1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on May 20, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. in Department 11 of the 3 above-captioned Court located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, Plaintiff 4 Mario Fosados (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the Court for an Order granting approval of 5 the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 6 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) settlement. Specifically, Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

- 7 1. Granting approval pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2) of the Private 8 Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” 9 or “Settlement Agreement”) attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Jonathan M.
10 Genish in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement and Award of 11 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, General Release Fee, and Settlement Administration Costs 12 (“Genish Decl.”);
- 13 2. Directing the distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount of Three Hundred Thousand 14 Dollars and Zero Cents ($300,000.00) pursuant to the terms of the Agreement;
- 15 3. Approving the Net Settlement Amount, estimated to be One Hundred Sixty Thousand 16 Nine Hundred and Four Dollars and Eighty-Five Cents ($160,904.85), of which seventy-17 five percent (75%) will be distributed to the California Labor and Workforce 18 Development Agency (“LWDA”) and twenty-five percent (25%) of which will be 19 distributed to the Aggrieved Employees;
- 20 4. Approving an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees One Hundred Thousand Dollars and 21 Zero Cents ($100,000.00) to Plaintiff’s Counsel;
- 22 5. Approving the amount of Twenty-Six Thousand Ninety-Five Dollars and Fifteen Cents 23 ($26,095.15) to Plaintiff’s Counsel for reimbursement of actual litigation costs and 24 expenses pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(g)(1);
- 25 6. Approving the award of Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,000.00) to Plaintiff as 26 a General Release Fee;
- 27 7. Appointing ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; and 28 ///

8. Approving an award of up to Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) in anticipated costs to ILYM Group, Inc. for its settlement administration services.

In accordance with California Labor Code sections 2699 et. seq., a copy of the proposed Settlement Agreement was submitted to the LWDA via online submission through the LWDA's website on March 12, 2025. (Genish Decl., ¶ 18 & Exh. 3).

This Motion is based upon this Notice, the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declarations of Jonathan M. Genish, Plaintiff Mario Fosados, and the Settlement Administrator (Lisa Mullins of ILYM Group, Inc.), the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may properly receive at or before the hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: March 17, 2025

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code
4 sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), Plaintiff Mario Fosados (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of the Private 5 Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or 6 “Settlement Agreement”) entered into with Defendant Drew Chain Security Corp. (“Defendant”) 7 (together, with Plaintiff, the “Parties”), which is attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Jonathan 8 M. Genish in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement and Award of 9 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, General Release Fee, and Settlement Administration Costs (“Genish 10 Decl.”). The Agreement terms are outlined as follows:

- 11 • Gross Settlement Amount: Three Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents 12 ($300,000.00).
- 13 • Attorneys’ Fees: One Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($100,000.00) (1/3 of 14 the Gross Settlement Amount), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
- 15 • Attorneys’ Costs: Twenty-Six Thousand Ninety-Five Dollars and Fifteen Cents 16 ($26,095.15), to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
- 17 • General Release Fee: Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,000.00) to Plaintiff, to 18 be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
- 19 • Settlement Administration Costs: Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00), to be paid from 20 the Gross Settlement Amount.
- 21 • Estimated Net Settlement Amount: One Hundred Sixty Thousand Nine Hundred and Four 22 Dollars and Eighty-Five Cents ($160,904.85), of which 75% ($120,678.64) will be paid 23 to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and the 24 remaining 25% ($40,226.21) will be paid to the Aggrieved Employees.

25 As set forth herein, the Settlement Agreement is the product of informed discovery, arms-26 length negotiations, and provides a fair, adequate, and reasonable recovery for the State of California 27 and Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that the Court grant approval of 28 the proposed Settlement Agreement, among other requested relief.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Defendant was founded in 2004 by former law enforcement officers. They provide professional security services to hospitals, banks, shopping centers, retail stores, restaurants, medical buildings, schools, and residential buildings throughout San Gabriel Valley, Whittier and Orange County. (Genish Decl., ¶ 7). Defendant employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Security Guard from approximately June 2022 to July 2023. (Genish Decl., ¶ 7; Declaration of Mario Fosados in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement and Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs, General Release Fee, and Settlement Administration Costs ["Fosados Decl.,"] ¶ 2).

On January 4, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice by electronic submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3, of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant ("PAGA Notice"). (Genish Decl., ¶ 8 & Exh. 1).

On January 8, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled Mario Fosados v. Drew Chain Security Corp., Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 24STCV00519 ("Action"), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Id., ¶ 9).

On March 11, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint ("Operative Complaint") in the Action. The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant rest periods and premiums payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations, and for civil penalties under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor Code violations. (Id., ¶ 10).

On November 4, 2024, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Steven Rottman, Esq., a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex wage and hour matters, during which the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve the Action in its entirety.

1 (Id., ¶ 11).

2 On February 24, 2025, pursuant to Plaintiff's request, the court in the Class Action entered an 3 Order, which dismissed the class claims without prejudice. (Id., ¶ 12).

4 On March 12, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 13 & Exh. 2).

5 During the course of informal discovery in the Action, Plaintiff's Counsel conducted an intense 6 investigation into the facts of the Action. (Id., ¶ 14). This included obtaining data, information, and 7 documents relating to the underlying alleged violations, including, but not limited to, Plaintiff's 8 employee file, a sampling of Aggrieved Employees' time and payroll data, relevant wage and hour 9 policies, and Aggrieved Employees' data points so that Plaintiff could assess the number of alleged 10 potential violations and value of the recoverable penalties, as well as evaluate the strengths and 11 weaknesses of her claims. (Ibid.).

12 Based on the data, information, and documents received, as well as thorough discussions with 13 Defendant's counsel, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to (i) determine the total number of distinct 14 individuals falling within the definition of "Aggrieved Employees" for the relevant statutory period, 15 (ii) the number of affected pay periods at issue among them, and (iii) construct a damages model that 16 calculated the maximum realistic amount of PAGA penalties that could be levied against Defendant 17 within the relevant statutory period. (Id., ¶ 15). Defendant, however, disputed Plaintiff's claims and 18 disputed both the existence of and extent of liability as alleged by Plaintiff, which allowed Plaintiff's 19 Counsel to further assess the strength of Plaintiff's claims. (Ibid.). Plaintiff's Counsel's experience in 20 litigating similar representative wage and hour claims, the degree of investigation that was conducted 21 here, and the amount of data, information, and documents that was obtained, was sufficient to 22 determine the potential value of the PAGA claims, and to evaluate the strength of these claims for 23 purposes of settlement. (Ibid.).

24 The Parties believe the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id., ¶ 16).
25 The Parties understand, acknowledge, and agree that the Settlement Agreement constitutes a 26 compromise of Plaintiff's PAGA claims, and that it is the desire and intention of the Parties to affect 27 a final and complete resolution of the Action. (Ibid.).

28 ///

Defendant denies all of the claims in the Action, and does not waive, but rather expressly reserves, all rights to challenge all such claims and allegations upon all legal, procedural, and factual grounds should the Settlement Agreement not become final. (Id., ¶ 17). The Settlement Agreement reflects a compromise reached to end litigation in the Action. (Ibid.). Following significant investigation and extensive settlement negotiations, Plaintiff now seeks approval of the proposed Settlement Agreement, which will resolve all representative claims alleged in the Action. (Ibid.).

III. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

A. Definition of the Aggrieved Employees

For purposes of settlement only, the Parties have agreed that the “Aggrieved Employees” shall be defined as “all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period.” (Genish Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(5)). The “PAGA Period” is the period from January 4, 2023 to November 4, 2024. (Genish Decl., ¶ 19; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(5)). Based on its records, Defendant has represented that there are approximately 341 Aggrieved Employees who worked 10,723 pay periods as of November 4, 2024. (Genish Decl., ¶ 19).

B. Amount of Settlement

The Parties have agreed to settle the PAGA claims at issue in the Action for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($300,000.00). (Genish Decl., ¶ 20; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)).

C. Allocation and Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount

The Gross Settlement Amount is a common fund and therefore includes all requested costs, fees, and other allocations. (Genish Decl., ¶ 20). The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fees in the amount of One-Third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling One Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($100,000.00); (2) Plaintiff’s Counsel’s actual litigation costs and expenses in the amount of Twenty-Six Thousand Ninety-Five Dollars and Fifteen Cents ($26,095.15); (3) General Release Fee in the amount of Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,000.00) to Plaintiff; and (4) Settlement Administration Costs, not to exceed Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00). (Genish Decl., ¶ 20; Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 3(a)(1)-(3)).

1 After the above-estimated amounts are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net 2 Settlement Amount will amount to approximately One Hundred Sixty Thousand Nine Hundred and 3 Four Dollars and Eighty-Five Cents ($160,904.85), of which 75% ($120,678.64) will be paid to the 4 LWDA and the remaining 25% ($40,226.21), will be distributed and paid to Aggrieved Employees 5 (“Employees’ Portion”) on a pro rata basis based on the number of pay periods they each worked 6 during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 21; Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 3(a)(4)-(5) 7 & 5(b)).

8 No later than seven (7) calendar days after the Court’s order granting approval of the 9 Settlement, Defendant will provide the Settlement Administrator with a list of all Aggrieved 10 Employees, containing each Aggrieved Employee’s: (i) first and last name; (ii) last known address; 11 (iii) last known telephone number; (iv) Social Security number; (v) dates worked during the PAGA 12 Period; and (vi) which Aggrieved Employees need the Cover Letter translated and which language 13 (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees List”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 22; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5(c)(1)).

14 Within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the Court’s order granting approval of this Settlement 15 Agreement, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds to a qualified 16 settlement account established by the Settlement Administrator for administration of the Settlement.
17 of the Court’s order granting approval of this Settlement Agreement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 23; Settlement 18 Agreement, ¶¶ 5(a)).

19 No later than seven (7) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved 20 Employees List and the full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator 21 will distribute the Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees (along with a cover letter 22 “Cover Letter”), the LWDA Payment to the LWDA, the General Release Fee to Plaintiff, the 23 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to Plaintiff’s Counsel, and the Settlement Administration Costs to itself.
24 (Genish Decl., ¶ 24; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5(c)(5)-(8)).

25 Prior to mailing the Individual PAGA Payment checks, the Settlement Administrator will 26 update the Aggrieved Employees’ mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.
27 (Genish Decl., ¶ 25; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5(c)(2)). For each PAGA Settlement Package that is 28 returned undeliverable within thirty (30) calendar days of the initial mailing, the Settlement

1 Administrator shall promptly attempt to locate an alternative, updated address for the Aggrieved
2 Employee at issue, by using a skip-trace search and shall attempt one (1) re-mailing of the PAGA 3 Settlement Package. (Id., ¶ 5(c)(3)).

4 The Individual PAGA Payment checks that are issued to Aggrieved Employees will remain 5 valid and negotiable for up to one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days, and thereafter, shall be 6 canceled. (Genish Decl., ¶ 26; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5(c)(4)). Funds associated with such canceled
7 checks shall be transmitted to the State Controller’s Office Unclaimed Property Division in the name 8 of the Aggrieved Employee(s) at issue and in the amount of their respective Individual PAGA 9 Payment(s). (Genish Decl., ¶ 26; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5(c)(4)).

10 Defendant has represented that the Aggrieved Employees worked 10,723 Pay Periods during 11 the PAGA Period. (Genish Decl., ¶ 27; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(6)). If it is determined by the 12 Settlement Administrator that the total number of Pay Periods worked by the Aggrieved Employees 13 during the PAGA Period actually exceeds 10,723 by more than 10% (i.e., if the Pay Periods exceed 14 11,795), then the Gross Settlement Amount will be increased on a pro rata basis equal to the 15 percentage increase in the number of Pay Periods worked by the Aggrieved Employees above 11,795 16 Pay Periods, or Defendant may elect to modify the PAGA Period end date so that the total number of 17 Pay Periods does not exceed 10,723. (Genish Decl., ¶ 27; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(6)).

18 IV. STANDARD FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

19 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. (California Labor Code (“Lab.
20 Code”) § 2699(l)). The Court must be mindful that a “[s]ettlement is a compromise, which balances 21 the possible recovery against the risks inherent in litigating further.” (In re TD Ameritrade Account 22 Holder Litig., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 103222 at *24 (N.D. Cal. Sep. 12, 2011)). “[T]he very essence 23 of a settlement is ... ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes,’” as “it is the very 24 uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce 25 consensual settlements.” (Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com., 688 F.2d 615, 624-26 (9th Cir.
26 1982)). As such, “the settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial 27 on the merits,” or “judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been 28 achieved.” (Ibid.).

1 Although the California Labor Code does not set forth the criteria by which a PAGA settlement 2 is to be evaluated, it is presumed that a reviewing court may take into consideration some of the factors 3 that courts use when reviewing a class action settlement. However, “a PAGA claim asserted on a non-4 class representative basis...is not considered a class action but a law enforcement action, and therefore 5 does not have to meet the requirements of [a class action].” (Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp., 2012 6 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9302 at *8 (E.D. Cal. Jan. 25, 2012)).

7 A court’s review of a PAGA settlement necessarily implicates the following unique features 8 that render the approval process distinct from approval of a class action settlement under Code of Civil 9 Procedure Section 382 and California Rules of Court Rule 3.769. First, in evaluating the adequacy of 10 the settlement amount, the Court’s focus is not concerned with the amount aggrieved employees are 11 to receive, but rather, must focus on the total settlement amount in achieving PAGA’s objective.
12 Indeed, “[t]he remedy sought in a PAGA suit consists of civil penalties, not individual or class 13 damages,” and while a “[PAGA] action is ... designed to protect the public and penalize the employer 14 for past illegal conduct,” a reviewing court must be mindful of the fact that settlement of a PAGA 15 claim involves a compromise. (Mendez v. Tween Brands, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 66454 at *11 16 (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2010)). “Unlike class actions, these civil penalties are not meant to compensate 17 unnamed employees because the action is fundamentally a law enforcement action.” (Ochoa-18 Hernandez v. Cjaders Foods, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 32774 at *12 (Apr. 2, 2010)). The Court 19 should not lose sight of the fact that, “[u]nlike a class action seeking damages or injunctive relief for 20 injured employees, the purpose of PAGA is to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for 21 the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state 22 enforcement agencies.” (Ibid).

23 Second, consistent with the fact that unnamed employees have no property interest in a PAGA 24 claim, “[u]nnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the 25 ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” (Ochoa-Hernandez, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 26 32774 at *13). Indeed, “[PAGA] does not create property rights or any other substantive rights” as 27 “[i]t is simply a procedural statute allowing an aggrieved employees to recover civil penalties – for 28 Labor Code violations – that otherwise would be sought by state labor law enforcement agencies.”

1 (Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Sup. Ct., 46 Cal.4th 993, 1003 (2009)). This 2 renders the approval process of a PAGA settlement distinct from a class action settlement, as there is 3 no need for the Court to employ the “two-step approval process” required under California Rules of 4 Court Rule 3.769.

5 Finally, unlike class action settlements, the scope of release permitted in a PAGA settlement 6 is limited. While “judgment in [a PAGA] action is binding not only on the named employee plaintiff 7 but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding...the 8 nonparty employees, because they were not given notice of the action or afforded any opportunity to 9 be heard, would not be bound by the judgment as to remedies other than civil penalties.” (Arias v.
10 Sup. Ct., 46 Cal.4th 969, 985-87 (2009)). Thus, the scope of a release in a PAGA settlement is 11 confined to the PAGA penalties alleged in the complaint and/or the plaintiff’s notice to the LWDA
12 and to the claims that were, or could have been, alleged pursuant to PAGA based on the factual 13 allegations in the complaint and/or the plaintiff’s notice to the LWDA. In the case at hand, as the only 14 claims at issue are PAGA claims, those will be the only claims extinguished through the Settlement.

15 V. THE AGREEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

16 A. The Agreement is Presumed to Be Fair

17 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 18 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 19 245 (2001); see also Clark v. Am. Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal. App. 4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, 20 the Agreement is presumptively fair because: (1) it occurred after counsel for the Parties engaged in 21 significant investigation to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claims, and the risks 22 of litigating these claims through trial; and (2) it was negotiated at great length and effort by counsel 23 with significant experience in similar complex labor and employment matters. (Genish Decl., ¶ 28).

24 B. The Agreement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ Respective 25 Legal Positions and Recovery Risks

26 In deciding whether to approve a proposed settlement, a trial court has broad powers to 27 determine if it is fair given the circumstances of the case. (Mallick v. Sup. Ct., 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 28 438 (1979)). In exercising these powers, the overriding concern is to ensure that a proposed settlement

1 is “fair, adequate, and reasonable.” (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (internal quotations omitted)). A 2 settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at trial, nor 3 does the settlement have to obtain one hundred percent of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
4 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 5 must consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 6 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 7 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and 8 views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to 9 the proposed settlement.”¹ (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).
10 Even though a Kullar analysis is not required for approval of a PAGA settlement, a brief analysis is 11 included to support approval of the Settlement Agreement. (See Genish Decl., ¶¶ 36-49).

12 These factors require balancing and are non-exhaustive. Trial courts should therefore tailor 13 the factors to each case and give due regard to “what is otherwise a private consensual agreement 14 between the parties.” (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1801).

15 1. Strength of Plaintiff’s Cases

16 In order to prevail at trial, Plaintiff would have to prove violations of the California Labor 17 Code underlying her PAGA claims, demonstrate that Aggrieved Employees suffered, and demonstrate 18 that Defendant’s conduct gives rise to penalties. (See Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC, 572 19 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 (C.D. Cal. 2008) [“Plaintiff’s claim under [PAGA] is wholly dependent 20 upon her other claims. Because all of Plaintiff’s other claims fail as a matter of law, so does her PAGA 21 claim.”]).

22 Here, Plaintiff’s core allegations are that Defendant systematically violated the California 23 Labor Code by, inter alia, failing to properly pay wages for all hours worked, failing to pay overtime 24 at the correct rate, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods, failing to pay premiums at the 25 correct rate of pay, failing to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, failing to 26 maintain accurate payroll records, failing to provide accurate wage statements, and failing to reimburse

28 ¹ As this is not a class action, the Kullar factors pertaining to the risk of maintaining class action status through trial and the reaction of class members to the proposed settlement are inapplicable.

1 necessary business expenses. (Genish Decl., ¶ 29).

2 Defendant maintained several defenses to Plaintiff’s theories of liability, which, if successfully 3 argued and proven, had the potential to eliminate or substantially reduce recovery. (Id., ¶ 30).
4 Throughout this litigation, Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that it had, and continues 5 to have, compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time period at issue. (Ibid.).
6 Defendant denies that it ever violated any provision of the California Labor Code, including, but not 7 limited to, those sections for which Plaintiff seeks penalties under PAGA. (Ibid.). Defendant further 8 denied, and continues to deny, that the lawsuit is appropriate for representative treatment for any 9 purpose other than settlement. (Ibid.). Defendant also challenged Plaintiff’s standing as an aggrieved 10 employee and denied that any of Defendant’s other employees whom Plaintiff seeks to represent are 11 aggrieved. (Ibid.).

12 Defendant also argued that an important feature of PAGA is that the Court retains discretion 13 to lower the penalties if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise 14 would result in an award that is “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Ibid.; Lab. Code 15 § 2699(e)(2); see also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc., 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1136 16 (2012) [holding that a court may reduce the amount of PAGA penalties awarded to an employee based 17 upon discretionary factors]).

18 Even if violations of the California Labor Code occurred, which Defendant denies, Defendant 19 contended that said violations would only be considered “initial violations” and thus heightened 20 “subsequent violation” penalties were not warranted. (Genish Decl., ¶ 31; Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2); 21 see also Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1208-09 (2008) [“Until the employer 22 has been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision [...], the employer cannot be presumed 23 to be aware that its continuing underpayment of employees is a ‘violation’ subject to penalties.”]).

24 Defendant also contended that, with respect to PAGA claims, the Court was unlikely to assess 25 cumulative penalties for the maximum number of possible, separate California Labor Code violations, 26 because it would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and/or confiscatory, especially where certain conduct 27 may be regulated by multiple provisions of the California Labor Code that are interrelated and work 28 in tandem. (Genish Decl., ¶ 32). While the PAGA does provide the potential for a heightened penalty

1 for subsequent violations, courts are often hesitant to award a heightened penalty where there is no
2 prior citation by the Labor Commissioner, as is the case here. (See Bernstein v. Virgin Am., Inc., 3 3 F.4th 1127, 1144 (9th Cir. 2021) (holding no heightened penalty where defendant was not notified by 4 Labor Commissioner or any court that it was subject to the California Labor Code)). The Ninth 5 Circuit’s holding in Bernstein also supports that a settlement valuation that does not “stack” penalties.
6 (Ibid).

7 While Plaintiff maintains that his PAGA claims have merit, in reaching the Agreement, 8 Plaintiff and his counsel took into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side’s position, and 9 the uncertainty of how the case might have concluded as litigation continued, at trial, and/or upon 10 appeal. (Genish Decl., ¶ 33). Based on these disputes, which had the potential to completely eliminate 11 Plaintiff’s recovery, the range of realistic “litigation outcomes” on Plaintiff’s PAGA claims was 12 defined by a “maximum possible liability” amount of approximately $1,072,300 and a “risk-adjusted 13 realistic value” amount of approximately $321,690 (Id., ¶ 49). In light thereof, the Gross Settlement 14 Amount of $300,000 is a significant settlement. (Ibid).

15 2. Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

16 Approval of the Settlement Agreement is also appropriate in light of the risk, expense, and 17 complexity of further litigation. As discussed above, the Settlement Agreement takes into 18 consideration the specific factual and legal hurdles faced by Plaintiff in establishing Defendant’s 19 penalty-liability in this case, which may have resulted in a net-zero recovery. Any recovery on these 20 claims is not certain. And even when liability is found, PAGA claims are discretionary, such that the 21 Court could decline to award their full value. Some of Plaintiff’s claims are also derivative, and as 22 such, Plaintiff must prevail on her underlying California Labor Code claims in order to prevail on the 23 derivative claims. These risks – when balanced with the fact that the Agreement achieved a very 24 significant recovery (as demonstrated below), and that further litigation posed a risk of diminishing 25 such recovery by increasing litigation expenses – weigh strongly in favor of settlement approval.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 3. The Benefits Conferred by the Agreement Balance in Favor of Approval

2 The Settlement Agreement provides a significant monetary benefit that falls well within the 3 range of an acceptable settlement under the circumstances, which is the standard on which the instant 4 Agreement must be judged. As held by the Ninth Circuit: “The proposed settlement is not to be judged 5 against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.”
6 (Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d at 625 (emphasis in original)). As the Second 7 Circuit has pointed out: “The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the 8 potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate 9 and should be disapproved.” (City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 455 & n.2 (2nd Cir.
10 1974)).

11 The Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be One Hundred Sixty Thousand Nine 12 Hundred and Four Dollars and Eighty-Five Cents ($160,904.85). After all deductions are made from 13 the Gross Settlement Amount for the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, General Release Fee, and Settlement 14 Administration Costs, One Hundred Twenty Thousand Six Hundred Seventy-Eight Dollars and Sixty-15 Four Cents ($120,678.64) (i.e. 75% of the Net Settlement Amount) will go to the LWDA, and Forty 16 Thousand Two Hundred Twenty-Six Dollars and Twenty-One Cents ($40,226.21) (i.e. 25% of the Net 17 Settlement Amount) will go to the Aggrieved Employees, as required by California Labor Code § 18 2699(i) in effect at the time of this matter (“civil penalties recovered by aggrieved employees shall be 19 distributed as follows: 75 percent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency . . . and 25 percent 20 to the aggrieved employees.”). (Genish Decl., ¶ 50). There is no reason to doubt the fairness of the 21 proposed plan of allocation of the Net Settlement Amount as it fully complies with California Labor 22 Code section 2699(i). (Ibid).

23 The Settlement Agreement is a compromise of highly disputed claims. (Id., ¶ 51). Plaintiff 24 and his counsel recognize the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to litigate the 25 matter through trial and any possible appeals. (Ibid). Plaintiff and his counsel have also taken into 26 account the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays 27 inherent in such litigation. (Ibid). Plaintiff and his counsel are also aware of the burdens of proof 28 necessary to establish liability, both generally and in response to Defendant’s defenses thereto, and

1 the difficulties in establishing Defendant’s liability for, and the right to recover, penalties on behalf of 2 Plaintiff, the State of California, and other Aggrieved Employees. (Ibid). Plaintiff and his counsel 3 have also taken into account Defendant’s agreement to enter into a settlement that confers significant 4 relief upon the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California. (Ibid). Considering all of the facts
5 in this case, Plaintiff and his counsel have determined that the Agreement represents a fair, adequate,
6 and reasonable resolution of the PAGA claims, and that it is in the best interests of the Aggrieved 7 Employees and the State of California. (Ibid).

8 The result achieved in this case is well within the range of what is considered an acceptable 9 settlement under the circumstances, especially when compared to the settlement of PAGA claims in 10 other cases. (Id., ¶ 52). (See, e.g., DCH Auto Wage and Hour Cases, Los Angeles Superior Court, 11 Case No. JCCP4833 (May 2017) [approving $15,000 out of $4 million toward settlement of PAGA 12 claims]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, at *9 (E.D. Cal. Oct. 29, 13 2012) [approving $10,000 out of $3.7 million toward settlement of PAGA claims]; Schiller v. David’s 14 Bridal, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80776, at *40 (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) [approving $7,500 out of 15 $518,245 toward settlement of PAGA claims]; Chu v. Wells Fargo Investments, LLC, 2011 U.S. Dist.
16 LEXIS 15821, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 15, 2011) (approving $10,000 out of $6.9 million toward 17 settlement of PAGA claims]; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, at *14
18 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2021) [approving $10,000 out of $2.5 million toward settlement of PAGA 19 claims]). Here, the value obtained for settlement of the PAGA claims is significant, and it will be 20 distributed in accordance with and in fulfillment of the objectives of the PAGA statute.

21 4. The Scope of the Release is Narrowly Tailored 22 As discussed above, the California Supreme Court has concluded that in the context of PAGA 23 “the nonparty employees, because they were not given notice of the action or afforded any opportunity 24 to be heard, would not be bound by the judgment as to remedies other than civil penalties.” (See Arias, 25 46 Cal. 4th, at 987). Thus, the scope of the limited release provided in exchange for the foregoing 26 consideration is limited to the civil penalties asserted in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA 27 Notice, under California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (See Settlement Agreement, at ¶ 6(a)).

28 As such, this factor balances strongly in favor of approval of the Agreement.

1 5. Experience and Views of Counsel Favor Approval

2 Plaintiff’s Counsel is experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-hour 3 litigation. (Genish Decl., ¶¶ 2-6 & 57). In the view of Plaintiff’s Counsel, the benefits conferred by 4 the Agreement are eminently fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of the State of California 5 and the Aggrieved Employees in light of the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation and 6 the substantial monetary benefits provided for by the Agreement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 53). Furthermore, 7 courts have acknowledged that “the interests of a plaintiff, counsel, and other potentially aggrieved 8 employees are largely aligned. All stand to gain from proving as convincingly as possible as many 9 Labor Code violations as the evidence will sustain[.]” (Williams v. Superior Court, 3 Cal. 5th 531, 10 548 (2017) [citing Labor Code § 2699(g)(l)(i)]).

11 6. The Extent of Discovery and Stage of Proceedings Favor Approval

12 In evaluating this element, the Court should be mindful that “‘formal discovery is not a 13 necessary ticket to the bargaining table’” [Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1239], as 14 the relevant consideration is “whether ‘the parties have sufficient information to make an informed 15 decision about settlement.’” (See Sandoval v. Roadlink United States Pac., Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist.
16 LEXIS 130378, at 26 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 9, 2011)).

17 Here, the extent of informal discovery conducted was sufficient to enable Plaintiff’s Counsel 18 to evaluate the strength and value of the PAGA claims for purposes of settlement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 19 54). Prior to settling, Defendant provided Plaintiff with data, information, and documents relating to 20 the underlying alleged violations, including, but not limited to, Plaintiff’s employee file, a sampling 21 of Aggrieved Employees’ time and payroll data, relevant wage and hour policies, and Aggrieved 22 Employees’ data points. (Id., ¶ 14). As discussed above, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s investigation was 23 sufficient to, among other things, tabulate with precision the total number of alleged California Labor 24 Code violations at issue during the relevant statutory period and identify the total number of 25 individuals falling within the definition of “Aggrieved Employees” for the relevant statutory period.
26 (Id., ¶ 15).

27 ///

28 ///

1 Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's experience litigating wage and hour claims, such investigation 2 was sufficient to determine the potential value of the PAGA claims, and to evaluate the strength of 3 these claims for purposes of settlement. (Ibid).

4 VI. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

5 As the prevailing party in settlement, Plaintiff is entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs 6 for bringing his PAGA claims. (Lab. Code § 2699(k) ["Any employee who prevails in any action 7 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."]). Plaintiff's Counsel is also 8 entitled to attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5(a), as the instant action 9 has resulted in the enforcement of important rights benefitting the public and secures monetary 10 recovery for the State of California as well as the Aggrieved Employees. A fee award is justified 11 where the legal action has produced its benefits by way of a voluntary settlement. (See, e.g., Maria P.
12 v. Riles, 43 Cal.3d 1281, 1290-91 (1987); Westside Community for Independent Living, Inc. v. Obledo, 13 33 Cal.3d 348, 352-53 (1983); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977) ["when a number of persons 14 are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff ... for the benefit of all 15 results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff ... may be awarded attorney's fees out 16 of the fund."]).

17 In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016), the California Supreme Court
18 confirmed that "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases."
19 Specifically, the Laffitte Court held:

20 The recognized advantages of the percentage method-including relative ease of 21 calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 22 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 23 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation-convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

24 (Id., at 503 [internal citation omitted]).

25 While trial courts have discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage-of-the-fund 26 method, the California Supreme Court has taken the position that trial courts also "retain the discretion 27 to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested 28 percentage fee." (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 506; see also Wershba, 91 Cal.App. 4th at 253). Courts award

1 fees to serve as an economic incentive for lawyers to undertake litigation, and thereby enhance and 2 facilitate access to the judicial system for adjudication of meritorious claims, and to deter wrongdoing.
3 This is especially true in situations where multiple similar alleged wrongs would not be economically 4 feasible to pursue individually, such as here. Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value 5 of attorneys’ fees and their decisions will “not be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of 6 discretion.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41 (2000); see also Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th 7 at 506 [holding that “trial court did not abuse its discretion in using [the percentage of fund method], 8 in part to approve the fee request”]). Indeed, it is long settled that the “experienced trial judge is the 9 best judge of the value of professional services rendered in his court.” (Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal.4th 10 1122, 1132 (2001)).

11 The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been 12 recovered and “the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified.” (In re Bluetooth Headset Prods.
13 Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 942 (9th Cir. 2011)). Where the amount of a settlement is a “certain or 14 easily calculable sum of money,” California courts may calculate attorneys’ fees as a reasonable 15 percentage of the settlement created. (Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure 16 Before Trial, Chapter 14, section 14:145; Dunk, supra, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1808). The percentage fee 17 method is preferred in representative actions because “it better approximates the workings of the 18 marketplace than the lodestar approach.” (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 49). California law 19 provides that the award for attorneys’ fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal 20 marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. (See 21 Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-50; Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 503). In cases where the settlement 22 agreement provides that the defendant will pay the plaintiffs’ attorneys a percentage of the fund created 23 by the settlement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 32). Fee 24 awards that are too small will “chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal 25 rights and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately 26 adjudicate numerous claims.” (Id. at 53). Therefore, fees in representative actions should approximate 27 the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in 28 comparable litigation. (Id. at 48). “The ultimate goal ... is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to

1 compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation.” (Consumer Privacy
2 Cases, 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (2009) [quoting Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court, supra, 3 126 Cal.App.4th at 1270]).

4 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances 5 surrounding the case is within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have awarded fees as 6 high as fifty percent (50%) of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of 7 the case. (See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig., 526 F.Supp. 494 (D.D.C. 1981) [awarding attorneys’ 8 fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3 million total settlement amount]; Beech Cinema, Inc. v.
9 Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. 480 F.Supp. 1195 (S.D.N.Y. 1979) [awarding approximately 53% 10 of the settlement as attorneys’ fees]).

11 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fee request of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., 12 $100,000.00) is fair and reasonable based on the percentage of the recovery method. Plaintiff’s 13 Counsel has vigorously litigated this case since it was commenced, with the very real possibility of an 14 unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind. (Genish Decl., ¶ 55). Counsel for Plaintiff 15 undertook significant investigation and invested a significant amount of time analyzing relevant 16 documents and data to evaluate the nature and extent of the alleged underlying California Labor Code 17 violations and calculation of the potential monetary recovery as they relate to Plaintiff’s PAGA claims 18 under PAGA. (Genish Decl., ¶¶ 57-58). Plaintiff’s Counsel possesses combined extensive experience 19 litigating wage and hour and other complex litigation matters, and the attorneys who worked on this 20 matter have been approved as class counsel and/or have had their billable rates approved in the 21 settlement of other class and PAGA actions, numerous times. (Genish Decl., ¶ 57-59).

22 In the present case, Plaintiff’s Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will 23 not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained. (Genish Decl., ¶ 56). Plaintiff’s Counsel is 24 experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a favorable result 25 for Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California. (Ibid). Considering the amount 26 of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, and experience of Plaintiff’s Counsel in handling 27 similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys’ fees of one-third (1/3) of the Gross 28 Settlement Amount (i.e., $100,000.00) are reasonable and should be awarded. (Genish Decl., ¶ 56).

1 VII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

2 The Agreement provides for reimbursement of actual litigation costs and expenses up to the 3 amount of Twenty-Eight Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($28,000.00). (Genish Decl., ¶ 60; 4 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(1)). Plaintiff's Counsel only seeks reimbursement of a total of Twenty-5 Six Thousand Ninety-Five Dollars and Fifteen Cents ($26,095.15) in litigation costs and expenses.
6 (Genish Decl., ¶ 60 & Exh. 4). Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel respectfully requests that the Court 7 reimburse it for actual litigation costs and expenses in the amount of Twenty-Six Thousand Ninety-8 Five Dollars and Fifteen Cents ($26,095.15).

9 VIII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE FAIR AND 10 REASONABLE

11 As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Parties have agreed to retain, subject to approval 12 by the Court, ILYM Group, Inc. to handle the administration of the Agreement. (Genish Decl., ¶ 61; 13 Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(3)). The fees and expenses of the Administrator are estimated not to 14 exceed Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00). (Genish Decl., ¶ 61; Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3(a)(3)).
15 These costs include, but are not limited to, expenses for preparing, translating, printing, and mailing 16 the Cover Letter and Individual PAGA Payment checks to the Aggrieved Employees, re-mailing the 17 returned Individual PAGA Payment checks to any new addresses obtained, and handling inquiries 18 from Aggrieved Employees regarding the Agreement, among other things. (Genish Decl., ¶ 61).
19 Accordingly, the Court should grant approval of the Settlement Administration Costs in the amount 20 of up to Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) to ILYM Group, Inc., a necessary third-party for handling 21 the settlement process. (Ibid).

22 IX. THE REQUESTED GENERAL RELEASE FEE IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

23 The purpose of an enhancement award is to incentivize aggrieved employees to step into the 24 shoes of the state labor agency and undertake the responsibilities associated with initiating a lawsuit 25 and serving in a representative capacity. (See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 26 726 (2004) (upholding "service payments" to named plaintiffs for their efforts in bringing the action); 27 Clark v. Am. Residential Servs., LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (2009) ("an incentive award is 28 appropriate 'if it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit'"). Plaintiff initiated

1 this litigation on behalf of the State of California and her former co-workers who will now be entitled 2 to receive payment from the Agreement. By initiating and pursuing the Action, Plaintiff stepped into 3 the shoes of the State of California and undertook the responsibilities of serving in a representative 4 capacity. (Genish Decl., ¶ 63; Fosados Decl., ¶¶ 4-6). Plaintiff was available whenever Plaintiff's 5 counsel needed him and actively tried to obtain information that would benefit the prosecution of the 6 Action. (Genish Decl., ¶ 63; Fosados Decl., ¶¶ 9). The General Release Fee for Plaintiff is eminently 7 reasonable given the time and effort Plaintiff spent on this matter, his services on behalf of the State 8 of California and the Aggrieved Employees, and his broader, general release of claims. (Genish Decl., 9 ¶ 64).

10 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully submits that it is appropriate and just for Plaintiff to receive 11 a General Release Fee in the amount of Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,000.00) in addition 12 to the Individual PAGA Payment he will receive as an Aggrieved Employee, for his services on behalf 13 of the State of California and the other Aggrieved Employees, as well as for the broader, general 14 release of claims. (Genish Decl., ¶ 62).

15 X. CONCLUSION

16 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's 17 Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement and Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs, General Release 18 Fee, and Settlement Administration Costs and grant the relief requested herein.

20 Respectfully submitted,
