I. INTRODUCTION

The parties to this action have reached a Settlement and the Court preliminarily approved the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement"), a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit #2 to the Declaration of Norman Blumenthal ("Blumenthal Decl.").[1] In accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order dated January 24, 2025 ("Preliminary Approval Order"), the approved Class Notice has been disseminated to the Class.[2]

The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether the proposed settlement of the litigation should be finally approved. Plaintiff Hirsi Mursal ("Plaintiff") respectfully moves for final approval, including attorneys' fees, costs and the service award, and the proposed entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith. The settlement represents an excellent result for the Class and avoids the delays, risks, and costs of further litigation. After disseminating the Class Notice to the 203 members of the Class, to date there have been no objections and no requests for exclusion from the Class, which means that the entire Class (100%) has elected to participate in the Settlement. Blumenthal Decl. ¶4. This is a positive response from the Class evidencing their collective approval of the settlement. As a result, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the settlement should be finally approved for the same reasons that the Court preliminarily approved the settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

II. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant Toray Membrane USA, Inc. ("Defendant") is Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($650,000). (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.22 and 3.1.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration

[1] Capitalized terms are defined in the Agreement.

[2] The "Class" is defined as "all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in the State of California, classified as non-exempt employees and performed work for Defendant at any time during the Class Period. The Class Period is January 12, 2020 through January 9, 2025." (Preliminary Approval Order, at ¶ 6).

Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(b). The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

$650,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)
- $10,000 (Plaintiff's proposed service award not to exceed amount)
- $25,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- $216,666 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- $40,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- $7,750 (Administration Expenses Payment)

$350,584 (Net Settlement Amount)

The specific details of the Settlement were discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and are set forth again in the Declaration of Blumenthal at ¶¶ 3(c)-3(i).

The Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable to the class and should be finally approved for the same reasons the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, agreeing that the settlement is "fair and reasonable" (Preliminary Approval Order at ¶3.) In sum, the Settlement valued at $650,000 is an excellent result for the Class. This result is particularly favorable in light of the fact that liability and class certification in this case were far from certain in light of the defenses asserted by Defendant. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the uncertainty of class certification, along with the uncertainties of proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. ¶3(j).

III. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (2000) ("[V]oluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation.")

The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, taking into account that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (2001) ("The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial.") In Wershba, the Court explained that "the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action." Id.; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard and the presumption applies.

IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

The Court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117 (2009). "The well-recognized factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.'" Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008) (internal citations omitted); see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L. A., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 (2010).

The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801. Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.

Id. The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id. "Ultimately, the [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]" Id.

These factors are analyzed seriatim below, and all support final approval of the class action settlement before this Court, consistent with this Court's Preliminary Approval Order.

A. The Settlement Satisfies the California Test for Fairness

1. The Investigation and Analysis of Documents are Sufficient to Allow Counsel and the Court to Act Intelligently

Over the course of almost two years of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of the claims, including the production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the full and complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in this Action. The procedural history and investigation performed was detailed at length in support of the motion for preliminary approval. The Settlement was the product of one arms-length mediation and contentious negotiations through an all-day mediation presided over by Jeffrey Ross, Esq. The details of the litigation are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 6(a)-6(g).

2. The Settlement was Reached Through Arm's Length Bargaining

This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continue to deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement, based upon the experience of Class Counsel who has previously litigated similar claims against other employers. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(a).

The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Jeffrey Ross, Esq., a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with necessary information, including a sampling of payroll and timekeeping data. Plaintiff analyzed the data with the assistance of a damages expert, Berger Consulting, and prepared and submitted a mediation brief and damage valuation to the Mediator. Following the all-day mediation, the Parties agreed to the Settlement, which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(b).

The fact that the settlement was negotiated with the assistance of an experienced mediator supports approval. Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 666 (E.D. Cal. Jun 24, 2008); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 at *15 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (where settlement was "negotiated and approved by experienced counsel on both sides of the litigation, with the assistance of a well-respected mediator" this factor supports approval of the settlement).

From October 2024 to December 2024, the settlement agreement and exhibits thereto were finalized and executed. On January 24, 2025, the Court granted the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and entered the Order granting preliminary approval of the settlement as fair and reasonable to the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶7(c).

3. Class Counsel Is Experienced in Similar Litigation

Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience and has represented thousands of persons in class actions including employment litigation, wage and hour class actions, and complex litigation. Class Counsel has previously litigated wage and hour class actions involving employees and claims similar to this case and have been approved as experienced class counsel during contested motions in state and federal courts throughout California. The experience of counsel and class action cases managed and settled by the Class Counsel in this action is provided to the Court in the Blumenthal Decl. at Exhibit #1. Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and have concluded the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶ 3(j).

4. There Are No Objections and No Requests for Exclusion

The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. On February 28, 2025, 2025, the Administrator mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to the Class Members, which provided each class member with the terms of the Settlement, including notice of the claims at issue and the financial terms of the settlement, including the attorneys' fees, costs, and service award that were being sought, how individual settlement awards would be calculated, and the specific, estimated payment amount to that individual. See Declaration of Madely Nava ("Nava Decl.") at ¶ 7, Exh. A. In disseminating the notice, the Administrator followed the notice procedures authorized by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. To date, the Administrator has not received any written objections and has not received any requests for exclusion. Nava Decl. at ¶¶ 11-12. As such, 100% of the Class will participate in the Settlement and will be sent a settlement check. Nava Decl. at ¶ 13; Blumenthal Decl. ¶4.

The absence of any objector strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the Settlement. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y. 2000) ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetzner v. U.S. Steel Corp., 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (3d. Cir. 1990) (29 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l Union, 638 F.2d 954 (6th Cir. 1981) (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement). Here, where there are no objections, the approval of the class is evident.

5. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case

The Action generally alleges that Plaintiff and other Class Members were not properly paid all overtime wages for hours worked and at the correct rate, were not provided meal and rest periods, were not timely paid earned wages, were not provided reimbursement for required expenses, were not provided accurate itemized wage statements, were not paid all accrued and used sick pay at the correct rate of pay, and were not paid all wages at the time of termination. The Action seeks unpaid wages, penalties, attorney fees, litigation costs, and any other equitable or legal relief allegedly due and owing to Plaintiff and the other Class Members by virtue of the foregoing claims. Blumenthal Decl. ¶5.

Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that Class Members were paid for all time worked and that work time was properly recorded. Defendant maintained there was no miscalculation of the regular rate when paying wages to the Plaintiff and the Class. Defendant contend that their meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law and that Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendant could argue that its payment of meal period premiums is further evidence of their lawful practices. Defendant contends that there was no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based on its facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an employer reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement law.") If successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(a).

In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 (N.D. Cal. 2009), explained in approving an overtime class action settlement:

> Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim... [...T]he gross settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009); see also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiff's case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval."). As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

> The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today > outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial was by no means a foregone conclusion. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(b).

In sum, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable result, and provides the Class with a significant recovery, particularly when viewed in light of the fact that the Defendant asserted serious and substantial defenses both to liability and to class certification. Currently, the maximum and average class member allocation are $4,487.23 and $1,727.01, respectively. See Nava Decl. ¶ 15. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses, along with the uncertainties of proof and appeal, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶8(e).

6. The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

As demonstrated by the decision in Duran, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that Defendant would post a bond and appeal in the event of an adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain result three or more years in the future. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against Defendant through possible appeals which could take at least another two or three years. Class Counsel also have taken into account the uncertain outcome, the risk of litigation, especially in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted and recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory. The Settlement confers substantial benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class. Blumenthal Decl. ¶8(c).

Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that their case has merit, which Defendant continues to vigorously deny, they recognized the potential risks both sides would face if litigation of the Action continued. As the federal court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this litigation:

> In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. "The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement."

Id. at *12.

7. The Amount Offered in Settlement

The Settlement in this case is fair, reasonable and adequate considering Defendant's defenses to Plaintiff's claims. As set forth in the Declaration of Nordrehaug in support of preliminary approval which discussed the value of the class claims in detail, the Gross Settlement Amount compares favorably to the value of the claims. Based upon 203 Participating Class Members who collectively worked 20,548 Workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount provides a value of $3,201.97 per Class Member and $31.63 per Workweek and, after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $1,727.01 per Class Member and $17.06 per Workweek. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶8(d).

The calculations to compensate for the amount due to the Class Members at the time the Settlement was negotiated were calculated by Plaintiff's expert, Berger Consulting, in advance of mediation. Class Counsel analyzed the data for putative class members and determined the potential maximum damages for the class claims. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $657,037 for the alleged unpaid wages for off-the-clock work at one hour per week, $105,547 for alleged unpaid overtime due to the miscalculation of the regular rate, $68,304 for the alleged unpaid meal premiums and sick pay due to the alleged miscalculation of the result rate, $1,281,275 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 75% potential violation rate for all shifts worked observed in the time records and after deduction for meal premiums paid by Defendant, $1,302,690 for alleged rest period damages based upon the same 75% potential violation rate for shifts worked, $23,835 for alleged unreimbursed cell-phone expenses at $5 per month. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant were subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $3,438,688. As to potential penalties, Plaintiff calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of between $281,041 and $461,195, depending on the predicate violation, and potential maximum wage statement penalties were $608,000.[3] Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 8(d).

Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $650,000 represents more than 18% of the maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.[4] Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum calculations should then be realistically risk adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the [3] While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, at mediation Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

[4] Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, Plaintiff has not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The PAGA claim was addressed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval in the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶33.

settlement as compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.[5] Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met.

V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED

A. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable and Supported by the Percentage of the Fund Method

Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at one-third (1/3) of the total value of the settlement for the successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage of the total value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977; Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys' fees in wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) ("We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created"). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court's objective remains to "mimic the market" in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998).

[5] See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v. Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D. Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

First, the fee award representing one-third of the fund clearly falls within that range and is consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and fee awards. Attorneys' fees awards of one-third of the fund are within the expected range in the market in legal services. In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (2016), the California Supreme Court both endorsed the award of a fee as a percentage of that fund, and expressly approved one-third (1/3) as a reasonable percentage in a contingent common fund class settlement. Such similar awards by other Courts are set forth in the Blumenthal Decl. ¶11.

Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund. Here, Plaintiff and his counsel secured a $650,000 settlement for the benefit of the Class and none of the Class Members elected to opt out. Similarly, not one Class Member objected. The Settlement was possible only because Class Counsel was able to convince Defendant that Plaintiff could potentially prevail on the contested issues regarding liability, maintain class certification, overcome difficulties in proof as to monetary relief and take the case to trial if need be. Blumenthal Decl. ¶10(f). In successfully navigating these hurdles Class Counsel displayed the necessary skills in both wage and hour and class action litigation. Moreover, as discussed above, there were significant risks to the contingent litigation. See Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp., 297 F.R.D. 431, 449 (E.D. Cal. 2013) ("Like this case, where recovery is uncertain, an award of one-third of the common fund as attorneys' fees has been found to be appropriate.")

Third, "the response of the class members to attorneys' fee notice, though not decisive, is relevant to the...reasonable determination" regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court's "approximation of the market" for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class that Class Counsel would be seeking a one-third fee award. Again, there were no objections.

Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney's fees reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature and the case presented far more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the risks was the cost inherent in class action litigation, as well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant who had retained a premier and highly experienced defense firm. Counsel retained on a contingency fee basis, whether in private matters or in class action litigation, is entitled to a premium above their hourly rate in order to compensate for both the risks and the delay in payment. See e.g. Stanger v. China Elec. Motor, Inc., 812 F.3d 734, 741 (9th Cir. 2016) (courts "must" apply a risk enhancement); Stetson v. Grissom, 821 F.3d 1157, 1166 (9th Cir. 2016) (abuse of discretion not to apply risk multiplier).

Fifth, the requested fee award is supported by the lodestar cross-check. The reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fee of one-third equal to $216,666 is also established by reference to Class Counsel's lodestar in this matter. The contemporaneous billing records for Class Counsel evidence that through June 30, 2025, Class Counsel's total lodestar is $128,247.50, with significant additional fees still to be incurred to complete final approval and the settlement process. (See Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12 and Exhibit #3.) The requested fee award is therefore currently equivalent to Class Counsel's total lodestar with a reasonable multiplier cross-check of less than 1.7, and there will be additional lodestar incurred by Class Counsel to complete the settlement process and manage the settlement distribution and reports. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶12.) Such a lodestar cross-check is below the range of positive multipliers approved in other cases such as Laffitte and Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002).[6] For such reasons, Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees in the amount of one-third of the common fund is reasonable and should be approved.

B. The Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses

The Agreement provides at paragraph 3.2(b), that Class Counsel may seek a "Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $25,000." Class Counsel requests reimbursement for incurred litigation expenses and costs in the amount of $21,903.32. Class Counsel have incurred expenses of $21,903.32 based upon counsel's billing records. This requested amount is less than the allocation in the Agreement so the difference will be retained in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to the Class. These litigation expenses include the expenses incurred for filing fees, mediation expenses, expert expenses (Berger Consulting), attorney service charges (OneLegal and Knox), and docket document downloading charges, all of which are costs normally billed to and paid by the client. The details of the litigation expenses incurred are set forth the Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13 and Exhibit #3. These costs were reasonably incurred in the prosecution of the Action. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶13.) Because these costs were reasonable and necessary to the successful prosecution of these claims, the request is reasonable and should be granted.

[6] See Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th at 487 (approving 1/3 fee award with multiplier of 2.13); Vizcaino supra, at 1051(3.65 multiplier approved); Pellegrino v. Robert Half Intern., Inc., 182 Cal.App.4th 278 (2010) (in class actions reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often applied); Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 255 ("multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); In re Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases,171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (2009) (affirming multiplier of 2.52 as "fair and reasonable); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (2008) (affirming multiplier of 2.53); Taylor v. Fedex Freight, Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (2.26 multiplier).

C. The Service Award Is Reasonable and Should be Approved

Plaintiff respectfully submits that for his service as the class representative, Plaintiff should be awarded the agreed service award of $10,000 in accordance with the Agreement for his time, risk and effort expended on behalf of the Class as the class representative. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Defendant has agreed to this payment and there have been no objections to the requested service award. The Blumenthal Decl., at ¶14, provides a long list of equivalent service awards approved in California in similar cases, which further supports the request in this case. The Plaintiff's Declaration in support of the request are attached as Exhibit #5 to the Blumenthal Decl.

As the representative of the Class, Plaintiff performed his duties to the Class admirably and without exception. Plaintiff worked extensively with Class Counsel during the course of the litigation, responding to numerous requests, searching for documents, working with counsel, and reviewing the settlement documentation. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶ 14.) As set forth in the Agreement, Plaintiff is also providing a comprehensive release as part of the Settlement, far beyond the class release. The Plaintiff's Declaration detail the involvement, stress and risks she undertook as a result of this Action. Plaintiff also assumed the serious risk that she might possibly be liable for costs and fees to Defendant, as well as the reputational risk of being "blacklisted" by other future employers for having filed a class action on behalf of employees. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶15.) Without the Plaintiff's participation, cooperation and information, no other employees would be receiving any benefit. (Blumenthal Decl. at ¶¶ 15-16).

The payment of service awards to successful class representatives is appropriate and the amount is within the currently awarded range for similar settlements. See, e.g., Andrews v. Plains All Am.

Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (service awards of $15,000 each are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); Louie, supra, 2008 WL 4473183 at *7 (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass, supra, 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17 (awarding $25,000 service award). Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests approval of the Class Representative Service Payment in accordance with the Agreement.

VI. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment.

Respectfully submitted,
