DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff SALVADOR MAGALLON, (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself and all
2 others similarly situated (collectively, “Employees”; individually, “Employee”) complains of 3 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all current and former 6 Employees within the State of California who, at any time four (4) years prior to the filing of this
7 lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt, hourly employees by Defendants SEQUENTIAL
8 ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES, LLC, an Oregon limited liability company; and DOES 1
9 through 50 (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”). Plaintiff alleges 10 that Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of the California Labor Code,
11 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) and California Business &
12 Professions Code, and seeks redress therefore.

13 2. Plaintiff is a resident of California and during the time period relevant to this 14 Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of 15 California at Defendants’ facilities and offices in California. Plaintiff and the other Class members
16 worked for Defendants in Santa Clara County, and in other nonexempt positions, throughout 17 California and, and consistently worked at Defendants’ behest without being paid all wages due.
18 More specifically, Plaintiff and the other similarly situated Class members were employed by 19 Defendants and worked at Defendants’ offices and other facilities where the conduct giving rise to 20 the allegations in this Class Action Complaint occurred. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff 21 was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities, (2) was 22 subjected to the same policies and practices, and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of 23 Defendants as the other Employee Class members who served in similar and related positions.

24 3. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class to perform work
25 while remaining under Defendants’ control before and after being on the clock for their daily work
26 shift. Defendants also had a uniform policy and practice of requiring Employees to record meal 27 breaks before the fifth hour of work regardless of whether Employees took a meal period after the 28 fifth hour or did not receive a meal period. Defendants thus failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class

1 members for all hours worked and provided them with inaccurate wage statements that prevented
2 Plaintiff and the Class from learning of these unlawful pay practices. Defendants also failed to 3 provide Plaintiff and the Class with lawful meal and rest periods, as employees were not provided
4 with the opportunity to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal and rest periods as required
5 by the Labor Code.

6 THE PARTIES

7 A. The Plaintiff

8 4. Plaintiff SALVADOR MAGALLON has resided in California and during the time
9 period relevant to this Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee
10 within the State of California.

11 B. The Defendants

12 5. Defendant SEQUENTIAL ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES, LLC is an Oregon
13 limited liability company with its principle executive offices in Denver, Colorado and has been 14 listed as the employer on Plaintiff's paystubs during the relevant time period. SEQUENTIAL
15 ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES, LLC lists a Denver Colorado address with the California
16 Secretary of State, and upon information and belief, employs Plaintiff and the Class members at 17 Defendants' offices and facilities in Richmond, California, and throughout California and 18 conducts business throughout California.

19 6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 20 whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently 21 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of 22 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants 23 designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in 24 some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend 25 this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as 26 Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

27 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in 28 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried

1 out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of 2 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in 3 all respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them,
4 exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or 5 permitted Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment
6 relationship, with Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly 7 employed Employees.

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 8. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 10 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought 11 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Employees of Defendants pursuant to California
12 Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial district 13 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, the 14 obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred at least in part in Contra Costa
15 County and Defendants maintain and operate company offices and facilities in Contra Costa
16 County, and employ Plaintiff and other Class members in Contra Costa County and throughout 17 California.

18 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

19 9. The Employees who comprise the Class and Collective, including Plaintiff, are 20 nonexempt employees pursuant to the applicable Wage Order of the IWC. Defendants hire 21 Employees who work in nonexempt positions at the direction of Defendants in the State of 22 California. Plaintiff and the Class members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours
23 worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Specifically, 24 Plaintiff and Employees were not paid for the time that they worked off-the-clock without 25 compensation by answering work-related phone calls while off-the-clock and completing required
26 trainings. Plaintiff also contends that Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members all 27 wages due and owing, failed to provide meal and rest breaks, and failed to furnish accurate wage
28 statements, all in violation of various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable

1 Wage Orders. Additionally, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary
2 commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and
3 belief, Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary
4 commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular 5 rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate. Therefore, during times when 6 Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive
7 pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a 8 lower overtime rate than required.

9 10. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 10 present, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay,
11 and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief, Defendants failed to 12 incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or 13 nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating
14 sick pay. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and received
15 nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed 16 to pay all sick pay by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

17 11. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 18 present, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay,
19 and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief, Defendants failed to 20 incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or
21 nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating 22 vacation pay. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and 23 received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses,
24 Defendants failed to pay all vacation pay by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

25 12. During the course of Plaintiff and the Class members' employment with 26 Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed and 27 for all overtime hours worked and were forced to work during their meal and rest breaks.

28 ///

1 13. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were 2 required to work during their meal and rest breaks which were not compensated by Defendants in 3 violation of the California Labor Code. Plaintiff and the Class members were also not paid
4 regular wages and overtime for the time they were required to comply with other requirements
5 imposed upon them, which they had to complete while working through their meal and rest
6 breaks and without compensation. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over 7 eight (8) hours in a day and over forty (40) hours in a work week, but they were not paid at the 8 appropriate overtime rate for all such hours, including by being required to perform work duties
9 and tasks without pay and while off-the-clock. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members
10 worked substantial overtime hours during their employment with Defendants for which they were 11 not compensated, in violation of the California Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

12 14. As a result of the above described daily work demands and pressures to work
13 through breaks and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Plaintiff and the 14 Class members were not properly paid for all wages earned and for all wages owed to them by 15 Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than 16 forty (40) hours in any given week. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices,
17 Plaintiff and Class members incurred overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately 18 and completely compensated. To the extent applicable, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and 19 the Class members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for the first eight hours of the 20 seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the rate of 2 times the regular 21 rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work day, as required under the 22 Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

23 15. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 24 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
25 Employees for all hours worked and failing to pay minimum wage for all time worked as required
26 by California Law.

27 16. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
28 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay

1 Employees overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all hours worked in excess of 2 eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time rates for all hours worked in 3 excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 and the corresponding 4 sections of IWC Wage Orders.

5 17. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 6 continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Employees to work shifts in excess
7 of five (5) hours without providing them with timely and uninterrupted meal periods of not less
8 than thirty (30) minutes and shifts in excess of ten (10) hours without providing them with second 9 meal periods of not less than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Employees “premium pay,”
10 i.e. one hour of wages at each Employee’s effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that 11 Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided. Defendants also tried to avoid paying 12 premiums for missed meal periods by adding meal punches to Plaintiff’s and Employees’ time 13 sheets even if meal periods were not taken.

14 18. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 15 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with paid rest breaks of not less 16 than ten (10) minutes for every work period of four (4) or more consecutive hours; nor did
17 Defendants pay Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not 18 provided or were deficiently provided at one hour of wages at each Employee’s effective regular 19 rate of pay, for each rest period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

20 19. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
21 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
22 accurate, and itemized wage statements as required by California wage-and-hour laws.
23 Specifically, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records of the 24 correct overtime wages based on proper regular rate calculations that included nondiscretionary 25 commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses earned, and the total amount of 26 compensation of their Employees. Moreover, the wage statements given to Employees by 27 Defendants failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal
28 periods and rest breaks all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were

1 owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage statements provided to Employees were 2 confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify
3 whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

4 20. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
5 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
6 accurate, and itemized wage statements, in writing, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

7 21. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 8 present, Defendants have failed to reimburse Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the 9 performance of their job duties for Defendants including, but not limited to, the cost of cellphone
10 usage and oil-resistant shoes, which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants'
11 employ in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

12 22. Additionally, from at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 13 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to keep accurate time and wage 14 records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

15 23. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing 16 to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages fur and owed to 17 Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 18 required by California wage-and-hour laws.

19 24. In light of the foregoing, Employees bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor
20 Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 21 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq. and 2802.

22 25. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, 23 Employees seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have 24 enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code.

25 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

26 26. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and all others similarly 27 situated pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as 28 follows: all individuals employed by Defendants within the State of California at any time within four (4) years of the filing of this lawsuit.

27. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

c. Subclass 3. Vacation Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated at the Employee's regular rate of pay for their vacation wages.

d. Subclass 4. Sick Pay Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated at the Employee's regular rate of pay for their sick pay wages.

e. Subclass 5. Meal Period Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

f. Subclass 6. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

g. Subclass 7. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

h. Subclass 8. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

i. Subclass 9. Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' failure to reimburse for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of Employees job duties for Defendants.

j. Subclass 10. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class members who, within the

1 applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment
2 and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon 3 termination.

4 k. Subclass 11. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as a 5 result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to 6 be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

7 28. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or 8 modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or 9 limitation to particular issues.

10 29. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
11 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community
12 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

13
14 A. Numerosity

15 30. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 16 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class members has not been 17 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 18 time period relevant to this lawsuit, employed more than 100 individuals within the State of 19 California.

20 31. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 21 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 22 information as to the number and location of all class members.

23 B. Commonality

24 32. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any 25 questions affecting only individual class members. These common questions of law and fact 26 include:

- 27 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages;
28 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked;

- 1 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees overtime as required under Labor
2 Code § 510;
- 3 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees vacation wages as required under 4 Labor Code § 227.3;
- 5 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees sick pay as required under Labor
6 Code § 245;
- 7 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable
8 IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite meal periods or 9 premium pay in lieu thereof;
- 10 g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage
11 Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite rest breaks or premium pay 12 in lieu thereof;
- 13 h. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a);
- 14 i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;
- 15 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Employees for necessary business 16 expenses;
- 17 k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay 18 wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- 19 l. Whether Defendants are liable for penalties under Labor Code § 2699, et seq.;
- 20 m. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- 21 n. Whether Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and 22 Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

23 C. Typicality

24 33. The claims of the named plaintiff are typical of those of the other Employees.

25 Employees all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common 26 course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of 27 law, as alleged herein.

28 ///

1 D. Adequacy of Representation

2 34. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Employees.
3 Counsel who represents Employees are experienced and competent in litigating employment class 4 actions.

5 E. Superiority of Class Action

6 35. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
7 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Employees is not practicable, and 8 questions of law and fact common to all Employees predominate over any questions affecting only 9 individual Employees. Each Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of 10 Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Employees properly.

11 36. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 12 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
13 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class action.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

16 (Against All Defendants)

17 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 18 full herein.

19 38. Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages for all hours worked.
20 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Employees time records and failing to pay
21 Employees for all hours worked. Employees would work hours and not receive wages, including 22 as alleged above in connection with working during meal breaks and working off-the-clock
23 without compensation by receiving work-related phone calls and completing trainings.
24 Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay Employees for hours worked 25 during alleged meal periods which Employees were denied. Moreover, Defendants did not pay
26 Plaintiff and Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants' 27 uniform pattern of unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to 28 the Class as a whole, as a result of implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class as to minimum wage pay.

39. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states:

The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

40. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the relevant period is found in the Wage Orders. Pursuant to the Wage Orders, Employees are therefore entitled to double the minimum wage during the relevant period.

41. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private civil action pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a) which states:

Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

42. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission.

43. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies:

In any action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of the payment of a wage less than the minimum wages fixed by an order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

44. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Employees.

45. Wherefore, Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a).

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 46. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
5 full herein.

6 47. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code §
7 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees:
8 (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 9 workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours worked 10 on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours
11 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of eight 12 (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not 13 paying Employees wages for all hours worked including time spent working during meal periods 14 and time spent working off the clock without compensation by receiving phone calls and 15 completing trainings. Employees regularly worked over 8 hours on a given day without receiving 16 overtime compensation.

17 48. Furthermore, on information and belief, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and 18 Employees the correct overtime rate for the recorded overtime hours that they generated. In 19 addition to an hourly wage, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary
20 commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and
21 belief, Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary
22 commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular 23 rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate.

24 49. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and 25 received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses,
26 Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

27 50. Defendants' failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a 28 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid

1 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct
2 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages
3 and overtime compensation earned by Employees. Each such failure to make a timely payment of 4 compensation to Employees constitutes a separate violation of California Labor Code § 204.

5 51. Employees have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code §§
6 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

7 52. Consequently, pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, and 1194 (and the 8 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission), Defendants are liable to Employees for 9 the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their 10 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

11 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

12 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 53. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 15 full herein.

16 54. Employees regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and greater than ten 17 (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ someone for a shift of 18 more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of not less than thirty 19 (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or her with a second 20 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

21 55. Defendants failed to provide Employees with meal periods as required under the 22 Labor Code. Employees were required to work through their meal periods. Employees were also 23 required to take meal periods after working well beyond the five (5) hour shifts and meal periods
24 were less than thirty minutes. Furthermore, Employees were regularly required to work for more
25 than 10 hours in a given shift without receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal
26 period as required by law. Defendants also tried to avoid paying premiums for missed meal
27 periods by adding meal punches to Plaintiff and Employees' time sheets even if meal periods were 28 not taken.

1 56. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each meal period not 2 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 3 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an 4 employee a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one
5 hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period
6 is not provided. Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each meal period
7 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11
8 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order. Additionally, as detailed above, when Defendants did 9 pay meal period premiums, they did so at the normal regular rate of pay without factoring in all 10 forms or remuneration/compensation or by otherwise incorrectly calculating the regular rate.

11 57. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 12 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal 13 period not provided or deficiently provided, a sum to be proven at trial.

14
15 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 58. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 19 full herein.

20 59. Employees consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts. Pursuant to the 21 Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order, Employees were entitled to paid rest breaks of 22 not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

23 60. Defendants failed to provide Employees with timely rest breaks of not less than ten 24 (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. Specifically, Defendants failed to provide a 25 third rest break when Employees worked over ten (10) hours in a shift.

26 61. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each rest period not 27 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC
28 Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in

1 accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the 2 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.
3 Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each rest period not provided or 4 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage
5 Order. Additionally, as detailed above, when Defendants did pay rest period premiums, they did
6 so at the normal regular rate of pay without factoring in all forms or remuneration/compensation
7 or by otherwise incorrectly calculating the regular rate.

8 62. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 9 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day 10 worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to be proven at trial.

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
12 FAILURE TO PAY VACATION WAGES
13 (Against All Defendants)

14 63. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 15 full herein.

16 64. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 227.3, whenever a contract of employment or 17 employment policy provides for paid vacation and an employee is terminated without having 18 taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate 19 in accordance with said contract of employment or policy respecting eligibility or time served.

20 65. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or 21 nondiscretionary bonuses to Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of 22 remuneration in the regular rate of pay upon which vacation wages were calculated and paid.

23 66. Therefore, Plaintiff and Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor
24 Code § 227.3.

25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
26 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH LABOR CODE §§ 245 ET SEQ. AND 246
27 (Against All Defendants)

28 67. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in

1 full herein.

2 68. California Labor Code § 245 et seq. requires that Defendants provide paid sick time
3 to Employees, including at the amount, terms, and rate of compensation set forth in said law. At 4 times relevant, Defendants have failed compute the amount due for paid sick time in conformance
5 with the pay calculation under California Labor Code § 246(1).

6 69. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or
7 nondiscretionary bonuses to Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of 8 remuneration in the regular rate of pay upon which sick pay was calculated and paid. Rather than 9 calculating the amount of paid sick time due when sick time is used according to the requirements
10 set forth in California Labor Code § 246(1), Defendants paid sick leave to Employees at a lower 11 rate, in violation of the law.

12 70. Therefore, Plaintiff and Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor
13 Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246.

14 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
15 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES
16 IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2802
17 (Against All Defendants)

18 71. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 19 full herein.

20 72. Under Labor Code § 2802(a), an employer must indemnify its employees for all 21 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge 22 of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

23 73. Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties
24 for Defendants, namely the cost of personal cell phone usage and oil resistant shoes, which were 25 necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ. From four (4) years prior to the 26 original filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants consistently failed to 27 reimburse Employees for these necessarily incurred business expenses.

28 74. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Employees have been deprived of 1 reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts,

2 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

3 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
4 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
5 (Against All Defendants)

6 75. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
7 full herein.

8 76. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her 9 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, 10 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these 11 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else 12 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 13 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 14 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

15 77. Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in 16 writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees, by 17 Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal
18 periods and rest breaks all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were 19 owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. Additionally, Defendants failed in their affirmative
20 obligation to keep accurate records of the correct overtime wages based on proper regular rate
21 calculations that included nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary
22 bonuses earned, and the total amount of compensation of their Employees. The wage statements
23 provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery and refer 24 to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation
25 by the Employees.

26 78. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a),
27 Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received 28 all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and

1 forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact
2 compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

3 79. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e), Employees are entitled to recover
4 the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation
5 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not 6 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an 7 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

8 80. With respect to violations of Labor Code § 226, Labor Code § 226.3 imposes a 9 civil penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for initial violations for each employee for 10 each pay period, and one thousand dollars ($1000) for each subsequent violation for each 11 employee for each pay period.

12 81. Plaintiff is seeking penalties against Defendants under Labor Code § 226.3, and 13 any other applicable statute allowing recovery of penalties as alleged herein in an amount to be 14 shown according to proof.

15 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174

17 AND 1174.5

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 82. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 20 full herein.

21 83. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time
22 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 23 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek 24 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

25 84. During the course of Plaintiff's and Employees' employment, Defendants 26 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Employees as 27 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Employees proper wages, 28 overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

1 85. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California
2 Labor Code § 1174.5. for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

3 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203

5 (Against All Defendants)

6 86. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
7 full herein.

8 87. Numerous Employees are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit
9 Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

10 88. Defendants failed to pay these Employees all wages due and certain at the time of 11 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

12 89. The wages withheld from these Employees by Defendants remained due and owing 13 for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation of employment.

14 90. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged above, was willful in that Defendants
15 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them; this violation entitles these Employees to penalties
16 under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up 17 to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

18 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 91. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
22 full herein.

23 92. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, Employees, and the general public, brings this claim
24 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as alleged in 25 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Employees and the 26 general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 27 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

28 93. Plaintiff is a "person" within the meaning of Business & Professions Code

1 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 2 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

3 94. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair
4 business practices.

5 95. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 6 wages and overtime, providing them with meal and rest periods, etc., are fundamental public
7 policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State vigorously 8 to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 9 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 10 employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to comply with minimum 11 labor standards.

12 96. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 13 in this Complaint, Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 14 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 15 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Defendants' conduct has deprived 16 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and 17 privileges guaranteed to all employees under the law.

18 97. Defendants' conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 19 violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

20 98. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 21 overtime, failing to provide meal and rest periods, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable 22 care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the 23 Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

24 99. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Employees have 25 been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

26 100. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in such 27 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 28 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be

1 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 2 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 3 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Employees to the money Defendants 4 have unlawfully failed to pay.

5 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
6 PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE § 2699, *ET SEQ.
7 (Against All Defendants)

8 101. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
9 full herein.

10 102. Plaintiff and Employees are aggrieved employees as defined under Labor Code §
11 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and were employed by the 12 alleged violators, Defendants.

13 103. Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants'
14 violation of all Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5 and includes the 15 penalty provisions, without limitation, based on the following California Labor Code sections:
16 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174,
17 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq. and 2802

18 104. The penalties shall be allocated as follows: 75% to the Labor and Workforce
19 Development Agency (LWDA) and 25% to the affected employees.

20 105. Employees also seek any and all penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code § 21 558, which states:

- 22 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who 23 violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision
24 regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare
25 Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial 26 violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for 27 which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover 28 underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3)
Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.
(b) If upon inspection or investigation the Labor Commissioner determines that a person had paid or caused to be paid a wage for overtime work in violation of any

1 provision of this chapter, or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any 2 order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the Labor Commissioner may issue a 3 citation. The procedures for issuing, contesting, and enforcing judgments for 4 citations or civil penalties issued by the Labor Commissioner for a violation of this 5 chapter shall be the same as those set out in Section 1197.1.

(c) The civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by law.

6 106. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 7 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
8 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 9 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a 10 wage deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.” To the 11 extent that Labor Code § 226.3 applies, Plaintiff and Employees also seeks such penalties on.

12 107. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedy by sending a certified letter to the 13 LWDA and Defendants postmarked on January 18, 2024. The LWDA has not provided notice of 14 its intent to investigate the alleged violations within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the 15 letters.

16 RELIEF REQUESTED

17 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 18 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 19 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work 20 performed by Employees and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior to 21 the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 22 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 23 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 24 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees
25 for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from four (4) 26 years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 27 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees 28 for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided and where no premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;

6. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Employees, as may be proven;

7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3, as may be proven;

8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Employees who quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;

9. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3, as may be proven;

10. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 245 and 246, as may be proven;

11. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, as may be proven;

12. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

13. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., as may be proven;

14. For compensatory damages in the amount of all previously unreimbursed business expenditures necessarily incurred by Employees in the discharge of their job duties for Defendants from four (4) years prior to the original filing of this action, as may be proven;

15. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

16. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

17. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

18. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

19. For an award of attorneys' fees; and

20. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
