DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff ALBERTO CARDENAS (“Plaintiff”) hereby complains against Defendants FTG CIRCUITS INC. and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively “Defendants”) and each of them, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants engaged in wrongful conduct in the State of California, which caused harm to Plaintiff in this state.
2. Venue is proper in this Court, because Defendants employ persons in this county, employed Plaintiff in this county, and thus a substantial portion of the occurrences related to this action occurred in this county. Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 395.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff ALBERTO CARDENAS is an individual and a resident of the County of Los Angeles and citizen of the State of California.
4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendant FTG CIRCUITS INC. is a California Corporation, organized and existing to do business under the laws of the State of California, with its principal place of business located in Los Angeles County, California.
5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that at all times herein mentioned Defendants and DOES 1 through 20, are and were individuals, sole proprietorships, corporations, business entities, persons, and partnerships, licensed to do business and/or actually doing business in the State of California.
6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names and capacities, whether informed and believes and

1 thereon alleges that at all times herein mentioned Defendants and DOES 1 through 20, are and were
2 individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of the Defendants sued as DOES 1 through 20, inclusive.
3 They are unknown to Plaintiff and therefore Plaintiff issues them by such fictitious names. Plaintiff
4 will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when they become known to 5 Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 20,
6 inclusive, are indebted to Plaintiff as hereinafter alleged, and that Plaintiff's rights against such
7 fictitiously named Defendants arise from such indebtedness.

8 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that each Defendant sued in this 9 action, including each Defendant sued by the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, is 10 responsible and liable in some manner for the occurrences, controversies and damages alleged below.

11 8. All references to "Defendants," "Defendants," "company," "company's," "employer" or any 12 similar language, whether singular or plural, shall mean "Defendants, and each of them" when used 13 throughout this complaint.

14 9. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants participated in the doing of the acts and omissions
15 herein alleged, were acting within the purpose, course and scope of said agency and/or employment
16 to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them, were 17 the agents, managing agents, servants, employees, alter-egos, co-conspirators, joint-venturers,
18 partners, successors in interest and predecessors in interest of each of the other Defendants.

19 10. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were acting within the purpose, course and scope
20 of said agency and/or employment so as to invoke vicarious liability and respondeat superior liability
21 among other theories of liability to hold Defendants liable and responsible for the injuries and damages
22 to Plaintiff.

23 11. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were members of and engaged in a joint venture,
24 partnership and common enterprise, and acting within the purpose, course and scope of, and in pursuit
25 of, said joint venture, partnership and common enterprise.

26 12. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants contributed to the 27 various acts and omissions of each and all of the other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries 28 and damages as herein alleged.

1 13. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, including Defendants' managing agents, officers
2 and directors, had advanced knowledge of and/or ratified each and every act or omission complained
3 throughout this complaint. At all times relevant herein, Defendants and/or their managing agents,
4 officers or directors committed and/or participated in the wrongful acts and omissions complained of 5 throughout this complaint or ratified such acts and omissions. At all times herein mentioned, the 6 Defendants aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and all of the other Defendants in 7 proximately causing the damages as herein alleged.

8 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that there exists such a unity of 9 interest and ownership between Defendants that the individuality and separateness of Defendants have 10 ceased to exist.

11 15. The business affairs of Defendants are, and at all times relevant hereto were, so mixed and 12 intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same are in inextricable 13 confusion.

14 16. The recognition of the separate existence of any Defendants would not promote injustice, in 15 that it would permit that Defendants to wrongfully insulate itself from liability to Plaintiff.

16 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all relevant times there has 17 existed a unity of interest and ownership between Defendants such that any individuality and 18 separateness between the entities has ceased.

19 18. Adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of Defendants would permit an abuse of the 20 corporate privilege, and would promote injustice by protecting Defendants from liability for the 21 wrongful acts committed by it.

22 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants are alter egos of 23 each other.

24 20. The individual defendants DOES 1 through 20 have treated the entity Defendant ALBERTO
25 CARDENAS as their "alter ego", rather than as a separate entity.

26 21. Upholding the corporate entity and allowing for the shareholders to dodge personal liability
27 for its debts would sanction a fraud or promote an injustice.

28 22. Additionally, per Labor Code 558.1, each individual Defendant and DOES 1 through 20 are

1 liable for their direct causation of wage and hour violations against Plaintiff and other aggrieved
2 employees.

3 GENERAL FACTS AND ALLEGATIONS

4 23. This is an action brought by Plaintiff ALBERTO CARDENAS ("Plaintiff") pursuant to 5 California statutory, decisional, and regulatory laws. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.
6 Plaintiff was at all times relevant to this complaint, employed by Defendants.

7 24. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff and 8 other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the 9 County of Los Angeles.

10 25. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that Defendant FTG CIRCUITS INC. is a 11 manufacturing business providing solutions for aerospace and defense electronic products and sub-
12 systems operating out of Los Angeles County, California.

13 26. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants were in charge of managing, supervising, and controlling
14 Plaintiff's and other employees' wages, work hours, pay, and work conditions, along with managing 15 the day-to-day operations for the business. Therefore, Defendants controlled the employment of 16 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees.

17 27. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a general employee for approximately 17-years, until 18 approximately December 1, 2023.

19 28. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to keep track of Plaintiff's and other employees' actual 20 hours worked. Employees' pay was rounded and inaccurate. This is in violation of the "Records"
21 section of Wage Orders 1, 2, 4, 7, 9, 16, 17 and other wage orders.

22 29. Plaintiff further alleges that meal breaks and rest breaks were based on business necessities,
23 and often short, late, interrupted, or nonexistent.

24 30. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff's full final pay upon separation.

25 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants controlled or 26 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, scope and conditions of employment of 27 Plaintiff during Plaintiff's employment with Defendants.

28 32. Plaintiff alleges that California statutory, decisional, and regulatory laws prohibit the conduct

1 by Defendants herein alleged, and therefore Plaintiff has an entitlement to monetary relief on the basis
2 that Defendants violated such statutes, decisional law, and regulations.

3 33. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff for all hours worked, missed,
4 short, late, and/or interrupted meal periods and/or rest breaks.

5 34. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, to set work rules and conditions
6 governing Plaintiff's employment, and to supervise her daily employment activities. Therefore,
7 Defendants controlled Plaintiff's employment.

8 35. Defendants directly hired and paid wages to Plaintiff.

9 36. Plaintiff alleges that at all relevant times, Defendants were each an "employer" of Plaintiff
10 within the meaning of all applicable California state laws and statutes.

11 37. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants ratified each and every act or omission complained 12 herein.

13 Wage and Hour Allegations:

14 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a 15 uniform policy of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of 16 California. This uniform policy involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, missed,
17 short, late, and/or interrupted meal periods, rest breaks, etc. in violation of California law.

18 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all material times set forth
19 herein, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers and other professionals, employees, and advisors
20 knowledgeable about California and federal labor and wage law and employment and personnel
21 practices, and about the requirements of California and federal law.

22 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 23 have known that Plaintiff was entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that
24 Plaintiff was not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

25 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide 26 Plaintiff the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the 27 Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus Plaintiff was entitled to any and all applicable
28 penalties.

1 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should
2 have known that Plaintiff was entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour
3 of pay at Plaintiff's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and Plaintiff did not receive
4 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's regular rate of pay when a meal
5 period was missed.

6 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should
7 have known that Plaintiff was entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of 8 pay at Plaintiff's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and Plaintiff did not receive all
9 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's regular rate of pay when a rest
10 period was missed.

11 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should
12 have known that Plaintiff was entitled to receive all wages owed to him upon discharge or resignation,
13 including overtime, minimum wages, meal and rest period premiums, and Plaintiff did not, in fact,
14 receive all such wages owed to him at the time of his discharge or resignation.

15 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 16 have known that Plaintiff was entitled to receive all wages owed to him during his employment.
17 Plaintiff did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and 18 rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

19 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 20 have known that Plaintiff was entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance 21 with California law, however Plaintiff did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 22 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
23 worked by Plaintiff.

24 47. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should 25 have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff in 26 accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

27 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should
28 have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff pursuant to California law, and that Defendant

1 had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed
2 to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff that Plaintiff was properly denied wages, all in order to
3 increase Defendant's profits.

4 49. Plaintiff alleges that during the time of his employment, these Defendants acted negligently,
5 recklessly, and/or intentionally to routinely deprive Plaintiff of statutorily mandated rest breaks during
6 work shifts of four (4) hours or greater. Defendants also intentionally failed to compensate Plaintiff
7 for those missed rest breaks over the entire period of her employment with Defendants.

8 50. Plaintiff was not properly compensated for his overtime hours and Defendants failed to keep 9 accurate records of Plaintiff's overtime hours and compensation.

10 51. Defendants, and each of them, violated other provisions of the laws of the State of California,
11 including Employment Laws and Regulations which provide for a civil penalty to be assessed and
12 collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency or its various departments,
13 divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees.

14 52. In addition to any other remedies which may be available at law or equity, or as may otherwise
15 asserted herein, Plaintiff seeks payment of overtime wages and other compensation owed to him, plus
16 all benefits required pursuant to the laws of the State of California, including Employment Laws and 17 Regulations, based on the sums withheld from Plaintiff. Plaintiff also seeks recovery of penalties, 18 attorney's fees, and costs as provided by statute.

19 53. Plaintiff seeks restitution and disgorgement of all sums wrongfully obtained by Defendants
20 through their unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code Section
21 17200 et seq., to prevent Defendants from benefitting from their ongoing unfair practices, and which
22 sums recovered under the Unfair Competition Act and Unfair Businesses Act are equitable in nature
23 and are not to be considered damages. Plaintiff is also entitled to costs, attorney's fees, interest and 24 penalties as provided for by the California Labor Code and California Business & Professions Code.

25 54. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit 26 the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under 27 this article."

28 55. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

1 PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004 (“PAGA”)

2 (Cal. Lab. Code section 2698 et seq.)

3 56. In 2003, California’s Legislature declared that, “staffing levels for state labor law enforcement
4 agencies have, in general, declined over the last decade and are likely to fail to keep up with the growth
5 of the labor market in the future. It is therefore in the public interest to provide those civil penalties
6 for violations of the Labor Code may also be assessed and collected by aggrieved employees acting as
7 private attorneys general, while also ensuring that state labor law enforcement agencies’ enforcement
8 actions have primacy over any private enforcement efforts undertaken pursuant to this act.” Dunlap v.
9 Superior Court (2006) 142 Cal.App.4th 330, 337-338, citing Stats. 2003. Ch. 906 § 1.

10 57. In response, California’s Legislature passed the Private Attorney General Act of 2004
11 (“PAGA”), which “was adopted to empower aggrieved employees, acting as private attorneys general,
12 to seek civil penalties for Labor Code violations, penalties which previously could be assessed only
13 by state agencies.” Dunlap v. Superior Court (2006) 142 Cal.App.4th 330, 336. “Thus, PAGA
14 empowers or deputizes an aggrieved employee to sue for civil penalties ‘on behalf of himself or herself
15 and other current or former employees’ as an alternative to enforcement by the LWDA.” Id. At 337
16 citing to Cal. Lab. Code 2699(a). Class action requirements do not apply to representative actions
17 brought by one employee on behalf of other current or former employees under the PAGA. Arias v.
18 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969, 984.

19 58. Prior to bringing the action, the aggrieved employee shall give written notice by certified mail
20 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and the employer of the specific provisions of this
21 code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violation.
22 Cal. Lab. Code 2699.3 (c)(1). The agency shall notify the employer and the aggrieved employee or 23 representative by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within 60
24 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice received pursuant to paragraph (1). Upon receipt of 25 that notice or if no notice is provided within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice given
26 pursuant to paragraph (1), the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to Section 27 2699.

28 59. The aggrieved employee is entitled to keep 25% of the civil penalties recovered in the PAGA

1 action and the remaining 75% goes to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency. Cal. Lab. Code
2 2699(i).

3 60. On January 11, 2024, Plaintiff ALBERTO CARDENAS filed notice with the Labor and 4 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and served the employers by certified mail (on 5 01/09/2024), of the specific conditions of the codes alleged to have been violated, including the facts
6 and theories to support the alleged violations. Attached hereto as “EXHIBIT A”, is a true and correct
7 copy of Plaintiff’s written PAGA Notice Letter.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

9 (Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.)

10 61. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

11 62. Plaintiff seeks civil penalties for the above acts, which violate the California Labor Code, under 12 the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), Cal. Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

13 63. Plaintiff is “aggrieved employees” under PAGA, as he was employed by Defendants during 14 the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code violations set forth herein.
15 Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover on behalf of herself and all other current and former aggrieved
16 employees of Defendants, the civil penalties provided by PAGA, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees and 17 costs.

18 64. Plaintiff seeks to recover the PAGA civil penalties through a representative action permitted
19 by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in Arias v. Superior Court, (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969.
20 Therefore, class certification of the PAGA claims is not required.

21 65. Plaintiff seeks civil penalties pursuant to PAGA for violations of the following Labor Code
22 provisions:

- 23 a. failure to provide prompt payment of wages to employees upon termination and 24 resignation in violation of Labor Code § 201, 202, 203;
- 25 b. failure to provide itemized wage statements to employees in violation of Labor Code 26 §§ 226(a), 1174, and 1174.5;
- 27 c. failure to provide meal and rest periods in violation of all applicable IWC wage orders
28 and Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;

- d. failure to pay overtime wages in violation of all applicable IWC wage orders and Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194 and 1198;
- e. failure to provide unpaid balance of full amount of overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code section 1194 and 2698 et seq.;
- f. failure to pay minimum wage in violation of all applicable IWC wage orders and Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, and 1197;
- g. Violation of Labor Code section 1199 (a) and (c) and 2699.5 et seq.;
- h. failure to reimburse employees for all reasonably necessary expenditures and losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties and other work-related expenses, in violation of Labor Code section 2802;
- i. failure to provide itemized wage statements to employees in violation of Labor Code section 226(a); and
- j. Violation of Labor Code 226.8 by misclassifying its employees as independent contractors;
- k. Violations of California Labor Code sections 201; 202; 203; 204; 206; 216; 218.6; 221; 226 et seq.; 226.8; 432.5; 450; 226.7; 512; 1174; 1174.5; 2802; and all applicable IWC wage orders.
- l. Defendants misclassified their employees as independent contractors in violation of Labor Code 226.8, paying them in cash and outside of payroll;

66. On January 11, 2024, Plaintiff ALBERTO CARDENAS filed notice with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and served the employers by certified mail (on 01/09/2024), of the specific conditions of the codes alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Attached hereto as “EXHIBIT A”, is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s written PAGA Notice Letter.

67. Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice includes all of Defendants’ businesses, including its nurseries and landscape services.

68. The LWDA did not provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the notice sent by Plaintiff. See Cal. Labor

1 Code section 2699.3(a)(2)(A).

2 69. With respect to violations of Labor Code section 226(a), Labor Code section 226.3 imposes a
3 civil penalty in addition to any other penalty provided by law of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per
4 aggrieved employee for the first violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per aggrieved employee
5 for each subsequent violation of Labor Code section 226(a).

6 70. With respect to violations of Labor Code sections 510, 512, Labor Code section 558 imposes
7 a civil penalty in addition to any other penalty provided by law of fifty dollars ($50) for initial 8 violations for each unpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in 9 addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, and one hundred dollars ($100) for 10 subsequent violations for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was 11 underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.

12 71. Moreover, Plaintiff seeks civil penalties in the amount of unpaid wages owed to aggrieved
13 employees pursuant to Labor Code section 558(a)(3).

14 72. With respect to violations of Labor Code section 1174, Labor Code section 1174.5 imposes a 15 civil penalty of $500.

16 73. Labor Code section 2699 et seq. imposes a civil penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) per pay
17 period, per aggrieved employee for initial violations, and two hundred dollars ($200) pay period, per 18 aggrieved employee for subsequent violations for all Labor Code provisions for which a civil penalty
19 is not specifically provided, including Labor Code sections 226.7, 226.8, 1174, 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 20 1198, and 2802.

21 74. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereafter provided.

22 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

23 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wage)

24 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1197 & 1198 et seq.)

25 75. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

26 76. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, and 1197, it is unlawful for an employer to suffer or
27 permit a California employee to work without paying wages at the proper minimum wage for all time 28 worked.

1 77. At all times material hereto, "hours worked" included "the time during which an employee is
2 subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted
3 to work, whether or not required to do so."

4 78. Plaintiff alleges Defendants failed to keep track of Plaintiff's and other employees' actual hours
5 worked. Employees' pay was rounded and inaccurate. This is in violation of the "Records" section of 6 Wage Orders 2, 4, 10, 17 and other wage orders.

7 79. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff the minimum wage,
8 Plaintiff has been damaged in the amount of unpaid minimum wages. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194
9 and 1194.2, Plaintiff is entitled to recover the full amount of unpaid minimum wages, liquidated
10 damages in an equal amount, interest and attorney's fees, all in a total amount subject to proof at time
11 of trial. In addition, insofar as the failure of Defendants to pay the minimum wage was willful, Plaintiff
12 who no longer works for Defendants are entitled to waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code §
13 200 et seq.

14 80. The aforementioned acts by Defendants were intentional, with the intention on the part of the 15 Defendants to deprive Plaintiff of his property and/or legal rights and causing injury to him. As a result
16 of Defendants' failure to compensate Plaintiff at the minimum wage, pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1,
17 Plaintiff is entitled to civil penalties from Defendants of $50 for each underpaid employee for each
18 pay period for which the employee is underpaid, for the initial violation; and $100 for each underpaid
19 employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid, for each subsequent violation.

20 81. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
21 Code §558.1.

22 82. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

24 (Failure to Compensate for All Hours Worked)

25 (Cal. Lab. Code § 1198 et seq.)

26 83. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

27 84. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff for all hours
28 worked upon reporting for work at the appointed time stated by Defendants, pursuant to applicable

1 IWC Wage Orders, and Labor Code §§ 200, 226, 500, 510, and 1197.

2 85. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff for all hours worked by
3 not compensating him for work performed. Defendants failed to pay minimum wages; Defendants
4 failed to provide breaks as required by law; Defendants failed to compensate employees for all
5 overtime worked; Defendants failed to pay for break periods; Defendants did not accurately record
6 hours worked; Defendants failed to properly itemize wages.

7 86. Under the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover
8 compensation for all hours worked, but not paid, for the three (3) years preceding the filing of this
9 Complaint, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 218.5, and 10 penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 203 and 226.

11 87. In violation of state law, Defendants have knowingly and willfully refused to perform their 12 obligations to compensate Plaintiff for all wages earned and all hours worked. As a direct result,
13 Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of 14 such wages, lost interest on such wages, and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel
15 Defendants to fully perform their obligations under state law, all to his respective damage in amounts
16 according to proof at time of trial, but not in amounts in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court.

17 88. Defendants committed the acts alleged herein knowingly and willfully, with the wrongful and
18 deliberate intention of injuring Plaintiff, and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff is 19 thus entitled to recover nominal, actual, compensatory, and liquidated damages in amounts according 20 to proof at time of trial, but not in amounts in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court.

21 89. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has been damaged in an
22 amount according to proof at time of trial, but not in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of this 23 Court.

24 90. Defendants' conduct described herein violates Labor Code §§ 200, 226, 500, 1197 and 1198,
25 and applicable IWC Wage Orders. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 203, 218.5, 226, 558, 1194,
26 and 1194.2, Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages for the nonpayment of wages of all hours worked
27 that were improperly deducted by Defendants' policies, penalties, reasonable attorney's fees,
28 expenses, and costs of suit.

1 91. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
2 Code §558.1.

3 92. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

5 (Failure to Pay Overtime Compensation)

6 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1198 & 510 et seq.)

7 93. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

8 94. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Labor Code §§ 200, 226, and 1198, at all times
9 relevant hereto, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff for all overtime, which is calculated
10 at one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
11 per day and/or forty (40) hours per week.

12 95. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Labor Code §§ 200, 226, and 1198, as of 13 January 1, 1998, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff for all overtime, which is calculated
14 as one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours
15 per week.

16 96. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, 226, 500, 510, and 1198, Defendants were required to 17 compensate Plaintiff for all overtime, which is calculated at one and one-half (1½) times the regular 18 rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day.

19 97. Plaintiff was a non-exempt employee entitled to the protections of California Labor Code §§
20 200, 226, 500, 510, and 1198. During the course of Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to 21 properly compensate him for overtime hours worked as required under the aforementioned Labor Code
22 sections.

23 98. In violation of state law, Defendants have knowingly and willfully refused to perform their 24 obligations to compensate Plaintiff for all wages earned and all hours worked.

25 99. As a direct result of aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer,
26 substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages, and
27 expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform their obligations under
28 state law, all to his respective damage in amounts according to proof at time of trial, but not in amounts

1 in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court.

2 100. Defendants' conduct described herein violates Labor Code §§ 200, 226, 500, 510 and 1198.
3 Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 200, 203, 218.5, 226, 558, and 1194, Plaintiff is entitled to
4 recover the unpaid balance of overtime compensation Defendants owe Plaintiff and civil penalties
5 (including the penalties described in Labor Code § 558 and other statutory penalties) plus interest
6 penalties, attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit.

7 101. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
8 Code §558.1.

9 102. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

10 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

11 (Failure to Pay Rest Period Compensation)

12 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 1198 et seq.)

13 103. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

14 104. Defendants failed to allow Plaintiff to take rest periods during every four-hour period worked.
15 The law requires that non-exempt employees be allowed a 10-minute break during every four-hour
16 work period, or major fraction thereof. Defendants denied him such breaks.

17 105. In addition, Plaintiff is entitled to recover interest on the unpaid rest period wages due to him.
18 Further, Plaintiff demands reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code § 218.5,
19 plus all appropriate penalties for the wage and hour violations, in addition to the one-hour's
20 compensation as premium pay as provided for by law.

21 106. As a result of the conduct alleged herein, Plaintiff was damaged by Defendants' failure to pay
22 wages for breaks withheld in an amount to be established at the time of trial. Moreover, Defendants'
23 failure to pay wages, as alleged herein was at all times knowing and willful.

24 107. Plaintiff is not only entitled to compensation for the lost rest periods, but to the extent that 25 Defendants claim that rest periods were taken which are not documented, Plaintiff also seeks all
26 applicable penalties for Defendants' failure to keep accurate time records and to issue to Plaintiff his 27 accurate earnings statements.

28 108. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor

1 Code §558.1.

2 109. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

3 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

4 (Failure to Pay Meal Period Compensation)

5 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512(a) & 1198 et seq.)

6 110. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

7 111. At all times herein mentioned, Plaintiff was a non-exempt employee and subject to the meal
8 period provisions.

9 112. Defendant failed to allow Plaintiff to take 30-minute meal periods for every 5 hours worked.
10 Defendant denied him such breaks. Thus, Defendant sometimes deprived employees of both his meal
11 period and the 30 minutes pay for the time when the employees were working, when they should have 12 been allowed to take their meal breaks.

13 113. Wages are due to employees for “all hours worked” pursuant to applicable laws, rules, orders,
14 requirements, and regulations. Plaintiff demands all applicable reimbursement and penalties for his 15 lost meal breaks, in addition to the one-hour’s compensation due under the wage order. Further,
16 Plaintiff demands reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code § 218.5.

17 114. Under California law, meal periods must be recorded unless all operations cease during the 18 scheduled meal periods. Defendant failed to record the meal periods. Plaintiff is not only entitled to 19 compensation for the lost meal periods, but to the extent that Defendant claims that meal periods were 20 taken which are not documented, Plaintiff also seeks all applicable penalties for Defendant’s failure
21 to keep accurate time records and to issue to Plaintiff his accurate earnings statements.

22 115. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
23 Code §558.1.

24 116. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

25 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

26 (Failure to Furnish Accurate Wage and Hour Statements)

27 (Cal. Lab. Code § 226)

28 117. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

1 118. At all relevant times herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every
2 employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate and complete itemized wage statement
3 in writing, including, but not limited to, the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer,
4 the inclusive dates of the pay period, total hours worked, and all applicable rates of pay.

5 119. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally provided
6 Plaintiff with uniform, incomplete, and inaccurate wage statements. Specifically, Defendants violated
7 sections 226(a)(1), 226(a)(5), 226(a)(8), and 226(a)(9). Because Plaintiff was forced to work during
8 all or part of his rest break periods, and because Defendants did not calculate Plaintiff's regular rate
9 of pay correctly for purposes of paying overtime, Defendants did not list the correct amount of gross
10 wages earned by Plaintiff in compliance with section 226(a)(1). For the same reasons, Defendants
11 failed to list the correct amount of net wages earned by Plaintiff in violation of section 226(a)(5).
12 Plaintiff was damaged by these failures because, among other things, these failures led him to believe
13 that he was not entitled to be paid overtime, even though he was so entitled and because these failures
14 hindered him from determining the amounts of overtime wages owed to him.

15 120. Defendants also failed to correctly list all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay
16 period, namely, correct overtime rates of pay and correct rates of pay for premium wages, as a result
17 of miscalculating the regular rate of pay, in violation of section 226(a)(9).

18 121. The wage statement deficiencies also include, among other things, failing to list total hours
19 worked by employees; failing to list the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece
20 rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; failing to list all deductions; failing to list the inclusive
21 dates of the period for which employees were paid; failing to list the name of the employee and only
22 the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other
23 than a social security number; failing to list the correct name of the legal entity that is the employer;
24 and/or failing to state all hours worked as a result of not recording or stating the hours he or she worked 25 off-the-clock.

26 122. By causing Plaintiff to work without compensation, Defendants have violated the requirement
27 that the total hours worked and all wages earned is included in the wage statement that must be 28 provided to Plaintiff.

1 123. Plaintiff was damaged by these failures because, among other things, these failures led Plaintiff
2 to believe that he was not entitled to be paid overtime, even though he was so entitled and because
3 these failures hindered Plaintiff from determining the amounts of overtime wages owed to him.

4 124. By virtue of Defendants' knowing, intentional, and unlawful failure to provide accurate wage
5 statements, Plaintiff has suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts, which will be 6 ascertained according to proof at trial.

7 125. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of his actual damages caused by 8 Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not 9 exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

10 126. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
11 Code §558.1.

12 127. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

13 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

14 (Failure to Pay Wages Upon Discharge)

15 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201 & 202 et seq.)

16 128. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

17 129. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 201, upon former employee Plaintiff's termination date,
18 Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff all earned wages. At the time of former employee Plaintiff's
19 termination date, former employee Plaintiff had unpaid wages. In violations of Labor Code § 201, 20 Defendants failed to pay former employee Plaintiff any amount of wages due and owing him, in 21 amounts to be proven at the time of trial, but not in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court.

22 130. Defendants' failure to pay former employee Plaintiff the wages due and owing him was willful,
23 and done with the wrongful and deliberate intention of injuring Plaintiff, and in conscious disregard
24 of Plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover nominal, actual, compensatory, and liquidated
25 damages in amounts according to proof at time of trial, but not in amounts in excess of the jurisdiction
26 of this Court.

27 131. Defendants failed to provide employees' full final pay upon separation.

28 132. Defendants' willful failure to pay Plaintiff the wages due and owing to him constitutes

1 violations of Labor Code §§ 201 and 203, which provides that an employee's wages will continue as
2 a penalty for up to thirty (30) days from the time the wages were due. Therefore, Plaintiff is entitled
3 to statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

4 133. Pursuant to Labor Code § 218.5, Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's 5 fees, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

6 134. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
7 Code §558.1.

8 135. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

9 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

10 (Statutory Penalties)

11 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 203 and 558)

12 136. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

13 137. Labor Code section 201 provides, in relevant part: "(a) If an employer discharges an employee,
14 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately."

15 138. Labor Code section 202 provides in relevant part:

16 "(a) If an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her
17 employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter,
18 unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which 19 case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. Notwithstanding any 20 other provision of law, an employee who quits without providing 72-hour notice shall be 21 entitled to receive payment by mail if he or she so requests and designates a mailing address.
22 The date of the mailing shall constitute the date of payment for purposes of the requirement to 23 provide payment within 72 hours of the notice of quitting."

24 139. Labor Code section 203 provides:

25 "If an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with 26 Sections 201, 201.5, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who 27 quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the 28 same rate until paid or until an action therefore is commenced; but the wages shall not continue

1 for more than 30 days. An employee who secretes or absents himself or herself to avoid
2 payment to him or her, or who refuses to receive the payment when fully tendered to him or 3 her, including any penalty then accrued under this section, is not entitled to any benefit under 4 this section for the time during which he or she so avoids payment. Suit may be filed for these 5 penalties at any time before the expiration of the statute of limitations on an action for the 6 wages from which the penalties arise.”

7 140. By willfully failing to pay its separated employee the amounts owed in a timely manner as 8 required by Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Defendants are liable for statutory penalties pursuant 9 to Labor Code § 203, in an amount equal to thirty (30) days of said employee’s per diem wage rate.
10 These statutory penalties, in a sum to be proven at trial, are owed and unpaid.

11 141. Labor Code section 558 provides:

12 “(a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to 13 be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any 14 order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:

15 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay
16 period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover
17 underpaid wages.

18 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee
19 for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient
20 to recover underpaid wages.

21 142. By violating Labor Code sections above and the within-referenced orders of the Industrial 22 Welfare Commission, Defendants are liable for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558, in a
23 sum to be proven at trial.

24 143. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
25 Code §558.1.

26 144. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

1 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

2 (Failure to Indemnify and Illegal Deductions from Wages)

3 (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802)

4 145. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

5 146. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2802, requiring employees to expend monies or indemnify their 6 employer for losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties is unlawful. Pursuant to 7 aforementioned orders, Labor Code § 226, and other laws of the State of California, it is also unlawful
8 for employers to make set-offs and/or deductions from employees' wages and fail to properly itemize
9 all deductions from wages.

10 147. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, and each of them, within 11 the State of California. Defendant was required to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff for all
12 expenditures or losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of Plaintiff's duties, but failed
13 to indemnify and reimburse as an employer is required to do under the laws and regulations of the 14 State of California; further, Defendant made unlawful deductions and/or set-offs from Plaintiff's
15 wages, and failed to properly itemize all deductions from wages in violation of Labor Code §§ 226
16 and 2802, and aforementioned Orders; Defendant also breached the employment contract by failing
17 to fully reimburse Plaintiff for, or requiring Plaintiff to pay other employees out of Plaintiff's own
18 compensation; failing to pay for all hours worked; failing to provide breaks as required by law; failing
19 to provide meal periods as required by law; illegally not accurately recording time worked; and other
20 reason to be discovered.

21 148. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant has withheld indemnification from, charged, deducted,
22 and or set-off the wages of Plaintiff, for illegal purposes.

23 149. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff for any work-related expenses.

24 150. In violation of state law, Defendant has knowingly and willfully refused to perform its 25 obligations to compensate Plaintiff for all wages earned and all hours worked and failed to properly
26 indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff. As a direct result, Plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer,
27 substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages, and
28 expenses and attorneys' fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform their obligation under

1 state law, respective damage in amounts according to proof at time of trial, but not in amounts in
2 excess of the jurisdiction of this Court.

3 151. Defendant committed the acts alleged herein knowingly and willfully, with the wrongful and
4 deliberate intention of injuring Plaintiff, and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff is 5 entitled to recover nominal, actual, compensatory, and liquidated damages in amounts according to 6 proof at time of trial, but not in amounts in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court.

7 152. Defendant's conduct described herein violates Labor Code §§ 200, 226 and 2802. As a
8 proximate result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount according 9 to proof at time of trial, but not in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of this Court. Therefore,
10 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, 203, 218.5, 226, and 2802, Plaintiff is entitled to recover the unpaid
11 balances of wages Defendant owes Plaintiff, plus interest, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
12 expenses, and costs of suit.

13 153. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants are liable jointly and severally for damages pursuant to Labor
14 Code §558.1.

15 154. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

16 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ALL AGAINST DEFENDANTS

17 (Unfair Competition)

18 (Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

19 155. Plaintiff hereby incorporates all other paragraphs of this complaint herein as if set forth in full.

20 156. Business & Professions Code § 17200 prohibits unfair competition in the form of any unlawful,
21 unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice.

22 157. Business & Professions Code § 17204 allows "any person acting for the interests of itself, its 23 members or the general public" to prosecute a civil action for violation of the UCL.

24 158. Defendants are a "person" as defined by California Business & Professions Code sections
25 17201, as it is a corporation, firm, partnership, joint stock company, and/or association.

26 159. Beginning at an exact date unknown to Plaintiff, but at least since approximately 2017,
27 Defendants have committed unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent business acts and practices as defined
28 by Business & Professions Code § 17200, by engaging in the following conduct:

- a. failing to pay Plaintiff minimum wage for all hours worked, as required by Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1194 et seq., 1197 et seq. and applicable IWC wage orders;
- b. failing to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation for all hours worked over eight (8) in a day or forty (40) in a workweek, as required by Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 et seq. and applicable IWC wage orders;
- c. failing and/or refusing to provide rest and meal break periods to Plaintiff, as required by Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC wage orders;
- d. failing to indemnify Plaintiff for employment-related business expenses and losses, as required by Labor Code §2802;
- e. failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff, as required by Labor Code § 226 and applicable IWC wage orders;
- f. failing to maintain payroll records showing the actual hours worked each day by Plaintiff as require by Labor Code § 1174 et seq. and applicable IWC wage orders; and
- g. failing to pay, upon termination of employment, all wages due to Plaintiff, as required by Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203.
- h. misclassifying Plaintiff as a contractor in violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 226.8 (b).

160. Defendants', and each of their, conduct as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, and harmful to Plaintiff, and to the general public. Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact and has lost money as a result of Defendants', and each of their, unfair business practices. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

161. A violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200 et seq. may be predicated on any unfair business practice. In the instant case, Defendants' policies and practices have violated the spirit of California's meal and rest break laws and constitute acts against the public policy behind these laws. Plaintiff is entitled to restitution pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208 for all unpaid wages, minimum wage, overtime pay, missed rest period compensation, reporting time compensation, and interest for four years prior to the filing of this complaint.

162. Pursuant to Business & Prof. Code §17203, Plaintiff is entitled to restitution of money acquired

1 by Defendants by means of its unfair business practices, in amounts not yet ascertained but to be
2 ascertained at trial.

3 163. Plaintiff is entitled to enforce all applicable penalty provisions of the Labor Code pursuant to 4 Business & Professions Code § 17202.

5 164. By all of the foregoing alleged conduct, Defendants, and each of them, have committed, and 6 are continuing to commit, ongoing unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business practices within the 7 meaning of Business & Professions Code §17200 et seq.

8 165. Plaintiff has assumed the responsibility of enforcement of the laws and lawful claims specified
9 herein. There is a financial burden incurred in pursuing this action, which is in the public interest.
10 Therefore, reasonable attorney's fees are appropriate pursuant to Cal. Code of Civil Procedure §
11 1021.5.

12 166. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

13 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

14 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against all Defendants as follows:

- 15 1. For general and special damages, according to proof, on all causes of action for which 16 such damages are available, in an amount not less than $500,000;
- 17 2. For additional compensatory damages for Plaintiff's emotional pain and suffering, in 18 an amount to be proven at trial, in an amount not less than $50,000;
- 19 3. That Defendants are found to have violated the above-referenced provisions of the 20 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff;
- 21 4. That Defendants' actions are found to be willful and/or in bad faith to the extent
22 necessary under Sections 201, 202 and 203 of the Labor Code for failure to pay all
23 compensation owed at the time of separation to Plaintiff, as to Section 226 of the Labor
24 Code for willful failure to provide the required accurate and itemized wage statements
25 to Plaintiff;
- 26 5. That Defendants are found to have violated provisions of the Labor Code and Wage 27 Orders regarding meal periods and rest periods;
- 28 6. That Plaintiff receives an award in the amount of unpaid wages owed, including interest thereon, and penalties subject to proof at trial;

7. An award to Plaintiff of statutory penalties because of Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff with itemized wage statements that comply with the requirements of Labor Code § 226 and because of Defendants' failure to pay all wages due upon the date of his termination, subject to proof at trial;
8. An order requiring Defendants to pay restitution of all amounts owed to Plaintiff for Defendants' failure to pay legally required minimum wage, overtime compensation, business expenses, missed meal break and rest break periods, pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17203;
9. For Statutory penalties under Labor Code Section 226.8;
10. For prejudgment interest at the legal rate pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.6 and other applicable sections;
11. For lost earnings;
12. For liquidated damages in an amount to be ascertained at trial;
13. For all other penalties as required by law;
14. For costs of suit incurred herein;
15. For restitution of money acquired by Defendants by means of their unfair business practices pursuant to Business & Prof. Code § 17203;
16. For Labor Code penalties pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17202;
17. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g);
18. For reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.5 and other applicable sections; and
19. For such further relief as is appropriate in the interest of justice.

RE: Alberto Cardenas Notice of Labor Code Violations Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699 et seq. ("PAGA")

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that ALBERTO CARDENAS (hereinafter "Plaintiff") has retained the Sirmabekian Law Firm, PC to represent him and other aggrieved employees for various California Labor Code violations including wage and hour claims against FTG CIRCUITS, INC. (hereafter referred to as "Employer," "Defendants," or "You" and/or referred to with "Your" and "Yours", and "EMPLOYER" or "DEFENDANTS").

EMPLOYER is hereby on notice that Plaintiff seeks compensation and all other available relief. Pursuant to the procedures specified in California Labor Code Section 2699.3, Plaintiff claims that EMPLOYER has violated, and/or caused to be violated, several Labor Code provisions, and is therefore liable for civil penalties under California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

The scope of this PAGA letter is intended to include Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees of all positions against whom the below labor law violations have been committed. The scope includes each employee of each employer named above, whether or not such employee was also employed by any of the remaining employers. Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees engaged in working as administrative staff, salespeople, service representatives, chip handlers, quality assurance, installers, experts, drivers, general employees, and other positions for Defendants.

Defendant ALBERTO CARDENAS company providing solutions for aerospace and defense electronic products and sub-systems operating out of Los Angeles County, California.

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants were in charge of managing, supervising, and controlling Plaintiff's and other employees' wages, work hours, pay, and work conditions, along with managing the day-to-day operations of the business. Therefore, Defendants controlled the employment of Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees.

Defendants employed Plaintiff as a general employee for approximately 17 years until approximately 12/1/2024. Below are facts supporting allegations of Defendants' labor code violations against Plaintiff and other employees:

- Defendants failed to keep track of Plaintiff's and other employees' actual hours worked. Employees' pay was rounded and inaccurate. This is in violation of the "Records" section of Wage Orders 1, 2, 4, 7, 9, 16, 17 and other wage orders.

- Meal and rest breaks violations based on business necessities, and often short, late, interrupted, or nonexistent.

- Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff's final pay upon separation.

- Defendants violated these and other labor laws as described throughout this letter.

The term "aggrieved employees" is broadly defined as all employees of either Defendant, regardless of exempt or non-exempt status, and regardless of whether such employee was also employed by the remaining Defendants. All employees are included in this definition, including positions other than that of Plaintiff.

EMPLOYER deprived Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees of certain protections of the Industrial Welfare Commission Orders, including overtime pay, minimum wage, meal and rest periods, and sick pay and failure to reimburse under Labor Code 2802, among numerous other California Labor Code violations. Many other aggrieved employees were also treated as exempt from those protections.

Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees primarily engage(d) in duties that failed to meet the requirements of the various exemptions. They lacked the requisite discretion and independent judgment required by the labor code and the IWC Orders (without limitation) to qualify as exempt from various labor law protections. By misclassifying aggrieved employees, EMPLOYER deprived them of many protections.

Unlawful Failure to Pay Overtime

EMPLOYER fails to maintain a policy that compensates Plaintiff and other employees for all hours worked, including overtime. Specifically, EMPLOYER only pays employees for the majority of time that they spend at work. Many employees, including Plaintiff, routinely worked work over eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week but are not paid one and one-half their regular rate of pay for overtime work. As a result of violations of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders for failure to pay overtime, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 558 and 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Provide Unpaid Balance of Full Amount of Overtime Compensation

As described above, EMPLOYER has required employees to work hours in excess of eight hours in a day and forty hours in a week as a result of working their regular shifts, but EMPLOYER has not paid these employees overtime compensation. Here, Defendants failed to keep track of Plaintiff's and other employees' actual hours worked. Employees' pay was rounded and inaccurate. This is in violation of the "Records" section of Wage Orders 4 and other wage orders. As a result, Plaintiff and other employees have been denied "the unpaid balance of the full amount of this ... overtime compensation" as required by California Labor Code § 1194, and EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Pay Minimum Wage

EMPLOYER has failed to maintain a policy that compensates Plaintiff and other employees an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for all hours worked, as required by California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate and no part of this rate may be used as a credit against a minimum wage obligation. EMPLOYER did not compensate Plaintiff and other employees for time spent working off the clock. Here, Defendants failed to keep track of Plaintiff's and other employees' actual hours worked. Employees' pay was rounded and inaccurate. This is in violation of the "Records" section of Wage Order 2, 4, 5, 16, 17 and other wage orders. As a result of violations of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, for failure to pay minimum wage, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 558, 1197.1, and 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Provide Uninterrupted Off-Duty Meal Periods

EMPLOYER has failed to maintain a policy that provides Plaintiff and other employees with off-duty meal periods as required by California law. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees regularly worked in excess of five (5) hours a day without being provided at least half-hour meal periods in which they were relieved of all duties, as required by Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders. EMPLOYER failed to pay Plaintiff and other employees the premium compensation mandated by Labor Code § 226.7(b) for these missed meal periods. They would be required to work through their meal breaks, or take short meal breaks, and no premium compensation was provided. Many employees, including Plaintiff, were forced to skip or take untimely breaks without appropriate compensation. Here, Defendants afforded employees no compliant meal and rest breaks. As a result of violations of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 558 and 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Provide Uninterrupted Off-Duty Rest Periods

EMPLOYER has failed to maintain a policy that provides Plaintiff and other employees with off-duty rest periods as required by California law. Plaintiff and other employees regularly worked in excess of 3.5 hours or major fraction thereof during work days without being provided at least a ten-minute rest period in which they were relieved of all duties, as required by Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders. EMPLOYER failed to pay Plaintiff and other employees the premium compensation mandated by Labor Code § 226.7(b) for these missed rest periods. Many employees, including Plaintiff, were forced to skip or take untimely rest breaks without appropriate compensation. Here, Defendants afforded employees no compliant meal and rest breaks. As a result of violations of California Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 558 and 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Reimburse Expenses

EMPLOYER has failed to indemnify Plaintiff and other employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by Plaintiff. Here, Defendants failed to reimburse their employees for reasonable business expenses. California Labor Code § 2802 requires the employer to indemnify employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of the discharge their duties. As a result of violations of California Labor Code § 2802, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 558, 2802 and 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Furnish Wage Statements

EMPLOYER has violated California Labor Code § 226(a) by willfully failing to furnish Plaintiff and other employees with required wage statement information. As a result of violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code Labor Code §§ 226.3 and 2698 et seq.

Every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately when wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

Here, Defendants' wage statements were inaccurate. Further, Defendants unfair rounding of employees' hours resulted in an underpayment of wages to their employees. As a result of violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code Labor Code §§ 226.3 and 2698 et seq.

Unlawful Failure to Keep Accurate Payroll Records of Daily Hours Worked

EMPLOYER has failed to keep payroll records showing total hours worked and wages paid to Plaintiff and other employees. Under California Labor Code § 1174(d), employers must keep “payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to ... employees”. Because EMPLOYER did not keep complete and accurate time records reflecting hours worked for Plaintiff and other employees, including, but not limited to, beginning work prior to the start of their shifts, working after the end of their shifts, and missed/short/late rest and meal breaks, it is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §2698 et seq. Section 6 or 7 of the applicable wage order requires the recording of this time. EMPLOYER would not keep track of action time. Instead, Defendants unfairly rounded employees’ hours, which resulted in underpayment of wages to their employees. To the extent that EMPLOYER’s failure to keep accurate payroll records was willful, it is liable for civil penalties under California Labor Code § 1174.5.

Unlawful Violation of California Labor Code § 1199

Under California Labor Code §§ 1199(a) and (c) and 2699.5 et seq., an employer who “requires or causes any employee to work for longer hours than those fixed” or “violates or refuses or neglects to comply with any provision of” the Labor Code regarding employees’ wages, hours, and working conditions, is subject to PAGA penalties. As described above, EMPLOYER has required Plaintiff and other employees to work hours in excess of eight (8) in a day and forty (40) in a week (thereby violating § 1199(a)), failed to provide adequate rest and meal breaks, failed to pay minimum wage and has violated numerous provisions of the Labor Code pertaining to employee wages and hours (thereby violating § 1199(b)). Accordingly, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

Misclassification of Employees

It unlawful for any person or employer to willfully misclassify an individual as an independent contractor. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.8(a)(1). This permits Plaintiff to recover a civil penalty from five thousand dollars ($5,000) to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation, in addition to any other penalties or fines permitted by law. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.8(b)-(c). Here, Defendants misclassified Plaintiff and others as independent contractors, paying them outside of payroll (in cash), and depriving them of various labor law protections afforded to employees, in violation of Labor Code 226.8. As such, Defendants violated California Labor Code § 226.8 and numerous other Labor Code sections. Plaintiff and others were always employees as evidenced by the following facts: Plaintiff’s position required him to work for EMPLOYER, among many other duties which were directly related to the services provided by EMPLOYER. EMPLOYER supplied the instrumentalities, tools, and the place for the employees to do their work (all work was done under EMPLOYER’s supervision; the employees’ investment in the equipment or materials required were limited or non-existent; no special skills were required of the employees; the employees’ services were to be performed for a long period of time with a high degree of permanence in the working relationship; and the parties believed they were maintaining an employer-employee relationship.).

Unlawful Failure to Pay Wages Due Upon Termination

EMPLOYER has violated California Labor Code § § 201 and 202 by willfully failing to pay all compensation due and owing to Plaintiff and other employees at the time employment was terminated, EMPLOYER willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other employees who are no longer employed by it all compensation due upon termination of employment as required under California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 including, but not limited to, missing wages due to inaccurate tracking of employees' time records and failing to properly track their hours works and premium pay for missed/short/late meal and rest breaks. Here, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff's final pay upon separation. Plaintiff and other employees are now also entitled to recover up to thirty (30) days of wages due to EMPLOYER's "willful" failure to comply with the statutory requirements of sections 201 and 202 of the Labor Code. Additionally, because EMPLOYER violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 201and 203 of the Labor Code, EMPLOYER is liable for civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

Mandated Seating

Defendants were required to provide Plaintiff (and the other aggrieved employees encompassed by Plaintiff's PAGA Notice Letter) with the seating required under the applicable Industrial Wage Order ("IWO"). In violation of the applicable IWO, Defendants have adopted and continue to adopt a custom and practice of failing to provide its current and former Employees with: 1) Suitable seating when the nature of the Employees' work reasonably permits use of seats and 2) Suitable seating in reasonable proximity to Employee's work areas for use by Employees when a) they are not engaged in active duty, b) their work requires standing and c) such seats would not interfere with the performance of their duties.

Conclusion

EMPLOYER has violated or has caused to be violated a number of California wage and hour laws. Plaintiff therefore intends to file civil claims for the aforementioned violations of the Labor Code and other law. Plaintiff requests the agency review this notice per PAGA's provisions.

Sincerely,
