1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 On March 28, 2024, Plaintiff RAMON CERVANTES (hereinafter “Plaintiff” or “Class
4 Representative”) filed a class action complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, 5 Sacramento County, Case No. 24CV005979 against Defendant KJAX Inc. (“Defendant”).
6 Plaintiff alleged causes of action against Defendant for failing to pay minimum wages, overtime 7 wages, failing to provide meal periods, failing to provide rest periods, failing to provide accurate 8 itemized wage statements, failing to timely provide wages including wages due upon termination, 9 failing to maintain accurate records, and failing to reimburse business expenses.

10 Simultaneously, on March 28, 2024, Plaintiff gave notice to the Labor Workforce 11 Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant that Plaintiff intended to proceed with a 12 representative action under the Private Attorney’s General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”). On June 4, 13 2024, after the 65 day statutory period passed, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint to add a 14 cause of action for Penalties under PAGA.

15 Pursuant to the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or 16 “Settlement Agreement”), filed concurrently herewith, the class consists of “all persons employed 17 by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for 18 Defendant during the Class Period.” The Class Period means the period from March 28, 2020, to 19 May 17, 2025. After engaging in substantial investigation and extensive negotiations with the 20 assistance of a respected third-party neutral, Jason Marsili, the parties have agreed to settle all 21 claims alleged in the lawsuit on a class-wide non-reversionary basis for One Hundred Fifty 22 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($150,000.00), inclusive of all fees and costs. All 198 Class 23 Members shall receive a settlement share unless they opt out.

24 The proposed settlement reflected in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and 25 adequate, and in the best interests of the Class. Consequently, Plaintiff, with the consent of 26 Defendant, hereby moves this Court for an order: (1) granting preliminary approval of the 27 proposed class action settlement, as embodied in the Settlement Agreement filed concurrently 28 herewith; (2) approving the Notice of Settlement to be sent to Class Members; and (3) setting a

1 hearing for final approval of the class action settlement.

2 II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

3 A. Procedural History

4 On March 28, 2024, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Superior Court of the 5 State of California, Sacramento County, Case No. 24CV005979 against Defendant alleging 6 causes of action against Defendant for failing to pay minimum wages, overtime wages, failing to 7 provide meal periods, failing to provide rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage 8 statements, failing to timely provide wages including wages due upon termination, failing to 9 maintain accurate records, and failing to reimburse business expenses. (Declaration of Natalie 10 Haritounian (“Haritounian Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith, ¶ 10.)

11 Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing, 12 including by requiring off the clock work, unlawfully rounding to their detriment, failing to 13 provide meal and rest breaks, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to timely pay 14 wages including final wages, failing to maintain accurate records, and failing to reimburse 15 necessary business expenses. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 11.)

16 On March 28, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a PAGA Notice letter to the LWDA and served 17 Defendant. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 12.) The LWDA did not express an interest in investigating 18 Plaintiff claims within the 65 day period. (Id.) Therefore, on June 4, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First 19 Amended Complaint adding a cause of action for penalties under the PAGA. (Id.) The First 20 Amended Complaint is the operative complaint.

21 B. Investigation

22 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel investigated and researched the facts and 23 circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and the law applicable thereto. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 24 13.) This required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, as 25 well as preliminary research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After 26 conducting their initial investigation, Class Counsel determined that Plaintiff’s claims were well-27 suited for class and representative action adjudication owing to what appeared to be a common 28 course of conduct affecting a similarly situated group of employees. (Id.)

1 After filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and 2 claims giving rise to the action, including: (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and 3 conferring with defense counsel about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing a sampling of time and 4 pay records as well as employment handbooks, Plaintiff's personnel files, relevant policies and 5 other documentation; (3) researching the applicable law and potential defenses; (4) constructing 6 damage models based on interpretations of California law; and (5) reviewing information 7 provided by Defendant at the mediation. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 14.) The Class enumerated in this 8 action is ascertainable because the Class Members may be readily identified by reference to 9 Defendant's records. (Id.) Defendant has agreed to share the information from these records with 10 the Settlement Administrator in order to identify and contact the Class Members. (Id.) There are 11 approximately 198 total Class Members. (Id.)

12 Defendant, for their part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, 13 and the propriety of class certification. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 15.) After Class Counsel analyzed 14 the relevant documents and other gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was 15 appropriate for resolution via mediation. (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, 16 the parties elected to mediate Plaintiff's claims and explore the possibility of settlement. (Id.)

17 C. Settlement Efforts

18 On March 17, 2025, the parties mediated this case with Jason Marsili, a respected and 19 highly experienced mediator in wage and hour class actions. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 16.) During 20 mediation, Plaintiff's and Defendant's counsel discussed all aspects of the case, including the 21 risks of litigation and the risks to both parties of proceeding with a motion for class certification 22 as well as the law relating to unpaid wages, meal periods, rest periods, wage statements, and final 23 pay. (Id.) The parties did not settle at mediation, but continued to negotiate afterwards, leading 24 the parties to agree to settle the lawsuit according to the terms set forth in the Settlement 25 Agreement. (Id.; See Exhibit 1 attached to Haritounian Decl., "Settlement" or "Settlement 26 Agreement".)

27 From Class Counsel's review of the facts, strengths, and weaknesses of the case, the risks
28 and delays posed by further litigation, and Class Counsel's own prior litigation experience, Class

1 Counsel believes that the recovery for each Class Member is fair and reasonable taking into 2 consideration the amounts received in other wage and hour class actions, the risks inherent in 3 litigation of this genre, and the reasonable tailoring of each Class Member's claim to the 4 settlement award he or she will receive. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 17.) Further, and based on the 5 settlement negotiations, which were extensive, and conducted in good faith and at arm's length 6 between attorneys with substantial experience litigating class actions and wage and hour cases, 7 the Settlement Agreement was the product of a non-collusive settlement process in which the 8 parties were forced to make significant compromises in the interest of reaching a full and 9 complete settlement of the lawsuit. (Id.)

10 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

11 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay One 12 Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($150,000) ("Gross Settlement Amount") on a 13 non-reversionary basis to settle and release all claims asserted by Plaintiff in the Class Action and 14 PAGA Action on behalf of the proposed Class. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 18; Exh. 1, §1.22.) The 15 Settlement Agreement defines the "Class" as "all persons employed by Defendant in California 16 and classified as non-exempt, hourly employee who worked for Defendant during the Class 17 Period." (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 19; Exh. 1, §1.5.) The "Class Period" is "the period from March 28, 18 2020, to May 17, 2025." (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 19; Exh. 1, §1.12.) The "Net Settlement Amount," 19 available for distribution to Class Members, shall be the Gross Settlement Amount, less the 20 Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, 21 Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the 22 Administration Expenses Payment. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, §1.28.) These amounts are 23 detailed as follows:

- 24 • not more than Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) to Class
25 Counsel for attorneys' fees, and not more than Twenty Thousand Dollars and Zero 26 Cents ($20,000.00) to Class Counsel for litigation costs (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 20; 27 Exh. 1, §3.2.2);
- 28 • not more than Six Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents

1 ($6,990.00) for the Settlement Administration Costs (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh.
2 1, §3.2.3);

- 3 • not more than Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,000.00) to Plaintiff for a 4 Class Representative Service Payment (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, §3.2.1); 5 and
- 6 • Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) for civil penalties under the 7 PAGA, where 75% ($7,500.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 25% ($2,500.00)
8 will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees). (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, 9 §3.2.5.)

10 The “Individual Class Payment” is each Class Member’s share of the Net Settlement 11 Amount, which will be calculated and apportioned from the Net Settlement Amount based on the 12 number of workweeks a Class Member worked during the Class Period as a non-exempt
13 employee in California. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 21; Exh. 1, §1.23.)

14 Defendant shall pay its corporate payroll tax obligations on the payouts to Class Members 15 in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 22; Exh. 1, §3.1.)

16 The settlement amount was a compromise figure, factoring in the inherent risks related to 17 certification, liability and damages. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 23.) However, taking into account all of 18 the circumstances of the action and the defenses raised by Defendant against certification, 19 liability and damages, Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair and reasonable. (Id.)

20 Attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A is the Notice of Settlement (“Class 21 Notice”). Class Members shall each receive a Class Notice via First-Class Mail, using the most 22 current, known mailing addresses identified in the Class List. Before mailing, the Settlement 23 Administrator will perform a search based on the National Change of Address Database for 24 information to update and correct for any known or identifiable address changes. (Haritounian 25 Decl., ¶ 24; Exh. 1, §7.4.2.) If the Class Notice is returned as non-deliverable on or before the 26 Response Deadline and a new address is obtained by way of a returned Class Notice, then the 27 Settlement Administrator will promptly forward the original Class Notice to the updated address 28 via first-class regular U.S. mail, indicating on the original packet the date of such re-mailing.

(Haritonian Decl., Id; Exh. 1, §7.4.3.)

Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the information provided in their Class Notice and they may produce evidence to support the information is inaccurate. (Haritonian Decl., ¶ 25; Exh. 1, §7.6; see also Class Notice, Exhibit A attached to the Settlement Agreement.) The Settlement Administrator shall decide the dispute and may ask Defendant to produce the personnel and payroll files of the Class Member disputing their credited workweeks in order to resolve the dispute. (Haritonian Decl., Id; Exh. 1, §7.6.) Class Members wishing to opt-out from the Settlement Agreement must sign and postmark a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator within the Response Deadline. (Haritonian Decl., ¶ 26; Exh. 1, §7.8.2.) Class Members will also have the opportunity to object to the Settlement Agreement, by serving a copy of the objection to the Settlement Administrator within the Response Deadline. (Haritonian Decl., ¶ 26; Exh. 1, §7.7.) The Response Deadline will be sixty (60) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice. (Haritonian Decl., Id; Exh. 1, §1.43.)

The parties have also agreed that Apex Class Action, LLC., shall handle the notice and settlement administration (Exh. 1, § 7.1), and the parties respectfully request this Court to appoint Apex Class Action, LLC., to handle those procedures. The procedures for mailing notice and processing exclusions and objections as well as distribution of the Net Settlement fund is detailed in the Settlement. (Exh. 1, §7)

IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. (Prince v. CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. (Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 473-75.) The decision to certify a class is a procedural one, and should be based on the allegations in the operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.)

To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-

1 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be 2 represented. (See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab
3 Company (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704.) These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

4 A. There Is A Numerous and Ascertainable Class

5 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size 6 of the class and the means available for identifying class members. (See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d 7 at 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 8 1271.) Class members are “ascertainable” where they may be readily identified without 9 unreasonable expense or time.

10 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, this 11 requirement and the requirement of numerosity is met. Class Members are “all persons employed 12 by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for 13 Defendant during the period from March 28, 2020, to May 17, 2025.” (Haritoonian Decl., ¶ 14 73(a).) Documents and information exchanged between the parties reflect a class of 15 approximately 198 Class Members. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶ 73(a).) The Class Members have 16 already been identified by reference to Defendant’s payroll and personnel records. (Haritoonian 17 Decl., ¶ 73(b).)

18 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

19 B. There Is A Well-Defined Community of Interest

20 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 21 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

22 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 23 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any 24 recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere 25 fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude 26 a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every 27 member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate 28 numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which determined in plaintiff’s favor whatever questions were common to the class.

Id. at 809.

1 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 2 common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the 3 Class is united in its proof. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 73(e).) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single 4 scheme, “the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a 5 common question fundamental to all class members.” (See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers
6 Antitrust Litigation (SDNY 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers
7 Antitrust Litigation, (SDNY 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518).) California courts show “no hesitancy” 8 in inferring class-wide causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common 9 course of action has been shown. (B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350.) This 10 inference “eliminates the need for each class member to prove individually the consequences of 11 the defendants’ actions to him or her.” (Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp 12 (1982) 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 [emphasis added]).)

13 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendant’s alleged failure to 14 provide meal period and rest periods, failure to pay wages and overtime due to allegedly common 15 and unlawful policies, failure to pay final wages when required, failure to provide accurate 16 paystubs, and largely derivative claims under the Business & Professions Code and PAGA.
17 Plaintiff contends these practices affected Class Members in the same way. Plaintiff contends 18 these practices resulted in a failure to compensate employees at termination, and incomplete 19 wages displayed on wage statements. The outcome of litigation on this matter depends upon 20 questions that are common to Class Members. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 73(e).) While Defendant 21 maintained otherwise, these issues will not be decided on the basis of facts peculiar to each Class 22 Member, but rather on the basis of facts common to them all. It is also true that these issues of 23 liability can be determined on a class-wide basis. (Id.)

24 C. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical

25 A class representative’s claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, 26 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their 27 claims rest on the same legal theories. The class representative’s claims must be “typical” but not 28 necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is 1 similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members.

2 (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc.
3 (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in California that the class 4 representative must have identical interests with the class members.”) Thus it is not necessary that 5 the class representative should have personally incurred all of the damages suffered by each of the 6 other class members. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.)

7 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 8 Plaintiff’s claims are typical of Class Members’ claims because they arose from the same factual 9 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Haritonian Decl., ¶ 73(c).) Plaintiff was 10 employed by Defendant during the Class Period, and was subject to the allegedly unlawful meal 11 and rest policies and pay practices at issue in this litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is a 12 member of the Class. (Id.) The central issues of this litigation (whether Defendant failed to pay all 13 wages, whether Defendant failed to provide meal and rest periods, etc.), which would arise if this 14 was an individual action, applies to the other Class Members as well. The answer to these 15 questions would determine Defendant’s liability to the putative class. (Id.) Thus, the claims of 16 Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the putative class. (Id.) Accordingly, the typicality 17 requirement is satisfied.

18 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative

19 Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, has represented its client zealously and 20 have no conflicts of interest. (Haritonian Decl., ¶¶ 3-9, 73(d).) The Class Representative’s 21 interests are aligned with those of the Class Members, he has suffered the same injuries as the 22 Class Members, and has no conflicts of interest. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class 23 Representative are adequate.

24 E. Predominance and Superiority

25 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Haritonian Decl., 26 ¶73(f).) The class action mechanism is superior to individualized actions because Class Members 27 have little incentive to bring claims that are small. (Id.)
28

V. THE TWO-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

Any settlement of class action litigation must be reviewed and approved by the Court. This is accomplished in two steps: (1) An early (preliminary) review by the trial court, and (2) a detailed review after the notice has been distributed to the class members for their comments or objections. In this regard, the Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) explains:

A two-step process is followed when considering class settlements... If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representative or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.

(Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) (1985) at § 30.44.) The preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements. (See, e.g., Newberg, § 11.25; North County Contractor's Assn., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Services (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1094-95.) Thus, the preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements.

Settlements to resolve PAGA claims also require court approval. (Labor Code § 2699(1)(2).) There is no articulated standard for approving PAGA settlements. PAGA settlements for as little as $0 have been approved. (See Nordstrom Com'n Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 589 (approving PAGA settlement and release that allocated $0 to PAGA claim).) Courts have also approved settlements for $20,000 or less. (See, e.g., Hicks v. Toys 'R' Us-Delaware, Inc., (C.D. Cal. Sept. 2, 2014) 2014 WL 4703915, at *1 (approving $5,000 PAGA payment in $4 million settlement); Chu v. Wells Fargo Invest. LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 WL 672645, at *1 (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 in $6.9 million settlement); Williams v. Brinderson Constructors (C.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2017) 2017 WL 490901, at *5 ($10,000 PAGA settlement in $300,000 settlement).)

A review of the preliminary approval criteria demonstrates a substantial basis for granting the instant Motion and proceeding to a full settlement hearing.

1 VI. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND ADEQUATE

2 As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and 3 favor settlement over continued litigation. (See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 4 429, 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent 5 a failure of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiff v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 6 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class 7 action litigation is concerned.”).)

8 Moreover, courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a 9 settlement unless evidence to the contrary is offered. In short, there is a presumption that the 10 negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Newberg, §11.51; Rodriguez v. West Publ. Corp.
11 (C.D. Cal. August 10, 2007) 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767, 24-25 ; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir.
12 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) Courts do not substitute their judgment for that of the proponents, 13 particularly when settlement has been reached by experienced counsel familiar with the litigation.
14 (Rodriguez, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767 at 24; Hammon v. Barry (D.D.C. 1990) 752 F. Supp.
15 1087.)

16 In Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 128 (2008), the court laid out 17 several factors that should be analyzed in determining if a class action settlement should be 18 approved. These factors include: (1) the strength of plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, 19 complexity and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status 20 through trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and 21 stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a 22 governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.

23 The Settlement here satisfies each of these factors. Class Counsel conducted extensive 24 informal discovery before entering into meaningful settlement negotiations in this matter, 25 including a detailed analysis of Defendant’s policies and a considerable sample of Defendant’s 26 time and pay records. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 13-14.) This discovery permitted Class Counsel to 27 fairly evaluate the strengths of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation. Class 28 Counsel is very experienced in the handling of wage and hour class actions and supports this

1 Settlement. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 3-9.)

2 A. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case.

3 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay minimum wages and overtime, failed to 4 provide proper meal breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failed to provide proper rest 5 breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failed to provide accurate wage statements, failed 6 to timely pay all wages upon termination, and failed to reimburse necessary business expenses in 7 violation of California law. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 28.)

8 Class Counsel felt confident that the claims in this case would be certified given that 9 Defendant's policies were applicable to all Class Members and unlawful on their face.
10 (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 27-56.) Defendant contended, however, that that the policies complied with 11 California law.

12 B. The Risks Associated with the Merits.

13 As with all litigation, there are risks that a party will not prevail on the merits. In this case, 14 Plaintiff contends that he and other Class Members were not properly provided meal periods.
15 (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 34-40.) Defendant contended that Class Members were given a reasonable 16 opportunity to take their meal periods, and in fact received their meal periods most of the time 17 (Id.) If Defendant's contentions are proven true and prevail in trial, the likely outcome of this 18 claim would be no recovery for the Class Members. (Id.) Plaintiff also contended that Defendant 19 did not provide Class Members with paid 10-minute rest breaks for every four hours or major 20 fraction thereof. (Id.) Class Members consistently worked in excess of consecutive four-hour 21 shifts and were entitled to paid rest breaks of not less than ten minutes for each consecutive four 22 hour shift which they were denied. Class Members were required to work through their rest 23 breaks, and through their entire shifts. Defendant maintained that they did provide the reasonable 24 opportunity for Class Members to take duty-free rest breaks. (Id.) Defendant also pointed out that, 25 unlike meal periods, rest breaks need not be recorded and Defendant disputes all allegations that 26 breaks were not received. As these considerations would likely depress the damages vel non 27 ultimately awarded, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate discounts to the rest-break
28 claim. (Id.)

1 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members minimum
2 wages for all hours worked, in violation of minimum wage laws. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 31-33.)
3 Plaintiff contended that Class Members were not paid all wages they were owed including for all
4 work performed and for all overtime hours worked. (Id.) Specifically, Plaintiff contended Class 5 Members had to provide translation services between tenants and management while off the 6 clock. (Id.) Additionally, Plaintiff alleged Plaintiff and Class Members were frequently 7 interrupted with work demands by managers and colleagues during their meal period. Moreover, 8 Plaintiff alleged Defendant unlawfully rounded down the hours Class Members worked. (Id.)

9 Defendant contended that they paid for all reported hours worked, that Class Members 10 were trained to record all hours worked, and that they paid proper minimum wages. Defendant 11 also maintained that the allegations regarding failure to pay wages for hours worked in excess of 12 eight hours in a day did not constitute a basis for violation of Labor Code § 510. Defendant 13 argued that given their written policies and practices, any unrecorded hours were likely subject to 14 individualized inquiry and unlikely to be certified. Given the difficulty in certifying this claim, 15 Class Counsel had to apply a significant discount to damages based on this theory. (Id.)

16 C. The Risks Associated with Paystub Violations and Waiting Time Penalties.

17 In order to establish liability for these penalties, Plaintiff would first have to establish 18 liability for the underlying claims. Plaintiff would then have to establish that Defendant's conduct 19 was willful and knowing. (Labor Code §§ 203, 226(e).)

20 With waiting time penalties, there is always the risk that the trier of fact would not have 21 held that Defendant's actions were done "willfully." A good faith belief in a legal defense can 22 preclude a finding of willfulness. (Gonzalez v. Downtown LA Motors (2013) 215 Cal.App.4th 36, 23 54; 8 C.C.R. § 13520.) As discussed above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all 24 hours worked and premiums for non-compliant meal breaks due to unlawful rounding and 25 underreporting of hours and off the clock work. Plaintiff contends the Class Members are entitled 26 to these wages and premiums, which they allege were not paid at the time of their termination or 27 resignation. If Plaintiff is successful on his claims, the penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203
28 shall attach. Defendant, however, contends it provided employees with the reasonable opportunity

1 to take meal breaks, asked Class Members to confirm the accuracy of their time records, and 2 therefore had good-faith defenses under Brinker and its progeny. Defendant likewise contends 3 that it properly paid all hours worked by its employees. Based upon Defendant’s potential success
4 in establishing both that a good faith dispute existed with regard to unpaid wages, and Defendant 5 endeavored in good faith to supply accurate wage statements, Defendant argues the claims for 6 paystub violations and waiting time penalties have little or no value. See Maldonado v. Epsilon
7 Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal. App. 5th 1308, 1336-1337 (2018) (wage statements that accurately report 8 wages paid to employees do not violate Labor Code § 226, even if it is later determined that 9 employer did not properly pay all wages due). As such, there was risk associated with wage 10 statement and waiting time penalties that Class Counsel had to consider. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 11 41-47.)

12 D. The Risks Associated with the PAGA Penalties.

13 Labor Code § 2699.3 gives aggrieved employees the right to recover civil penalties for 14 specific Labor Code violations by way of a civil action. The PAGA provides a penalty amount of 15 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 16 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 17 violation. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). However, if a civil penalty is provided in a specified amount 18 by the Labor Code section relating to the underlying alleged Labor Code violation, that amount 19 shall apply. (Id.) The PAGA also gives the Court discretion to award any lesser amount than the 20 maximum civil penalty. (Id. [“...a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil 21 penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular 22 case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 23 confiscatory.”]); See, e.g., Lopez v. Friant & Assocs., LLC, 15 Cal. App. 5th 773, 788 (2017), rev.
24 denied (2018), (recognizing court’s ability to reduce PAGA penalties). Courts have held that 25 situations similar to the current one (e.g. injuryless violations, technical errors, and substantial 26 compliance) should lead to reductions in penalties. See Thurman v. Bayshore Transit 27 Management, Inc., 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112, 1134-1135 (2012) (holding that reduction was 28 justified when employer “attempted to comply with the law”); Fleming v. Covdien, Inc., No. ED

1 CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 154590 at *8-9 (C.D. Cal. August 12, 2011)
2 (reducing PAGA penalties more than 80% – from $2.8 million to $500,000 – when “employees 3 suffered no injury” employers were “not aware” of the violation and “took prompt steps to correct 4 all violations once notified”).

5 Plaintiff discounted potential penalties under this claim given this authority, and for other 6 reasons. The PAGA claims are premised on the same underlying unpaid wages, meal and rest 7 break, wage statement, and waiting time claims, and thus subject to the same disputes and 8 defenses. There is also a dispute as to whether violations in later pay periods trigger the $200 9 penalty under PAGA as a “subsequent violation.” (Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal. App.
10 4th 1157, 1203 (2008).) As such, there is a fair amount of risk associated with PAGA claims.
11 (Haritonian Decl., ¶¶ 50-53.) The parties also considered that the purpose of PAGA is to 12 “achieve maximum compliance with state labor laws,” and that through the proposed settlement, 13 Defendant has agreed to ensure policies comply with California law. (Iskanian v. CLS Transp.
14 Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 348, 379.) This makes the settlement’s contemplated PAGA
15 payment of $10,000 appropriate. (Id.)

16 Based on this analysis, Class Counsel believes that this settlement is fair and reasonable 17 and in the best interest of the Class. (Haritonian Decl., passim.)

18 E. The Risk, Expense, Complexity and Likely Duration of Any Litigation.

19 Given the risks outlined above, the issues in this case were complex and the risk for 20 Plaintiff and the Class Members associated with this litigation was high. (Haritonian Decl., ¶¶ 21 55-56.) A class trial would have required the retention of expensive expert witnesses, the accrual 22 of extensive litigation costs, and the parties would have had to spend a substantial amount of time
23 litigating this matter. (Haritonian Decl., ¶¶ 17, 60.)

24 Finally, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is likely that any 25 outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal would result in 26 further delay for the Class Members who have already waited years for resolution in this matter.

27 F. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial.

28 In class actions, decertification is always a possibility. There is always a risk that a trial of 1 this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Id.) Given cases like Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat. Assn., 2 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 (2014) that deal with the complexity of using statistical samples in class actions, 3 decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must take into account.

4 G. The Amount Offered in Settlement.

5 There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-6 collusive, and arms-length negotiations between the parties with an experienced mediator. In 7 order to determine the approximate potential damages which would be owed to each of the Class
8 Members, Class Counsel analyzed the time records for Plaintiff and Defendant provided Class
9 Counsel with records for a sampling of the class members. By analyzing this information, Class 10 Counsel was able to estimate the full value of the case if Plaintiff was to prevail at trial.

11 There are approximately 198 total Class Members. Based on the data provided, Class 12 Counsel estimated the following maximum exposures: unpaid wage claim at $151,101.95, meal 13 period claim at $49,877.01, rest period claim at $49,877.01, wage statement claim at 14 $245,250.00, waiting time penalties at $657,873.60, reimbursement of business claim at 15 $9,900.00, and on PAGA, Plaintiff estimated the maximum exposure at $252,400.00.
16 (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 29.)

17 However, taking into account the difficulties of proof, the Defendant's defenses, and other 18 attendant risks, Plaintiff estimates that the total amount of damages, monetary penalties, or other 19 relief that the class could reasonably expect to be awarded at trial is significantly less than the 20 maximum exposure. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 30.)

21 Once Class Counsel was able to determine the maximum potential damages, it was able to 22 determine a fair and reasonable settlement for the Class. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 55-60.) Class 23 Counsel analyzed the likelihood of success on the merits. (Id.) It believes that the Class had a 24 reasonable likelihood of success on the core claims. (Id.) However, Defendant disputes this 25 contention, denies all wrongdoing in this matter and are confident they have strong legal and 26 factual defenses to Plaintiff's claims. Moreover, Class Counsel determined that the likelihood of 27 success on the claims for unpaid wages and waiting time penalties were not as strong, because 28 various defenses including issues not suitable for class treatment, no detriment to the class

1 members over time, and de minimis defenses. Defendant may have had the opportunity to 2 establish that they had a good faith belief that they were complying with law. (Id.) After taking 3 into account the likelihood of success on each claim and the challenges faced with certifying 4 these claims, Class Counsel determined that the settlement amount of $150,000 was fair and 5 reasonable.

6 Under the Settlement, each of the approximately 198 Class Members will receive on 7 average $292.98 after expenses, and the largest payment (assuming a Class Member worked the 8 entire Class Period) will be approximately $1,150.00. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 56.) Plaintiff feels that 9 this Settlement is fair, reasonable, and advantageous to the class. (Id.)

10 To summarize, the Settlement here is fair because it provides a substantial payment to 11 each Class Member for releasing his or her claims; extinguishes the risk of litigation; and 12 provides a fair and adequate distribution of the settlement proceeds whereby the funds are 13 allocated to Class Members proportionally based on their Payout Ratio.

14 As detailed at length in the accompanying Declaration of Natalie Haritounian, the 15 settlement is the result of extensive settlement negotiations between the parties, conducted at 16 arm's length, and informed by substantial factual and legal investigations. (Haritounian Decl., 17 passim.) Throughout this case, Class Members have been represented by experienced counsel 18 with many years of experience in employment class action litigation. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 3-9.)

19 Class Counsel has devoted a considerable amount of time to the prosecution of this case, 20 including but not limited to, interviewing Plaintiff on repeated occasions; drafting pleadings; 21 conducting informal discovery, and meeting and conferring with defense counsel about same; 22 reviewing and analyzing time records and various handbooks and policies, Plaintiff's personnel 23 file, and other documentation; researching California law; preparing for and attending mediation; 24 and negotiating and finalizing the Settlement Agreement and related documents. (Haritounian 25 Decl., ¶¶ 13-14.)

26 Among those matters considered during the course of settlement negotiations were the 27 strength of Plaintiff's case versus the amounts offered in settlement; the risks, expenses, and 28 length of further litigation, including class certification and the appeals process; the present state

1 of the law as it applies to wage and hour class actions, particularly in light of Brinker; the present 2 value of a settlement versus the long wait necessitated by any potential judgment in class 3 members' favor; the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability against Defendant; and 4 Defendant's defenses to the action. (Haritounian Decl., passim.)

5 These factors each indicated that the interests of Class Members are best served by a 6 settlement of this action in the manner and upon the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement.
7 The Settlement Agreement confers a substantial benefit on the class of up to $150,000. Moreover, 8 the settlement awards for each Class Member will be tailored to their workweeks during the class 9 period. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 21.) In addition, Class Counsel secured prospective relief for the 10 class in that Defendant will ensure their policies comply with California law.

11 Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best 12 interests of the Class Members. Although the recommendations of counsel proposing the class 13 settlement are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, 14 particularly if counsel has been involved in litigation for some period of time, appear to be 15 competent, and have experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery has been 16 completed. See Newberg, §11.47.

17 VII. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 18 REASONABLE

19 It is appropriate to provide a relatively modest additional incentive payment to the class 20 representative. See Newberg, § 12.1; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901
21 F.Supp. 294.

22 Plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable service payment for his efforts and initiative in 23 bringing and helping to prosecute this class action. Plaintiff spent significant time better apprising 24 himself of his rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken, how it should be taken, 25 searching for attorneys, and contacting Class Counsel, who spent many hours with Plaintiff 26 discussing the case and the law. In the end, Plaintiff decided to vindicate not only his own rights 27 but also those of his co-workers by filing a class action lawsuit. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 68.)

28 The courage it took to do this should not be underestimated. By suing Defendant, Plaintiff

1 contends he increased the risk of retaliation by prospective employers. Plaintiff's lawsuit has now
2 cost Defendant considerable resources, and Plaintiff contends such conduct will not be lost on a 3 prospective employer who has to choose between an applicant who has never sued a prior 4 employer and one who has. Plaintiff contends this risk is particularly real in the information age, 5 where employers can, more easily than ever, perform background checks of prospective 6 employees, sometimes with the stroke of a key. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 69.)

7 But Plaintiff did not allow the fear of the potential repercussions of being a class
8 representative deter him from acting for the benefit of Class Members. To the contrary, Plaintiff 9 has been intimately involved in this case since its inception. He has devoted a substantial amount 10 of time to helping Class Counsel effectively develop and prosecute this action at every stage of 11 the litigation. Both before and after the filing of this lawsuit, Plaintiff conferred with Class 12 Counsel to discuss every aspect of this case; Plaintiff has provided Class Counsel with 13 information about Defendant and about the industry generally, reviewed documents, identified 14 witnesses, consulted Class Counsel throughout the litigation, participated in the mediation 15 process, monitored the progress of the litigation with Class Counsel, and reviewed and signed the 16 settlement agreement. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 70.)

17 Plaintiff has spent a significant amount of time with Class Counsel detailing his 18 knowledge of Defendant's practices. He has diligently, adequately, and fairly represented Class 19 Members, and has not placed his interests above any member of the putative class. This sort of 20 payment to a class representative has been a common feature of settlements negotiated by Class
21 Counsel and has been routinely approved by trial courts. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 71.)

22 In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the incentive award in the amount of 23 $5,000.00 to the Class Representative is fair and reasonable. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 72.)

24 VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE 25 CLASS MEMBERS.

26 Constitutional due process requires that class members be provided with notice sufficient 27 to give them an opportunity to be heard in the proceedings. Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank &
28 Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306. Proper notice must provide the class members with sufficient

1 information to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. (Id.
2 at 314.) The notice must apprise the class members of the pendency of the action; reasonably 3 convey information regarding the settlement and the class members' rights, entitlements, and 4 obligations; and afford class members the opportunity to present their objections. (Id.)

5 The Class Notice meets constitutional standards because it provides all the information a 6 reasonable person would need to make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will 7 notify all class members of the terms of the settlement, of its effect on their rights, of their options 8 as class members (i.e., participate, object, opt out, do nothing), and of the consequences of 9 exercising those options. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 61-63.) Moreover, the Class Notice will 10 specifically direct any class members who have questions or concerns to contact the Settlement
11 Administrator, Apex Class Action, LLC., or Class Counsel. (Id.)

12 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether the notice has “a 13 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members.” (Cartt v. Superior 14 Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974.) The Judicial Council of California's Deskbook on the 15 Management of Complex Civil Litigation (Matthew Bender 2003), § 3.74 notes that individual 16 notice by mail is preferred when possible and dissemination of combined certification/settlement 17 notice is a common and accepted practice. (In re Vitamin Cases (2003) 107 Cal.App.4th 820, 18 828.)

19 Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class mail to each class member. (Haritounian 20 Decl., ¶ 61.) If any Class Notices are returned undeliverable without a forwarding address, the 21 Settlement Administrator will use the national change of address database and perform a skip 22 trace to locate the class member and mail a new Class Notice to him or her at the correct address.
23 (Id.) Thus, most, if not all, class members will likely receive the Class Notice.

24 Pursuant to controlling authority, the proposed Class Notice and method of distribution 25 fully comport with due process requirements. Therefore, the Court should approve the Class 26 Notice and direct that it be distributed as proposed herein.

27 IX. STANDING TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

28 Non-settling parties and third parties periodically may attempt to object to proposed class

1 action settlements, but the right of non-settling parties to object at the final settlement approval
2 hearing, let alone the preliminary approval hearing, is quite limited. As a general rule, only class
3 members have standing to object to a proposed settlement. “Beginning from the unassailable 4 premise that settlements are to be encouraged, it follows that to routinely allow non-class 5 members to inject their concerns via objection at the settlement stage would tend to frustrate this 6 goal.” (Gould v. Alleco, Inc. (4th Cir. 1998) 883 F.2d 281, 284.) Since an application is being 7 filed to obtain a good faith determination, no persons other than class members have standing to 8 object to the proposed settlement. (In re School Asbestos Litigation (3rd Cir. 1990) 921 F.2d 9 1330.)

10 X. THE STIPULATED AWARD OF ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS IS 11 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

12 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to approval by this Court, Class Counsel will 13 seek an award of fees of no more than Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00)
14 approximately one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and not more than Twenty Thousand 15 Dollars and Zero Cents ($20,000.00) in costs. The requested fees are fair compensation for a law 16 firm involved in undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation solely on 17 a contingent basis. (Haritounian Decl. ¶¶ 65-67.) Defendant will not oppose Class Counsel’s fees 18 and cost request.

19 California courts routinely look to the federal courts on class action approvals. The Ninth 20 Circuit has recognized that an appropriate method for awarding attorneys’ fees in class actions is 21 to award a percentage of the “common fund” created as a result of the settlement. (Vincent v.
22 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) The purpose of the common 23 fund/percentage approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries 24 so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Id.) Accordingly, courts 25 have discretion to choose either the percentage-of-the-fund method or the lodestar method. (In re 26 Wash. Pub.Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litigation (9th Cir. 1994) 19 F.3d 1291, 1295-96.)

27 Several courts have, however, expressed frustration with the “lodestar” approach for 28 deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous time records. Thus, the

1 percentage approach can be preferable to the lodestar in certain situations because: (1) it aligns 2 the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of 3 the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the 4 demands on judicial resources. (In re Activision Securities Litigation, (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 5 F.Supp. 1373, 1378-79.) The Ninth Circuit has used the percentage of the common fund approach 6 to determine the award of attorneys' fees. (In re Pacific Enterprises Securities Litigation (9th Cir.
7 1994) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 (approving attorneys' fee of 33 1/3% of settlement fund).)

8 Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees in light of the facts and circumstances 9 surrounding this case is well within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have 10 awarded percentage fees in the range of 20% to 50% of the common fund, depending on the 11 circumstances of the case. (Newberg, at §14.03; see also In re Activision Securities Litigation, 12 723 F. Supp. at 1378.) Newberg further notes: "[A]chievement of a substantial recovery with 13 modest hours expended should not be penalized but should be rewarded for considerations of 14 time saved by superior services performed." (Id. at §§ 14-10:14-11.)

15 The attorneys' fees request provided for in the Settlement Agreement is commensurate 16 with judicial precedent. Both state and federal courts regularly approve fee awards equal to or 17 greater than the percentage requested in this case. (See, e.g., In re Pacific Enterprises Securities 18 Litigation (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 379 (affirming an award equal to 33% of the common 19 fund); In re Activision Securities Litigation (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp. 1373, 1375 (awarding 20 plaintiff' counsel 32.8% of the common fund created to settle the litigation); In re Ampicillin 21 Antitrust Litigation (D. D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding 45% of $7.3 million settlement 22 fund); Parker v. City of Los Angeles (1974) 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 557-568 (affirming fee award to 23 counsel of one-third (1/3) of recovery achieved).)

24 In wage and hour class actions in particular, California trial courts have customarily 25 approved attorney's fees consistent with or greater than the percentage of the common fund 26 requested in this case. (See Evans v. Coca-Cola, Los Angeles County Super. Ct. Case No. BC 27 220525 (Hon. Richard C. Hubbell) (Dec. 2001) (approving an award of attorneys' fees of at least 28 33-1/3% of the settlement); see also Estrada v. Dr. Pepper/Seven-Up, Los Angeles County Super.

1 Ct. Case No. BC 262247 (May 2005) (Hon. Anthony J. Mohr); Moreno v. Miller Brewing, Los 2 Angeles County Super.Ct. Case No.BC 278170 (April 2004) (Hon. David M. Minning); Josiah
3 Eaton v. Adolph Coors Company (2003) Orange County Super. Ct. Case No. 01CC00140 (Hon.
4 Stephen J. Sundvold); Kimbell v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., Los Angeles County 5 Super.Ct. Case No.BC 277359 (Sept. 2006) (Hon. Kenneth R. Freeman); Daum v. Claim Jumper
6 Restaurants, Orange County Super.Ct. Case No.02CC10201 (2006) (Hon. Ronald L. Bauer.)

7 Here, Class Counsel has borne the entire risk and costs of litigation and will not receive 8 any compensation until recovery is obtained. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 65-67.) The Court should also 9 consider the benefit obtained by Class Counsel on behalf of Class Members. Thus, the requested 10 award for Class Counsel is reasonable.

11 XI. ACTION REQUESTED AS A PART OF THE MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY 12 APPROVAL

13 The parties respectfully request this Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, to 14 grant the following relief and make the following orders:

- 15 1. Review and approve the Settlement Agreement;
- 16 2. Review and approve the Class Notice, attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit 17 A;
- 18 3. Consider and determine that the proposed class action settlement as set forth in the 19 Settlement Agreement preliminarily appears fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 20 4. Enter an order conditionally certifying the action as a class action for settlement 21 purposes only and preliminarily approving the proposed class action settlement and the 22 Settlement Agreement;
- 23 5. Approve and appoint Emil Davtyan, David Yeremian, and Natalie Haritounian of 24 D.Law, Inc. to serve as Class Counsel for settlement purposes;
- 25 6. Approve and appoint Apex Class Action, LLC, as the Settlement Administrator to 26 handle the notice and claims procedures as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;
- 27 7. Approve the proposed settlement's allocation of funds to claims made under PAGA;
- 28 8. Order Defendant to disclose to Apex Class Action, LLC, the names, last-known

1 addresses, telephone numbers, dates of employment, and social security numbers of class 2 members as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

3 9. Order that Apex Class Action, LLC, mail the Class Notices to class members; and 4 10. Set a date for the Final Approval Hearing.
