Case No. 24CECG00038

*Assigned for All Purposes to:
Judge D Tyler Tharpe; Dept. 501*

[Amended as a matter of right, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(2)(C)]

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
4. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
5. Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses;
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
7. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment;
8. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and
9. Enforcement of Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”)

1 Plaintiff Milagros Dominguez Perez, individually and on behalf of others similarly
2 situated, alleges as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiff Milagros Dominguez Perez (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class action
5 and representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code.
6 § 2698 et seq., against defendants Tatum Psychology Employment Group, Inc. (f/k/a Tatum
7 Employment Group LLC); Sierra Meadows Behavioral Health, A Professional Psychology
8 Corporation, and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own 9 behalf and on behalf of California citizens who are and were employed by Defendants as non-
10 exempt employees throughout California.

11 2. Defendants provide services or goods throughout California.

12 3. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in a systematic 13 pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare
14 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair 15 competition.

16 4. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 17 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 18 (a) failing to pay all wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages);
- 19 (b) failing to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
- 20 (c) failing to authorize or permit lawful rest breaks or provide compensation 21 in lieu thereof;
- 22 (d) failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs;
- 23 (e) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 24 (f) failing to pay wages timely during employment; and
- 25 (g) failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

26 5. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of Plaintiff and all
27 others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, un-28

1 reimbursed business expenses, benefits, interest, attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, and
2 penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 3 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 119.1, 1198, 2800, 2802, 2698, et seq., and 4 Code of California Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 6. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The 7 monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of 8 the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

9 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California
10 Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes
11 except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 12 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

13 8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and 14 belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 15 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 16 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 17 substantial justice.

18 9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
19 reside, transact business, or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein
20 took place in this county.

21 THE PARTIES

22 10. Plaintiff is a resident of California and worked for Defendants during the relevant 23 time periods as alleged herein.

24 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that at all times hereinafter
25 mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as 26 employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of 27 California.

1 12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein
2 under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this 3 Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities become 4 known.

5 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 20
6 are or were the partners, agents, owners, shareholders, managers, or employees of Defendants at 7 all relevant times.

8 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each defendant acted 9 in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint 10 scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant
11 are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as the 12 employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the class members.

13 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the acts
14 and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or DOES 15 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on the 16 other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the 17 official policy of Defendants.

18 16. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of 19 such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At 20 all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of 21 each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

22 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said
23 Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts, 24 omissions, occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

25 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26 18. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own
27 behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor
28 Code, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, and IWC Wage Order violations.

1 19. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks
2 relief authorized by California law.

3 20. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

4 Class

5 All California citizens currently or formerly employed by Defendants as non-
6 exempt employees in the State of California at any time between July 9, 2019¹
7 and the date of class certification ("Class").

8 21. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following subclasses of employees:

9 Waiting Time Subclass

10 All members of the Class who separated their employment with Defendant at any 11 time between July 9, 2020 and the date of class certification ("Waiting Time 12 Subclass").

13 22. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish additional 14 subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 15 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

16 23. Members of the Class and the Waiting Time Subclass described above will be 17 collectively referred to as "Class Members."

18 24. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 19 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to,
20 the following:

- 21 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 22 (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 23 Plaintiff and Class Members.

24
25
26
27 ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled between April 6, 2020 and October 1, 2020
28 pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

- 1 (b) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to work over 2 eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, and/or over forty
3 (40) hours per week and failed to pay them proper overtime compensation
4 for all overtime hours worked.
- 5 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of timely meal
6 periods or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through meal
7 periods without legal compensation.
- 8 (d) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of rest breaks
9 or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through rest breaks.
- 10 (e) Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for 11 necessary business-related costs expended for the benefit of Defendants.
- 12 (f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members 13 accurate itemized wage statements.
- 14 (g) Whether Defendants failed to pay wages timely to Plaintiff and Class
15 Members;
- 16 (h) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay the Waiting Time Subclass all 17 wages due upon termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of 18 resignation.
- 19 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless.
- 20 (j) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 21 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 25. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed 23 Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

24 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
25 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to Plaintiff at this time,
26 on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals. The 27 identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
28 employment and payroll records.

1 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims
2 (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with the 3 provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay,
4 benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries
5 sustained by the Class Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants'
6 common course of conduct as alleged herein.

7 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the 8 interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims
9 alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 10 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and 11 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 12 incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and 13 costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 14 substantial benefit of the Class Members.

15 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action
16 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and 17 expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the 18 same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class and Waiting Time
19 Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods
20 to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

21 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate
22 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
23 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions
24 because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through 25 negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named 26 in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while 27 affording them privacy protections.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other California residents as non-exempt employees throughout California at Defendants' California business location(s).

27. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals who were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel practices, and the requirements of California law.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive wages for all time worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages) and that they were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid all wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked at the correct rate and within the correct time.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all required meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was late, missed, or interrupted. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1)

1 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break
2 was missed, late, or interrupted.

3 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 4 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to reimbursement and/or 5 indemnification for all necessary business expenditures or losses as a direct consequence of the 6 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants. In violation of the 7 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary business
8 expenses or losses, but were not reimbursed nor indemnified of such expenses or losses that were 9 incurred as a direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the 10 directions of Defendants.

11 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 12 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive itemized wage
13 statements that accurately showed the following information pursuant to the Labor Code: (1)
14 gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units
15 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all
16 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
17 aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 18 which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or 19 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
20 number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable 21 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 22 each hourly rate by the employee. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members 23 were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

24 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 25 should have known that the Waiting Time Subclass was entitled to timely payment of wages due
26 upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, the Waiting Time Subclass did 27 not receive payment of all wages within the permissible time periods.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants' profits.

36. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover, among other things, unpaid wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages), unpaid meal period premium payments, unpaid rest period premium payments, unreimbursed business expenditures, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs, and expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, and 1197; Violation of IWC Wage Order §3-4)

37. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

38. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

39. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

40. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages owed when Defendants did not pay minimum wage for all hours worked.

41. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay at least minimum wage to Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

42. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the required minimum wage violates Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to these sections, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

1 43. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to
2 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and the accrued
3 interest thereon.

4 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

6 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 3)

7 44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
8 though fully set forth herein.

9 45. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 10 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half
11 (1½) or two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours
12 worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

13 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 14 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at the rate of one 15 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in 16 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first 17 eight (8) hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

18 47. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 19 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at a rate of two times 20 their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in 21 a day or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

22 48. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one
23 and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 24 day or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh
25 consecutive day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours 26 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 27 seventh day of work in a workweek.

1 49. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that employment
2 of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays proper overtime
3 compensation as set forth herein.

4 50. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of 5 California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

6 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members
7 to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or on a seventh
8 consecutive day of work, entitling them to overtime wages.

9 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class 10 Members overtime wages for all overtime hours worked. To the extent these hours qualify for 11 the payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid proper overtime 12 wages.

13 53. In violation of California law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to 14 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and 15 all hours worked.

16 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the unpaid balance of 17 overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor Code §§ 18 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

19 55. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 20 recover their unpaid overtime and double time compensation as well as interest, costs, and 21 attorneys' fees.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

24 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

25 56. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 26 though fully set forth herein.

27 57. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
28 during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

1 58. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, “[n]o employer shall
2 employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not
3 less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will 4 complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 5 the employee.”

6 59. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit
7 an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours in a day without providing the 8 employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if 9 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may 10 be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

11 60. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee
12 for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a
13 second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no 14 more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the 15 employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

16 61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members worked more than 17 five (5) or ten (10) hours and did not receive all compliant meal periods because their meal
18 periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second 19 meal period.

20 62. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require 21 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of 22 compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

23 63. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal
24 period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b)
25 and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

26 64. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an 27 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and 28 Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

3 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

4 65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
5 though fully set forth herein.

6 66. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to 7 work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

8 67. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “[e]very employer shall 9 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in 10 the middle of each work period[,]” and the “[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the 11 total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major 12 fraction thereof[,]” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

13 68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all 14 ten (10) minute rest periods for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked, including 15 working in excess of ten (10) hours, because they were required to work through their rest 16 periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

17 69. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires
18 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of 19 compensation for each work day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

20 70. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest
21 period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code §
22 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

23 71. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an
24 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class
25 Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

26 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

28 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2800, 2802)

72. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

73. Labor Code § 2800 states that “[a]n employer shall in all cases indemnify his employee for losses caused by the employer’s want of ordinary care.”

74. Labor Code § 2802(a) states that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer”

75. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that “[a]ll awards made by a court . . . for reimbursement of necessary expenditures under this section shall carry interest at the same rate as judgments in civil actions. Interest shall accrue from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditure or loss.”

76. Labor Code § 2802(c) states that “[f]or purposes of this section, the term “necessary expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited to, attorney’s fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted by this section.”

77. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary business-related costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

78. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to reimburse or indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members for their expenses due to Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures in connection with Plaintiff's and Class Members' work and job duties.

79. As a direct result, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and continue to suffer losses, and therefore seek complete reimbursement and indemnification of necessary business expenditures or losses, interest thereon at the required rate, and all reasonable costs in enforcing the rights under Labor Code § 2802, including, but not limited to attorneys' fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Violation of Labor Code § 226; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

1 80. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
2 though fully set forth herein.

3 81. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 4 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following:
5 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate
6 units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all
7 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
8 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 9 which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her
10 social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number,
11 (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly
12 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 13 hourly rate by the employee.

14 82. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
15 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff
16 and Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state 17 the gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the 18 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiff and Class Members.

19 83. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
20 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-
21 protected rights. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an injury
22 pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor Code §
23 226(a). Plaintiff and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and their 24 protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a). In 25 addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate rates of pay on wage statements, 26 Defendants prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from determining if all hours worked were 27 paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment. Plaintiff had to file this lawsuit
28 in order to analyze the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses

1 and lost time. Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had 2 Defendants provided the accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay. This has also
3 delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

4 84. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of 5 all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or fifty
6 dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and one hundred dollars
7 ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding 8 four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

9 85. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 10 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted 11 in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 12 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members 13 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according 14 to proof at trial.

15 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

17 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

18 86. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 19 though fully set forth herein.

20 87. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 21 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 22 if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 23 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-24 two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to 25 his or her wages at the time of quitting.

26 88. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay the Waiting
27 Time Subclass all their earned wages upon termination, either at the time of discharge or within 28 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

89. Defendants' failure to pay the Waiting Time Subclass all their earned wages at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

90. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

91. Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, the Waiting Time Subclass is entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty, which is defined as the Waiting Time Subclass members' regular daily wages at their regular hourly rate of pay for each day they were not paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

(Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

92. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

93. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair competition, which includes any “unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice . . .”

94. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., may be predicated on a violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants' policies and practices violated state law, causing Plaintiff and Class Members to suffer and continue to suffer injuries-in-fact.

95. Defendants' policies and practices violated state law in at least the following respects:

///

///

- 1 (a) Failing to pay all wages earned (including minimum wage and overtime
2 wages) to Plaintiff and Class Members at the proper rate and in a timely
3 manner in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198.
- 4 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiff and 5 Class Members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not 6 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 7 (c) Failing to authorize or permit compliant rest breaks without paying 8 Plaintiff and Class Members premium wages for every day said rest
9 breaks were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code §
10 226.7.
- 11 (d) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business-
12 related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.
- 13 (e) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized
14 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 15 (f) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to the members of the Waiting
16 Time Subclass upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code
17 §§ 201, 202, and 203.

18 96. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in 19 violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay all wages 20 (minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks or 21 compensation in lieu thereof, failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs and 22 expenses, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to pay all wages due and 23 owing upon separation of employment in a timely manner to the Waiting Time Subclass, all in 24 order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their profits.

25 97. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiff and Class
26 Members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor and employment laws of California.

27 98. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and 28 Class Members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of

1 doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater
2 foothold in the marketplace.

3 99. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants'
4 acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions
5 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

6 100. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged 7 herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and 8 restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

9 101. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 10 meaning of California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. Defendants' conduct, as alleged 11 herein, has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, Class Members,
12 and the general public. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class 13 Members are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 14 Procedure § 1021.5.

15 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. ("PAGA")

17 102. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs 18 as though fully set forth herein.

19 103. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides 20 for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development
21 Agency ("LWDA") or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or 22 employees for violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 23 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 24 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

25 104. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is 26 specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred 27 dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 28

1 hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay
2 period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

3 105. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections,
4 including, but not limited to, the following:

- 5 a. violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 246, 510, 1182.12,
6 1194, 1197, and 1198 for failure to timely pay all earned wages
7 (including minimum wage and overtime wages) owed to Plaintiff and 8 other aggrieved employees during employment and upon separation of 9 employment as herein alleged;
- 10 b. violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal
11 periods to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay 12 premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;
- 13 c. violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to 14 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium 15 wages for missed rest periods as herein alleged;
- 16 d. violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized
17 wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 18 alleged;
- 19 e. violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain 20 accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours 21 worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees; and
- 22 f. violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse
23 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees for necessary business expenses 24 as herein alleged.

25 106. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" because he was employed by the alleged 26 violator and had one or more of the violations committed against him, and therefore is properly
27 suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

107. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of himself and all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

108. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code sections cited above.

109. For bringing this action, Plaintiff is entitled to attorney's fees and costs incurred herein.
