1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff, under the Labor Code's Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), 4 respectfully move this Court for an Order granting approval of the proposed Settlement of the 5 above-captioned lawsuit against Defendant Grieco Motors West LLC ("Defendant"). The proposed 6 Settlement will dispose of the Released Claims asserted by Plaintiff, on behalf of the State and 7 approximately 99 individuals who currently and/or formerly worked for Defendant in California as 8 hourly and/or non-exempt employees at any time from June 7, 2023 through the date on which the 9 Court approves the Settlement (the "PAGA Period") (the "PAGA Settlement Members"). See 10 Settlement Agreement at ¶¶ 1.18-1.19.

11 This case addresses claimed violations of employee protections embodied in the California 12 Labor Code and penalties stemming therefrom for the violation of PAGA. Plaintiff alleged on 13 behalf of himself and all PAGA Settlement Members that Defendant (1) failed to pay all minimum
14 and overtime wages due to Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members, in violation of Labor Code 15 §§ 510, 558, and 1194; (2) failed to pay Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members for time when 16 they were working, but could not earn a commission or piece-rate wage, in violation of Labor Code 17 §§ 510, 558, and 1194; (3) failed to provide Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members with legally 18 compliant meal periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 19 and 558; (4) failed to provide Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members with legally compliant rest 20 periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 558, and 1194;
21 (5) failed to issue accurately itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members, 22 in violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226.3; (6) failed to timely pay Plaintiff and PAGA
23 Settlement Members all wages due at the separation of their employment, in violation of Labor 24 Code §§ 201-202 and 227.3.

25 As a result of Defendant's alleged violations of the Labor Code, approximately 99
26 employees are claimed to have suffered Labor Code violations for up to 2,225 aggregate pay 27 periods at the rate of $100 each based on PAGA's penalty provisions. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 24, 28.

28 In deciding whether to grant approval of the proposed Settlement, the primary issue to be

1 decided is whether the Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable. As set forth herein, the proposed 2 Settlement embodies all of the features of a settlement that is fair, reasonable, and adequate, as it is 3 the product of (1) arms-length negotiations, (2) negotiated by attorneys experienced in wage and 4 hour issues, (3) subsequent to undertaking sufficient investigation necessary to evaluate the relative 5 strength and value of the PAGA claim, and (4) it reflects a reasoned compromise based directly on 6 the relative strength and value of the PAGA claim, as well as the risks, expense, complexity and 7 likely duration of further litigation.

8 The value achieved by the Settlement may be gleaned from the fact that the Labor and 9 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and the approximately 99 PAGA Settlement 10 Members encompassed by the Settlement will receive no less than $6,633.33 under the terms of the 11 Settlement, which, pursuant to the operative statute, shall be allocated “75 percent to the Labor and 12 Workforce Development Agency . . . and 25 percent to the PAGA Settlement Members.” See Cal.
13 Lab. Code § 2699(i). This is a reasonable recovery, not only because further litigation may have 14 resulted in a net-zero recovery based on the defenses available to Defendant, but because the 15 amount secured by Plaintiff is sizable and in line with similar settlements of these types of claims 16 under PAGA. It is also important to underscore that all penalty amounts paid to PAGA Settlement 17 Members will be an unexpected windfall, as employees typically do not bring individual lawsuits 18 asserting only PAGA penalties.

19 For these reasons, as set forth more fully herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this 20 Court enter the Order submitted herewith.

21 II. STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND THE SETTLEMENT

22 A. The Parties

23 Defendant operates a car dealership in Ventura County, where Plaintiff worked. Gaines 24 Decl. at ¶ 6.

25 Defendant employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt “internet director” from November 2018
26 through August 2022 and again from October 2023 through December 2023. The PAGA Settlement 27 Members are all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Grieco Motors West 28 LLC in the State of California from June 7, 2023 through the date on which the Court approves the 1 Settlement. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 7.

2 B. The Claims Asserted

3 Plaintiff asserts claims that Defendant failed to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff and PAGA
4 Settlement Members, failed to provide Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members with legally 5 compliant meal and rest periods, or compensation in lieu thereof, failed to issue accurately itemized 6 wage statements to Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members, and failed to timely pay Plaintiff and 7 PAGA Settlement Members all wages due at the separation of their employment. Plaintiff asserts 8 these claims under PAGA, on behalf of himself, individually, and on behalf of the State of 9 California and other PAGA Settlement Members, and civil penalties for the alleged Labor Code 10 violations for Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 8.

11 C. Procedural Posture

12 On February 1, 2024, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff gave written notice 13 by online filing with the LWDA and by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Defendant, of 14 the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and 15 theories to support the alleged violation. Gaines Decl., ¶ 9; Exhibit B (LWDA Letter).

16 Thereafter, on April 9, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Representative Action complaint in this Court
17 alleging claims individually and pursuant to PAGA on behalf of himself and PAGA Settlement 18 Members alleging the claims in the LWDA Letter. Gaines Decl., ¶ 10.

19 On June 6, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding standalone class action 20 claims. Gaines Decl., ¶ 11.

21 On June 7, 2024, Plaintiff sent a supplemental letter by online filing with the LWDA and 22 by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Defendant, which corrected the spelling of 23 Defendant's name. Gaines Decl., ¶ 12; Exhibit C (Supplemental LWDA Letter).

24 Thereafter, on August 26, 2024, pursuant to stipulation, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended 25 Complaint that removed the class action allegations due to an arbitration agreement that precluded 26 such claims. Gaines Decl., ¶ 13.

27 On or about September 30, 2024, Defendant filed a motion seeking to compel Plaintiff's 28 individual claims to arbitration and staying Plaintiff's non-individual representative PAGA claims,

1 which the Court granted. Plaintiff thereafter initiated arbitration. Gaines Decl., ¶ 14.

2 D. Plaintiff's Counsel's Investigation

3 Counsel for Plaintiff engaged in targeted, informal discovery of Defendant's alleged Labor 4 Code violations, which specifically evaluated the strength and value of the PAGA claims in 5 preparation for a resolution of this Action. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 15.

6 Plaintiff's Counsel obtained from Defendant and reviewed (i) relevant policy documents 7 relating to the employment of Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members; and (ii) Excel payroll and 8 time data relating to the number of alleged violations, including the Aggrieved Employee group 9 size. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 16.

10 Based on the information received, as well as through discussions with Defendant's 11 Counsel, Plaintiff's Counsel was able to (i) determine the total number of distinct individuals falling 12 within the definition of "Aggrieved Employee" for the relevant statutory period and (ii) construct 13 a damage model that calculated the maximum amount of PAGA penalties that could be levied 14 against Defendant within the PAGA Period based on employee time and pay period data produced 15 by Defendant. At all relevant times, Defendant has disputed Plaintiff's claims and contested both 16 the existence of, and extent of liability as alleged by Plaintiff. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 17.

17 Plaintiff's Counsel's experience in litigating similar "representative" wage and hour claims, 18 the degree of investigation that was conducted here, the amount of data that was obtained, and the 19 discussions guided by mediation was sufficient to determine the potential value of the PAGA claim 20 and to evaluate the strength of this claim for purposes of settlement. Defendant, however, disputed 21 Plaintiff's claims and disputed both the existence of and extent of liability as alleged by Plaintiff.
22 Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 2-5, 18.

23 E. Settlement Negotiations

24 On November 12, 2025, the Parties participated in a mediation session with an experienced 25 and reputable retired jurist and wage and hour and PAGA action mediator, Mike Ludwig, Esq.
26 During the mediation, the Parties engaged in arm's-length negotiations and reached a resolution of 27 the PAGA claims asserted in this Action with the assistance of Mr. Ludwig following further 28 informal discussions and a mediator's proposal. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 19.

1 F. The Proposed Settlement

2 The Parties jointly prepared and executed a PAGA Representative Action Settlement 3 Agreement (the “Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”). Gaines Decl., ¶ 20; Exhibit D. The 4 Settlement Agreement sets forth the terms of the Settlement reached by the Parties, including the 5 following key points:

6 1. Defendant agrees to settle the PAGA matter for the payment of $60,000 (hereinafter 7 the “Gross Settlement Amount,” payable by Defendant (see Settlement Agreement at ¶ 1.19), which 8 shall be all inclusive, encompassing (i) all payments to the LWDA and PAGA Settlement Members, 9 (ii) any and all costs of third-party administration of the settlement, and (iii) Plaintiff’s Counsel’s 10 attorneys’ fees and costs of suit.² See Settlement Agreement at ¶¶ 4.1-4.4; Gaines Decl., ¶ 21.

11 2. The total sum available for payment of PAGA penalties shall be calculated by 12 deducting from the $60,000 Gross Settlement Amount, the projected $20,000 for the payment of 13 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fees, $10,516.67 for the payment of Plaintiff’s Counsel’s costs, and the costs 14 of administration not to exceed $2,950, which yields $26,533.33, and of which seventy-five percent 15 (75%) or $19,900.00, shall be distributed to the LWDA, and the remaining twenty-five percent 16 (25%) or $6,633.33, shall be distributed to the PAGA Settlement Members. See Settlement 17 Agreement at ¶ 4.4; Gaines Decl., ¶ 23.

18 3. All PAGA Settlement Members will receive a pro rata share of the $6,633.33
19 allocated to them, which shall be distributed based on the number of pay periods each Aggrieved
20 Employee worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA Period. See Settlement Agreement 21 at ¶ 4.5. Although these calculations will not be made until after approval, a rough estimation of 22 the value to the approximately 99 individuals falling within the definition of “Aggrieved 23

24 ² By a separate agreement, the Confidential Settlement Agreement and Release of All Claims, the 25 Parties have resolved all of Plaintiff’s individual claims through a comprehensive general release 26 in favor of Defendant. The separate individual settlement agreement provides an amount, separate 27 from the Gross Settlement Amount, to resolve Plaintiff’s individual termination-related claims 28 against Defendant. It is not an amount that is part of the Gross Settlement Amount to be approved.
If requested, and due to the confidential nature of the agreement, Plaintiff will provide a copy of the unredacted agreement to the Court for in camera review at the time of the hearing. Gaines Decl., ¶ 22; Exhibit E.

1 Employee” may be gleaned from the fact that an equal division would provide about $67.00 to each
2 Aggrieved Employee, net of payments to the LWDA, the Settlement Administrator, and attorney’s 3 fees and costs. The LWDA will be paid a substantial $19,900.00. See Gaines Decl., at ¶ 24.

4 4. In exchange for the above settlement consideration, Defendant and the Released
5 Parties shall be entitled to a limited release as follows:³

6 By operation of the entry of the Approval Order and Judgment, 7 subject to Defendant’s full payment of the Gross Settlement Amount 8 into the Qualified Settlement Fund, Plaintiff, on behalf of the State 9 of California and each PAGA Settlement Member, releases the 10 Released Parties from all claims under PAGA asserted in the Action, 11 as amended, and/or arising from or related to the facts and claims 12 alleged in the Action, as amended, or the PAGA letters, or that could 13 have been raised in the Action, as amended, or the PAGA letters 14 based on the facts and claims alleged, including all claims under the 15 PAGA that are derivative to claims for unpaid wages, including, but 16 not limited to, failure to pay minimum wages, overtime, and interest;

12 Settlement Agreement at ¶ 4.7. Counsel for Plaintiff attests that his office regularly receives calls 13 from class members or PAGA Settlement Members years after a case has settled to inquire about 14 obtaining their settlement share because they did not cash their check in time, lost their check, or 15 never received their check. By remitting the unclaimed checks to the State Controller, the PAGA 16 Settlement Members have a chance to receive their individual settlement payment after the check 17 cashing deadline. Gaines Decl. at ¶ 26.

28 Gaines Decl. at ¶ 42; Exhibit H to the Gaines Decl.

1 III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

2 A. Standards for Approval of a PAGA Settlement

3 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval pursuant to the operative PAGA 4 statute, which states that the “[t]he superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any 5 civil action filed pursuant to this part.” See Labor Code § 2699(s)(2).

6 As with any settlement, the Court must be mindful in conducting its inquiry that 7 “[s]ettlement is a compromise, which balances the possible recovery against the risks inherent in 8 litigating further.” See In re TD Ameritrade Account Holder Litig., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 103222, 9 24 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 12, 2011). Indeed, “the very essence of a settlement is ... ‘a yielding of 10 absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes”’ [Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com., 688 11 F.2d 615, 624 (9th Cir., 1982)], as “it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance 12 of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements.” See id., at 625. As such, 13 “the settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits” 14 or “judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the 15 negotiators.” See id.

16 Although the operative PAGA statute does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA
17 settlement is to be judged, California law does state that some of the factors for review of a class
18 action settlement under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 (“Rule 23”), C.C.P. § 382 and Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 19 3.769, may be “useful in evaluating the fairness of a PAGA settlement” to the reviewing court. See 20 Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal. App. 5th 56, 77 (“Thus, while PAGA does not require 21 the trial court to act as a fiduciary for PAGA Settlement Members, adoption of a standard of review 22 for settlements that prevents ‘fraud, collusion or unfairness,’ and protects the interests of the public
23 and the LWDA in the enforcement of state labor laws is warranted. Because many of the factors 24 used to evaluate class action settlements bear on a settlement's fairness—including the strength of 25 the Plaintiff's case, the risk, the stage of the proceeding, the complexity and likely duration of 26 further litigation, and the settlement amount—these factors can be useful in evaluating the fairness 27 of a PAGA settlement.”). Courts within California have continued to approve settlements of PAGA 28

1 claims using Rule 23 criteria.⁴ However, it is important to underscore that not all Rule 23 factors
2 can be applied, as “a PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered 3 a class action but a law enforcement action, and therefore does not have to meet the requirements
4 of Rule 23.” See Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9302, 8 (E.D. Cal. Jan.
5 25, 2012); Thomas v. Aetna Health of Cal., Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 59377 (E.D. Cal. June 2, 6 2011); Mendez v. Tween Brands, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 66454 (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2010).
7 Based thereon, a court’s review of a PAGA settlement necessarily implicates the following unique 8 features that render the approval process completely distinct from approval of a class action 9 settlement under Rule 23 or C.C.P. § 382 and Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769.

10 First, in evaluating the adequacy of the settlement amount, the Court’s focus is not 11 concerned with the amount which “PAGA Settlement Members” are to receive, but rather, must 12 focus on the total settlement amount in achieving PAGA’s objective.

13 While “[a PAGA] action is . . . designed to protect the public and penalize the employer for 14 past illegal conduct” [Mendez, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 66454, at 11], a reviewing Court must take 15 into account the fact that settlement of a PAGA claim – like any settlement – involves a 16 “compromise” that stops short of rendering findings of liability and damages. Moreover, the Court 17 must not lose sight of the fact that “[u]nlike a class action seeking damages or injunctive relief for 18 injured employees, the purpose of PAGA is to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties 19 for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state 20 enforcement agencies.” See Ochoa-Hernandez v. CJADER Foods, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21 32774, 12 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010).

22 ⁴ As held by the Ninth Circuit, evaluation of a class action settlement under Rule 23 “[involves] a 23 balancing of several factors which may include, among others, some or all of the following: [1] the 24 strength of Plaintiff’s case; [2] the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further 25 litigation; [3] the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; [4] the amount offered 26 in settlement; [5] the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of the proceedings; [6] the 27 experience and views of counsel; [7] the presence of a governmental participant; and [8] the 28 reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” See Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir., 1998). “Not all of these factors will apply to every class action settlement” and “[u]nder certain circumstances, one factor alone may prove determinative in finding sufficient grounds for court approval.” See Nat’l Rural Telcoms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 525-526 (C.D. Cal., 2004).

1 B. The Settlement Meets All the Criteria For Approval

2 Applying the Rule 23 fairness factors – limited to those compatible with the unique PAGA 3 considerations detailed above – the proposed Settlement embodies all of the key features of a 4 settlement that is fair, reasonable, adequate, and as such, meets all the criteria necessary for 5 approval.

6 1. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

7 In conducting a review of a settlement, it is generally recognized that an “agreement . . .
8 reached through arms-length negotiation between experienced parties . . . is entitled to a 9 presumption of fairness.” See Anderson v. Nextel Retail Stores, LLC, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10 43377, 44 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 12, 2010).

11 A presumption of fairness exists here, as the proposed Settlement (1) is the product of arms-12 length negotiations brokered through a respected third party neutral (Gaines Decl. at ¶ 19), (2) was 13 negotiated by Counsel with significant experience in similar wage and hour litigation (Gaines Decl.
14 at ¶¶ 2-5, 33-35 and Exhibit A), (3) occurred after Counsel had conducted sufficient investigation 15 to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claim, as well as evaluating the risks of 16 litigating this claim through trial. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 15-18, 28-30. Based thereon, the Court should 17 give considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel in assuring itself that the 18 Settlement Agreement represents an arms-length transaction entered without self-dealing or other 19 potential misconduct.

20 2. The Relative Strength Of The PAGA Claim, And the Realistic Range of 21 Outcomes In The Litigation, Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

22 The relative strength of the PAGA claim brought by Plaintiff weighs in favor of the Court 23 finding that the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as Defendant maintained numerous 24 defenses to the theories of penalty-liability put forward by Plaintiff that, if successful, had the 25 potential to completely eliminate any recovery.

26 This case addresses violations of important employee protections embodied in the 27 California Labor Code – namely, that Defendant (1) failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages 28 due to Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members, in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 558, and 1194;

1 (2) failed to pay Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members for time when they were working, but 2 could not earn a commission or piece-rate wage, in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 558, and 1194;
3 (3) failed to provide Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members with legally compliant meal periods, 4 or compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558; (4) failed to 5 provide Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members with legally compliant rest periods, or 6 compensation in lieu thereof, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 558, and 1194; (5) failed 7 to issue accurately itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members, in 8 violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226.3; (6) failed to timely pay Plaintiff and PAGA
9 Settlement Members all wages due at the separation of their employment, in violation of Labor 10 Code §§ 201-202 and 227.3. See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 27.

11 Defendant’s realistic maximum theoretical exposure in this Action, without stacking 12 penalties, totals approximately $222,500 computed by multiplying 2,225 aggregate pay periods by 13 $100 each. There is no California authority that expressly permits the practice of counting multiple 14 violations/penalties that occur within the same pay period, known as “stacking” penalties.
15 Plaintiff’s Counsel is aware of no court that has actually stacked such PAGA penalties for multiple 16 violations (meaning the “market” for PAGA settlements is based on no stacking of penalties) and 17 given the circumstances of this case, it is unlikely that this Court would impose a massive penalty 18 by stacking the PAGA penalty claims against Defendant. Although stacking penalties is not 19 unlawful, the majority of cases that address awards of PAGA penalties focus on the court’s 20 discretion to reduce awards. See Romo v. GMRI, Inc., 2014 WL 11320647, at *7 (C.D. Cal. Feb.
21 18, 2014) (“The court retains discretion over awards under a PAGA claim”); Bright v. 99c 22 Only Stores (2010) 189 Cal. App. 4th 1472, 1480 n.8 (“The trial court has discretion to award less 23 than the maximum amount of the civil penalty”). Based thereon, the non-stacking/one penalty
24 per pay period is an appropriate evaluation for maximum potential exposure in this case. See Gaines 25 Decl. at ¶ 28.

26 Additionally, the Ninth Circuit has held that heightened penalties are not appropriate where 27 the Defendant was not notified by the Labor Commissioner or any court that it was subject to the 28 California Labor Code. Bernstein v. Virgin Am., Inc., 3 F.4th 1127, 1144 (9th Cir. 2021). See also

1 Gunther v. Alaska Airlines, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 334, 340 (reversing heightened penalties
2 awarded by trial court for Labor Code § 226.3 because “the plain language of the statute [Labor 3 Code § 226.3] provides that heightened penalties apply only where the employer fails to provide 4 wage statements or fails to keep required records.”) Further, courts are often hesitant to award a 5 heightened penalty where there is no prior citation by the Labor Commissioner. See Bernstein at 6 1144. See also Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1209 (holding that 7 “[u]ntil the employer has been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision...the employer 8 cannot be presumed to be aware that its continuing underpayment of employee’s is a violation 9 subject to penalties.”) (internal quotations omitted). Defendant was not notified by the Labor 10 Commissioner or any court that it was subject to the California Labor Code, and has not been 11 previously cited by the Labor Commissioner for Labor Code violations. Therefore, any violations 12 prior to Plaintiff’s February 1, 2024 LWDA letter are not subject to heightened penalties. Gaines 13 Decl. at ¶ 29. See also Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services (2024) 15 Cal.5th 1056 (holding that 14 (1) an employer’s good faith, but mistaken, belief that it provided adequate wage statements 15 precluded an award of civil penalties for a knowing an intentional failure to provide accurate wage 16 statements; and (2) an employer’s reasonable, good faith basis for believing it was complying with 17 California wage and hour law precluded the employer from being held liable for civil penalties).

18 Furthermore, Defendant contends it acted within the requirements of California law at all 19 times as to all PAGA Settlement Members. In particular, Defendant contends that it paid all 20 employees all wages due. Defendant also contends that it maintains compliant meal and rest break 21 practices. Defendant further contends that not every pay period at issue involved an alleged Labor 22 Code violation subject to civil penalties. Moreover, Defendant maintained that even if the Court 23 did award penalties, the Court could and would substantially reduce the penalties awarded based 24 on the discretionary factors contained in Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) (“In any action by an aggrieved 25 employee . . . , a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified 26 by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would 27 result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”). Defendant also argued 28 that it had a valid and enforceable arbitration agreement, which could preclude the litigation of

1 PAGA claims on a representative basis altogether, given the United States Supreme Court’s recent 2 ruling in Viking River Cruises v. Moriana, 142 S.Ct. 734 (2022). Gaines Decl. at ¶ 30.

3 Based on these disputes, which had the potential to completely eliminate Plaintiff’s 4 recovery, the range of realistic “litigation outcomes” on the Plaintiff’s PAGA claim was defined 5 by a “maximum possible liability” amount of approximately $222,500, and a net-zero recovery 6 based on the defenses asserted by Defendant. Notwithstanding the existence of such issues, the 7 Settlement achieves a significant benefit – approximately 27% recovery of the maximum possible
8 liability. As such, this factor weighs very heavily in favor of resolution by way of the compromise 9 set forth in the Settlement Agreement. Furthermore, and simply stated, Defendant was generally 10 in compliant with the Labor Code such that the settlement value of the matter largely represents a 11 fair compromise on the maximum possibly liability. Gaines Decl., ¶ 31.

12 3. The Risk, Expense, and Complexity of Further Litigation Balances
13 Strongly in Favor of Approval of the Settlement

14 Approval of the Settlement Agreement is also appropriate in light of the risk, expense, and 15 complexity of further litigation. As discussed above, the Settlement Agreement takes into 16 consideration the specific factual and legal hurdles faced by Plaintiff in establishing Defendant’s 17 penalty-liability in this case, which again, may have resulted in a net-zero recovery. Any recovery 18 on these claims is not certain. And even when liability is found, PAGA claims are discretionary, 19 such that the Court could decline to award their full value. Some of Plaintiff’s claims are also 20 derivative, and as such, Plaintiff must prevail on their underlying Labor Code claims in order to 21 prevail on the derivative claims. These risks – when balanced with the fact that the settlement 22 achieved a very significant recovery (as demonstrated below), and that further litigation posed a 23 risk of diminishing such recovery by increasing litigation expenses – weigh strongly in favor of 24 settlement approval.

25 4. The Benefits Conferred by the Settlement Balance in Favor of Approval

26 The Settlement Agreement provides a significant monetary benefit that falls well within 27 “the range of an acceptable settlement” under the circumstances, which is the standard on which 28 the instant Settlement must be judged. As held by the Ninth Circuit, a settlement may be fair and

1 reasonable even where it only provides a fraction of what could have been obtained at trial:

2 The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or 3 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the 4 negotiators." Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d at 5 625 (emphasis in original). Thus, "the very essence of a settlement is 6 compromise, 'a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest 7 hopes.'" Id. at 624 (citations omitted). As the Second Circuit has 8 pointed out: "The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved." City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 455 & n.2 (2nd Cir. 1974).

9 See Linney, supra, 151 F.3d at 1242.

10 Here, after all deductions are made for administration and attorneys' fees and costs, 11 approximately $26,533.33 will be paid out, of which $19,900.00 (i.e. 75%) will go to the LWDA,
12 and $6,633.33 (i.e. 25%) will go to the PAGA Settlement Members, as required by Labor Code §
13 2699(i) ("civil penalties recovered by PAGA Settlement Members shall be distributed as follows:
14 75 percent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency . . . and 25 percent to the PAGA 15 Settlement Members."). See Settlement Agreement at ¶ 4.4.

16 This result is exceptional, as settlements of PAGA claims impacting thousands of 17 individuals have been approved as reasonable for amounts far less than the payment in this case.
18 See e.g., Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 41-42 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 19 2012) ("Defendant has agreed to pay $10,000 as civil penalties pursuant to the PAGA Of the 20 $10,000, 75 percent ($7,500) will be paid to the State of California, and the remainder ($2,500) will 21 benefit the class The Court finds that the PAGA payment is set at a reasonable amount, and it 22 shall be approved."); Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 21-22 (E.D.
23 Cal. Oct. 29, 2012) ("GTI agrees to allocate $10,000 to Plaintiff's PAGA claims, and will pay 24 $7,500 to the LWDA, and $2,500 to participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis. This comports 25 with settlement approval of PAGA awards in other cases. . . . Therefore, the Court will approve the 26 allocation of the Settlement to Plaintiff's PAGA claim."); Schiller v. David's Bridal, Inc., 2012 27 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80776, 40 (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) ("Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the 28 parties have agreed to pay $7,500 to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency . .

1 . . The Court finds that the PAGA Payment is set at a reasonable amount, and recommends that it
2 be approved.”); Gong-Chun v. Aetna Inc., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 96828, 45-46 (E.D. Cal. July 11, 3 2012) (“Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay $15,000 to the 4 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency The Court finds that the PAGA 5 payment is set at a reasonable amount, and it shall be approved.”).⁵

6 Thus, notwithstanding the existence of issues having the potential to completely eliminate 7 recovery on the PAGA claim, the Settlement Agreement not only achieves a recovery that exceeds 8 typical PAGA awards routinely approved by the courts, but it also recovers monies for PAGA
9 Settlement Members which they otherwise would not receive. As such, this factor balances 10 strongly in favor of approval of the Settlement.

11 5. The Scope of the Release is Narrowly Tailored

12 As discussed above, the California Supreme Court has concluded that in the context of 13 PAGA “the nonparty employees, because they were not given notice of the action or afforded any 14 opportunity to be heard, would not be bound by the judgment as to remedies other than civil 15 penalties.” See Arias, supra, 46 Cal. 4th, at 987. Thus, the scope of the limited release provided in 16 exchange for the foregoing consideration is limited to the civil penalties asserted in the Action 17 under Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. See Settlement Agreement at ¶ 5.1.

18 6. The Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel Favor Approval of the 19 Settlement

20 Plaintiff’s Counsel has a significant degree of experience in complex wage and hour
21 litigation. See Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5, 33-37, Gaines Decl. at Exhibit A. In the view of Plaintiff’s 22 Counsel, the benefit conferred by the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate under 23 the circumstances, as it reflects a reasoned compromise which takes into consideration the risks
24 inherent in this case, which had the potential to completely eliminate recovery. Gaines Decl., ¶¶

25 ⁵ Significantly, each of the above-cited actions involved a higher number of “PAGA Settlement 26 Members” than at issue here. See Franco, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 14 (“2,055 Class 27 Members were ultimately identified”); Garcia, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, at 12 (class 28 comprised of “approximately 1,869 individuals”); Schiller, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 80776, 16 29 (“3,327 California Class members were ultimately identified”); Gong-Chun, 2012 U.S. Dist.
30 LEXIS 96828, 18 (“2,051 California Class Members were ultimately identified”).

1 15-18, 28-31. As such, this factor balances in favor of approval of the Settlement.

2 7. The Extent of Discovery Completed And The Stage Of The Proceedings
3 Favor Approval of the Settlement

4 In evaluating this element, the Court should be mindful that “formal discovery is not a 5 necessary ticket to the bargaining table” (Linney, 151 F.3d at 1239), as the relevant consideration 6 is “whether ‘the parties have sufficient information to make an informed decision about 7 settlement.’” See Sandoval v. Roadlink United States Pac., Inc., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 130378, at 8 26 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 9, 2011).

9 Here, the extent of discovery conducted was sufficient to enable Plaintiff’s Counsel to 10 evaluate the strength and value of the claim for purposes of settlement. Gaines Decl. at ¶¶ 15-18.
11 As discussed above, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s investigation was sufficient to, among other things, 12 tabulate with precision the maximum number of alleged PAGA penalty violations at issue during 13 the PAGA Period and identify the total number of individuals falling within the definition of 14 “Aggrieved Employee” for the PAGA Period.

15 Based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s experience litigating wage and hour claims, such 16 investigation was sufficient to determine the potential value of the PAGA claim, and to evaluate 17 the strength of this claim for purposes of settlement. See Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5; 15-18, 27-31, 35-18 40.

19 8. Additional Factors Weigh In Favor Of Finding The Terms Of The Proposed 20 Settlement To Be Fair, Adequate, And Reasonable

21 In addition to the factors presented above, the proposed Settlement does not possess any 22 obvious deficiencies. The Settlement contemplates entry of an Order (submitted concurrently 23 herewith) which approves the Settlement. Settlement Agreement at ¶ 6.1.1 of the Settlement 24 Agreement and paragraph 8 of the Proposed Order authorize the Court to retain jurisdiction to 25 enforce the Settlement Agreement. This procedure effectively disposes of the Action in its entirety, 26 documents the Court’s approval of the Settlement as required by PAGA, and allows for Court 27 intervention if necessary to enforce the terms of the Settlement Agreement. In sum, under the 28 applicable standards for approval of PAGA settlements in California, the settlement in this case meets the standards for approval.

1 IV. PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL IS ENTITLED TO RECOVER THEIR 2 REASONABLE FEES AND COSTS

3 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, Plaintiff’s Counsel seeks attorneys’ fees of one-4 third (33-1/3%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (projected to be $20,000) and reimbursement of 5 litigation costs in the amount of $10,516.67, falling within the bounds authorized by the Settlement 6 Agreement. See Settlement Agreement at ¶ 4.2. Plaintiff’s Counsel’s entitlement to an award of 7 attorneys’ fees and costs is warranted on multiple independent grounds. Further, the amount of 8 fees requested falls well within the range of reasonableness under applicable standards, as the 9 amount requested constitutes a “percentage of the fund” deemed reasonable in similar wage and 10 hour settlements of this size and approved by California courts, which is not only warranted based 11 on the contingency risk Plaintiff’s Counsel has agreed to incur for the benefit of the State of 12 California and PAGA Settlement Members, but also based on the significant results achieved, as 13 the Settlement obtains a recovery substantially above the range approved as reasonable by 14 California state and federal courts. Based thereon, Plaintiff’s Counsel respectfully requests that the 15 Court enter an order approving the fee and cost amounts requested.

16 A. Plaintiff’s Counsel Is Entitled To Recover Their Reasonable Fees And 17 Costs As A Matter Of Right

18 Plaintiff’s Counsel is entitled to recover attorneys’ fees and costs under the “common fund” 19 doctrine as a matter of right. As held by the U.S. Supreme Court, “a lawyer who recovers a common 20 fund for the benefit of persons other than herself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s 21 fee from the fund as a whole.” See Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert (1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478.

22 Courts have long recognized the “common fund” or “common benefit” doctrine, under 23 which attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their 24 fees and costs to be paid out of the fund. Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (“Serrano III”), 25 quoting D’Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees’
26 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995) 27 15 Cal.3d 162, 167; see also Boeing Co., supra, 444 U.S. at 478; Mills v. Electric Auto-Lite Co.
28 (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392.

 The California Supreme Court has held that, “when a number of persons are entitled in

1 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a Plaintiff or Plaintiff for the benefit of all 2 results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such Plaintiff or Plaintiff may be awarded 3 attorneys' fees out of the fund." Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D'Amico, 11 Cal.3d
4 1; see also Boeing, supra, 444 U.S. at 478 ("[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit 5 of persons other than herself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as 6 a whole."); Mills, supra, 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common 7 fund approach in class actions). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter 8 Group) at § 17:172.3 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

9 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property
10 benefiting others as well as Plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court 11 has inherent equitable power to order Plaintiff's attorney fees paid 12 out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

13 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees 14 in traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a "certain or 15 easily calculable sum of money," use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. Serrano 16 III, 20 Cal. 3d at 35.

17 In Glendale City Employees' Association, supra, 15 Cal.3d at 341 fn.19, the California 18 Supreme Court upheld an attorney's fee award based on a percentage of the common benefit 19 obtained in a lawsuit by a city employee's association for retroactive wages:

20 It is not necessary to find this suit a proper class action in order to 21 uphold the portion of the judgment awarding counsel for Plaintiff 25
22 percent of all retroactive salaries and wages received. That award 23 may be sustained under the rule that a litigant who creates a fund in which others enjoy beneficial rights may require those beneficiaries to pay their fair share of the expense of litigation.

24 (internal citations omitted)

25 In Quinn, supra, 15 Cal.3d at 167, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who 26 expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits 27 may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." Similarly, in 28 City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, the California Supreme

1 Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied “consistently in California 2 when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.”

3 Numerous appellate courts have ruled similarly. See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 4 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 5 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court’s broad equitable 6 powers); Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 11 Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and 7 expenses properly awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); 8 Bank of America v. Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit 9 created by action compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts); Parker v. Los Angeles (1974) 10 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 567-568 (court upheld fee award equal to one-third of the damages to owners 11 of residential property in an inverse condemnation action).

12 Moreover, at least eight federal courts of appeal—the First, Third, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, 13 Tenth, Eleventh and the D.C. Circuit—have endorsed the “percentage fee” method for determining 14 reasonable attorneys’ fees in common benefit cases. See e.g., In re Sumitomo Copper Litig. 74 F.
15 Supp. 2d 393, 396-398 (S.D.N.Y. 1999) (describing the overwhelming weight of federal authority 16 in favor of the percentage fee method); see also, Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 17 Cal.App.4th 19, 30-31 (describing same).

18 Thus, as Plaintiff’s Counsel has expended a significant amount of time and money to secure 19 a $25,983.33 settlement fund for the LWDA and PAGA Settlement Members [Schiller, 2012 U.S.
20 Dist. LEXIS 80776, at 43 (“A common fund results when ‘the activities of the party awarded fees 21 have resulted in the preservation or recovery of a certain or easily calculable sum of money-out of 22 which sum or ‘fund’ the fees are to be paid.”)], and in doing so, has exclusively borne the risk of 23 loss for such expenditures of time and expenses (as the LWDA elected not to take the case after 24 receiving the PAGA Notice), Plaintiff’s Counsel is entitled to claim reasonable fees from that fund 25 under applicable precedent.⁶

26 _____
27 ⁶ Plaintiff’s Counsel is also entitled to recover attorney’s fees and costs as a matter of right under 28 the PAGA statute [Labor Code § 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”)], and under C.C.P. § 1021.5, as the

1 B. The Fee Amount Requested Is Reasonable

2 In addition to the forgoing, Plaintiff's Counsel's request for attorneys' fees in the amount 3 of one-third (33-1/3%) of the $60,000 Gross Settlement Amount falls well within the "zone of 4 reasonableness." It is important to highlight at the outset that the fee amount presently sought is 5 not extraordinary, but actually falls at the "average" fee deemed reasonable under California State 6 court authority, as it is recognized that "courts may award attorney's fees in the 30-40% range in 7 wage and hour class actions that result in recovery of a common fund under $10 million." See e.g., 8 Martin v. AmeriPride Servs., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, 23 (S.D. Cal. June 9, 2011). This fee 9 falls directly within that range.

10 Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel agreed to incur the contingency risk for the benefit of the 11 State of California (which elected not to take the case after receiving the PAGA Notices). Gaines 12 Decl., ¶¶ 32-40. The significant results achieved, and the underlying facts therefrom, justify 13 Plaintiff's Counsel's requested fee as reasonable under all applicable standards.

14 C. The Fee Amount Allocated by The Settlement Agreement Is Within the 15 Zone of Reasonableness Under the "Percentage of the Fund" Method

16 The amount of fees requested by Plaintiff's Counsel is reasonable based on standards 17 applicable to the "percentage of the fund" method. "When assessing whether the percentage 18 requested is reasonable, courts look to factors such as: (a) the results achieved; (b) the risk of 19 litigation; (c) the skill required, (d) the quality of work; (e) the contingent nature of the fee and the 20 financial burden; and (f) the awards made in similar cases." See Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, 21 Inc., 266 F.R.D. 482, 492 (E.D. Cal. 2010).

22 First, the results achieved by Plaintiff's Counsel are significant as Defendant have agreed 23 to pay $60,000 under the Settlement. This is a significant recovery given the risks associated with

24 _____
25 instant PAGA action was by definition "for the public benefit" and secured monetary awards for 26 approximately 300 PAGA Settlement Members. See e.g. Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package
27 System, Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 (2007) ("Estrada's personal motivation does not 28 diminish the fact that he pursued this public interest class action not only for himself but on behalf of a class comprised of FedEx's past and present drivers and ultimately obtained awards for 209 drivers. [] No more is required to satisfy the 'significant benefit,' 'public interest,' and 'large class of persons' requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.").

1 obtaining any recoverable penalties. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 15-18, 23-31. Further, the settlement of 2 PAGA claims impacting a comparable number of individuals have been approved as reasonable for 3 between $7,500.00 and $15,000.00. See Section III.B.4., supra.

4 Second, such results were achieved in the face of significant risks. As explained above, 5 Defendant maintained defenses to Plaintiff's PAGA claims that very well could have resulted in a 6 net-zero recovery at trial.

7 Third, notwithstanding this risk of loss, Plaintiff's Counsel undertook representation of the 8 instant PAGA claim for the benefit of the State of California on a contingency basis. See Gaines 9 Decl. at ¶¶ 35-37. This required Plaintiff's Counsel to personally assume the risk of nonpayment 10 in securing the substantial financial benefit the State of California stands to receive, and also 11 constitutes a "loan" on Plaintiff's Counsel services – both of which are factors that warrant fee 12 enhancement under applicable California Supreme Court authority:

13 One of the most common fee enhancers . . . is for contingency risk.
14 We reaffirmed the propriety of a contingency risk enhancement in 15 Ketchum: "The economic rationale for fee enhancement in 16 contingency cases has been explained as follows: 'A contingent fee 17 must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are 18 performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for 19 the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. The 20 implicit interest rate on such a loan is higher because the risk of 21 default (the loss of the case, which cancels the debt of the client to 22 the lawyer) is much higher than that of conventional loans.' (Posner, 23 Economic Analysis of Law (4th ed. 1992) pp. 534, 567.) 'A lawyer 24 who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services 25 is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only 26 for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent 27 counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.'"

28 Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579-580.

Finally, the percentage requested by Plaintiff's Counsel falls within a typical range, particularly in light of the modest settlement size. Martin, supra, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, 23 ("[C]ourts may award attorney's fees in the 30-40% range in wage and hour class actions that 24 result in recovery of a common fund under $10 million." See also Crandall v. U-Haul International, 25 Inc., LASC Case No. BC178775 (awarding attorneys' fees of 40% of a common fund).

Attorneys' fee awards in the amount sought here are well-established by California law and practice. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel's fee request is fair and reasonable, and is consistent with the awards in California and the Ninth Circuit. It is also reasonable given the history of this action and the results obtained.

D. While the Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees is Reasonable as a Percentage of the Common Fund, It is Further Confirmed by a Lodestar Cross-Check

The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 506, that "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases." Specifically, the Laffitte Court held:

The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

Id. at 503 (internal citation omitted); see also e.g., Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34 ("when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a Plaintiff or Plaintiff for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such Plaintiff or Plaintiff may be awarded attorney's fees out of the fund."); Serrano v. Unruh (1982) 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (in awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the benefit of all parties, the trial court acts within its equitable power to prevent the other parties' unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential-Bache Properties, Inc., 9 F.3d 513, 516 (6th Cir. 1993) (the percentage of the fund method for calculating attorneys' fees more accurately reflects the results achieved for the putative class than the lodestar method and "establishes reasonable expectations on the part of Plaintiff's attorneys as to their expected recovery; and it encourages early settlement, which avoids protracted litigation."); In re Rite Aid Corp. Securities Litigation, 396 F.3d 294, 300 (3d Cir. 2005) ("The percentage-of-recovery method is generally favored in common fund cases because it allows courts to award fees from the fund 'in a manner that rewards counsel for success and penalizes it for failure.'").

Laffitte also held that trial courts have discretion to assess reasonableness of fee awards with

1 tools such as the “lodestar cross-check,” whereby the trial court calculates class counsel’s lodestar 2 (hours worked multiplied by hourly rate) and determines whether the “lodestar multiplier” needed
3 to bring the lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503-
4 06. While a trial court may utilize the lodestar cross-check, it need not do so. Id. at 506 (“[w]e hold 5 further that trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee, as the 6 court did here; they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to 7 evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee.”)

8 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fee request of one-third (33-1/3%) of the Gross Settlement
9 Amount is fair and reasonable based on a percentage of the recovery, and as well as when confirmed 10 with a lodestar cross-check. First, “regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar 11 method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v.
12 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, fn. 11. This is also consistent with Plaintiff’s Counsel’s 13 experience in similar wage and hour class action matters. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5; 32-40. Thus, the 14 percentage sought by Plaintiff’s Counsel here is reasonable.

15 Next, as stated, under the lodestar method the court computes the “lodestar” amount by 16 multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by 17 their reasonable hourly rates. See, e.g., Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48. The court then enhances 18 this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty and 19 difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. Id. at 49; Ketchum
20 v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36; Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank (2001) 92 Cal.App.4th 819, 21 834 (“There is no hard-and-fast rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial 22 discretion to increase or decrease a lodestar calculation”).

23 Under California law, lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., 24 Chavez, supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of approximately 2.5); City of 25 Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (approving multiplier of ~2.34); Coalition
26 for L. County Planning etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (approving 27 multiplier of ~2.04). In representative actions such as this one, where the value of the benefit 28 conferred to the class “can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty,” a court may “adjust

1 the lodestar in comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is 2 reasonable and within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable 3 litigation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557. In doing so, “the court 4 determines, retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a contingent risk or required 5 extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate 6 the fair market for such services.” Id. at 556; see also Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 503-05.

7 In this case, Plaintiff’s Counsel is submitting an attorney fee request equaling $20,000.
8 Based on a projected final lodestar of $51,590, this yields a negative “multiplier” of 2.58 over the 9 $20,000 fee request. Gaines Decl., ¶ 28; Exhibit F to Gaines Decl. The billing rate used to compute 10 the lodestar is reasonable in view of the evidence submitted herewith. Gaines Decl., ¶¶ 2-5; 32-40; 11 Exhibit F.

12 Based thereon, and for the reasons discussed above (the significant risk in continuing to 13 litigate this matter and in seeking to obtain penalties based on the claims asserted; the risks and 14 burden involved in representation on a contingency basis; the knowledge and experience of 15 Plaintiff’s Counsel; and the value obtained by Plaintiff’s Counsel for the PAGA Settlement 16 Members), it is fair and reasonable to account for these risks and compensate Plaintiff’s Counsel 17 with a fee award of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, projected to be $20,000.

18 E. Plaintiff’s Counsel’s Request for Costs is Reasonable

19 In the course of this litigation, Plaintiff’s Counsel incurred out-of-pocket costs of 20 $10,516.67. See Gaines Decl. at ¶ 41, Exhibit G. As demonstrated in the Gaines Declaration 21 submitted herewith, the incurred costs included filing fees, service fees, future costs, postage, expert 22 fees, and mediation fees. Id. Such costs are appropriate for cost reimbursement in these types of 23 cases. See e.g., In re United Energy Corp. Sec. Litig. (C.D. Cal. 1989) 1989 WL 7321 1, *6 (C.D.
24 Cal. 1989) (quoting Newberg, Attorney Fee Awards, § 2.19 (1987)); see also, In re GNC 25 Shareholder Litigation 668 F.Supp. 450, 452 (W.D. Pa. 1987).

26 The costs incurred by Plaintiff’s Counsel in this litigation benefited Plaintiff, PAGA 27 Settlement Members, and the State. Plaintiff’s cost request is reasonable and represents the costs 28 that Plaintiff’s Counsel was required to incur to prosecute this action and should therefore be

1 granted.

2 V. CONCLUSION

3 As shown herein, the Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate and reasonable, as it represents 4 a reasoned compromise obtained through arms-length negotiations. For all the reasons set forth 5 above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court, as set forth in the proposed Order Approving 6 Settlement, do the following:

7 1. Grant approval of the Settlement Agreement, pursuant to California Labor Code § 8 2699, subpart s;

9 2. Appoint Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions as the Settlement
10 Administrator and approve its administration fees up to $2,950 for payment out of the Gross 11 Settlement Amount;

12 3. Approve the award of attorneys' fees of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount 13 (projected to be $20,000), and costs of $10,516.67 to Plaintiff's Counsel, payment of which shall 14 come from the Gross Settlement Amount;

15 4. Direct disbursement of the Net Settlement Fund to the LWDA and all PAGA 16 Settlement Members as provided for in the Settlement Agreement; and 17 5. Dismiss the Action with prejudice, subject to the Court's retention of jurisdiction 18 pursuant to California Labor Code, including section 664.6 and California Rules of Court 3.769(h).
