DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

PLAINTIFF, Daniella Lopez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and other “aggrieved employees” complains of Defendants as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Class and Representative Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of Plaintiff and certain individuals who are employed by, or were formerly employed by, Aromas Food Services, and any subsidiaries or affiliated companies (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) within California.

2. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present (the “liability period”). Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant’s needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendant failed to pay premium wages of one hour’s pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

1 3. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to work off the 2 clock for Defendant. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were 3 instructed to work approximately 5 minutes after they had clocked out to finish their assignments
4 such as locking up the restaurant. Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's
5 California employees if these tasks were completed outside of her regular work hours. These 6 excess hours were not recorded on our client's and Defendant's California employees wage
7 statements. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees should have been compensated for 8 that time, but she was not in violation of Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2. As a result,
9 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours worked including all 10 straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute violations of 11 Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

12 4. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to 13 non-exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work 14 performance in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty 15 (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay.
16 Employees of Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 17 (40) hours per week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of 18 their regular rate. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime
19 and were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages.
20 These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 21 1194.2.

22 5. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other California employees of Defendant
23 claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees.
24 Defendant pays their employees bonuses and commissions which are not included in the 25 employees regular rate of pay for the purposes of computing the proper overtime rate. As a result,
26 employees are not properly compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a
27 workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than 28 one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1194.2.

1 6. Defendant failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees
2 accurately itemized wage statements. As Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and
3 Defendant's California employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements
4 failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total
5 hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2), net wages earned, in violation of Labor
6 Code § 226(a)(5), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding
7 number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendant's failure
8 to pay all overtime wages due. Since the wage statements provided to Plaintiff failed to accurately
9 reflect the total number of Plaintiff's worked hours, these violations also violate Labor Code §§
10 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

11 7. Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
12 California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code
13 § 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff
14 and Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendant, have not
15 accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and
16 meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

17 8. Our client further alleges that Defendant paid her and Defendant's California
18 employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As
19 they were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result
20 of Defendant's failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation,
21 they were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This
22 violates Labor Code §§ 201-203.

23 9. Defendant pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a bi-weekly basis and 24 has failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-weekly
25 basis must be paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.
26 Due to the violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not 27 receive all of their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

28 10. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as their uniform. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also not reimbursed for the required maintenance of their uniforms. Defendant further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal

1 cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that “[a]n employer
2 shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the 3 employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.” As such, Plaintiff and 4 Defendant’s California employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course
5 of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

6 11. Defendant failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant’s California
7 employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of 8 these practices, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were underpaid for hours 9 worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to 10 pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendant is liable under Labor Code 11 § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

12 12. Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees bring this claim pursuant to Business
13 & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged above has been
14 and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendant’s California 15 employees.

16 13. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all proposed Plaintiff Class members (specifically,
17 the “California Class” as defined herein), brings this action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512,
18 and 558, Labor §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2, Labor § 226(a)(e), Labor Code § 201-203, Labor Code §
19 204(a)(b), Labor Code § 2802, Labor Code § 2751, Labor Code § 210, 218, Business & Professions
20 Code § 17200, et seq.

21 14. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code
22 of Civil Procedure § 395. Defendants operate within the State of California. The unlawful acts
23 alleged herein took place in Los Angeles, California.

24 II. PARTIES

25 A. PLAINTIFF

26 15. Plaintiff Daniella Lopez is a resident of Los Angeles, California. At all times relevant 27 herein, she was employed by Defendants in Los Angeles County, California. Plaintiff was 28 employed by Defendants as a non-exempt, hourly employee in California, including in and around the city of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles. During Plaintiff’s employment:

A. Plaintiff did not receive final wages upon termination.

B. Plaintiff and the Class were not paid in a timely manner pertaining to the waiting time penalties in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201-203.

C. Plaintiff was forced to receive inaccurately itemized and deficient wage statements, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a).

D. Plaintiff did not receive her compensation in accordance with Labor Code Section 204 in that Defendant failed to issues wages to its employees within seven (7) calendar days after the pay period ended.

E. Plaintiff was required to work without meal and rest periods, nor compensation in lieu thereof, as required by the Labor Code and relevant Wage Orders.

F. Plaintiff was required to work either in excess of eight hours per workday or in excess of forty hours per workweek without receiving compensation at a rate of one and one half the regular rate of pay.

G. Defendant also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

B. DEFENDANTS

16. Defendant Aromas Food Service is a California Corporation doing business in Los Angeles, California. It operates within the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff and similarly situated employees within California. The violations alleged herein arose in Los Angeles, California.

17. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the proposed Class.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant's needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendant failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

20. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to work off the clock for Defendant. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were instructed to work approximately 5 minutes after they had clocked out to finish their assignments such as locking up the restaurant. Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees if these tasks were completed outside of her regular work hours. These excess hours were not recorded on our client's and Defendant's California employees wage statements. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees should have been compensated for that time, but she was not in violation of Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

21. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

1 22. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other California employees of Defendant
2 claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees.
3 Defendant pays their employees bonuses and commissions which are not included in the
4 employees regular rate of pay for the purposes of computing the proper overtime rate. As a result,
5 employees are not properly compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a
6 workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than
7 one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1194.2.

8 23. Defendant failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees
9 accurately itemized wage statements. As Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and
10 Defendant's California employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements
11 failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total
12 hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2), net wages earned, in violation of Labor
13 Code § 226(a)(5), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding
14 number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendant's failure
15 to pay all overtime wages due. Since the wage statements provided to Plaintiff failed to accurately
16 reflect the total number of Plaintiff's worked hours, these violations also violate Labor Code §§
226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

17 24. Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
18 California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code
19 § 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff
20 and Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendant, have not
21 accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

22 25. Our client further alleges that Defendant paid her and Defendant's California
23 employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As
24 they were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result
25 of Defendant's failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation,
26 they were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates Labor Code §§ 201-203.

27 ///

26. Defendant pays Plaintiff and its California employees on a bi-weekly basis and has failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-weekly basis must be paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

27. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as their uniform. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also not reimbursed for the required maintenance of their uniforms. Defendant further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties." As such, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

28. Defendant failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were underpaid for hours worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendant is liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

29. Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees bring this claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged above has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

ION ALLEGATIONS

30. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated as a Class Action pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

31. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class composed of and defined as follows:

THE CALIFORNIA CLASS

32. All current and former California employees of Defendants since the date four (4) year prior to the filing of this complaint.

1 33. Plaintiff reserves the right under Rule 3.765, California Rules of Court, to 2 amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further division into 3 subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

4 34. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class
5 action under the provisions of § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a
6 well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily
7 ascertainable.

8 A. NUMEROSITY

9 35. The potential members of the proposed Class as defined are so numerous that joinder
10 of all the members of the proposed Class is impracticable. While the precise number of proposed 11 Plaintiff Class members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that 12 Defendants currently employ, and during the relevant time periods employed, over seventy-five (75)
13 Class members in the State of California.

14 36. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases
15 this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records would provide 16 information as to the number and location of all proposed Plaintiff Class members. Joinder of all 17 members of the proposed Class is not practicable.

18 B. COMMONALITY

19 37. There are questions of law and fact common to the proposed Class that predominate 20 over any questions affecting only individual Class members. These common questions of law and 21 fact include, without limitation, whether Defendants failed to provide members of the Class with 22 wage statements that fully and accurately itemize the requirements set forth in Labor Code §226(a),
23 accurate final wages, and final wages on the day of termination and or within seventy-two (72) hours
24 of separation and whether the rest periods were timely made available.

25 C. TYPICALITY

26 38. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the proposed Class.
27 Plaintiff and all members of the proposed Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and 28 caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

39. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the members

1 of the proposed Class. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating
2 large employment class actions.

3 E. SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

4 40. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
5 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all proposed Plaintiff Class members is not 6 practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the proposed Class predominate over any 7 questions affecting only individual members of the proposed Class. Each member of the proposed 8 Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendant's failure to comply with 9 Labor Code 226(a).

10 41. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their 11 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
12 Plaintiffs are unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this 13 action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

14 CAUSES OF ACTION

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF
17 (LABOR CODE §§ 226.7, 512 and 558)

18 42. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 41 of this Complaint as though fully set
19 forth herein.

20 43. Plaintiff is entitled to one hour of pay for each day that Defendants failed to properly
21 provide one or more meal periods as set forth in the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 22 512 and 558.

23 44. Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were routinely unable, and not 24 authorized to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically,
25 Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were forced to continue working through their meal
26 breaks in order to assist Defendants' needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendants' California
27 employees were unable to take their required meal breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay
28 premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal break to Plaintiff and Defendants'
California employees who were denied timely meal breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

2 period compensations, which she was owed since she commenced to work for Defendant, according 3 to proof.

4 46. Additionally, Plaintiff is entitled to, and seeks, attorney's fees and costs, and

13 provide one or more rest periods as set forth in the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512
14 and 558.

15 50. Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were routinely unable, and not 16 authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and 17 Defendants' California employees were forced to continue working through their rest breaks in order
18 to assist Defendants' needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were 19 unable to take their required rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one
20 hour's pay for each missed rest break to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees who were 21 denied timely rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES IN VIOLATION OF (LABOR CODE §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2)

54. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

55. During the liability period, Defendant failed to pay all wages to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

56. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to work off the clock for Defendant. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were instructed to work approximately 5 minutes after they had clocked out to finish their assignments such as locking up the restaurant. Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees if these tasks were completed outside of her regular work hours. These excess hours were not recorded on our client's and Defendant's California employees wage statements. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees should have been compensated for that time, but she was not in violation of Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

57. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

58. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other California employees of Defendant claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. Defendant pays their employees bonuses and commissions which are not included in the employees regular rate of pay for the purposes of computing the proper overtime rate. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in

1 excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular
2 rate of pay. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510,
3 1194, and 1194.2.

4 59. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all
5 hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages
6 constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

7 60. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants in willfully failing to pay all alleges,
8 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have been deprived of wages in amounts to be
9 determined at trial, and are entitled to restitution and recovery of such amounts, plus interest thereon,
10 attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and liquidated damages pursuant to Labor
11 Code § 1194.2.

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 KNOWING AND INTENTIONAL FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ITEMIZED 14 EMPLOYEE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS (LABOR CODE § 226(a),(e))

15 61. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set
16 forth herein.

17 62. Section 226(a) of the California Labor Code requires Defendants to provide wage 18 statements to employees. In those wage statements, Defendants must accurately set forth, among 19 other things, the total gross and net wages earned, and all hourly rates in effect, for Plaintiff.
20 Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a).

21 63. Defendants failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately
22 itemized wage statements. As Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendants' California
23 employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all 24 gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of 25 Labor Code § 226(a)(2), and net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5), and all 26 applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in 27 violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due.
28 These violations also violate Labor Code §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees.

64. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code § 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

65. The wage statements provided to Plaintiff and members of the Class fail to accurately itemize in wage statements total gross and net wages earned, and all hourly rates in effect for Plaintiff. Defendants' violations of Labor Code § 226(a) are knowing and intentional, and Plaintiff has suffered injury as a result of the receipt of defective wage statements, thereby entitling them to penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY WAGES DUE AT THE TIME OF DISCHARGE IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE §§ 201-202, RESULTING IN SECTION 203 WAGES AND PENALTIES (WAITING TIME PENALTIES)

66. Plaintiff hereby incorporates preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

67. At all times material herein, the California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 203 were in effect and binding on Defendant.

68. California Labor Code § 202 requires employers to pay employees all wages due within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation. California Labor Code § 201 states in pertinent part that “if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.” California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to timely pay such wages the employer must, as penalty, continue to pay the subject employee’s wages until the back wages are paid in full or an action is commenced. The penalty cannot exceed 30 days of wages.

69. Plaintiff was entitled to compensation for unpaid wages, but to date has not received such compensation. Specifically, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff all wages due to Plaintiff at the time of her separation of employment from Defendant's. Thus, since Defendant failed to promptly pay Plaintiff all wages due to Plaintiff at the time of her separation of

1 employment, Defendant violated Section 201 of the Labor Code and Plaintiff is therefore 2 entitled to wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.

3 70. More than 30 days have passed since Plaintiff's employment ended with 4 Defendant.

5 71. As a consequence of Defendant's willful conduct in not paying wages owed to 6 Plaintiff, Plaintiff is entitled to 30 days of wages as a penalty pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for 7 Defendant's failure to timely pay legal wages, together with attorney's fees and cost of suit,
8 and interest pursuant to California Labor Code Section 218.5.

9 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY EMPLOYEES IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204(a)(b)

11 72. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set
12 forth herein.

13 73. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code § 204 was in full force and effect and 14 binding on Defendants.

15 74. Wages must be paid according to a regularly set schedule. (Labor Code § 204). All 16 earned wages must be paid at least twice a month, on days designated in advance by the employer.
17 Work performed between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid
18 between the 16th and 26th day of the same month. Work performed between the 16th and the last 19 day of the month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. (Labor Code §
20 204). Weekly or bi-weekly (every two weeks) payroll must be paid within seven (7) days of the end
21 of the pay period in which the wages were earned (Labor Code §§ 204(a), 204(b)).

22 75. Defendants pay Plaintiff and its California employees on a bi-weekly basis and have 23 failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-weekly basis must 24 be paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the 25 violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of 26 their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

27 76. Defendants have failed to comply with the above-section because they waited longer
28 than seven days from the close of the pay period to pay its bi-weekly paid employees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR BUSINESS EXPENSES IN VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2802

77. Plaintiff hereby incorporates preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

78. Labor Code § 2802 provides that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.”

79. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees for the equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as their uniform. Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were also not reimbursed for the required maintenance of their uniforms. Defendant further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.” As such, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

80. Plaintiff is entitled to reimbursement for these necessary expenditures, plus interest and attorneys’ fees and cost, under Labor Code § 2802.

81. Plaintiff also requests relief as described below.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL HOURS WORKED, INCLUDING OVERTIME HOURS
WORKED IN VIOLATION OF (LABOR CODES §§ 210, 218)

82. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

83. Section 2(K) or Wage Order 5 defines “hours worked” as “the rime during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.” Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 required employers to compensate Plaintiff for all hours worked at least at a minimum wage ad established by the Wage Order. Defendants did not pay for all hours worked and frequently required Plaintiff to work off the clock. Defendants have been engaged in many unlawful employment practices which resulted in underpayment for hours worked each pay period as more set forth below:

84. Failure to Pay All Wages Owed Twice Per Month. Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff all wages earned twice during each calendar month pursuant to Labor Code § 204(a). Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff was underpaid for hours worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Re: Daniella Lopez v. Aromas Food Services, Aroma's Coffee Co. – Labor Code Violations of Aromas Food Services, Aroma's Coffee Co. – Compliance Letter of California Labor Code § 2698 – Private Attorneys General Act

Dear Sir or Madam:

This office represents Daniella Lopez ("Plaintiff"), a former California employee of Aromas Food Services, Aroma's Coffee Co. ("Defendant"). The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

Our client works for Defendant in Southern California. Herein we set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to our client and Defendant's other California non-exempt employees.

Plaintiff began working for Defendant on or about November 15, 2023. While working for Defendant as a Barista, Plaintiff was earning sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents ($16.25) per hour.

Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant's needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendant failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to work off the clock for Defendant. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were instructed to work approximately 5 minutes after they had clocked out to finish their assignments such as locking up the restaurant. Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees if these tasks were completed outside of her regular work hours. These excess hours were not recorded on our client's and Defendant's California employees wage statements. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees should have been compensated for that time, but she was not in violation of Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other California employees of Defendant claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. Defendant pays their employees bonuses and commissions which are not included in the employees regular rate of pay for the purposes of computing the proper overtime rate. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1194.2.

Defendant failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately itemized wage statements. As Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2), net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendant's failure to pay all overtime wages due. Since the wage statements provided to Plaintiff failed to accurately reflect the total number of Plaintiff's worked hours, these violations also violate Labor Code §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code § 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendant, have not accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

Our client further alleges that Defendant paid her and Defendant's California employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As they were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result of Defendant's failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation, they were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates Labor Code §§ 201-203.

Defendant pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a bi-weekly basis and has failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-weekly basis must be paid no later than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendant such as their uniform. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also not reimbursed for the required maintenance of their uniforms. Defendant further failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties." As such, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

Defendant failed to continue to take precautions to ensure employee safety after the onset of COVID. Under LC §6409.6(a)(1). "COVID-19" means severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2). Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, directly after the onset of COVID, were required to partake in mandatory temperature and health checks, but these activities were not enforced or practiced quickly after the onset of COVID and when COVID was still a health risk to the employees. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also required to provide their own masks at the workplace. As a result of these practices, Defendant have violated Cal. Labor Code §§ 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, and 6407 for failure to provide a safe and healthful environment for their Employees, as outlines above. Defendant are liable for civil penalties pursuant to Cal. Labor Code § 2699 et seq.

Defendant failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were underpaid for hours worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendant is liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

We invite Defendant or its attorney(s) to contact our office to discuss this matter, including whether an early resolution of the claims can be reached.

Our office awaits your response.

Very truly yours,

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HANDLING UNLIMITED CIVIL CASES

The following critical provisions of the California Rules of Court, Title 3, Division 7, as applicable in the Superior Court, are summarized for your assistance.

APPLICATION

The Division 7 Rules were effective January 1, 2007. They apply to all general civil cases.

PRIORITY OVER OTHER RULES

The Division 7 Rules shall have priority over all other Local Rules to the extent the others are inconsistent.

CHALLENGE TO ASSIGNED JUDGE

A challenge under Code of Civil Procedure Section 170.6 must be made within 15 days after notice of assignment for all purposes to a judge, or if a party has not yet appeared, within 15 days of the first appearance.

TIME STANDARDS

Cases assigned to the Independent Calendaring Courts will be subject to processing under the following time standards:

COMPLAINTS

All complaints shall be served within 60 days of filing and proof of service shall be filed within 90 days.

CROSS-COMPLAINTS

Without leave of court first being obtained, no cross-complaint may be filed by any party after their answer is filed. Cross-complaints shall be served within 30 days of the filing date and a proof of service filed within 60 days of the filing date.

STATUS CONFERENCE

A status conference will be scheduled by the assigned Independent Calendar Judge no later than 270 days after the filing of the complaint. Counsel must be fully prepared to discuss the following issues: alternative dispute resolution, bifurcation, settlement, trial date, and expert witnesses.

FINAL STATUS CONFERENCE

The Court will require the parties to attend a final status conference not more than 10 days before the scheduled trial date. All parties shall have motions in limine, bifurcation motions, statements of major evidentiary issues, dispositive motions, requested form jury instructions, special jury instructions, and special jury verdicts timely filed and served prior to the conference. These matters may be heard and resolved at this conference. At least five days before this conference, counsel must also have exchanged lists of exhibits and witnesses, and have submitted to the court a brief statement of the case to be read to the jury panel as required by Chapter Three of the Los Angeles Superior Court Rules.

SANCTIONS

The court will impose appropriate sanctions for the failure or refusal to comply with Chapter Three Rules, orders made by the Court, and time standards or deadlines established by the Court or by the Chapter Three Rules. Such sanctions may be on a party, or if appropriate, on counsel for a party.

This is not a complete delineation of the Division 7 or Chapter Three Rules, and adherence only to the above provisions is therefore not a guarantee against the imposition of sanctions under Trial Court Delay Reduction. Careful reading and compliance with the actual Chapter Rules is imperative.

Class Actions

Pursuant to Local Rule 2.3, all class actions shall be filed at the Stanley Mosk Courthouse and are randomly assigned to a complex judge at the designated complex courthouse. If the case is found not to be a class action it will be returned to an Independent Calendar Courtroom for all purposes.

Provisionally Complex Cases

Cases filed as provisionally complex are initially assigned to the Supervising Judge of complex litigation for determination of complex status. If the case is deemed to be complex within the meaning of California Rules of Court 3.400 et seq., it will be randomly assigned to a complex judge at the designated complex courthouse. If the case is found not to be complex, it will be returned to an Independent Calendar Courtroom for all purposes.

Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION PACKAGE

THE PLAINTIFF MUST SERVE THIS ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE ON EACH PARTY WITH THE COMPLAINT.

CROSS-COMPLAINANTS must serve this ADR Information Package on any new parties named to the action with the cross-complaint.

What is ADR?

ADR helps people find solutions to their legal disputes without going to trial. The main types of ADR are negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and settlement conferences. When ADR is done by phone, videoconference or computer, it may be called Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). These alternatives to litigation and trial are described below.

Advantages of ADR

- Saves Time: ADR is faster than going to trial.
- Saves Money: Parties can save on court costs, attorney's fees, and witness fees.
- Keeps Control (with the parties): Parties choose their ADR process and provider for voluntary ADR.
- Reduces Stress/Protects Privacy: ADR is done outside the courtroom, in private offices, by phone or online.

Disadvantages of ADR

- Costs: If the parties do not resolve their dispute, they may have to pay for ADR, litigation, and trial.
- No Public Trial: ADR does not provide a public trial or decision by a judge or jury.

Main Types of ADR

1. Negotiation: Parties often talk with each other in person, or by phone or online about resolving their case with a settlement agreement instead of a trial. If the parties have lawyers, they will negotiate for their clients.
2. Mediation: In mediation, a neutral mediator listens to each person's concerns, helps them evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their case, and works with them to try to create a settlement agreement that is acceptable to all. Mediators do not decide the outcome. Parties may go to trial if they decide not to settle.

Mediation may be appropriate when the parties

- want to work out a solution but need help from a neutral person.
- have communication problems or strong emotions that interfere with resolution.

Mediation may not be appropriate when the parties

- want a public trial and want a judge or jury to decide the outcome.
- lack equal bargaining power or have a history of physical/emotional abuse.

How to Arrange Mediation in Los Angeles County

Mediation for civil cases is voluntary and parties may select any mediator they wish. Options include:

a. The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List

If all parties in an active civil case agree to mediation, they may contact these organizations to request a “Resource List Mediation” for mediation at reduced cost or no cost (for selected cases).

- ADR Services, Inc. Assistant Case Manager Janet Solis, janet@adrservices.com
(213) 683-1600
- Mediation Center of Los Angeles Program Manager info@mediationLA.org
(833) 476-9145

These organizations cannot accept every case and they may decline cases at their discretion. They may offer online mediation by video conference for cases they accept. Before contacting these organizations, review important information and FAQs at www.lacourt.org/ADR.Res.List

NOTE: The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List program does not accept family law, probate, or small claims cases.

b. Los Angeles County Dispute Resolution Programs. Los Angeles County-funded agencies provide mediation services on the day of hearings in small claims, unlawful detainer (eviction), civil harassment, and limited civil (collections and non-collection) cases.

<https://dcba.lacounty.gov/countywidedrp/>

Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). Parties in small claims and unlawful detainer (eviction) cases should carefully review the Notice and other information they may receive about (ODR) requirements for their case. <https://my.lacourt.org/odr/>

c. Mediators and ADR and Bar organizations that provide mediation may be found on the internet.

3. Arbitration: Arbitration is less formal than trial, but like trial, the parties present evidence and arguments to the person who decides the outcome. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION PACKAGE

THE PLAINTIFF MUST SERVE THIS ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE ON EACH PARTY WITH THE COMPLAINT.

CROSS-COMPLAINANTS must serve this ADR Information Package on any new parties named to the action with the cross-complaint.

What is ADR?

ADR helps people find solutions to their legal disputes without going to trial. The main types of ADR are negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and settlement conferences. When ADR is done by phone, videoconference or computer, it may be called Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). These alternatives to litigation and trial are described below.

Advantages of ADR

- Saves Time: ADR is faster than going to trial.
- Saves Money: Parties can save on court costs, attorney's fees, and witness fees.
- Keeps Control (with the parties): Parties choose their ADR process and provider for voluntary ADR.
- Reduces Stress/Protects Privacy: ADR is done outside the courtroom, in private offices, by phone or online.

Disadvantages of ADR

- Costs: If the parties do not resolve their dispute, they may have to pay for ADR, litigation, and trial.
- No Public Trial: ADR does not provide a public trial or a decision by a judge or jury.

Main Types of ADR

1. Negotiation: Parties often talk with each other in person, or by phone or online about resolving their case with a settlement agreement instead of a trial. If the parties have lawyers, they will negotiate for their clients.
2. Mediation: In mediation, a neutral mediator listens to each person's concerns, helps them evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their case, and works with them to try to create a settlement agreement that is acceptable to all. Mediators do not decide the outcome. Parties may go to trial if they decide not to settle.

Mediation may be appropriate when the parties

- want to work out a solution but need help from a neutral person.
- have communication problems or strong emotions that interfere with resolution.

Mediation may not be appropriate when the parties

- want a public trial and want a judge or jury to decide the outcome.
- lack equal bargaining power or have a history of physical/emotional abuse.

How to Arrange Mediation in Los Angeles County

Mediation for civil cases is voluntary and parties may select any mediator they wish. Options include:

a. The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List

If all parties in an active civil case agree to mediation, they may contact these organizations to request a "Resource List Mediation" for mediation at reduced cost or no cost (for selected cases).

- ADR Services, Inc. Case Manager Elizabeth Sanchez, elizabeth@adrservices.com
(949) 863-9800
- Mediation Center of Los Angeles Program Manager info@mediationLA.org
(833) 476-9145

These organizations cannot accept every case and they may decline cases at their discretion. They may offer online mediation by video conference for cases they accept. Before contacting these organizations, review important information and FAQs at www.lacourt.org/ADR.Res.List

NOTE: The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List program does not accept family law, probate or small claims cases.

b. Los Angeles County Dispute Resolution Programs

Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). Parties in small claims and unlawful detainer (eviction) cases should carefully review the Notice and other information they may receive about (ODR) requirements for their case.

c. Mediators and ADR and Bar organizations that provide mediation may be found on the internet.

3. Arbitration: Arbitration is less formal than trial, but like trial, the parties present evidence and arguments to the person who decides the outcome. In "binding" arbitration, the arbitrator's decision is final; there is no right to trial. In "nonbinding" arbitration, any party can request a trial after the arbitrator's decision. For more information about arbitration, visit <http://www.courts.ca.gov/programs-adr.htm>

4. Mandatory Settlement Conferences (MSC): MSCs are ordered by the Court and are often held close to the trial date or on the day of trial. The Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, Discovery Resolution Stipulation, and Motions in Limine Stipulation are voluntary stipulations entered into by the parties. The parties may enter into one, two, or all three of the stipulations; however, they may not alter the stipulations as written, because the Court wants to ensure uniformity of application. These stipulations are meant to encourage cooperation between the parties and to assist in resolving issues in a manner that promotes economic case resolution and judicial efficiency.

The following organizations endorse the goal of promoting efficiency in litigation and ask that counsel consider using these stipulations as a voluntary way to promote communications and procedures among counsel and with the court to fairly resolve issues in their cases.

STIPULATION – EARLY ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

This stipulation is intended to encourage cooperation among the parties at an early stage in the litigation and to assist the parties in efficient case resolution.

The parties agree that:

1. The parties commit to conduct an initial conference (in-person or via teleconference or via videoconference) within 15 days from the date this stipulation is signed, to discuss and consider whether there can be agreement on the following:
 - a. Are motions to challenge the pleadings necessary? If the issue can be resolved by amendment as of right, or if the Court would allow leave to amend, could an amended complaint resolve most or all of the issues a demurrer might otherwise raise? If so, the parties agree to work through pleading issues so that a demurrer need only raise issues they cannot resolve. Is the issue that the defendant seeks to raise amenable to resolution on demurrer, or would some other type of motion be preferable? Could a voluntary targeted exchange of documents or information by any party cure an uncertainty in the pleadings?
 - b. Initial mutual exchanges of documents at the “core” of the litigation. (For example, in an employment case, the employment records, personnel file and documents relating to the conduct in question could be considered “core.” In a personal injury case, an incident or police report, medical records, and repair or maintenance records could be considered “core.”);
 - c. Exchange of names and contact information of witnesses;
 - d. Any insurance agreement that may be available to satisfy part or all of a judgment, or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy a judgment;
 - e. Exchange of any other information that might be helpful to facilitate understanding, handling, or resolution of the case in a manner that preserves objections or privileges by agreement;
 - f. Controlling issues of law that, if resolved early, will promote efficiency and economy in other phases of the case. Also, when and how such issues can be presented to the Court;
 - g. Whether or when the case should be scheduled with a settlement officer, what discovery or court ruling on legal issues is reasonably required to make settlement discussions meaningful, and whether the parties wish to use a sitting judge or a private mediator or other options as discussed in the “Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Package” served with the complaint;

- h. Computation of damages, including documents, not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based;
 - i. Whether the case is suitable for the Expedited Jury Trial procedures (see information at www.lacourt.org under “Civil” and then under “General Information”).
2. The time for a defending party to respond to a complaint or cross-complaint will be extended to _____ for the complaint, and _____ for the cross-complaint, which is comprised of the 30 days to respond under Government Code § 68616(b), and the 30 days permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a), good cause having been found by the Civil Supervising Judge due to the case management benefits provided by this Stipulation. A copy of the General Order can be found at www.lacourt.org under “Civil”, click on “General Information”, then click on “Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations”.

 3. The parties will prepare a joint report titled “Joint Status Report Pursuant to Initial Conference and Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, and if desired, a proposed order summarizing results of their meet and confer and advising the Court of any way it may assist the parties’ efficient conduct or resolution of the case. The parties shall attach the Joint Status Report to the Case Management Conference statement, and file the documents when the CMC statement is due.
 4. References to “days” mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day

STIPULATION – DISCOVERY RESOLUTION

This stipulation is intended to provide a fast and informal resolution of discovery issues through limited paperwork and an informal conference with the Court to aid in the resolution of the issues.

The parties agree that:

1. Prior to the discovery cut-off in this action, no discovery motion shall be filed or heard unless the moving party first makes a written request for an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the terms of this stipulation.
2. At the Informal Discovery Conference the Court will consider the dispute presented by parties and determine whether it can be resolved informally. Nothing set forth herein will preclude a party from making a record at the conclusion of an Informal Discovery Conference, either orally or in writing.
3. Following a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue to be presented, a party may request an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the following procedures:
 - a. The party requesting the Informal Discovery Conference will:
 - i. File a Request for Informal Discovery Conference with the clerk's office on the approved form (copy attached) and deliver a courtesy, conformed copy to the assigned department;
 - ii. Include a brief summary of the dispute and specify the relief requested; and
 - iii. Serve the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Request for Informal Discovery Conference no later than the next court day following the filing.
 - b. Any Answer to a Request for Informal Discovery Conference must:
 - i. Also be filed on the approved form (copy attached);
 - ii. Include a brief summary of why the requested relief should be denied;

SHORT TITLE:	CASE NUMBER:

- iii. Be filed within two (2) court days of receipt of the Request; and
 - iv. Be served on the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed upon method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Answer no later than the next court day following the filing.
- c. No other pleadings, including but not limited to exhibits, declarations, or attachments, will be accepted.
- d. If the Court has not granted or denied the Request for Informal Discovery Conference within ten (10) days following the filing of the Request, then it shall be deemed to have been denied. If the Court acts on the Request, the parties will be notified whether the Request for Informal Discovery Conference has been granted or denied and, if granted, the date and time of the Informal Discovery Conference, which must be within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference.
- e. If the conference is not held within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, unless extended by agreement of the parties and the Court, then the Request for the Informal Discovery Conference shall be deemed to have been denied at that time.
4. If (a) the Court has denied a conference or (b) one of the time deadlines above has expired without the Court having acted or (c) the Informal Discovery Conference is concluded without resolving the dispute, then a party may file a discovery motion to address unresolved issues.
5. The parties hereby further agree that the time for making a motion to compel or other discovery motion is tolled from the date of filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference until (a) the request is denied or deemed denied or (b) twenty (20) days after the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, whichever is earlier, unless extended by Order of the Court.
- It is the understanding and intent of the parties that this stipulation shall, for each discovery dispute to which it applies, constitute a writing memorializing a “specific later date to which the propounding [or demanding or requesting] party and the responding party have agreed in writing,” within the meaning of Code Civil Procedure sections 2030.300(c), 2031.320(c), and 2033.290(c).
6. Nothing herein will preclude any party from applying ex parte for appropriate relief, including an order shortening time for a motion to be heard concerning discovery.
7. Any party may terminate this stipulation by giving twenty-one (21) days notice of intent to terminate the stipulation.
8. References to “days” mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day.

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

General Order Re) ORDER PURSUANT TO CCP 1054(a), Use of Voluntary Efficient Litigation) EXTENDING TIME TO RESPOND BY Stipulations) 30 DAYS WHEN PARTIES AGREE ) TO EARLY ORGANIZATIONAL ) MEETING STIPULATION

Whereas the Los Angeles Superior Court and the Executive Committee of the Litigation Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association have cooperated in drafting "Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations" and in proposing the stipulations for use in general jurisdiction civil litigation in Los Angeles County;

Whereas the Los Angeles County Bar Association Litigation Section; the Los Angeles County Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section; the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles; the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel; the Association of Business Trial Lawyers of Los Angeles; and the California Employment Lawyers Association all "endorse the goal of promoting efficiency in litigation, and ask that counsel consider using these stipulations as a voluntary way to promote communications and procedures among counsel and with the court to fairly resolve issues in their cases;"

1 Whereas the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation is intended to encourage
2 cooperation among the parties at an early stage in litigation in order to achieve
3 litigation efficiencies;

4 Whereas it is intended that use of the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation
5 will promote economic case resolution and judicial efficiency;

7 Whereas, in order to promote a meaningful discussion of pleading issues at the 8 Early Organizational Meeting and potentially to reduce the need for motions to 9 challenge the pleadings, it is necessary to allow additional time to conduct the Early
10 Organizational Meeting before the time to respond to a complaint or cross complaint
11 has expired;

12
13 Whereas Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a) allows a judge of the court in 14 which an action is pending to extend for not more than 30 days the time to respond to 15 a pleading "upon good cause shown";

16 Now, therefore, this Court hereby finds that there is good cause to extend for 30 17 days the time to respond to a complaint or to a cross complaint in any action in which 18 the parties have entered into the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation. This finding 19 of good cause is based on the anticipated judicial efficiency and benefits of economic 20 case resolution that the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation is intended to 21 promote.

24 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, in any case in which the parties have entered 25 into an Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, the time for a defending party to 26 respond to a complaint or cross complaint shall be extended by the 30 days permitted
27
28
