PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING:

Date: October 21, 2026

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Dept.: 12

Judge: Hon. Carolyn B. Kuhl

Action Filed: December 20, 2023

Trial Date: Not set

I, KANE MOON, declare as follows:

CASE BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

3. Defendant is a company that provides logistics services and supply chain management. Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. Plaintiff contends he and his coworkers were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours worked.

4. Plaintiff's claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work and failed to incorporate all remuneration into employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, or sick pay. Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members' breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-compliant breaks. Plaintiff further brings a claim for

1 unreimbursed necessary business expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to 2 purchase gloves, face masks and use their personal cellphone for work purposes without reimbursement from 3 Defendant. Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties, wage statement 4 violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA.

5 5. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, 6 Plaintiff filed a class action on December 20, 2023, against Exel, Inc., which alleges Defendant 7 systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to 8 provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary 9 business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized 10 wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business practices.

11 6. Pursuant to PAGA, on December 16, 2023, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California 12 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with 13 certified mail service on Exel, Inc., and paid the required filing fee, and on February 5, 2024, Plaintiff filed 14 an Amended PAGA Notice to allege Labor Code violations against Defendant. True and correct copies of 15 Plaintiff’s PAGA Notices are attached hereto as Exhibit 2. On February 23, 2024, Plaintiff timely filed a 16 First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties
17 under PAGA. On April 12, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Class and Representative Action
18 Complaint (the “Operative Complaint”). In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff 19 subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the complaint containing the Court-assigned 20 case number. To date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene 21 in this Action.

22 7. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
23 Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating Class Members 24 for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other Class Members were 25 paid all wages owed. Defendant argues it did not fail to incorporate any non-discretionary bonuses into the 26 regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, or sick pay, and that all bonuses were 27 discretionary. Defendant maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period obligations. Defendant 28

1 asserts it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were 2 compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. To the extent employees received wage 3 statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no actual damage or harm
4 as a result. (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 5 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to 6 provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not 7 sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith 8 belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove 9 Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (See, e.g., Pedroza 10 v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For 11 these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and further claims it 12 did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. Defendant also maintains 13 the claims are improper for class treatment, in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature 14 of the wage claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability.

15 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

16 8. The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Steven Serratore, Esq., an experienced class 17 and PAGA action mediator. In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an informal 18 production of documents and information before mediation. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained from 19 Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and helpful to evaluate the 20 claims asserted in this action. Defendant produced a statistically sound sample of time and pay records for 21 approximately 90% of the putative Class, Plaintiff’s personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant’s 22 written employment policies in effect during the Class Period. Defendant also provided information 23 regarding the estimated number of current and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, 24 and PAGA Pay Periods.

25 9. In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 26 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant’s wage-and-hour 27 policies. Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records and prepare a damage 28

1 analysis prior to the mediation. The sample time and pay records analyzed contained 45,842 actual shifts
2 worked (representing roughly 49% of total shifts worked in the Class Period), which allowed Plaintiff's 3 expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty. In conjunction with their extensive factual
4 investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses
5 asserted in the litigation. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class 6 certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims.
7 Thus, Plaintiff's and his Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the 8 pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

9 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

10 10. On March 10, 2026, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Steven 11 Serratore, Esq. The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 12 were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the 13 dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had 14 not been reached. After a full discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and 15 Defendant's defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material 16 terms of which are set out in the Settlement.

17 11. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 18 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's preliminary approval 19 motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA's email confirming receipt thereof is 20 attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

21 KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

22 12. GSA and Funding: The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $150,000.00, subject to 23 potential increase under an Escalator Clause, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant will 24 separately pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.)
25 Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount in two installments as follows: the first installment of no
26 less than $75,000.00 shall be funded within sixty-five (65) calendar days of entry of the Final Approval Order 27 and Judgment, and the remaining installment of no less than $75,000.00 shall be funded within six (6) months 28

1 of the first installment deadline. (Id. at ¶ 4.3.) Defendant shall fund the employer-share of payroll taxes with 2 the second installment. (Id.) Defendant shall transmit all funds into the Qualified Settlement Fund (“QSF”)
3 established and maintained by the Administrator. (Id.)

4 13. Class Size Estimates and Escalator Clause: The Gross Settlement Amount was negotiated 5 based on Defendant’s estimate that as of March 10, 2026, there are 11,000 aggregate Workweeks during the 6 Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 8.) If the actual number of Workweeks is more than 10% of the estimated count (i.e., 7 if the actual number of workweeks is more than 12,100), then Defendant agrees, at its sole option, to either 8 (a) make a proportional increase to the Gross Settlement Amount by the percentage increase for each 9 additional Workweek above 12,100; or (b) end the Class and PAGA Periods early as of the date upon which 10 the actual number of Workweeks totals 12,099 or fewer. (Id.) Defendant agrees to inform Class Counsel of 11 its election within seventy (70) calendar days of the date of mediation (i.e., by May 19, 2026), and to be 12 prepared to inform the Court of its selection at the preliminary approval hearing. (Id.)

13 14. Class Representative Enhancement Award: The Settlement includes a payment up to 14 $7,500.00 payable from the GSA, subject to the Court’s approval, to Plaintiff as the Class Representative, in 15 addition to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Class Member. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.1.) This award is in exchange 16 for a general release, and in recognition of having initiated the Action, provided services in support thereof, 17 and incurred risks inherent in the role of named Plaintiff. (Id. at ¶ 1.15.) In the event the award finally 18 approved is less, the difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.1.)

19 15. Class Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments: The Settlement permits a fee application of 20 not more than one-third of the GSA (currently estimated to be $50,000.00), for reasonable attorneys’ fees, 21 plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs not to exceed $30,000.00, payable to Class Counsel from the 22 GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) In the event the amounts finally approved are less, the difference will revert to 23 Participating Class Members. (Id.) To date, my firm has incurred $29,534.34 in actual litigation costs, and a 24 true and correct copy of a report showing current costs is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

25 16. Administration Expenses Payment: The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses 26 Payment to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not to exceed $7,750.00, except for a 27 showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.3.) In the event the amount of actual administration costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected ILYM Group, Inc. (“ILYM”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.2, 7.1.) A true and correct copy of ILYM’s bid of $7,750.00 is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

17. Aggrieved Employees; PAGA Period: Aggrieved Employees is defined as all current and former non-exempt employees paid on an hourly or piece-rate basis who worked for Defendant in California at any time during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) For purposes of Settlement, the “PAGA Period” is December 16, 2022, through March 10, 2026. (Id. at ¶ 1.35.)

18. PAGA Penalties; Individual PAGA Payments: The Settlement allocates $15,000.00 from the GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 75% ($11,250.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($3,750.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff’s claims.¹ (Id. at ¶¶ 1.34, 3.2.5.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA Penalties directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.a.) This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $24.67 for each of the estimated 152 Aggrieved Employees ($3,750.00 / 152).

19. Net Settlement Amount: It is the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following payments in amounts as approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representative Enhancement Award, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment, and Administration Expenses Payment. (Id. at ¶ 1.28.) The remainder is to be paid to Participating Class Members through Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than $39,750.00 for an estimated Class of 225 individuals.²

² The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $150,000.00 GSA: $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Enhancement Award, up to $7,750.00 for the Administration Expenses Payment, $15,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, $50,000.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $30,000.00 for the Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.2., et seq.)

1 20. Class Members/Period: The Settlement Class is defined as all current and former non-2 exempt employees paid on an hourly or piece-rate basis who worked for Defendant in California at any time
3 during the Class Period, excluding any person who previously settled or released any of the claims covered 4 by the Settlement, or any person who previously was paid or received awards through civil or administrative 5 actions for the claims covered by the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 1.5.) For purposes of Settlement, the “Class Period” 6 is September 23, 2022, through March 10, 2026. (Id. at ¶ 1.12.)

7 21. Individual Class Payments: It is the Participating Class Member’s pro rata share of the Net 8 Settlement Amount as calculated by the Administrator according to the number of Workweeks worked by 9 Participating Class Members during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.23.) The estimated $39,750.00 Net 10 Settlement Amount results in an average Individual Class Payment of roughly $176.67 for each of the 11 estimated 225 Class Members ($$39,750.00 / 225$),³ and a Workweek value of roughly $3.61 for each of the 12 11,000 estimated Workweeks in the Class Period ($$39,750.00 / 11,000$).

13 22. Tax Allocations: 10% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment shall 14 be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). (Id. at ¶ 3.2.4.a.) 90% of each Participating 15 Class Member’s Individual Class Payment shall be allocated to settlement of claims for interests and 16 penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). (Id.) Individual PAGA Payments shall be treated as 100% penalties for 17 tax purposes (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.a.)

18 23. Disbursement and Uncashed Funds: Disbursement will occur within 14 calendar days of 19 completed funding. (Id. at ¶ 4.4.) Class Members will not need to submit any claim form as a condition of 20 receiving individual settlement payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.) For any Class Member whose Individual Class 21 Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment is uncashed after 180 days from date of mailing (the “Void 22 Date”), the Administrator shall cancel those checks and transmit the funds represented by such checks in 23 accordance with the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure section 384(b). (Id. at ¶¶ 4.4.1, 24 4.4.3.) Specifically, the uncashed funds shall be transmitted to the California State Controller’s Office to be 25

26 ³ At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown and will 27 be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class 28 Data. (Settlement, ¶ 6.1.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval.

1 held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Law, California Civil Code section 1500, et seq., in the name of 2 each individual who failed to timely cash his or her check. (Id.) A Participating Class Member and/or 3 Aggrieved Employee’s failure to negotiate or receive their check shall nevertheless remain bound by the 4 Settlement and the releases contained herein. (Id.) Accordingly, the Parties’ respective counsel attest that 5 there will be no “unpaid residue” subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure section 6 384, subd. (b). (Id.)

7 24. Released Class Claims: All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their 8 respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and 9 assigns, release the Released Parties from all claims that were alleged in Plaintiff’s Operative Complaint or 10 that reasonably could have been alleged based solely on the facts asserted therein. (Id. at ¶ 5.2.) The Released 11 Class Claims exclude any claims for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social 12 security benefits or workers’ compensation benefits that arose at any time, any claims that are not releasable 13 as a matter of law or public policy, and any claims arising outside the Class Release Period. (Id.)

14 25. Released PAGA Claims: Plaintiff and the LWDA are deemed to release, on behalf of 15 themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 16 administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties, which 17 were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notices to the LWDA and in 18 Plaintiff’s Operative Complaint. (Id. at ¶ 5.3.) The Released PAGA Claims include only claims for 19 penalties under PAGA that arose during the PAGA Release Period. (Id.)

20 26. Plaintiff’s Waiver of Rights Under California Civil Code Section 1542. For purposes of 21 Plaintiff’s General Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and 22 benefits, if any, of California Civil Code section 1542, which reads: “A GENERAL RELEASE DOES 23 NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW 24 OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE 25 AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR 26 HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.” (Id. at ¶ 5.1.1.)

1 27. Date Releases Become Effective: The released claims shall become effective upon entry of 2 the Court's Final Approval Order and Defendant's full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount and its 3 employer-share of payroll taxes. (Id. at ¶ 5.4.)

4 28. Released Parties: Defendant, together with each of its former and present directors, officers, 5 shareholders, owners, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, and 6 affiliates, including but not limited to Triune Logistics, LLC, an Illinois limited liability company, Triune
7 Staffing, LLC, an Illinois limited liability company, Exel, Inc., a California corporation dba DHL Supply
8 Chain, and Employer's Outsourcing, Inc., a Delaware corporation. (Id. at ¶ 1.42.)

9 29. Class Notice; Disputes, Requests for Exclusion, Objections: The Class Notice will be 10 mailed via first-class U.S. mail in English and Spanish to the current address of each Class Member. (Id. at 11 ¶ 7.4.2.) The proposed Class Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of case, the terms of the Settlement, 12 the approximate amounts of attorneys' fees, costs, PAGA Penalties, and service award being sought, an 13 explanation of how the individual payments are calculated, the Final Approval Hearing information, the 14 procedure for disputing the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each Class Members, 15 and how Class Members may, should they choose, opt-out or otherwise object to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 16 7.4.2–7.8.5, Exs. A, B, C.)

17 30. No Related Actions: The Parties, Class Counsel, and Defense Counsel represent that they 18 are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by 19 the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 2.8.)

20 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

21 31. Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. As 22 previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms'-length negotiations, private mediation, 23 and the assistance of a statistics expert. Based on Defendant's informal class-wide discovery production, on 24 Plaintiff's Counsel's independent investigation and evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-25 and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, 26 and adequate. Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial 27
28

1 risk, appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 2 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA.

3 32. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 4 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on information 5 from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted exposure that 6 Defendant faced. Based on a review of Defendant's records, it is estimated that there are approximately 225
7 Class Members who collectively worked 11,000 Workweeks during the Class Period, and 152 Aggrieved
8 Employees who collectively worked 5,542 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.) 9 Additionally, there were an estimated 126 former employees falling within the three-year statute of 10 limitations ("SOL") period for waiting time penalties, that Class Members' average hourly rate was $26.64.

11 Accordingly, we calculated Defendant's potential exposure as follows:

12 Claim	Relevant Time Period	Rate	Number of Violations	Realistic Recovery
13 Unpaid Sick Pay (Regular Rate)	11,000 Workweeks	$26.64 average hourly rate	Negligible, if any, value	Negligible, if any, value
14 Unpaid Wages (Off the Clock)	11,000 Workweeks	$26.64 average hourly rate	11,825 net unpaid hours (assuming 15 minutes per shift) (45.8% overtime)	$38,715.71
15 Meal Period Violations	11,000 Workweeks	$26.64 average hourly rate	21,049 unique meal break violations (50% violation rate for shifts over 5 hours)	$84,111.80*
16 Rest Period Violations	11,000 Workweeks	$26.64 average hourly rate	11,589 rest break violations (assuming 25% break violations for shifts of at least 3.5 hours)	$30,873.10
17 Unreimbursed Business Expenses	11,000 Workweeks	$30.00 per month	Assumes $30.00 per month	$8,250.00

Violations
Labor Code § 203	Based on approx. 126 terminated employees	$26.64 average hourly rate / 30-day max.	Assumes 7.4 hours / day	$37,440.75
Labor Code § 226	Based on approx. 152 employees	$50 per initial pay period / $100 per subsequent pay periods / $4,000 employee max.	Based on 5,542 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$27,330.00
PAGA	Based on 5,542 pay periods	$100 per pay period	Based on 5,542 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$27,710.00
Total				$254,431.36
* These figures are discounted based on a 15% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 10% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 5% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.⁴

33. As discussed above, Plaintiff's unpaid overtime claim is based on allegations that Defendants failed to incorporate non-discretionary remuneration into Class Members' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime pay, meal break premiums, and sick pay. However, Plaintiff's expert and Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed Defendants' sample pay records and determined the data did not support Plaintiff's allegations on a Class-wide basis. As a result, the regular rate claim was determined to have negligible, if any, value.

34. Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is based on allegations that Defendant failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages due to off-the-clock work performed related to time spent waiting to clock in and out of work. Plaintiff alleges that Class Members were not paid by the hour but rather on a piece-rate basis (i.e., per weight of loading trailers). Also, Plaintiff alleges they were required to wait in line

1 before clocking -in and -out prior to and after their shifts. Lastly, during the COVID-19 pandemic, 2 Plaintiff alleges they had to undergo COVID screening checks such as temperature checks prior to 3 clocking in. Therefore, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Class Members spent an average 15 minutes off 4 the clock per shift. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel and data expert estimated Defendant failed to pay 5 Class Members for approximately 11,825 hours, 45.8% of which should have been paid at the overtime
6 rate. From this, and in light of the average rates of the Class Members, Defendant's estimated maximum 7 potential liability is $387,157.12. Defendant contends that all time worked was compensated, that the time
8 spent waiting to clock in and out of work was de minimis, that Class Members were not permitted to work
9 off-the-clock, and that this claim is highly individualized and not susceptible to class-wide treatment. I 10 acknowledge that "off-the-clock" claims are difficult to be tried on a class wide basis because there is no 11 apparatus that can be used to prove this claim—there are no records to be used as evidence. In light of these 12 defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted the maximum potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's 13 realistic recovery estimate for the unpaid wages claim due to off-the-clock work is therefore 14 $38,715.71.

15 35. Plaintiff's meal period claim is based on allegations that due to the demands of work and 16 Defendant's policies and practices, Class Members were not always permitted or able to take meal periods 17 and/or were sometimes subjected to late, short and/or interrupted meal periods without compensation in lieu 18 thereof. The sample of time and corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that Defendant 19 either failed to provide a meal period or provided a short and/or untimely meal period 21,049 times 20 throughout the Class Period, resulting in a 94% violation rate for shifts over 5 hours. Plaintiff's Counsel and 21 its data expert then calculated that, in light of these violations and the average hourly rate of the putative 22 Class, that Defendant had a potential liability of $560,745.36 (21,049 unique violations x $26.64 avg. hourly 23 rate). Defendant nonetheless contends that many meal breaks were taken and, where a violation appears, it 24 was a result of the Class Member voluntarily choosing to forego a meal period, to take it after the end of the 25 fifth hour, or to stop his or her break early to return to work. Plaintiff's expert reviewed the sample records 26 and determined that 94% of the violations were accompanied by a meal waiver. Moreover, certification and 27 proof of this claim would require declarations from Class Members and obtaining such declarations 28

1 potentially would reveal that each Class Member had a different experience with respect to meal periods. In 2 light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it reasonable to apply a 3 85% discount to the potential liability. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the meal period claim is 4 therefore $84,111.80.

5 36. The rest break claim is based on the allegation that due to the nature of their work, 6 Defendant's own policies and practices, Class Members were regularly required to work in excess of four 7 consecutive hours a day, or a major fraction thereof, without authorization or permission to take a ten-minute, 8 continuous and uninterrupted rest period or without compensation in lieu thereof. The precise number of rest 9 break violations could not be calculated since Defendant neither documented, nor is required to document, 10 when Class Members took their required rest breaks. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's 11 Counsel assumed a 25% violation rate for shifts of at least 3.5 hours in length and, based on the average 12 hourly rate of the putative Class, calculated Defendant's potential liability to be $308,730.96 (11,589 unique 13 rest break violations x $26.64 per hour). Defendant nonetheless contends rest periods do not have to be 14 recorded, that Class Members voluntarily chose to forego some rest breaks and, significant for purposes of 15 class certification, that this claim is individualized in nature and therefore would require declarations 16 indicating the majority of Class Members experienced issues as to rest breaks. In light of these defenses, 17 and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic 18 recovery estimate for the rest break claim is therefore $30,873.10.

19 37. The unreimbursed business expenses claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did 20 not reimburse Class Members for all expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of duties, 21 including the purchase of gloves, face masks and use of their personal cellphone for work purposes. The 22 precise value of all necessary business expenses Class Members incurred could not be calculated. Therefore, 23 in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Defendant owed approximately a total of $30.00 24 a month to each Class Member in the statutory period and that Defendant's potential liability is $82,500.00.
25 Defendant contends it complied with all its reimbursement obligations, that it provided Class Members with 26 necessary tools, that cellphone use was not required for work, and further, that the reimbursement claim 27 would be difficult to certify, given the individualistic nature of this claim. In light of these defenses, and for 28

1 purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery 2 estimate for the unreimbursed expenses claim is therefore $8,250.00.

3 38. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties, Plaintiff
4 estimates Defendant's maximum potential recovery, prior to risk-adjustment, is $1,849,615.00, which breaks 5 down as follows: $748,815.00 for waiting time penalties for approximately 126 terminated Class Members; 6 a $546,600.00 penalty for inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 152 Class Members; and 7 $554,200.00 for PAGA penalties based on 5,542 Pay Periods and the Court assessing a $100 penalty for each 8 pay period containing a violation. However, I believe it would be unrealistic to expect the Court to award the 9 full exposure amount given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and given Defendant's defenses, 10 including without limitation, that any failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was not willful
11 or intentional and that to the extent Plaintiff received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Plaintiff 12 suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, I understand the individualized and testimony-13 intensive nature of the wage claims could bar class certification or otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's 14 overall liability for statutory and civil penalties. Furthermore, considering the underlying wage claims are 15 realistically estimated to be $161,950.61, awarding such a disproportional amount in penalties would also 16 raise Due Process concerns. Weighing these factors, I applied a 95% discount to each penalty (resulting in 17 $37,440.75 for waiting time penalties, $27,330.00 for inaccurate wage statement penalties, and $27,710.00 18 for PAGA penalties) and accordingly arrived at a realistic recovery estimate of $92,480.75 for statutory 19 and civil penalties.

20 39. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted the realistic (risk-adjusted) recovery for 21 all claims, including penalties, is $254,431.36. This means the $150,000.00 gross settlement figure 22 represents roughly 60% of the total realistic recovery. This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly 23 because, under the Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of 24 not being able to recover anything.

25 40. With regard to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that 26 satisfies PAGA's dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing 27 Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. As a result of this litigation, 28

1 Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in 2 mediation. Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming 3 final settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.) Not including its own attorneys' fees and costs 4 as well as the employer's share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $150,000.00 to resolve 5 this matter—of which $15,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in 6 compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 75% ($11,250.00) to the LWDA and 25% ($3,750.00) to 7 Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved 8 Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released 9 Parties. Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, 10 there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits 11 due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. In other words, were this matter to go 12 to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction.

13 41. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a 14 representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, 15 penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and 16 in light of other defenses available to Defendant. Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would 17 be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 18 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 19 Settlement. In sum, the $15,000.00 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes genuine and 20 meaningful relief.

21 42. Here, the Settlement represents a substantial recovery when considered against the risk and 22 uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to certify the claims and 23 establish liability, and the probability of appeal. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a 24 legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount 25 owed to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

26 43. The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 27 some of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial due to low 28

1 or no participation by Class Members. Indeed, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the 2 claims could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise significantly reduce any recovery 3 whatsoever. For example, the rest period and unreimbursed expense claims are testimony-driven claims and 4 assume a 25% violation rate and a 100% violation rate, respectively, which would not likely be demonstrated 5 at trial, as it assumes either the participation of a majority or all employees (which would be difficult given 6 the reality that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or 7 alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation 8 of a majority of employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempts). Even assuming 9 employees would be willing to participate, obtaining declarations would potentially reveal that each 10 individual employee had a different experience.

11 44. Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 12 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 13 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. Although the Parties 14 have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and class-wide data analysis, they 15 have not conducted further formal discovery. Moreover, preparation for class certification and a trial would 16 remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling 17 for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment ruling. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more 18 attorneys' fees and costs through trial. In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the 19 accompanying expense of further litigation.

20 45. The proposed $150,000.00 Settlement represents a substantial recovery when compared to 21 the reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 22 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of 23 appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that preliminary 24 settlement approval is appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; 25 see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar 26 does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed 27
28

on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

THE ENHANCEMENT AWARD TO PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

46. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided valuable information regarding his hours worked, and what duties were performed during those hours. Plaintiff also provided information regarding meal periods taken and missed by Plaintiff and other Class Members. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted in preparation for the mediation, and provided my office with the names and contact information of potential witnesses in this action. Before we filed this case, Plaintiff worked with my office to determine the viability of his claims. Plaintiff also provided information and documents relating to his employment by Defendant. The information and documentation provided by Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the wage-and-hour violations alleged in this action, and the recovery provided for in the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without his participation.

47. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding himself as the named Plaintiff in this matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with his future employment, as putting himself on public record in an employment lawsuit could also very well affect his likelihood for future employment. For example, a search of Plaintiff’s name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring Plaintiff in learning he sued a former employer.

48. In turn, Class Members can now participate in a settlement, reimbursing them for wage violations they may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Class Member would have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, which were obviated by Plaintiff putting himself on the line on behalf of the Class.

49. This class action would not have been possible without the aid of Plaintiff, who put his own time and effort into this litigation and placed himself at risk for the sake of the Class. The requested enhancement award to Plaintiff for his service as the Class Representative is a relatively small amount of 1 money considering the time and effort put into the litigation and compared to enhancements granted in other 2 class actions. The requested enhancement award is therefore reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for his active 3 participation in this lawsuit, in addition to his general release of claims, both known and unknown, and waiver 4 of section 1542 rights.

5 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

6 50. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount 7 Law School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been 8 an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each 9 year from 2019 to 2023.

10 51. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My 11 practice is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost 12 entirely in class and/or representative actions.

13 52. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related 14 civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been 15 heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench 16 and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

17 53. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour 18 litigations. A $950.00 per hour rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the 19 highly specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate (The Laffey Matrix, 20 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited July 2, 2026].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-established 21 objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re HPL Tech., Inc.
22 Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the Laffey Matrix is 23 attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate upwards based on 24 “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine whether counsel’s 25 rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey Matrix rate based on 26 an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District of Columbia and San 27 Francisco, California, where counsel’s office was located].) To determine the locality pay differential, the 28

1 Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the federal courts. (Id.
2 at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm’s location in Los Angeles, California, 3 the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and the locality pay differential 4 of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a difference of approximately 5 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, Effective January 12, 2026, with 6 Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, Effective January 12, 2026.) True and correct 7 copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached 8 hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on my 19+ years of experience out of law school, 9 my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% 10 x $1,019)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 per hour is reasonable.

11 54. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class 12 actions and PAGA representative actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on 13 wage, hour, and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for 14 other wage-and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various California counties, including in state and 15 federal courts. The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received 16 preliminary and final approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size 17 approx. 155; lead counsel); Black v. Mission Healthcare Servs., Inc. (LASC No. 19STCV04602) (class size

11 ALLEN FEGHALI'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

12 55. Allen Feghali is a Senior Partner at Moon Law Group, PC. He received his B.A. in Global 13 and International Studies in 2011 from UC Santa Barbara, and his J.D. from University of La Verne College 14 of Law in 2014. Mr. Feghali became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 2014 and 15 has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. He was selected by Super Lawyers as 16 a "Southern California Rising Star" in 2020–2023.

17 56. Mr. Feghali began working at Moon Law Group, PC in May 2015, and his practice focuses 18 on advocating for the rights of employees at the trial-court and appellate level. Prior to approximately June 19 2018, with the exception of a handful of cases, his practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful 20 termination claims, as well as individual wage-and-hour claims. In June 2018, Mr. Feghali became heavily 21 involved in the firm's class action practice.

22 57. Mr. Feghali's current billing rate is $900.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage 23 and hour litigations. Based on Mr. Feghali's 11+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix 24 rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). (See 25 Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Feghali's billing 26 rate of $900.00 per hour is reasonable.

1 58. During Mr. Feghali’s tenure with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in 2 obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Mr. Feghali’s 3 litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

4 (a) In March 2021, Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in the matter of Rivera, et al. v. Clearpath 5 Federal Credit Union (LASC No. 19STCV33504), which resulted in a certification order on 6 all causes of action following contested briefing in a wage-and-hour class action.

7 (b) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 8 Dawson, et al. v. GoHealth, LLC, et al. (No. CGC-19-577790), which was argued and taken 9 under submission by the Court on February 3, 2022.

10 (c) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of 11 Brown v. NTI-CA, Inc., et al. (No. 21STCV04397).

12 (d) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification 13 motion in the matter of Thong, et al. v. Outlook Resources, Inc., et al. (No. 19STCV44400), 14 which was granted in part and denied in part in October 2022.

15 (e) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Andrade
16 v. Rehrig Pacific Corp. (C.D. Cal. April 22, 2020, No. CV 20-1448 FMP (RAOx)) 2020 WL
17 1934954, where defendant removed a wage-and-hour class alleging that Plaintiffs’ claims 18 were pre-empted by the Labor Management Relations Act.

19 (f) Mr. Feghali briefed, argued, and won the matter of Lee, et al. v. The Christian Herald, U.S.A., 20 Inc. (Cal. Ct. App. Dec. 12, 2017, No. B266853) 2017 WL 6333905, at *1. There, the Court 21 of Appeal reversed a dismissal of an individual defendant following the trial court’s granting 22 of a demurrer without leave to amend relating to alter ego allegations.

23 (g) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Sotelo v.
24 Belfor USA Group, Inc. (C.D. Cal. March 13, 2018, No. 2:17-cv-09056-RSWL-MRWx)
25 2018 WL 1352910. Defendants there sought to remove the case based on the inclusion of a 26 “sham defendant,” but the court agreed with Mr. Feghali’s briefing which argued that the 27

individual defendant, who was alleged to have harassed the Plaintiffs under FEHA, was a proper defendant.

(h) Mr. Feghali has been the lead counsel, or co-lead counsel, in individual cases that settled for $850,000.00, $375,000.00, and $250,000.00. In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Feghali has resolved or assisted in the resolution of approximately 100 cases which has resulted in millions of dollars of unpaid wages being returned to low-wage employees.

(i) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Hernandez v. CR Laurence, Inc., et al. (No. 20STCV32372), which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in February 2024.

59. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali's practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing employees in wage-and-hour class and representative actions. His fee has been approved by Courts throughout the state. He has participated as lead, or co-lead counsel, in the litigation and resolution of over 100 wage-and-hour class actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements. A selection of settled cases wherein Mr. Feghali served as lead or co-lead class counsel includes the following: Barahona v. Methodist Hosp. of Cal. (No. 20STCV09876) ($5,000,000); Stanley Black & Decker Wage and Hour Cases (No. JCCP5218) ($3,500,000); Vazquez v. St. Mar 2.0 Inc. (No. 37-2021-00042702-CU-OE-CTL) ($2,250,000); Duncan v. Infineon Technologies Americas Corp. (No. 21STCV16872) ($2,500,000); Aquino v. Coast King Packing, LLC (No. 21CV002448) ($2,300,000); Martinez, et al. v. Curative LLC (No. 21STCV20778) ($1,500,000); Calderon v. Installed Building Products (No. 37-2021-00035844-CU-OE-CTL) ($1,500,000); Majdoub v. Argent Hotel Mgmt. (No. CGC-20-582921) ($1,800,000); Fuentes v. Covid Clinic, Inc. (No. CIVSB2106806) ($1,526,317.57); Rahman, et al. v. Gate Gourmet, Inc. (No. 3:20-cv-03047) ($3,850,000); Pagoulatos v. Coast Hills Credit Union (No. 20CV02801) ($1,100,000); Hammers v. Redwood Oil Co., Inc. (No. SCV-269625) ($1,180,000); Cuadras v. R.C. Wendt Painting, Inc. (No. BC705964) ($1,400,000); Zaragoza v. The Roman Catholic Bishop of Fresno (No. 22CV-00282) ($1,500,000); Garcia v. San Jose Water Co. (22CV396328) ($1,200,000); Garcia v. Tri-Valley Plastering, Inc. (No. 22CECG00591) ($1,250,000); Garcia v. Tapia Enter., Inc. ($2,137,651 for 507 class members); Cha v. Center Point, Inc. (No. CIV2102081) ($1,000,000); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (No.

CHARLOTTE MIKAT-STEVEN'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

60. Charlotte Mikat-Stevens is an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC. Ms. Mikat-Stevens advocates for employees in both state and federal court in employment and related litigation. Since joining Moon Law Group, PC, her practice has focused on wage-and-hour class actions and PAGA representative actions involving claims related to unpaid overtime and minimum wages, meal and rest break violations, unreimbursed business expenses, improper wage statements, unfair business practices, and penalties.

61. Ms. Mikat-Stevens received her B.As. in Anthropology and International Studies with honors from Loyola University of Chicago, and her J.D. and Master of Environmental Law and Policy from Vermont Law School ("VLS") in 2017. While in law school, Ms. Mikat-Stevens served as Note and Production Editor for the Vermont Journal of Environmental Law, served with the VLS Environmental Law Society, and worked as a student clinician both for both the Food and Agriculture and the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinics at VLS. Following law school, Ms. Mikat-Stevens was selected for a fellowship focused on the labor trafficking and forced labor of agricultural workers in the United States, during which time she developed a toolkit for legal practitioners and represented victims of trafficking with civil and criminal cases. Before joining Moon Law Group, PC, Ms. Mikat-Stevens represented farm workers with various employment law claims in administrative and civil courts, including class and representative actions, as well as in grievance and arbitration matters.

62. Ms. Mikat-Stevens became an Active Member of the State Bars of California and Washington in 2019 and has been a member in good standing of both Bars continuously since then. She is also admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Eastern and Central Districts of California and in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington.

63. Ms. Mikat-Stevens' current billing rate is $675.00 per hour, which is her usual rate in wage-and-hour litigations. Based on Ms. Mikat-Stevens' 8 years of experience out of law school, her Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $924.82 per hour ($902 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x

1 $902)). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering her wage-and-hour class 2 action experience, Ms. Mikat-Stevens' billing rate of $675 per hour is reasonable.

3 64. A selection of settled class actions that have received preliminary and/or final settlement 4 approval as well as PAGA-only approved settlements in which Ms. Mikat-Stevens assisted in the resolution

CLASS COUNSEL’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

65. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation because we are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class, and representative actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion for settlement approval. Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is comprised of approximately 35 attorneys, all of whom are actively and continuously practicing employment litigation, representing almost entirely employee-plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions, in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a high level of skill and knowledge in wage-and-hour class actions, PAGA representative actions, and labor and employment law generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is frequently evolving.

1 66. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law for 2 over a decade, and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its lawyers 3 have tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) relating to employment 4 matters. As noted above, Moon Law Group, PC has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal 5 and state courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases 6 during that time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.

7 67. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful 8 in assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we 9 concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement.

10 68. I respectfully submit that the attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC, myself included, are well 11 suited to act as Class Counsel in this action, and we have, and will continue to, vigorously represent the 12 interests of the Class. To my knowledge, we do not have any conflicts of interest with Plaintiff, other Class 13 Members, or the proposed Administrator, and we are not related to Plaintiff. We respectfully request to be 14 appointed as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes.

15 THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

16 69. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to 17 one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., no less than $50,000.00), and litigation costs up to 18 $30,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.) The proposed award of attorneys' fees can be justified under either the 19 lodestar method or the percentage/common-fund recovery method. However, we base the proposed fees 20 award on the percentage method, as many of the entries in the time records will have to be redacted to 21 preserve attorney-client and attorney work product privileges.

22 70. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision in the Settlement is reasonable.
23 The fee percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. Moreover, 24 my office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case, 25 and then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

26 71. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100 hours to 27 monitor the administration process leading up to the final approval, prepare for final approval, and oversee 28

1 distribution to the Class following final approval. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions
2 are necessary should Defendant fail to pay.

3 72. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful 4 in pursuing this class action. In such instance, we would have been left with no compensation for all the time
5 taken in litigating this case due to the contingency fee arrangement. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class 6 action cases that have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the 7 defendant company going bankrupt during litigation. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real 8 and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which 9 could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

10 73. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an hourly 11 basis, Moon Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis, 12 including Plaintiff in this matter. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless 13 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk 14 that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford 15 to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 16 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate 17 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in 18 civil rights employment disputes.

19 74. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $29,534.34 in expenses litigating 20 this action, and we anticipate accruing additional costs up to final approval. These expenses were reasonably 21 necessary to the litigation and were actually incurred by my office. Moreover, because total litigation costs 22 are below the maximum amount allowed under the Settlement, the difference will revert to Participating 23 Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) Therefore, our costs should be reimbursed in full.

24 75. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to 25 the end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and 26 will include following preliminary and final approval, without limitation, the following:

27 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by him; 28

- (b) Legal research and investigation regarding Defendant's business and employment practices at numerous points in the litigation;
- (c) Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notices;
- (d) Preparation, finalization, and filing of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint and subsequent first and second amended complaint;
- (e) Extensive "meet and confer" correspondence and discussions with Defense Counsel regarding mediation and to obtain relevant documents and information through informal discovery;
- (f) Research and preparation of Plaintiff's mediation brief;
- (g) Analysis of the discovery production and preparation of a damages model with the aid of a statistics expert;
- (h) Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- (i) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and Class Notice;
- (j) Preparation of the motion for preliminary approval and the accompanying filings;
- (k) Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the preliminary approval hearing;
- (l) Anticipated conferring with Defense Counsel and the Administrator regarding the Class Notice mailing, Class responses, and preliminary and final calculations;
- (m) Anticipated preparation, finalization, filing, and service of a motion for final approval and accompanying filings;
- (n) Anticipated preparation for and anticipated attendance at the final approval hearing, and then monitoring of the distribution of funds following final approval; and
- (o) Anticipated responding to Class Member inquiries and communicating with Plaintiff regarding the case.

76. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable joint resolution has been reached that includes a gross, non-reversionary payment by Defendant of no less than $150,000.00 to compensate Class Members for the alleged unlawful wage-and-hour practices. I am informed

1 and believe that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order violations
2 alleged in the Operative Complaint would have gone completely unremedied.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States that 4 the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on July 14, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
