1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this motion, Plaintiff Daniel Gonzalez (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of 4 all others similarly situated, seeks preliminary approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement
5 Agreement.¹ Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff and Defendant Vortex Industries, LLC
6 (“Defendant”) (collectively the “Parties”) have agreed to settle their claims and the proposed Class 7 Members’ claims for a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,100,000.

8 Plaintiff seeks to represent a Class of all persons who are or were employed by Defendant
9 in California and classified as non-exempt or hourly employees at any time during the Class Period 10 from August 1, 2021, through November 18, 2025 (the “Class” or “Class Members”). Likewise, 11 the Aggrieved Employees include all persons who are or were employed by Defendant in 12 California and classified as non-exempt or hourly employees at any time during the Class Period 13 from February 23, 2023, through November 18, 2025. (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Bokhour Decl.
14 ¶ 9.)

15 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will not oppose Class Counsel’s 16 application for a reasonable award of attorney’s fees not to exceed one-third of the Settlement
17 Amount, Class Counsel’s litigation costs not to exceed $40,000, Settlement Administration Fees 18 not to exceed $8,000, PAGA penalties of $100,000 (of which $75,000 or 75% will be paid to the 19 LWDA and the remaining $25,000 or 25% will be paid to the Aggrieved Employees), and an 20 Incentive Award not to exceed $5,000 to the named Plaintiff (S.A. ¶ 54(a)-(h); Bokhour Decl. ¶ 21 10), as follows:

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$1,100,000
Attorneys’ Fees (not to exceed 1/3 of GSA)	$366,666.67
Litigation Costs (not to exceed)	$40,000.00
Settlement Administration Fees (not to exceed)	$8,000.00
PAGA payment to LWDA (75% of $100k award)	$75,000.00

23
24
25
26
27 ¹ The Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims is attached as Exhibit “A” to 28 the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour (“Bokhour Decl.”) submitted herewith and is hereinafter referred to as the “Settlement Agreement,” “S.A.” or the “Settlement.” The proposed Notice is attached to the Bokhour Decl. as Exhibit “B.”

PAGA payment to Aggrieved Employees (25% of $100k award)	$25,000.00
Plaintiff's Incentive Award	$5,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$580,333.33

As of the Parties' mediation, the Class includes approximately 581 non-exempt employees who all worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period. Plaintiff contends that, regardless of their roles, all non-exempt employees were subject to the same wage and hour policies and payroll/scheduling practices, and therefore, the Individual Settlement Payments will be paid on a pro-rata basis based on the number of Compensable Workweeks during the Class Period. Assuming a total class size of approximately 581 Settlement Class Members, the average payment to each Settlement Class Member will be approximately $998, with the highest payment estimated to be $1,814. Of course, those with more Compensable Workweeks stand to recover a proportionally greater amount. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 11.)

The Settlement is non-reversionary, and Settlement Class Members will not be required to submit claim forms to receive payment. (S.A. ¶ 55.) Instead, each Settlement Class Member will be mailed the Notice containing detailed information regarding his or her estimated Individual Settlement Amount, the number of Workweeks during the Class Period and Pay Periods during the PAGA Period, the opportunity to dispute the number of Workweeks and or Pay Periods, and the opportunity to request exclusion or object to the Settlement. (S.A. ¶¶ 70, 73, 75.) All Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will automatically receive their Individual Settlement Amount following the Effective Date and funding of the Gross Settlement Amount. (S.A. ¶¶ 29, 78, 80.)

Aggrieved Employees may not opt-out of the Settlement with respect to the PAGA Claims and will receive their Individual Settlement Amount attributable to the PAGA Penalties Payment. (S.A. ¶¶ 24, 59, 75(c).)

Because the Settlement is fair and reasonable and was negotiated at arm's length by experienced counsel and an experienced mediator following an appropriate and comprehensive exchange of information and documents in advance of mediation, it should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order preliminarily approving the Settlement, conditionally certifying the Class under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 for settlement

1 purposes, approving the proposed Notice, appointing Plaintiff's counsel as Class Counsel, 2 appointing Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions as the Settlement Administrator, and 3 scheduling a hearing for the final approval of the Settlement.

4 II. BACKGROUND

5 A. THE PARTIES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

6 1. Defendant provides commercial and industrial door repair, service, and installation 7 services across the State of California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt
8 employee with the title of "Service Technician" out of its San Jose, California location, beginning 9 in March 2020, until his separation from employment on February 1, 2024. Plaintiff and other non-10 exempt employees (including, but not limited to, Customer Service Representative, Service 11 Technician, Installation Technician, Warehouse Associate, Field Marketer, Commercial Door 12 Technician, and all other non-exempt positions) were responsible for all aspects of Defendant's 13 business in California. As such, the putative Class consists of all persons who are or were employed 14 by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt or hourly employees at any time during 15 the Class Period from August 1, 2021, through November 18, 2025.

16 B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

17 On or about February 22, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the Superior 18 Court of the State of California, County of Santa Clara, in the matter entitled Daniel Gonzalez v.
19 Vortex Industries, LLC, Case No. 24CV431369, including allegations of: (1) failure to pay 20 minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages and sick pay; (3) meal period violations; (4) 21 rest period violations; (5) wage statement violations; (6) waiting time penalties; (7) failure to 22 reimburse business expenses; and (8) unfair competition. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 14; S.A. ¶ 44.)

23 On or about April 29, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint ("FAC") adding a 24 cause of action for civil penalties under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act 25 of 2004 ("PAGA") based on the foregoing Labor Code violations. (S.A. ¶ 44.) On or about August 26 21, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint dismissing his class claims without 27 prejudice and alleging a single cause of action for PAGA penalties based on the foregoing Labor 28 Code violations. (S.A. ¶ 44.)

1 On or about May 5, 2025, Plaintiff filed a separate action (the “B&P Action”) entitled 2 Daniel Gonzalez v. Vortex Industries, LLC, Case No. 25CV465140, in the Superior Court of the 3 State of California, County of Santa Clara, alleging: (1) unlawful inclusion, enforcement, and or 4 attempted enforcement of non compete, non solicitation, and other restrictive covenants in 5 violation of Business and Professions Code sections 16600, 16600.1, and 16600.5; and (2)
6 unlawful and unfair business practices in violation of Business and Professions Code section 7 17200 et seq. (S.A. ¶ 45.)

8 On or about November 5, 2025, Plaintiff filed the operative Third Amended Complaint 9 (“TAC”) in the Action encompassing all alleged class, representative, and Business and 10 Professions Code claims. (S.A. ¶ 10.) Plaintiff’s TAC alleges causes of action for: (1) failure to 11 pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages and sick pay; (3) meal period violations; 12 (4) rest period violations; (5) wage statement violations; (6) waiting time penalties; (7) failure to 13 reimburse business expenses; (8) unlawful inclusion, enforcement, and/or attempted enforcement 14 of non-compete, non-solicitation, and other restrictive covenants; (9) unfair competition; and (10)
15 PAGA penalties.

16 In preparation for mediation, the Parties engaged in an extensive informal discovery 17 process. Defendant produced written policies and practices, compensation policies, and a 18 statistically significant sampling of payroll and timekeeping records sufficient to evaluate class 19 size, workweeks, pay practices, and potential damages exposure. Plaintiff’s counsel and their 20 expert analyzed the data and extrapolated it to the Settlement Class. Plaintiff and counsel also 21 conducted interviews, researched applicable law, investigated Defendant’s operations, and 22 evaluated potential defenses. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 15; S.A. ¶ 47.)

23 Based on this investigation and analysis, Class Counsel concluded that the Settlement is 24 fair, reasonable, and adequate in light of the risks of continued litigation, the defenses asserted by 25 Defendant, the uncertainties of class certification and representative treatment, and the potential 26 for delay and appellate review. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 16; S.A. ¶ 47.)

27 On February 21, 2025, the Parties participated in mediation before Steve Serratore, Esq., 28 which did not result in a settlement.

1 On August 13, 2025, the Parties participated in a second mediation before Daniel Turner, 2 Esq. After a full day mediation and the issuance of a mediator’s proposal, the Parties reached an 3 agreement to settle the Action and the B & P Action on a class and representative basis. (Bokhour 4 Decl. ¶ 17; S.A. ¶¶ 48–49.)

5 The Parties now seek the Court’s preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement.

6 C. SUMMARY OF PLAINTIFF’S CLAIMS

7 In the operative TAC, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant engaged in systemic wage and hour 8 violations affecting non-exempt employees in California during the applicable statutory periods.

9 First, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages by 10 failing to accurately record and compensate all hours worked, including time during which 11 employees were under Defendant’s control, including all time spent working on call pursuant to 12 Defendant’s on-call policy.

13 Second, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to properly pay overtime wages by failing 14 to calculate the “regular rate of pay” correctly by excluding non-discretionary bonuses and other 15 forms of remuneration when computing overtime and sick pay.

16 Third, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide legally compliant meal periods and 17 failed to pay meal period premium wages at the regular rate of pay when compliant meal periods 18 were not provided. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to authorize and permit compliant 19 duty-free rest periods and failed to pay rest period premiums at the regular rate of pay when 20 required.

21 Moreover, as a result of the above violations, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to 22 furnish accurate and complete itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226, 23 and failed to timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code 24 sections 201 through 203. Defendant also alleges the Defendant failed to reimburse employees 25 for all necessary business expenses in violation of Labor Code sections 2802 through 2804.

26 In addition to the wage and hour claims, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant unlawfully 27 included, maintained, and or attempted to enforce non-compete and non-solicitation provisions 28 and other restrictive covenants in violation of Business and Professions Code sections 16600,

1 16600.1, and 16600.5, and failed to provide the mandatory individualized written notice required 2 by statute.

3 Finally, Plaintiff brings a representative claim for civil penalties under the California
4 Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) based on the alleged Labor Code 5 violations described above.

6 D. SUMMARY OF DEFENDANT’S DEFENSES

7 Defendant denies each of Plaintiff’s material allegations and disputes that this matter is 8 appropriate for class certification or representative treatment under PAGA.

9 Defendant contends that it properly recorded and paid non-exempt employees for all hours 10 worked, including minimum wages, overtime wages, and sick pay, and that its timekeeping and 11 pay practices, including its on-call policy, complied with California law. Defendant further asserts 12 that any alleged unpaid time would be noncompensable or de minimis.

13 Defendant further maintains that its written meal and rest period policies were lawful and 14 that employees were authorized and permitted to take compliant, duty-free meal and rest periods.
15 Defendant also contends that it maintained lawful reimbursement policies and fully reimbursed 16 any necessary business expenses.

17 Defendant argues that the wage statement and waiting time penalty claims are derivative 18 and fail because there was no underlying violation. Defendant also disputes liability under the 19 Business and Professions Code and denies any unlawful enforcement of restrictive covenants.

20 Finally, Defendant contends that individualized issues would predominate, including 21 whether particular employees were on-call, missed meal or rest periods, worked uncompensated 22 time, incurred unreimbursed expenses, or suffered any penalty triggering violations, thereby 23 defeating class and representative treatment.

24 In addition, a significant factor supporting the reasonableness of the Settlement is 25 Defendant’s contention that a substantial portion of the Settlement Class Members executed 26 arbitration agreements containing class and representative action waivers. Defendant asserted that 27 these agreements were enforceable and would require many Class Members’ claims to be 28 resolved on an individual basis in arbitration, thereby precluding classwide relief. Plaintiff disputes Defendant's position and contends that the arbitration agreements and class waivers are unenforceable under applicable law. Nevertheless, Plaintiff recognizes that the enforceability of such agreements presents a material litigation risk, particularly given the evolving and fact-intensive nature of arbitration jurisprudence, and the Court's Order enforcing the agreement, which Plaintiff intended to challenge on appeal prior to reaching a resolution.

III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

A. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION AND ALLOCATION

The $1,100,000 Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary and will be paid to Settlement Class Members without the need to submit a claim form or take any affirmative action. (S.A. ¶¶ 40, 54(a), 55.) Subject to Court approval, the Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) attorneys' fees to Class Counsel not to exceed 33.33% of the Settlement Amount and litigation costs not to exceed $40,000; (2) a Service Award to the Class Representative not to exceed $5,000; (3) Settlement Administration Fees not to exceed $8,000; (4) $100,000 allocated to PAGA Penalties, of which $75,000 will be paid to the LWDA and $25,000 will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees; and (5) the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Participating Class Members as Individual Settlement Amounts based on their proportionate Workweeks during the Class Period. (S.A. ¶¶ 19, 54(c)–(i).) Defendant will separately pay its employer share of applicable payroll taxes on the wage portion of the Individual Settlement Amounts. (S.A. ¶ 54(a).)

After all Court-approved deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is estimated that $580,333.33 will be available to pay the Individual Settlement Payments to approximately 581 Settlement Class Members. As noted above, the average Individual Settlement Payment to Settlement Class Members is approximately $998, which is a fair and reasonable recovery. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 11.)

B. NOTICE PROCEDURES

Within 30 days after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, Defendant will provide the Settlement Administrator with the Class Data, including each Settlement Class Member's name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, and number of Workweeks during the Class

1 Period and Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (S.A. ¶¶ 7, 69.) The Class Data provided to the 2 Settlement Administrator will not be provided to Class Counsel, and it will remain confidential;
3 it shall be used solely to administer the Settlement, and it will not be used or disclosed to anyone 4 except as required by applicable tax authorities, pursuant to Defendant's express written consent, 5 or by order of the Court. (S.A. ¶ 69.)

6 Within 14 calendar days after receipt of the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator will 7 mail the Court-approved Notice to Settlement Class Members by first-class mail, in English with 8 a Spanish translation. (S.A. ¶ 70.) The Notice will advise each Settlement Class Member of his 9 or her estimated Individual Settlement Amount, the number of Workweeks during the Class 10 Period, and the number of Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (S.A. ¶ 73.) If any Notice is 11 returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will use standard procedures, including 12 the National Change of Address database and skip-trace efforts, to obtain an updated address and 13 re-mail the Notice within 10 calendar days of obtaining a new address. (S.A. ¶ 71.) For any re-
14 mailed Notice, the deadline to request exclusion, object, or dispute Workweeks and/or Pay 15 Periods will be extended by 15 days beyond the original Notice Response Deadline. (Id.) It will 16 be conclusively presumed that if an envelope has not been returned within thirty (30) days of the 17 mailing, the Settlement Class Member received the Notice. (Id. at ¶ 72.)

18 The Settlement Administrator shall establish, maintain and use an internet website to post 19 information of interest to Settlement Class Members including the date, time and location for the 20 Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Agreement; Motion for Preliminary Approval; 21 Preliminary Approval Order; Class Notice; Motion for Final Approval; Motion for Class Counsel 22 Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Incentive Award; the Final 23 Approval Order; and the Judgment. The Settlement Administrator shall also maintain and monitor 24 an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Settlement Class Member calls, faxes
25 and emails. (Id. at ¶ 67.)

26 Any and all disputes relating to the administration of the Settlement by the Settlement 27 Administrator (except for disputes regarding Class Data) shall be referred to the Court, if 28 necessary, which will have continuing jurisdiction over the terms and conditions of the Agreement

1 until Plaintiff and Defendant notify the Court that all payments and obligations contemplated by 2 this Settlement Agreement have been fully carried out. (Id. at ¶ 68.) Before presenting any issue 3 to the Court, counsel for the Parties will confer in good faith to resolve the dispute without the 4 necessity of Court intervention. (Id.) The Settlement Administrator shall also be responsible for 5 issuing to Plaintiff, Final Settlement Class Members, and Class Counsel any Forms W-2, Forms 6 1099, or other Tax Forms as may be required by law for all amounts paid pursuant to the 7 Agreement. (Id.) The Settlement Administrator shall also be responsible for setting up all 8 necessary tax accounts and forwarding all payroll taxes and penalties to the appropriate 9 government authorities. (Id.)

10 If the Administrator, Defendant, or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers 11 any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have 12 received Class Notice, the Parties shall expeditiously meet and confer in good faith in an effort to 13 agree on whether to include them as Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 77.) If the Parties agree, such persons 14 shall be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator 15 shall send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options 16 under the Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in 17 the Class Notice, whichever are later. (Id.)

18 C. EXCLUSION AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES

19 Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will 20 automatically participate in the Settlement and be bound by its terms without submitting a claim 21 form. (S.A. ¶¶ 29, 75.) Any Settlement Class Member, other than Plaintiff, may request exclusion 22 by submitting a written Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no 23 later than 45 calendar days after the Notice is mailed. (S.A. ¶¶ 21, 75(a).) A valid Request for 24 Exclusion must include the Settlement Class Member's name, address, telephone number, last 25 four digits of the Social Security number or date of birth, and signature. (S.A. ¶ 75(a).)

26 Settlement Class Members who do not opt out may submit a written objection to the 27 Settlement by the Notice Response Deadline. The objection must include the information required 28 by the Settlement Agreement. (S.A. ¶ 75(c).) The Settlement Administrator shall disclose jointly

1 to Class Counsel and Defendant's counsel what objections or Requests for Exclusion were timely
2 submitted every week and upon the request of Class Counsel or Defense Counsel. (Id. at ¶ 76.)
3 Counsel for the Parties may file a response to any objections submitted by Objecting Settlement 4 Class Members at least five (5) court days before the date of the Final Approval Hearing. (Id. at 5 ¶ 75(e).)

6 Settlement Class Members and Aggrieved Employees may not opt out of or object to the 7 Settlement with respect to the PAGA Claims. (S.A. ¶ 75(c).)

8 If ten percent (10%) or more of the Settlement Class Members timely submit a Request
9 for Exclusion, Defendant shall have the option of terminating or modifying the Agreement 10 without prejudice to its pre-settlement positions and defenses in the instant matter. (S.A. ¶ 90.) If 11 Defendant exercises such option, it shall be relieved of any obligation to pay the Settlement 12 Amount or any other obligations from the Settlement by giving notice to Plaintiff's Counsel and 13 the Settlement Administrator within ten (10) days of being notified by the Settlement 14 Administrator of a 5% or greater opt-out rate. In such an event, the Parties shall be restored to 15 their respective positions in all respects as though the contemplated settlement never occurred.
16 The Parties agree not to solicit opt-outs, directly or indirectly, through any means. (Id.)

17 D. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION FORMULA FOR SETTLEMENT SHARES

18 Each Participating Class Member's Individual Settlement Amount will be calculated based 19 on his or her proportionate number of Workweeks during the Class Period. The Net Settlement 20 Amount will be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Participating Class 21 Member's total Workweeks during the Class Period and the denominator of which is the total 22 Workweeks of all Participating Class Members. (S.A. ¶ 54(d)(ii).)

23 If the Court reduces the requested attorneys' fees and litigation costs, Incentive Award, 24 Settlement Administration Fees, or increases or decreases the amount allocated to PAGA
25 penalties, the Net Settlement Sum shall be increased or decreased accordingly. (Id. at ¶ 54(c).)
26 Any Court order awarding less than the below allocations of the attorneys' fees and litigation
27 costs, Incentive Award, Settlement Administration Fees, or PAGA penalties shall not be grounds 28 to rescind the Settlement Agreement or otherwise void the Settlement. In the event of any appeal

1 of the amount of the awards of attorneys' fees and costs (if any) approved by the Court, final 2 funding and administration of the portion of the attorneys' fees and/or costs award in dispute will 3 be segregated and stayed pending the exhaustion of appellate review. (Id. at ¶ 54(g).) If, after the 4 exhaustion of any such appellate review, additional amounts not awarded to as attorneys' fees and 5 costs shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to the Participating Class
6 Members and/or Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

7 If there are timely Requests for Exclusion, the Settlement Administrator will 8 proportionately increase the Individual Settlement Amounts of Participating Class Members so 9 that 100% of the Net Settlement Amount allocated to Released Class Claims is distributed. (Id.)
10 The Notice will inform Settlement Class Members of their estimated Workweeks and Pay Periods, 11 and they may dispute those figures by submitting timely evidence to the Settlement Administrator.
12 (S.A. ¶ 73.) Defendant's records will be presumed determinative absent reliable evidence to rebut 13 the Defendant's records, but the Settlement Administrator will evaluate the evidence submitted 14 by the Settlement Class Member and provide the evidence submitted to the Class Counsel and 15 Defense Counsel who agree to meet and confer in good faith about the evidence to determine the 16 Class Member's actual number of Workweeks/Pay Periods and estimated Individual Settlement 17 Amount. If Class Counsel and Defense Counsel cannot agree, they agree to submit the dispute to 18 the Court to render a final decision. Settlement Class Members will have until the Notice Response 19 Deadline to dispute Workweeks/Pay Periods, object, or opt out, unless extended by the Court or 20 if Notice is re-mailed. If the Settlement Administrator increases the number of Workweeks for 21 any Settlement Class Member, then the Settlement Administrator will recalculate the Participating 22 Class Members' Individual Settlement Amounts; accordingly, in no event will Defendant be 23 required to increase the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id.)

24 E. TIMING OF SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

25 Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount and its share of payroll taxes no later 26 than 30 days after the Effective Date by transmitting the funds to the Settlement Administrator for 27 deposit into the Qualified Settlement Fund. (S.A. ¶ 78.)
28

1 No later than 7 calendar days after deposit into the Qualified Settlement Fund, the 2 Settlement Administrator will issue payments to Participating Class Members, Class Counsel for 3 approved fees and costs, the Class Representative for any approved Incentive Award, the LWDA
4 for the PAGA Payment, and itself for approved Settlement Administration Fees. (S.A. ¶ 80.)

5 Settlement checks will remain negotiable for 180 calendar days after mailing. (S.A. ¶ 81.)
6 Any uncashed funds will be transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund
7 in the name of the Settlement Class Member. (Id.) The release remains binding even if a 8 Settlement Class Member does not cash his or her check. (Id.)

9 If a check is returned or reported lost, the Settlement Administrator will conduct skip 10 tracing and, if appropriate, reissue the check in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

11 F. TAX TREATMENT

12 For tax purposes, 20% of each Individual Settlement Amount attributable to Class Claims 13 will be treated as wages subject to applicable withholdings and reported on a Form W 2, and 80%
14 will be treated as interest and civil penalties reported on a Form 1099. (S.A. ¶ 54(e).) Amounts 15 allocated to the PAGA Payment payable to Aggrieved Employees will be treated as civil penalties
16 and reported on a Form 1099. (S.A. ¶ 54(d)(i).)

17 Class Counsel, Defendant, and Defendant's Counsel make no representations as to the tax 18 treatment or legal effect of Settlement Amounts called for under the terms of the Agreement. (Id.
19 at ¶ 54(j).) Plaintiff and Final Settlement Class Members will be solely responsible for paying any 20 taxes and penalties assessed on their respective Individual Settlement Amounts described herein.
21 (Id.) Income tax withholding will also be made pursuant to applicable federal, state, and/or local 22 withholding codes or regulations. (Id.) Forms W-2 and/or Forms 1099 will be distributed at times
23 and in the manner required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") and consistent 24 with the Agreement. (Id.) If the Code, the regulations promulgated thereunder, or other applicable 25 tax law are changed after the date of this Agreement, the processes set forth in the Agreement may 26 be modified to bring Defendant into compliance with any such changes. (Id.)

1 G. PARTICIPATING CLASS MEMBERS' RELEASE OF CLAIMS

2 In exchange for the consideration described above, upon the Effective Date, Plaintiff and 3 all Participating Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims
4 for the Class Release Period. (S.A. ¶¶ 5, 57–58.) The “Released Parties” shall mean Vortex 5 Industries, LLC, and any of its past, present, and future direct or indirect parents, subsidiaries, 6 predecessors, successors, affiliates, sectors, divisions, assigns, joint venturers, third parties, and 7 other related entities, as well as each of their present and/or future officers, directors, 8 administrators, trustees, staff, members, managers, employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, 9 insurers, re-insurers, partners, investors, and shareholders, as well as any individual or entity
10 which could be jointly liable with Vortex Industries, LLC. (S.A. ¶ 35.)

11 The “Released Class Claims” include all claims, transactions, or occurrences that were 12 alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Complaints, 13 including but not limited to claims for: (1) failure to pay minimum wages, overtime wages, and 14 sick wages; (2) failure to provide meal periods or pay premium wages in lieu thereof; (3) failure 15 to authorize and permit rest periods or pay premium wages in lieu thereof; (4) failure to furnish 16 accurate itemized wage statements; (5) failure to timely pay final wages; (6) failure to reimburse 17 business expenses; (7) unlawful inclusion, enforcement, or failure to provide statutory notice 18 regarding non compete, non solicitation, or other restrictive covenants; and (8) unlawful or unfair 19 business practices. (S.A. ¶ 5.)

20 The release specifically includes alleged violations of, without limitation, California Labor 21 Code sections 200–204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 248.5, 510, 512, 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 22 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2802, and 2698, et seq., California Civil Code sections 3287 and 3289, and 23 California Business and Professions Code sections 16600, 16600.1, 16600.5, and 17200–17210.
24 (Id.) Each Participating Class Member will be deemed to have made the foregoing Release as if 25 by manually signing it. (Id. at ¶ 58.)

1 H. AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES’ RELEASE OF CLAIMS

2 Upon the Effective Date, Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the LWDA will release
3 the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims for the PAGA Release Period. (S.A. ¶¶ 24, 4 59–60.)

5 The “Released PAGA Claims” include any and all claims for civil penalties under the 6 California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code sections 2698–2699.5, 7 that were alleged in the operative pleadings or in the PAGA Notice submitted to the LWDA, or 8 that reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts stated therein, during the PAGA Period.
9 (S.A. ¶ 24.)

10 These claims include, without limitation, civil penalties arising from alleged failures to pay 11 minimum wages, overtime wages, and sick leave wages; failures to provide compliant meal or rest 12 periods or premium wages in lieu thereof; failures to timely pay wages upon separation; failures 13 to furnish accurate wage statements; failures to reimburse necessary business expenses; and related 14 unlawful business practices. (Id.) The Released PAGA Claims specifically include alleged 15 violations of, and civil penalties arising under, without limitation, California Labor Code §§ 200– 16 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1194, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802, as well as all applicable
17 provisions of Labor Code §§ 2698–2699.5. Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the LWDA
18 will be deemed to have made the foregoing Release as if by manually signing it. (Id. at ¶ 60.)

19 IV. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS UNDER THE LESSER 20 STANDARD OF SCRUTINY FOR SETTLEMENT-ONLY CERTIFICATION IS 21 APPROPRIATE FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT

22 California Rule of Court 3.769(d) provides that the Court may make an order approving 23 certification of a provisional settlement class at the preliminary approval stage. It is well-24 established that trial courts should use a “lesser standard of scrutiny” for determining the propriety 25 of certifying a settlement class, as opposed to a litigation class. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 26 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807 at n.19.

27 The reasons include that no trial is anticipated in a settlement class, so the case 28 management issues inherent in determining if the class should be certified need not be confronted;

1 and the trial court's fairness review of the settlement protects the interests of the non-2 representative Class Members. Id.; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th Cir.
3 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 633 ("Th[e] relationship between the certification determination and the 4 merits of the case is further attenuated within the context of the settlement evaluation process . .
5 . [C]ertification issues raised by class action litigation that is resolved short of a decision on the 6 merits must be viewed in a different light."); Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor (1997) 521 U.S.
7 591, 620 ("Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a district court need 8 not inquire whether the case if tried, would present intractable management problems . . . for the 9 proposal is that there be no trial.").

10 As discussed below, for the purposes of this Settlement only, Plaintiff requests that this 11 Court provisionally certify the Class, as defined above, under Code of Civil Procedure § 3150.

12 A. NUMEROSITY AND ASCERTAINABILITY

13 Numerosity is met if a proposed class is so large that joinder of all members would be 14 impracticable. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 3150. A proposed settlement class is ascertainable if 15 the class members can be objectively identified and given notice of the litigation without 16 unreasonable time or expense. See Medraza v. Honda of N. Hollywood (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th 17 89, 101.

18 Here, according to Defendant's records, there are approximately 581 Class Members.
19 Plaintiff argues that this figure undoubtedly satisfies the numerosity requirement.

20 B. WELL-DEFINED COMMUNITY OF INTEREST

21 1. Commonality

22 To justify certification, the class proponent must show that questions of law or fact 23 common to the class predominate over the questions affecting the individual members. See Arenas 24 v. El Torito Rests., Inc. (2010) 183 Cal.App.4th 723, 732 (citing Washington Mut. Bank v.
25 Superior Court (2001) 24 Cal.4th 906, 913. Plaintiff contends that the Class was subject to 26 common wage and hour policies and practices relating to the provision of meal and rest periods, 27 reimbursements, time keeping, on-call policy, and calculation of wages, among other things.
28 While the Parties dispute whether a class would be appropriate if the litigation were to continue, they agree to class certification for the purposes of this Settlement only.

2. Typicality

Typicality “focuses on whether there exists a relationship between the Plaintiff’s claims and the claims alleged on behalf of the class.” See Herbert B. Newberg & Alba Conte, Newberg on Class Actions (“Newberg”) § 3:13 (4th ed. 2002). Again, the Parties dispute whether Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the Class for the purposes of any continued litigation of the Action, but agree for the purposes of this Settlement only, that Plaintiff asserts claims regarding Defendant’s wage payment policies/practices, meal and rest break policies/practices, wage statements, reimbursements, and the provisions governing the timely and complete payment of wages, which are at the core of the Action.

3. Adequacy of Representation

The proposed class representative must establish that he/she will adequately represent the proposed Settlement Class. See Barboza v. West Coast Digital GSM, Inc. (2009) 179 Cal.App.4th 540, 546. Specifically, Plaintiff’s position is that he is adequate to represent the Class because he was employed by Defendant during the Class Period, was subject to the same wage and hour policies/practices as the rest of the Class, understands his duties as Class Representative, has been willing to undergo the risk of litigation, and has no conflicts of interest.

Adequacy may be established by the fact that counsels are experienced practitioners. See Local Joint Exec. Bd. of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund v. Las Vegas Sands, Inc. (9th Cir. 2001) 244 F.3d 1152, 1162. Here, Plaintiff asserts that he is represented by Class Counsel with extensive experience in wage and hour class and PAGA actions like the instant matter. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2-5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2-11.)

4. Superiority

Plaintiff further contends that certification of the Class for settlement purposes is superior here because there will be a global resolution of all claims at once, which fosters judicial economy. Plaintiff contends that class certification for settlement purposes is also vastly superior to litigation of numerous individual claims because most of the claims are too small to litigate outside of the class context. However, should, for whatever reason, the Court fail to issue Final

1 Approval, the Parties’ stipulation to class certification and representative treatment as part of the 2 Settlement shall become null and void ab initio and shall have no bearing on and shall not be 3 admissible in connection with the issue of whether or not class certification and/or representative 4 treatment would be appropriate in a non-settlement context. Defendant expressly reserves its right 5 and declares that it will continue to oppose class certification, representative treatment, and the 6 substantive merits of the case should the Court fail to issue Final Approval. Plaintiff expressly 7 reserves his rights and declares that he will continue to pursue class certification, representative 8 treatment, and a trial should the Court fail to issue Final Approval.

9 V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT,
10 WHICH IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

11 A. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND 12 APPROVAL UNDER THE CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

13 The law favors settlements. Bush v. Superior Court (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1374, 13150.
14 This is particularly true in class actions, where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding 15 the time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation. However, a class action may not be dismissed, 16 compromised, or settled without the Court’s approval. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(a). The California Rules 17 of Court set forth the procedures for court approval of a class action settlement: (1) the Court 18 preliminarily approves the settlement; (2) class members receive notice as directed by the Court; 19 and (3) the Court conducts a final approval hearing to inquire into the fairness of the proposed 20 settlement. See Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(c), (e-g).

21 The decision to approve or reject a proposed settlement lies within the Court’s sound 22 discretion. See Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224. Nevertheless, in 23 considering a potential settlement for approval, a court is not to turn the approval hearing “into a 24 trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits [or] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested 25 issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 26 625.

27 The Court’s ultimate duty is to determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and 28 reasonable. See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (setting forth the “fair, adequate, and reasonable”

1 standard) (citing Officers for Justice, supra); Cho v. Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc. (2009) 177 2 Cal.App.4th 734, 742-43 (a trial court must approve a class action settlement agreement, but only 3 after determining that it is ““fair, adequate and reasonable,”” considering factors such as the ““risk, 4 expense, [and] complexity”” of continued litigation) (citations omitted). The Court has broad 5 discretion in making its fairness determination, and should consider factors including:

6 [T]he strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 7 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status 8 through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery 9 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel . . . and the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.

10 Dunk, supra (setting forth a non-exhaustive list of factors for the court’s consideration at final 11 approval).

12 The above factors are not exclusive “and the court is free to engage in a balancing and 13 weighing of factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 14 245. However, in doing so, the Court must give “[due] regard to what is otherwise a private 15 consensual agreement between the parties.” Id. The inquiry must be limited “to the extent 16 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 17 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties.” Id. (citation and internal quotation 18 marks omitted).

19 At the preliminary approval stage, the Court need only determine that the settlement falls 20 within the “range of possible judicial approval,” so that notice to the class and the scheduling of 21 the fairness hearing are worthwhile. See Newberg § 11:25. Indeed, the Court should grant 22 preliminary approval if there are no “grounds to doubt its fairness or other obvious deficiencies 23 ... and [the settlement] appears to fall within the range of possible approval.” Manual For 24 Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41 (1995); see Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802. A “presumption 25 of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) 26 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) 27 counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk, 28 supra (citing Newberg § 11:41). As shown below, the Settlement falls well within the range of 1 approval because there are no grounds to doubt its fairness.

2 B. THE SETTLEMENT IS THE RESULT OF SERIOUS, INFORMED, NON-COLLUSIVE
3 NEGOTIATIONS

4 The Settlement was the product of extensive arm's-length negotiations between counsel 5 and was facilitated by an experienced wage-and-hour class-action mediator after multiple 6 mediations. Though cordial and professional, the Settlement negotiations were adversarial and 7 non-collusive. The Settlement reached is the product of substantial effort by the Parties and their 8 counsel. Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believed that there was a possibility of certifying 9 the claims, they recognized the potential risk, expense, and complexity posed by litigation, such 10 as unfavorable decisions on class certification, summary judgment, at trial, and/or on the damages
11 awarded, and/or on an appeal that can take several more years to litigate. In addition, if Defendant 12 prevailed on any of its defenses, the Class Members may not have received any substantial 13 monetary recovery. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 44.)

14 C. THE EXTENT OF THE INVESTIGATION WAS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT TO PERMIT
15 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

16 Plaintiff and his counsel thoroughly investigated and evaluated this case's factual and 17 legal strengths and weaknesses before reaching the Settlement. As described above, the 18 Settlement was reached after extensive investigation and research, thorough calculations and risk 19 evaluation, and a substantial exchange of information and documents relating to Plaintiff and the 20 Class Members prior to mediation.

21 D. THE SETTLEMENT IS A REASONABLE COMPROMISE OF CLAIMS

22 To evaluate a settlement, the parties must provide the trial court with "basic information 23 about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the 24 consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise." 25 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. The Kullar requirement was 26 further explained in Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 27 399, which held that an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that the class could 28 recover was not necessary:

1 Greenwell misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to require the record in 2 all cases to contain evidence in the form of an explicit statement of the maximum 3 amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims – a number 4 which appears nowhere in the record of the case. But Kullar does not, as Greenwell 5 claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which 6 allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range 7 of outcomes of the litigation.”

8 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff 9 prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair 10 and reasonable. Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250 11 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process ... even if the relief afforded 12 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 13 successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed 14 be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding 15 litigation.”)

16 Of relevance to the reasonableness of the proposed Settlement is the fact that significant 17 legal and factual grounds for defending this action exist. Defendant further disputed whether 18 Plaintiff could obtain class certification, arguing, inter alia, that the legal claims and injuries were 19 not common to the class. Defendant further argued that it complied with the applicable law, had 20 compliant written policies, that all Class Members were provided the opportunity to take their 21 meal and rest periods, and that any purported deviations therefrom were individualized in nature, 22 thereby limiting Plaintiff’s ability to certify the Class. While Plaintiff asserts that this is a suitable 23 case for certification, he realizes that there is always a significant risk associated with class 24 certification proceedings, which could significantly limit the claims that he could pursue on a 25 class basis.

26 Considering the uncertainties of continued protracted litigation, this negotiated Settlement 27 reflects the best practicable recovery for the Class. While the total Settlement Amount is, of 28 course, a compromise figure, the Parties weighed and considered the potential risks and opportunities for both parties, resulting in a fair and equitable Settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 16, 53.)

1 Based upon detailed data obtained through informal discovery and information exchanges, 2 Plaintiff's counsel estimated the following big-picture data points through the date of mediation:
3 581 Class Members who worked approximately 71,629 workweeks. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 18.) The 4 Parties agree that if the number of workweeks is ten percent (10%) higher than the current 5 estimate (i.e., more than 78,792 qualifying workweeks worked), then Defendant shall have the 6 option, at Defendant's election, to either: (1) a pro-rata increase in the Gross Settlement Amount 7 equal to the percentage increase in workweeks above 71,629 (i.e., if the total workweeks increases 8 by 11%, then a 1% increase to the Gross Settlement Amount); or (2) a cut-off of the Class Period 9 to end on the date that total workweeks reaches 78,792. (S.A. ¶ 54(b).)

10 1. Failure to Pay All Overtime and Sick Wages at the Proper "Regular 11 Rate of Pay"

12 First, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to account for non-discretionary bonuses and 13 other incentive pay when calculating the "regular rate of pay" when paying overtime and sick pay 14 wages. However, Defendant argued that it correctly calculated the "regular rate of pay," and that 15 any underpayment was in good faith and de minimis. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 19.)

16 While Defendant's sampling of pay records revealed "regular rate of pay" violations, the 17 underpayments of overtime and sick wages were minimal throughout the Class Period. (Bokhour 18 Decl. ¶ 20.)

19 Due to this and in light of Defendant's other defenses, Plaintiff completely discounted 20 these two claims, keeping in mind that the true significant value of this unpaid wages claim lies 21 in the derivative claims for waiting time penalties under California Labor Code Section 203 and 22 wage statement violations under California Labor Code Section 226(a) as discussed below.
23 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 21.)

24 2. Failure to Pay All Minimum and Overtime Wages

25 Next, Plaintiff alleges Defendant maintained uniform timekeeping and on-call policies that 26 systematically resulted in unpaid minimum wages and overtime compensation for non-exempt 27 employees. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required employees to record their time 28 based on scheduled shifts rather than actual hours worked, resulting in uncompensated off-the-

1 clock work. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant required technicians to remain on-call and 2 available to respond within 60 minutes during designated on-call periods without compensating 3 employees for the full time spent under Defendant's control.

4 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's On-Call Calendar policy, which required service center 5 leadership to publish on-call schedules and required technicians to respond to after-hours calls 6 within 60 minutes. Plaintiff contends these restrictions significantly limited employees' ability to 7 use on-call time for their own purposes and therefore constituted compensable hours worked under 8 California law. However, Defendant disputes that the on-call time was sufficiently restrictive to 9 be compensable and contends that employees were paid for all hours worked. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 10 22)

11 Based on Defendant's workforce size, wage rates, and the applicable statutory penalty 12 framework, Plaintiff estimates Defendant's maximum potential exposure for unpaid minimum and 13 overtime wages to be approximately $741,734 based on 30 minutes of unpaid time per eligible on-14 call shift. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 23)

15 However, continued litigation presents significant risks. Defendant denies liability and 16 asserts several defenses, including that: (1) employees accurately recorded their time; (2) any off-17 the-clock work was minimal or unauthorized; (3) on-call time was not sufficiently restrictive to 18 qualify as compensable hours worked; and (4) individualized inquiries would be required to 19 determine whether employees actually worked off-the-clock or were under sufficient employer 20 control during on-call periods. Defendant also would likely challenge class certification and argue 21 that damages cannot be established through common proof. In addition to these liability and 22 certification risks, Plaintiff faces the substantial risks, delay, and expense associated with 23 continued litigation, including extensive class discovery, expert analysis of timekeeping data, 24 contested class certification proceedings, and potential appeals. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 24.)

25 Therefore, Plaintiff applied a 50% discount to account for the risk of defeat at the class
26 certification stage and an additional discount of 35% for the risk of defeat at the summary
27 judgment stage or on the merits, resulting in the risk-adjusted value of $241,063.55 for Plaintiff's
28 off-the-clock claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 25.)

1 3. Waiting Time Penalties

2 With respect to Plaintiff’s waiting time penalty claim, there were approximately 175 Class 3 Members who separated from their employment with Defendant, and who worked an average of 4 8 hours per day, during the relevant statutory period. As such, the maximum potential penalty 5 under Labor Code § 201 – 203 is $1,344,000 (175 employees x 8 hours per day x average rate of 6 $32 x 30 days). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 26.)

7 However, Defendant argued that it would defeat the waiting time penalty claim as to 8 Plaintiff’s unpaid wage claim because Defendant would prevail on the merits of these claims, 9 including that it complied with the law because it had an alleged facially neutral pay 10 policy/practice. Finally, Defendant argued that any failure to pay final wages was not willful and 11 occurred before the waiting time penalty liability period. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 27.)

12 Therefore, Plaintiff applied a 30% discount to account for the risk of defeat at the class
13 certification stage and an additional discount of 50% for the risk of defeat at the summary
14 judgment stage or on the merits, resulting in the risk-adjusted value of $470,400 for Plaintiff’s
15 waiting time penalty claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 28.)

16 4. Failure to Provide Meal and Rest Periods or Compensation in Lieu 17 Thereof at the “Regular Rate of Pay”

18 With respect to Plaintiff’s meal and rest period violation claims, the Class Members 19 worked 154,000 shifts during the Class Period. Based on an alleged 15% violation rate based on 20 the sampling for the meal period claims and an alleged 33% violation rate for the rest period
21 claims, as extrapolated from the pre-mediation sampling of Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll 22 records, the maximum potential damages totalled $739,200 for the meal period claim and 23 $1,626,240 for the rest period claim, respectively. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

24 However, Defendant vehemently opposed these claims, arguing that the claims fall 25 directly within the category of “individualized issues,” that its written policies and practices were 26 compliant with California law, and that the employees had ample latitude regarding when, where, 27 and how they took their meal and rest breaks. Therefore, Defendant asserted that a factfinder 28 would have to determine for each Class Member whether a break was missed and why, and why

1 a break was non-compliant/non-existent, because if it was by the employee's choice, no liability
2 attaches to Defendant. Based on these arguments, Plaintiff believes there is a risk that the Court
3 would deny class certification on these meal period and rest break claims. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 30.)

4 Defendant further argued that, even if certification were granted, it would defeat these 5 claims on the merits because Defendant utilized compliant policies and practices, and it would 6 present sufficient evidence that employees were properly provided with all breaks or paid 7 compensation in lieu thereof. Moreover, Defendant argued that Plaintiff would be unable to 8 present sufficient evidence establishing the number of meal and rest period violations to allow a 9 factfinder to determine damages appropriately. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 31.)

10 In light of these defenses and arguments, Plaintiff discounted Defendant's maximum 11 exposure by 40% for the risk of non-certification, and an additional 50% to account for 12 Defendant's defenses on the merits, to arrive at the risk-adjusted value of the meal period claims 13 to be $221,760 and the rest period claims to be $487,872. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 32.)

14 5. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

15 Plaintiff estimates that the maximum potential penalties for the derivative wage statement 16 claim are $1,617,550 (based on approximately 32,351 allegedly violative wage statements issued 17 during the Class Period). In calculating Defendant's exposure, Plaintiff gave Defendant the 18 benefit of assuming Plaintiff could only obtain the "initial" wage statement penalty of $50 per 19 violation. Id., Lab. Code § 226(e) (providing for a $50 penalty for "initial" violations); Amaral v.
20 Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1207 (2008) (finding that "initial" violation rate
21 applies until the employer has been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision.) (Bokhour
22 Decl. ¶ 33)

23 In response, Defendant contended that its wage statements fully complied with the law, 24 that any alleged violations were not "knowing and intentional," and that Plaintiff could not 25 establish that they or anyone else suffered "injury" because of any alleged wage statement 26 violations. Further, Defendant relied on its defenses to Plaintiff's underlying claims on the merits 27 and to class certification. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 34.)

1 As such, Plaintiff discounted the calculated maximum exposure by 80% for risk of non-2 certification, and by an additional 20% for risk of being unsuccessful on the merits, to arrive at 3 an estimated total of $258,808. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 35.)

4 6. Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenses

5 Plaintiff alleged that necessary business expenses were incurred by Plaintiff and Class 6 Members but were not reimbursed by Defendant. These necessary expenses included, but were 7 not limited to, cellphone use and mileage costs. Plaintiff calculated Defendant's maximum 8 exposure under this theory of liability to be $358,140 ($20 unreimbursed business expenses x 9 17,907 pay periods). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 36.)

10 Defendant contended that Plaintiff and other Class Members never requested 11 reimbursement from Defendant, and thus, Defendant did not know and had no reason to know 12 that the alleged business-related expenses were incurred and not reimbursed. Defendant further 13 contended that this claim would raise individual issues that could not be certified, including 14 whether employees were required to use their personal cellphones for work-related purposes, and 15 whether any given employee applied for and received reimbursement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 37.)

16 In light of these defenses and arguments, Plaintiff discounted Defendant's maximum 17 exposure by 60% for the risk of non-certification, and an additional 40% to account for 18 Defendant's defenses on the merits, to arrive at an estimated total of $85,953. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 19 38.)

20 7. Business and Professions Code Claims

21 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant maintained unlawful non-compete and non-solicitation 22 provisions in violation of Business and Professions Code sections 16600, 16600.1, and 16600.5.
23 Defendant denies that any unlawful enforcement occurred and contends that any challenged 24 provisions were lawful or not enforced. Because these claims primarily seek injunctive and 25 declaratory relief and would present significant proof and standing issues, Plaintiff did not assign 26 an independent monetary value to these claims for purposes of settlement valuation. (Bokhour 27 Decl. ¶ 39.)
28

1 8. PAGA Penalties

2 Plaintiff also sought PAGA penalties for each available violation and alleged that these 3 penalties could be “stacked.” See Gonzalez v. Corecivic of Tennessee, LLC, No. 1:16-cv-01891-
4 DAD-JLT, 2018 WL 4388425 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 12, 2018) (“‘stacking’ PAGA penalties is not 5 inappropriate under California law”). Assuming that a PAGA penalty is available in the default 6 amount of $100 per pay period and is not reduced, the maximum potential PAGA penalty would 7 be $3,235,100 for the pay periods in the PAGA period. See Cal. Lab. Code. § 2699(f)(2).
8 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 40.)

9 However, this maximum figure fails to account for numerous unresolved issues regarding 10 PAGA claims. First, it is unclear whether stacking is permissible and/or whether the court would 11 award penalties in such a way (especially for purely derivative penalties). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 41.)

12 Second, the maximum figure fails to acknowledge that courts have wide latitude to reduce 13 the amount of civil penalties “based on the facts and circumstances of a particular case” and if “to 14 do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” 15 Labor Code § 2699(h); Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (noting 16 in the context of approving settlement that a reduction in PAGA penalties would be “appropriate” 17 based on the “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory” factors because (i) the employer 18 did not “deliberately evad[e] a clear obligation to provide legally required pay and benefits to 19 employees,” (ii) the employer did not “negligently fail to learn about its obligations under the 20 wage and hour laws,” and (iii) the employer’s obligations were “genuinely unclear” because 21 “there is no straight answer to the question.”). Therefore, Plaintiff discounted the maximum 22 figure to account for the risk of losing on the merits and applied an additional discount to 23 account for the possibility of this Court reducing penalties to arrive at an estimated exposure of 24 $100,000. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 42.)

25 In sum, when factoring in defenses and risks of ongoing litigation, Plaintiff estimates the 26 risk-adjusted class recovery as follows:

- 27 • Failure to Pay Overtime and Sick Wages: discounted
28 • Failure to Pay all Wages for Off-the-Clock Work: $241,063.55

1	• Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 Claims:	$470,400
2	• Meal Period Claims:	$221,760
3	• Rest Break Claims:	$487,872
4	• Wage Statement Claims:	$258,808
5	• Reimbursement Claims:	$85,953
6	• PAGA Penalties	$100,000
7	• Total Risk-Adjusted Penalties and Damages:	$1,865,856.55

8 Given the realistic value of Plaintiff's claims, the $1,100,000 Settlement Amount is an 9 excellent result for the Class, considering that the Settlement Amount totals approximately 58.9% 10 of Plaintiff's risk-adjusted value of the case. Preliminary approval is appropriate since the 11 Settlement will provide significant monetary relief to the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 43.)

12 For these reasons, Plaintiff submits that the agreed-upon Settlement is fair and reasonable.

13 E. PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL IS EXPERIENCED IN SIMILAR WAGE-AND-HOUR
14 LITIGATION

15 The attorneys' view of the litigation is entitled to significant weight in deciding whether 16 to approve the settlement. Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal. 1980) 87 F.R.D. 15, 18, 17 aff'd (9th Cir. 1981) 661 F.2d 939; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 18 116, 128 (court must take into account "the experience and view of counsel") (internal quotation 19 and citation omitted).

20 Plaintiff's counsel are also highly experienced in class and PAGA litigation, having 21 litigated upwards of 100 class actions and PAGA cases, having been named "Super Lawyers" in 22 employment litigation (a distinction awarded to only 2.5% of litigators), and having achieved 23 some of the largest class action settlements in California in 2021-2024. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2-5; 24 Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2-10.) Plaintiff's counsel, operating at arm's length, weighed the strengths and 25 risks of this case and is of the view that this is a fair and reasonable Settlement in light of the 26 nature of the claims, realistic risk-adjusted value of damages, complexities of the case, the state 27 of the law, and uncertainties of class certification and litigation.

1 F. THE NOTICE CONFORMS TO ALL APPLICABLE STATUTES AND RULES

2 The proposed Notice should be approved because it fully informs Settlement Class 3 Members of the nature of the Action, the terms of the Settlement, and their rights and options.
4 The method of dissemination is reasonably calculated to provide the best practicable notice under 5 the circumstances and will ensure that all or nearly all Settlement Class Members receive notice 6 of the proposed Settlement.

7 The Notice will be mailed by first class mail to the last known addresses of all Settlement 8 Class Members using updated address information and National Change of Address procedures.
9 For any Notice returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will conduct skip trace 10 efforts and promptly re mail the Notice to any updated address obtained. This procedure satisfies 11 due process and complies with California Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769. See Archibald v.
12 Cinerama Hotels, (1976) 15 Cal.3d 853, 861.

13 The contents of the Notice comply with California Rule of Court 3.766(d). Specifically, 14 the Notice includes: (1) a description of the Action and the Parties' respective positions; (2) a 15 summary of the material terms of the Settlement, including the Gross Settlement Amount and its 16 allocation; (3) the amount of attorneys' fees and costs that will be requested, the proposed 17 Incentive Award, and the Settlement Administration Fees; (4) an estimate of each Settlement 18 Class Member's Individual Settlement Amount and the number of Workweeks and Pay Periods 19 credited; (5) the date, time, and location of the final approval hearing; (6) clear instructions for 20 requesting exclusion or submitting an objection; (7) a statement that the Judgment will bind all 21 Settlement Class Members who do not timely request exclusion; and (8) information regarding 22 how to obtain additional details about the Settlement. (Ex. B.)

23 The 45-day Notice Response Deadline provides Settlement Class Members with ample 24 time to review the Notice, seek independent legal advice, dispute Workweeks or Pay Periods if 25 necessary, request exclusion, or submit an objection. Settlement Class Members who do not 26 timely opt out will automatically receive their Individual Settlement Amount without the need to 27 submit a claim form.

28 Accordingly, the proposed Notice and notice procedure satisfies all applicable statutory

1 and constitutional requirements and should be approved.

2 G. THE NON-REVERSIONARY “CHECKS CASHED” DISTRIBUTION ENSURES 3 MAXIMAL RECOVERY FOR CLASS MEMBERS

4 No later than seven (7) calendar days after the deposit of the payment into the Qualified 5 Settlement Fund (“QSF”), the Settlement Administrator will mail the payments to the 6 Participating Class Members, the payment for the attorneys’ fees and costs to Class Counsel, any 7 Incentive Award to the Class Representative, the payment to the LWDA for PAGA penalties, and 8 will pay itself the Settlement Administration Fees. (S.A. ¶ 80.) The Settlement provides for 9 automatic distribution of Individual Settlement Amounts to all Settlement Class Members who 10 do not timely request exclusion. No claim form is required. Accordingly, every participating 11 Settlement Class Member will be mailed a settlement check without having to take any 12 affirmative action. This structure maximizes participation and recovery.

13 The Gross Settlement Amount is entirely non-reversionary. No portion of the Settlement 14 will revert to Defendant under any circumstances. (S.A. ¶¶ 40, 54.) Defendant is required to fully 15 fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and the Net Settlement Amount will be distributed in its 16 entirety to Participating Class Members.

17 Settlement checks will remain negotiable for 180 calendar days. If a check is not cashed 18 within that period, the funds will be transmitted to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property 19 Fund in the name of the Settlement Class Member, and the release will remain binding. (S.A. ¶ 20 81.) Thus, even uncashed funds remain allocated for the benefit of the individual Class Member 21 rather than reverting to Defendant.

22 If any settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator within 180 days of 23 mailing, the Settlement Administrator will, within five (5) business days of receipt of the returned 24 settlement check, perform a skip trace to locate the individual. (S.A. ¶ 81.) If a new address is 25 located by these means, the Administrator will have ten (10) business days to re-issue the check
26 and notify Defense Counsel and Class Counsel that a re-issued check has been sent. (Id.)

27 Courts favor non-reversionary settlements with automatic distribution because they ensure 28 maximum participation and eliminate the risk that settlement funds will return to the employer.

1 The structure here strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and free of 2 collusion.

3 H. THE ATTORNEYS' FEES ALLOCATION UNDER THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT IS 4 FAIR

5 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel is requesting an amount not 6 to exceed one-third of the Settlement Amount in attorneys' fees. (See, e.g., Laffite v. Robert Half 7 Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal. 5th. 480 (approving 1/3 fee in the amount of $6.33 million at a 2.13 8 lodestar multiplier, when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the 9 Class Members, the trial court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an 10 appropriate percentage of the fund created); see also Stuart v. RadioShack Corp. (N.D. Cal. Aug.
11 9, 2010) No. C-07-4499 EMC, 2010 WL 3155645 (approving fee award of 1/3 of the total 12 maximum settlement amount of $4.5 million) (the court noted that the fee award of 1/3 of the 13 total settlement was "well within the range of percentages which courts have upheld as reasonable 14 in other class action lawsuits"); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D. Cal. June 1, 2010) No.
15 08-cv-1501-IEG (BLM), 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of 33.33% of the 16 common fund); Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007) No.
17 1:05cv0484 DLB, 2007 WL 3492841, at *4 (awarding fees of 1/3 of common fund in a wage and 18 hour class action, noting: "[f]ee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 19 recovery."); Martin v. FedEx Ground Package System, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 31, 2008) No. C 06-20 6883 VRW, 2008 WL 5478576, at *8 (approving fees of 1/3 of the common fund). (Bokhour 21 Decl. ¶ 10.)

22 Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Notice 23 is disseminated, Plaintiff's counsel will submit a request for attorneys' fees and costs with its final 24 approval motion.

25 I. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE AWARD IS FAIR AND APPROPRIATE

26 The Settlement Agreement provides for a Service Award to the named Plaintiff in the 27 amount not to exceed $5,000. (S.A. ¶ 54(f).) The proposed Service Award is reasonable given the 28 time and effort the named Plaintiff devoted to this case. Plaintiff's efforts included: providing

1 factual background for the class and PAGA complaint; providing documents and information 2 about Defendant's compensation plan and wage and hour policies/practices; participating in 3 phone calls to discuss litigation and settlement strategy; making himself available throughout the 4 litigation to assist with analyzing the claims and defenses; helping Class Counsel prepare for the 5 mediation and being available during mediation; and reviewing the Settlement documents.
6 Plaintiff also assumed significant risk in bringing this litigation—namely, had he lost, he could 7 have been ordered to pay Defendant's costs. (Bokhour Decl., ¶ 50; See Declaration of Plaintiff 8 Daniel Gonzalez in Support of Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement filed herewith.)

9 The requested Service Award falls within the range of incentive payments typically 10 awarded to Class Representatives in similar class actions. See e.g. Bond v. Ferguson Enterprises, 11 Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2011) No. 1:09-cv-1662 OWW MJS, 2011 WL 2648879 (approving $11,250
12 service award to each of the two class representatives in a trucker meal break class action; Ross 13 v. US Bank National Association (N.D. Cal. 2010) No. C 07-02951 SI, 2010 WL 3833922, at *2 14 (approving $20,000 enhancement award to Class Representative in California wage-and-hour 15 class action settlement); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2010) 266 F.R.D. 4150, 16 493 (approving service awards in the amount of $15,000 each from a $300,000 settlement fund 17 in a wage/hour class action).

18 V. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT PHOENIX AS THE SETTLEMENT
19 ADMINISTRATOR

20 Subject to the Court's approval, the parties stipulated that Phoenix Class Action 21 Administration Solutions serve as the Settlement Administrator. Phoenix is experienced in 22 administering class action settlements and will not exceed $8,000 to administer this class action
23 Settlement. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 54.)

24 VI. TIMELINE AND SCHEDULING A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

25 The final step in the approval process is the formal hearing, during which proponents of 26 the Settlement may explain and describe its terms and conditions, and offer arguments in support 27 of approval. Class Members or their counsel may also be heard in support of or in opposition to 28 the Settlement.

1 VII. CONCLUSION

2 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant his 3 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.
