DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff MARGIE CALLEJO OBISPO, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against CORDIS US CORP., 7 a Delaware corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the 8 State of California ("CORDIS"), SCOTT DRAKE ("DRAKE"), and DUKE ROHLEN
9 ("ROHLEN" and collectively, with CORDIS, DRAKE and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined 10 below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of 11 California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees 12 of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains 13 to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, 14 Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 245, et seq., Labor Code 15 section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all 16 employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved 17 Employees").

18 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 19 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

20 3. Venue is proper in SANTA CLARA County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 21 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, SANTA CLARA County is where the 22 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 23 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 24 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 25 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, 26 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff 27 and Aggrieved Employees in SANTA CLARA County, and because Defendants employ numerous 28 Aggrieved Employees in SANTA CLARA County.

1 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 2 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 3 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 4 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
5 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 6 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 7 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

8 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 9 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
10 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 11 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

12 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 13 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 14 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 15 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 16 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

17 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 18 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 19 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 20 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

21 8. On or around January 22, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 22 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ 23 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 24 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

25 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 26 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 27 calendar days of the January 22, 2024 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 28 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Employer's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, all to the detriment of Employee and other aggrieved employees..

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Employer's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend

1 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding 2 of employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 3 actually worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 4 Aggrieved Employees.

5 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
6 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 7 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 8 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 9 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation: by interrupting meal periods; 10 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 11 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 12 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 13 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 14 employees worked as required by California wage and hour laws.

15 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 16 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 17 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 18 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 19 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 20 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 21 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 22 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

23 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
24 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 25 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 26 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 27 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 28 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the

1 legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other 2 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

3 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 5 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
6 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 7 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 8 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 9 Aggrieved Employees.

10 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
11 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 12 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
13 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 14 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

15 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 16 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 17 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 18 and applicable Wage Orders.

19 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 20 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 21 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 22 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, and for the purchase 23 and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the discharge
24 of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 25 2802.

26 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 27 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 28 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved

1 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 2 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 3 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information
4 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 5 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

6 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 7 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 8 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 245, et seq.), and also did not 9 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 10 all other Aggrieved Employees.

11 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 12 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 13 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 14 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 15 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 16 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

17 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
18 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 19 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 20 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 21 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 22 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 23 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 24 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 25 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

26 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 27 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 28 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation

1 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 2 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
3 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 4 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 5 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

6 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 7 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 8 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 9 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 10 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 11 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 12 economic liberty.

13 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 14 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 15 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 16 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

17 PARTIES

18 A. Plaintiff

19 26. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 20 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-21 exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, supporting production, 22 warehouse process, and managing the stock room. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 23 thereon alleges, that Plaintiff MARGIE CALLEJO OBISPO worked for Defendants from 24 approximately February of 2022 through approximately November of 2023.

25 B. Defendants

26 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant CORDIS 27 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of 28 the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the County of SANTA CLARA, State of 1 California.

2 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant DRAKE
3 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as the Chief
4 Executive Office of CORDIS.

5 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant ROHLEN
6 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as the Chief
7 Executive Office of CORDIS.

8 30. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 9 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 10 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
11 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 12 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
13 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 14 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 15 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 16 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 17 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 18 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 19 include CORDIS, DRAKE, ROHLEN, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies 20 within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

21 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

22 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 23 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 24 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 25 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 26 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

27 32. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 28 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate

1 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 2 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 3 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 4 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 5 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 6 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 7 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

8 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 9 formation of the purported corporate existence of CORDIS, DRAKE, ROHLEN, and DOES 1 10 through 50, inclusive (the “Alter Ego Defendants”), they, and each of them, are one and the same 11 with DOES 51 through 100 (“Individual Defendants”), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, 12 the following reasons:

13 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 14 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws 15 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 16 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 17 inequitable purpose;

18 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 19 and through the Alter Ego Defendants’ unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 20 the funding source for the Individual Defendants’ own personal expenditures;

21 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 22 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 23 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 24 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

25 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs 26 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 27 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same 28 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein

1 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 2 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 3 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

4 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 5 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 6 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 7 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 8 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
9 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

10 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 11 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 12 disregarded.

13 34. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 14 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

17 35. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 18 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

19 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

20 36. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 21 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 22 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 23 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 24 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

25 37. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 26 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 27 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 28 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any

1 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 2 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 3 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

4 38. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 5 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 6 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 7 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor 8 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 9 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee 10 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 11 Code section 204.

12 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

13 39. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code 14 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 15 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 16 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; 17 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 18 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 19 entity securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 20 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

21 40. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 22 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 23 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 24 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 25 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

26 41. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 27 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

28 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had

1 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 2 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 3 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 4 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 5 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's 6 services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor 7 Code section 226, subdivision (a).

8 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 9 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
10 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
11 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 12 period for each subsequent violation.

13 Violation of Labor Code § 558

14 44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 15 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 16 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 17 penalty as follows:

18 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 19 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 20 to recover underpaid wages;

21 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 22 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 23 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

24 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

25 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 26 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 27 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 28 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the

1 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business 2 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 16 or papers of the person.”

17 48. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 18 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of

51. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records under Labor Code section 1174.

52. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

3 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 4 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

5 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 6 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 7 employee.”

8 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 9 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 10 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ minimum wages for all 11 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 12 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 13 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 14 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock,

24 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 25 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or

59. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.
