DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff MILTON RAMON SANTA CRUZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Orange. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Orange. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Orange.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff MILTON RAMON SANTA CRUZ is an individual.

6. Defendant TECTONIC TRANSPORT, at all times herein mentioned, is and was, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Orange.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant TECTONIC TRANSPORT was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable laws and statutes.

1 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1
2 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
3 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each
4 of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their
5 authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
6 employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein
7 were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement,
8 authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

9 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 10 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
11 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 12 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
13 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 14 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
15 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 16 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

17 10. Defendants TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter
18 collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

19 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 20 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 21 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and 22 employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24 12. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members
25 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 26 Procedure section 382.

27 ///

28 ///

1 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

2 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
3 within the State of California at any time during the period from April 21, 2019
4 through April 12, 2024 or the date when the number of workweeks estimated at 5 21,157 increases by 10%, whichever date is earlier.

6 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

7 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 8 the litigation:

9 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
10 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 11 unknown to Plaintiff at this time. However, the class is estimated to be 12 greater than five hundred (500) individuals and the identity of such 13 membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
14 employment records.

15 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
16 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately
17 protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-
18 defined community of interest.

19 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 20 each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of 21 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no
22 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's 23 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 24 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 25 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, 26 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 27 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 28 each class member.

1 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 2 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
3 of all class members is impractical.

4 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
5 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
6 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
7 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
8 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 9 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 10 their rights.

11 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 12 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 13 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

14 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 15 reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;

16 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
17 employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed
18 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of the law;

19 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to 20 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
21 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
22 and the other class members;

23 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 24 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay
25 and sick leave pay;

26 e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of 27 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class
28 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

- 1 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 2 other class members for all hours worked;
- 3 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 4 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 5 resignation;
- 6 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 7 the other class members during their employment;
- 8 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 9 Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 10 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 11 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 12 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 13 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 14 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 15 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 16 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of the law; and
- 17 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 18 compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

19 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

20 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff
21 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

22 18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-
23 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Orange.

24 19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
25 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'
26 employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

27 ///

28 ///

1 20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of
2 Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff
3 and the other class members.

4 21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other
5 class members.

6 22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 7 State of California.

8 23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
9 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

10 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or 12 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing 13 to pay them for all hours worked, sick leave, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in 14 violation of the law.

15 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 18 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

19 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
21 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
22 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

1 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's
4 and the other class members' regular rates of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 5 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
6 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay when a meal
7 period was missed.

8 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
10 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's 11 and the other class members' regular rates of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 12 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 13 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rates of pay when a rest period was 14 missed.

15 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 18 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

19 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
22 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
23 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

1 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with the law, but, in fact, Plaintiff and 4 the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 5 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 6 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

7 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 9 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

10 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
12 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with the law, but, in fact, did not keep 13 complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

14 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
16 members pursuant to the law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 17 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
18 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
19 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

20 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
21 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and the 22 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)
23 hours per week without overtime compensation.

24 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
25 calculate and pay sick leave to Plaintiff and the other class members.

26 37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide the 27 requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class
28 members.

38. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

39. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

40. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

41. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses.

42. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

43. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to the law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

44. Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 44, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

46. Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

1 47. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 2 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who
3 work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 4 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more
5 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

6 48. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were
7 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two
8 times their regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

9 49. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-
10 one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or 11 forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, 12 and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of 13 twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

14 50. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
15 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a
16 week.

17 51. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 18 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

19 52. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
20 balance of overtime compensation, as required by the laws, violates the provisions of Labor
21 Code sections 510 and 1198 and is unlawful.

22 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are 23 entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys'
24 fees.

1 59. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
2 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and
3 who did not waive their legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to
4 work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less
5 than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

6 60. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
7 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than twelve (12) hours,
8 and who did not waive their legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required
9 to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less
10 than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

11 61. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
12 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were
13 required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of 14 not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

15 62. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
16 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of twelve (12) hours were 17 required to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of 18 not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

19 63. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 20 willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed
21 to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work
22 performed during meal periods.

23 64. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
24 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to Labor
25 Code section 226.7.

26 65. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and Labor Code
27 sections 226.7 and 512(a).

28 ///

66. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular rates of compensation for each workday that the meal or rest period is not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

67. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 66, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

68. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

69. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the IWC Wage Orders.

70. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

71. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

72. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

73. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7.

74. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code section 226.7.

75. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular rates of compensation for each workday that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197)

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 75, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

77. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed, is unlawful.

78. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197.

79. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum wage as required violates Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to those sections, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

80. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

81. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 80, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

82. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

83. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

84. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

85. Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

86. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to the thirty (30) day maximum as provided by Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 86, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

88. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing: (a) gross wages earned; (b) total hours worked by the employee; (c) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (d) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item; (e) net wages earned; (f) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (g) the name of the employee and his or her Social Security number; (j) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (i) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

89. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include but are not limited to, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

90. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

91. Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a).

92. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

93. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code section 226(g).

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

94. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 93, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

95. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 provide that an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

96. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

97. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Collection of Due and Unpaid Wages per Labor Code § 229)

3 (Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

4 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
5 through 97, and each and every part thereof, with the same force and effect as though fully set
6 forth herein.

7 Failure to Pay Minimum Wage

8 99. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code sections 1194, 1197,
9 and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser 10 wage than the minimum so fixed, is unlawful.

11 100. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
12 minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to Labor Code
13 sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

14 101. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum 15 wage as required violates Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those 16 sections, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their
17 minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated
18 damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

19 Failure to Pay Overtime

20 102. Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 21 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half 22 or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the 23 person on a daily or weekly basis.

24 103. The applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required
25 to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than 26 eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-
27 half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a 28 workweek.

1 104. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were
2 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two
3 times their regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

4 105. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-
5 one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or
6 forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and
7 to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve
8 (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

9 106. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
10 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a
11 week.

12 107. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and
13 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members as required
14 by the law.

15 108. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
16 balance of overtime compensation, as required by the laws, violates the provisions of Labor
17 Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

18 109. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are 19 entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

20 Failure to Pay Meal Premiums

21 110. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code section 226.7
22 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period
23 mandated by an applicable order of the IWC Wage Orders.

24 111. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order
25 and Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an 26 employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the 27 employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work
28 period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by

1 mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

2 112. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order
3 and Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause, or 4 permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without
5 providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30)
6 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal
7 period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal
8 period was not waived.

9 113. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
10 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who 11 did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for 12 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 13 (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

14 114. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
15 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than twelve (12) hours, and
16 who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to 17 work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 18 thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

19 115. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
20 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were
21 required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of 22 not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

23 116. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
24 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of twelve (12) hours were
25 required to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of 26 not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

27 ///

28 ///

117. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

118. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7.

119. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

120. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period was not provided.

Failure to Pay Rest Premiums

121. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the IWC Wage Orders.

122. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

123. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

124. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

125. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7.

126. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code section 226.7.

127. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period was not provided.

128. Plaintiff and the other class members seek these due and unpaid wages pursuant to Labor Code section 229, which includes minimum wage, overtime wages and premium wages.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

(Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT, and DOES 1 through 100)

129. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 128, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

130. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for a violation of the Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

1 131. On March 14, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA of the specific
2 provisions of the Labor Code he contend were violated, and the theories supporting his
3 contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written
4 notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about May 20, 2024, the sixty-five (65) day
5 notice period will expire, and the LWDA will not take any action to investigate or prosecute this 6 matter. Plaintiff will have exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

7 132. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved
8 employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current and former
9 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time
10 during the period from March 14, 2023 through April 12, 2024 or the date when the number of 11 workweeks estimated at 21,157 increases by 10%, whichever date is earlier, and one or more of 12 the alleged violations was committed against them.

13 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

14 133. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
15 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours 16 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 17 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

18 134. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other
19 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 20 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

21 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

22 135. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
23 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
24 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further
25 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5)
26 hours worked.

27 ///

28 ///

1 136. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
2 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks and 3 failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

4 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

5 137. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
6 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

7 138. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
8 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time
9 period.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

11 139. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
12 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections 201
13 to 204.

14 140. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
15 failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to 16 Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor
17 Code section 203.

18 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

19 141. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
20 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226, 1174, 21 and 1776.

22 142. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 23 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
24 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
25 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 26 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 27 hours worked at each hourly rate.

28 ///

1 Failure to Provide Paid Sick Days

2 143. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide their employees
3 with paid sick days pursuant to Labor Code section 246.

4 144. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other
5 aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick days pursuant to Labor Code section 246.

6 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

7 145. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees
8 for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
9 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code
10 sections 2800 and 2802.

11 146. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other
12 aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them
13 within the required time period.

14 Penalties

15 147. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the 16 other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 17 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but 18 not limited to:

- 19 a. Penalties under Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars
20 ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation,
21 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period
22 for each subsequent violation;
- 23 b. Penalties under Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of 24 fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 25 violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per 26 pay period for each subsequent violation;

27 ///

28 ///

- 1 c. Penalties under Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely
2 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the Labor Code in 3 the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay
4 period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each
5 aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 6 d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred 7 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 8 violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee 9 per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 10 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other 11 statutes; and
- 12 f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, and 13 2699, and any other applicable statute.

14 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.)

16 (Against TECTONIC TRANSPORT and DOES 1 through 100)

17 148. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
18 through 147, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
19 forth herein.

20 149. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be unfair,
21 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, the general public, and Defendants'
22 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public
23 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

24 150. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of the law, and constitute 25 unlawful business acts and practices in violation of Business & Professions Code section 26 17200, et seq.

27 ///

28 ///

1 151. A violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be
2 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policy
3 and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the other class members to work overtime hours without
4 paying them proper compensation violates Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Defendants'
5 policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the other class members to work through their
6 meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violates Labor Code sections
7 226.7 and 512(a). Defendants' policy and practice of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff
8 and the other class members violates Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Defendants also 9 violated Labor Code sections 226(a), 1194, 1197, 2800, and 2802.

10 152. As a result of the herein described violations of the law, Defendants unlawfully
11 gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

12 153. Plaintiff and the other class members have been personally injured by 13 Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not 14 necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

15 154. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 16 the other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 17 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an 18 award of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other
19 applicable laws; and an award of costs.

20 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

21 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly 22 situated, requests a trial by jury.

23 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

24 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general
25 public similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and 26 severally, as follows:

27 Class Certification

28 1. That this action be certified as a class action;

- 1 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as representative of the Class;
- 2 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and
- 3 4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most
- 4 current contact information (address, e-mail, and telephone numbers) of all class members.

5 As to the First Cause of Action

6 5. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor

7 Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all

8 overtime wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members;

9 6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special

10 damages as may be appropriate;

11 7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing

12 from the date such amounts were due;

13 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to

14 Labor Code section 1194; and

15 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

16 As to the Second Cause of Action

17 10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor

18 Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide

19 all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the other class members;

20 11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one

21 (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal

22 period was not provided;

23 12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to

24 proof;

25 13. For premium wages pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7(b);

26 14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts

27 were due;

28

1 15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

2 16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

3 As to the Third Cause of Action

4 17. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor
5 Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest
6 periods to Plaintiff and the other class members;

7 18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one
8 (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest
9 period was not provided;

10 19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to
11 proof;

12 20. For premium wages pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7(b);

13 21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts
14 were due; and

15 22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

16 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

17 23. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor
18 Code sections 1194 and 1197 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 19 other class members;

20 24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be 21 appropriate;

22 25. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such 23 amounts were due;

24 26. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 25 Labor Code section 1194(a);

26 27. For liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code section 1194.2; and

27 28. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

28 ///

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

29. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and the other class members no longer employed by Defendants;

30. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203 for the other class members who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

33. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

34. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and the other class members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

35. For actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

36. For statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e);

37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code section 226(g); and

38. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

39. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses as required by Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802;

1 40. For actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to
2 proof;

3 41. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;

4 42. For punitive damages and/or exemplary damages according to proof at trial;

5 43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

6 44. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

7 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

8 45. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor
9 Code sections 226.7, 510, 1194, and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully
10 failing to pay all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the other class members;

11 46. For general unpaid wages at minimum wage rates or overtime wage rates, and 12 such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

13 47. For premium wages pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7(b);

14 48. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing
15 from the date such amounts were due;

16 49. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 17 Labor Code sections 218.5 and 1194; and

18 50. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

19 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

20 51. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor
21 Code sections 2689, et seq., the PAGA, for civil penalties pursuant to Defendants' violations
22 of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510,
23 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802;

24 52. Upon the Cause of Action, for costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code
25 Sections 210, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute; and

26 53. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Re: Tectonic Transport

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Milton Ramon Santa Cruz against Tectonic Transport (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (collectively referred to as "TECTONIC TRANSPORT").

Mr. Santa Cruz is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Santa Cruz may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

TECTONIC TRANSPORT is a California corporation headquartered at 515 East Dyer Road, Santa Ana, California, 92707.

TECTONIC TRANSPORT employed Mr. Santa Cruz as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Delivery Driver until in or around October 2020 in the State of California. TECTONIC TRANSPORT directly controlled the wages, hours, and/or working conditions of Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Santa Cruz may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of TECTONIC TRANSPORT within the State of California.

TECTONIC TRANSPORT failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum wages and overtime wages and for noncompliant meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745, 751, an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Santa Cruz has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at TECTONIC TRANSPORT, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

TECTONIC TRANSPORT has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than 8 hours in one day and/or over 40 hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. TECTONIC TRANSPORT expected Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees to don and doff their work attire before clocking in and after clocking out respectively. TECTONIC TRANSPORT also discouraged Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees from recording overtime hours and attempted to downplay the amount of overtime wages paid. As a result, TECTONIC TRANSPORT prohibited Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees from recording overtime hours and expected them to continue making their deliveries off-the-clock if they did not complete their deliveries during their scheduled shifts. Finally, TECTONIC TRANSPORT would pay Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees non-discretionary bonuses but did not factor these bonuses into their regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Thus, Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for minimum and overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than 1 hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT failed to pay Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246. This included failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. Instead, TECTONIC TRANSPORT only paid sick leave at Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees' hourly rate of pay.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee 1 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT frequently prevented employees from receiving compliant meal and rest breaks. TECTONIC TRANSPORT expected Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees to regularly skip, cut short, and/or take late meal and rest breaks to prioritize completing their heavy delivery quotas. Even when Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees attempted to take their meal and rest breaks, TECTONIC TRANSPORT permitted managers and supervisors to interrupt their breaks and order them to resume making deliveries. TECTONIC TRANSPORT also did not authorize and permit Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees to take additional meal and rest breaks despite working the requisite hours. In fact, Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees even felt pressured to clock out for full and timely meal breaks and continue making their deliveries to avoid causing problems with payroll. Finally, despite these facts, TECTONIC TRANSPORT failed to compensate Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees for all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced. But the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT failed to pay Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees all wages, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 through 203. Therefore, TECTONIC TRANSPORT is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. In addition, California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT failed to pay Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including as a result of uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid sick leave, unpaid overtime wages, and unpaid premium wages owed for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks owed within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT did not provide Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees received from TECTONIC TRANSPORT were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include: (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees; (2) total hours worked by Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees; (3) all deductions for Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees; (4) net wages earned by Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees; and (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the IWC Wage Order shall be subject to a civil penalty. The civil penalty is as follows: (1) for any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; (2) for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages; and (3) wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than 3 years.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

During the relevant time period, TECTONIC TRANSPORT did not provide Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite having constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre-shift and post-shift work and work performed during meal and rest breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

During the relevant time period, Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees incurred various necessary business-related expenses that were not fully reimbursed by TECTONIC TRANSPORT. This included Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees being required to use their personal cell phones to access the work app and to make and receive calls. Moreover, TECTONIC TRANSPORT required Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees to purchase steel-toed boots to effectively perform their duties. Despite this, TECTONIC TRANSPORT did not have a policy or practice of reimbursing Mr. Santa Cruz and other aggrieved employees for such business-related expenses.

We believe that Mr. Santa Cruz and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 229, 246(l), 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant must send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Santa Cruz will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of TECTONIC TRANSPORT within 1 year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
