Id. (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

At the preliminary approval stage, the Court needs only to determine that the settlement falls within the “range of possible judicial approval,” so that notice to the class and the scheduling of the fairness hearing are worthwhile. See Newberg § 11:25. Indeed, the Court should grant preliminary approval if there are no “grounds to doubt its fairness or other obvious deficiencies ... and [the settlement] appears to fall within the range of possible approval.” Manual For Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41 (1995); see Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802. A “presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk, supra (citing Newberg § 11:41). As shown below, the Settlement falls well within the range of approval because there are no grounds to doubt its fairness.

1 B. THE SETTLEMENT IS THE RESULT OF SERIOUS, INFORMED, NON-COLLUSIVE
2 NEGOTIATIONS

3 The Settlement was the product of extensive arm’s length negotiations between counsel
4 and was facilitated by an experienced wage-and-hour class action mediator. Though cordial and 5 professional, the Settlement negotiations were adversarial and non-collusive in nature. The 6 Settlement reached is the product of substantial effort by the Parties and their counsel. Although 7 Plaintiff and Class Counsel believed that there was a possibility of certifying the claims, they 8 recognized the potential risk, expense, and complexity posed by litigation, such as unfavorable 9 decisions on class certification, summary judgment, at trial and/or on the damages awarded,
10 and/or on an appeal that can take several more years to litigate. In addition, if Defendant
11 prevailed on any of its defenses, the Class Members may not have received any substantial
12 monetary recovery. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 35.)

13 C. THE EXTENT OF THE INVESTIGATION WAS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT TO PERMIT
14 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

15 Plaintiff thoroughly investigated and evaluated this case’s factual and legal strengths and 16 weaknesses before reaching the Settlement. As described above, the Settlement was reached 17 after extensive investigation and research, thorough calculations and risk evaluation, and a
18 substantial exchange of information and documents relating to Plaintiff and the Class Members 19 prior to mediation.

20 D. THE SETTLEMENT IS A REASONABLE COMPROMISE OF CLAIMS

21 To evaluate a settlement, the parties must provide the trial court with “basic information 22 about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the 23 consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.”
24 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. The Kullar requirement
25 was further explained in Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186
26 Cal.App.4th 399, which held that an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that 27 the class could recover was not necessary:

28 Greenwell misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to require the record in all cases to contain evidence in the form of an explicit statement of the

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

1 maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims
2 – a number which appears nowhere in the record of the case. But Kullar does not,
3 as Greenwell claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a 4 record which allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.

5 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff
6 prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair
7 and reasonable. Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250
8 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process ... even if the relief afforded 9 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 10 successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed 11 be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding 12 litigation.”)

13 Of relevance to the reasonableness of the proposed Settlement is the fact that significant 14 legal and factual grounds for defending this action exist. Defendant further disputed whether 15 Plaintiff could obtain class certification, arguing, inter alia, a lack of commonality of the legal 16 claims and injuries. Defendant further argued that it complied with the applicable law, had 17 compliant written policies, that all Class Members were provided the opportunity to take their 18 meal and rest periods (e.g., because many Class Members worked remotely during the class 19 period), and that any purported deviations therefrom were individualized in nature, thereby
20 limiting Plaintiff’s ability to certify the Class. While Plaintiff asserts that this is a suitable case
21 for certification, he realizes that there is always a significant risk associated with class
22 certification proceedings, which could significantly limit the claims that he could pursue on a 23 class basis.

24 Considering the uncertainties of continued protracted litigation, this negotiated
25 Settlement reflects the best practicable recovery for the Class. While the total Settlement
26 Amount is, of course, a compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities of both parties
27 were effectively weighed and considered by the Parties, resulting in a fair and equitable
28 Settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 39-40.)

Based upon Plaintiff's and her counsel's independent investigation and detailed data obtained through informal discovery and information exchanges, and factoring in claim certification probabilities and liability probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages models to evaluate the claims in preparation for mediation and to reach a realistic and reasonable resolution as further detailed below. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 27.)

1. Failure to Pay for Overtime Wages at the Correct "Regular Rate of Pay"

First, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to properly calculate the "regular rate of pay" by excluding non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other incentive payments when paying overtime and sick pay wages. Plaintiff contends that these exclusions resulted in a systemic underpayment of compensation, in violation of California law. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 28.)

Based on a review of the payroll and paystub data produced during discovery, the Plaintiff estimates that Defendant's failure to include all required forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay resulted in underpayment of both overtime and sick pay wages across the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

In response, Defendant argued that many of the incentive payments at issue were discretionary and therefore properly excluded from regular rate calculations. Defendant further asserted that all overtime and sick pay was lawfully calculated and paid in good faith, and that any potential underpayment, if it occurred, was minimal and non-systemic. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 30.)

While Plaintiff maintains that the bonuses and incentive payments at issue were non-discretionary and therefore required to be included in the regular rate of pay, Plaintiff also acknowledges the litigation risks associated with this claim. These risks include the possibility that the Court could deny class certification based on individual variations in pay structures and the nature of the bonuses. Additionally, there is a risk on the merits, including the potential for summary judgment or an unfavorable outcome at trial. In light of these risks, Plaintiff applied a discount to the estimated value of the claim to account for the potential that certification may be denied or the claim may not succeed on the merits. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 31.)

1 2. Waiting Time Penalties

2 Plaintiff also alleged that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due at the time of 3 separation from employment, entitling former employees to waiting time penalties under Labor
4 Code §§ 201–203. Based on Defendant’s records, there were approximately 115 Settlement
5 Class Members who separated from their employment during the applicable statutory period.
6 Using the statutory maximum of 30 days, with an assumed 8-hour workday and an average 7 hourly rate of $25, the total maximum potential exposure for waiting time penalties is 8 approximately $690,00 (115 employees × 8 hours/day × $25/hour × 30 days). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 9 32.)

10 Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that any failure to pay wages at separation
11 was not willful and, therefore, did not give rise to waiting time penalties under the Labor Code.
12 Defendant also contended that it maintained facially neutral and compliant payroll practices and 13 would defeat any underlying wage claims on the merits or at class certification. (Bokhour Decl.
14 ¶ 33.)

15 To account for these risks, Plaintiff applied an equitable discount reflecting the risk of 16 denial at class certification, as well as an additional discount for the risk of defeat at summary
17 judgment or trial. Applying a 50% discount, Plaintiff estimates a risk-adjusted value of 18 $345,000 for the waiting time penalty claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 34.)

19 3. Failure to Provide Meal and Rest Periods

20 With respect to Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims, the Class Members collectively 21 worked approximately 95,000 shifts during the Class Period. Based on the Plaintiff’s analysis of 22 a representative sample of Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records produced before
23 mediation, Plaintiff applied estimated violation rates of 55% for meal periods and 33% for rest
24 periods. Using the applicable premium rate of $25 per missed break, the maximum potential
25 damages are estimated at approximately $1,306,250 for the meal period claim (95,000 shifts ×
26 55% × $25) and $783,750 for the rest period claim (95,000 shifts × 33% × $25). (Bokhour
27 Decl. ¶ 35.)

1 Defendant contested liability for both claims, asserting that meal and rest period issues
2 presented individualized questions inappropriate for class certification. Defendant maintained
3 that its written policies were facially compliant with California law and that employees were 4 provided flexibility to take breaks at their discretion. It further argued that manager-specific 5 practices, job duties, and employee choices varied significantly, requiring individualized
6 inquiries into whether breaks were missed or voluntarily skipped. Based on these risks, Plaintiff
7 acknowledged that there was a significant chance that the Court could deny class certification.
8 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 36.)

9 Defendant also asserted that, even if certification were granted, it would prevail on the 10 merits by showing that it either provided compliant breaks or paid the required premium
11 compensation. Defendant contended that Plaintiff would be unable to present reliable, 12 representative evidence sufficient to establish liability or support a classwide damages award. In 13 light of these risks, Plaintiff acknowledged the risks and incorporated a 75% reduction, and 14 calculates a risk-adjusted value of $326,562.50 for the meal period claims and $195,937.50 for 15 the rest period claims. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 37.)

16 4. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

17 Finally, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant issued noncompliant wage statements in 18 violation of Labor Code § 226, based on the same facts underlying Plaintiff's claims for unpaid 19 wages, meal and rest period premiums, and failure to include all forms of compensation in the 20 regular rate of pay. Plaintiff estimates that approximately 4,178 allegedly violative wage
21 statements were issued during the Class Period. In calculating Defendant's maximum potential
22 exposure, Plaintiff conservatively assumed that only the "initial" penalty of $50 per violation
23 would apply for a total exposure of $208,930, in accordance with Labor Code § 226(e) and case 24 law holding that higher penalties apply only after an employer has been notified of the 25 violations. See Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1207 (2008). This results
26 in a maximum potential penalty of $302,450 (6,049 × $50). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 38.)

27 Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that its wage statements fully complied with 28 the requirements of Labor Code § 226. Defendant further argued that, even if there were any errors, they were not “knowing and intentional,” and that Plaintiff could not establish the required element of injury. Defendant also relied on its defenses to the underlying wage and hour claims and to class certification. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 39.)

In light of these risks, Plaintiff applied a reasonable discount to account for the possibility of denial at the class certification stage, as well as an additional discount for the risk of loss on the merits. Applying these risk adjustments of 75%, Plaintiff calculates a risk-adjusted value of $52,232 for the wage statement penalty claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 40.)

5. PAGA Penalties

Plaintiff also sought civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) for each Labor Code violation for which such penalties are available, and alleged that these penalties could be assessed on a cumulative or “stacked” basis. See Gonzalez v. Corecivic of Tennessee, LLC, No. 1:16-cv-01891-DAD-JLT, 2018 WL 4388425, at *12 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 12, 2018) (“‘stacking’ PAGA penalties is not inappropriate under California law”). Assuming application of the default penalty of $100 per pay period pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2), and that penalties are not subject to reduction or judicial discretion, the maximum potential exposure for PAGA penalties could reach approximately $417,800 (4,178 pay periods × $100). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 41.)

However, this theoretical maximum does not account for significant legal uncertainties. First, courts are divided on whether stacking PAGA penalties across multiple violations within a single pay period is permissible, particularly where the violations are derivative in nature. Second, Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) grants courts broad discretion to reduce civil penalties where necessary to avoid an award that is “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” See Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving reduction of PAGA penalties where the employer did not act willfully or negligently, and legal obligations were unclear). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 42.)

In recognition of these risks, including the likelihood of judicial reduction and the challenges of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claims, Plaintiff applied significant discounts to the estimated penalty exposure. After accounting for these risks, and in light of the Parties’ mutual desire to resolve the matter without protracted litigation, they agreed to allocate $10,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount toward resolution of the PAGA claim, which Plaintiff believes is fair and reasonable under the circumstances. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 43.)

In sum, when factoring in defenses and risks of ongoing litigation, Plaintiff estimates the risk-adjusted class recovery as follows:

• Regular Rate of Pay Claim:	$0 (discounted)
• Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 Claims:	$345,000
• Meal Period Claims:	$326,562.50
• Rest Break Claims:	$195,937.50
• Wage Statement Claims:	$52,232
• PAGA Penalties	$10,000
• Total Risk-Adjusted Penalties and Damages:	$929,732

Given the realistic value of Plaintiff’s claims, the $495,000 Settlement Amount is an excellent result for the Class, considering that the Settlement Amount totals approximately 53% of Plaintiff’s risk-adjusted value of the case. Preliminary approval is appropriate, as the Settlement will provide significant monetary relief to the Class (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 44). For these reasons, Plaintiff submits that the agreed-upon Settlement is fair and reasonable.

E. PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL IS EXPERIENCED IN SIMILAR WAGE-AND-HOUR LITIGATION

The view of the attorneys actively conducting the litigation is entitled to significant weight in deciding whether to approve the settlement. Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal. 1980) 87 F.R.D. 15, 18, aff’d (9th Cir. 1981) 661 F.2d 939; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (court must take into account “the experience and view of counsel”) (internal quotation and citation omitted).

Plaintiff’s counsel are also highly experienced in class and PAGA litigation, having litigated upwards of 100 class actions and PAGA cases, having been named “Super Lawyers” in employment litigation (a distinction awarded to only 2.5% of litigators), and having achieved large class action settlements in California. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2-5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2-10.).

Plaintiff's counsel, operating at arm's length, weighed the strengths and risks of this case, and are of the view that this is a fair and reasonable Settlement in light of the nature of the claims, realistic risk adjusted value of damages, complexities of the case, the state of the law, and uncertainties of class certification and litigation.

F. THE CLASS NOTICE CONFORMS TO ALL APPLICABLE STATUTES AND RULES

The proposed Class Notice should be approved, as it fully informs the Class Members of the nature of the lawsuit and each Class Member's rights under the terms of the Settlement Agreement and applicable law. The manner in which the Class Notice will be disseminated, as outlined above, will ensure that all or nearly all Class Members are properly notified of the proposed Settlement.

The proposed Class Notice and proposed plan for the Settlement Administrator to mail the Class Notice to the last known address of all Class Members complies with all the requirements of California Rule of Court 3.79(f) and 3.766(b). The contents of the proposed Class Notice include (1) the material terms of the Settlement; (2) the proposed attorneys' fees and costs and the Settlement Administration Costs; (3) details about the final fairness hearing and how Class Members may elect to exclude themselves or make an objection; and (4) how Class Members can obtain additional information. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 49, Exhibit B). In addition, it will inform Class Members of their estimated settlement share.

The Court has wide discretion in approving the means of providing notice, so long as the class representative "provide(s) meaningful notice in a form that should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of Class Members." Archibald v. Cinerama Hotels, (1976) 15 Cal.3d 853, 861. Here, the Parties' notice plan is that notice of the Settlement will be disseminated directly to the Class Members by first class mail by the Settlement Administrator, since Defendant has the last known addresses of all Class Members, and the Settlement Administrator will perform a skip trace and update those addresses for any Class Notices that are returned and re-send the Class Notice.

The Class Notice satisfies the requirements of Rule of Court 3.766 and affords Class Members all due process protections required by the United States Constitution. Moreover, the

1 contents of the Class Notice are in compliance with Cal. R. Ct. 3.766(d), because the Class
2 Notice includes, without limitation (1) a detailed explanation of the case, including the basic
3 contentions or denials of the Parties; (2) a statement that the court will exclude the Class
4 Member if the Class Member so requests by a specified date; (3) a procedure for the Class
5 Members to follow in requesting exclusion from the Class; (4) a statement that the judgment,
6 whether favorable or not, will bind all Class Members who do not request exclusion; and (5) a
7 statement that any Class Member who does not request exclusion may, if the Class Member so 8 desires, enter an appearance through counsel. The 45-day deadline for Class Members to 9 exclude themselves is reasonable, as it provides Class Members with sufficient time to do so
10 and, if they choose, to seek independent legal advice in the interim. If a Class Member does not 11 opt-out, then he or she will automatically be sent a settlement check.

12 G. THE NON-REVERSIONARY “CHECKS CASHED” DISTRIBUTION ENSURES
13 MAXIMAL RECOVERY FOR CLASS MEMBERS

14 The fact that each Class Member who does not opt out of the Settlement shall be mailed 15 a check ensures that every Class Member will be paid unless he or she affirmatively acts to 16 exclude himself or herself. Moreover, the Settlement Amount is non-reversionary, which means
17 that no Settlement funds will revert to Defendant; instead, if any checks are not cashed before
18 the objection deadline, the funds will be sent to California’s Unclaimed Property Fund, subject
19 to approval of the Court. Such terms are favored by Courts and demonstrate that there was no 20 collusion between counsel for the Parties and that the Settlement is fair and favorable to the 21 Class Members.

22 H. THE ATTORNEYS’ FEES ALLOCATION UNDER THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT IS 23 FAIR

24 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel requests an amount not 25 exceeding one-third of the Settlement Amount in attorneys’ fees. (See, e.g., Laffite v. Robert 26 Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th. 480 (approving 1/3 fee in the amount of $6.33 million at a 2.13
27 lodestar multiplier, when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of 28 the Class Members, the trial court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created); see also Stuart v. RadioShack Corp. (N.D. Cal. Aug. 9, 2010) No. C-07-4499 EMC, 2010 WL 3155645 (approving fee award of 1/3 of the total maximum settlement amount of $4.5 million) (the court noted that the fee award of 1/3 of the total settlement was “well within the range of percentages which courts have upheld as reasonable in other class action lawsuits”); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D. Cal. June 1, 2010) No. 08-cv-1501-IEG (BLM), 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of 33.33% of the common fund); Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007) No. 1:05cv0484 DLB, 2007 WL 3492841, at *4 (awarding fees of 1/3 of common fund in a wage and hour class action, noting: “[f]ee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”); Martin v. FedEx Ground Package System, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 31, 2008) No. C 06-6883 VRW, 2008 WL 5478576, at *8 (approving fees of 1/3 of common fund). (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 44-45.)

Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Class Notice is disseminated, Plaintiff’s counsel will submit a request for attorneys’ fees and costs with its final approval motion.

I. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT IS FAIR AND APPROPRIATE

The Settlement Agreement provides for a Service Award to the named Plaintiff in the amount not to exceed $10,000. The proposed Service Award is reasonable given the time and effort Plaintiff devoted to this case. Plaintiff’s efforts included: providing factual background for the class and PAGA complaint; providing documents and information about Defendant’s compensation plan; participating in phone calls to discuss litigation and settlement strategy; making themselves available throughout the litigation to assist with analyzing the claims and defenses; helping Class Counsel prepare for the mediation and being available during mediation; and reviewing the Settlement documents. Plaintiff also assumed significant risk in bringing this litigation—had he lost, he could have been ordered to pay Defendant’s costs. (See, The Declaration of Plaintiff in Support of Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement filed herewith.)

The requested Service Award falls within the range of incentive payments typically awarded to Class Representatives in similar class actions. See e.g. Bond v. Ferguson Enterprises, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2011) No. 1:09-cv-1662 OWW MJS, 2011 WL 2648879 (approving $11,250 service award to each of the two class representatives in a trucker meal break class action; Ross v. US Bank National Association (N.D. Cal. 2010) No. C 07-02951 SI, 2010 WL 3833922, at *2 (approving $20,000 enhancement award to Class Representative in California wage-and-hour class action settlement); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2010) 266 F.R.D. 4150, 493 (approving service awards in the amount of $15,000 each from a $300,000 settlement fund in a wage/hour class action).

V. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT CPT GROUP, INC. AS THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

Subject to the Court's approval, the parties have stipulated that CPT Group, Inc. be appointed as the Settlement Administrator. CPT is experienced in administering class action settlements and has agreed to cap its fees at $9,000 for administering this Settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 46.)

VI. TIMELINE AND SCHEDULING A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The final step in the approval process is the formal hearing, during which proponents of the Settlement may explain and describe its terms and conditions, and offer arguments in support of approval. Class Members or their counsel may also be heard in support of or in opposition to the Settlement.

VII. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant his Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.
