MANNY STARR
Attorney for Plaintiff
Daniel Octave Chowyuk

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Daniel Octave Chowyuk (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Golden West Packaging
4 Group, LLC (“Defendant”) reached an agreement to settle the above-captioned action (the 5 “Action”). The Parties have memorialized the terms of the PAGA settlement in a Settlement
6 Agreement (the “Settlement Agreement”). (See PAGA Settlement Agreement, attached as Exhibit 2
7 to Declaration of Manny Starr (“Starr Decl.”).) Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(s)(2), 8 Plaintiff seeks an order approving the settlement on the terms outlined in the Settlement Agreement.
9 Plaintiff and Defendant are collectively referred to as the “Parties.”

10 II. ALLEGATIONS AND INVESTIGATION

11 Defendant is an LLC based in Los Angeles that provides packaging and promotions services 12 throughout North America and East Asia. Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a Clamp Operator at 13 Defendant’s Stockton location from May 16, 2022, to July 25, 2023. Plaintiff’s duties included
14 operating and maintaining the clamp truck, which is a type of forklift, inspecting and approving 15 loads, and adjusting electronic records. At all times during his employment, Plaintiff was a full-16 time, hourly, non-exempt employee.

17 On January 19, 2024, a PAGA notice was sent by certified mail to Defendant and uploaded 18 to the LWDA website. On March 28, 2024, Plaintiff filed the complaint. Plaintiff pled causes of 19 action for: (1) failure to provide compliant meal periods; (2) failure to provide compliant rest
20 periods; (3) wage statement penalties; (4) waiting time penalties; (5) violation of the Unfair
21 Competition Law; and (6) PAGA penalties.

22 On July 30, 2024, Defendant filed a motion to compel arbitration, which Plaintiff opposed;
23 the Court denied the motion. On September 23, 2024, Defendant filed a motion to reconsider the 24 denial, which Plaintiff opposed; the Court further denied the motion. Rather than needlessly waste
25 additional time and effort on continued motion practice, the Parties agreed in good faith to limit the 26 scope of the Action to Defendant’s Stockton location, where Plaintiff was employed. The Parties 27

1 then exchanged both formal and informal discovery, which included, among other things, a
2 representative 20% sample of the Aggrieved Employees' time and payroll records.

3 The Aggrieved Employees are all non-exempt employees employed by Defendant and who 4 worked at Defendant's Stockton, California facility during the PAGA Period. According to 5 Defendant's records, Defendant employed 74 Aggrieved Employees from January 19, 2023, 6 through October 3, 2025 ("PAGA Period"), and there are 3,300 pay periods worked during the 7 PAGA Period. (Starr Decl. ¶16.)

8 On September 3, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of mediation before an 9 experienced employment mediator, the Honorable Judge Leo Papas (Ret.). The Parties reached a 10 settlement at the Gross PAGA Settlement Amount of $175,000. There is also a separate settlement
11 for the individual wage and hour claims for $15,000. (Id., at ¶12.)

12 Based on their own independent investigations and evaluations, the Parties and their 13 respective counsel are of the opinion that the Settlement for the consideration and on the terms set 14 forth in this motion are fair, reasonable, and adequate.

15 The Parties further recognize that the issues presented for the PAGA claim would likely 16 require extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further litigation would cause
17 inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to the maximum 18 potential benefits.

19 III. A COPY OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT HAS BEEN GIVEN TO THE 20 LWDA PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE § 2699(s)(2)

21 When enacting PAGA, the Legislature intended to ensure the LWDA retained "primacy"
22 over private enforcement actions of the Labor Code. See 2003 Cal. Stat. ch. 906 § 1(d). To that end, 23 PAGA requires parties who seek approval of a proposed PAGA settlement to submit the proposed 24 settlement to the LWDA online at the same time that it is submitted to the court. In satisfaction of 25 that requirement, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the Settlement and this motion to the LWDA through 26 the LWDA's online filing system in conjunction with filing this motion. (Starr Decl. ¶48.)

27 IV. FAIRNESS OF THE SETTLEMENT

1 In Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, the court found that the “fair,
2 reasonable, and adequate” standard applicable to class actions applies to PAGA settlements. (Id. at 3 p. 64.) The court should evaluate a PAGA settlement to determine whether it is fair, reasonable, and 4 adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones,
5 and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws. (Id.) The following discussion analyzes the value
6 of the claims.

7 a. Meal Break Violations

8 Labor Code section 512 and the Wage Orders require employers to provide non-exempt
9 employees with meal periods of at least 30 minutes for work periods exceeding five hours, and a 10 second meal period for work periods exceeding ten hours. The meal periods must be uninterrupted,
11 with employers relieving employees of all duties. If an employer did not provide a compliant meal 12 period, it must pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 13 compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.

14 Plaintiff's theory of liability centers on Defendant's chronic understaffing and the operational
15 requirement that Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees wait to be relieved from duty by coworkers
16 before taking a break. (Starr Decl. ¶19.) This practice effectively guaranteed late meal breaks due to 17 the lack of replacement or backup staff, implicating a pattern of non-compliance. (Id., at ¶20.)
18 These late meal breaks were a direct result of Defendant’s failure to provide sufficient staff
19 coverage and ensure compliant scheduling, leaving employees in the untenable position of either
20 continuing to work or abandoning operational needs. (Id., at ¶21.) Plaintiff sometimes felt 21 compelled to record meal periods at incorrect times in order to make them appear compliant due to 22 Defendant’s chronic unwillingness to provide adequate staffing levels, compounded by Defendant’s
23 frequently malfunctioning timeclock devices. (Id., at ¶22.)

24 The maximum liability is 3,300 x $100 (Labor Code Labor Code 2699 penalty) = $330,000.
25 (Id., at ¶23.)

26 However, Defendant presents strong defenses that reduce the likelihood of recovering the 27 maximum penalty amount. Defendant maintains that Plaintiff’s claims of non-compliant meal

1 periods are anecdotal, specific to Plaintiff, and not a result of any company policy or practice;
2 Defendant expects that the other Aggrieved Employees will support Defendant's claims. (Id., at 3 ¶24.) Defendant's written policies regarding meal breaks are facially compliant, and Defendant
4 attempted to cure any alleged timekeeping issues by switching to a computer system that pays
5 employees to the penny and allows clocking in and out via mobile app and not just via a static
6 timekeeping machine. (Id., at ¶25.) Finally, Defendant paid 756 meal period premiums for all
7 recorded non-compliant meal periods during the PAGA Period. (Id., at ¶26.)

8 Given these defenses and documented compliance efforts, a risk adjustment to 25% of the 9 maximum potential liability is appropriate. Therefore, the risk-adjusted liability is $$330,000 \times 0.25$
10 $= $82,500$. (Id., at ¶27.) This adjustment acknowledges both the discretion to reduce PAGA
11 penalties under Labor Code section 2699(e)(2) when they would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, or 12 confiscatory, and the challenges Plaintiff would face in proving widespread violations were the 13 result of Defendant's policies.

14 b. Rest Break Violations

15 The Wage Orders require employers to authorize and permit employees to take rest periods
16 at the rate of 10 minutes net per four hours or major fraction thereof. Employers must relieve 17 employees of all duties during rest periods and allow them to leave the premises. If an employer 18 does not provide a compliant rest period, it must pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the 19 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

20 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide compliant rest breaks entirely during their 21 employment. (Id., at ¶28.) Defendant's supervisors and HR failed to provide any training or 22 guidance regarding rest break rights or obligations, leaving the Aggrieved Employees uninformed
23 about their entitlement to rest breaks. (Id., at ¶29.) Rest breaks were not tracked in the timekeeping
24 system, and there was no mechanism to record missed rest breaks at all. (Id., at ¶30.) The maximum
25 PAGA liability is $3,300 \text{ pay periods} \times $100 \text{ (Labor Code 2699)} = $330,000$. (Id., at ¶31.)

26 However, Defendant presents strong defenses that reduce the likelihood of recovering the 27 maximum penalty amount. Defendant contends that the rest break issues are specific to Plaintiff and not as a result of any company policy or practice, which are facially compliant. (Id., at ¶32.) Since meal period premiums paid suggest minimal meal break violation rates, it follows that rest break violations follow the same pattern. (Id., at ¶33.)
28

Given these defenses, the low violation rates, and the inherent difficulties in proving rest break violations, a risk adjustment to 25% of the maximum potential liability is appropriate. Therefore, the risk-adjusted liability is $$330,000 \times 0.25 = $82,500$. (Id., at ¶34.)

c. Wage Statement Penalties

The wage statement violations are derivative of the meal and rest break violations. (Id., at ¶35.) Assuming a violation on every single wage statement over the 3,300 pay periods at issue, the maximum theoretical value of this claim is 3,300 x $100 per Labor Code 2699 = $330,000. (Id., at ¶36.)

However, because this claim is derivative, defeating liability on the underlying claims also defeats liability on the Wage Statement claim. (Id., at ¶37.) Even if the underlying claim prevails, Defendant could counter that any alleged omission of information from the wage statements was not knowing and intentional, which could negate wage statement penalties. (Harris v. Vector Mktg. Corp. (N.D. Cal. 2009) 656 F. Supp. 2d 1128, 1145-46.) Consequently, Plaintiff estimates that the risk-adjusted liability on this claim is 20% of its maximum value, or $66,000. (Starr Decl. at ¶38.)

d. Waiting Time Penalties

Similarly, the waiting time penalties are derived from the missed break allegations. (Id., at ¶39.) There are 22 former employees, so the maximum PAGA liability is 22 x $100 (Labor Code 2699) = $2,200. (Id., at ¶40.)

On the other hand, Defendant can defeat the waiting time penalty claim if it defeats the underlying predicate claims. (Id., at ¶41.) In addition, much like the wage statement claims, Defendant will argue that any failure to pay was not willful, that it disputes that any wages were due, that violations were minimal, and that any affected Aggrieved Employee was not following company procedure. (Id., at ¶42.) Given this double risk of losing on liability, Plaintiff evaluates the risk-adjusted value of this claim to be 10% or $220. (Id., at ¶43.)

e. The Total Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable

Summarizing the above, the maximum PAGA liability is the following:

1. Meal break violations -	$330,000
2. Rest break violation -	$330,000
3. Wage statement violation -	$330,000
4. Waiting time violation -	$2,200
Total -	$992,200

The gross PAGA settlement of $175,000 is 17.6% of the maximum liability.

The total risk-adjusted liability is the following:

1. Meal break violation -	$82,500
2. Rest break violation -	$82,500
3. Wage statement violation -	$66,000
4. Waiting time violation -	$220
Total -	$231,220

The gross PAGA settlement of $175,000 is 75.7% of the risk-adjusted liability.

Both figures are within the range of reasonableness. (See, e.g., Gilmore v. McMillan-Hendryx Inc., 2022 WL 184004, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 20, 2022) (PAGA award of 4.2% of the maximum estimated value of PAGA claims and 2.3% of the total settlement amount was “not unreasonable and weighs in favor of settlement”); Merante v. Am. Inst. for Foreign Study, Inc., 2022 WL 2918896, at *6 (N.D. Cal. July 25, 2022) (PAGA award of between 0.27% and 2% of the maximum estimated value of PAGA claims was “small” but “within the range of reasonableness”).

In addition to the risks related to each of the theories of liability as outlined above, Plaintiff recognizes that there are additional risks related to litigation in general which justify a settlement that is lower than the estimated risk adjusted liability; Defendant further contends that, unlike for Plaintiff, it could enforce its arbitration agreement over the other Aggrieved Employees. (Starr Decl. at ¶44.) In view of the risks, the Settlement of $175,000 (17.6% of maximum liability, 75.7% of risk adjusted liability) represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise amount for these claims and is in the best interest of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees and thus, warrants approval. (Id., at ¶45.) See Laguna v. Coverall N. Am., Inc., Case No. 12-55479 (9th Cir. June 3, 2014) 2014 WL 2465049, * 3. The PAGA settlement and its terms are fair, just, reasonable, adequate, and equitable to Defendant, Plaintiff, and the State, especially in light of the current economic climate, and are the product of good faith, and informed arms-length negotiations between the Parties consistent with public policy and fully comply with applicable provisions of law. (Starr Decl. ¶47.)

V. TERMS AND PROCEDURES OF THE SETTLEMENT

The Settlement covers all PAGA penalties and claims arising from Plaintiff's allegations in the Complaint, as laid out above. Defendant agrees to pay $175,000 for the Settlement (the "Gross Settlement Amount" or "GSA") distributed by the Settlement Administrator as follows:

- a. $61,250 (35% of the GSA) in attorney's fees to Frontier Law Center;
- b. Actual costs, up to $12,000 in attorney litigation costs to Frontier Law Center;
- c. $2,995 in PAGA Settlement Administrator costs to Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions;
- d. $5,000 enhancement award to Plaintiff Daniel Octave Chowyuk;
- e. The remainder, estimated as $93,755 (the "Net Settlement Amount" or "NSA") will be divided as follows:
 - i. $70,316.25 (75% of NSA) to the LWDA;
 - ii. $23,438.75 (25% of NSA) (the "Aggrieved Employee Payment") to the Aggrieved Employees.

Plaintiff and each Aggrieved Employee shall receive a portion of the Aggrieved Employee Payment on a pro-rata basis by the ratio of (i) the number of pay periods worked by the Aggrieved Employee during the release period and (ii) the total number of pay periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the release period. The average Aggrieved Employee will receive $316.74, or $7.10 per workweek. (Starr Decl. ¶17.)

1 For purposes of taxes, one hundred percent (100%) of the Aggrieved Employee Payment
2 Share shall be considered to be a civil penalty and shall not be subject to withholding, unless 3 otherwise required by law.

4 VI. THE PROPOSED ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS ARE FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND 5 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

6 Plaintiff's counsel represents Plaintiff on a straight contingency basis. (Id., at ¶52.) Plaintiff
7 counsel's request for $61,250 in attorney fees and $12,000 in litigation costs is fair and reasonable.
8 (Id., at ¶53 & ¶54.) "Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage method or 9 the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.
10 (Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 47 fn. 11; see also Lafitte v. Robert Half Int'l 11 Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (holding that courts can use the percentage method for the 12 calculation of attorneys' fees).) This is also consistent with Plaintiff's Counsel's experience in cases
13 involving PAGA claims. The award is justified because Plaintiff's counsel achieved a strong result
14 for the Aggrieved Employees and the State while bearing the burdens of contingency
15 representation. (Starr Decl. ¶52.)

16 It is an accepted practice in wage and hour class action settlements to award attorneys' fees
17 to Plaintiff's Counsel based on a percentage of the total settlement. California courts have long 18 recognized that an appropriate method for awarding attorneys' fees in class actions is to award a 19 percentage of the common fund. (See Serrano v. Priest (1977), 20 Cal.3d. 25, 48-49: "When a 20 number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or 21 plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or 22 plaintiffs may be awarded attorney's fees out of the fund"; Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001), 23 91 Cal.App.4th, 230, 254.) While PAGA actions are not class actions, the same logic holds true as 24 PAGA actions are also representative actions.

25 Generally, courts award multipliers between 2 to 4 times the lodestar to reward counsel for 26 accepting the contingent risks of the litigation or obtaining good results. (Pellegrino v. Robert Half 27 Intern., Inc. (2010), 182 Cal.App.4th 278 (noting reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often

1 applied and affirming 1.75 multiplier); Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001), 91 Cal.App.4th
2 224, 254 (noting that multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or higher.) Courts multiply the lodestar by a
3 factor to account for the risk of non-payment, delay in payment, the quality of work, and the novelty
4 and difficulty of the issues involved. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001), 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132.) The 5 requested fee award is justified by the work performed, especially in a matter as complex as the 6 Action, with its extensive number of Aggrieved Employees and PAGA Pay Periods and its long 7 procedural history. The fee award is almost at parity with Plaintiff's Counsel's current lodestar of 8 $53,990.00 and simply includes a reasonable multiplier of 1.13 with additional work to be 9 performed such that the multiplier will ultimately be less than 1.13. (Starr Decl. ¶53.)

10 The litigation costs expended include the following: certified mail costs of $8.53 for the 11 PAGA notice to Defendant and $8.53 for the record request letter to Defendant; $75.00 filing fee
12 for filing the PAGA notice; $8,450 for Plaintiff's portion of the mediation fee; $240.00 in 13 mediation-related travel fees; $466.26 for the initial filing fee; $1,000.00 to the Clerk of the 14 Superior Court for complex fees; $160.89 in additional filing fees and service charges; and $136.00
15 for process service. All of these costs are documented and reasonably incurred. (Id., at ¶54.) The 16 costs include charges by One Legal, Plaintiff's counsel's electronic filing processor, where 17 applicable.

18 VII. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY OR WRONGDOING

19 The payment of consideration or any other obligation are not and shall not be construed in 20 any way as an admission of wrongdoing or liability on the part of Defendant, or any other person or 21 business entity. Defendant adamantly denies all allegations of wrongdoing and liability arising out 22 of the employment relationship between the Parties, including the Aggrieved Employees. The 23 Parties intend merely to avoid the expense, delay, uncertainty, and burden of continued litigation.

24 VIII. PAGA SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

25 The Parties agreed to use Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions to handle the 26 administration of this Settlement.

27 a. Aggrieved Employee Data

1 Within 15 business days of the Court's Order granting approval of this Agreement,
2 Defendant will deliver the Aggrieved Employee Data to the Administrator in the form of a
3 Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Aggrieved Employees' privacy rights, the Administrator
4 must maintain the Aggrieved Employee Data in confidence, use the Aggrieved Employee Data only
5 for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose and restrict access to the Aggrieved
6 Employee Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Aggrieved Employee Data to 7 effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify 8 PAGA Counsel if it discovers that the Aggrieved Employee Data omitted employee identifying 9 information and to provide corrected or updated Aggrieved Employee Data as soon as reasonably
10 feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Aggrieved
11 Employee Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best
12 efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted
13 Aggrieved Employee Data.

14 b. Funding of Settlement

15 The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a 16 Qualified Settlement Fund under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1. Defendant shall fully 17 fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 18 thirty (30) days after the Court enters the order approving the Settlement.

19 c. Payment to LWDA, Plaintiff's Counsel, Plaintiff, and Settlement Administrator

20 Within 14 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will
21 mail checks for the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the PAGA
22 Counsel Fees and Litigation Expenses Payments, and the PAGA Representative Service Payment.
23 Disbursement of the PAGA Counsel Fees and Litigation Expenses Payments shall not precede 24 disbursement of Aggrieved Employee Payments.

25 d. Employee Notices and Payments to Aggrieved Employees

26 Within 14 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will 27 mail checks for all Aggrieved Employee Payments. The Administrator will issue checks for the 28

1 Aggrieved Employee Payments and send them to the Aggrieved Employees via First Class U.S.
2 Mail, postage prepaid. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the 3 recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database. The Administrator
4 must conduct an Aggrieved Employee Address Search for all Aggrieved Employees whose checks
5 are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within seven (7) days of receiving a 6 returned check, the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or 7 to an address ascertained through the Aggrieved Employee Address Search. The Administrator need
8 not take further steps to deliver checks to Aggrieved Employees whose re- mailed checks are 9 returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any 10 Aggrieved Employee whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Aggrieved
11 Employee prior to the void date.

12 e. Expiration of Settlement Checks

13 The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 120 days after the date 14 of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by 15 the void date. For any Aggrieved Employee whose Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed 16 and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such 17 checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved 18 Employee.

19 f. Disputes Relating to Settlement Administration

20 If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed application or motion for approval of 21 this Settlement and/or the supporting declarations and documents, PAGA Counsel and Defense
22 Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by 23 telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement.

24 IX. TAXES

25 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes
26 owed on the PAGA Representative Service Payment and their Aggrieved Employee Payments.

27 X. RELEASED CLAIMS

1 All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their
2 respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors
3 and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or 4 reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative
5 Complaint, and the PAGA Notice, which shall include claims for PAGA civil penalties for alleged 6 violation of California Labor Code sections 201-203, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 512, 558, and 2699,
7 for alleged failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks and associated premiums; wage
8 statement violations; untimely wages and wages due during employment and upon termination; any 9 other claims related to this Action by all individuals whether known or unknown, suspected or 10 unsuspected, that were or could have been alleged or asserted based on Aggrieved Employees'
11 employment with Defendant during the PAGA Period, including all claims that were or could have 12 been brought under the Private Attorneys General Act as it relates to the underlying California
13 Labor Code claims referenced above, including any interest, statutory and civil penalties, attorneys'
14 fees, costs, or any other form of relief whatsoever in connection to Plaintiffs claims for PAGA civil 15 penalties during the PAGA Period.

16 XI. CONCLUSION

17 The Settlement being fair, reasonable, and adequate, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the 18 Court approve the Settlement.
