DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff ALAN LONG, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved
2 employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as follows:

3 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
5 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against ROBLOX
6 CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated 7 companies within the State of California ("ROBLOX"), DAVID BASZUCKI ("DAVID"); and 8 GREGORY BASZUCKI ("GREGORY" and collectively, with ROBLOX, DAVID and DOES 1 9 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants") as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce 10 Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other 11 current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, 12 as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor 13 Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, 14 Labor Code section 245, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing
15 and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty 16 Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

17 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 18 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

19 3. Venue is proper in San Mateo County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 20 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, San Mateo County is where the causes 21 of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the 22 county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and 23 Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, 24 between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or 25 some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff 26 and Aggrieved Employees in San Mateo County, and because Defendants employ numerous 27 Aggrieved Employees in San Mateo County.

28 4. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by

1 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 2 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 3 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
4 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 5 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 6 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

7 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 8 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
9 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 10 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

11 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 12 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 13 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 14 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 15 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

16 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 17 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 18 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 19 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 8. On or around January 30, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 21 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 22 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 23 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

24 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 25 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 26 calendar days of the January 30, 2024 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 27 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

1 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 2 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 3 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 4 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 5 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 6 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

7 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 8 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 9 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 10 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 11 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 12 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 13 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 14 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

15 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
16 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 17 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 18 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 19 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 20 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the 21 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 22 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

23 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
24 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 25 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
26 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 27 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 28

1 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 2 Aggrieved Employees.

3 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages
5 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
6 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 7 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

8 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 9 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 10 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 11 and applicable Wage Orders.

12 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 13 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 14 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 15 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 16 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, and for 17 the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of 18 the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by 19 Labor Code 2802.

20 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 21 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 22 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 23 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 24 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 25 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 26 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 27 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

28 ///

1 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 2 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 3 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 4 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 5 all other Aggrieved Employees.

6 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 7 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 8 Section 204, which requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 9 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 10 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 11 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

12 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
13 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 14 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 15 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 16 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 17 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 18 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 19 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 20 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

21 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 22 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 23 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 24 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 25 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ herein-described policies 26 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 27 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 28 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

26. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, coding and creating new digital products. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff worked for Defendants on approximately October of 2021 until present.

B. Defendants

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant ROBLOX is, and at all times relevant hereto was, corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the County of San Mateo, State of California.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant DAVID is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as the Founder, President, Chief Executive Officer, and board member for ROBLOX, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant GREGORY is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as

1 a board member for ROBLOX, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below.

2 30. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 3 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 4 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
5 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 6 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
7 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 8 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 9 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 10 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 11 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 12 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 13 include ROBLOX, DAVID, GREGORY, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies 14 within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

15 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

16 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 17 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 18 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 19 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 20 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

21 32. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 22 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 23 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 24 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 25 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 26 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 27 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 28 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 1 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

2 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 3 formation of the purported corporate existence of ROBLOX, DAVID, GREGORY, and DOES 1 4 through 50, inclusive (the “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same 5 with DOES 51 through 100 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, 6 the following reasons:

7 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 8 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws 9 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 10 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 11 inequitable purpose;

12 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 13 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 14 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

15 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 16 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 17 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 18 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

19 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 20 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 21 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 22 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 23 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 24 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 25 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

26 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 27 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 28 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code,

1 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 2 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
3 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

4 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 5 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 6 disregarded.

7 34. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 8 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

9 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

11 35. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 12 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

13 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

14 36. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 15 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 16 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 17 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 18 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

19 37. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 20 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 21 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 22 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 23 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 24 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 25 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

26 38. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 27 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 28 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other

1 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor 2 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 3 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
4 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 5 Code section 204.

6 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

7 39. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
8 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 9 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 10 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 11 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 12 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 13 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 14 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

15 40. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 16 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 17 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 18 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 19 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

20 41. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 21 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

22 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 23 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 25 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 26 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 27 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 28 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor

1 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

2 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 3 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
4 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
5 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 6 period for each subsequent violation.

7 Violation of Labor Code § 558

8 44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 9 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 10 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 11 penalty as follows:

12 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 13 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 14 to recover underpaid wages;

15 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 16 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 17 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

18 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

19 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 20 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 21 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 22 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 23 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 24 as" names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance 25 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

26 46. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 27 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
28 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars

1 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 2 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

3 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

4 47. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 5 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 6 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 7 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 8 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 9 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 10 or papers of the person.”

11 48. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 12 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 13 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

14 49. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 15 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 16 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 17 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable 18 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 19 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 20 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 21 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 22 earned.”

23 50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 24 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 25 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 26 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 27 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

28 51. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have

1 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 2 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
3 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
4 under Labor Code section 1174.

5 52. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 6 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 7 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 8 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

9 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

10 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 11 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 12 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 13 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 14 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 15 Section 203 as follows:

16 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 17 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 18 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 19 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
20 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

21 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 22 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 23 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 24 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
25 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
26 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

27 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 28 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected

1 employee.”

2 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 3 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 4 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all 5 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 6 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 7 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 8 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 9 entitling Plaintiff and other aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

10 55. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 11 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 12 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one 13 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 14 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 15 subsequent violation.

16 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

17 56. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 18 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 19 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 20 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 21 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 22 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

23 57. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 24 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 25 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 26 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 27 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 28 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

58. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the name of the employer, including “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants under Labor Code section 2810.5, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to California and local laws.

59. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

60. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
- D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and
- E. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
