SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

RANDY MARTINEZ, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

AUTO TRUCK GROUP, LLC. a Delaware
Limited Liability Company; and DOES 1-50, inclusive.

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 24CV024511

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

(1) CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL
ACT (LABOR CODE § 2698 et seq.)

UNLIMITED CIVIL CASE

1 Plaintiff Randy Martinez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of the State of California, hereby brings this 2 PAGA Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendant Auto Truck Group, LLC.
3 dba Holman (“Defendant”) and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”) and each of them, as 4 follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. Defendant specializes in the design, manufacture, and installation of truck equipment 7 for various customers.

8 2. Plaintiff brings this PAGA representative action solely on behalf of the State of 9 California against Defendant for alleged violations of the California Labor Code.

10 3. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by 11 California Labor Code § 2699.

12 4. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay all overtime 13 compensation and sick pay wages at the proper legal rates by failing to calculate the “regular rate of 14 pay” correctly. Moreover, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s meal and rest period policies and 15 practices failed to allow and permit aggrieved employees to take all compliant and timely meal and 16 rest periods or pay premium wages at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof. Plaintiff further alleges 17 that Defendant failed to provide aggrieved employees with accurate written itemized wage statements 18 in violation of Labor Code § 226(a), failed to reimburse all necessary business expenses incurred, 19 and failed to timely pay all final wages upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code 20 §§ 201-203.

21 JURISDICTION

22 5. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California, brings this representative action pursuant 23 to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., seeking penalties for Defendant’s violation of California Labor Code 24 §§ 201-204, 210, 226(a), 226(a)(6), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1174, 1174.4, 25 1199, 2802-2804, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

26 6. Based upon the foregoing, Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees are aggrieved 27 employees within the meaning of Labor Code §2699, et seq.

28 7. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief,

1 Defendant has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves
2 to the State of California so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by California courts 3 consistent with the traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4 VENUE

5 8. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 6 §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as most of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in the County 7 of Sacramento. Defendant owns, maintains offices, transacts business, has an agent or agents within 8 the County of Sacramento, and/or otherwise are found within the County of Sacramento, and 9 Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

10 PARTIES

11 9. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, who is over 18, was and currently is a California 12 resident residing in the State of California.

13 10. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and alleges that Defendants are authorized to do 14 business within the County of Sacramento and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the 15 aggrieved employees during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of 16 Defendants' policies and/or practices complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights 17 guaranteed to him by California Labor Code §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 226, 226(a), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 18 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1174, 1174.4, 1199, 2802-2804, and the California Business and 19 Professions Code § 17200 et seq., and applicable Wage Orders.

20 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the four years 21 preceding the filing of the Complaint and continuing to the present, Defendants did (and continue to 22 do) business in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

23 12. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 24 corporate, of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said 25 Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 26 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and 27 believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious Defendants, whether individual, partners, or 28 corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and

1 proximately caused Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to be subject to the unlawful employment 2 practices alleged herein.

3 13. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned 4 herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees. At all times 5 herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter alleged to 6 have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them, were the 7 agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, as well as the agents 8 of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting within the course and scope of said 9 agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise 10 ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

11 14. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and 12 engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise and acting within the course and 13 scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff 14 alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and aggrieved 15 employees.

16 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17 15. Defendant specializes in the design, manufacture, and installation of truck equipment 18 for various customers.

19 16. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee with the title of 20 "Press Brake Operator/Floater" from April 13, 2023, until June 2, 2024 at the Rancho Cordova, 21 California, location. Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees (including, but not limited to, Mechanic, 22 Licensing Expeditor, Collections Coordinator, Service Drive Team Lead, TRC Service Technician, 23 and all other non-exempt positions) were responsible for all aspects of Defendant's business in 24 California.

25 17. However, in these roles, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees were often not afforded all 26 protections and rights conferred under the California Labor Code and applicable wage orders.

27 18. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees regularly worked 28 various shifts, many of which were more than 8.0 hours in a workday and 40.0 hours in a workweek.

1 Plaintiff alleges that other aggrieved employees were also subjected to the same policies, procedures, 2 practices, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations to which he was subjected 3 during his employment.

4 19. First, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees worked regular 5 shifts that lasted longer than 8.0 hours in a workday and resulted in aggrieved employees regularly 6 working more than 40 hours in a workweek. However, Defendant uniformly failed to properly 7 calculate and pay overtime wages at the proper legal rate due to Defendant's failure to include all 8 forms of compensation/remuneration, including, but not limited to, commissions, incentives, non-9 discretionary bonuses, and all other forms of remuneration in calculating the "regular rate of pay" for 10 purposes of overtime compensation.

11 20. Under the California Labor Code (as well as the FLSA), courts have consistently held 12 that regularly paid non-discretionary bonuses (and other forms of pay) must be included in 13 determining an employee's "regular rate of pay" for purposes of calculating overtime. (See Haber v.
14 The Americana Corp. 378 F. 2d 854, 855-856 (9th Cir. 1967) [holding that regularly paid efficiency 15 bonuses must be included in calculating the "regular rate"]; Wang v. Chinese Daily News, Inc. 435 F.
16 Supp. 2d 1042, 1055-1057 (C.D. Cal. 2006) [granting summary judgment to Plaintiff under California 17 and federal law on the grounds that Defendant improperly calculated overtime by excluding annual 18 bonuses paid to employees from the "regular rate of compensation"]; see Walling v. Youngerman- 19 Reynolds Hardwood Co. (1945) 65 S.Ct. 1242, 1245. ("The regular rate by its very nature must reflect 20 all payments which the parties have agreed shall be received regularly during the workweek, 21 exclusive of overtime payments. It is not an arbitrary label chosen by the parties but an actual fact.
22 Once the parties have decided upon the amount of wages and the mode of payment, the determination 23 of the regular rate becomes a matter of mathematical computation, the result of which is unaffected 24 by any designation of a contrary 'regular rate' in the contracts."); see also 29 CFR §§ 778.110 25 ("production bonus") and 778.111 ("piece-rate").

26 21. By their policy of requiring Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees to work in 27 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek without compensating 28 them at the lawful rate of one-half (1 1/2) their "regular rate of pay," Defendant willfully violated the 1 provisions of Labor Code § 510 and the applicable Wage Orders.

2 22. Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and other 3 aggrieved employees are entitled to recover penalties for violations of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 4 1194, 1197.1, 1199 1197.1 under Labor Code § 1197.1, 1199, or Labor Code § 2699(f)(2), and 5 attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

6 23. Furthermore, at all relevant times, Defendant also failed in its obligation to provide 7 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees the legally required paid sick days at the legal rate pursuant 8 to Labor Code §§ 246(a),(b), which requires that "[a]n employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works 9 in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of 10 employment is entitled to paid sick days. . . at the rate of not less than one hour per every 30 hours 11 worked, beginning at the commencement of employment." Labor Code § 246(l)(1) provides that paid 12 sick time for aggrieved employees must be "calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay 13 for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually 14 works overtime in that workweek."

15 24. Additionally, Labor Code § 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be "calculated 16 by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total 17 hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment." Finally, Labor Code §246(i) 18 requires employers to "provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid 19 sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either 20 the employee's itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided 21 on the designated pay date with the employee's payment of wages."

22 25. Here, at all relevant times, Defendant failed in its obligation to provide Plaintiff and 23 other aggrieved employees the legally required paid sick days at the legal rate, including all forms of 24 compensation, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 246(a), (b). As such, Defendant paid sick time below the 25 "regular rate of pay" as required by Labor Code §§ 246(l) (1-2). Based on the foregoing Labor Code 26 violations, Plaintiff seeks all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code 27 § 2699(f)(2), and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

28 26. Moreover, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were denied

1 compliant and timely 30-minute off-duty meal periods as mandated by California law. Due to 2 Defendant's uniform meal period policies/practices, operational requirements, and work demands, 3 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees often could not take timely and uninterrupted net 30-minute
4 first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. Further, when Plaintiff and other aggrieved 5 employees worked more than 10.0 hours in a shift, they were not always allowed and permitted to 6 take a mandated second meal period before the end of the tenth hour of work in violation of the Labor 7 Code and applicable Wage Orders. Indeed, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees' meal periods 8 were often interrupted and/or lasted fewer than 30 minutes due to Defendant's meal period 9 policies/procedures, operational requirements, and work demands.

10 27. In addition, for each missed or non-compliant meal period, Defendant failed and 11 continues to fail to maintain a mechanism by which aggrieved employees were paid meal period 12 premiums at the "regular rate of pay" pursuant to Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 13 5th 858 and Labor Code § 226.7.

14 28. Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform meal period practices, aggrieved employees 15 were also regularly denied legally compliant meal periods in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 16 516, and applicable Wage Orders, and would be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

17 29. Next, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were not provided 18 with all 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or a major fraction thereof, due to 19 Defendant's uniform rest period policies/practices, operational requirements, and work demands. As 20 a result, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were and are often unable to take a net 10-minute 21 duty-free rest period for every major fraction of four hours worked. This includes a second rest period 22 for shifts in excess of six hours and a third rest period for shifts in excess of 10.0 hours in a workday.

23 30. By not relieving all aggrieved employees of all duties during rest periods, Defendant 24 failed to provide legally compliant rest periods. See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 25 2 Cal. 5th 257, 269 [concluding that "during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 26 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time."] (Emphasis added). In Augustus, 27 the California Supreme Court expressly rejected the employer's assertion that it could provide an on-28 duty rest period to employees who worked as security guards and further explained: "that employers

1 [must] relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time and relieve their employees 2 of all duties.” Id. at 273. Each time aggrieved employees could not take a compliant rest period, 3 Defendant failed and continues to fail to adequately pay rest period premium payments at the “regular 4 rate of pay” as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

5 31. Accordingly, due to Defendant’s uniform rest period policies/practices, aggrieved 6 employees were regularly denied legally compliant rest breaks in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 7 512, and applicable Wage Orders, and would be entitled to penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

8 32. As a result of Defendant’s failure to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees for 9 all hours they were subject to the control of Defendant, including all overtime wages, sick pay wages, 10 Defendant’s failure to adequately pay for all overtime/sick pay wages at the appropriate legal rate, 11 and Defendant’s failure to pay all meal and rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay,” 12 Defendant issued wage statements which failed to identify the gross wages earned accurately, the 13 total hours worked, the net wages earned, and the correct corresponding number of hours worked at 14 each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1, 2, 5, and 9).

15 33. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 16 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per 17 employee per violation in an initial violation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 18 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 19 deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

20 34. Thus, for the violations of Labor Code section 226 described above, Plaintiff and other 21 aggrieved employees may also recover Labor Code § 226.3 penalties for Defendant’s violations of 22 Labor Code § 226(a). Consequently, because Defendant failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), 23 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees would be entitled to recover penalties under Labor Code § 24 226(e) and/or 2698 et seq.

25 35. Furthermore, because Defendant failed to pay all overtime, sick pay wages, and meal 26 and rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay,” Defendant also failed and continues to fail to 27 pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all wages owed at their time of separation from 28 employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203. Thus, aggrieved employees would be entitled to recover waiting time penalties under Labor Code §§ 201-203 and/or 2698 et seq.

36. Finally, at all relevant times, Defendant required Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to incur necessary business for work-related purposes but did not reimburse aggrieved employees adequately for these necessary expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804. Here, Defendant uniformly failed to reimburse aggrieved employees for the necessary costs incurred in discharging their duties for those aggrieved employees. Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform failure to adequately reimburse for necessary business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804 and applicable Wage Orders, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees would be entitled to civil penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

(Plaintiff and Similarly Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants)

37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation outlined in the preceding paragraphs.

38. Defendant has committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff and other similarly aggrieved employees. Plaintiff, an “aggrieved employee” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of the State of California, brings this representative action against Defendant to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other similarly aggrieved employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to (1) $100 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided based on the following Labor Code violations:

a) Defendant's failure to pay all overtime wages at the "regular rate of pay" because Defendant failed to include all forms of compensation, including, but not limited to, shift pay, commissions, incentives, stipends, non-discretionary bonuses, and other forms of remuneration;

b) Defendant's failure to pay all sick pay at the "regular rate of pay";

c) Defendant's failure to allow and permit legally compliant meal periods or compensation at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof;

1 d) Defendant's failure to allow and permit legally compliant rest periods or compensation 2 at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof;

3 e) Defendant's failure to furnish legally compliant wage statements pursuant to Labor 4 Code § 226(a);

5 f) Defendant's failure to timely pay final wages to aggrieved employees at the time of 6 separation from employment was unlawful; and

7 g) Defendant's failure to reimburse aggrieved employees for all necessary business 8 expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804

9 39. On or about January 29, 2024, Plaintiff notified Defendant Auto Truck Group, LLC.
10 dba Holman ("Defendant") via certified mail and the California Labor and Workforce Development 11 Agency ("LWDA") via its website of Defendant's violations of the California Labor Code § 2698 et 12 seq. with respect to violations of the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 38 (a)-(g). Now 13 that sixty-five days (65) have passed since Plaintiff notifying Defendant of these violations, Plaintiff 14 has exhausted his administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys 15 General Act with respect to these violations.

16 40. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 17 protect his interests and the interests of other similarly aggrieved employees and to assess and collect 18 the civil penalties owed by Defendant. Plaintiff has, therefore, incurred attorneys' fees and costs, 19 which he is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699.

20 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

21 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and all others on whose behalf this 22 suit is brought against Defendant, as follows:

23 1. Upon the First Cause of Action, for civil penalties due to similarly aggrieved 24 employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (a) and (f) 25 including, but not limited to: (1) $100 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation 26 per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is 27 specifically provided under the Labor Code;

28 2. For attorneys' fees and costs as provided by Labor Code § 2698 et seq., and Code

1 of Civil Procedure §1021.5; and 2 3. For such other relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
