1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769 (d) and (e), Plaintiff Juan Manuel Gomez (“Plaintiff”)
3 requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims,
4 including a claim under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code
5 §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), entered into with Defendants Westcoast Paratransit, Inc. and Good Care 6 Medical Transport Non-Emergency (“Defendants”). The putative class consists of all persons currently 7 or formerly employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in the State of California at any time
8 during the Class Period (individually, “Class Member”; collectively, the “Class”). The Class Period
9 means January 30, 2020 through January 22, 2025. The basic terms of the Class and PAGA Settlement 10 Agreement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”)¹ provide for the following:

- 11 (1) A non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $575,000.00 allocated to 12 approximately 353 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the number of 13 weeks each Class Member worked during the Class Period; 14 (2) An award of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently 15 $191,666.67) and up to $30,000.00 in reimbursement of costs to Plaintiff’s 16 Counsel for services rendered as counsel on this matter; 17 (3) Class Representative Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 to the Named Plaintiff; 18 (4) Settlement Administration fees and costs of up to $7,900.00; and 19 (5) Allocation of $25,000 for resolution of civil penalties under PAGA. Seventy-five 20 percent (75%) of this payment will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce 21 Development Agency (“LWDA Payment”), and twenty-five percent (25%) will be 22 paid to Class Members who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”).

24 With each Class Member allocated an average recovery of approximately $879 from the Net 25

26 ¹ A true and correct copy of the fully-executed “Class and PAGA Settlement Agreement” is attached as 27 Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Julia M. Toscano in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary 28 Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Toscano Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms in this Motion will be used as such terms are defined and used in the Settlement.

Settlement Amount, the Settlement satisfies the criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within the range of reasonableness given the risks and costs of continued litigation. The Settlement was reached through informed, arms-length bargaining at and after mediation between experienced attorneys. As such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to send notice of the Settlement, and set a final approval hearing date.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

On January 29, 2024, Plaintiff's Counsel provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants regarding Defendants' alleged Labor Code violations, as required by Labor Code section 2699.3(a). Toscano Decl., ¶ 3, Exhibit 2. The LWDA did not respond to this notice, indicating it did not intend to investigate, thus allowing Plaintiff to bring a PAGA claim against Defendant. Id. On January 30, 2024, Plaintiff filed this putative class action on behalf of Defendants' non-exempt employees alleging the following causes of action: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to permit rest breaks; (5) failure to reimburse business expenses; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment; (8) and violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; for the preceding claims. Id. at ¶ 4.

The Parties agreed to attend early, private mediation and agreed to stay the action pending mediation. Toscano Decl., ¶ 5. To that end, through informal discovery, Defendants produced a significant amount of documents and information, including Plaintiff's personnel files, policy documents, and a 20% sample of class members' timekeeping and pay records. Id. In preparation of mediation, Plaintiff's counsel worked with experts to analyze the time-keeping and payroll data related to the claims in order to evaluate the potential damages and penalties. Id.

The Parties attended mediation on January 22, 2025, with Gig Kyriacou, a respected wage and hour mediator. Toscano Decl., ¶ 6. After a full day of negotiating, the mediator made a mediator's proposal, which was eventually accepted by the Parties. Id. The Parties spent the next several months negotiating the terms of the Settlement, which was finalized in June of 2025. Id. The negotiations were adversarial,

1 conducted at arm's length and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients.
2 Id.

3 On June 10, 2025, Plaintiff submitted the Settlement and this Motion to the LWDA pursuant to 4 Labor Code section 2699(1)(2). Toscano Decl., ¶ 7. Ex. 3.

5 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

6 A. Terms of Settlement

7 Plaintiff and Defendants agreed to settle the class claims in exchange for a Gross Settlement 8 Amount of $575,000.00 Settlement Agreement, § 3.1. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to 9 make payments for the following: (1) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members;
10 (2) attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount; (3)
11 reimbursement of Class Counsel's litigation costs of up to $30,000.00; (4) a Class Representative 12 Service Payment to Plaintiff of up to $10,000; (5) Settlement Administration fees and costs of $7,900; 13 and (6) a payment to the LWDA of $18,750 pursuant to PAGA. Id. at §§ 3.2.1 - 3.2.3.

14 Class Members do not need to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Settlement 15 Agreement, § 3.1. Defendants will fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts 16 necessary to fully pay Defendants' share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator 17 no later than 65 days after the Effective Date. Id. at § 4.3. The Effective Date is the date in which the 18 Court enters a Judgment on its Order Granting Final Approval and the Judgment is final. Id. at § 1.18.
19 Class Members' Individual Settlement Payments will then be distributed within 10 business days after 20 Defendants fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at § 4.4. Individual Settlement Payments will 21 be calculated by comparing the total number of Workweeks for the Class to each individual Class 22 Member's number of Workweeks. Id. at § 4.4. The Settlement Administrator will calculate the actual 23 estimated recovery to include in the Class Notice and provide the estimated low and high range of 24 possible recovery at final approval. Id. at § 7.4.2; Settlement Agreement, Ex. A (Notice of Class Action 25 Settlement).

26 The Individual Settlement Payments to Class Members will be allocated for tax purposes as 27 follows: 20% to wages; 80% to penalties and interest. Settlement Agreement, § 3.2.4.1. The employer-28 side payroll taxes on the portion allocated to wages will be paid by Defendants separately from, and in

1 addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.1. No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will 2 revert to Defendants. Id. Funds from uncashed or undeliverable checks will be tendered by the Settlement 3 Administrator to the State Controller Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member for 4 whom the funds are designated. Id. at § 4.4.3.

5 B. Proposed Opt-Out and Objection Process

6 Once the Court grants preliminary approval, Defendant will have 14 business days to deliver the 7 Class Data to the Settlement Administrator. Settlement Agreement, § 4.2. The Settlement Administrator 8 will then have 14 days to send Class Members the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”) by 9 first-class mail after checking for updated addresses through the National Change of Address database.
10 Id. at § 7.4.2. The Class Notice provides information regarding the nature of the lawsuit, a summary of 11 the substance of the settlement terms, the formula for calculating Individual Settlement Payments, the 12 individual’s estimated payout, a statement that Class Members who take no action will release their 13 claims and receive settlement checks, instructions regarding how to dispute the calculations, instructions 14 regarding how to request exclusion or object to the Settlement, the date for the final approval hearing, 15 the amounts sought for attorneys’ fees and costs, the Settlement Administration Costs, the Class 16 Representative’s Service Payment, and the PAGA allocation. See Settlement Agreement, Ex. A (Class 17 Notice).

18 The Class Notice provides instructions for Class Members who choose to exclude themselves 19 from the Settlement. See Settlement Agreement § 7.5.1. To opt out, Class Members are instructed to 20 submit a Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator by a specified date (45 days after the date 21 of mailing of the Class Notice). See Settlement Agreement, Ex. A (Class Notice), pp. 2, 5, 7 Class
22 Members do not need to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Id. at p. 2. Class Members 23 are informed of how they can object to the Settlement, and the Class Notice informs Class Members of 24 the date, time, and location of the final fairness and approval hearing so that they can appear in person.
25 Id. at pp. 2, 7, 8. The Class Notice also informs Class Members to check the Administrator’s website or 26 contact Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing. Id. at p. 8. Accordingly, 27 the content of the Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of Court Rule 3.766(d).
28

1 If Class Notice packets are returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will perform a 2 skip-trace or other search, and re-mail the Class Notice with an extended response deadline to opt out,
3 challenge, or object, of an additional 14 days from the initial Response Deadline. Settlement Agreement, 4 § 7.4.4. The initial 45-day notice period and extension process ensures the notice program provides due 5 process by giving Class Members enough time to determine whether they want to participate in the 6 Settlement. This means of notice is reasonably calculated to apprise Class Members of the pendency of 7 the action. See California Rules of Court Rule 3.766 (d)-(f).

8 C. Proposed Release

9 The release to be given by Class Members is limited to Defendants and all of their respective past, 10 present and/or future, direct and/or indirect, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents, 11 representatives, attorneys, insurers, partners, investors, shareholders, administrators, parent companies, 12 subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, predecessors, successors, assigns, and joint venturers (the “Released 13 Parties”). Settlement Agreement, § 1.40. Under the proposed release, Class Members who do not 14 exclude themselves from the Settlement will be deemed to have released the following:

15 (i) all claims all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on 16 the facts stated in the operative complaint that arose during the Class Period (defined below), 17 including claims for: (1) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of Labor Code sections 18 1197, and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (2) failure to pay overtime wages
19 in violation of Labor Code sections 510, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (3) failure
20 to pay sick wages at the proper legal rate in violation of Labor Code sections 227.3 and 246; 21 (4) failure to provide compliant rest periods and pay missed rest break premiums in violation 22 of Labor Code section 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (5) failure to provide 23 compliant meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums in violation of Labor Code
24 sections 226.7 and 512, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (6) failure to pay all wages 25 due and owing during employment in violation of Labor Code section 204; (7) failure to 26 pay all wages due at separation of employment in violation of Labor Code sections 201-27 203; (8) failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements in violation of Labor 28 Code sections 226 and 226.3; (9) failure to maintain accurate payroll records in violation of

1 section 1174 and 1174.4; (10) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses in violation 2 of Labor Code sections 2800-2804; (11) violations of ICRAA, Civil Code section 1786.16; 3 (12) deceptive, fraudulent, or otherwise unlawful business practices based on the foregoing 4 in violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law (Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 17200–17210); 5 and (13) all claims for liquidated damages, penalties, interest, fees, costs based on the 6 foregoing. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members 7 do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, 8 violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, 9 social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class 10 Period.

11 Id. at § 5.2. Aggrieved Employees will release the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties 12 that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the operative 13 complaint (and the PAGA Notices), which occurred during the PAGA Period. Id. at § 5.3.

14 Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release of any and all claims, whether known or unknown, 15 which exist or may exist on Plaintiff’s behalf as of the date of the Settlement, and a waiver of Civil Code 16 section 1542. Settlement Agreement, § 5.1.

17 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENTS SUPPORTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

18 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

19 Class certification is appropriate when there exists (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous 20 class, (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members, and (3) when certification would 21 be a fair and efficient means of adjudicating the action, rendering class litigation superior to alternative 22 means. See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012).

23 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

24 Whether a class is “ascertainable” is “determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the 25 size of the class, and (3) the means available for identifying class members.” Reyes v. Bd. of Supervisors, 26 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271 (1987). Here, the Class consists of all persons currently or formerly 27 employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in the State of California at any time during the Class 28 Period from January 30, 2020 through January 22, 2025. Settlement Agreement, §§ 1.5, 1.12. Defendants’

1 records show the Class consists of approximately 353 individuals, making joinder of all Class Members
2 impracticable. Toscano Decl., ¶ 11. Further, the Class is readily ascertainable from Defendants' business 3 records because all Class Members are current or former employees of Defendants. Id.

4 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists Among Class Members

5 “[T]he ‘community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 6 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) 7 class representatives who can adequately represent the class.’” Fireside Bank v. Superior Court, 40 Cal.
8 4th 1069, 1089 (2007) (quoting Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470 (1981)).

9 a. Common Questions Predominate

10 To assess whether common questions predominate, courts focus on whether the theories of 11 recovery advanced are likely to prove amenable to class treatment. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
12 Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 327 (2004). In other words, courts determine whether the elements 13 necessary to establish liability are susceptible of common proof, even if the class members must 14 individually prove their damages. Brinker, supra, 53 Cal. 4th at 1021-1022, 1024.

15 Plaintiff alleged that Defendants maintained uniform employment policies and/or practices that 16 illegally deprived Class Members of lawful wages, meal periods, rest breaks, accurate wage statements, 17 and waiting time pay. Toscano Decl., ¶ 9. Plaintiff's allegations present common legal and factual 18 questions of, inter alia, whether Defendants applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, compensation, 19 meal period, and rest break policies to all Class Members; whether these policies and practices resulted in 20 Labor Code violations; whether Defendants' conduct was intentional; and whether Class Members are 21 entitled to penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class Members' schedules, 22 time punches, and payroll records, Defendant's corporate representative's testimony, written 23 communications between Defendants and Class Members, and Class Member declarations. Id. Thus, the 24 Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

25 b. Plaintiff's Claims are Typical of the Class Claims

26 The typicality requirement is satisfied when the legal theories and facts supporting Plaintiff's 27 claims are substantially similar to other class members. See Classen v. Weller, 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 46 28 (1983). Here, Plaintiff alleges that he and other Class Members were employed by Defendants and

1 injured by Defendants' common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendants'
2 scheduling, timekeeping, compensation, meal period, and rest break practices and policies. Toscano
3 Decl., ¶ 10. Through documents and information exchanged in informal discovery, Plaintiff confirmed
4 that these common policies and practices similarly affected Plaintiff and the Class. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's 5 claims arise from the same employment practices and are based on the same legal theories as those 6 applicable to other Class Members, as further explained in Plaintiff's exposure analysis below.

7 c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Interests of 8 the Proposed Class

9 Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative(s) and proposed class 10 counsel. With respect to the class representative, a plaintiff must adequately represent and protect the 11 interests of other members of the class and demonstrate that his or her claim is not inconsistent with the 12 claims of other members of the class. See Capitol People First v. State Dep't of Developmental Servs., 13 155 Cal. App. 4th 676, 696-697 (2007). Here, Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with the interests of 14 the Class. Plaintiff demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of the Class by litigating this 15 action, gathering documents and information, helping respond to written discovery, being available on 16 the day of mediation to answer questions, meeting with his attorneys on several occasions to understand 17 the claims and theories of liability at issue, assisting attorneys in preparing for mediation, reviewing the 18 proposed settlement agreement to understand its legal effect, and obtaining a fair settlement on behalf 19 of Class Members who stand to recover a substantial amount under the Settlement. Toscano Decl., ¶ 20.

20 Likewise, Aegis Law Firm, PC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will 21 continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Toscano Decl. Accordingly, Plaintiff should be 22 appointed Class Representative, and Plaintiff's Counsel should be appointed Class Counsel

23 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

24 Class treatment is superior to other methods of adjudication when the probability is small that 25 each class member will come forward to prove his or her claim and when the class approach would deter 26 and redress the alleged wrongdoing. See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435, 446 (2000); 27 Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 1537-1538 (2008). Here, none of the other 28

353 Class Members had shown any interest in bearing the expense and burden of litigating their own claims. Toscano Decl., ¶ 20. Thus, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

Preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a “reasonable range.” See North County Contractor’s Ass’n., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Servs., 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994); Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, § 11.26 (4th ed. 2002). In reviewing the fairness of a class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is “otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1389 (2010). The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id.

Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where (1) the settlement is reached through “arms-length bargaining”; (2) investigation and discovery are “sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently”; (3) counsel is “experienced in similar litigation”; and (4) the percentage of objectors “is small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996). The Settlement satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at the final approval stage.

1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm’s-Length Negotiations

Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are conducted in good faith. Here, the Settlement was the product of extensive investigation and a full day mediation session with a respected mediator after analyzing extensive discovery. Toscano Decl. ¶¶ 5-6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm’s length and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id. at ¶ 6. The amount of Plaintiff’s requested Service Award was not negotiated until after the Parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. Id. at ¶ 21.

1 b. Plaintiff's Counsel Conducted Sufficient Investigation and Discovery

2 Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the class claims, applicable law, and potential
3 defenses. See generally, Toscano Decl. In particular, Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value of the class 4 claims using Defendant's data and documents produced through discovery. Toscano Decl., ¶ 10.
5 Plaintiff's counsel extensively reviewed policy documents and compared Class Members' handwritten 6 time to their pay records to perform a thorough analysis. Id. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel engaged an 7 expert to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks
8 associated with each of the claims meriting reductions in the likely recovery at trial. Id. Accordingly, 9 Plaintiff's Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the claims before the Parties 10 reached a settlement. Id.

11 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

12 Plaintiff is represented by Aegis Law Firm, PC ("Class Counsel"). Class Counsel prosecute wage 13 and hour class actions on behalf of employees and others who have had their rights violated. Toscano 14 Decl. ¶¶ 23-35. The attorneys working on this case have been appointed class counsel in many cases, 15 through both contested motions and settlement approval motions. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's Counsel has 16 extensive experience in similar litigation and should be appointed as Class Counsel.

17 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims and 18 the Risks and Expense of Litigation

19 Courts have discretion to approve class settlements by assessing several factors, including the 20 "strength of plaintiffs' case, risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation and risk 21 of maintaining the class action through trial." Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A., 186 Cal.
22 App. 4th 399, 407 (2010); see Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 129 (2008).

23 While Plaintiff and his counsel believed and continue to believe this is a strong case for 24 certification, the significant risks and expenses associated with class certification and liability 25 proceedings were taken into account. Toscano Decl., ¶ 12. To determine if the amount offered at 26 mediation was reasonable, Plaintiff's Counsel weighed that figure against many risk factors. Id. at ¶ 13.
27 If Plaintiff continued to prosecute the claims rather than accept a settlement, Plaintiff would have faced 28 deadlines to file a motion for class certification, had to have engaged in formal discovery and taken

1 depositions, expended time and resources to resolve disputes, prepared and filed potential dispositive 2 motions and/or discovery motions, and engaged in extensive trial preparation. Id. An adverse ruling at 3 any one of these stages could have prevented the Class from obtaining any recovery. Id.

4 a. Exposure Analysis

5 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered a fair and 6 reasonable settlement. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal. App. 3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Rather, 7 compromise is expected:

8 Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if “the relief afforded 9 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 10 successfully litigated,” this is no bar to a class settlement because “the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”

11 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 250 (2001) (citation omitted). Here, Plaintiff 12 contends that his claims are based on Defendants’ common, class-wide policies and procedures, and 13 that liability could be determined on a class-wide basis without dependence on individual assessments 14 of liability. Toscano Decl., ¶ 11. Although the amount of Defendants’ potential exposure – if proven – 15 is substantial, the legitimate and serious risks of succeeding at class certification and trial compelled a 16 serious consideration of the benefit of a settlement. Id. at ¶ 13.

17 Expense Reimbursement Claim: Plaintiff believed his strongest claim was based on Defendants’ 18 failure to reimburse business expenses. Toscano Decl., ¶ 14. Plaintiff alleged that Class Members were 19 required to use their personal cell phones to carry out their job duties. Id. Specifically, Plaintiff’s job 20 was to provide non-emergency medical transportation and as such, he needed to use his cell phone to 21 obtain patient contact information, directions, and to communicate with dispatchers and patients. Id.
22 Assuming each Class Member incurred an expense of $30 per month, then damages could reach up to 23 $189,000. Id. However, Defendants argued that this claim would be limited to only those who worked 24 in similar driving positions as Plaintiff. Id. Further, Defendants argued that there was no source of 25 common proof as to who incurred these cell phone expenses, whether they sought reimbursement, and 26 how much would make them whole, making the claim difficult to prove damages at trial. Id. As such, 27 Plaintiff assumed there would be a 80% chance at class certification and a 60% chance at trial, ultimately 28 valuing this claim at $91,000 for settlement purposes. Id.

1 Minimum Wage and Overtime Claims: Plaintiff's minimum wage and overtime claims were 2 premised on the theory that Defendants rounded class members' time punches that resulted in an 3 underpayment of wages. Toscano Decl., ¶ 15. Plaintiff's expert calculated that this claim was worth 4 approximately $28,218, with about 4% of pay periods having unpaid overtime. Id. However, Defendants 5 argued that any underpayment was a result of employees' incorrect timekeeping. Id. Defendant initially 6 required employees to record their time on handwritten timesheets, and then changed its timekeeping
7 practice in 2020 to have employees electronically record their time. Id. This electronic timekeeping 8 system then paid for all time recorded. Id. Therefore, Plaintiff would face difficulty proving 9 commonality of this claim throughout the class period. Id. As such, Plaintiff assumed there was a 70% 10 chance of success at class certification and a 60% chance of success at trial, rendering this claim worth 11 approximately $12,000 for settlement purposes. Id.

12 Meal Period Claims: Plaintiff's meal period claim was potentially worth about $60,000 in light 13 of the violations shown in the records. Toscano Decl., ¶ 16. However, Defendants argued that they 14 maintained compliant written policies and provided evidence that they paid meal period premiums when 15 violations showed records. Defendants also argued that employees could waive their right to a meal 16 period when they worked less than 6 hours or between 10-12 hours. Id. If the Court considered that 17 there were valid meal waivers, then the violation rate would drop significantly. Id. Thus, Plaintiff 18 discounted this claim for the risk that the damages could at least be reduced, and that the claim would 19 be hard to certify with an updated compliant policy. Id. As such, Plaintiff's counsel believed there was 20 a 50% chance succeeding at class certification and a 30% chance at trial, resulting in a value of about 21 $9,000. Id.

22 Rest Break Claim: Plaintiff alleged that Defendants failed to authorize or permit timely rest breaks 23 due to the productivity requirements imposed on class members. Toscano Decl., ¶ 17. If Plaintiff could 24 prove a 100% violation rate for each shift over 3.5 hours, then damages could reach up to $1.99 million.
25 Id. However, Defendants again argued that they maintained compliant written rest break policies and 26 that class members could again choose to waive their rest breaks. Id. Further, Defendants showed that 27 rest breaks were possible in between servicing customers by referencing schedules worked. Id. As such, 28 this claim would have relied on Class Member testimony, making it a riskier claim at class certification

1 and liability stages. Id. Plaintiff’s counsel believed there was a 30% chance succeeding at class 2 certification and a 10% chance at trial, resulting in a value of $59,000. Id.

3 Waiting Time and Wage Statement Penalties: Plaintiff’s Counsel also considered the arguable 4 presence of various derivative penalties, and weighed the potential recoveries against probable defenses.
5 Toscano Decl., ¶ 18. Specifically, Defendants could argue that Plaintiff could not prove the “willful”
6 prong needed to obtain waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203. Id. Additionally, Defendants
7 could argue that Plaintiff could not show that Class Members suffered an “injury” as a result of wage 8 statement violations, as required by Labor Code section 226. Id. Moreover, Plaintiff would not recover
9 any of these derivative penalties if he failed to prove the underlying claims. Id. Although the Class 10 arguably could have seen a payout of approximately $752,000 for waiting time penalties and $538,000 11 for wage statement penalties, Plaintiff would not recover any of these derivative penalties if he failed to 12 prove the underlying claims. Id. Thus, Plaintiff discounted these claims assuming a 50% chance of class 13 certification and 30% chance at the merits for both claims, resulting in a realistic value of $112,000 for 14 the waiting time claim and $80,000 for the wage statement claim. Id.

15 PAGA Claim: The PAGA claim presented even higher hurdles. Although Plaintiff’s Counsel 16 found Defendants’ exposure could potentially reach $551,100 under Labor Code section 2699(f), 17 assuming the initial penalty rate of $100 for every pay period, Plaintiff would have to prove a violation 18 in each pay period. Toscano Decl. ¶ 22. Most importantly, the Court would have discretion to reduce 19 the PAGA award based on whether the amount of the award would be “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, 20 or confiscatory.” Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2). In theory, the Court could reduce the award by 99% if it so 21 wished. Plaintiff was doubtful he could recover any PAGA penalties, especially in light of Defendants’ 22 compliant written policies and payment of meal period premiums. Toscano Decl. ¶ 22. Accordingly, 23 Plaintiff could not place a high value on the PAGA penalties, and therefore allocated $25,000.00 of the 24 Gross Settlement Amount to settle these claims. Id.

25 C. The Requested Service Award for Plaintiff

26 Plaintiff seeks a Service Award of up to $10,000.00 each for accepting the responsibilities of 27 representing the interests of the Class and assuming risks and potential costs that were not borne by any 28 other Class Members. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates him or her

1 for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone
2 Termination Fee Cases, supra, 186 Cal. App. 4th at 1393; Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal. App. 4th 3 715, 726 (2004).

4 Here, Plaintiff had the option to pursue his claims individually, but instead chose to pursue this 5 class action, delaying individual recovery until approval of a class action settlement. Toscano Decl., ¶ 6 23. Throughout the case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering the evidence necessary to prosecute the 7 class claims, helped respond to written discovery, maintained regular contact with counsel, was 8 available on the day of mediation and communicated with his attorneys during the day of mediation to 9 answer critical questions, and reviewed the Settlement to make sure it was fair to the Class. Id. No action 10 would likely have been taken by Class Members individually, and no compensation would have been 11 recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. Id.

12 By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing 13 the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc., supra, 34 Cal. 4th at 340. The requested 14 Service Award for Plaintiff's service as the class representative and for a general release of all 15 employment claims is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. At the final approval stage, 16 Plaintiff will further support the request for the Service by declaration addressing the factors for the 17 award. Toscano Decl., ¶ 25.

18 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

19 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested 20 in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class.
21 Attorneys' fees are awarded as a matter of equity. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees 22 equaling one-third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162
23 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008) ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage 24 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 25 recovery").

26 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC as Class Counsel. The attorneys performed 27 significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting the matter with no guarantee of any 28 payment. Toscano Decl., ¶ 36. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval for $191,666.67 in

1 attorneys' fees, which is up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and up to $30,000.00 in 2 reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information
3 exchange, and substantial recovery obtained on behalf of Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel
4 achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Toscano Decl. At final 5 approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award of attorneys' fees 6 and litigation costs. Id. at ¶ 37.

7 V. CONCLUSION

8 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement of the class claims in light of the 9 risks present in this case. Plaintiff has appropriately presented the materials and information necessary 10 for preliminary approval, and therefore, respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the 11 Settlement and schedule a date to conduct the final approval hearing.
