DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs JEANETTE HERNANDEZ and CHRISTINA MARTINEZ (“Plaintiffs”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs took place in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. Defendants employed Plaintiffs within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

1 6. Defendant SOLEDAD ENRICHMENT ACTION, INC. at all times herein
2 mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California nonprofit corporation
3 headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an 4 employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the 5 County of Los Angeles.

6 7. At all relevant times, Defendant SOLEDAD ENRICHMENT ACTION, INC.
7 was the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable California laws and 8 statutes.

9 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendant SOLEDAD ENRICHMENT ACTION,
10 INC. and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers,
11 joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators
12 and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course
13 and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, 14 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, and 15 all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge,
16 permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

17 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 18 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs, who sues
19 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and based on 20 that information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
21 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 22 the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
23 Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 24 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

25 10. Defendant SOLEDAD ENRICHMENT ACTION, INC. and DOES 1 through 100
26 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

27 ///

28 ///

1 11. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 2 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 3 Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers
4 liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

5 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

6 12. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the 7 general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 8 Procedure section 382.

9 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

10 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
11 within the State of California at any time during the period from March 19, 2020
12 to final judgment.

13 14. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

14 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 15 the litigation:

16 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
17 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 18 unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 19 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 20 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

21 b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members'
22 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately
23 protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiffs 24 have a well-defined community of interest.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiffs have a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs
4 have no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

28 ///

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiffs
6 and the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive
7 pay;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class 9 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 10 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California
11 Labor Code section 226.7(c);
- 12 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the 13 other class members for all hours worked;
- 14 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other 15 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 16 resignation;
- 17 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 18 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 19 i. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class 20 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 21 j. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 22 k. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 23 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 24 l. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 25 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 26 m. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to 27 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

24 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive

27 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

28 ///

1 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
4 Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
5 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number

7 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 9 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

10 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

12 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 13 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
14 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
15 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

16 34. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
17 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 18 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more
19 than forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

20 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide the 21 requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class
22 members.

22 protected rights.

23 88. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by 24 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 25 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
26 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

8 97. A violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.
9 may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants'

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

3 (By Plaintiff MARTINEZ Against SOLEDAD ENRICHMENT ACTION, INC. and

4 DOES 1 through 100)

5 101. Plaintiff Martinez incorporates by reference the allegations contained in 6 paragraphs 1 through 100, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as 7 though fully set forth herein.

8 102. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code
9 which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 10 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 11 California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved
12 employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

13 103. On March 22, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 14 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were violated, and the 15 theories supporting her contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
16 is a copy of the March 22, 2024 written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about 17 May 28, 2024, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired as to all Defendants and the LWDA
18 did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted the 19 statutory time period to bring this action.

20 104. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved 21 employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current and former 22 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California who worked 23 for Defendants at any time during the period from March 22, 2023 to the present, and one or 24 more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

5 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

6 106. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other
7 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all
8 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

9 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

10 107. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, Defendants
11 were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break
12 for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further required to provide 13 their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked.

14 108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
15 aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks
16 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

17 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

18 109. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
19 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

20 110. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
21 current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time period.

22 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

23 111. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
24 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California Labor Code §§
25 201 to 204.

26 112. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants failed
27 to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to Labor
28 Code §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

1 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

2 113. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
3 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and 4 1776.

5 114. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 6 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
7 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
8 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 9 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 10 hours worked at each hourly rate.

11 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

12 115. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees
13 for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
14 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§
15 2800 and 2802.

17 aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them
18 within the required time period.

19 Penalties

20 117. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf 21 of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from

3 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 4 violation;

5 c. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely
6 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the 7 amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 8 violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each
9 subsequent violation;

10 d. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100)

Re: SOLEDAD ENRICHMENT ACTION, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Christina Martinez against Soledad Enrichment Action, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer, or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "SOLEDAD").

Ms. Martinez is pursuing her California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Martinez may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Soledad Enrichment Action, Inc. is a California nonprofit corporation located at 222 N. Virgil Ave., Los Angeles, California 90004.

SOLEDAD employed Ms. Martinez as an hourly-paid non-exempt Case Manager within one year of the date of this letter (until or until around June 2023) in the State of California. SOLEDAD directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Ms. Martinez's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Ms. Martinez does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Martinez will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Martinez is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Martinez and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Ms. Martinez may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of SOLEDAD within the State of California.

SOLEDAD failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Martinez has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all aggrieved employees at SOLEDAD, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

SOLEDAD has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. SOLEDAD failed to compensate Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. SOLEDAD also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD failed to pay aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD routinely required Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with SOLEDAD's policies and expectations and assist clients. SOLEDAD failed to provide coverage to Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, SOLEDAD failed to authorize and permit Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, SOLEDAD failed to compensate Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." SOLEDAD required aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." SOLEDAD required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD failed to pay Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code sections 203 and 210.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD failed to pay Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD did not provide Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from SOLEDAD were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, SOLEDAD did not provide Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Ms. Martinez and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by SOLEDAD, including for purchasing equipment they were required to wear while working and using their personal cell phones for work-related purposes.

We believe that Ms. Martinez and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Martinez will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of SOLEDAD within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
