and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

SELECT COMFORT RETAIL
CORPORATION; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 24CV431379

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF MICHAEL BRACKETT'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff MICHAEL BRACKETT ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants SELECT COMFORT RETAIL CORPORATION; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all

1 hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure 2 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period 3 premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or 4 pay rest period premium wages; failure to timely pay earned wages during employment, statutory 5 penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the 6 form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of 7 employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and 8 Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor 9 Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and 10 others aggrieved.

11 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 13 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 14 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 15 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 16 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-17 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 19 California, including but not limited to Santa Clara County at 1335 Montague Expressway, 20 Milpitas, CA 95035.

21 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 22 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 23 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 24 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

25 III. PARTIES

26 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 27 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 28 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 1 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 2 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 3 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 4 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 5 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Milpitas from 6 approximately November 2022 until on or about August 29, 2023.

7 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant SELECT 8 COMFORT RETAIL CORPORATION is authorized to do business within the State of California 9 and is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all 10 times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant SELECT COMFORT RETAIL 11 CORPORATION in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and 12 hour practices or policies. Defendant SELECT COMFORT RETAIL CORPORATION operates in 13 Santa Clara County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Santa Clara County, 14 including but not limited to, at 1335 Montague Expressway, Milpitas, CA 95035.

15 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 16 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 17 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 18 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 19 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

20 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
21 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 22 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 23 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 24 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 25 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

26 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 27 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 28 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as

1 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 2 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 3 complaint.

4 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 5 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 6 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 9 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

10 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

11 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 11. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 13 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 14 and the applicable Wage Orders.

15 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 16 Labor Code:

17 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 21 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 22 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 28 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 2 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but 3 not limited to:

4 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
5 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
6 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are 7 required to keep their cell phoned on and monitored at all times to monitor and respond to 8 Defendants during off-the-clock meal and/or rest breaks; and

9 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
10 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
11 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are 12 required to guard Defendants' equipment including, but not limited to, the delivery truck while 13 off-the-clock during meal and/or rest breaks.

14 16. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 15 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 16 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 17 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 18 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 19 Wage Order.

20 17. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay:
21 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
22 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 23 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 24 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 25 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.'

26 18. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 27 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 28 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

19. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are required to keep their cell phoned on and monitored at all times to monitor and respond to Defendants during off-the-clock meal and/or rest breaks; and

(b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are required to guard Defendants' equipment including, but not limited to, the delivery truck while off-the-clock during meal and/or rest breaks.

20. Overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf, of the employee." See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

21. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when he and Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as bonus and/or incentive pay, for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and

1 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of 2 pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

3 22. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each
4 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 5 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 6 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 7 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 8 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 9 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 10 sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

11 23. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 12 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other 13 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 14 shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

15 24. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 16 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 17 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 18 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 1 at §11; Brinker 19 Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an 20 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 21 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 22 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 23 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 24 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being 25 relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

26 25. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 27 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 28 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code

1 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §11.

2 26. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 3 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-4 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 5 limited to:

6 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
7 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
8 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are 9 required to keep their cell phoned on and monitored at all times to monitor and respond to 10 Defendants during off-the-clock meal breaks; and

11 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
12 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
13 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are 14 required to guard Defendants' equipment including, but not limited to, the delivery truck while 15 off-the-clock during meal breaks.

16 27. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 17 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-18 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
19 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
20 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code 21 section 226.7.

22 28. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, 24 short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) 25 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained 27 a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as include bonus 28 and/or incentive pay, for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former

1 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of 2 paying meal period premium wages.

3 29. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
4 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 5 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them 6 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

7 30. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 8 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other 9 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 10 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

11 31. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 12 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor 13 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 14 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 15 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so 16 on." Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code 17 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of 18 each work period. Wage Order 1 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "obligates 19 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods." Augustus v. ABM 20 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 21 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

22 32. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer 23 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday 24 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; 25 Wage Order 1 at § 12.

26 33. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 27 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 28 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not

1 limited to:

2 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
3 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their rest breaks because Plaintiff and other 4 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are required to keep 5 their cell phoned on and monitored at all times to monitor and respond to Defendants during rest 6 breaks; and

7 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
8 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their rest breaks because Plaintiff and other 9 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees are required to 10 guard Defendants' equipment including, but not limited to, the delivery truck during rest breaks.

11 34. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 12 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-13 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each 14 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor 15 Code section 226.7.

16 35. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and 17 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, 18 missed, short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the 19 one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-20 based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants 21 maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as 22 include bonus and/or incentive pay, for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current 23 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the 24 purpose of paying rest period premiums.

25 36. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
26 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 27 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 28 rest periods in compliance with California law.

1 37. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 2 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 3 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages 4 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 5 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, 6 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following 7 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 8 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 9 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

10 38. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed 11 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-12 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 13 premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
14 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay 15 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' 16 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

17 39. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 18 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 19 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 20 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 21 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 22 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 23 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable 24 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all 25 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 26 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 27 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 28 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and

1 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

2 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff
3 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 4 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest 5 period premium wages), rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-6 based hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code 7 section 226.

8 41. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 9 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 10 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 11 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

12 42. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay 13 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 14 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 15 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 16 employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

17 43. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 18 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 19 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 20 Labor Code section 2699.3.

21 44. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 22 Code section 2699.3. On December 18, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the 23 LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific 24 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 25 support the violations alleged.

26 45. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 27 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 28 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the

1 parties with notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA 2 intends to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

3 46. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 4 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 5 512, 1194, and 1197, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 6 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 7 following amounts:

8 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, and 512; 9 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 10 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 11 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

12 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 13 for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, 14 one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 15 established by Labor Code section 226.3].

16 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each 17 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 18 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 19 established by Labor Code section 558].

20 d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars 21 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 22 subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 23 period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

24 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 25 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or appropriate
