DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiffs DANIEL HE and JONELLE VELASQUEZ (“Plaintiffs”), individually and on
2 behalf of members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other Aggrieved
3 Employees pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), allege
4 as follows against defendant(s) BAY PHOTO LAB INC., CIRCLE GRAPHICS, INC., and DOES 1
5 through 25, inclusive (“Defendants”):

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is class action to recover damages on behalf of Plaintiffs and all similarly situated
8 individuals who worked for Defendants in the State of California as hourly-paid and/or non-exempt
9 employees at any time from four years prior to the date of the original Complaint through final 10 judgment (“Class Period”) (“Class Members”).

11 2. This is an enforcement action under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys
12 General Act, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties on 13 behalf of Plaintiff JONELLE VELASQUEZ (“Plaintiff Velasquez”), the State of California, and all
14 individuals who worked for Defendants in the State of California as hourly-paid and/or non-exempt
15 employees at time from one year prior to Plaintiff Velasquez’ submission of written notice of 16 Defendants’ alleged violations of the Labor Code to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
17 (“LWDA”) through final judgment (“Aggrieved Employees”).

18 3. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants hired Plaintiffs and Class Members but, among other 19 things, failed to properly pay them all wages owed for all time worked (including minimum wages, 20 straight time wages, and overtime wages), failed to provide them with all meal periods and rest periods
21 and associated premium wages to which they were entitled, failed to timely pay them all wages due 22 during their employment, failed to timely pay them all wages due upon termination of their 23 employment, failed to provide them with accurate itemized wage statements, failed to maintain 24 accurate payroll records, and failed to reimburse them for necessary business expenses.

25 4. As a result, Defendants violated, inter alia, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 26 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the 27 applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order. Through this action, Plaintiffs seek 28 to recover all available remedies including but not limited to actual and liquidated damages and

1 attorney's fees and costs.

2 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3 5. This is a class action lawsuit brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
4 section 382 and a PAGA action brought pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.

5 6. The monetary damages, restitution, statutory penalties, and other applicable legal and 6 equitable relief sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and 7 will be established according to proof at trial.

8 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
9 Article VI, section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes" except
10 those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify 11 any other basis for jurisdiction.

12 8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief,
13 Defendants are either citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, and/or 14 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 15 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 16 substantial justice. Further, no federal question is at issue because the claims asserted herein are based 17 solely on California law.

18 9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
19 maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of California,
20 County of Los Angeles. Many of the acts, events, and violations alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs 21 occurred throughout the state of California, including in the County of Santa Cruz.

22 THE PARTIES

23 10. At all times herein mentioned, Plaintiff DANIEL HE is and was an individual residing 24 in Santa Cruz County in the State of California.

25 11. At all times herein mentioned, Plaintiff JONELLE VELASQUEZ is and was an 26 individual residing in Santa Cruz County in the State of California.

27 12. At all times herein mentioned, Defendant BAY PHOTO LAB INC., was and is, an 28 employer who does business in California, with locations throughout the state of California, and whose employees are engaged throughout Santa Cruz County and the State of California, including at 920 Disc. Drive, Scotts Valley, California 95066.

13. At all times herein mentioned, Defendant CIRCLE GRAPHICS, INC., was and is, an employer who does business in California, with locations throughout the state of California, and whose employees are engaged throughout Los Angeles County and the State of California, including at 311 Parkside Drive, San Fernando, California 91340.

14. Plaintiffs are unaware of the true names or capacities of the Defendants sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 25 but will seek leave of this Court to amend the complaint and serve such fictitiously named Defendants once their names and capacities become known.

15. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to BAY PHOTO LAB INC., CIRCLE GRAPHICS, INC., and/or DOES 1 through 25, each acting as the agent, employee, alter ego, and/or joint venturer of, or working in concert with, each of the other co-Defendants and within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity with legal authority to act on the others' behalf. The acts of Defendants represent and were in accordance with Defendants' official policies.

16. At all relevant times, Defendants were the employers of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes. Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

17. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiffs and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

18. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiffs and the other class members.

19. Defendants directly hired and paid wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

20. Defendants continue to employ hourly paid and/or non-exempt employees within the

1 State of California.

2 21. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, ratified each act or omission
3 complained of herein. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts
4 and omissions of each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

5 22. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each Defendant is in some 6 manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts, omissions, occurrences, and 7 transactions alleged herein.

8 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

9 23. DANIEL HE worked for Defendants from approximately October 2017 through 10 approximately July 2021 as a Lab Technician and Giclee Lead Technician. Defendants jointly and 11 severally employed DANIEL HE at their location in Scotts Valley, California. DANIEL HE performed
12 various duties for Defendants including, among other things, printing all in-house fine art, posters, 13 canvas, and photo prints during the night shift.

14 24. JONELLE VELASQUEZ worked for Defendants from approximately November 2017
15 through approximately April 2025 as an Invoice Technician and Giclee Printing Technician..
16 Defendants jointly and severally employed JONELLE VELASQUEZ at their location in Scotts Valley,
17 California. JONELLE VELASQUEZ performed various duties for Defendants including, among other 18 things, printing all in-house fine art, posters, canvas, and photo prints.

19 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege that Defendants engaged in a 20 pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees. As set 21 forth in more detail below, this pattern and practice of wage abuse involved, inter alia, requiring 22 Plaintiffs and the class members to work off-the-clock without compensation, failing to properly pay
23 wages for all hours worked, failing to provide all meal and rest breaks to which Plaintiffs and class
24 members were entitled and failing to pay meal and rest break premiums when due, failing to timely
25 pay wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide accurate wage
26 statements, failing to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and failing to adhere to other
27 related protections afforded by the California Labor Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare
28 Commission Wage Order.

26. Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and class members pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so to increase Defendants' profits.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27. Plaintiffs bring this lawsuit as a class action on behalf of Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated, as members of a proposed class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The class satisfies the numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy, predominance, and superiority requirements under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

28. The proposed Class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in the State of California at any time during the period from four years prior to the date of the filing of the original Complaint until final judgment.

29. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish additional subclasses as appropriate.

30. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the Class is easily ascertainable. While the exact number and identities of class members are currently unknown to Plaintiffs, such information can be ascertained through appropriate discovery from records maintained by Defendants and their agents.

31. The Class is so numerous that the individual joinder of all its members is impracticable.

32. Common questions of fact and law exist as to all class members, which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. The common legal and factual questions which do not vary from class member to class member, and which may be determined without reference to the individual circumstances of any class member include the following:

- i. Whether Defendants had a policy and practice of failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked;
- ii. Whether Defendants had a policy and practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all overtime hours worked;

- iii. Whether Defendants had a policy and practice of failing to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- iv. Whether Defendants had a policy and practice of failing to provide rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- v. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees in the State of California for all hours worked, and for all missed, short, late, and/or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks;
- vi. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members during their employment;
- vii. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- viii. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- ix. Whether Defendants failed to comply with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- x. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- xi. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- xii. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- xiii. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- xiv. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

33. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the Class, and Plaintiffs' interests are coincident with and not antagonistic to those of the other class members Plaintiffs seek to represent. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of the Class. Plaintiffs have retained attorneys experienced in the prosecution of class actions and Plaintiffs

1 intend to prosecute this action vigorously.

2 34. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
3 adjudication of this controversy since individual litigation of the claims of all class members is 4 impracticable. Even if every class member could afford individual litigation, the court system could
5 not. It would be unduly burdensome on the courts in which individual litigation of numerous cases
6 would proceed. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for varying, inconsistent
7 and/or contradictory judgments and would magnify the delay and expense to all parties and to the 8 court system resulting from multiple trials of the same factual and legal issues. By contrast, the conduct 9 of this action as a class action presents fewer management difficulties, conserves the resources of the 10 parties and of the court system, and protects the rights of each class member.

11 35. Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives.
12 Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are 13 often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class 14 actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the 15 vindication of their rights.

16 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

17 36. PAGA is and was applicable to Defendants' employment of Plaintiff Velasquez and 18 the Aggrieved Employees.

19 37. PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that 20 provides for a civil penalty, including unpaid wages and premium wages, to be assessed and collected
21 by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through 22 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves and other current or former 23 employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

24 38. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is 25 any person employed by the alleged violator and who suffered the violations alleged.

26 39. Plaintiff Velasquez and the other employees are "Aggrieved Employees" as defined by 27 California Labor Code section 2699(c).

28 a. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff Velasquez, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met: The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by certified mail (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the LWDA and the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (“LWDA Response”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Response, or if the LWDA Response is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

40. On January 17, 2024, Plaintiff Velasquez provided notice by electronic submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants regarding the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699.3. A true and correct copy of the Employee’s Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

41. Plaintiff Velasquez did not receive an LWDA Response within sixty-five calendar days of providing the Employee’s Notice.

42. Therefore, the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in addition to other remedies for violations of, inter alia, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210A, 218.5, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and all applicable IWC Wage Orders have been satisfied.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTIONS 1194, 1197, AND 1197.1

3 Failure to Pay Minimum Wage

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 43. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

6 44. California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage
7 for employees fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is the minimum wage to be paid to 8 employees, and the payment of a wage less than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. Plaintiffs and the 9 other class members were frequently suffered or permitted to work “off-the-clock”, such that they 10 were not paid minimum wage for all hours worked.

11 45. Such “off-the-clock” work that Plaintiffs and class members were suffered and/or 12 permitted to work, and for which Plaintiffs and class members did not receive minimum wage include
13 inter alia: requiring Plaintiffs and class members to respond to work-related communication before
14 and after scheduled shifts, requiring Plaintiffs and class members to complete Covid-19 related 15 temperature checks prior to clocking in, and to complete typical job duties after clocking out.

16 46. Moreover, Defendants had a policy, practice and procedure of rounding employee time
17 such that Plaintiffs and some or all class members were systematically unpaid and/or underpaid for 18 time worked over the course of their employment.

19 47. Accordingly, Defendants regularly failed to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiffs
20 and the other class members for all hours they worked in violation of California Labor Code sections 21 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

22 48. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were 23 performing such work “off-the-clock” because, among other things, Defendants’ management
24 witnessed, authorized, was made aware of, and/or required Plaintiffs and class members to perform 25 such work.

26 49. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the minimum wage
27 as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections,
28 Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum

1 wage compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees.

2 50. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the other class
3 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid
4 and interest thereon.

5 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

6 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTIONS 510 AND 1198

7 Unpaid Overtime

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 51. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

10 52. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
11 ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons for extended periods of time
12 without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 13 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily and/or weekly basis.

14 53. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants were required
15 to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in 16 excess of eight (8) hours in a day, in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek and/or the first eight 17 (8) hours worked on the seventh consecutive day in a workweek.

18 54. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants were required to pay
19 Plaintiffs and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two (2) times their regular 20 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and/or for all hours worked in 21 excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day in a workweek.

22 55. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-
23 and-one half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty
24 (40) hours in a week, or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime
25 compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day
26 or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

27 56. Plaintiffs and the other class members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in 28 a day, in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day, in excess of forty (40) hours in a week and/or seven (7)

consecutive days in a workweek. However, Defendants did not accurately record Plaintiffs and the other class members' actual hours worked and intentionally and willfully failed to pay all overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members. Defendants' failure to pay correct overtime wages included, inter alia: (a) when the combined total of the off-the-clock work discussed supra and the on-the-clock work exceed the number of hours that trigger the payment of overtime wages under Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and/or the applicable Wage Order; (b) when Defendants intentionally, willfully and/or negligently mischaracterized overtime as straight time; (c) when Defendants assigned more work than could reasonably be completed in a workday or workweek to Plaintiffs and class members, but refused to authorize the overtime necessary for them to complete the assigned work; and (d) when Defendants failed to include all required wages and remuneration when calculating setting the overtime rate.

57. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members as outlined above violates California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and the applicable Wage Order and is therefore unlawful.

58. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover their unpaid overtime compensation, and interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTIONS 226.7 AND 512

Meal Break Violations

(Against All Defendants)

59. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

60. California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) and the applicable Wage Order govern Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

61. California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal period mandated by an applicable IWC Order.

62. The applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

63. The applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause, or permit an employee to work a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

64. Plaintiffs and the other class members who were scheduled to work for shifts no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

65. Plaintiffs and the other class members who were scheduled to work for shifts in excess of ten (10) hours but no longer than twelve (12) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

66. Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members for work performed during meal periods. This includes, among other things, requiring Plaintiffs and class members to work through their lunch breaks, permitting and/or requiring Plaintiffs and class members to take late lunch breaks, permitting and/or requiring Plaintiffs and class members to take short lunch breaks, interrupting and/or allowing others to interrupt Plaintiffs and class members during their lunch breaks, failing to relieve Plaintiffs and class members of all duties during their lunch breaks, and restricting Plaintiffs and class members from leaving the premises during their lunch breaks.

67. Further, because of Defendants' rounding policy, meal breaks were at times incorrectly recorded as compliant, when in reality they were untimely and/or cut short.

68. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7 and 512 and

1 the applicable Wage Order.

2 69. Defendants' conduct therefore violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
3 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

4 70. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
5 226.7(b), Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional
6 hour of pay at their regular rate of compensation for each workday that a compliant meal
7 period was not provided as well as interest thereon.

8 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTION 226.7

10 Rest Break Violations

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 71. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

13 72. California Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order govern
14 Plaintiffs and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

15 73. California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an 16 employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

17 74. The applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and 18 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each
19 work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate
20 of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily 21 work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours."

22 75. Defendants routinely required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work three and 23 one-half (3 ½) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a compliant ten (10) minute rest period
24 per each four (4) hour period, or major fraction thereof, worked.

25 76. Moreover, Defendants willfully required, suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the 26 other class members to work during what should have been their rest periods. Defendants also failed
27 to relieve Plaintiffs and the other class members of all duties for ten (10) minutes as required for 28 compliant rest breaks.

77. As a result, Plaintiffs worked through rest periods, took late rest periods, took interrupted rest periods, and/or took short rest periods, if at all.

78. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to recover from Defendants one (1) additional hour of pay at their regular hourly rate of compensation for each workday that compliant rest period(s) were not provided.

79. Defendants had no policy or practice to pay a premium when rest periods were missed, short, late, and/or interrupted, or otherwise failed to comply with California law, and thus Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the full rest period premium due to them in violation of California Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

80. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(c), Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of compensation for each workday complaint rest period(s) were not provided as well as interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE §§ 204 AND 210

Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

(Against All Defendants)

81. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

82. California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

83. California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

84. California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

85. As a result of the violations set forth in detail above (failure to pay overtime, failure to pay minimum wages, meal break violations and rest break violations), Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to timely pay Plaintiffs and other class members all wages due to them within the period permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

86. Plaintiffs and other class members are entitled to recover all available remedies for Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 204, including statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 210(b).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTION 226(a)

Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements

(Against All Defendants)

87. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

88. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of its employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing, including, but not limited to, the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, total hours worked, and all applicable hourly rates.

89. As a result of the violations set forth in detail above (failure to pay overtime, failure to pay minimum wages, meal break violations and rest break violations), Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to state all hours worked, the failure to state the actual gross wages earned, the failure to include meal and rest break premiums, and the failure to include correct rates of pay. Accordingly, Defendants violated California Labor Code 226(a).

90. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiffs and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

91. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal

1 right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under
2 California Labor Code section 226(a). In addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate
3 number of total hours worked on wage statements, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been 4 prevented by Defendants from determining if all hours worked were paid and the extent of the 5 underpayment. Plaintiffs had to file this lawsuit, and will further have to conduct discovery,
6 reconstruct time records, and perform computations in order to analyze whether in fact Plaintiffs and 7 the other class members were paid correctly and the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing 8 Plaintiffs to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiffs would not have had to engage in these efforts and 9 incur these costs had Defendants provided the accurate number of total hours worked. This has also 10 delayed Plaintiffs' ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

11 92. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 12 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code
13 section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000).

14 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTIONS 201, 202, AND 203

16 Final Wages Not Timely Paid

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 93. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

19 94. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203, Defendants are required
20 to timely pay all earned and unpaid wages to an employee who is discharged. California Labor Code 21 section 201 mandates that if an employer discharges an employee, the employee's wages accrued and 22 unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202
23 mandates that if an employee quits, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 24 seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of 25 his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of 26 quitting.

27 95. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay,
28 in accordance with California Labor Code sections 201 and 202, any wages of an employee who is

1 discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date
2 thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is commenced; but the wages shall not
3 continue for more than thirty (30) days.

4 96. As a result of the violations set forth in detail above (failure to pay overtime, failure to 5 pay minimum wages, meal break violations and rest break violations), at the time that Plaintiffs and
6 the other class members' employment with Defendants ended, Defendants knowingly and willfully
7 failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages owed to them pursuant to California
8 Labor Code sections 201 and 202, including, without limitation, overtime wages, minimum wages,
9 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages, and all wages due to Plaintiffs and class
10 members as they became due, as required per California Labor Code sections 204.

11 97. As a result, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to all available
12 statutory penalties, including the waiting time penalties provided in California Labor Code section 13 203, together with interest thereon, as well as other available remedies.

14 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2800 AND 2802

16 Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 98. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

19 99. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 20 reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence
21 of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct 22 consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

23 100. Plaintiffs and the other class members incurred necessary business-related expenses
24 and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

25 101. Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class
26 members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiffs and the other class members
27 are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the 28 course and scope of employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which Plaintiffs and the other

1 class members incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in 2 the State of California.

3 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 VIOLATION OF CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE §§ 17200 *ET. SEQ.

5 Unfair and Unlawful Business Practices

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 102. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

8 103. Each and every one of Defendants' acts and omissions in violation of the California
9 Labor Code and/or the applicable IWC Wage Order as alleged in this Complaint including but not 10 limited to Defendant's failure and refusal to pay overtime compensation, Defendant's failure and 11 refusal to pay minimum wages, Defendants' failure and refusal to provide required meal periods and/or 12 pay meal period premiums, Defendants' failure and refusal to provide required rest periods and/or pay
13 the required rest break premiums, Defendants' failure to timely pay wages at the correct rate during 14 employment, Defendants' failure and refusal to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, 15 Defendants' failure and refusal to reimburse business-related expenses, and Defendants' failure to 16 timely pay wages upon termination constitutes an unfair and unlawful business practice under 17 California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

18 104. Defendants' violations of California wage and hour laws constitute an unfair and 19 unlawful business practice because. Among other things, they were done repeatedly over a significant 20 period of time, and in a systematic manner, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and the other class members.

21 105. Defendants have avoided payment of overtime wages, minimum wages, meal period
22 premiums, rest period premiums, timely wages at the correct rate of pay, and other benefits as required
23 by the California Labor Code, the California Code of Regulations, and the applicable IWC Wage
24 Order. Further, Defendants have failed to record, report, and pay the correct sums of assessment to the 25 state authorities under the California Labor Code and other applicable regulations.

26 106. As a result of Defendants' unfair and unlawful business practices, Defendants have 27 reaped unfair and illegal profits during Plaintiffs and the other class members' tenure at the expense
28 of Plaintiffs, the other class members, and members of the public. Defendants should be made to

1 disgorge their ill-gotten gains and to restore them to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

2 107. Defendants' unfair and unlawful business practices entitle Plaintiffs and the other class
3 members to seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, including but not limited to orders that
4 Defendants account for, disgorge, and restore to Plaintiffs and the other class members the wages and 5 other compensation unlawfully withheld from them. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled 6 to restitution of all monies to be disgorged from Defendants in an amount according to proof at the 7 time of trial.

8 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 VIOLATION OF CAL. LABOR CODE §§ 2699, *ET SEQ.

10 California Private Attorneys General Act

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 108. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

13 109. Plaintiff Velasquez brings this action on a representative basis on behalf of other
14 Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, in Plaintiff Velasquez' capacity as a private attorney
15 general pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq.

16 110. PAGA expressly provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for 17 violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision
18 of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce
19 Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or 20 employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action
21 brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 22 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

23 111. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
24 agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil action is authorized to 25 exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

26 112. Plaintiff Velasquez and the other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees are "Aggrieved 27 Employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c).

28 113. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, violates numerous sections of the California

Labor Code, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Violation of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 for failure to pay overtime wages, as set forth more fully above;
- b. Violation of California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 for failure to pay minimum wages, as set forth more fully above;
- c. Violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) for failure to provide legally required meal periods, as set forth more fully above;
- d. Violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) for failure to pay required meal period premiums, as set forth more fully above;
- e. Violation of California Labor Code section 226.7 for failure to provide legally required rest periods, as set forth more fully above;
- f. Violation of California Labor Code section 226.7 for failure to pay required rest period premiums, as set forth more fully above;
- g. Violation of California Labor Code section 204 for failure to timely pay wages to Plaintiff Velasquez and Aggrieved Employees during employment, as set forth more fully above;
- h. Violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 for failure to pay all wages at time of discharge from employment, as set forth more fully above;
- i. Violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) for failure to provide accurate wage statements to Plaintiff Velasquez and Aggrieved Employees, as set forth more fully above;
- j. Violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d) for failure to keep complete and accurate payroll records relating to Plaintiff Velasquez and Aggrieved Employees; and
- k. Violation of California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse Plaintiff Velasquez and Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-related expenses, as set forth more fully above

114. Pursuant to PAGA, and in particular California Labor Code sections 2699(a), 2699.3, and 2699.5, Plaintiff Velasquez, acting in the public interest as a private attorney general, seeks

1 assessment and collection of civil penalties for herself, all Aggrieved Employees, and the State of
2 California against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections set forth herein,
3 including penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3, 1174.5,
4 and 1197.1, penalties under the applicable IWC Wage Order, and any and all additional penalties and 5 remedies as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

6 115. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(m), civil penalties recovered by 7 Aggrieved Employees shall be distributed as follows: seventy-five percent (75%) to the LWDA for 8 the enforcement of labor laws and education of employers and employees about their rights and 9 responsibilities and twenty-five (25%) to the Aggrieved Employees.

10 116. Plaintiff Velasquez retained counsel to file this court action, and to assess and collect
11 the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff Velasquez therefore seeks an award of reasonable 12 attorney's fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210, 218.5, and 2699(g)(1), and 13 any other applicable statute.

14 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

15 Plaintiffs, on behalf of all others similarly situated, and other aggrieved employees pursuant to 16 PAGA, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

17 Class Certification

- 18 1. That this action be certified as a class action as to the first nine causes of action;
19 2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representatives of the Class;
20 3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel; and 21 4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel the names and most current/last known 22 contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.

23 As to the First Cause of Action

24 5. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
25 Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the 26 other class members;

- 27 6. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;
28 7. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for

1 Plaintiffs and the other class members in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

2 8. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts
3 were due;

4 9. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California
5 Labor Code section 1194(a);

6 10. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2;

7 11. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

8 As to the Second Cause of Action

9 12. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
10 Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime
11 wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

12 13. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special 13 damages as may be appropriate;

14 14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from 15 the date such amounts were due;

16 15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California
17 Labor Code section 1194;

18 16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

19 As to the Third Cause of Action

20 17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
21 Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all meal
22 periods, (including second meal periods) to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

23 18. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

24 19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

25 20. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

26 21. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein;

27 22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

24. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

25. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

27. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

28. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time required by California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiffs and the Class;

29. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 210;

30. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

31. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Order as to Plaintiffs and the other class members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements to them;

32. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

33. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e);

34. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g);

35. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

36. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members no longer employed by Defendants;

- 1 37. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;
- 2 38. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for Plaintiffs
- 3 and the other class members who have left Defendants' employ;
- 4 39. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date due;
- 5 40. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

6 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

7 41. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor

8 Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members

9 for all necessary business-related expenses as required by California Labor Code sections 2800 and

10 2802;

- 11 42. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;
- 12 43. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;
- 13 44. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and
- 14 45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

15 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

16 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the following

17 California Labor Code sections as to Plaintiffs and the other class members: 510 and 1198 (by failing 18 to pay overtime wages); 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 (by failing to pay minimum wages); 226.7 and 512(a)

19 (by failing to provide meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof); 204 (by failing to timely 20 pay wages during employment); 226(a) (by failing to provide accurate wage statements); and 201, 21 202, and 203 (by failing to pay all wages owed upon termination); and 2800 and 2802 (by failing to 22 reimburse business-related expenses);

23 47. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all the other class members and all pre-

24 judgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

25 48. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds

26 disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a

27 result of violation of California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

- 28 49. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California

1 Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5; and

2 50. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
3 Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.

4 As to the Tenth Cause of Action

5 51. For the imposition of civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699,
6 210, 558, 226, 226.3, 1174.5, and 1197.1 and all other penalties allowed by the California Labor Code
7 and/or other applicable statutes.

8 52. For injunctive relief;

9 53. For statutory attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to sections 210, 218.5, and 2699(g)(1)
10 of the California Labor Code; and 11 54. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.

RE: Jonelle Velasquez v. Bay Photo Lab Inc., Circle Graphics, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

This office represents Jonelle Velasquez (“Claimant”) with respect to their claims under the California Labor Code against Bay Photo Lab Inc. and Circle Graphics, Inc. (including all affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, directors, and officers) (collectively referred to herein as “Employers”). This letter is being sent simultaneously to Employers by certified mail.

Employers employed Jonelle Velasquez from approximately November 2017 to the present as a non-exempt, hourly-paid employee. Jonelle Velasquez worked as an Invoice Technician and Giclee Printing Technician for Employers and was based out of Employers’ facility located at 920 Disc Drive Scotts Valley, California, 95066.

Claimant intends to bring a representative action seeking penalties for violations of the California Labor Code which are recoverable under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). Claimant is seeking penalties on behalf of his or herself and in a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Employers in the State of California during the relevant statutory period (“Aggrieved Employees”). This letter is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code section 2699.3 and shall serve as Claimant’s notice of the provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support thereof.

As detailed below, Employers violated several of California’s wage and hour laws during Claimant’s employment, including but not limited to California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order (“IWC Wage Order”).

The claims made on behalf of Claimant and Aggrieved Employees are based upon the following facts and theories:

1. FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL TIME WORKED AT CORRECT RATES OF PAY, INCLUDING MINIMUM WAGES, STRAIGHT TIME WAGES, AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

Employers engaged in numerous unlawful practices which resulted in the failure to pay Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees for all time worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 and the applicable IWC Wage Order require employers to pay at least the legal minimum wage to their employees. California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order further require employers to pay no less than one and one-half times an employee's regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek, and to pay no less than twice an employee's regular rate of pay of the employee for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek.

Throughout the relevant time, Employers regularly required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock prior to clocking-in and/or after clocking-out for their shifts. Employers failed to compensate Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees for any of this off-the-clock work, in violation of California law.

This uncompensated work often resulted in the total number of hours worked by Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees exceeding the daily and/or weekly triggers for overtime wages, yet Employers failed to pay Claimant and Aggrieved Employees applicable overtime rate(s) for these hours.

Employers also failed to accurately record the actual time worked by Claimant and Aggrieved Employees. In addition, Employers utilized time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages (including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages) to Claimant and Aggrieved Employees.

Employers also failed to pay overtime to Claimant and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration, including non-discretionary commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, and non-discretionary performance pay.

As a result of the foregoing practices, Employers failed to pay Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees for all wages earned at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

2. MEAL BREAK VIOLATIONS

California law requires employers to provide employees with an opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes before the end of the fifth hour of work when an employee works more than five (5) hours in a day. Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512(a). Employers must provide a second meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes before the end of the tenth hour of work when an employee works more than ten (10) hours in a day. Id. For each day that an employer fails to provide compliant meal period(s), the employer must pay the employee a meal penalty equal to one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation. Id.

During the relevant time period, Employers failed to provide Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant 30-minute meal periods. Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were required by Employers to work more than five (5) hours per day but were not provided with uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods. Further, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted 30-minute meal period when they worked over ten (10) hours per day. Employers regularly required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to work through their first and second meal periods, to take their first meal period after their fifth (5th) hour of work, and/or to take their second meal periods after their tenth (10th) hour of work. Meal breaks, when provided, were oftentimes interrupted and/or cut short.

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, complete and duty-free meal periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods or systematically disregarded their own purported meal period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant meal period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant meal periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (6) Employers required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to respond to work-related requests at all times, including during meal periods; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods because of the priority placed on maximizing profits over employees' right to receive timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods.

Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7, 512(a) and 1198.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph of the applicable IWC Wage Orders; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

3. REST BREAK VIOLATIONS

California law requires employers to authorize and permit employees to take an uninterrupted rest period of no less than ten (10) minutes for every four (4) hours, or major fraction thereof, worked. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7. For each day that an employer fails to authorize and permit a compliant rest period, the employer owes the employee one hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7(c).

Employers failed to authorize and permit Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to take compliant 10-minute rest periods. Employers required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods. Claimant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods when they worked more than four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof. Further, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted, duty-free rest period when they worked more than six (6) hours in a day, or a third uninterrupted, duty-free rest period after working more than ten (10) hours in day. In the rare event that a rest period was taken, it was frequently interrupted or cut short. Moreover, Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not completely relieved of duty as required by Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257 (2016).

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and complete rest periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods or systematically disregarded its own purported rest period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant rest period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant rest periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (6) Employers required Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees to respond to work-related requests at all times, including during rest periods; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive rest periods.

Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for each day a rest period was not provided to them in compliance with California law. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders; Labor Code sections 558 and 1199 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

4. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Employers failed to timely pay all wages earned because Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, minimum wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 204(a).

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

5. FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

California Labor Code section 226(a) requires an employer semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages to furnish wage statements to its employees setting forth, inter alia, (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, and (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer.

As a result of the practices described above, the wage statements provided to Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees failed to include the actual hours worked (including time spent working off-the-clock), the actual gross wages earned (including wages owed for time spent working off the clock and meal and rest period premiums), and the correct rates of pay. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 226(a).

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.3; and attorneys' fees and costs.

6. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, Employers have failed to maintain accurate records relating to Claimant and other Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, and total hours worked per payroll period. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 1198.5 and 1174(d).

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph of the applicable IWC Wage Orders; California Labor Code section 1174.5 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

7. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY EXPENDITURES

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. The applicable IWC Wage Order requires employers to provide employees with the tools or equipment necessary for the performance of their job. During the relevant time period, Claimant and Aggrieved Employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Employers.

Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802. Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph of the applicable IWC Wage Orders; and attorneys' fees and costs.

8. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL WAGES UPON TERMINATION

California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

During the relevant time period, upon the termination of employment (including but not limited to when they were temporarily laid off, laid off, discharged, and/or resigned), Employers failed to pay all wages due to their employees within twenty-four (24) hours of termination or even within seventy-two (72) hours for those who resigned. Specifically, as a result of Employers' practices of requiring Claimant and Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation, failing to pay proper overtime compensation, unlawful rounding practices, failure to properly calculate regular rates, and failure to accurately record all hours actually worked, Employers failed to pay Claimant and Aggrieved Employees for all straight time wage, minimum wages and overtime compensation owed to them upon termination of their employment. Employers also failed to pay Claimant and Aggrieved Employees for meal period premiums and rest period premiums they were owed, amongst other wages. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

Claimant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 203 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

9. EMPLOYER'S OTHER VIOLATIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE

Finally, pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 25 Cal.App.5th 745 ("Huff"), as an Aggrieved Employee, Claimant has standing, and intends to pursue civil penalties on behalf of the LWDA against Employers for any and all other Labor Code violations committed by Employers. In Huff, the California Court of Appeals held that an employee alleging a single violation of the Labor Code under PAGA may also bring PAGA claims against Employer for all other alleged Labor Code violations, even those suffered by other employees of the same employer. According to the Huff decision, Claimant, as an "aggrieved" employee affected by at least one Labor Code violation may, and hereby does, pursue penalties on behalf of LWDA for all Labor Code violations by Employer.

Employers are in direct violation of numerous California wage and hour laws including but not limited to said sections stated above. Claimant hereby provides notice to the LWDA under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698, et seq., and specifically asks for an investigation, or if the agency does not intend to investigate the alleged violations, a letter confirming the same so that Claimant may allege a cause of action under PAGA against Employers for the violations discussed in this letter.

This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3. By law, an employee alleging a violation of one of the above referenced sections must notify his or her employer and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) before he or she can invoke the provisions of Sections 2699, et seq., by seeking redress in court. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(1). The LWDA must then notify the employer and the employee within 60 calendar days regarding whether it intends to investigate the alleged violation. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(B). If the LWDA advises it will not investigate, or if no notice is provided within 65 calendar days, the employee may file a lawsuit invoking the provisions under Labor Code § 2699. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A). It is Claimant's intention to file a civil complaint and to bring the appropriate claims under California Labor Code § 2699 on behalf of themselves, the State of California and all Aggrieved Employees should your office not address Employers' alleged violations within this timeframe.
