MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Shahista Khan (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered with Bay Area Community Health (“Defendant”) (Plaintiff and Defendant are collectively herein referred to as the “Parties”).

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court conditionally certify the below-defined class for settlement purposes only, under Code of Civil Procedure section 382; appoint Class Counsel¹ and Plaintiff as the Class Representative; preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, including the Private Attorney General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) portion of the Settlement, which allocates $50,000.00 to penalties pursuant to the PAGA; direct that the Class Notice be disseminated to the Class; and schedule a hearing for Final Approval of the Settlement and request for Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, and the Class Representative Service Payment.

The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary settlement of $750,000.00 for approximately 916 Class Members in compromise of disputed claims for unpaid wages and penalties. This Court should grant this Motion for the following reasons: (1) the Class meets the requirements for conditional class certification for settlement purposes only under of Code of Civil Procedure section 382; (2) the Settlement warrants preliminary approval based on all indicia for fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy; (3) Plaintiff is well-suited to serve as adequate Class Representative; (4) Plaintiff’s attorneys are experienced and highly-qualified to serve as Class Counsel; (5) the proposed Class Notice procedures fully comport with due process and adequately apprise Class Members of their rights; (6) a final fairness hearing must be scheduled to allow Class Members an opportunity to be heard regarding the Settlement and to give it finality; and (7) the benefit provided by the proposed PAGA settlement is substantial and falls within the range of reasonableness.

Accordingly, for the reasons detailed below, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court

grant this Motion in its entirety and preliminarily approve the Settlement.

II. RELEVANT BACKGROUND

A. Procedural History

On February 9, 2024, Plaintiff commenced the Action by filing a class action complaint against Bay Area Community Health (“Defendant”) for various violations of the California Labor Code on an individual and class-wide basis. Plaintiff gave timely written notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant that Plaintiff also intended to proceed with a representative action under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), (LWDA-CM-1010243-24). (Manus Decl., ¶ 2.)

On April 15, 2024, after the 65-day statutory period passed, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint (“FAC”), adding a claim for civil penalties under PAGA, Labor Code §2698, et seq. On June 12, 2024, Defendant filed a Motion to Strike Plaintiff’s First Amended Class Action Complaint and, on July 12, 2024, this Honorable Court partially granted Defendant’s Motion to Strike and granted Plaintiff leave to amend the First Amended Complaint. (Manus Decl., ¶ 3.)

On August 5, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”). The SAC includes the following causes of action against Defendant for: (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages and for All Hours Worked; (2) Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability, Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest-Break Liability, Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226(a); (6) Violation of Labor Code § 221; (7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; (8) Violation of Labor Code § 203; (9) Failure to Maintain Records Required under Labor Code §§ 1174, 1174.5; (10) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenditures in Violation of Labor Code § 2802); (11) Violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.; and (12) Penalties under PAGA, Labor Code § 2698, et seq. The SAC is the Operative Complaint. (Manus Decl., ¶ 4.)

Plaintiff contends, via the Operative Complaint, that Defendant violated California’s wage and hour laws by failing to pay all wages due including all minimum wages, overtime wages, failing to provide all meal periods and rest periods, failing to all reimburse work

1 expenses, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failing to timely pay final wages
2 due during and upon separation of employment, and thereby also violating California Business &
3 Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., and incurring penalties under PAGA. Defendant denies
4 that they engaged in any misconduct in connection with Defendant's wage-and-hour practices
5 and deny that they have any liability or engaged in wrongdoing of any kind associated with the 6 claims alleged in the Operative Complaint. Defendant further contends that they have made
7 substantial good faith efforts to comply at all times with federal, state, and local wage-and-hour
8 laws (Id. at ¶ 5.) Defendant further contends that the Action is not appropriate for class or 9 representative treatment, other than for the limited purpose of effectuating the resolution of the 10 Action. The Settlement is not a concession or admission by Defendant of any fault, wrongdoing
11 or liability whatsoever. (Id.)

12 B. Mediation

13 On July 31, 2025, the Parties participated in a mediation presided over by respected wage
14 and hour class action mediator Todd Smith, Esq. and were able to reach an agreement on general
15 settlement terms. The Parties, recognizing the burdens and risks of continuing with the litigation, 16 entered into the Settlement Agreement to resolve all claims in the Operative Complaint (Id. at ¶ 17 6.)

18 Defendant will pay the Gross Settlement Amount of $750,000.00, exclusive of the 19 employer's portion of payroll taxes and fees (i.e. Defendant will pay the employer-side payroll 20 taxes on the wages portion separately from the Gross Settlement Amount). It shall be an opt-out 21 class, there is no claim form requirement, and no residual will revert to Defendant. Due to 22 Defendant's financial condition, the Parties negotiated that Defendant will pay the Settlement 23 according to the following plan: 1) Defendant will deposit the first payment, in the amount of 24 $500,000 with the Settlement Administrator within thirty (30) days after the final approval order
25 (the "First Payment"). 2) The remaining payments shall be made over twelve (12) months in the 26 amount of $20,833.33 per month (the "Remaining Payments"), starting the first of the month
27 following the First Payment and continuing on the first of the month thereafter.

28 The Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 40% of maximum potential value of the underlying Labor Code claims (valued at $1,871,438.20) and approximately 24% of the overall value including PAGA penalties, which demonstrates that the settlement is fair and reasonable. Thus, the Settlement represents a fair and reasonable recovery for the claims in the Operative Complaint. (Id. at ¶¶ 7, 33.)

C. Settlement Agreement and Accompanying Documents

The Settlement Agreement is attached to the Declaration of Marta Manus as Exhibit 1 with the Class Notice is attached thereto as Exhibit A. The Settlement proposes the following Class: All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period who did not sign a release or severance agreement during the Class Period (“Class Members”). Class Period is defined as the period from December 18, 2021, through March 19, 2026.” (Id. at ¶ 14, Ex. 1, pp. 1 - 2.)

There are a total of approximately 90,183 Workweeks worked by approximately 916 Class Members during the Class Period, resulting in a recovery of an estimated $4.44 per Workweek (estimated NSA of $400,000.00 divided by 90,183 Workweeks). Each Class Member will receive an average Individual Settlement Award of approximately $436.68 (estimated NSA of $400,000.00 divided by 916 Class Members), with the highest estimated Individual Settlement Award of approximately $1,021.20 (total weeks in the Class Period (230) multiplied by $4.44). (Manus Decl., ¶ 9.)

Additional proposed disbursements from the GSA are as follows:

Class Counsels’ Fees	Up to $250,000 (1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount)
Class Counsels’ costs for actual expenses incurred	Estimated not to exceed $30,000
Settlement Administration Costs	Up to $10,000
Class Representative Service Payment	Up to $15,000 to Plaintiff Shahista Khan
PAGA Penalties	$50,000 ($37,500 to LWDA; $12,500 to Aggrieved Employees)

(Id.)

The Parties have agreed on Phoenix Class Action Administrators (“Phoenix” or “ Settlement Administrator”) as the Settlement Administrator and respectfully request that this Court appoint Phoenix to handle the claims administration procedures, including the Class Notice procedure, including posting relevant case-related settlement documents, including the judgment on Phoenix’s website. (Manus Decl., ¶ 10; Exhibit 2 to the Manus Decl. [Declaration of Jodey Lawrence, ¶ 17].)

D. The Class Notice Provides Adequate Notice to Class Members

To be deemed proper, a notice must provide the Class Members with sufficient information to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314. The notice must apprise the Class Members of the pendency of the action, reasonably convey information regarding the settlement and the Class Members’ rights, entitlements, and obligations, and afford Class Members the opportunity to present their objections. Id.

The proposed Class Notice provides all the information a reasonable person would need to make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will notify all Class Members of the terms of the settlement, of its effect on their rights, of their options as Class Members (i.e., participate, object, opt-out, and dispute Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods), and procedures for exercising those options. (Manus Decl. ¶ 35; see Class Notice, Exhibit A to Exhibit 1 thereto).

The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether it has “a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members.” Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974. Here, the Class Notice will be sent via First-Class U.S. mail to each Class Member at their addresses from Defendant’s records. (Manus Decl., Ex. 1, pp. 16-17.) If any Class Notices are returned undeliverable without a forwarding address, the Administrator will use the national change of address database and perform a skip trace to locate the Class Member and mail a new Class Notice to the updated address. (Id.) The Parties have confirmed that Class Notice will be translated into Spanish in addition to English. (Manus Decl., ¶ 35.)

The Class Notice should be approved as the best and most practicable way to ensure the greatest possible number of Class Members will receive notice. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court approve the Class Notice to be disseminated to the Class consistent with the manner and timing as set forth in this Memorandum and the Parties' Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 37.)

III. CONDITIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS

The proposed Settlement seeks conditional certification of a Class. The certification of the Class is essential to the Settlement. California public policy favors the use of the class action device. (Richmond v. Dart Industries (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 469.) California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 authorizes class suits in California when “the questions is one of the common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the courts, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” To obtain certification, a party must establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class members. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435.) The “community of interest” requirement depends on three factors: (1) whether common issues of law or fact predominate; (2) whether the Class Representative has claims that are typical of the class; and (3) whether the Class Representative will adequately represent the class. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at p. 470.)

Because the policy of favoring use of class actions is so strong, any doubts as to the appropriateness of class treatment must be resolved in favor of certification, subject to later modification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-475.) Except in extraordinary circumstances, which are not present here, the trial court does not weigh the merits of the claims in ruling on a motion for class certification. (Linder, supra, 23 Cal.4th at p. 443.)

Courts should apply a lesser standard of scrutiny when reviewing certification of a class for settlement than when determining the propriety of class certification for litigation. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807, n.19.) This reduced standard reflects the fact that a class settlement foregoes further litigation and thus does not require that Plaintiff prove that the class-wide prosecution of the case would be manageable at trial. (Ibid.)

A. The Proposed Class is Ascertainable and Numerous.

For a class to exist, the class description must be sufficiently definite so that it is administratively feasible for the court to determine whether a particular individual is a member

1 of the proposed class by reference to objective criteria. (Clothesrigger, Inc. V. GTE Corp. (1987)
2 191 Cal.App.3d 605, 617.) Further, the class must contain enough members that joinder of all
3 individuals is impractical. (Code Civ. Proc. § 382; see, e.g., Hebbard v. Colgrove (1972) 28
4 Cal.App.3d 1017, 1030 [class of 28 members held sufficient to maintain a class action].)

5 Here, the Class definition is sufficiently specific to enable potential Class Members and 6 the Court to identify the Class Members, all of whom have indeed been identified by 7 Defendant's employment and payroll records. There are approximately 916 Class Members,
8 which is sufficient to satisfy numerosity requirements. (Manus Decl., ¶ 14, Ex. 1, p. 20.)

9 B. Common Issues of Law or Fact Predominate

10 In assessing whether common issues predominate over individual issues, it is not 11 necessary that the class members' claims, or their circumstances be identical. Rather, the test of 12 predominance is whether the common issues would be "the principal issues in any individual 13 action, both in terms of time to be expended in their proof and of their importance, [so] that if a 14 class suit were not permitted, a multiplicity of legal actions dealing with identical basic issues 15 would be required in order to permit recovery by each [absent class member]." (Vasquez v.
16 Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, 810; see, e.g., Los Angeles Fire & Police Protective League
17 v. City of Los Angeles (1972) 23 Cal.App.3d 67, 74 [in an overtime action, the fact that there
18 were 19 different subgroups of employees did not preclude finding that common issues
19 predominated].)

20 Common questions of law and fact predominate here, as the main issues involve the 21 legality of Defendant's employment policies regarding Plaintiff's claims for Defendant's alleged 22 failure to pay all wages due including all minimum wages, overtime wages, failure to provide all 23 meal periods and rest periods, failure to reimburse all work-related expenses, failing to provide 24 accurate itemized wage statements, failure to timely pay final wages due during and upon
25 separation of employment, and violation of California Business & Professions Code sections
26 17200, et seq. Whether each Class Member might be required to ultimately justify an individual 27 claim does not preclude maintenance of a class action. (Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232, 28 238.)

1 Plaintiff asserts that these are all policy questions that are uniform and can be proven by 2 common objective evidence. The evidence to support these claims on a class wide basis consists
3 largely of Defendant's policies, payroll records, time records and itemized wage statements
4 given to Defendant's non-exempt employees. (Manus Decl., ¶ 14.)

5 C. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Class Claims

6 Typicality means that the class representative's claims are similar to those of the class
7 members. The interests of a class representative need not be identical to those of other class
8 members; a class representative must simply be similarly situated. (B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v.
9 Owens-Illinois, Inc. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347; Classen v. Weller (1983) 145
10 Cal.App.3d 27, 46.)

11 Here, the proposed Class Representative worked for Defendant as a non-exempt
12 employee under Defendant's uniform employment policies applicable to all non-exempt
13 employees during the Class Period. Plaintiff was subject to the same employment policies and 14 practices as other Class Members. Accordingly, Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of other
15 Class Members. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 15-16.)

16 D. Adequacy of Representation

17 The requirement that a plaintiff adequately represent the class is met by fulfilling two 18 conditions: (1) the named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the 19 pending litigation; and (2) there are no disabling conflicts of interest between the class
20 representative and the class. (McGhee v. Bank of America (1976) 60 Cal. App. 3d 442, 450.)

21 Here, the firm representing the Plaintiff has a great deal of experience in wage and hour
22 class action litigation and has been approved as Class Counsel in numerous other wage and hour
23 class actions. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 38-43.)

24 The Class Representative has agreed to act as such and understand her responsibilities.
25 (Declaration of Shahista Khan ("Khan Decl."), ¶¶ 5-6, filed herewith.) The Class Representative
26 has no claims or other interests that are antagonistic to the Class. (Manus Decl., ¶ 16.)

27 IV. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

28 Any settlement of class litigation must be reviewed and approved by the court. (Luckey v.

1 Superior Court (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 81, 93.) When a class action is provisionally settled prior
2 to class certification, certification and settlement approval occur simultaneously. (Ibid.)

3 This is done in two steps: (1) a preliminary review by the trial court; and (2) a final 4 review after notice has been distributed to the class members for their comment or objections.
5 (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.) First, a party to the settlement moves for “preliminary approval
6 of the settlement.” (Id. at subd. (c).) The court then approves or denies “certification of a
7 provisional settlement class.” (Id. at subd. (d).) If preliminary approval is granted, the court sets a
8 final approval hearing and provides for notice to be given to the class. (Id. at subd. (e).)

9 At the final approval hearing, “the court must conduct an inquiry into the fairness of the 10 proposed settlement.” (Id. at subd. (g).) The court enters judgment thereon if it finds the 11 settlement agreement to be fair. (Id. at subd. (h).)

12 In determining whether to preliminarily approve a settlement, the court should consider 13 “the strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 14 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 15 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience
16 and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class
17 members to the proposed settlement.” (Ibid.) The court must also take into consideration “the 18 most important factor [which] is the strength of the case for the Plaintiff on the merits, balanced
19 against the amount offered in settlement.” (Kullar v. Footlocker Retail Inc. (2008) 168
20 Cal.App.4th 116, 118)

21 The Settlement for each participating Class Member is fair, reasonable, and adequate
22 given the inherent risk of litigation, the risk relative to trial, and the costs of litigation. (Manus
23 Decl., ¶¶ 21-22.) The Settlement represents a fair and reasonable value of all claims. (Id. at ¶¶ 24 23-34.) There is no claim form required so all Class Members will be paid unless they opt out,
25 and there is no reversion to Defendant. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

26 Finally, the only governmental involvement in this case is the existence of a PAGA
27 claim, and Plaintiff will notify the LWDA of this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 46.)

28 ///

1 A. The Presumption of Fairness

2 “[A] presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-3 length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 4 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation.” (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 5 1801.) Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement unless 6 evidence to the contrary is offered. In other words, there is a presumption that the negotiations
7 were conducted in good faith. (Id. at 1802.)

8 Here, the Settlement was reached through arm’s-length negotiation with an experienced,
9 highly regarded neutral mediator, Todd Smith, Esq. Before advance of mediation, Class Counsel
10 conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of, and applicable law to, the Action. Before 11 advance of mediation, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of, and 12 applicable law to, the Action. Plaintiff’s counsel provided Defendant’s counsel with a 13 comprehensive listing of informal discovery items required to engage in a constructive
14 mediation. Defendant provided a sampling of time and payroll data for 35% Class Members.
15 Prior to mediation, Plaintiff therefore obtained and analyzed the production of payroll data for 16 Class Members and the necessary policy documents through informal discovery to properly
17 evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and engage in meaningful settlement
18 discussions. Plaintiff hired an expert, Berger Consulting Group – Economic Data Analysts, to 19 prepare damage calculations and an exposure analysis for the mediation (Manus Decl., ¶ 18.)

20 The Settlement here provides pro rata distribution to Class Members based upon their 21 number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period. Accordingly, the Settlement treats the 22 Class Members equitably, and the proposed distribution plan supports preliminary approval.
23 (Manus Decl., ¶ 19, Ex. 1, p. 7.)

24 Based on that experience, the information produced by Defendant, and the expert’s
25 calculations, Class Counsel was able to negotiate a substantial recovery for the Class Members.

26 B. Reasonable Based on Objective Evidence

27 The Settlement that has been reached, subject to this Court’s approval, is the product of 28 tremendous effort and a great deal of expense by the Parties and their Counsel. Class Counsel are

1 knowledgeable about and have done extensive research with respect to the applicable law and
2 potential defenses to the claims of the Class Members. Such investigation included the exchange
3 of information and documents through extensive informal discovery. Among other things, Class
4 Counsel reviewed all relevant policy documents and obtained a sampling of time and payroll
5 data for 35% Class Members. The Parties' investigation also included preparing for and 6 attending a full day of mediation with an experienced mediator. The Parties investigated relevant
7 law as applied to the facts of the case, potential defenses, and damages claimed by Plaintiff on 8 behalf of herself, the Class, and the other allegedly Aggrieved Employees. (Manus Decl., ¶ 20.)

9 Based on the documents and information provided by Defendant and their own
10 independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel and Plaintiff is of the opinion that the 11 settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set forth in this Settlement is 12 fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interest of the Class Members in light of all 13 known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay and uncertainty associated 14 with litigation, various defenses asserted by Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues.
15 (Id. at ¶ 21.)

16 The Settlement amount is, of course, a compromise figure. Plaintiff considered the risks
17 that the Class would not be certified, the risks related to proof of Plaintiff's claims, and the 18 strengths and weaknesses of Defendant's other defenses. Plaintiff also considered the possibility 19 that if a settlement were reached after additional years of litigation, the great expenses and 20 attorneys' fees of litigation would reduce the amount of funds available to Class Members for 21 settlement. Furthermore, Plaintiff took into consideration the time delay and financial 22 repercussions of liability trials, numerous damages trials, and the possibility of an appeal by 23 Defendant. (Id. at ¶ 22.)

24 For the Class claims, the Parties in this matter have agreed to the amount of $750,000.00,²
25 exclusive of the employer's portion of payroll taxes and fees, on a class-wide basis, with no 26

27 ² $50,000.00 of the $750,000.00 Gross Settlement Amount is apportioned to the PAGA civil 28 penalties claim. (Manus Decl., ¶ 9.)

claim form requirement and no residual to revert to Defendant. (Manus Decl., ¶ 7.) Based on Plaintiff's expert's analysis for mediation, this case had a reasonable value of approximately $1,871,438.20 for the underlying Labor Code claims. After considering the sharply disputed factual and legal issues involved in the lawsuit, the risks attending further prosecution, and the substantial benefits to be received under the compromise and settlement of the action, Class Counsel are of the opinion that settlement is in the best interests of the Class and is fair and reasonable. Accordingly, this case had a reasonable value of approximately $1,871,438.20 for the underlying Labor Code claims. After considering the sharply disputed factual and legal issues involved in the lawsuit, the risks attending further prosecution, and the substantial benefits to be received under the compromise and settlement of the action, Class Counsel are of the opinion that settlement is in the best interests of the Class and is fair and reasonable. The Gross Settlement Amount of $750,000.00 represents approximately 40% of the maximum potential value of the underlying Labor Code claims (valued at $1,871,438.20) and approximately 24% of the overall value including PAGA penalties (total case value of $3,122,128.20 ($1,871,438.20 + $1,250,960.00), which is an exceptional result. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 8, 33-34.)

C. Limited Standing to Object to Proposed Settlement

Non-settling parties or third parties sometimes attempt to object to settlements, but the right of non-settling parties to object even at the final settlement approval hearing, let alone the preliminary approval hearing, is quite limited. Generally, only class members have standing to object to a proposed settlement. "Beginning from the unassailable premise that settlements are to be encouraged, it follows that to routinely allow non-Class Members to inject their concerns via objection at the settlement stage would tend to frustrate this goal." (Gould v. Alleco, Inc. (4th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 281, 284.) Accordingly, any non-parties are not allowed to object to this proposed Settlement.

V. THE PAGA PORTION IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. (Labor Code § 2699, subd. (l)(2) ["The superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any civil action pursuant to this part"].) However, a PAGA claim is not considered a class action but a law enforcement

1 action, and, accordingly, the settlement thereof does not have to meet the requirements of a class
2 action. (See Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980-988 [affirming lower court’s
3 holding that “plaintiff need not satisfy class action requirements” to assert a PAGA claim];
4 Gutilla v. Aerotek, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Mar. 22, 2017) No. 115CV00191DADBAM, 2017 WL
5 2729864, at *3; Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013) 2013 WL 1490667, at *15.)
6 A court reviewing a PAGA settlement need only “ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to 7 those affected.” (Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 549.)

8 Here, the Parties allocate $50,000 for resolution of Plaintiff’s PAGA claims. Of this 9 amount, 25%, or $12,500.00, will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees. (Manus Decl., ¶ 31, 10 Ex. 1, p. 9.)

11 Released PAGA Claims is limited to those claims that occurred during the PAGA Period
12 (defined as the period from February 9, 2023, through March 19, 2026) based on the facts
13 alleged in the Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice. (Manus Decl. ¶ 31, Ex. 1, p. 3.) The amount of PAGA
14 Penalties allocated here provides a comparable, and at times, larger allocation to the LWDA than 15 those approved in other settlements. (See, e.g., Viceral v. Mistras Grp. Inc. (N.D. Cal. Oct. 11, 16 2016, No. 15-CV-02198-EMC) 2016 WL 5907869, at *8 [approving an allocation of $20,000 of 17 a $6,000,000 settlement to the PAGA civil penalties]); In re Uber FCRA Litig. (N.D. Cal. June 18 29, 2017, No. 14-CV-05200) 2017 WL 2806698, at *2 [approving an allocation of $7,500 of a 19 $7,500,000 settlement to the PAGA civil penalties].)

20 The proposed PAGA Penalties portion of the Settlement is both just and in the public’s
21 interest. The Parties believe and agree that the settlement provides for a fair, adequate, and 22 reasonable resolution of the representative PAGA claim in the Operative Complaint. The Parties
23 also believe that the proposed Settlement is to the advantage of the State of California and the 24 Aggrieved Employees when considering the time and expense necessary to complete protracted 25 litigation which, regardless of the verdict, would undoubtedly be subject to further significant 26 delay and expense pending possible appeals. Moreover, the Settlement provides a substantial
27 sum to the State. It also provides a proportional sum to each Aggrieved Employee on a pro-rata
28 basis based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods they worked during the PAGA Period. (Manus Decl., ¶ 32, Ex. 1, p. 3.) Furthermore, public policy strongly favors the settlement of litigation. (Consumer Advoc. Grp., Inc. v. Kintetsu Enterprises of Am. (2006) 141 Cal.App.4th 46, 63.)

The benefit provided by the proposed PAGA Penalties allocation of the Settlement is substantial and easily falls within the range of reasonableness. The Settlement fulfills the purposes of the PAGA, and, by any measure, is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

VI. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT IS REASONABLE

“At the conclusion of a class action, the class representatives are eligible for a special payment in recognition of their service to the class.” 5 Newberg on Class Actions § 17:1 (5th ed.). Plaintiff requests a reasonable Class Representative Service Award for his efforts and initiative in bringing and helping to prosecute the claims in the Operative Complaint.

As an initial matter, Plaintiff’s courage in proceeding with their class-wide claims should not be underestimated. By suing Defendant, Plaintiff increased her risk of retaliation by prospective employers, who must choose between an applicant who has never sued a prior employer and one who has. (Khan Decl. ¶ 12.)

Plaintiff has devoted a substantial amount of time to helping Class Counsel effectively develop and prosecute this action at every stage of the litigation. (Manus Decl., ¶ 45; Khan Decl., ¶¶ 3, 9-10.) Both before and after filing, Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel to discuss every aspect of this case. Plaintiff has provided Class Counsel with information about Defendant, reviewed documents, consulted Class Counsel throughout the litigation, participated in the mediation process, and reviewed and signed the settlement agreement. (Khan Decl., ¶¶ 9-10.)

Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel detailing his knowledge of Defendant’s practices. Plaintiff has diligently, adequately, and fairly represented the Class Members, and has not placed his interests above any member of the putative Class. This sort of payment to a class representative has been a common feature of settlements negotiated by Class Counsel and routinely approved by courts. The Class Representative Service Payment of $15,000.00 to the named Plaintiff is fair and reasonable. (Manus Decl., ¶ 45; Khan Decl., ¶¶ 17-18.)

VII. THE STIPULATED AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

Class Counsel respectfully requests, without opposition from Defendant, an award of attorneys' fees of no more than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($250,000.00), one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount and reasonable litigation costs, , subject to approval by the Court. (Manus Decl. ¶ 44, Ex. 1 p 1.)

Class Counsel submits it has the requisite experience, knowledge, and resources to serve as Class Counsel and to zealously represent the Class. (Manus Decl., ¶¶ 38-43). Class Counsel has incurred substantial hours in prosecuting this action on a contingency basis and will not receive any compensation for their efforts until recovery is obtained for the Class. In addition, Class Counsels' efforts in reaching the Settlement on behalf of the Class will confer a significant benefit to the Class. As such, the requested award of attorneys' fees and costs is reasonable.

VIII. REQUESTED RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, do the following:

1. Conditionally certify, for settlement purposes only, a Class consisting of "all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period who did not sign a release or severance agreement during the Class Period ("Class Members"). Class Period is defined as the period from December 18, 2021, through March 19, 2026."
2. Preliminarily appoint Alvin B. Lindsay, Enoch J. Kim, Marta Manus, and the other attorneys of D.Law, Inc. as Class Counsel;
3. Preliminarily appoint Plaintiff Shahista Khan as the Class Representative;
4. Order preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement") on a class-wide basis, direct that the Class Notice to be mailed to the Class, and set a hearing for final review of the proposed Settlement;
5. Preliminarily appoint Phoenix Class Action Administrators as the Settlement

1 Administrator to handle the Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement
2 and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval (“Class Notice”) and claims
3 administration procedures as set forth in the Settlement; and

4 6. Preliminarily approve the allocation of PAGA Penalties pursuant to the 5 Settlement.

6 7. CONCLUSION

7 Based upon the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant this motion
8 for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and enter the proposed Order.
