1 Plaintiff VICTOR MANUEL RAMIREZ (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all others
2 similarly situated, the State of California, and the general public, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants HERC
5 RENTALS INC., a Delaware corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, (collectively referred 6 to as “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and California Business and 7 Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 8 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 9 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
- 10 c. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all 11 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
- 12 d. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 13 e. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 14 f. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 15 g. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 16 h. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures; and
- 17 i. failed to pay them all their final wages following separation of employment.

18 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 19 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties, 20 restitution, and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

21 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary 23 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 24 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

25 3. Venue is proper in the County of San Francisco pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
26 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions
27 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found, 28 maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

4. Venue is proper in San Francisco County because Defendants' have at all times alleged herein, conducted business in an Francisco County, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper in any county in California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff VICTOR MANUEL RAMIREZ is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant HERC RENTALS, INC. is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a Delaware corporation doing business in the State of California.

7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners, directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such other defendants.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged herein.

10. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code

1 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 2 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 3 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

4 11. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period 5 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- 6 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 7 separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or 8 non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and 9 ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee 10 Class”).
- 11 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 12 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action 13 and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 14 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 15 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of 16 this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 17 d. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 18 separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning 19 three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is 20 entered.
- 21 e. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during 22 the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final 23 judgment is entered.
- 24 f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in 25 California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- 26 g. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class
27 members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the 28 filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

12. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes and/or by limitation to particular issues.

13. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

1 14. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all
2 class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members.

3 These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- 4 a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 5 employees with their rest periods;
- 6 b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 7 employees with their meal periods;
- 8 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they 9 have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- 10 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class 11 members for all time worked;
- 12 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage 13 statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with 14 inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and 15 total hours worked;
- 16 f. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or 17 incomplete final wage payments;
- 18 g. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business 19 expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- 20 h. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under 21 Labor Code section 203; and
- 22 i. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that 23 Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

24 15. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff
25 is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing
26 to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this 27 Complaint.

28 16. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and

1 has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members
2 and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and 3 adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

4 17. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that 5 they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in 6 wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf
7 of Plaintiff and absent class members.

8 18. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and 9 efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the 10 Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and 11 efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of 12 effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts 13 due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it
14 difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a 15 class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue
16 the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent 17 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

18 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19 19. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 20 statutory periods.

21 20. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
22 and Class members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. First, 23 Defendants implemented an unlawful time-rounding policy and practice which rounded down and 24 reduced the actual working hours recorded by Plaintiff and Class Members, and upon which their pay 25 was based, and generally did so to the detriment of the Plaintiff and Class Members, and these 26 unlawfully rounded time entries were inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage 27 statements and payroll checks were created. Defendants did so with the ostensible intent of paying 28 Plaintiff and Class members only for the hours they were scheduled to work, rather than the hours

1 they were actually under Defendants' control. Plaintiff contends this policy is not neutral and results,
2 over time, to the detriment of the Plaintiff and Class members by systematically undercompensating 3 them.

4 21. Next, Plaintiff and Class Members were also consistently required to perform work,
5 off-the-clock, for which they were not paid wages. First, Plaintiff and Class Members were required 6 to perform work duties prior to clocking in, including: helping customers who were waiting at the 7 gate upon arrival to work; unloading trucks; and booting up their work computers, as well as the ADP
8 software, in order to clock in. Plaintiff and Class Members were also required to keep working after 9 clocking out from their shifts, including having to answer phone calls.

10 22. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through their 11 unpaid meal periods, including having to perform work related duties, unload trucks, as well as keep 12 and monitor company-issued radios throughout their unpaid meal periods.

13 23. Lastly, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to be on call every other weekend.
14 Defendants required that Plaintiff and Class Members take their work cellular phones with them at 15 the end of the workweek and monitor them constantly throughout the weekend. Additionally, Plaintiff 16 and Class Members were required to remain within a 30-mile radius from the place of their 17 employment during the weekends when they were on call. On multiple occasions, Plaintiff and Class 18 Members received and responded to work-related telephone calls during the weekends when they 19 were on call.

20 24. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the direction and control of 21 Defendants, for which no wages were paid. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class
22 Members to work in excess of eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40)
23 hours a week, entitling Plaintiff and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they 24 were systemically denied.

25 25. Defendants also failed to Plaintiff and Class Members overtime wages at the proper 26 and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members earned commissions, 27 and performance-based non-discretionary bonuses in addition to their hourly pay. However, these 28 supplemental earnings were not accounted for when determining Plaintiff and Class Members'

1 regular rates of pay, and respective and proper overtime rates of pay.

2 26. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and
3 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
4 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the 5 opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work.
6 Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the opportunity to take a second timely meal
7 period prior to the completion of their tenth hour of work. Furthermore, Plaintiff and Class Members 8 were not relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal periods and were required to keep working 9 during meal breaks including having to carry and monitor their radios and walkie-talkies during their 10 meal and rest periods. This policy cause both the interruption and the shortening of the meal and rest 11 periods that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to in accordance with California law.

12 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
13 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal 14 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 15 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
16 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 17 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

18 28. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 19 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
20 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
21 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
22 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
23 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
24 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants'
25 policy and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks 26 due to the excessive workload, including monitoring their radios and walkie-talkies.

27 29. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 28 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

1 30. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 2 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage 3 statements as “a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or 4 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing.”
5 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in “ink
6 or other indelible form.”

7 31. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as “gross wages 8 earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

9 32. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as “total hours worked 10 by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 11 not included.

12 33. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned”
13 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

14 34. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(8) as the wage statements
15 issues to Plaintiff and Class Members failed to state “the name and address of the legal entity that is 16 the employer.”

17 35. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable
18 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 19 hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 20 overtime, were not included.

21 36. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay 22 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
23 Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation 24 of Labor Code § 226.

25 37. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 26 executing their duties under Defendants’ employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were 27 required to use their personal cellular phone for work-related activities prior to the issuance of work 28 cell phones several months into their employment with Defendants. Plaintiff and Class members were

1 not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

4 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

5 (Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

6 38. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if 7 fully alleged herein.

8 39. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been 9 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
10 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

11 40. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
12 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
13 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
14 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 15 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

16 41. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
17 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work 18 during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 19 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

20 42. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
21 Code section 200.

22 43. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 23 violate the applicable Wage Order.

24 44. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

25 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than 26 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 27 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete 28 the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an ‘on duty’ meal period and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal

1 period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an 2 employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written 3 agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

4 45. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
5 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
6 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

7 46. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
8 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
9 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
10 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and the applicable Wage Order.
11 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class
12 members were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth 13 hour of work. Additionally, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were denied the 14 opportunity to take a second timely meal period prior to the completion of their tenth hour of work.
15 Furthermore, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were not relieved of all work duties 16 during unpaid meal periods and were required to keep working during meal breaks including having 17 to carry and monitor their radios and walkie-talkies during their meal and rest periods. This policy
18 cause both the interruption and the shortening of the meal and rest periods that Plaintiff and Meal
19 Period Sub-Class members were entitled to in accordance with California law

20 47. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members to 21 work through their unpaid meal periods, including having to perform work related duties, unload 22 trucks, as well as keep and monitor company-issued radios throughout their unpaid meal periods.

23 48. Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were not provided with meal periods
24 of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not 25 scheduling each meal period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that 26 encouraged employees to take their meal periods, or that advised Meal Period Sub-Class members
27 of their meal and rest period rights; and (3) Defendants' practice of requiring Meal Period Sub-Class
28 members to continue working through their meal and rest periods due to the excessive workload.

49. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

50. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten (10) or more hours and failed to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

51. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

52. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and costs of suit.

54. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

(Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

(Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

55. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

56. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor Code and the applicable Wage Order.

57. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on

1 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten 2 (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must 3 be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

4 58. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 5 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 6 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each 7 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

8 59. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
9 Code section 200.

10 60. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 11 violate the Wage Order.

12 61. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
13 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
14 with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or 15 major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

16 62. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 17 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
18 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 19 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 20 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Plaintiff and Rest Period
21 Sub-Class members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring 22 Rest Period Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive 23 workload, including monitoring their radios and walkie-talkies.

24 63. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class
25 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

26 64. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself 27 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 28 costs of suit.

1 65. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the
2 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest
3 Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

6 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

7 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

8 66. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
9 herein.

10 67. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 11 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 12 applicable Wage Order.

13 68. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines "hours worked" as "the time during 14 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee 15 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so."

16 69. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
17 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours 18 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

19 70. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 20 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 21 Order.

22 71. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
23 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition 24 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

25 72. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less 26 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 27 payroll period.

28 73. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other

1 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 2 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

3 74. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 4 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

5 75. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned
6 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer 7 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 8 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

9 76. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 10 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

11 77. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees 12 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 13 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all 14 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours 15 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

16 78. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 17 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their respective 18 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for all 19 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

20 79. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied 21 centrally devised policies and practices to him and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 22 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

23 80. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
24 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 25 statutory and/or agreed rates.

26 81. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 27 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. First, Defendants implemented an unlawful 28 time-rounding policy and practice which rounded down and reduced the actual working hours

1 recorded by Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class, and upon which their pay was based, and 2 generally did so to the detriment of the Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class, and these unlawfully
3 rounded time entries were inputted into Defendants' payroll system from which wage statements and 4 payroll checks were created. Defendants did so with the ostensible intent of paying Plaintiff and 5 Hourly Employee Class members only for the hours they were scheduled to work, rather than the 6 hours they were actually under Defendants' control. Plaintiff contends this policy is not neutral and 7 results, over time, to the detriment of the Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members by 8 systematically undercompensating them.

9 82. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were consistently required to perform
10 work, off-the-clock for which they were not paid wages. First, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
11 members were required to perform work duties prior to clocking in, including: helping customers
12 who were waiting at the gate upon arrival to work; unloading trucks; and booting up their work
13 computers, as well as the ADP software, in order to clock in. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class 14 members were also required to keep working after clocking out from their shifts, including having to 15 answer phone calls.

16 83. Additionally, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were required to be on 17 call every other weekend. Defendants required that Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members
18 take their work cellular phones with them at the end of the workweek and monitor them constantly
19 throughout the weekend. Additionally, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were required 20 to remain within a 30-mile radius from the place of their employment during the weekends when they 21 were on call. On multiple occasions, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members received and 22 responded to work-related telephone calls during the weekends when they were on call.

23 84. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 24 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, 25 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 26 they were systemically denied.

27 85. Defendants also failed to Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members overtime
28 wages at the proper and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee

1 Class members earned commissions, and performance-based non-discretionary bonuses in addition
2 to their hourly pay. However, these supplemental earnings were not accounted for when determining 3 Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members' regular rates of pay, and respective and proper 4 overtime rates of pay.

5 86. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
6 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 7 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period, 8 including overtime wages.

9 87. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 10 behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid straight time and 11 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

12 88. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 13 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 14 Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

15 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

17 (Lab. Code § 226)

18 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

19 89. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
20 herein.

21 90. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

22 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, 23 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the 24 check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if 25 wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized
26 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 27 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the 28 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a

1 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that 2 is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 3 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the 4 legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all 5 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 6 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 7 employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 8 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the 9 total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California. For purposes of this subdivision, ‘copy’ includes a duplicate of the itemized statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

10 91. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) has sought to harmonize the 11 “detachable part of the check” provision and the “accurate itemized statement in writing” provision
12 of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee 13 retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with 14 electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic 15 statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

16 92. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
17 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members
18 with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class
19 members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages 20 described above.

21 93. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
22 Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE
23 Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Wage Statement Class members’ wage statements were only 24 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

25 94. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(8) as the wage statements
26 issues to Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class Members failed to state “the name and address of the 27 legal entity that is the employer.”

28 95. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failure to provide Plaintiff and

1 Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that
2 Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally
3 provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor
4 Code section 226(a).

5 96. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that 6 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
7 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
8 statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required
9 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 10 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 11 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 12 agencies.

13 97. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage
14 Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in 15 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period 16 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 17 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

18 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

20 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

21 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

22 98. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
23 herein.

24 99. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 25 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages 26 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

27 100. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been 28 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

1 101. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have 2 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to 3 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

4 102. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
5 limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class
6 members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

7 103. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
8 limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time
9 Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code 10 sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

11 104. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to 12 timely pay all final wages to him and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been willful
13 in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201
14 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those 15 requirements.

16 105. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 17 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their 18 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

19 106. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
20 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
21 Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

22 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

24 (Lab. Code § 2802)

25 (Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

26 107. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 27 herein.

28 108. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

1 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
2 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence 3 of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the 4 directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, 5 at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

6 109. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 7 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff
8 and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to use their personal cellular phone for 9 work-related activities prior to the issuance of work cell phones several months into their employment
10 with Defendants. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 11 these necessary work-related expenses.

12 110. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 13 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 14 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

15 111. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 16 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 17 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 UNFAIR COMPETITION

20 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

21 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

22 112. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
23 herein.

24 113. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines "unfair competition" to include 25 any unlawful business practice.

26 114. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
27 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code 28 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

115. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours

1 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable should 2 know that employees have worked.

3 116. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,
4 THIRD, and SIXTH, causes of action herein.

5 117. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

6 118. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

7 119. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
8 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225,
9 226.6, 226.7, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 2802
10 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the violations alleged 11 herein.

12 120. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
13 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt
14 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; pay for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay;
15 and reimbursement for necessary business expenditures.

16 121. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 17 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
18 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows 19 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 20 unlawful or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on his own behalf and on behalf of 21 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

22 122. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
23 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
24 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

25 123. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 26 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

27 124. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, 28 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in

1 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

2 125. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
3 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act
4 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

5 126. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
6 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
7 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
8 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

9 127. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
10 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
11 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
12 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 13 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 14 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission 15 Wage Orders.

16 128. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 17 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
18 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 19 and unfair business practices.

20 129. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
21 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
22 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

23 130. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 24 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
25 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 26 and unfair business practices.

27 131. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
28 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover

1 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

2 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 CIVIL PENALTIES

4 (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

5 132. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

6 133. During the applicable limitations period, Defendants have violated Labor Code §§
7 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 515, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185,
8 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.¹

9 134. Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself
10 and other current and former employees, to bring a representative civil action to recover civil penalties
11 pursuant to the procedures set forth in Labor Code § 2699.3 that may, but need not, be brought or 12 maintained as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13 135. Plaintiff, a former employee against whom Defendants committed one or more of the 14 alleged Labor Code violations during the applicable limitations period, is an aggrieved employee
15 within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699(c). Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt 16 hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of 17 Defendants within the state of California from one year prior to the date of this letter and continuing 18 through the present (Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are collectively referred to herein as 19 "Aggrieved Employees")

20 136. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code §
21 2699.3. Notice was provided to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA")
22 and 65 days have elapsed without the LWDA providing Plaintiff with any notice of an intent to 23 investigate.

24 137. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff seeks the following civil 25 _____

26 ¹ Plaintiff hereby reserves the right to seek penalties on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, for 27 Defendants' violations of the applicable provisions of the Labor Code, suffered by Aggrieved 28 Employees, but not directly suffered by Plaintiff under Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc.
(2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745.

1 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226.7, 226(a), 510,
2 512, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802:

- 3 i. For violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 1174, 1194, 1198 and 4 2802, one hundred dollars ($100) for each employee per pay period for each
5 initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each employee per pay
6 period for each subsequent violation (penalties set by Labor Code § 7 2699(f)(2));
- 8 ii. For violations of Labor Code § 203, a penalty in an amount not exceeding thirty 9 (30) days' pay as waiting time (penalties set by Labor Code § 256);
- 10 iii. For violations of Labor Code § 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 11 employee for each initial violation that was neither willful nor intentional, two 12 hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully
13 withheld from each employee, for each initial violation that was either willful 14 or intentional, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus twenty-15 five percent (25%) of the amount unlawfully withheld from each employee, 16 for each subsequent violation, regardless of whether the subsequent violation 17 was either willful or intentional (penalties set by Labor Code § 210);
- 18 iv. For violations of Labor Code § 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 19 employee for each initial violation that was neither willful nor intentional, two 20 hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of 21 the amount unlawfully withheld from each employee, for each initial violation 22 that was either willful or intentional, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each 23 employee, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount unlawfully withheld 24 from each employee, for each subsequent violation, regardless of whether the 25 subsequent violation was either willful or intentional (penalties set by Labor 26 Code § 225.5);
- 27 v. For violations of Labor Code § 226(a), if this action is deemed to be an initial 28 citation, two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each violation. Alternatively, if an initial citation or its equivalent occurred before the filing of this action, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each employee for each violation (penalties set by Labor Code § 226.3);

vi. For violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each initial pay period for which the employee was underpaid, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each employee for each subsequent pay period for which the employee was underpaid (penalties set by Labor Code § 558);

vii. For violations of Labor Code § 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee for each initial violation of Labor Code § 1197 that was intentional and two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation of Labor Code § 1197, regardless of whether the initial violation was intentional (penalties set by Labor Code § 1197.1); viii. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g), Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with Plaintiff's claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

- a. An order that the action be certified as a class action;
- b. An order that Plaintiff be appointed class representative;
- c. An order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;
- d. Unpaid wages and overtime;
- e. Actual damages;
- f. Liquidated damages;
- g. Unreimbursed expenses;
- h. Restitution;

- i. Declaratory relief;
- j. Pre-judgment interest;
- k. Statutory penalties;
- l. Civil penalties;
- m. Costs of suit;
- n. Reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- o. Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
