1 TO THE COURT, ALL PARTIES, AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 8, 2026 at 2:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter
3 may be heard in Department CX102 of the above-entitled Court, located at 751 W. Santa Ana Blvd.,
4 Santa Ana, California 92701, Plaintiff David Gomez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all other
5 aggrieved employees, will and hereby does move this Court for entry of an Order as follows:

- 6 1. Granting approval, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2698 et seq., and specifically 7 Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), of the proposed Settlement of claims brought pursuant to the 8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.) and set forth in the 9 Settlement;
- 10 2. Appointing Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“PSA”) as the Settlement Administrator, and 11 approving an award of $4,000.00 in anticipated costs to PSA for its settlement administration 12 services;
- 13 3. Approving the proposed Notice of PAGA Settlement and Release of Claims as to form and 14 content, and directing that it be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to the terms
15 of the Settlement;
- 16 4. Directing the distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount pursuant to the terms of the 17 Settlement;
- 18 5. Approving an award of $33,000.00, which is one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, in 19 attorneys’ fees to Plaintiff’s Counsel;
- 20 6. Approving an award in the amount of $16,057.17 in actual litigation costs to reimburse 21 Plaintiff’s Counsel;
- 22 7. Approving an enhancement award of $2,500.00 to Plaintiff for his release of the PAGA claims 23 and service to the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California;
- 24 8. Approving the payment of $33,332.12 to the California Labor & Workforce Development 25 Agency for its share of PAGA civil penalties; and
- 26 9. Approving the payment of $11,110.71 to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis based 27 on number of pay periods worked during the relevant time period.
- 28

1 This Motion is based on this Notice, the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities; the 2 declarations of Scott M. Lidman, Milan Moore, Tiara Gose-Hardy, Paul K. Haines, Plaintiff David
3 Gomez, and Jodey Lawrence on behalf of PSA and the exhibits attached thereto, the pleadings and other 4 papers filed in this action, and on any further oral or documentary evidence or argument presented at the 5 time of hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES<sup>1</sup>

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff David Gomez (“Plaintiff”), an “Aggrieved Employee” under the California Labor Code
4 § 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”), respectfully requests this Court grant approval of the Settlement<sup>2</sup> with Straub
5 Distributing Company, LTD (“Defendant”) pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(1)(2). This PAGA
6 action is based on Defendant’s alleged failure to issue accurate wage statements to its current and former 7 Drivers in California who worked for Defendant as hourly, non-exempt employees, pursuant to various 8 sections of the Labor Code. This PAGA action seeks civil penalties on behalf of the California Labor &
9 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and all “Aggrieved Employees,” defined in the Settlement
10 as “all hourly non-exempt Drivers who were or are employed by Defendant Straub Distributing 11 Company, LTD during the PAGA Period. The PAGA Period means the time period from January 26, 12 2023 through April 4, 2026.”

13 As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement should be approved because it is fair, reasonable, and 14 adequate, as it (1) is the product of arm’s-length negotiations with the assistance of a respected mediator, 15 (2) was negotiated by attorneys experienced in wage-and-hour issues, (3) was negotiated subsequent to 16 undertaking sufficient investigation to evaluate the relative strength and value of the PAGA-based claims,
17 and (4) reflects a reasoned compromise based directly on the relative strength and value of the PAGA-
18 based claims, as well as the risks, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation.

19 This proposed PAGA Settlement obligates Defendant to pay a non-reversionary Gross
20 Settlement Amount (“GSA”) of $100,000.00. After deducting amounts for requested attorneys’ fees
21 (one-third of the GSA, $33,000.00), costs incurred by Plaintiff’s counsel ($16,057.17), an enhancement
22 award for Plaintiff ($2,500.00), and settlement administration costs ($4,000.00) to Phoenix Settlement
23 Administrators, the Settlement provides for distribution of civil penalties in the amount of $44,442.83.

24
25 <sup>1</sup> Given the multiplicity of issues addressed in this Motion, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court allow Plaintiffs to 26 exceed the 20-page limit set forth in California Rule of Court 3.764(c)(2), and that the Court consider the attached memorandum of points and authorities which is 22 pages in length.

27 <sup>2</sup> The PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement”) is attached to the Declaration of Scott M. Lidman as Exhibit 3. The 28 Proposed Notice of PAGA Settlement and Release of Claims is attached to the Declaration of Scott M. Lidman as Exhibit 4 and attached as Exhibit A to the [Proposed] Order. All defined terms in this Motion have the same definitions as used in the Settlement.

Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(i), 75 percent of $44,442.83 (or $33,332.12) will be distributed to the LWDA and 25 percent of $44,442.83 (or $11,110.71) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis. The amounts requested for attorneys’ fees and costs, Plaintiff’s enhancement award, and settlement administration costs are fair, adequate, and reasonable, particularly in light of the recovery obtained. Because there are approximately 149 Aggrieved Employees, the average individual payment to each Aggrieved Employee is estimated to be approximately $74.57 (and will vary based on an employee’s actual number of pay periods worked during the relevant time period).

The GSA of $100,000.00 represents a fair and reasonable recovery for the State of California and Aggrieved Employees considering the limited scope and time period of the release. The release in the Settlement does not impact any underlying Labor Code claims any of the Aggrieved Employees may have. Further litigation may have resulted in a smaller recovery or even no recovery at all based on the defenses asserted by Defendant and given the significant litigation risks involved.

In light of the foregoing, this Court should enter the [Proposed] Order and Judgment granting approval of the Settlement submitted concurrently herewith.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

A. The Parties

Defendant does business by distributing beverages to its clients. See Declaration of Scott M. Lidman (“Lidman Decl.”), ¶ 10. Plaintiff, a current non-exempt Driver, has been employed by Defendant since approximately May 2022. See Declaration of Jose Valdivia (“Valdivia Decl.”), ¶ 3.

B. Procedural History

On January 26, 2024, Plaintiff filed a class action Complaint against Defendant asserting a single claim for failure to provide accurate, itemized wage statements. Lidman Decl., ¶ 11.

On January 26, 2024, Plaintiff sent a written notice pursuant to Labor Code section 2698 et seq. to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant asserting claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorney General Act, Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) stemming from Defendant’s failure to provide accurate wage statements. Lidman Decl., ¶ 12; Exh. 1.

1 On April 2, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a claim for civil penalties
2 pursuant to the PAGA. Lidman Decl., ¶ 13.

3 On April 26, 2024, due to the existence of an arbitration agreement between the Parties and at 4 Plaintiff's request, the Court dismissed the class action allegations without prejudice and submitted
5 Plaintiff's individual claims to arbitration. Lidman Decl., ¶ 14. Thus, the only remaining claim in this 6 action is the PAGA representative claim. Lidman Decl., ¶ 15. Pursuant to the Parties' settlement and 7 Plaintiff's amended PAGA notice to the LWDA, the Parties filed a stipulation for Plaintiff to file a Second 8 Amended Complaint adding additional Labor Code violations encompassing potential claims for 9 minimum wage, overtime, regular rate of pay, sick pay, and waiting time penalties. Id., Exh. 1.
10 Subsequently, on June 25, 2026, Plaintiff filed the Second Amended Complaint.

11 A copy of proposed Notice of PAGA Settlement and Release and the settlement agreement, has 12 been submitted to the California Labor Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") on the same date
13 that Plaintiff filed this motion. Lidman Decl., ¶ 43, Exh. 7.

14 C. Informal Discovery, Mediation, and Arms-Length Negotiations

15 Throughout this action, the Parties conducted formal discovery including, without limitation, 16 taking the deposition of Defendant's Person Most Qualified and Plaintiff. After agreeing to participate in 17 a private mediation, Defendant informally produced to Plaintiff payroll data for Aggrieved Employees.
18 Lidman Decl., ¶ 16. After the detailed review of the data produced by Defendant, Plaintiff's Counsel
19 drew on their extensive experience in similar cases to assess the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's
20 case. Id. This informal discovery allowed the parties to assess the merits and value of Plaintiff's claim 21 and determine if a settlement could be reached. Id.

22 On November 12, 2024, the Parties participated in mediation with Steve Pearl, Esq., a well-23 respected wage and hour class and representative action mediator. Lidman Decl., ¶ 17. During 24 mediation, the Parties vigorously debated their opposing legal positions and the likelihood of Plaintiff's
25 ability to proceed on a representative basis and obtain a judgment in his favor. Id. Although the Parties
26 did not settle, the Parties continued to negotiate with the assistance of Mr. Pearl, in tandem with their 27 litigation of Plaintiff's individual arbitration. Ultimately, after several months of continued discussions
28

1 and negotiations, the Parties reached a settlement, the terms of which were subsequently finalized in 2 writing after mediation. Id; Exh. 2.

3 III. ARGUMENT

4 A. Standard For Approval of A PAGA Settlement

5 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval pursuant to the operative PAGA statute,
6 which states that the “court shall review and approve any penalties sought as part of a proposed settlement
7 agreement pursuant to this part.” See Lab. Code § 2699(l). Notably, the PAGA statute does not expressly 8 set forth the criteria by which a PAGA settlement is to be judged.

9 In evaluating the adequacy of the settlement amount, the Court’s focus is not concerned with the 10 amount(s) that “aggrieved employees” are to receive, but rather, must focus on the total settlement 11 amount in achieving PAGA’s objective. Indeed, “[t]he remedy sought in a PAGA suit consists of civil 12 penalties, not individual or class damages.” Mendez v. Tween Brands, Inc., 2010 WL 2650571 (E.D.
13 Cal. Jul. 1, 2010) at *4. “Unlike class actions, these civil penalties are not meant to compensate unnamed
14 employees because the action is fundamentally a law enforcement action.” Ochoa-Hernandez v. Cjaders 15 Foods, Inc., 2010 WL 1340777 at *4 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010). Moreover, while “[a PAGA] action is 16 ... designed to protect the public and penalize the employer for past illegal conduct” (Mendez, 2010 WL
17 2650571 at *4), a reviewing Court must take into account the fact that settlement of a PAGA claim – like 18 any settlement – involves a “compromise” that stops short of rendering findings of liability and damages.

19 The Court must not lose sight of the fact that “[u]nlike a class action seeking damages or 20 injunctive relief for injured employees, the purpose of PAGA is to incentivize private parties to recover 21 civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by 22 overburdened state enforcement agencies.” Ochoa-Hernandez, at *4.

23 Additionally, consistent with the fact that unnamed employees have no property interest in a 24 PAGA claim,<sup>3</sup> “[u]nnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the

26
27 <sup>3</sup> As held by the California Supreme Court, “[t]he Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 does not create property 28 rights or any other substantive rights” as “[i]t is simply a procedural statute allowing an aggrieved employee to recover civil penalties—for Labor Code violations—that otherwise would be sought by state labor law enforcement agencies.” See Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Sup. Ct., 46 Cal. 4th 993, 1003 (2009).

ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” Ochoa-Hernandez at *5.

B. This Court Should Approve The Settlement Because It Is A Fair, Adequate, And Reasonable Compromise of Disputed Claims

California courts have a strong policy in favor of settlement. See, e.g., Stambaugh v. Superior Court 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236 (1976). To be approved, a settlement must be “fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Reed v. United Teachers Los Angeles, 208 Cal.App.4th 322, 337 (2012). The Court’s role in evaluating a proposed settlement is limited to ensuring that the agreement taken as a whole is fair and is not the product of fraud or collusion between the negotiating parties. See, e.g., Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1027. There is an initial presumption of fairness when the settlement agreement was negotiated at arm’s length by experienced counsel. Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130 (2008).

Here, the GSA secured by Plaintiff is greater than other PAGA penalty awards approved as reasonable within California state courts, which often range between $7,500.00 and $15,000.00 for PAGA claims impacting hundreds or thousands of individuals, resulting in much lower PAGA penalty payments on a per person basis. See, e.g., Penaloza v. PPG Industries Inc., Case No. BC471369, 2013 WL 2917624 at *2 (Super. Ct. L.A. County, May 20, 2013) (approving PAGA penalties of $5,000.00 to class of 667 members); Cabrera v. Advantage Sale & Marketing, LLC, Case No. BC485259, 2013 WL 1182822 (Super. Ct. L.A. County, March 12, 2013) (approving PAGA penalties of $10,000.00 for class of approximately 3,000 members).

Because this Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the Settlement.

1. Factors in Evaluating a Representative PAGA Settlement

A settlement is presumptively fair where it is reached through arm’s-length bargaining, based on sufficient discovery and investigation to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, and counsel is experienced in similar litigation. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802 (1996). Relevant factors for the Court to consider in determining whether the settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable” include, but are not limited to:

[T]he strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely

1 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status
2 through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery
3 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of 4 counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the 5 class members to the proposed settlement.
6 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801.<sup>4</sup>

7 “In the context of a settlement agreement, the test is not the maximum amount Plaintiffs might 8 have obtained at trial on the complaint, but rather whether the settlement is reasonable under all of the 9 circumstances.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250 (2001). Because settlements
10 inherently involve compromise, even settlements providing for substantially narrower relief than likely 11 would be obtained if the suit were successfully litigated can be reasonable because “the public interest
12 may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding 13 litigation.” Id. (quoting Air Lines Stewards, etc., Local 550 v. Am. Airlines, Inc., 455 F.2d 101, 109 (7th
14 Cir. 1972). In addition, courts review the discovery process and information received through it to aid
15 them in assessing whether the parties sufficiently developed the claims and their supporting factual bases
16 before reaching settlement. See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 129-31. Information is sufficient 17 where it allows the parties and the court to form “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy
18 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.” Clark v. Am. Residential Serv. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 19 785, 801 (2009). This requirement exists so that the parties can provide the court with “a meaningful and 20 substantiated explanation of the manner in which the factual and legal issues have been evaluated.”
21 Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th at 132.

22 a) Overview of the Proposed Settlement

23 i. “Aggrieved Employees” Defined

24 Aggrieved Employees are defined as, “all hourly non-exempt Drivers who were or are employed
25 by Defendant Straub Distributing Company, LTD during the PAGA Period. The PAGA Period means
26 the time period from January 26, 2023 through April 4, 2026.” See Lidman Decl., ¶ 21, Exh. 2
27 (Settlement, Sec. 1). The Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, worked approximately 8,714 pay 28 periods between January 26, 2023 and December 15, 2025. Id., Exh. 3 (Settlement, Sec. 8.).

of the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, and the PAGA Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments. Disbursement of the PAGA Counsel Fees and Expenses Payments shall not precede disbursement of Individual PAGA Payments. Id. For any checks remaining uncashed for more than 180 days, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee. Settlement, Sec. 4.4.4.

iii. Payment to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees

The entire NSA shall be designated as PAGA civil penalties. Lidman Decl., ¶ 20. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the NSA will be distributed to the LWDA and twenty-five percent (25%) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(i). Id. Based on these distributions, the amount to be paid to the LWDA will be $33,332.12 and the amount paid to Aggrieved Employees is estimated to be $11,110.71. Id. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties of ($11,110.71) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099. Lidman Decl., Exh. 2. The average payment to an Aggrieved Employee is estimated to be $74.57. Lidman Decl., ¶ 20.

b) Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Duration of Further Litigation

The Parties conducted an informal exchange of documents and information for mediation which allowed Plaintiff to thoroughly evaluate the claims. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 16. Had the Parties not settled, they would need to engage in formal discovery, potential cross-summary judgment motions, preparation for trial as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a summary judgment ruling for either party, and/or post-trial motions. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial. This settlement avoids those risks, the accompanying expense, and protracted litigation.

Civil Penalties Owed for Unpaid Wages: Plaintiff alleges that Defendant did not pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt Drivers for all hours worked. Lidman Decl., ¶ 23. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges Defendant failed to pay Drivers all of their earned “Dimes.” Id. From the data and documents produced in connection with ongoing negotiations, there appeared to be approximately 67 pay periods where Dimes rate of pay was zero instead of ten cents. Further, this impacted 9 drivers. Accordingly, pursuant to Labor Code section 1198 and the default penalties set forth in the PAGA, Plaintiff calculated Defendant’s civil penalty exposure for unpaid wages at $12,500.00 [(9 employees x $100 initial violation rate) + (58 x $200 subsequent violation rate)]. Id.

Civil Penalties Owed for Sick Pay Violations: Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay all sick pay wages. Lidman Decl., ¶ 25. Based on Defendant's payment of Dimes, Plaintiff contends that such compensation should have been included in sick pay wages. Id. As such, pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the default penalties set forth in the PAGA, and based on sick pay being in about 5% of the wage statements with Dimes earned, Plaintiff calculated Defendant's exposure at $77,200 [(150 employees x $100 initial violation rate) + (311 x $200 subsequent violation rate)]. Id.

1 Defendant counters that it has properly compensated its Drivers. Lidman Decl., ¶ 26. Defendant
2 contends that Dimes do not have to be included in the calculation of sick pay. Id Defendant contended
3 that Dimes is a bonus and did not need to be considered in the calculation of sick pay. In light of these 4 defenses and Defendant’s argument that the Court would exercise its discretion to reduce any civil 5 penalty due to its good faith efforts to comply with applicable law, Plaintiff discounted the maximum 6 recovery on this claim by 80 percent to account for the risk that Defendant could prevail in its defenses,
7 to arrive at a projected total of approximately $15,440. Id.

8 Civil Penalties Owed for Wage Statement Violations: Plaintiff alleges that Defendant issued
9 inaccurate wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226 as a result of the above and failing to include
10 the rate of pay and units for Dimes. Lidman Decl., ¶ 27. Plaintiff estimates that there were approximately 11 8,714 wage statements issued during the relevant time period. Id. Accordingly, pursuant to Labor Code
12 section 226 and the default penalties set forth in the PAGA, Plaintiff calculated Defendant’s exposure at 13 $1,727,800.00 [(150 employees x $100 initial violation rate) + (8,564 x $200 subsequent violation rate)].
14 Id.

15 Defendant argues that its alleged wage statement violations could not be shown to be “knowing 16 and intentional,” and that Plaintiff cannot show that he or any other employee “suffer[ed] injury” as a 17 result of the alleged wage statement violations, as required by Lab. Code § 226(e) for imposition of 18 penalties. Lidman Decl., ¶ 28. Defendant also contended that Dimes was a bonus and thus the rates
19 and/or units did not need to be listed on a wage statement. In light of these defenses and Defendant’s
20 argument that the Court would exercise its discretion to reduce any civil penalty due to its good faith
21 efforts to comply with applicable law, Plaintiff discounted the maximum recovery on this claim by 75
22 percent to account for the risk that Defendant could prevail in its defenses, to arrive at a projected total 23 of approximately $431,950.00. Id.

24 Civil Penalties Owed for Failing to Pay All Wages Upon Separation of Employment: Plaintiff
25 alleges Defendant failed to pay its former Drivers all of their owed wages. Lidman Decl., ¶ 29.
26 Specifically, Plaintiff alleges Drivers that separated their employment were not paid all of their “Dimes”
27 earnings. Id. Therefore, Plaintiff calculated Defendant’s exposure at approximately $3,000.00 (30 28 formers employees x $100). Id.

Defendant contends Drivers who separated their employment were paid all of their owed wages.

1 Lidman Decl., ¶ 30. In light of these defenses and Defendant’s argument that the Court would exercise
2 its discretion to reduce any civil penalty due to its good faith efforts to comply with applicable law,
3 Plaintiff discounted the maximum recovery on this claim by 65% to account for the risk that Defendant
4 could prevail in its defenses, to arrive at a projected total of approximately $1,050. Id.

5 The proposed settlement of $100,000.00 therefore represents approximately 23 percent of the 6 realistic total recovery ($433,000.00) for Aggrieved Employees and avoids the risks of proceeding
7 through trial. Lidman Decl., ¶ 31. “The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction
8 of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate
9 and should be disapproved.” Linney v. Cellular Alaska Partnership, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir. 1998)
10 (internal quotations omitted). Plaintiff acknowledges that there was substantial uncertainty and risk as 11 to his claims of Labor Code violations. Approval is appropriate since this settlement will provide 12 tangible, monetary relief to Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.

13 d) The Experience and Views of Counsel

14 “Parties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a 15 settlement that fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in litigation.” In re Pacific Enterprises
16 Securities Litigation, 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995).

17 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel collectively brings over four decades of wage-and-hour class and 18 representative action experience. See Lidman Decl., ¶¶ 2-8; Declaration of Paul K. Haines (“Haines
19 Decl.”), ¶¶ 2-8; Declaration of Milan Moore (“Moore Decl.”), ¶¶ 2-4; and Declaration of Tiara Gose-
20 Hardy (“Gose-Hardy Decl.”), ¶¶ 2-3. They have been certified as class counsel in numerous cases 21 alleging wage and hour claims. Id. Their experience in similar matters was integral in evaluating the 22 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement.
23 Lidman Decl., ¶ 32. Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and knowledge
24 concerning the rapidly evolving substantive state and federal law, as well as the procedural law of class
25 and representative action litigation. Id. Because it is reasonable to compensate Plaintiff’s Counsel
26 commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, a fee award of one-third of the GSA is 27 reasonable. Other factors show that the amount of fees requested is reasonable. This case involved legal 28 issues regarding the propriety of civil PAGA penalties, an unsettled area of law. Defendant was also

1 represented by respected counsel with extensive wage-and-hour litigation experience. This factor
2 strongly supports settlement approval. See, Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 130 (“The court
3 undoubtedly should give considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel and the 4 involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring itself that a settlement agreement represents an arm’s length
5 transaction entered without self-dealing or other potential misconduct.”).

6 C. Requested Award of Attorneys’ Fees/Costs Are Fair and Reasonable

7 Plaintiff, as the prevailing party in settlement, is entitled to recover attorneys’ fees and costs for 8 these claims. See Cal. Labor Code § 2699(g) (“Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled 9 to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”); Cal. Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5(a). A fee
10 award is justified where the legal action has produced its benefits by way of a voluntary settlement. See,
11 e.g., Maria P. v. Riles, 43 Cal.3d 1281, 1290-91 (1987); Westside Community for Independent Living,
12 Inc. v. Obledo, 33 Cal.3d 348, 352-53 (1983); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977) (“when a number
13 of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff...for the benefit
14 of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff...may be awarded attorney’s fees 15 out of the fund.”)

16 Fee awards of roughly one-third of the settlement fund are routinely awarded in California state
17 and federal courts in class and representative PAGA actions.<sup>6</sup> Indeed, the California Supreme Court
18 approved the use of the “percentage of fund” method in California. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc., 19 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016) (“the percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases...”).
20 This is also consistent with Plaintiff’s Counsel’s experience in similar wage-and-hour class and PAGA 21 matters. Lidman Decl., ¶ 36. Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fee request of $93,333.33 (one-third of the 22 GSA) is the same percentage sought in Laffitte, and is fair and reasonable based on the percentage of the 23 recovery method.

26
27 <sup>6</sup> Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66, fn. 11 (2008); see also, In re Pacific Enterprises Securities Litig., 47 F.3d
28 373, 379 (9th Cir. 1995) (affirming 33% fee award); Chavez v. Saticoy Lemon Ass’n, Case No. 56-2015-00468600-CU-OE-VTA, 2015 WL 5561118 (Ventura Cty. Super. Ct., Aug. 29, 2015) (approving attorneys’ fees of one-third of settlement fund in representative PAGA settlement).

The California Supreme Court in Laffitte also held that trial courts have discretion to assess the reasonableness of fee awards with tools such as the “lodestar cross-check,” whereby the trial court calculates counsel’s lodestar and determines whether the “lodestar multiplier” needed to bring the lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503-06. Under the lodestar method, the court multiplies the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by their reasonable hourly rates, then enhances this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors. See Serrano v. Priest 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49 (1977).

Lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., Chavez, supra, 162 Cal. App. 4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of approximately 2.5); Coalition for L. County Planning etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors, 76 Cal. App. 3d 241, 251 (1977) (approving multiplier of approximately 12.8). In this case, Plaintiff’s Counsel have a lodestar of $88,720.00 without the use of any multiplier, which is more than the $33,000.00 fee request. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 33. A general summary showing the number of hours of work performed by each attorney and paralegals is set forth in the Lidman Declaration filed concurrently herewith. The billing rates used are reasonable in light of the hourly rates identified based on years of experience in the Laffey Matrix, submitted concurrently herewith. Lidman Decl., ¶¶ 34, Exh. 4.

| Name                                                | Rate  | Hours | Pre-Multiplier Lodestar |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------|-------|-------------------------|
| Scott M. Lidman(26 th Year Attorney) | $900 | 19.0  | $17,100.00             |
| Paul K. Haines(18 th Year Attorney)  | $850 | 3.8   | $3,230.00              |
| Milan Moore(9 th Year Attorney)      | $650 | 90.3  | $58,695.00             |
| Tiara Gose-Hardy(6 th Year Attorney) | $525 | 15.3  | $8,032.50              |
| Paralegals                                          | $200 | 9.5   | $1,662.50              |
| Total Lodestar                               |       |       | $88,720.00      |

The fee award requested here is justified because it is less than the lodestar. Further, the fee award requested here is justified because Plaintiff’s Counsel achieved a fair civil penalty recovery for the State and the Aggrieved Employees in an uncertain and risky case, while bearing the substantial burdens of representation on a contingency basis, and the fees requested are in line with the market rate. Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-51 (9th Cir. 2002) (finding that exceptional results in a contingency

1 case, significant risk and the absence of supporting precedents, are proper considerations in awarding
2 attorneys' fees). Additionally, Plaintiff's recovery for the State of California and Aggrieved Employees
3 exceeds other PAGA awards approved by courts in California. See, e.g., Boyd v. Bank of Am. Corp., 2014
4 WL 6473804 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 18, 2014) (approving $18,750 PAGA payment); Penaloza, supra, 2013
5 WL 2917624 (average PAGA penalties of $7.49); Cabrera, supra, 2013 WL 1182822 (average PAGA
6 penalties of $3.33). That Plaintiff's Counsel achieved these results without engaging in a protracted legal 7 battle, in the face of serious defense challenges and an uncertain legal landscape, confirms the strength
8 of the results achieved.

9 As discussed above, this case carried substantial risks on the merits. It is fair and reasonable to 10 account for these risks in compensating Plaintiff's Counsel, as well as the risks involved in undertaking 11 this litigation and expending considerable effort while working on a pure contingency basis.

12 Indeed, since undertaking representation of Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel dedicated substantial 13 resources to this litigation, including expending a total of $16,057.17 (including costs associated with the 14 instant motion) in actual litigation costs, without receiving any compensation to date. Lidman Decl., ¶
15 38 Exh. 5. Plaintiff's Counsel conducted legal research regarding the merits of Plaintiff's claims, the 16 ability to recover penalties under the PAGA, and Defendant's potential defenses. Id. Plaintiff's Counsel
17 spent significant time propounding and reviewing discovery responses, preparing and taking depositions, 18 preparing and defending Plaintiff's deposition, litigating Plaintiff's individual claim, reviewing and 19 analyzing the data Defendant produced informally prior to mediation and prepared an exposure analysis
20 on the PAGA penalties. Id. Plaintiff's Counsel expended significant additional effort in preparing 21 subsequent settlement documents, this Motion for settlement approval, and supporting declarations, and 22 will oversee the settlement administration process. Id. Given the considerable potential for adverse 23 outcomes in this case, the contingent risk borne by Plaintiff's Counsel was great. Lidman Decl., ¶¶ 37-
24 38. The quality of Plaintiff's Counsel's work, and the efficacy and dedication with which it was 25 performed, should be compensated.

26 Thus, Plaintiff's Counsel submit that the requested fee award is fair, reasonable and adequate, and 27 should be approved. Plaintiff's request for reimbursement of litigation costs in the amount of $16,057.17
28 is also fair and reasonable. As the evidence submitted herewith shows, all of Plaintiff's litigation costs are documented and reasonably incurred. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 38, Exh. 5.

D. Notice and Requested Settlement Administration Costs Are Fair and Reasonable

The parties agreed to engage Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Phoenix”) as the settlement administrator. Lidman Decl., Exh. 3 (Settlement, Sec. 7.). Under the Settlement, Parties have agreed to have the proposed Notice of PAGA Settlement and Release (“Notice”), subject to Court approval, be sent with the settlement checks to inform the Aggrieved Employees about the scope of the released claims and their responsibility for any taxes payable on the amount received. The PAGA does not require notice, and the Aggrieved Employees do not have the right to opt-out. Settlement, Sec. 8.C. The Notice which is attached to the Declaration of Scott M. Lidman as Exhibit 4, and attached as Exhibit A to the [Proposed] Order, is only being provided as a courtesy.

Phoenix shall be responsible for translating and mailing the Notice in English and Spanish, and calculating and distributing the settlement checks, among other duties. Settlement, Sec. 7. The parties have designated $4,000.00 as settlement administration costs. Id. Phoenix’s quote is attached as Exhibit F to the Declaration of Jodey Lawrence on behalf of Phoenix in support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement filed concurrently herewith.

E. Plaintiff’s Requested Enhancement Award is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

Courts routinely approve enhancement awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provide and the risks they incur during class and representative litigation. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal. App. 5th 1380, 1393-94 (2010) (“These awards ‘are discretionary, [citation], and are intended to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general.’”) <sup>7</sup>.

Here, pursuant to the Settlement, Plaintiff seeks an enhancement payment of $2,500.00. See

<sup>7</sup> California courts routinely award enhancement payments in PAGA-only, non-class actions. See Canul v. Basmat, Inc., LA County Case No. BC674940, Judge Beaudet (Dept. 50) (approved a PAGA-only settlement including a $5,000 enhancement award to the named plaintiff); Pickett v. 99 Cents Only Stores, et al, LA County Case No. BC473038 (Judge Hiroshige (Dept. 54) approved a $12,500 enhancement payment to each of two named plaintiffs in a PAGA only settlement); Vargas v. JTS Modular, Inc., Kern County Case No. BCV-20-100645-JEB (Judge Bradshaw approved a $7,500 enhancement in a PAGA only settlement); Johnson v. DCH, Ventura County Case No. 56-2018-00510579-Cu-OE-VTA (Judge Kellegrew approved $12,000 enhancements to each of three named plaintiffs in a PAGA only settlement).

Lidman Decl., ¶39, Exh. 3 (Settlement, Sec. 6.). Plaintiff will request the Court award this payment in recognition of his unique contributions to the prosecution of this case and his efforts in bringing this case to a successful and significant resolution. Lidman Decl., ¶41; Gomez Decl., ¶¶ 9-11. This request is reasonable given Plaintiff's efforts in this case and the risks he undertook on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff provided substantial factual information to Plaintiff's Counsel, attended meetings with Plaintiff's Counsel, had his deposition taken, and otherwise assisted in the litigation of this action. Id. Further, Plaintiff put his future employment prospects at risk by becoming a representative, as the fact that he filed a lawsuit "is searchable on the internet and may become known to prospective employers when evaluating" them for employment. Id.; Guippone v. BH S&B Holdings, LLC, 2011 U.S., Dist. LEXIS 126026, *20 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 28, 2011). Accordingly, Plaintiff's request is appropriate and justified as part of the Settlement.

IV. DISTRIBUTION OF UNCASHED FUNDS

The Settlement provides Aggrieved Employees with 180 days from the date the Settlement Administrator mails the checks to cash any and all payments. 10. After 180 days, any Aggrieved Employee whose Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee.

V. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated herein, this Court should grant Plaintiff's Motion in its entirety and adopt the [Proposed] Order and Judgment Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Settlement Approval of Claims Brought Under the Private Attorneys General Act and Reasonable Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Enhancement Award submitted concurrently herewith.
