MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiffs Emely Saldana and Marco Aurelio Silva (collectively “Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims, including representative claims brought under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), against Defendants Bungalow Kitchen SF, LLC; The Bungalow Long Beach, LLC; and The Mina Group, LLC (collectively “Defendants”). The proposed Class is defined as all individuals who worked for Defendants in California as hourly non-exempt employees (“Class Members”) at any time during the period from the period from March 1, 2021, through March 30, 2025 (“Class Period”).¹ The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $450,000.00, which will be distributed to approximately 674 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
2. Attorneys’ fees of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $150,000.00) and up to $25,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs to Plaintiffs’ Counsel;
3. A Class Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff Emely Saldana and a Class Representative Service Payment of up to $2,500.00 to Plaintiff Marco Aurelio Silva ($10,000.00 total);
4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $10,450.00; and
5. Allocation of $20,000.00 to PAGA penalties, seventy-five percent (75%) of which ($15,000.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and twenty-five percent (25%) of which ($5,000.00) will be paid to all

¹ The Class Period end date is subject to modification in the event the escalator clause is triggered, and Defendant elects to shorten the Class Period instead of proportionally increasing the Gross Settlement Amount. Settlement Agreement at § 8.1. Defendant and/or the Administrator must verify the workweek total and confirm the Class Period end date prior to preliminary approval. Id.

1 individuals who worked for Defendants in California as hourly non-exempt
2 employees (“Aggrieved Employees”) at any time during the period from February 3 20, 2023, through March 30, 2025 (“PAGA Period”).

4 The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of 5 reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached 6 through informed, arm’s length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of 7 an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiffs request that the Court grant preliminary approval of the 8 Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiffs as the 9 Class Representatives, appoint Plaintiffs’ Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint ILYM Group Inc. as 10 the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to administer notice of the 11 Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

12 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

13 On August 22, 2023, Plaintiff Emely Saldana filed this putative class action against 14 Defendants The Bungalow Kitchen SF, LLC; The Bungalow Long Beach, LLC; Bungalow
15 Hospitality Group, LLC; and The Mina Group, LLC (collectively “Defendants”) alleging: (1) 16 failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to 17 provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final 18 wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to 19 indemnify employees for expenditures; and unfair business practices (“Class Action”). Declaration 20 of John G. Yslas in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 21 PAGA Settlement (“Yslas Decl.”) at ¶ 3.

22 On February 14, 2024, Plaintiff Emely Saldana provided written notice to the LWDA and 23 Defendants of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the 24 facts and theories in support. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4, Exhibit 1. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff 25 Emely Saldana that it intended to investigate within 65 days of this written notice. Yslas Decl. at 26 ¶ 4. Therefore, on June 12, 2024, Plaintiff Emely Saldana filed a separate action against Defendants 27 for civil penalties under PAGA, in the Superior Court of California, County of Marin, Case No.
28 CV0003132 (“PAGA Action”). Id.

1 On December 2, 2025, the Court entered an order on Plaintiff Emely Saldana and 2 Defendants' stipulation, dismissing Defendant Bungalow Hospitality Group, LLC from this Class
3 Action without prejudice. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 5. On December 4, 2025, Plaintiffs filed a First Amended 4 Complaint in this Class Action, which added a named plaintiff and added a cause of action for civil 5 penalties under PAGA. Id.

6 On January 30, 2025, the Parties participated in a private full-day mediation with mediator 7 Gig Kyriacou. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length, 8 and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id. With the 9 assistance of the mediator, the Parties were able to reach an agreement as to general settlement 10 terms. Id. The Parties negotiated the terms of the Settlement over the next several months, which 11 was finalized in June 2025. Id. at ¶ 7. The Parties then negotiated the terms of an Amended 12 Settlement, which was finalized in November 2025. Id., Exhibit 2 ("Settlement Agreement"). On 13 January 6, 2026, Plaintiffs submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Id. at ¶ 8, 14 Exhibit 3.

15 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

16 A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

17 The parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this Class Action and PAGA Action 18 for a Gross Settlement Amount of $450,000.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court 19 approval, the following payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) a Class 20 Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff Emely Saldana and a Class 21 Representative Service Payment of up to $2,500.00 to Plaintiff Marco Aurelio Silva ($10,000.00 22 total); (2) attorneys' fees of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently 23 estimated to be $150,000.00) and reimbursement of litigation costs of up to $25,000.00 to 24 Plaintiffs' Counsel; (3) costs of settlement administration of up to $10,450.00 to ILYM Group Inc.; 25 (4) individual class payments to Class Members; and (5) PAGA penalties in the amount of 26 $20,000.00, which will be allocated 75% to the LWDA ($15,000.00) and 25% to Aggrieved 27 Employees ($5,000.00). Id. at § 3.2. After all requested deductions are made, the remaining Net 28 Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $234,550.00. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21.

1 Individual class payments will be calculated based on the number of workweeks worked 2 by each Class Member during the Class Period. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, 3 the individual class payments will be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to interest and penalties.
4 Id. at § 3.2.4.1. Defendants will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the 5 wage positions of the individual class payments separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.
6 at 3.1.

7 Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees will be calculated based on the 8 number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period. Id.
9 at § 3.2.5.1. For tax purposes, the Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated 100% to penalties.
10 Id. at § 3.2.5.2.

11 Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator 12 in the Net Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.2. Funds from any uncashed checks will be transmitted 13 by the Settlement Administrator to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the 14 name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue.” Id. at § 4.4.3. None of the Gross 15 Settlement Amount will revert to Defendants. Id. at § 3.1.

16 B. Proposed Settlement Administration

17 The parties’ proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of 18 Court, Rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding 19 the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the settlement terms, the formula used for calculating 20 individual class and PAGA payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on 21 how to opt-out of or object to the Settlement, the date, time, and location of the final approval 22 hearing, and the amounts sought for the class representative service payment, attorneys’ fees and 23 litigation costs, and settlement administration costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also 24 notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the 25 Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members 26 the Class Notice by first-class mail in English with a Spanish translation. Settlement Agreement at 27 §§ 1.11, 7.4.2.

28 If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the 1 Class Notice within three (3) business days to the forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal 2 Service. Id. at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will 3 conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address 4 obtained. Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Settlement or to submit an objection or dispute will be 5 extended by 14 days for all Class Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Id. at § 7.4.4.

6 C. Proposed Releases

7 Effective on the date when Defendants fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount and all 8 employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiffs, 9 Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

10 Release by Participating Class Members:

11 All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and 12 present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, 13 release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been 14 alleged, based on the facts alleged in the Actions including, e.g., (1) any and all claims 15 involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wage; (2) any alleged failure to pay overtime 16 wages; (3) any alleged failure to provide compliant meal periods, or compensation in lieu 17 thereof; (4) any alleged failure to provide compliant rest breaks, or compensation in lieu 18 thereof; (5) any alleged failure to indemnify/reimburse necessary business expenses; (6) 19 any alleged failure to pay wages due upon separation; (7) any alleged failure to provide 20 compliant accurate itemized wage statements; and (8) any alleged unlawful, unfair, or 21 fraudulent business actions or practices under Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et 22 seq. arising out of the Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage 23 Order violations referenced in the Actions. This release does not include claims for vested 24 benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, 25 unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims 26 based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

27 Settlement Agreement at § 5.2.

28 Release by Aggrieved Employees:

All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were the PAGA Notice including, e.g., (1) any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wage; (2) any alleged failure to pay overtime wages; (3) any alleged failure to provide compliant meal periods, or compensation in lieu thereof; (4) any alleged failure to provide compliant rest breaks, or compensation in lieu thereof; (5) any alleged failure to indemnify/reimburse necessary business expenses; (6) any alleged failure to pay wages due upon separation; (7) any alleged failure to provide compliant accurate itemized wage statements.

Settlement Agreement at § 5.3.

“Released Parties” means:

Defendants and each of its former, and current owners, parents, and subsidiaries, and all of their current, and former, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, consultants, partners, shareholders, joint venturers, agents, predecessors, successors, assigns, accountants, insurers, reinsurers, and/or legal representatives[.]

Settlement Agreement at § 1.44.

Only Plaintiffs will agree to a general release and a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. Id. at § 5.1.

IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 836, 859 (2003).

1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

“Ascertainability” is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for trial, “the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be confronted.” Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted. Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 7 Cal.5th at 986.

1 The Class here consists of all individuals who worked for Defendants in California as 2 hourly non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period. See Settlement Agreement at § 3 1.5. The Class is also readily ascertainable from Defendant’s business records, because all Class 4 Members are or were employees of Defendant. Id. Defendant’s records show there are 5 approximately 674 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Yslas 6 Decl. at ¶ 10.

7 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

8 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 9 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 10 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

11 a. Common Questions Predominate

12 In determining whether common issues “predominate,” courts consider both plaintiff’s 13 legal theories and defendant’s affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat’l Ass’n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 14 28-29 (2014). The “predominate common questions” factor does not require that all class members 15 have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014).
16 Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to 17 permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are 18 manageable. Id.

19 Plaintiffs have alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or 20 practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal periods, rest periods, 21 reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, and timely payment of wages 22 upon separation of employment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. These allegations present common factual 23 and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, 24 pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies to all Class Members, whether these 25 policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant’s conduct was 26 intentional, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These 27 common questions could be resolved using Class Members’ time records, payroll records, 28 testimony from Defendant’s designated representative(s), and Class Members’ testimony. Id.

Therefore, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

b. Plaintiffs are Typical of the Class

Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff's claims and those of the class members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff's claims be identical to those of other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the class and focus on common issues. Medraza v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 99 (2008).

Plaintiffs have alleged that they and Class Members were employed by the same Defendant and injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, and reimbursement policies. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, Plaintiffs confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiffs and Class Members alike. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiffs' claims and Class Members' claims arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories.

c. Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. "Only a conflict that goes to the very subject matter of the litigation will defeat a party's claim of representative status." Richmond v. Dart Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are "irreconcilable" can defeat adequacy. Nat'l Solar Equip. Owners' Ass'n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The proposed representative Plaintiffs and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

Plaintiffs' interests are coextensive with Class Members' interests. Declaration of Emely Saldana in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA

1 Settlement (“Saldana Decl.”) at ¶ 6; Declaration of Marco Aurelio Silva in Support of Plaintiffs’ 2 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Silva Decl.”) at ¶ 6.
3 Plaintiffs have demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of Class Members by initiating 4 this lawsuit, providing information to their attorneys, meeting with their attorneys regarding the 5 claims, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Saldana Decl. at ¶ 7; Silva Decl. at ¶ 7.

6 Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has expended considerable time and effort on this case 7 and will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Yslas Decl. Therefore, Plaintiffs 8 should be appointed Class Representatives, and their counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

9 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

10 Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly “superior to the 11 other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” Dean Witter 12 Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because “[p]ublic 13 policy has long favored the ‘full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.’” Sav-On Drug 14 Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a 15 multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members’ claim, Class 16 Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-17 pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweigh any 18 potential recovery. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for seeking 19 relief.

20 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

21 The moving party must demonstrate that “the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable.”
22 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). “In determining whether a 23 class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, 24 such as the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 25 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, 26 the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of 27 counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 28 proposed settlement.” Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations omitted).

1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

A settlement is entitled to “a presumption of fairness . . . where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiffs will analyze the fourth factor at final approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an opportunity to object.

a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm’s Length Negotiation

Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm’s length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was the product of a full-day mediation session with a respected mediator. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm’s length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id.

b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiffs’ Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiffs’ Counsel assessed the value to the class claims using the documents and data Defendant produced in informal discovery. The data and documents produced by Defendants included the number of Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of pay periods in the PAGA Period, the average rate of pay, documents concerning Plaintiff Emely Saldana, wage-and-hour policy documents, a random sampling of Class Members’ time and payroll records, and documents concerning Defendants’ current financial status. Id. Plaintiffs’ Counsel also engaged an expert to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks associated with each claim meriting reductions in the likely success at class certification and likely recovery at trial. Id.

1 c. Plaintiffs' Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

2 Plaintiffs are represented by Wilshire Law Firm, PLC. Id. at ¶ 1. Plaintiffs' Counsel has 3 extensive experience litigating wage-and-hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at ¶¶ 4 22-35. Plaintiffs' Counsel has been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have 5 resulted in millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

6 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiffs'

7 Claims and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

8 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair 9 and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although 10 the exposure Plaintiffs' Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class 11 certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Yslas 12 Decl. at ¶ 12. Based on an analysis of the facts and legal contentions in this case, documents and 13 information from Defendants, Plaintiffs' Counsel evaluated Defendants' maximum exposure. Id.
14 Plaintiffs' Counsel took into account the risk of not having the claims certified and the risk of not 15 prevailing at trial, even if the claims are certified. Id. After using the data Defendants provided, 16 including class member timekeeping and payroll records, as well as class member demographics, 17 with the assistance of a statistics expert, Plaintiffs' Counsel created a damages model to evaluate 18 the realistic range of potential recovery for the class. Id.

19 Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiffs' unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims 20 were based on the allegation that Defendants required Class Members to routinely perform work 21 duties off the clock. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 13. Based on this allegation, Plaintiffs' Counsel conservatively 22 estimated that Class Members worked one (1) hour off the clock per week as overtime in 23 calculating potential exposure to be approximately $700,211.85 for these claims (27,235 24 workweeks x $17.14 hourly rate x 1.5 overtime rate of pay x 1.00 hour of unpaid work per 25 workweek). Id. Because this claim would have relied heavily on Class Member testimony and 26 would not be evidenced in Defendants' time and payroll records, the risk of succeeding at class 27 certification was substantial. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' Counsel applied a risk discount based on 28 a 40% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $112,033.90 ($$700,211.85 \times 40\% \times 40\%$). Id.

Meal Periods: Plaintiffs' meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendants failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant meal periods or pay meal period premiums in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 14. Plaintiffs' Counsel's expert found a facial violation rate of approximately 20.3% in Defendants' time and payroll records for shifts greater than five (5) hours. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the meal period claims is approximately $302,869.59 ($87,046 \text{ shifts greater than 5 hours} \times $17.14 \text{ hourly rate} \times 20.3\% \text{ violation rate}$). Id. However, Defendants argued that Class Members were covered by meal period waivers. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 50% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $60,573.92 ($$302,869.59 \times 50\% \times 40\%$). Id.

Rest Periods: Plaintiffs' rest period claim was based on the allegation that Defendants failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant rest periods or pay rest period premiums in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 15. Based on this allegation, Plaintiffs' Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts of 3.5 hours or longer. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the rest period claims is approximately $1,610,114.46 ($93,939 \text{ shifts of 3.5 hours or longer} \times $17.14 \text{ hourly rate} \times 100\% \text{ violation rate}$). Id. However, Plaintiffs' Counsel discounted this figure to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving rest period claims, particularly because rest periods do not have to be recorded, and to account for the possibility of Class Members voluntarily choosing to forego a rest period. Id. Because this claim would have relied exclusively on Class Member testimony, Plaintiffs' Counsel discounted this claim based on a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 20% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $96,606.87 ($$1,610,114.46 \times 30\% \times 20\%$). Id.

Reimbursements: Plaintiffs' reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that Defendants failed to indemnify Class Members for expenses incurred as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 16. For purposes of calculating Defendants' liability based on a best-case scenario for Plaintiffs and the Class, Plaintiffs' Counsel

1 estimated that Defendants were liable to each class member for $30 per month, or $7.50 per 2 workweek, in unreimbursed expenses, for a total amount of approximately $204,262.50 ($$7.50 \times$
3 $27,235$ workweeks). Id. Plaintiffs' Counsel discounted this figure based on an evaluation of a 30% 4 chance of succeeding at class certification and a 30% chance of succeeding at trial to account for 5 the difficulty of certifying and proving expense reimbursement claims, yielding a realistic damage 6 estimate of approximately $18,383.63 ($$204,262.50 \times 30\% \times 30\%$). Id.

7 In sum, Plaintiffs' Counsel estimated that Plaintiffs' maximum recovery for the off-the-8 clock claim, meal period violations, and rest period violations (i.e., the wage claims) is 9 approximately $2.61 million, but after factoring in the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at 10 certification and trial, Plaintiffs' Counsel estimates that Plaintiffs' realistic estimated recovery for 11 these non-penalty wage claims is approximately $269,214.69. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 17.

12 Derivative Penalties: Plaintiffs alleged that as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all 13 wages owed, Defendants owed waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. Yslas Decl.
14 at ¶ 18. With respect to Plaintiffs' derivative claims for statutory penalties, Plaintiffs' Counsel 15 estimated that Defendants' realistic potential liability is approximately $161,709.29. Id.
16 Defendants' maximum potential liability for waiting time penalties is approximately 17 \$2,028,004.80 (493 employees $\times$ $\$17.14$ hourly rate $\times$ 8.00 hours/day $\times$ 30 days) based on 18 approximately 493 formerly employed class members during the 3-year statute of limitations 19 period working approximately 8 hours per day. Id. Defendants' maximum potential liability for 20 inaccurate wage statements is approximately \$667,150.00 ($[327$ employees $\times$ 1 initial 21 violation/employee $\times$ $\$50$ for an initial violation] $+$ $[(6,835$ pay periods $-$ 327 initial violations) $\times$ 22 $\$100$ for each subsequent violation]) based on approximately 327 class members who worked 23 during the 1-year statute of limitations period and approximately $6,835$ pay periods in the statutory 24 timeframe. Id. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiffs' Counsel believes that it would be unrealistic to 25 expect the Court to award the full \$2,695,154.80 in statutory penalties given Defendants' defenses, 26 the contested nature of Plaintiffs' claims, the challenges of establishing willfulness as applicable, 27 and the discretionary nature of penalties. Id. Considering that the underlying wage claims are 28 realistically estimated to be approximately \$269,214.69, such a disproportionate award would also

1 raise due process concerns. Id. As such, Plaintiffs' counsel discounted these figures to account for 2 the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately 3 $121,680.29 for waiting time penalty claims ($$2,028,004.80 \times 30\% \times 20\%$), and approximately 4 $40,029.00 for wage statement penalty claims ($$667,150.00 \times 30\% \times 20\%$), or approximately 5 $161,709.29 total for statutory penalties. Id.

6 PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiffs' Counsel determined that Defendants' potential 7 exposure could potentially reach $683,500.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for 8 each of the 6,835 pay periods in the PAGA Period. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 19. However, even assuming 9 success on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a 10 variety of reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary 11 and oppressive, or confiscatory. Id. As such, Plaintiffs' counsel discounted this figure to account 12 for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately 13 $68,350.00 for PAGA penalties ($$683,500.00 \times 10\%$). Id. The settlement allocates $20,000.00 of 14 the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA, therefore the PAGA allocation amounts to 29% of the 15 realistic maximum damages for PAGA penalties ($$20,000.00 / $68,350.00$). Id.

16 Using these estimated figures, Plaintiffs' Counsel predicted that the realistic maximum 17 recovery for all claims, including penalties, would be approximately $6,196,113.20. Yslas Decl. at 18 ¶ 20. This means that the gross settlement figure represents approximately 87% of the realistic 19 maximum recovery ($$450,000.00 / $6,196,113.20$). Id. Considering the risk and uncertainty of 20 prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. Id. Indeed, 21 because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will 22 avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. Id.

23 Based on the figures in the Settlement Agreement, the Net Settlement Amount available for 24 individual class payments is currently estimated to be $234,550.00 for approximately 674 Class 25 Members. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21. As a result, each Settlement Class Member would be eligible to 26 receive an average net benefit of approximately $348.00. Id. Based on the estimated Net Settlement
27 Amount available for individual class payments and there being approximately 27,235 workweeks 28 in the Class Period, the estimated weekly valuation for individual class payments is $8.61

1 ($234,550.00 / 27,235 workweeks). Id. Based on these current estimates, the lowest estimated 2 individual class payment could be $8.61 ($8.61 x 1 week) and the highest estimated individual 3 class payment could be $1,833.93 ($8.61 x approximately 213 weeks in the Class Period). Id.

4 C. The Requested Service Payments are Reasonable

5 Plaintiff Emely Saldana seeks a class representative service payment of up to $7,500.00
6 and Plaintiff Marco Aurelio Silva seeks a class representative service payment of up to $2,500.00 7 for accepting the responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that 8 were not borne by any other Class Members. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff 9 is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates him or her for undertaking and fulfilling a 10 fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 11 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

12 Throughout this case, Plaintiffs assisted counsel in providing information necessary to 13 prosecute the claims, meeting with counsel regarding the claims, maintaining regular contact with 14 counsel, and reviewing the Settlement to ensure it was fair to the Class. Saldana Decl. at ¶ 7; Silva 15 Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually and no 16 compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiffs' services on behalf of the 17 Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiffs furthered the California public policy goal of 18 enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 340. The requested class 19 representative service payments are reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiffs 20 have provided declarations regarding their work performed to date and will provide additional 21 information as requested or required by the Court at final approval.

22 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

23 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who 24 invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the 25 class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one third or more of the potential 26 value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show 27 that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 28 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

1 Plaintiffs seek appointment of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel. The attorneys 2 performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no 3 guarantee of payment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 22. Plaintiffs' Counsel seeks preliminary approval of up to 4 one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, currently estimated to be $150,000.00, and up to 5 $25,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the 6 extensive information exchange, and the substantial recovery obtained on behalf of the Class, 7 Plaintiffs' Counsel achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Yslas
8 Decl. At final approval, Plaintiffs' Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award 9 of attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

10 E. The Administration Costs are Reasonable

11 The Parties have agreed upon using ILYM Group Inc. to administer this Settlement.
12 Settlement Agreement at § 1.2. Plaintiffs seek preliminary approval of $10,450.00 for ILYM Group 13 Inc. to administer this Settlement pursuant to ILYM Group Inc.'s bid. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 36, 14 Exhibit 4.

15 V. CONCLUSION

16 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class claims in light of 17 the risks presented in this case. Plaintiffs have presented the materials and information necessary 18 to demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore 19 respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for the 20 final approval hearing.
