1 Plaintiff JESUS RODRIGUEZ, on behalf of himself and all other persons similarly
2 situated, and the general public (hereinafter, "Plaintiffs"), hereby complain against Defendants
3 THE ARCTICOM GROUP, LLC and THE ARCTICOM GROUP REFRIGERATION, LLC
4 ("collectively, "Arcticom"); and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (hereinafter Arcticom and Does 1-5 100 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants"), and on information and belief allege 6 as follows:

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 JURISDICTION

9 1. This is a civil action seeking recovery of unpaid wages, waiting time penalties,
10 pay stub penalties and meal and rest period premiums under California Labor Code §§ 510, 11 1194 et seq., 201 et seq., 226 and 226.7. Plaintiffs bring an action for monetary damages for 12 failure to pay wages as well as for restitution for Defendants' violations of Business and 13 Professions Code (B&PC) §17200, et seq., including full restitution of all compensation
14 retained by Defendants as a result of their unlawful, fraudulent and unfair business practices.
15 Plaintiffs seek all available relief, including full restitution of all compensation retained by 16 Defendants as a result of their unlawful and unfair business practices. Further, Plaintiffs seek 17 injunctive relief under B&PC §17200, et seq.

18 VENUE

19 2. Venue as to each of the Defendants is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 20 California Code of Civil Procedure (CCP) §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as at least some of the acts
21 complained of herein occurred in the County of Contra Costa. Each defendant either owns,
22 maintains offices, transacts business, has an agent or agents within the County of Contra 23 Costa, or otherwise is found within the County of Contra Costa, and each defendant is within 24 the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

25 PARTIES

26 3. Jesus Rodriguez ("Rodriguez") is an individual over the age of eighteen (18).
27 At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff Rodriguez worked for Defendants within the State of 28 California.

1 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times
2 mentioned herein, defendants Arcticom are and were limited liability companies.

3 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times
4 mentioned herein, Defendants Arcticom were authorized to do business in the State of 5 California, County of Contra Costa, and providing refrigeration installation and maintenance
6 services in California. Thus, each named defendant and DOES 1 to 100 are subject to B&PC
7 §17200, et seq. (Unfair Competition Law) and the Labor Code, as hereinafter alleged.

8 6. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, 9 partner, or corporate, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 100, inclusive, and for that 10 reason, those defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiffs will seek from 11 this Court leave to amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered.
12 Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the Defendants and each 13 fictitious defendant, whether individual, partners, or corporate, was responsible in some 14 manner for the circumstances alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiffs and all others 15 similarly situated hereinafter alleged and the general public to be subjected to the unlawful 16 employment practices, wrongs, injuries and damages complained of herein.

17 7. At all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants participated in the doing 18 of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore,
19 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every 20 one of the other Defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein
21 mentioned were acting within the course and scope of said agency and employment. Plaintiffs 22 herein allege that Defendants and each of them is the joint employer of Plaintiffs and the 23 classes.

24 8. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of 25 and engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the 26 course and scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common 27 enterprise.
28

9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants in proximately causing the complaints, injuries and damages alleged herein.

10. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants, thereby proximately causing the damages, as herein alleged.

11. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because both the individual and aggregate monetary damages and restitution sought herein exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established at trial, according to proof. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because Plaintiffs and the putative classes herein worked within the State of California, and were subject to California's wage and hour laws.

PLAINTIFF CLASSES

12. The class representative Plaintiff who worked in the position of an hourly non-exempt employees or other similar title while employed by Defendants within the State of California, is as follows:

a. Jesus Rodriguez

Plaintiff Rodriguez worked within California as a non-exempt hourly employee for Defendants in 2023.

13. At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiffs and the entirety of the hourly Class identified herein are current and former employees of Defendants who were not properly paid all their wages, including but not limited to, proper premium overtime, and/or double time due to Defendants' failure to properly calculate the regular rate and/or include all hours worked in a week to determine hours over eight (8) in a given day, or forty (40) in a week.

Class 1:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2020 through the date of judgment, who were not paid premium overtime and/or double time at the employee's regular rate of pay.

Subclass 1:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California who were paid for a missed meal or rest period at an allegedly “reduced” rate of pay from 2020 through the date of judgment (Meal and Rest Reduced Rate Subclass);

Class 2:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2020 through the date of judgment, who were not paid the minimum wage for all hours worked (Minimum Wage Class);

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2020 through the date of judgment, who were not paid the minimum wage for all hours worked (Minimum Wage Class);

Class 3:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California and who worked at some point from 2021 through the present, who are no longer employed with Defendants and to whom Defendants willfully failed to pay all wages due upon separation from Defendants (Waiting Time Penalty Class);

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2020 to the present who were not provided legally compliant meal periods (Meal Break Class);

Class 5:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2020 through the present who were not provided legally-compliant rest breaks (Rest Break Class);

Class 6:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2023 through the present who were provided a paystub (a.k.a. wage statement) which failed to list all hours actually worked and wages owed (Pay Stub Class).

Class 7:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2020 through the present who were not reimbursed for their necessary and reasonable business expenses (Reimbursement Class).

The members of the classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the classes are unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, it is estimated that the classes number greater than 100 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records.

15. There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- i. Whether Defendants paid their employees proper premium overtime and/or double time at the employees' regular rate for hours over eight (8) in a day and/or forty (40) hours in a week, in paying their hourly non-exempt employees;
- ii. Whether Defendants violated the applicable Labor Code provisions including §510, 1194, and 203 by requiring substantial overtime work and not paying for said work according to the overtime laws of the State of California;

- iii. Whether Defendants failed to pay the appropriate premium overtime compensation to the hourly employees;
- iv. Whether Defendants improperly retained, appropriated or deprived Plaintiffs and the class members of the use of monies or sums to which Plaintiffs and the class were legally entitled;
- v. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices;
- vi. Whether Defendants, and each of them, were participants in the alleged unlawful conduct;
- vii. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- viii. The effect upon and the extent of injuries suffered by Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated and the appropriate amount of compensation;
- ix. The appropriate amount of monetary penalties allowed by Labor Code §201, et. seq.;
- x. Whether Defendants pay and continue to pay for missed meal and rest period premiums at an allegedly "reduced" rate of pay in violation of Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders;
- xi. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §226 and relevant IWC Wage Orders by failing to, among other violations, accurately report total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly work, by Plaintiffs and the members of the Class;
- xii. Whether Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to maintain records for Plaintiffs and members of the Class as required by Labor Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders;
- xiii. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the class members for necessary expenditures incurred in the performance of their work for Defendants;

1 16. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of all members of the classes and
2 subclasses mentioned herein. Plaintiffs, as representative parties, will fairly and adequately 3 protect the interest of the classes by vigorously pursuing this suit through their attorneys who 4 are skilled and experienced in handling matters of this type. Plaintiffs have no claim or 5 interest that is antagonistic to any class member.

6 17. The nature of this action and the nature of laws available to the members of the 7 classes and subclasses identified herein make use of the class action format a particularly 8 efficient and appropriate procedure to afford relief to Plaintiffs for the wrongs alleged herein.
9 Further, this claim involves a large corporate employer, Defendant Rush, and a large number 10 of individual employees (Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated) with many relatively 11 small claims with common issues of law and fact. If each employee were required to file an 12 individual lawsuit, the corporate defendants would necessarily gain an unconscionable
13 advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each
14 individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources. Requiring each 15 class member to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful 16 claims by employees who would be disinclined to pursue an action against their present 17 and/or former employer for an appreciable and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 18 damage to their careers at present and/or subsequent employment. Proof of a common 19 business practice or factual pattern, of which the Plaintiffs experienced, is representative of 20 the class mentioned herein and will establish the right of each of the members of the named 21 class to recovery on the causes of action alleged herein.

22 18. The prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if 23 possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications 24 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would 25 establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or (b) legal 26 determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, 27 be dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which 28 would substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests.

1 Further, the claims of the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant
2 vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses
3 attending thereto.

4 19. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are entitled to the wages and other
5 monies unlawfully withheld. This action is brought for the benefit of the public.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of B&PC §17200, et seq.)

8 20. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
9 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

10 21. Beginning on an exact date unknown to Plaintiffs but believed to have 11 occurred from 2020 on, Defendants have engaged in a pattern and practice of acts of unfair
12 competition in violation of B&PC §17200, including the practices alleged herein.

13 22. Defendants, and each of them, provide refrigeration installation and 14 maintenance services throughout California, and have engaged in the practice of paying their 15 non-exempt employees, in a fashion that circumvents California's wage and hour laws.

16 FAILURE TO PAY PROPER WAGES AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

17 23. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 18 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants' hourly employees worked in 19 excess of eight (8) hours per day, and in excess of forty (40) hours per week without receiving
20 the proper regular rate of pay and/or minimum wage rate because Plaintiffs regularly work
21 off-the-clock hours before and after their shifts without compensation, on-call time, including 22 calling in for shifts and performing work while on-call without proper compensation, and 23 manipulating Plaintiffs' hours to avoid pay for all hours worked, including overtime.
24 Defendants further round Plaintiffs' hours worked in a non-neutral manner, thus resulting in 25 reduced pay for Plaintiffs. Defendants are therefore in violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 26 1194, and the relevant California Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

27 24. Defendants, and each of them, consistently administered a corporate policy 28 regarding payment plans that do not compensate Plaintiffs for all hours worked, which

1 required that employees work overtime without proper premium overtime pay, the regular rate
2 of pay, and/or minimum wage. This corporate policy and pattern of conduct is accomplished 3 with the advanced knowledge and designed intent to avoid paying non-exempt employees for 4 all hours worked by designating such work as not compensable. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and 5 the class members are entitled to all unpaid wages due under California law. Further,
6 Plaintiffs and the class are entitled to restitution of these wages obtained by Defendants, and 7 each of them.

8 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 200, ET SEQ.

9 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 10 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants failed to provide all employees all 11 wages at the time of their separation in violation of Labor Code § 200, et. seq., including but 12 not limited to, §§201, 202, 203 & 204.

13 26. Labor Code § 200, et seq. provides that an employer is required to pay an 14 employee all wages (including accrued vacation) immediately upon the employee's 15 involuntary separation from employment; immediately upon his or her voluntary separation if 16 the employee gave at least seventy-two (72) hours notice, and within seventy-two (72) hours, 17 if the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy-two (72) hours notice.

18 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that all employees who 19 have been separated from Defendants did not timely receive a final paycheck detailing the 20 proper amount of pay from Defendants in violation of Labor Code § 200, et. seq.

21 28. Pursuant to Labor Code § 200, et seq. employees that no longer work for 22 Defendants, and who were not timely paid, are entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties for 23 each day that he or she was paid late, until payment was made, up to a maximum of thirty (30) 24 days.

25 VIOLATION OF MEAL AND REST PERIOD PROVISIONS

26 29. Defendants' improper meal and rest period policies are in violation of 27 California law including, but not limited to Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC
28 Wage Orders. Plaintiffs and the class were entitled to 1 hour of pay for each meal and rest

1 break violation at their regular rate of pay. Defendants failed and continue to fail to pay for
2 meal and rest period violations at the employees' regular rate of pay in violation of Section 11
3 of the applicable Wage Orders.

4 30. Plaintiffs seek restitution and injunctive relief for said violations.

5 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times herein
6 mentioned, Defendants have engaged in unlawful, deceptive, and unfair business practices
7 prohibited by California B&PC §17200, thereby depriving their employees and the putative
8 class the minimum working standards and conditions due to them under the California labor
9 laws and Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders as specifically described herein.
10 Plaintiffs seek an injunction preventing Defendants from continuing their unfair business 11 practice of improperly depriving their employees of overtime pay, and payment of their 12 regular rate of pay for meal and rest period premiums. Plaintiffs further seek an order
13 requiring Defendants to identify by full name, telephone number, and last known address 14 employees who worked or still work for Defendants between 2020 through the date of 15 judgment; Plaintiffs further seek an order requiring Defendants to timely pay restitution to all 16 current and former employees, including back wages, premium payments, and interest.

17 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

18 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 19 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants, and each of them, fail to provide 20 their employees with proper and understandable itemized wage statement, as required by Labor
21 Code § 226.

22 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants, and 23 each of them, fail to provide each employee with an itemized statement which states the actual 24 regular rate paid, the total hours worked by the employee, the gross and net wages earned, and 25 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 26 hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

35. Defendants' conduct in failing to reimburse Plaintiffs and the class for their necessary business expenses is also unfair within the meaning of Business and Professions Code §17200 because it is against established public policy and has been pursued to attain an unjustified monetary advantage for Defendants by unfairly and unlawfully reducing Plaintiffs' and the other class members' compensation, as Plaintiffs and the class are required to come out of pocket for such expenses. As such, Defendants' business practices, including their illegal reimbursement policy and practice, is unfair, illegal and fraudulent, in that such policy and practice was intended to reduce Plaintiffs' and the class' due and owing compensation.

RECOVERY OF UNPAID WAGES & PENALTIES
(Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194 and 1198)

37. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated identified herein were and are employed and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work and in fact worked as non-exempt hourly employees in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or in excess of forty (40) hours per week. Defendants employed and scheduled all employees without providing overtime compensation for such excess hours worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194 and the relevant California Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) orders. Labor Code § 204 establishes the fundamental right of all employees in the State of California to be paid the proper amount of wages in a timely fashion for their work, including overtime. Defendants always had a written and verbal agreement to pay overtime and double time based on the Plaintiffs' and classes' regular rate of pay.

1 38. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218 and 1194(a), Plaintiffs may bring a civil action
2 for overtime wages directly against the employer without first filing a claim with the Division
3 of Labor Standards Enforcement (hereinafter “DLSE”) and may recover such wages, together
4 with interest thereon, penalties, attorneys’ fees and costs.

5 39. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants have failed to pay to Plaintiffs and all
6 persons similarly situated wages when due as required by Labor Code § 204.

7 40. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer
8 than the hours set by the IWC or under conditions prohibited by the applicable IWC Wage 9 Orders.

10 41. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon
11 allege that Defendants have treated Plaintiffs as hourly non-exempt employees. Despite this 12 classification, Defendants have willfully violated the Labor Code with respect to meeting the 13 requirements of paying one (1) regular rate of pay and calculating overtime and double time
14 based on that regular rate, as herein before alleged. Defendants have failed to properly pay 15 premium overtime for hours worked in a week, and as such, Defendants are able to reduce 16 their overhead and operating expenses and gain an unfair advantage over competing 17 companies complying with state law. Furthermore, Defendants have failed to include all 18 items of remuneration when determining the employees’ regular rate of pay, as described 19 above.

20 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants 21 consistently administered a corporate policy regarding both staffing levels and duties and 22 responsibilities of the members of the classes which required the entirety of all classes to work
23 overtime without proper premium pay, and to fail all wages for hours worked. This corporate 24 policy and pattern of conduct was/is accomplished with the advance knowledge and design of 25 all Defendants herein. Thus, Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated routinely, regularly 26 and customarily performed overtime work and/or work that they failed to be compensated at 27 the appropriate hourly wage.
28

1 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that the obligations and 2 responsibilities of the class employees are irrelevant because Plaintiffs and all others similarly
3 situated merely allege wrongdoing with Defendants' pay plans, policies and practices.
4 Further, the duties of Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are not relevant in certifying
5 any of the classes.

6 44. Defendants, and each of them, had a consistent and uniform policy, practice
7 and procedure of willfully failing to pay the earned and unpaid wages of all such non-exempt
8 employees. Defendants have willfully failed to pay the earned and unpaid wages of such 9 individuals, including, but not limited to regular pay, premium pay, and other wages earned 10 and remaining uncompensated according to amendment, or proof.

11 45. The pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding 12 illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an entitlement to 13 recovery by Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated, in a civil action, for the unpaid balance 14 of the full amount of all wages owing, including the proper calculation of the regular rate and 15 the proper overtime premiums calculated at 1.5 or 2 times the legal regular rate which are 16 owing, including interest thereon, willful penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of 17 suit according to the mandate of Labor Code § 1194, et. seq.

18 46. Likewise, Defendants have a pattern, practice and uniform administration of 19 corporate policy regarding failure to comply with the required provisions of Labor Code §
20 226.7, in failing to pay Plaintiffs and the class the meal and rest period premium payments at 21 the regular rate.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq.)

24 47. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
25 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

26 48. Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq., provides that an employer is required to pay an 27 employee all wages (including accrued vacation) immediately upon an employee's 28 involuntary separation from employment; immediately upon her voluntary separation if the

1 employee gave at least seventy two (72) hours notice, and within seventy two (72) hours, if 2 the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy two (72) hours notice.

3 49. Plaintiff Rodriguez and other former employees of Defendants employed in the 4 State of California separated from employment with Defendants, and did not timely receive a
5 final pay check with all of their wages due from Defendants in violation of Labor Code §§
6 200, et seq. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants also 7 violated the mandates of Labor Code §§ 200, et seq., as to other employees whose 8 employment ended during the period of time covered by this action.

9 50. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq., each member of the class that no
10 longer works for Defendants, and who was not timely paid all of his or her wages due is 11 entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties for each day that he or she was paid late, until 12 payment was made, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

13 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO PAY MEAL AND REST PERIOD PREMIUMS AT THE PROPER

15 REGULAR RATE OF PAY

16 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 & 512, et seq.)

17 51. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
18 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

19 52. Plaintiffs believe and thereon allege that Labor Code §226.7 requires an 20 employer to pay an additional hour of compensation at the employee's regular rate of pay for 21 each meal period and rest period violation. During the class period, Plaintiffs are informed 22 and believe, and based thereon allege that Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 23 class members meal period and rest period premium pay at their regular rate of pay.
24 Defendants' improper meal and rest period practices and policies are in violation of California
25 law including, but not limited to Labor Code § § 226.7, 512, and the IWC Wage Orders.

26 53. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.7, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages in an amount 27 equal to one (1) hour of the employee's regular rate of pay per each meal and rest period 28 violation, in a sum to be proven at trial.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

3 (Violation of Labor Code § 226)

4 54. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
5 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

6 55. Labor Code §226(a) provides, in pertinent part:

7 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall 8 furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or 9 voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by 10 personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) 11 gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except as 12 provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any 13 applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 14 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 15 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6)
16 the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name
17 of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security
18 number or an employee identification number other than a social security 19 number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if 20 the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 21 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the 22 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 23 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 24 employee. . . .

25 56. During the Class Period, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to 26 provide the Class Members, including Plaintiff Rodriguez, with timely and accurate wage and 27 hour statements showing gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions made, net
28 wages earned, the name and address of the legal entity employing that Class Member, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by that Class Member.

57. The Class Members, including Plaintiffs, suffered injury as a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to provide the Class Members, with the wage and hour statements required by law.

58. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Defendants are liable for actual

1 damages, statutory damages and/or statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §
2 226, attorney's fees and costs and other applicable provisions of the Labor Code and 3 applicable Wage Order.

5 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

7 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512)

8 59. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
9 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

10 60. California Labor Code § 512 and IWC Wage Orders state that an employer 11 may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without 12 providing the employee a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, and an employer may not 13 employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the 14 employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Unless the employee is 15 relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 16 "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. California Labor Code § 226.7(a) further 17 states that no employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period
18 mandated by an applicable order of the IWC.

19 61. Employers are prohibited from exerting coercion against the taking of, creating 20 incentives to forego, or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.

21 62. Plaintiffs and members of the Class were not provided with or given the 22 opportunity to take the requisite meal periods before the end of the first 5 hours of work, nor 23 were they provided with or given the opportunity to take a proper second meal period during 24 the days when they worked more than 10 hours in a day. Defendants coerced Plaintiffs and 25 the members of the Class to forego meal periods by disciplining and/or threatening 26 disciplinary action against them if they attempted to take meal periods, created incentives to 27 forego meal breaks, and encouraged the skipping of meal periods by scheduling work to 28 coincide with the meal periods, among other things. In addition, Defendants placed unnecessarily tight timelines on Plaintiffs' work, forcing them to miss their meal periods in order to complete their jobs. As a result, Plaintiffs and members of the Class were required to work and/or were not relieved of all duties during any meal period taken, and thus were considered "on duty;" however, Defendants failed to count as time worked any "on duty" meal period taken by Plaintiffs and the members of the Class.

63. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7(c) and IWC Wage Orders, if an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that the meal period is not provided. As such, Plaintiffs and members of the Class are entitled to an additional one hour's pay for each day in which Plaintiffs and members of the Class were not provided a proper meal break under the above-described authorities.

64. Plaintiffs and the members of the Class request that the Court award interest on all unpaid wages at the legal rate specified by California Civil Code § 3289(b), accruing from the date the wages were due and payable pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE OR PERMIT REST PERIODS

(Violation of Labor Code § 226.7)

65. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

66. The applicable IWC Wage Orders state that every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four hours of work, or major fraction thereof. An employer must provide employees with 10 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.

67. Plaintiffs and Class Members were not permitted to take rest periods, were required to work during their rest periods, and/or were disciplined and/or were advised that

1 they would be disciplined if they took rest periods during work hours, in contravention of 2 California law. Moreover, based on Defendants' compensation plans, Plaintiffs were not
3 separately compensated for their rest periods as required under California law.

4 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7(c) and the applicable IWC Wage
5 Orders, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the 6 applicable IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 7 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

8 69. As such, Plaintiffs and the Class members are entitled to an additional one 9 hour's pay for each day in which they were not provided a proper rest period under the above-
10 described authorities.

11 70. Plaintiffs and the members of the Class request that the Court award interest on 12 all unpaid wages at the legal rate specified by California Civil Code § 3289(b), accruing from 13 the date the wages were due and payable pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6.

14 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES

16 (Violation of (Labor Code § 2802))

17 71. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the 18 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

19 72. California Labor Code § 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his 20 or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 21 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties."

22 73. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that at all 23 relevant times Plaintiffs and the class members incurred certain expenses for their jobs with 24 Defendants, including but not limited to using their personal cell phones for company
25 business, including responding to work calls and text messages on their personal cell phones.
26 Despite this, Defendants failed and refused to indemnify Plaintiffs and the class for all of their 27 expenditures in carrying out their duties for Defendants.

1 74. As a result of Defendants' failure to indemnify Plaintiff and the class members, 2 they have suffered losses according to proof, including prejudgment interest, costs, and 3 attorneys' fees in prosecuting this case.

4 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
5 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
6 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699)

7 75. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the
8 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

9 76. On or about March 21, 2024, Plaintiff Rodriguez provided written notice to the 10 Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and Defendants of the specific 11 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 12 support the alleged violations.

13 77. The LWDA failed to respond to Plaintiffs' counsel's correspondence and failed
14 to notify Plaintiffs' counsel as to whether it would investigate the allegations contained
15 therein, within the time period requirements of the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA),
16 under Labor Code §2699.3. Plaintiffs have fully complied with the notice requirements set
17 forth in Labor Code §2699.3 in order to commence a civil action against an employer
18 pursuant to Labor Code §2699.

19 78. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs for all hours worked, minimum wages,
20 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest 21 periods, failure to pay all wages upon termination or resignation, and failure to provide 22 accurate itemized wage statements, and failure to reimburse expenses, will subject Defendants
23 to civil penalties pursuant to, without limitation, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 510,
24 512, 551, 552, 1174, 1194, 1198, 2802 and IWC Wage Orders.

25 79. Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees as defined in Labor Code §§2699(a) and 26 (c), and related Labor Code provisions. Plaintiffs bring this cause of action on behalf of 27 themselves, as private attorneys general, and in a representative capacity on behalf of other 28 aggrieved employees, affected by the labor law violations alleged herein.

1 80. Defendants committed numerous violations of the California Labor Code and 2 IWC Wage Orders against the Plaintiffs, and on information and belief, against members of 3 the Class and other current and former employees while they were employed by Defendants, 4 including but not limited to:

5 a. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 1194 and/or IWC Wage Orders
6 by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other
7 current and former employees of Defendants, all minimum, straight time and overtime wages
8 owed in compliance with California law;

9 b. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 1194, 1197 and/or IWC Wage
10 Orders by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class by failing to pay for a missed 11 meal or rest period at the regular rate of pay;

12 c. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 13 failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other 14 current and former employees of Defendants, all minimum wages owed in compliance with 15 California law;

16 d. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1194, 204, 510, 511 and/or IWC Wage 17 Orders by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and 18 belief, other current and former employees of Defendants, all wages owed in a timely manner
19 in compliance with California law;

20 e. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and /or IWC Wage Orders by 21 failing to provide Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other
22 current and former employees of Defendants, the opportunity to take the requisite meal
23 periods in compliance with California law;

24 f. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 25 failing to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information
26 and belief, other current and former employees of Defendants, the opportunity to take the 27 requisite rest periods in compliance with California law;

28 g. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and/or IWC Wage Orders by failing to properly maintain accurate employment time and records, maintain and/or submit accurate itemized wage statements on behalf of Plaintiffs, members of the Class, and on

1 information and belief, on behalf of other current and former employees of Defendants as 2 described herein; and

3 h. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 4 failing to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and on information and belief, other current and former 5 employees of Defendants as described herein; and

6 i. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiffs and 7 members of the Class and on information and belief, other current and former employees of 8 Defendants as described herein.

9 81. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiffs, members of the Class, and all other 10 aggrieved current and former employees seek to recover civil penalties, as otherwise provided
11 by statute and wage order, for which Defendants are liable as a result of their violations of the 12 California Labor Code and applicable wage order(s) in an amount to be proven at trial. These 13 penalties include, but are not limited to, those provided by Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204,
14 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 2699, 2802 and IWC Wage 15 Orders. Plaintiffs and aggrieved current and former employees further seek and award of 16 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 and 2699.
