DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff MODESTA QUINTERO BARBOSA (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and all
2 others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action
3 Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants COASTLINE METAL FINISHING
4 CORPORATION, a California corporation, and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on 5 information and belief alleges as follows:

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 8 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions
9 Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194,
10 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order
11 1-2001 (“Wage Order 1”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution.
12 This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has 13 jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy 14 exceeds $25,000.

15 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 16 agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Orange County, and some of 17 the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Orange County. Furthermore, Plaintiff was 18 employed by Defendants within Orange County.

19 PARTIES

20 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of 21 eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to 22 each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee.
23 Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of 24 herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et
25 seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197,
26 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 1.

27 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 28 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,

1 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
2 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Orange County, and the State of California and,
3 therefore, were (and are) doing business in Orange County and the State of California.

4 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 5 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
6 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 7 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed,
8 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
9 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
10 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 11 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

12 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 13 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
14 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
15 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 16 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

17 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
18 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 19 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 20 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
21 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 22 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

23 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 24 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 25 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

26 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 27 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 28 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

1 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

2 10. Defendants own and operate a metal finishing company in Garden Grove, California.
3 Defendants has employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the relevant
4 time period as a packer.

5 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
6 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 7 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly
8 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 9 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 10 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to 11 compensate employees for this time. Upon information and belief, Defendants also failed to 12 incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift
13 differentials and non-discretionary incentives, into the regular rate of pay. As a result, Plaintiff and 14 other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

15 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 16 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 17 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
18 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
19 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed
20 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 21 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 22 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt 23 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
24 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
25 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code
26 § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of 27 meal period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7 in the event that a legally 28 compliant meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees. Furthermore, any meal

1 period premiums paid by Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-
2 discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials and non-discretionary incentives, into the
3 regular rate of compensation.

4 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 5 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 6 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
7 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
8 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other
9 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
10 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
11 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
12 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
13 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest
14 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees. Furthermore, any rest
15 period premiums paid by Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-
16 discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials and non-discretionary incentives, into the 17 regular rate of compensation.

18 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 19 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift 20 differentials and non-discretionary incentives, into the paid sick leave pay rate.

21 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 22 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 23 alleged above and because wage statements stated inaccurate total hours worked, Defendants
24 maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage statements to Plaintiff and other
25 non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime
26 wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to timely pay 27 all final wages to former non-exempt employees upon their separation of employment from 28 Defendants.

16. Labor Code § 1198 provides: “The employment of any employee ... under conditions of labor prohibited by the [Industrial Wage Orders] is unlawful.” Section 15 of the applicable Wage Orders provide: “(A) The temperature maintained in each work area shall provide reasonable comfort consistent with industry-wide standards for the nature of the process and the work performed. (B) If excessive heat or humidity is created by the work process, the employer shall take all feasible means to reduce such excessive heat or humidity to a degree providing reasonable comfort. Where the nature of the employment requires a temperature of less than 60° F, a heated room shall be provided to which employees may retire for warmth, and such room shall be maintained at not less than 68° F. (C) A temperature of not less than 68° F shall be maintained in the toilet rooms, resting rooms, and change rooms during hours of use. (D) Federal and State energy guidelines shall prevail over any conflicting provision of this section.” California law requires an employer to endeavor to provide a safe and healthy workplace. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, §3203.) Labor Code section 6720 required the California Division of Occupational Safety and Health (“Cal/OSHA”) to propose an indoor heat illness standard by January 1, 2019. (Lab. Code, § 6720.) Cal/OSHA’s draft standard applies its proposed regulations to “all indoor work areas where the temperature equals or exceeds 82 degrees Fahrenheit when employees are present.” During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with reasonable comfort by maintaining the indoor temperature within the range of industry standards by, inter alia, providing adequate heating, air conditioning, and/or ventilation and failed to maintain a temperature of not less than 68° F in toilet rooms and/or breakrooms for Plaintiff and other employees.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the following Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

- b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours; and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime

1 Class;

- 2 b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to 3 members of the Minimum Wage Class;
- 4 c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period
5 premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§
6 226.7 and 512;
- 7 d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or 8 paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class
9 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- 10 e. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the 11 Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
- 12 f. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time
13 Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201
14 and 202.

15 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 16 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 17 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual 18 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

19 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 20 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
21 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
22 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due
23 to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, was not provided all required meal 24 periods, was not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-
25 compliant meal and rest periods, was not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage 26 statements, and was not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses.

27 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
28 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's

1 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
2 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 3 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 4 members of the Classes.

5 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
6 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 7 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 8 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 9 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this 10 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 11 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 12 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 13 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited 14 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

15 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
16 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 17 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 18 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
19 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
20 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

21 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
22 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
23 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 24 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 25 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 26 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 27 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 28 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS
(Against All Defendants)

25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Order 1, § 4 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and Wage Order 1.

27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
(Against All Defendants)

29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and Wage Order 1, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 1. Wage Order 1, § 3 requires an employer to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours actually worked.

32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS
(Against All Defendants)

33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including

1 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 2 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 1, § 11.

3 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 4 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 5 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

6 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 7 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
8 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
9 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

10 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
14 fully set forth herein.

15 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 1, § 12 and establish the right of 16 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
17 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 18 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
19 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 20 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 21 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

22 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 23 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
24 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
25 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§
26 3287 and 3289.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226.

42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies in Defendants' reported payroll data.

43. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAITING TIME PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their

1 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit,
2 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 3 date of employment.

4 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
5 to timely pay members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their separation
6 from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages as well as unpaid meal and rest
7 period premium wages.

8 47. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a
9 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay members of the Waiting 10 Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to the 11 requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

12 48. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor 13 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay members of the Waiting Time Class their 14 earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of daily wages up to 15 thirty days from the time the wages were due.

16 49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, members of the Waiting Time
17 Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 203.

18 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 UNFAIR COMPETITION

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
22 fully set forth herein.

23 51. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 24 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 25 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum 26 wages due;
- 27 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 28 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal

1 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
2 wages due;

3 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
4 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
5 wages due;

6 e. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 7 the Wage Statement Class;

8 f. failing to timely pay all final wages to members of the Waiting Time Penalty Class;
9 and

10 g. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and members of the 11 Expense Reimbursement Class.

12 52. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
13 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally 14 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 15 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 16 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

17 53. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 18 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 19 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired
