MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Marina Barriga (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a putative class and representative action settlement with Defendant Mineral King Radiological Medical Group, Inc., dba VIP Specialists, Inc. (“Defendant”) (Plaintiff and Defendant are collectively referred to herein as “the Parties”) on behalf of himself and a proposed class all non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period, February 5, 2020, through November 24, 2024 (“Class”). After participating in mediation, the Parties reached a settlement in the gross amount of $287,500.00 to resolve the foregoing action, subject to this Court’s final approval.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed settlement agreement between the Parties, the terms of which are set forth in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”). (See Declaration of Enoch J. Kim (“Kim Decl.”), Exhibit 1). The Settlement Agreement was reached after the Parties engaged in informal discovery and investigation, participated in mediation with a skilled mediator, and negotiated at arms-length through experienced counsel on both sides.

As discussed below, the proposed Settlement Agreement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval under California law, falls well within the range of reasonableness, and is in the best interests of the Class. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court: (1) grant preliminary approval of the Settlement; (2) conditionally grant certification of the proposed Class solely for the purposes of Settlement, (3) approve the appointment of Apex Class Action LLC (“Apex”) as Settlement Administrator, (4) authorize the Settlement Administrator to send the Notice of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Class Notice”), attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A, to the Class Members, (5) appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative and Plaintiff’s Counsel as Class Counsel, (6) and schedule a final fairness and approval of settlement hearing.

II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

A. Procedural History

Plaintiff worked as a medical assistant and scrub technician non-exempt employee for

1 Defendant and seeks to represent approximately 82 current and former non-exempt employees
2 employed by Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period. (Kim Decl., ¶ 3.) 3 Defendant is a for-profit radiology group business consisting of 12+ fellowship trained radiologists
4 in Visalia, California. (Id.)

5 On February 5, 2024, Plaintiff commenced a Class Action by filing a Complaint alleging 6 causes of action against Defendant for (1) Failure To Pay Minimum Wages, (2) Failure To Pay
7 Wages And Overtime Under Labor Code § 510, (3) Meal-Period Violation Under Labor Code §
8 226.7, (4) Rest-Break Violation Under Labor Code § 226.7, (5) Reimbursement of Necessary
9 Expenditures Under Labor Code § 2802, (6) Failure To Keep Required Payroll Records Under Labor 10 Code §§ 1174, and 1174.5, (7) Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, and (12) Violation Of 11 Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. (the “Action”). (Kim Decl., ¶ 4.)

12 Plaintiff submitted a PAGA notice (LWDA-CM-1009285-24) to the Labor and Workforce
13 Development Agency (“LWDA”) on February 5, 2024. (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.) On August 1, 2024, 14 Plaintiff filed her First Amended Complaint (“Operative Complaint”), which added claims for 15 penalties under PAGA, Labor Code §2698. (Id.)

16 Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay all wages due and owing, failed to pay 17 overtime at the proper rates, failed to provide meal and rest breaks, failed to maintain accurate 18 records, and failed to reimburse necessary business expenses. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

19 B. Investigation

20 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation and researched 21 the facts and circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and applicable law. (Id. at ¶ 7.) This 22 required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, in addition to 23 the above-described research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After filing the 24 lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and claims giving rise to the 25 action, including (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and conferring with defense 26 counsel about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing records and data, as well as employment-related 27 policies; (3) reviewing Plaintiff’s personnel file and other documentation; (4) interviewing Plaintiff
28 regarding potential Class Members; (5) researching the applicable law and potential defenses; (6)

1 constructing damage models based on interpretations of California law and the facts and numbers 2 provided by Defendant; and (7) reviewing information provided by Defendant in response to 3 informal discovery and in advance of the mediation. (Id.) The Parties conducted their own 4 evaluations of the potential recoveries based on the claims alleged in the Action, including 5 consulting experts. (Id.)

6 Defendant, for its part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, and 7 the propriety of class certification. (Id. at ¶ 8.) After analyzing the relevant documents and other 8 gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was appropriate for resolution via mediation.
9 (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, the Parties elected to mediate Plaintiff's 10 claims and attempt settlement. (Id.)

11 C. Settlement Efforts

12 On September 25, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with the Honorable 13 Howard Broadman (Ret.), a skilled mediator experienced in wage and hour class actions. (Kim 14 Decl., ¶ 9.) During mediation, counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant discussed all aspects of the case, 15 including the risks of continued litigation and the risks to both parties of proceeding with a class 16 certification motion, as well as the law relating to unpaid wages, meal periods, rest periods, wage 17 statements, and final pay. (Id.) Following mediation, the Parties accepted a mediator's proposal
18 outlining general settlement terms to resolve the lawsuit. (Id.) The Parties continued to work 19 together on a long-form Settlement Agreement following mediation, which resulted in the 20 Settlement Agreement before the Court for approval. (Id.)

21 From Class Counsel's review of the strengths and weaknesses of the case and the risks and 22 delays posed by further litigation, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement is fair and reasonable.
23 (Id. at ¶ 10.) Further, the Settlement Agreement was the product of a non-collusive settlement 24 process in which the Parties were forced to make significant compromises in the interest of reaching 25 a full and complete settlement of the lawsuit. (Id.)

26 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

27 The Class/Class Period and Aggrieved Employees/PAGA Period: The Settlement 28 Agreement defines the "Class" as all non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for Defendant in

1 California during the Class Period, February 5, 2020, through November 24, 2024. (Kim Decl., 2 Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.5, 1.12.) The Settlement Agreement also defines 3 “Aggrieved Employees” as all non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for Defendant in 4 California during the PAGA Period which is February 5, 2023, through November 24, 2024. (Kim
5 Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.4, 1.31.)

6 Key Financial Terms: Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendant 7 has agreed to pay $287,500.00 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) on a non-reversionary basis. (Kim 8 Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.1.) In addition to and separate from the Gross 9 Settlement Amount, Defendant will pay the employers’ portion of any payroll taxes on the wage 10 allocation portion of the individual settlement payments to Class Members. (Id.)

11 The Net Settlement Amount, available for distribution to Class Members, is the Gross 12 Settlement Amount, less Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel
13 Fees Payment, Class Representative Enhancement Award, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses 14 Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement 15 Agreement, ¶ 1.28.) These amounts are detailed as follows:

- 16 • Class Counsel Fees and Litigation Expenses Payment: Up to one-third of the Gross 17 Settlement Amount, or $95,833.33, to Class Counsel as attorneys’ fees for the litigation and 18 resolution of this Action and reasonable and actual costs and expenses incurred in the Action.
19 (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.2);
- 20 • Class Representative Service Payment: Up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff as an award for her 21 service as the class representative (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.1);
- 22 • Settlement Administration Costs Payment: A not-to-exceed amount of $3,590.00 to the 23 Settlement Administrator for its fees and costs to administer the Settlement (Kim Decl., 24 Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.3);
- 25 • PAGA Penalties Payment: $28,000.00 for settlement of claims for civil penalties under 26 PAGA, with 25% ($7,000.00) allocated to the Aggrieved Employees (“Individual PAGA 27 Payments”) and 75% ($21,000.00) allocated to the LWDA (“LWDA PAGA Payment”)
28 (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.5).

1 If the Court approves the above allocations from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Net 2 Settlement Amount is estimated to be $140,310.18. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 12.) Twenty percent (20%) of 3 the “Net Settlement Amount” will be allocated to the settlement of wage claims (the “Wage
4 Portion”) and will be subject to tax withholding and reported on an IRS W-2 Form. (Id.) Each Class
5 Member’s share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Class Payment”) will be calculated 6 based on the number of workweeks the Class Member worked during the Class Period. (Kim Decl., 7 Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.23.) For the approximately 82 Class Members (if no 8 exclusions), the average gross Individual Settlement Payment, using a straight average, is $1,711.10.
9 The estimated average amount each Class Member will receive per workweek based on the Net 10 Settlement Amount and 6,608 workweeks is $21.23. (Kim Decl., ¶ 12.) If the Court approves a lesser 11 amount for any of the above requested allocations from the Net Settlement Amount, the remainder 12 will be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to Class Members. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 13 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.5.2.)

14 No affirmative duties imposed on Class: The settlement agreement does not impose any 15 affirmative duties on Participating Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 73.) No claim form is required 16 to participate in the Settlement. (Id.) Individuals who wish to opt out or object may do so. (Id.)

17 Class Notice Procedures: Not later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Court grants
18 Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will deliver the Class Data to the Settlement 19 Administrator in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement 20 Agreement, ¶ 4.2.) The Settlement Administrator will mail the Class Notice to all Class Members 21 in no event later than fourteen (14) days following the receipt of Class Data via first class United 22 States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 7.4.2.)
23 Before mailing the Class Notice, the Settlement Administrator will update Class Member addresses 24 using the National Change of Address database. (Id.) The Class Notice includes a summary of the 25 case and settlement terms and provides Class Members with detailed instructions on how to exclude 26 themselves, object to the settlement, and dispute the number of workweeks and/or pay periods
27 attributed to each Class Member per Defendant’s records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.)

28 Any mailing returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable will be sent within

1 three (3) business days via First Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed thereto, if 2 applicable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 7.4.3.) If no forwarding address is 3 provided, the Settlement Administrator will attempt to determine the correct address again using all 4 reasonably available sources and methods, including the National Change of Address database, skip 5 traces, and direct contact by the Settlement Administrator with Class Members, and re-mail the 6 Class Notice to the most current address obtained. (Id.) Class Members will have sixty (60) days
7 from the mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional fourteen (14) calendar days if they receive 8 a re-mailed Notice) to opt out of or object to the Settlement or to dispute the number of Workweeks 9 and/or pay periods. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 7.4.4.)

10 Settlement Administrator: The parties selected Apex Class Action LLC (“Apex”) to 11 handle the notice and administration of the Settlement based on the competitiveness of their bid, 12 their competency in administering settlements, and their responsiveness to the parties’ counsel and 13 settlement class members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 7.1). Apex has 14 experience administering class action and PAGA settlements, has procedures in place to protect the 15 security of class data, adequate insurance in the event of a data breach or defalcation of funds, and 16 is qualified to administer the Settlement. (See Declaration of Kimberly Sutherland, which also 17 includes a breakdown of the anticipated costs of class notice.) In addition, Apex will have a website 18 for Class Members to review and reference for details regarding the Final Approval Hearing and 19 any Final Approval Order and Judgement. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.) If the Court grants final approval of 20 the Settlement, a copy of the Final Approval Order and Judgment will be posted on this website for 21 Class Members to review. (Id.) The website will be provided to Class Members in the Class Notice
22 that is mailed to them. (Id.)

23 Funding and Payment of Settlement: Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement 24 Amount and the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant’s share of payroll taxes by transmitting 25 the funds to the Settlement Administrator within 14 days after the Effective Date, which is when the 26 Court enters a Judgment on its Order Granting Final Approval of the Settlement, and when the 27 Judgment is final. The judgment will be final if after the Court grants final approval of the Settlement 28 and no objection is filed; if an objection is filed, the Gross Settlement Amount will be funded on the

1 day after the deadline for filing a notice of appeal from the judgment, or if a timely appeal is filed,
2 the day after the appellate court affirms the judgment. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, 3 ¶¶ 1.18, 4.3.) Within fourteen (14) days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the 4 Settlement Administrator will issue payments to Class Members pursuant to the terms of the 5 Settlement Agreement. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.) Checks will be mailed 6 by First Class U.S. Mail to each Class Member and will be valid for 180 calendar days from the date
7 of mailing. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.1.) Any uncashed amounts after 180
8 days will be transferred to the California Controller's Office in the name of the Class Member. (Kim
9 Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.3.)

10 Class Member Release: The Class Member release of claims will not become effective 11 until after the Effective Date and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement Amount 12 including its share of payroll taxes. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5). The release 13 period ends on November 24, 2024, prior to the date of the preliminary approval hearing. Further, 14 the release of claims is tailored in scope to claims that were or could have been alleged based on 15 the facts in the Operative Complaint that arose during the Class Period.

16 Aggrieved Employee Release: The Aggrieved Employee release of claims will not become 17 effective until after the Effective Date has passed and Defendant has fully funded the Gross 18 Settlement Amount including its share of payroll taxes. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement 19 Agreement ¶ 5). The release period ends on November 24, 2024, prior to the date of the preliminary 20 approval hearing. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.31, 5.3). Further, the release of 21 claims is tailored in scope to claims for PAGA civil penalties that are alleged or which reasonably 22 could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice 23 to the LWDA that accrued during the PAGA Period. (Id.) The Class Notice addresses the fact that 24 an Aggrieved Employee may not opt out of the PAGA Settlement.

25 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

26 Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. Prince v.
27 CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981)
28 29 Cal. 3d 462. Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor

1 of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 473-75.)
2 The decision to certify a class is a procedural one and should be based on the allegations in the 3 operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. (Linder v.
4 Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.

5 To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for 6 maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-7 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be 8 represented. See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab
9 Company (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704. These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

10 A. There Is a Numerous and Ascertainable Class

11 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size of 12 the class, and the means available for identifying class members. See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d at 13 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271.
14 Class members are “ascertainable” when they may be readily identified without unreasonable 15 expense or time.

16 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that the 17 numerosity and ascertainability elements are satisfied here. Class Members are all current and 18 former non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class 19 Period (February 5, 2020, to November 24, 2024). Defendant has identified 82 Class Members based 20 on a review of its payroll and personnel records. (Id., ¶ 15.)

21 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

22 B. There Is a Well-Defined Community of Interest

23 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 24 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

25 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 26 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any 27 recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere 28 fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which determined in plaintiffs' favor whatever questions were common to the class.

Id. at 809.

Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the Class is united in its proof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single scheme, “the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a common question fundamental to all class members.” See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation (SDNY 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, (SDNY 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518). California courts show “no hesitancy” in inferring class-wide causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common course of action has been shown. B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350. This inference “eliminates the need for each class member to prove individually the consequences of the defendants’ actions to him or her.” Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp (1982) 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 [emphasis added]).

This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendant’s alleged failure to pay wages and overtime, failure to provide meal and rest periods, the resulting failure to maintain accurate wage statements, failure to reimburse business expenses, and derivative claims under the UCL and PAGA. (Kim Decl., ¶ 16.) Plaintiff contends Defendant’s practices affected Class Members in the same way and presents questions that are suitable for common adjudication because all Class Members were subject to the same employment policies and practices. (Id.) The outcome of litigation in this matter depends upon questions that are common to Class Members. (Id.)

C. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical

A class representative’s claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their claims rest on the same legal theories. The class representative’s claims must be “typical” but not necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members. Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc.

1 (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in California that the class
2 representative must have identical interests with the class members.”). Thus, it is not necessary that 3 the class representative should have personally incurred all the damages suffered by each of the 4 other class members. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.

5 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 6 Plaintiff’s claims are typical of Class Members’ claims because they arose from the same factual 7 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Kim Decl., ¶ 17.) Thus, Plaintiff’s claims are typical 8 of the claims of the putative Class. (Id.)

9 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative

10 As detailed below, Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented Plaintiff 11 and the Class zealously, and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 18, 74-80.) The Class 12 Representative’s interests are aligned with those of the Class Members, as she has suffered the same 13 injuries as the Class Members and has no conflicts of interest. (Id. at ¶ 18.) Plaintiff has not shrunk
14 from this responsibility. (Id.) Indeed, Plaintiff has devoted a substantial amount of time and energy
15 to litigating this Action and effectuating a settlement. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class 16 Representative are adequate.

17 E. Predominance and Superiority

18 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 19.) As 19 explained, supra, Plaintiff alleges there are common issues of law and fact given that Plaintiff and 20 all Class Members were subjected to the same policies and pay practices during the relevant time 21 period. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Members seek meal and rest premiums, unpaid wages and overtime, 22 reimbursement for business expenses, and penalties for work performed as non-exempt employees 23 for Defendant. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that these issues are suitable for common adjudication because 24 all Class Members were allegedly subject to the same employment policies, and Plaintiff contends 25 the practices applied uniformly to all Class Members. (Id.)

26 Plaintiff contends that class resolution is superior to other available methods for the fair and 27 efficient adjudication of the controversy as there is little interest or incentive for Class Members to 28 individually control the prosecution of separate actions. (Id. at ¶ 20.) Although the alleged injury

1 resulting from Defendant's policies and practices are real and significant, the cost of individually 2 litigating each such case against Defendant would easily exceed the value of any relief that could 3 be obtained by any one Class Member individually. (Id.) If Class Members are forced to litigate 4 their claims individually, it would potentially result in over 82 individual actions against Defendant, 5 each for relatively small amounts. (Id.) Hence, an individual suit would prove uneconomical for 6 potential plaintiffs because litigation costs would dwarf a potential recovery. (Id.)

7 VI. THE THREE-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

8 California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action 9 lawsuits. Preliminary approval is merely the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure 10 for settlements of class actions. See Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Dunk
11 v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The second approval step is the dissemination 12 of notice of the settlement to all Class Members. Id. The third step is a final settlement approval 13 hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of 14 the settlement may be presented and Class Members may be heard. Id.

15 The determination of whether a settlement should be preliminarily approved requires, "basic 16 information about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding 17 that the consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable 18 compromise." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. However, the 19 record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that the class could 20 recover. See Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 21 409 ("Kullar does not... require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which 22 allows "an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of 23 the litigation."). "If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-24 collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment 25 to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then 26 the court should direct that notice be given to the Class Members of a formal fairness hearing, at 27 which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement." Manual for 28 Complex Litigation, Second § 30.44, at 229.

1 In deciding whether to approve a proposed class action settlement, the Court must find that 2 a proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable” and falls within the “range of approval.”
3 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801-02. The trial court considers all relevant factors, such as “the strength 4 of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 5 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of 6 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the 7 presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed 8 settlement.” Id. The Settlement satisfies all of these requirements.

9 VII. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

10 The Court’s decision to preliminarily approve a settlement is granted great deference as an 11 exercise within its broad discretion. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 12 234-235. As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and 13 favor settlement over continued litigation. See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 14 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure 15 of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 16 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation 17 is concerned.”). Applying the above factors, the proposed settlement provides a substantial benefit 18 to the Class. It is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved.

19 A. The Settlement is the Result of Serious, Informed, Non-Collusive Negotiations.

20 The proposed Settlement was reached as a result of arm’s length negotiations after the 21 exchange of pertinent discovery and necessary class data. (Kim Decl. ¶ 22.) The negotiations have 22 been, at all times, adversarial and non-collusive in nature. (Id.) See, 4 Newberg on Class Actions § 23 13:45 (5th ed.) (due to the preference of settlement over litigation, “a court will presume that a 24 proposed class action settlement is fair when certain factors are present, particularly evidence that 25 the settlement is the product of arms-length negotiation, untainted by collusion.”). Although 26 Plaintiff steadfastly maintains that her claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that there were 27 substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with litigation. (Id.) As discussed below, Defendant 28 presented multiple defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, both on the merits and with respect to class

1 certification. (Id.) Thus, while Plaintiff was prepared to litigate these claims through class
2 certification, and ultimately trial, success was far from guaranteed. (Id.) Assistance from a well-3 respected mediator ensured negotiations between the Parties were non-collusive and well-informed.
4 (Id.)

5 B. Extent of Discovery and Stage of Proceedings

6 As stated above, the Parties engaged in substantial informal discovery before the Settlement
7 was reached to allow them to fully evaluate the class claims and Defendant's defenses. (Id. at ¶ 23.)
8 This litigation has reached the stage where the Parties have a clear view of their respective strengths
9 and weaknesses in this case. (Id.)

10 C. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and the Risk, Expense, Complexity, and 11 Likely Duration of Any Litigation.

12 Plaintiff's claims are based on Defendant's alleged failure to pay wages (including 13 overtime), failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure to reimburse business expenses, the 14 resulting failure to maintain accurate records, and derivative claims under the UCL and PAGA. (Id.
15 at ¶ 24).

16 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members at least minimum 17 wages for all hours worked and proper overtime wages for hours worked in excess of eight hours in 18 a day and 40 hours in a week. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant 19 required Plaintiff and Class Members to arrive and perform work off the clock by opening the clinic 20 prior to clocking in. This process allegedly included opening the office, disarming the alarms, and 21 turning on computers. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant purposefully engaged in 22 detrimental "rounding" or shaving off minor amounts of time from each employee during each pay 23 period in a manner that would not catch the attention of employees. (Id. at ¶ 42.)

24 Defendant contends that it did not require off the clock work, paid for all reported hours 25 worked, that Class Members were instructed and required to record all hours worked, that any 26 alleged off the clock work was performed without Defendant's knowledge and was de minimis, and 27 that it paid wages at the proper rates. (Kim Decl., at ¶ 43.) Defendant also argues that given its 28 written policies and practices, any unrecorded hours are likely subject to individualized inquiry and

1 unlikely to be certified. (Id.) Given the difficulty in certifying this claim, Class Counsel applied a 2 discount to damages based on this theory. (Id.)

3 Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with 4 lawful first and second meal periods. (Kim Decl., ¶ 27.) For example, Plaintiff alleges that 5 Defendant's policy was facially non-complaint in that it required Class Members to take a meal
6 break only once and failed to inform Class Members that they were required to take their meal period
7 prior to the end of the fifth hour of their work day. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff and Class
8 Members would routinely be forced to take late or interrupted meal periods as a result of being stuck 9 in surgery. Further, Plaintiff alleges that the time clock triggered a payment of a meal period 10 premium for some meal break violations including a missed meal break, but Plaintiff and Class
11 Members' managers did not allow Plaintiff and Class Members to stay on the clock past the 5th 12 hour but required them to clock out and keep working to avoid the penalty. (Id.)

13 Defendant contends that Class Members were given a reasonable opportunity to take their 14 meal periods, and when compliant meal periods were not provided, Defendant provided premium 15 pay to Class Members as reflected in their time and pay records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28.) Defendant 16 further contends that the meal break claim requires individualized inquiries which would preclude 17 class certification. (Id.) If Defendant's contentions are proven true and prevail in trial, the likely 18 outcome would be no recovery for the Class Members on the meal break claim. (Id.)

19 Plaintiff also contends that Defendant did not provide Class Members with paid 10-minute 20 rest breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 29.) Plaintiff contends that 21 job requirements and duties required of Class Members consistently manifested in a failure to 22 authorize and permit Class Members to take all their required rest breaks. (Id.) Plaintiff alleges that 23 Plaintiff and Class Members were not permitted to leave the work premises during rest periods and 24 would face reprimand if they left the workplace during a rest period. (Id.)

25 Defendant maintains that it did provide a reasonable opportunity for Class Members to take 26 duty-free rest breaks during their shifts and dispute all allegations that rest breaks were not provided.
27 (Kim Decl., ¶ 30.) Considering that unlike meal periods, rest breaks need not be recorded, these 28 violations would likely be difficult to prove at trial and potentially depress the damages ultimately

1 awarded. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate discounts to the rest
2 break claim. (Id.)

3 Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to use 4 their cellular phones for work, including for responding to communications from supervisors, 5 whether on or off the clock, for which they were not reimbursed. (Kim Decl., ¶ 31.) Defendant
6 maintained that individualized issues relating to this claim would preclude class certification. (Id.)

7 As for the wage statement and waiting time penalties claims, Defendant contends that these 8 claims are merely derivative of the underlying claims and that Plaintiff and Class Members would 9 be unable to first establish liability for the underlying claims for the reasons described above. (Kim 10 Decl., ¶ 32.) Defendant further contends that even if Plaintiff could first establish liability for the 11 underlying claims, Plaintiff and Class Members would be unable to establish that Defendant's 12 conduct was willful and knowing as required by the relevant statutes since Defendant acted in good 13 faith to provide accurate wage statements and pay all wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members.
14 (Id.) Thus, Defendant contends that the wage statement and waiting time penalties claims to have 15 little to no value. (Id.)

16 Further, Defendant contends that the PAGA claim is also derivative of the underlying claims 17 in the Action and ultimately fails because the underlying claims have no merit. (Kim Decl., ¶ 33.)
18 Defendant also contends that even if Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees could establish Labor Code 19 violations, the Court has the discretion to award less than the maximum civil penalty amount and 20 would award substantially less civil penalties here because Defendant acted in good faith to comply 21 with the relevant wage and hour laws and any violations were minor and technical in nature. (Id.)

22 Defendant generally denies all claims alleged in the Action and further denies class and/or 23 representative treatment is appropriate for any purpose other than this Settlement and that it 24 complied with all applicable laws. (Kim Decl., ¶ 34.) However, Defendant has concluded that further 25 litigation would be protracted and expensive and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and 26 finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions herein. (Id.)

27 As stated above, while Plaintiff and Class Counsel contend the claims asserted in the Action
28 have merit, they also acknowledge the expense, delay, and risks of continued litigation. (Kim Decl., ¶ 35.) Although the Parties engaged in significant informal discovery in advance of mediation, the Parties would still have had significant additional discovery to complete had the matter not settled. (Id.) This would have required the expenditure of substantial time and resources by both Parties that likely may have spanned years. (Id.) Even if Plaintiff were to certify the classes, the Parties would incur considerably more attorney fees and costs through a possible decertification motion, trial, and possible appeal. (Id.) This Settlement avoids those risks and the accompanying expense. (Id.)

D. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial.

Plaintiff has not yet filed her motion for class certification, and as such, the extent to which Plaintiff's proposed classes are certifiable is somewhat speculative. (Id. at ¶ 36.) Absent settlement, there is a risk that there would not be a certified class at the time of trial, or if there were, it could consist of a significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Settlement Class, resulting in less overall recovery. (Id.)

Finally, in class actions, decertification is always a possibility, and there is always a risk that a trial of this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Id. at ¶ 37.) Cases like Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat. Assn. (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 address the complexity of using statistical samples in class actions and demonstrate that decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must consider. (Id.) A class trial would have also required expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation costs, and the commitment of extensive further time and financial resources. (Id.) Finally, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is somewhat likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal would result in further delay for the Class Members who have already waited years for resolution in this matter. (Id.) Risk and legal uncertainty must be dealt with in any litigation, and this Settlement was the product of compromise accounting for those risks and uncertainty. (Id.)

E. The Presence of a Governmental Participant

Class Counsel will be submitting the Settlement Agreement and this Motion to the LWDA concurrently with the filing of this Motion pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Id. at ¶ 38.)

F. The Amount Offered in Settlement is Fair Given the Potential Value of the 1 Claims.

2 If the Court approves the requested allocations from the Gross Settlement Amount of 3 $287,500.00 as addressed above, the Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be $140,310.18. (Kim 4 Decl., ¶ 12.) There are approximately 82 total Class Members. (Id.) If there are no exclusions from 5 the Class, the average gross Individual Settlement Payment, per Class Member, using a straight 6 average, is $1,711.10. (Id.) The estimated average amount each Class Member will receive per 7 workweek based on the Net Settlement Amount and 6,608 workweeks is $21.23. (Id.)

8 Based on an analysis of Plaintiff's time and pay records and a sampling of time and pay 9 records for the Class, Plaintiff estimated the potential realistic exposure for the main claims as 10 follows: $65,442.00 for unpaid wages claims, including minimum and overtime wages; $108,200.80
11 for meal period violations; $156,964.20 for rest period violations; $75,175.00 for wage statement 12 penalties; $30,404.00 for unreimbursed business expenses; and $28,000.00 for PAGA penalties. (Id.
13 at ¶¶ 41-62.) As such, the total estimated realistic exposure Defendant could face is $464,186.00.
14 (Id. at ¶ 62.)

15 The Gross Settlement Amount of $287,500.00 represents a recovery for the Class of 16 approximately 60% of the total realistic exposure Plaintiff estimated that Defendant could face on 17 the primary claims in this case. (Id.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel submit that this is an optimal result 18 in the face of uncertainty and the prospects of protracted and contested litigation through class 19 certification, summary judgment, and trial, and particularly in light of all of the factors described 20 above. (Id.)

21 G. A Balance of Risk Factors and Kullar Analysis Support Approval

22 In deciding whether to approve the settlement, the Court must balance these risk factors 23 against an “understanding of the amount in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the 24 litigation.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130, 133; Munoz v. BCI
25 Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-09. The court “must stop 26 short of the detailed and thorough investigation that it would undertake if it were actually trying the 27 case” Munoz, at 408. Plaintiff's counsel used the comprehensive data and documents provided 28 to perform an analysis of the potential exposure Defendant faced on Plaintiff's main class-wide

1 claims, establishing the realistic range of outcomes in this case. As noted above, the Gross
2 Settlement Amount represents a recovery of approximately 62% of the estimated total realistic
3 exposure facing Defendant. (Kim Decl., ¶ 67.)

4 There was a very real prospect that nothing would be recovered by the Class if litigation 5 continued and class certification were ultimately denied. At the same time, further litigation would 6 require the expenditure of significant time and financial resources, and there is always the possibility 7 of adverse developments in the law and the likelihood of extended battles in both the trial court and 8 courts of appeal. Settlement is a prudent compromise that benefits the Class Members promptly.

9 H. Experience and Views of Counsel

10 Experienced counsel, operating at arm's length, have weighed the strengths of the case, 11 examined all the issues and risks of litigation, and endorsed the proposed settlement. Class Counsel 12 are experienced in class actions, have represented their clients zealously, and have no conflicts of 13 interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 74-80.) Class Counsel submits the Settlement is fair, adequate, and 14 reasonable in view of the risks and other considerations addressed and is well-suited for final 15 approval upon completion of the administration process. (Kim Decl., ¶ 80.)

16 VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE 17 CLASS MEMBERS.

18 To be deemed proper, a notice must provide the Class Members with sufficient information 19 to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. Mullane v. Central 20 Hanover Bank & Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314. The notice must apprise the Class Members
21 of the pendency of the action; reasonably convey information regarding the settlement and the Class 22 Members' rights, entitlements, and obligations; and affords Class Members the opportunity to 23 present their objections. Id.

24 The proposed Class Notice provides all the information a reasonable person would need to 25 make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will notify all Class Members of the terms 26 of the Settlement, its effect on their rights, their options as Class Members (i.e., participate, object, 27 opt-out, and dispute work weeks), and procedures for exercising those options. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13.)

28 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether it has "a reasonable chance

1 of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members.” Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50
2 Cal.App.3d 960, 974. Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class mail to each of the 82 Class
3 Members at their addresses from Defendant’s records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 13, Exhibit 1, Settlement 4 Agreement ¶¶ 4.2, 7.4.2.) Not later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the Court grants Preliminary 5 Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will deliver the Class Information to the Settlement 6 Administrator in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. (Id.) The Settlement Administrator will 7 mail the Class Notice to all Class Members in no event later than fourteen (14) days following the 8 Preliminary Approval Date via first class USPS. (Id.) If the USPS does not provide a forwarding 9 address, the Settlement Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail 10 the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. (Kim Decl., ¶ 63, Exhibit 1, Settlement 11 Agreement, ¶¶ 1.10, 7.4.3.) Class Notice should be approved as the best and most practicable way 12 to ensure the greatest possible number of Class Members will receive notice. (Kim Decl., ¶ 73.)

13 IX. THE STIPULATED CLASS COUNSEL AWARD AND CLASS COUNSEL FEES
14 AND COSTS PAYMENT ARE REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

15 Class Counsel respectfully requests, without opposition from Defendant, a Class Counsel 16 Fees Payment of $95,833.33 (up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) and a reasonable 17 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment,¹ subject to approval by the Court. (Kim Decl. ¶ 68.)

18 Class Counsel submits it has the requisite experience, knowledge, and resources to serve as 19 Class Counsel and to zealously represent the Class. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 74-80.) Class Counsel has 20 incurred substantial hours in prosecuting this Action on a contingency basis and will not receive any 21 compensation for their efforts until recovery is obtained for the Class. (Kim Decl. ¶ 68.) In addition, 22 Class Counsel’s efforts in reaching the Settlement on behalf of the Class will confer a significant 23 benefit to the Class. (Id.) As such, the requested Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel 24 Litigation Expenses Payment of actual costs and expenses incurred are reasonable.

27
28 _____
¹ Class Counsel Litigation Expenses is currently estimated to be $14,766.49.

1 X. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 2 REASONABLE

3 “At the conclusion of a class action, the class representatives are eligible for a special 4 payment in recognition of their service to the class.” 5 Newberg on Class Actions § 17:1 (5th ed.).

5 Plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable service payment for her efforts and initiative in bringing 6 and helping to prosecute this action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 69.) Plaintiff spent significant time better 7 apprising herself of her rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken and how it should 8 be taken, searching for attorneys, and contacting Class Counsel, who spent many hours with Plaintiff
9 discussing the case and the law. (Id.)

10 Both before and after the filing of this lawsuit, Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel on to 11 discuss every aspect of her case. (Kim Decl., ¶ 70.) Plaintiff provided Class Counsel with 12 information about Defendant and about the industry generally, produced and reviewed documents, 13 identified witnesses, consulted with Class Counsel regarding litigation strategy, participated in the 14 mediation process, monitored the progress of the litigation with Class Counsel, and reviewed and 15 signed the Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

16 In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the $5,000.00 service award to the 17 Class Representative is fair and reasonable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 71.)

18 XI. THE ACTION REQUESTED AS A PART OF THE MOTION FOR 19 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

20 Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, to 21 grant the following relief and make the following orders:

- 22 1. Review and approve the Settlement Agreement;
- 23 2. Review and approve the Class Notice, attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit 24 A;
- 25 3. Consider and determine that the proposed class action settlement as set forth in the 26 Settlement Agreement preliminarily appears fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 27 4. Enter an order conditionally certifying the action as a class action for settlement 28 purposes only and preliminarily approving the proposed class action settlement and the Settlement

1 Agreement;

2 5. Approve and appoint D.Law, Inc. to serve as Class Counsel for settlement purposes;

3 6. Approve and appoint Apex Class Action, LLC as the Settlement Administrator to handle 4 the notice and claims procedures as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

5 7. Approve the proposed settlement's allocation of funds to claims made under PAGA;

6 8. Order Defendant to disclose to the Settlement Administrator the Class Member's name, 7 last-known mailing address, email address, telephone number, Social Security number, hire dates, 8 and termination dates as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

9 9. Order Apex to mail the Class Notice to Class Members; and 10 10. Set a date for the Final Approval Hearing.
