JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff TAYLOR HARVILLE (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of all others
2 similarly situated, hereby brings this Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) 3 against Defendants LILAC HOLDINGS, LLC; PACS GROUP, INC.; DOES 1 through 50, 4 inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), and alleges with knowledge with respect to her own acts 5 and on information and belief as to other matters as follows:

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This proposed class action, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 8 382, is brought by Plaintiff individually and on behalf of all current and former non-exempt 9 employees employed by Defendants in California during the Class Period (collectively the “Class” 10 or “Class Members”). The term Class Period is defined as four (4) years, plus the tolled statutory 11 period¹, prior to the filing of this action to the date of class certification.

12 2. Plaintiff also brings this representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys 13 General Act of 2004, Labor Code sections 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”), against Defendants, on behalf 14 of herself individually and other aggrieved employees who are and were employed by Defendants 15 as non-exempt employees throughout California during the PAGA Period (the “aggrieved 16 employees”). The term PAGA Period is defined as one (1) year prior to Plaintiff’s initial notice of 17 Labor Code violations to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and 18 Defendants until judgment.

19 3. This proposed class and representative action seeks, inter alia, unpaid wages 20 (including sick pay, vacation pay, minimum, regular, overtime, and double time wages), 21 compensation for non-compliant meal periods, rest periods, recovery periods, waiting time 22 penalties, itemized wage statement penalties, civil penalties, business expense reimbursements, 23 liquidated damages, interest, reasonable attorneys’ fees, and costs. Plaintiff’s action is brought 24 under, inter alia, the California Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders and 25 applicable provisions of the California Code of Regulations, California Business & Professions 26 Code sections 17200 et seq., California Civil Code section 3289, California Code of Civil 27 28 ¹ Emergency Rule 9 provides: “Notwithstanding any other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.”

1 Procedure section 1021.5, and California Labor Code (“Labor Code”) sections 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 2 204, 206, 210, 221, 223, 224, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232.5(c), 233, 234, 246, 510, 511, 512, 558, 3 558.1, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198, 1199, 1199.5, 2800, 2802, 4 and 2804.

5 4. Under the California Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code 6 sections 17200 et seq. (“UCL”), and pursuant to the class action procedures provided for in this 7 statute, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the proposed Class, seeks declaratory relief, injunctive 8 relief, and restitution of all benefits Defendants have received from their employees due to their 9 unlawful business practices, including but not limited to, their failure to timely provide minimum, 10 regular, overtime, and double time compensation due for all hours worked during and upon 11 separation of employment, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to provide compliant 12 meal periods and rest breaks to their employees or compensation in lieu thereof, and failure to 13 provide accurate itemized wage statements.

14 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15 5. This Court has jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein pursuant to the 16 California Constitution, Article VI, section 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction 17 in all cases except those given to other trial courts. All claims alleged herein arise under California 18 law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law. Further, this is a class action 19 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and a representative action under 20 PAGA. As such, the monetary damages, restitution, penalties, and other amounts sought by Plaintiff 21 exceeds the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to 22 proof at trial. The Court also has jurisdiction over certain causes of action pursuant to California 23 Business & Professions Code sections 17203 and 17204, which provide for exclusive jurisdiction 24 for enforcement of this statute in any court of competent jurisdiction.

25 6. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because each Defendant is a citizen 26 of California, a corporation or association organized under the laws of the State of California, an 27 association authorized to do business in California and registered with the California Secretary of 28 State, does sufficient business in California, has sufficient minimum contacts with California,

1 and/or intentionally avails itself of the laws and markets of California through the promotion, sale, 2 marketing and distribution of its products and/or services in California to render the exercise of 3 jurisdiction by the California courts permissible.

4 7. Venue in this County is proper under California Business & Professions Code 5 section 17203 and California Code of Civil Procedure section 395.5 because a substantial part of 6 Defendants' unlawful conduct, acts, and omissions alleged herein occurred in this County, 7 Defendants conduct substantial business in this County, Defendants' liability arose in this County, 8 and/or Defendants reside, transact business, maintain offices, and/or have an agent or agents in this 9 County. The relief requested is within the jurisdiction of this Court.

10 PARTIES

11 8. Plaintiff is an individual who resides in California. Defendants employed Plaintiff 12 as a non-exempt hourly employee from approximately April 2023 through February 2024.
13 Specifically, Defendants employed Plaintiff as a maintenance worker whose job duties included, 14 without limitation, fulfilling maintenance requests from guests, making repairs, and conducting 15 other maintenance duties.

16 9. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, LILAC 17 HOLDINGS, LLC ("LILAC") was and is a California corporation. Plaintiff is informed, believes 18 and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, LILAC was and is an employer subject to California 19 state wage and hour laws.

20 10. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, PACS 21 GROUP, INC. ("PGI") is a Delaware corporation. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon 22 alleges that, at all relevant times, PGI was and is an employer subject to California state wage and 23 hour laws.

24 11. Plaintiff is informed, believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants suffered 25 and permitted Plaintiff and Class Members to work, and/or jointly exercised control over the wages, 26 hours, and/or working conditions of Plaintiff and the Class Members.

27 12. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

28 13. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names and capacities of those defendants identified

1 as DOES 1 through 50. Therefore, Plaintiff identifies those defendants fictitiously. Plaintiff is 2 informed, believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each DOE defendant was a parent, 3 sister, or related corporate entity of defendants, or an owner, employee or agent of defendants, and 4 each related entity, and was acting with the knowledge and authorization of each of the other 5 defendants. Plaintiff will seek to amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of 6 each DOE defendant when their names have been ascertained and identified. Plaintiff is informed, 7 believes and thereon alleges that each of the defendants sued as DOES 1 through 50 participated 8 in, received the benefit of, or was in some way responsible for one or more of the wrongful acts 9 and omissions and some portion of the damages alleged herein.

10 14. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that at all times material hereto, 11 each defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, 12 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of 13 each defendant are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all 14 respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the Class Members.

15 15. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that Defendants, each and all of 16 them, at all times material hereto, were the joint employers, parent companies, successor 17 companies, predecessors in interest, affiliates, agents, employees, servants, joint venturers, 18 directors, fiduciaries, representatives, and/or co-conspirators of each of the remaining defendants.
19 Defendants, unless otherwise alleged, at all times material hereto, performed all acts and omissions 20 alleged herein within the course and scope of said relationship(s), and are a proximate cause of 21 Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged.

22 16. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges, that there exists a unity of interest 23 in ownership between Defendants and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, such that any individuality 24 and separateness between the individual and the corporation does not exist, as Defendants, and 25 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, are alter egos, in that: (1) Defendants are and at all times mentioned 26 herein were mere shells, instrumentalities and conduits through which DOES 1 through 50, 27 inclusive, carried out their business in the business name, exercising complete control and 28 dominance over such business; (2) that Defendants were conceived, intended and used by DOES 1

1 through 50, inclusive, as devices to avoid individual liability and in place of Defendants, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and were without the financial solvency and responsibility required by law; and (3) that all of the assets of the Defendants have been transferred to DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, or some other individual or entity which he or she owns or controls, with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors of Defendants, leaving Defendants with no assets. Further, Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges, that there exists a principal-agency relationship between and among Defendants.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were agents of each other and acting within the course and scope of their agency.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

18. Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Plaintiff brings this action individually and as a class action on behalf of a proposed Class defined as follows:

Class:

All current and former non-exempt employees employed by Defendants in the State of California within four (4) years prior to the commencement of this action, plus the tolled statutory period under Emergency Rule 9, to the date of class certification.

19. The Class is also comprised of the following Subclasses:

Waiting Time Sub-Class:

Those members of the Class who separated from their employment with Defendants within three (3) years prior to the commencement of this action to the date of class certification.

20. Plaintiff reserves the right pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.764 and 3.765, to amend or modify the respective definitions of the Class and/or Subclasses to provide greater specificity and/or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues based on further investigation and discovery.

21. This action is brought, and may properly be maintained, as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation, and the proposed class is easily ascertainable. This action presents

1 questions of common interest and satisfies the numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy, 2 predominance, and superiority requirements of this provision.

3 22. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges Defendants have consistently maintained and 4 enforced against Plaintiff and Class Members unlawful employment practices and policies which 5 violate the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6 23. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 7 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all sick pay, vacation pay, minimum, regular,
8 overtime, and double time wages for all hours worked in violation of the Labor Code and IWC 9 Wage Orders. During the PAGA Period, Plaintiff and Class Members regularly worked more than 10 eight (8) hours and/or 10 hours per workday, over 40 hours per workweek, and/or over eight (8) 11 hours per workday on the seventh consecutive day of work. Defendants' practices and policies 12 deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of minimum, regular, overtime, and/or double time wages 13 for work they performed off the clock. Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to 14 complete work-related tasks off the clock, such as communicating with Defendants and donning 15 and doffing activities. Furthermore, Defendants rounded Plaintiff and Class Members hours 16 worked, thereby depriving them of wages for all hours worked at the legally mandated rates.
17 Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked because Plaintiff 18 and Class Members were regularly on-duty during their meal and/or rest periods. Further, Plaintiff 19 and Class Members were required to work on-call shifts, during which they were required to remain 20 on call on certain days on certain week abd weekend days and be available to receive a call at any 21 point during the shift. Finally, Defendants failed to accurately calculate the regular rate of pay by, 22 among other things, failing to include a remuneration when calculating the rate of pay for overtime, 23 double time, meal and rest period premiums, vacation pay, and sick pay. Accordingly, Defendants 24 failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the proper sick pay, vacation pay, and minimum, regular, 25 overtime, and double time wages for all hours worked in violation of the Labor Code, the applicable 26 IWC Wage Orders, and California Code of Regulations.

27 24. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 28 Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of the opportunity to take all of their statutorily

1 entitled meal periods within the appropriate time intervals or provide compensation in lieu thereof
2 in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. During the Class Period, Defendants failed
3 to provide timely off-duty 30-minute meal periods within the appropriate time intervals to Plaintiff
4 and other Class Members as required by Labor Code section 512 and section 11 of the applicable 5 Wage Order. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members frequently had their meal periods shortened, 6 interrupted, late, and/or missed altogether due to Defendants' practice of understaffing and 7 prioritizing work demands over taking compliant breaks. Further, Claimant and/or other aggrieved 8 employees were regularly on-duty during their meal and/or rest periods. Claimant and other 9 aggrieved employees were also restricted to the worksite. Defendants also failed to authorize and 10 permit and/or make available to Plaintiff and Class Members second meal periods when they 11 worked more than 10 hours. Moreover, Defendants rounded Plaintiff and Class Members' time 12 punches for meal periods. Accordingly, Defendants failed to authorize and permit and/or make 13 available to Plaintiff and Class Members timely, uninterrupted off-duty meal periods for at least 30 14 minutes when they worked more than five (5) hours and/or 10 hours in a workday, and failed to 15 compensate Plaintiff and Class Members with an additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay 16 for every day in which they were denied a compliant meal period, in violation of the Labor Code 17 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

18 25. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 19 Defendants failed to permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take all of their statutorily entitled 10-20 minute rest periods for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof or provide 21 compensation in lieu thereof in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. Plaintiff and 22 Class Members missed their rest breaks or had them interrupted or governed by Defendants' 23 practices and policies. Defendants also failed to adopt and implement a practice of providing third 24 rest breaks when Plaintiff and Class Members worked over 10 hours. Notwithstanding the above 25 rest break violations, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members with an 26 additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for every day in which they suffered a rest period 27 violation. Accordingly, Employer violated the Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

28 26. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period,

1 Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business expenses 2 incurred in the performance of their duties in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.
3 During the Class Period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all 4 business expenses incurred for Defendants' benefit. For example, Plaintiff and Class Members were 5 required to use their personal cell phones to discuss work-related matters with Defendants' 6 representatives and for other work purposes without any reimbursement. Specifically, Defendants 7 required Plaintiff and Class Members to download the cell phone application "Covr" without 8 reimbursement. Accordingly, Defendants violated the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage 9 Orders.

10 27. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 11 Defendants willfully failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Subclass 12 upon separation of employment in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. Plaintiff 13 and Waiting Time Subclass Members were not paid all wages (including minimum, regular, 14 overtime, double time wages, sick pay, and vacation pay), reimbursements, meal period premiums, 15 and/or rest period premiums within the required time period in violation of the Labor Code and 16 applicable IWC Wage Orders.

17 28. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 18 Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate and complete wage 19 statements in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. Plaintiff and Class Members 20 received wage statements which did not accurately reflect the gross and net wages earned, total 21 hours worked, all applicable rates of pay and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 22 pay rate, and correct entity name and address on wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class 23 Members, among other things in violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

24 29. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants' actions as 25 described throughout this Complaint were willful.

26 NUMEROSITY

27 30. The Class is so numerous that joinder of all of its members is impracticable. While 28 the exact number and identities of Class Members are unknown to Plaintiff at this time and can

1 only be ascertained through appropriate discovery, Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon 2 alleges that the Class consists of more than 100 persons.

3 31. A class action is the only available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of 4 this controversy. The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is 5 impractical, if not impossible. The identity of Class Members can be ascertained by analysis of 6 Defendants' employee and payroll records.

7 COMMONALITY

8 32. Common questions of fact and law exist as to all members of the Class that 9 predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common legal 10 and factual questions include, but are not limited to, the following:

11 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all minimum, 12 regular, overtime, and double time wages for all hours worked by Plaintiff and Class Members.

13 (b) Whether Defendants rounded the time worked by Plaintiff and Class 14 Members to Defendants' advantage.

15 (c) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all sick pay, 16 vacation pay, minimum, regular, overtime, and double time wages for all hours worked by Plaintiff 17 and Class Members;

18 (d) Whether Defendants failed to provide timely, uninterrupted, off-duty 30-19 minute meal periods to Plaintiff and Class Members without compensation in lieu thereof;

20 (e) Whether Defendants auto-deducted 30-minute meal periods for missed or 21 short meal periods;

22 (f) Whether Defendants failed to permit timely, uninterrupted, off-duty 10-23 minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked by Plaintiff and Class 24 Members without compensation in lieu thereof;

25 (g) Whether Defendants failed pay premium wages to class members when they 26 have not been provided with required meal and/or rest periods;

27 (h) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Waiting Time 28 Subclass Members all wages due either immediately upon termination or within 72 hours after

1 resignation;

2 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful;

3 (j) Whether Defendants failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements to 4 Plaintiff and Class Members;

5 (k) Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for 6 necessary business expenditures;

7 (l) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 8 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200 et seq.;

9 (m) Additional common questions of law and fact that may develop as the 10 litigation progresses.

11 TYPICALITY

12 33. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Plaintiff's claims are typical 13 of the claims of the Class because: Plaintiff and the Class sustained injuries and damages arising 14 out of and caused by Defendants' unlawful policies and practices; the claims arise out of the same 15 course of conduct by Defendants; Plaintiff's claims are based upon the same legal theories as the 16 claims of the Class; and the legal issues raised under California state law as a result of Defendants' 17 conduct apply equally to Plaintiff and the Class Members.

18 ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

19 34. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class, in that Plaintiff's claims (and 20 defenses, if any) are typical of those of the Class. Plaintiff has no conflicts of interest with Plaintiff's 21 fellow Class Members and will be able to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.
22 Plaintiff has the same interests in the litigation of this case as the Class Members; and is committed 23 to vigorous prosecution of this case and has retained competent counsel experienced in class action 24 and wage and hour litigation of this nature.

25 PREDOMINANCE

26 35. Defendants have engaged in a common course of wage and hour abuse toward 27 Plaintiff and Class Members. The common issues arising from this conduct that affect Plaintiff and 28 Class Members predominate over any individual issues. Adjudication of these common issues in a 1 single action has important and desirable advantages of judicial economy.

2 SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

3 36. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient 4 adjudication of this controversy because individual litigation of the claims of all Class Members is 5 impracticable. Even if every Class Member could afford individual litigation, the court system 6 could not. It would be unduly burdensome to the courts in which individual litigation of numerous 7 cases would proceed. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for varying, 8 inconsistent, or contradictory judgments and would magnify the delay and expense to all parties 9 and to the court system resulting from multiple trials of the same complex factual issues. Moreover, 10 individual actions by Class Members may establish inconsistent standards of conduct for 11 Defendants. By contrast, the conduct of this action as a class action, with respect to some or all of 12 the issues presented herein, presents fewer management difficulties, conserves the resources of the 13 parties and the court system, and protects the rights of each Class Member.

14 37. Defendants have acted or refused to act in respects generally applicable to the Class, 15 thereby making appropriate relief with regard to the members of the Class as a whole, as requested 16 herein.

17 PUBLIC POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

18 38. Employers in the State of California violate employment and labor laws every day.
19 Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation.
20 Former employees are fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers 21 might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions 22 provide Class Members who are not named in the action with a type of anonymity that allows for 23 the vindication of their rights while affording them privacy protections.

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES)

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as 28 though fully set forth herein.

1 40. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code sections 2 204, 206, 210, 221, 223, 224, 227.3, 246, 510, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, and the 3 applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations.

4 41. Labor Code section 204 and the IWC Wage Orders require timely payment of all 5 wages owed on regularly scheduled paydays at least twice during each calendar month, on days 6 designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. All wages in earned in excess of the 7 normal work period must be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

8 42. Labor Code section 206 provides that in case of a dispute over wages, the employer 9 shall pay, without condition and promptly under the Labor Code all wages conceded due, leaving 10 to the employee all remedies he/she is otherwise entitled to as to any balance claimed.

11 43. Labor Code section 210 provides:

12 every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as 13 provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 204.11, 205, 14 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a penalty as follows: (1) For 15 any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to 16 pay each employee. (2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful 17 or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld. (b) The penalty shall either be recovered by the employee as a statutory penalty pursuant to Section 98 or by the Labor Commissioner as a civil penalty through the issuance of a citation or pursuant to Section 98.3.

18 44. Labor Code section 221 provides “[i]t shall be unlawful for any employer to collect 19 or receive from an employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer to said employee.”

20 45. Labor Code section 223 provides “[w]here any statute or contract requires an 21 employer to maintain the designated wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage 22 while purporting to pay the wage designated by statute or by contract.”

23 46. Labor Code section 224 prohibits any deduction from an employee’s wages which 24 is not either authorized by the employee in writing or permitted by law.

25 47. Labor Code section 246 requires employers to provide and allow employees to use 26 at least 24 hours, or three days, of paid sick leave per year.

27 48. Labor Code section 227.3 requires employers to pay terminated employees for their 28 unused paid vacation time at their final rate of pay.

1 49. At all times relevant, Labor Code section 510, and applicable sections of the 2 California Code of Regulations and the IWC Wage Orders applied to Plaintiff's work with 3 Defendants and continue to apply to Class Members' employment with Defendants. Labor Code 4 section 510 and applicable provisions of the California Code of Regulations and IWC Wage Orders 5 state that any work performed in excess of eight hours in a workday and/or 40 hours in a workweek 6 must be paid at one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay. Any work performed in 7 excess of 12 hours in a workday must be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular 8 rate of pay for an employee.

9 50. Labor Code section 558 provides "[a]ny employer or other person acting on behalf 10 of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision 11 regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be 12 subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each 13 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 14 amount to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) 15 for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition 16 to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section 17 shall be paid to the affected employee."

18 51. Labor Code section 1182.12 sets forth the minimum hourly wage that must be paid 19 to all employees in California for all hours worked. Local minimum wage ordinances may provide 20 for higher minimum wage rates that must be paid to employees for all hours worked in those locales 21 where each local ordinance is in effect. Labor Code section 1197 affirms that it is unlawful to pay 22 less than the state or local minimum wage, whichever is higher, for any hour of work.

23 52. Labor Code section 1194 provides that any employee receiving less than the legal 24 minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover 25 in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of the minimum wage or overtime 26 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

27 53. Labor Code section 1194.2 authorizes the recovery of liquidated damages in an 28 amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon for unpaid wage violations.

1 54. Labor Code section 1197 provides that the minimum wage for employees fixed by 2 the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to the employees, and the payment of a less wage 3 than minimum so fixed is unlawful.

4 55. Labor Code section 1198 prohibits employers from employing for longer hours or 5 less favorable conditions than those set forth in the Labor Code, IWC Wage Orders, or as otherwise 6 set by the Labor Commissioner.

7 56. The failure to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class Members for each 8 and every hour worked violates Labor Code sections 1182.11-1812.12, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197; 9 the applicable IWC wage order section 4; and Business & Professions Code.

10 57. The failure to pay designated wages to Plaintiff and Class Members for each and 11 every hour worked violates Labor Code sections 221 and 223; the applicable IWC wage order 12 section 3; and Business & Professions Code.

13 58. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 14 Plaintiff and Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8), 10, and/or 12 hours per 15 workday and over 40 hours per workweek and were not paid all wages at their proper rate of pay 16 for overtime, double time, sick pay, vacation pay, and meal and rest period premiums, and off-the-17 clock work including due to rounding, among other things.

18 59. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, 19 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages for hours worked (including sick 20 pay, vacation pay, and minimum, regular, overtime, and double time wages) by failing to accurately 21 record all time worked, time shaving, auto-deducting missed or short meal periods, rounding time 22 and meal period punches, and requiring off-the-clock work without compensation, among other 23 things.

24 60. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, as set forth
25 herein, Plaintiff and Class Members have sustained and continue to sustain damages, including loss 26 of earnings from minimum, regular, overtime, and double time compensation due, in an amount to 27 be established at trial, plus prejudgment interest, attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to statute.

28 61. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, through their

1 conduct described herein, have committed an “intentional theft of wages in an amount greater than 2 nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) from any one employee, or two thousand three hundred fifty 3 dollars ($2,350) in the aggregate from two or more employees...in any consecutive 12-month
4 period” within the meaning of California Penal Code section 487m. Specifically, Defendants have 5 intentionally deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of wages, as defined in Labor Code section 200, 6 gratuities, as defined in Labor Code section 350, benefits, or other compensation, by unlawful 7 means, with the knowledge that the wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation is due to 8 Plaintiff and Class Members under the law. Plaintiff and the Class Members he seeks to represent 9 are thus entitled to recover from Defendants treble damages and costs, including reasonable 10 attorneys’ fees, pursuant to California Penal Code section 496(c).

11 62. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request
12 relief as described herein and below.

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU

15 THEREOF)

16 (Against All Defendants)

17 63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as 18 though fully set forth herein.

19 64. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code sections 20 226.7 and 512, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations.

21 65. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the IWC Wage Orders prohibit an 22 employer from employing any person for a work period of more than 5 hours per day without 23 providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes (commencing before the 24 employee’s fifth hour of work), except that if the total work period per day is no more than 6 hours, 25 the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee. A second meal 26 period of not less than 30 minutes is required if an employee works more than 10 hours per day and 27 must begin before the employee’s tenth hour of work, except if the total hours worked is no more 28 than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 1 employee, but only if the first meal period was not waived.

2 66. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders state that “[u]nless the employee is 3 relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an ‘on 4 duty’ meal period and counted as time worked.”

5 67. Labor Code section 226.7(b) and the IWC Wage Orders prohibit an employer from 6 requiring any employee to work during a meal period mandated by any California statute, 7 regulation, standard or order. If an employer fails to provide an employee with a meal period in 8 accordance with state law, Labor Code section 226.7(c) and the IWC Wage Orders require that the 9 employer pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of 10 compensation for each workday that the meal period is noncompliant.

11 68. Throughout the Class Period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive compliant 12 meal periods when working more than five (5) hours and/or 10 hours per workday because their 13 first and second meal periods were missed, late, interrupted, short, and/or not free of all duties.

14 69. During the Class Period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal 15 period premiums for noncompliant meal periods pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7(b) and the 16 applicable IWC Wage Order and California Code of Regulations.

17 70. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Class Members did not 18 voluntarily waive their meal periods.

19 71. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, as set forth
20 herein, Plaintiff and Class Members have sustained and continue to sustain damages, including loss 21 of premium pay for meal period violations and earnings, in an amount to be established at trial, plus 22 prejudgment interest pursuant to statute. To the extent such unpaid premiums or meal period 23 violations are deemed unpaid wages, Plaintiff will also seek attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to 24 statute.

25 72. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, through their 26 conduct described herein, have committed an “intentional theft of wages in an amount greater than 27 nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) from any one employee, or two thousand three hundred fifty 28 dollars ($2,350) in the aggregate from two or more employees...in any consecutive 12-month

1 period” within the meaning of California Penal Code section 487m. Specifically, Defendants have 2 intentionally deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of wages, as defined in Labor Code section 200, 3 gratuities, as defined in Labor Code section 350, benefits, or other compensation, by unlawful 4 means, with the knowledge that the wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation is due to 5 Plaintiff and Class Members under the law Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that 6 meal period premiums are wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation within the meaning of 7 California Penal Code section 487m. Plaintiff and the Class Members he seeks to represent are thus 8 entitled to recover from Defendants treble damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, 9 pursuant to California Penal Code section 496(c).

10 73. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request
11 relief as described herein and below.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (FAILURE TO PERMIT REST PERIODS OR PROVIDE COMPENSATION IN LIEU 14 THEREOF)

15 (Against All Defendants)

16 74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as 17 though fully set forth herein.

18 75. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code section 19 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations.

20 76. Labor Code section 226.7(a) states “No employer shall require any employee to 21 work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 22 Commission.”

23 77. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order provides in relevant part that:

24 (A) Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to 25 take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle 26 of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based 27 on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest 28 time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof. However, a rest period need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 1/2) hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted as hours worked for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

(B) If an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

78. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that during the Class Period, Plaintiff and Class Members worked in excess of three-and-a-half (3.5) hours, six (6) hours, and/or 10 hours per workday.

79. During the Class Period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive compliant 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof because rest breaks were missed, interrupted, shortened, restricted to the worksite, and/or not free of all duties.

80. During the Class Period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest period premiums for noncompliant rest periods pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

81. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, as set forth herein, Plaintiff and Class Members have sustained and continue to sustain damages, including loss of earnings, in an amount to be established at trial plus prejudgment interest pursuant to statute. To the extent such unpaid premiums or rest period violations are deemed unpaid wages, Plaintiff will also seek attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to statute.

82. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants, through their conduct described herein, have committed an "intentional theft of wages in an amount greater than nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) from any one employee, or two thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($2,350) in the aggregate from two or more employees...in any consecutive 12-month period" within the meaning of California Penal Code section 487m. Specifically, Defendants have intentionally deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of wages, as defined in Labor Code section 200, gratuities, as defined in Labor Code section 350, benefits, or other compensation, by unlawful means, with the knowledge that the wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation is due to Plaintiff and Class Members under the law Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that rest period premiums are wages, gratuities, benefits, or other compensation within the meaning of

1 California Penal Code section 487m. Plaintiff and the Class Members he seeks to represent are thus
2 entitled to recover from Defendants treble damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees,
3 pursuant to California Penal Code section 496(c).

4 83. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request
5 relief as described herein and below.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS)

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 84. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as 10 though fully set forth herein.

11 85. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code section 226
12 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations.

13 86. Labor Code section 226(a) requires that, semimonthly or at the time of each payment 14 of wages, employers must furnish each employee with an accurate itemized wage statement in 15 writing that accurately shows (1) gross wages earned, (2) total number of hours worked, (3) the 16 number of any piece-rate units earned and all applicable piece rates, (4) all deductions made from 17 wages, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period, (7) the name and last four 18 digits or employment identification number of the employee, (8) the name and address of the legal 19 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect and the corresponding 20 number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

21 87. Labor Code section 226(e)(1) authorizes an employee suffering injury as a result of 22 a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to provide an accurate itemized wage statement 23 to recover the greater of all actual damages or $50 for the initial pay violation and $100 for each 24 violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per employee, 25 in addition to an award of costs and attorneys' fees.

26 88. Section 7 of the IWC Wage Orders requires Defendants to maintain time records 27 showing, among other things, when the employee begins and ends each work period, meal periods 28 taken, and total daily hours worked in an itemized wage statement, and must show all deductions

1 and reimbursements from payment of wages, and accurately report total hours worked by Plaintiff 2 and Class Members. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants have 3 knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the IWC Wage Orders.

4 89. Throughout the Class Period, Defendants provided wage statements that did not 5 accurately reflect the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and Class Members at each 6 corresponding pay rate, the gross and net wages earned, and the correct entity name and address on 7 wage statements, among other things, making it difficult for Plaintiff and Class Members to 8 determine whether they were paid correctly for all hours worked, which deductions were made, and 9 the extent of any underpayment. Plaintiff has had to file this lawsuit in order to determine the 10 extent of the underpayment of wages, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time.
11 Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants 12 provided the accurate wages earned. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover 13 the underpayment of wages from Defendants. Defendants' violations of Labor Code section 226(a) 14 prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from knowing, understanding and disputing the wages paid 15 to them, and resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants.

16 90. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide accurate, itemized wage 17 statements to Plaintiff and Class Members, and as such Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to 18 have suffered injury in accordance with Labor Code section 226. Plaintiff and the Class are 19 therefore entitled to the damages and penalties provided for under Labor Code section 226(e).

20 91. Plaintiff and Class Members are also entitled to injunctive relief under Labor Code 21 section 226(h), compelling Defendants to comply with Labor Code section 226, and seek the 22 recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in obtaining this injunctive relief.

23 92. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request
24 relief as described herein and below.

25 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (WAITING TIME PENALTIES)

27 (Against All Defendants)

28 93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as

1 though fully set forth herein.

2 94. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code 3 sections 201, 202, and 203, and the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of 4 Regulations. Defendants failed to comply with these final paycheck requirements with respect to 5 Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass Members.

6 95. Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the 7 wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.

8 96. Labor Code section 202 requires that if “an employee not having a written contract 9 for a definite period” quits, the employee’s wages shall become due and payable no later than 10 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention 11 to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

12 97. Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without 13 abatement or reduction, any wages of an employee who is discharged or quits, the wages of the 14 employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until 15 an action therefor is commenced, but that the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days per 16 employee.

17 98. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges, that at all relevant times, 18 Defendants willfully failed to timely pay Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass Members all of their 19 unpaid wages earned, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, overtime, and double time 20 wages, compensation for non-compliant meal periods and rest periods, and unpaid expense 21 reimbursements upon separation of employment. Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass Members 22 are entitled to timely compensation upon separation of their employment for any outstanding 23 unpaid wages, reimbursements, and premiums but to date have not received such compensation 24 from Defendants, therefore entitling them to penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

25 99. As a consequence of Defendants’ willful conduct in failing to pay all earned wages, 26 Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass Members are entitled to up to 30 days’ wages as a penalty for 27 Defendants’ failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment, in addition to prejudgment 28 interest, attorneys’ fees, and costs in amounts that will be established at trial.

100. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request relief as described herein and below.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES)

(Against All Defendants)

101. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

102. At all relevant times, Defendants had a duty to comply with Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations.

103. Labor Code section 2800 requires employers to indemnify employees for losses caused by the employer's want of ordinary care. To the extent Defendants claim that Plaintiff and Class Members failed to request, demand, notify or otherwise seek reimbursement for their expenses and losses, Defendants were obligated to nevertheless indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members due to their own negligence.

104. Labor Code section 2802(a) requires that employers indemnify and reimburse employees for all business expenses, which are defined as all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of the employee's duties or otherwise incurred based on the employee's obedience to the employer's directions. Labor Code section 2802(b) authorizes employees to recover in a court action interest which shall accrue from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditure or loss. Labor Code section 2802(c) authorizes employees, who to enforce their right to reimbursements under Labor Code section 2802, to also recover attorneys' fees and costs.

105. During the Class Period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for all business expenses incurred for Defendants' benefit. For example, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to use their personal cell phones to discuss work-related matters with Defendants' representatives and for other work purposes without any reimbursement. Further, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to clean, wash, and iron their uniforms, which were the Defendants' property, without any reimbursement for the costs of cleaning, washing, and ironing.

1 Also, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to purchase tools and/or safety equipment without 2 reimbursement in order to carry out their job duties.

3 106. As a consequence of Defendants' willful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 4 sustained damages for unreimbursed out-of-pocket business expenses, due in an amount to be 5 established at trial, plus prejudgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs pursuant to statute.

6 107. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request
7 relief as described herein and below.

8 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
9 (VIOLATION OF THE UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW)
10 (Against All Defendants)

11 108. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as 12 though fully set forth herein.

13 109. California Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. prohibits unfair 14 competition by prohibiting unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business practices or acts.

15 110. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair, 16 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, Class Members, and Defendants' competitors. Plaintiff seeks to 17 enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of California Code of Civil 18 Procedure section 1021.5.

19 111. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, violate California law and constitute 20 unlawful business acts or practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code 21 sections 17200, et seq.

22 112. A violation of Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. may be 23 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law.

24 113. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all members of the general 25 public, including the Class Members, pursuant to the UCL. Defendants' conduct alleged below 26 constitutes false, fraudulent, unlawful, unfair, and/or deceptive business practices, in violation of 27 the UCL. Defendants' policies and practices have violated state law in at least the following 28 respects:

1 (a) Failing to pay all sick pay, vacation pay, and minimum, regular, overtime, 2 and double time wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members in violation of Labor Code sections 204, 3 206, 210, 218, 221, 223, 224, 227.3, 246, 510, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, and the 4 applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations;

5 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof in 6 violation of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512;

7 (c) Failing to authorize or permit rest breaks and/or provide compensation in 8 lieu thereof in violation of Labor Code section 226.7;

9 (d) Intentionally failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate 10 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226;

11 (e) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to Plaintiff and Waiting Time 12 Subclass Members upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 13 and 203;

14 (f) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members all necessary business 15 expenses in violation of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802; and 16 (g) Violations of the IWC Wage Orders for the same conduct above.

17 114. Defendants' course of conduct, acts, and practices in violation of California law 18 mentioned above each constitute a separate and independent violation of the UCL. Defendants' 19 conduct described herein violates the policy or spirit of such laws or otherwise significantly 20 threatens or harms competition. The substantial harm to Plaintiff and Class Members in being 21 wrongfully denied earned wages, meal and rest periods, premium pay, and reimbursements 22 outweighs the utility, if any, of Defendants' policies or practices and, therefore, Defendants' actions 23 described herein constitute an unfair business practices or acts within the meaning of the UCL.

24 115. Plaintiff further brings this cause of action on behalf of the proposed Class, seeking 25 statutory and injunctive relief to stop the misconduct of Defendants, as complained herein, and to 26 compel restitution and disgorgement of all profits (i.e., unpaid wages, reimbursements, and 27 premiums, etc.) obtained by Defendants through the unfair and unlawful business practices 28 described herein pursuant to, inter alia, Business and Professions Code sections 17202, 17203, and

1 17208. Under the circumstances alleged, it would be inequitable and result in a miscarriage of 2 justice for Defendants to continue to retain the property of Plaintiff and Class Members.

3 116. Defendants' failure to adopt and implement policies in accordance with and/or 4 adhere to these laws, all of which are binding upon and burdensome to Defendants' competitors, 5 engenders an unfair competitive advantage for Defendants against its competitors, thereby 6 constituting an unfair business practice, as set forth in the UCL.

7 117. Pursuant to California Business and Professions Code section 17203, as a direct and 8 proximate result of the unfair business practices of Defendants, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf 9 of others similarly situated, is entitled to equitable and injunctive relief, against such unlawful 10 practices in order to prevent future damage, for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and to 11 avoid a multiplicity of lawsuits. Plaintiff also seeks an order enjoining Defendants to cease and 12 desist from engaging in the practices described herein.

13 118. Plaintiff and Class Members also request any other such legal and equitable relief 14 from Defendants' unlawful and willful conduct as the Court deems just and proper, including an 15 injunction prohibiting Defendants from engaging in the unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent 16 practices alleged in this Complaint.

17 119. As a result of Defendants' unlawful and unfair business practices, Plaintiff and Class 18 Members are entitled to and seek other appropriate relief available under California Business & 19 Professions Code sections 17200 et seq. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, also seeks 20 recovery of attorneys' fees and costs of this action to be paid by Defendants as provided by 21 California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

22 120. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and the Class Members Plaintiff seeks to represent request
23 relief as described herein and below.

24 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 VIOLATION OF THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004
26 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

27 121. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs of this Complaint as 28 though fully set forth herein.

122. Under Labor Code section 2699.3(a), a plaintiff may bring a cause of action under PAGA only after giving the LWDA and the employer notice of the Labor Code sections alleged to have been violated, and after receiving notice from the LWDA of its intention not to investigate or after 65 days have passed without notice from the LWDA.

123. On February 13, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice of the specified provisions alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations, as required by Labor Code section 2699.3. This written notice was provided via certified mail to Defendants and to the LWDA by electronically filing the notice via the Department of Industrial Relations' website. More than 65 days have passed since Plaintiff submitted her PAGA notice to the LWDA without notice from the LWDA. Accordingly, Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code section 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties individually and all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

124. Under Labor Code section 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for violation of the code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

125. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, Labor Code section 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

126. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiff may seek civil penalties for any alleged violation of the following provisions: subdivision (k) of section 96, sections 98.6, 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.1, 203.5, 204, 204a, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, 206, 206.5, 208, 209, and 212, subdivision (d) of section 213, sections 221, 222, 222.5, 223, and 224, paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, (7), and (9) of subdivision (a) of section 226, sections 226.7, 227, 227.3, 230, 230.1, 230.2, 230.3, 230.4, 230.7, 230.8, and 231, subdivision (c) of section

19 believed to be illegal; and 20 (k) Violation of Labor Code Section 1199 for each of the foregoing 21 Labor Code violations.

22 128. Labor Code section 226.3 provides: "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 23 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 24 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 25 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a 26 wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.
27 The civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

28 129. Labor Code section 558(a) provides "[a]ny employer or other person acting on 1 behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 2 provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission 3 shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each 4 underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid . . . (2) For each 5 subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 6 for which the employee was underpaid.”

7 130. Labor Code section 1174.5 provides a $500 penalty for an employer’s failure to 8 maintain accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages 9 paid to employees.

10 131. Labor Code section 1197.1 also provides “[a]ny employer or other person acting 11 either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays or causes to be 12 paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by 13 an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty . . . as follows: (1) For any initial 14 violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee

19 132. As set forth above, Defendants have violated numerous provisions of the Labor 20 Code regulating hours and days of work as well as the IWC Wage Orders. Accordingly, Plaintiff 21 also seeks the civil penalties set forth in Labor Code sections 226.3, 226.8, 558, 1174.5, and 1197.1 22 individually, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, and the State of California.

23 133. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” because Plaintiff was employed by the alleged 24 violators and had one or more of the alleged violations committed against Plaintiff, and therefore 25 is properly suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

26 134. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code section 27 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties individually and on 28 behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the PAGA.

135. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code sections cited above.

136. Plaintiff is also entitled to attorneys' fees and costs.
